MILNE LOSES GAME TO RENSSELAER 34-37 LOCKE MAKES 12 POINTS

by Donald Eumlers
The Milne Rensselaer game proved to be one of those unexpected thrillers. The Page Hall quintet fought an up hill battle through out the game, although trailing by a few points all the way through. Milne's second half attack was the sparkling affair of the evening. Locke paced the squad with twelve points while Clark followed closely with eleven points.

The ball moved fast all through the game. The team showed decided improvement over last week's encounter with the Green Islanders. Milne worked their offense with more aggressiveness than previously, but faulty guarding at the close of the final quarter sent Milne's hopes crashing. The final score was 34-37 in favor of the invaders.

The Milne J.V. won a hard fought contest by four points. Game featured the attack with twelve points and some brilliant shooting. This is the second win out of three starts for the Junior Varsity. The final was Milne 25-Rensselaer 15.

BOYS SCHOOLS PRESENT CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY IN PAGE AUDITORIUM

The Senior and Junior High Schools of Milne took part in the annual Christmas assembly yesterday at 1:30 P.M. in the Page Hall Auditorium.

Edward Langwig, Senior High Student Council president presided over the assembly and announced the program.

The entertainment consisted of a Christmas play which was presented by some of the members of the junior class. Those who participated in the play are as follows:

- Gerald Brunkett
- Samford Golden
- John Eovonor
- Robert Kohn
- Blanche Packer

Miss Ratteray acted as director for the play.

According to the Milne tradition, each home room has selected a poor family for whom they have prepared a Christmas basket of food, clothing, and toys. These eighteen baskets which will be distributed by a social welfare committee, were all up on the stage during the Christmas assembly program.

RED RAIDERS TO MEET DELMAR FIVE TONIGHT ON BETHLEHEM COURT

STRONG TEAM OF D.C.H.S. PROMISES GOOD GAME

The Milne squad will travel to Delmar tonight to engage the strong Bethlehem Central five.

To date Milne has won one game out of three, but in the two games lost Milne was beaten by only one and three points respectively. Delmar has also dropped two out of three decisions, and both teams lost to Rensselaer by three points; so in view of past rivalry this game should prove to be fast and exciting.

The probable starting line up for the varsity is Captain Charles Locke, Robert Clarke, John Dyer, Kirk Leaning, and John Jansing.

The line up for the J.V. team will probably be: Harold Gano, Albert Ely, Walter Griggs, George Edick, and Fred Detwiller.

Tomorrow night the entire Milne squad will invade Greenville for their second game in two nights. This will be the first basketball game on record between the two teams.

QUIN AND SIGMA GIVE INVITATIONS TO SOPHES

The Quintillian and Zeta Sigma Literary societies gave out their invitations to join the societies to the chosen sophomores last Wednesday.

To The Editor — —

To The Editor, Crimson and White:

Wouldn't it be much nicer if Milne had more musical programs? I'm sure everyone enjoyed the recent Pep assembly program we had because there was music worked into it.

We have a very fine orchestra and we realize that they work hard under Dr. Moose's excellent direction. They put much time into their practice and the results show it. However, we should have more occasion to hear our really "musical geni."

While I think that the orchestra is capable of providing us with grand entertainment, it would be well if the Four Men of State, that excellent quartet which received such a tremendous ovation at the last assembly, would sing for us again. I'm sure everyone will agree that they were a tremendous success and I think it would be a fine idea to have our band play more and possibly get the singers to alternate with them.

IT'S THE LITTLE THINGS

Several small items have come to our attention in the last few weeks. Some of them are good, and others are bad.

Those that are commendable are:

1. Good turnouts at basketball games, which we hope will remain as they are.
2. A long Christmas vacation.
3. The increased school spirit in Milne, shown in part by the support at basketball games and the recent pep assembly.
4. Large Christmas baskets as usual, for poor families.

