According to Abraham Trop '49, President of Kappa Beta, the fraternity has leased a house at 288 Quail Street.

The duplex house will accommodate about 13 men, and plans have been made to occupy the house November 15. It contains five bedrooms, a living room, kitchen, and breakfast nook.

Dr. Ellen Stokes, Dean of Women, has announced that the quota of freshman girls accepted into the sororities during first semester has been raised to 20 girls. The second semester quota of 5 girls remains the same. This increase of 5 invitations per sorority is due primarily to the large number of girls in the Everybody's on my neck asking "where this boy gets his nerve" writing about taking it easy on the parties. This calls for an explanation. It seems that the proof reader at the printer's didn't think I could He knocked off the "im" on the word. I could never have been in a position to say otherwise; because I like a "good time" as well as the next guy.

Now, this is the point: We were careless; we made too much of a good thing. Be sure you don't overimbibe. Know when to stop,, so that you don't make a fool of yourself before outsiders.

AND, while we're at it, I'd like to make it clear that the article was not referring to the Sophomore class only. Ever since I wrote that little letter concerning warnings (which I meant in all sincerity), you Sophs seem to think that I'm out for your skins. I'm not. I'd have nothing to gain in so doing. The article was directed to every class. We should all get the lowdown; that's why I used the word "We". I included myself, who am as much to blame as everyone else. So let's make up; shake and be friends. SUCCESSFUL COMEBACK

Juniors Elect; Two Vacancies Filled on Council

Two representatives to Student Council from the class of '50 were elected last Friday to fill the vacancies which have occurred this fall.

Earline Thompson was elected on the second distribution and Ruth Matteson was elected on elimination by a very close margin over James Cafaro on an elimination of the second distribution.

The vacancies occurred as a result of the election of William Lyons as Vice-President of Student Association and the resignation of Anthony Prochilo from the office.
