Added to this formidable task, the man who Winona's heavyweight beat out came from Oswego, another of State's opponents.

Albany will go into matches like this trailing by five before the first bowling leagues as of January

The Peds were shut out for the second time this season by Winona which gained six pins, a forfeit, and a decision to give State a real tast of midwestern wrestling.

Dave Pause was the lone Ped no to be pinned as he held his 137 pound advisary to a decision with some brilliant wrestling.

The varsity lineup for the C. W Post match will go something like this: Dan Huff in 123, Jay Katzel at 130, Pause at 137, Loun Biolsi at 147, Dick O'Conner at 157, Ken Jewett at 167, and Tom Ellis at Heavy.

All of these boys have been work- Te ing hard and deserve your support at Saturday's match. This will be no team that will walk off with honors for it is a rebuilding team; but still can jell to give the kind of performance that is worthy of State fans Frosh Prospects