Those items that need improvement:

1. Lack of responsibility on the part of students, toward school rules.
2. Lack of respect for basketball players shooting fouls. Spectators at this time should remain silent.

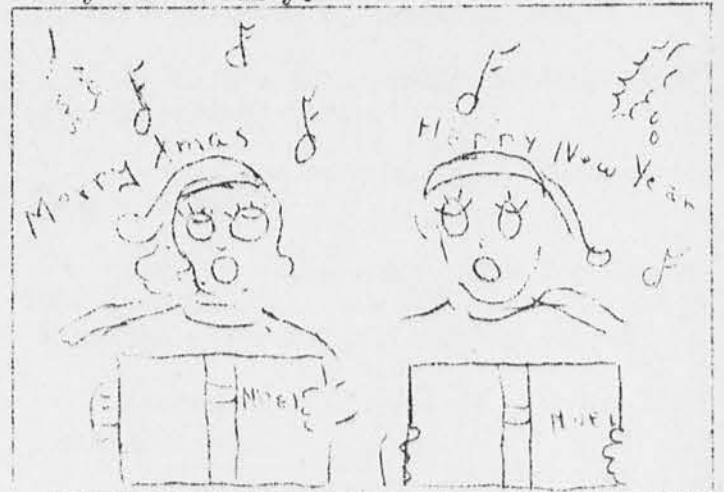

This famous little rhyme illustrates the fact that it is the little things that count:

Little drops of water
 Little grains of sand
 Make the mighty ocean,
 And the mighty land.

Surely if our school is to become high in character and morale, these seemingly little things should be remembered.

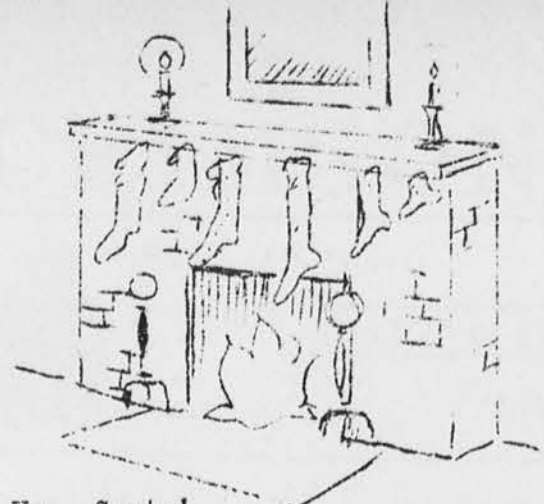

Merry Christmas!

The Board of the Crimson and White extends sincere good wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a happy, successful New Year to every member of the Student Body and Faculty.

Editor's note: We agree with Miss Gallup, and sincerely hope that we hear the Men of State and the Milne Orchestra in the very near future.

Hoy, Santa!

And what is Santa Claus going to bring you? Have you been a good little boy or girl this year? Don't expect to find that rubber doll in your stocking unless you have.

Mr. Claus is going to receive quite a few letters from young hopefuls from Milne next week. A few requests we found out ahead of time.

Don DeKure is asking for handcuffs,to keep Bette in hand.

Art Phinney wants the same thing for Jessie.

Leah Einstein wants Santa to invent a new machine (he's been working on it since last Christmas.) It's called a "Getter-upper-in-the-morning." It's really good.....it pulls you out of bed at 5 minutes of 9, throws your clothes at you by 4 minutes of 9, serves your breakfast at 3 minutes of, and gets you to school at one minute of,.....then the last minute, you can be free and do what you want to.

Valley Paradis wants that new book, "How to Undertake Algebra Before It Takes You Under."

Duncan Crook won't have any faith left in Santa, if he doesn't bring him that REAL Lone Ranger gun this year.

Dave Conlin would like a car..... just any old thing to get him across the street, so he can get to school on time.

Alan Ely wouldn't mind getting some of Dr. Bigs "guaranteed to grow in two seconds" emulsion.

Joan Hunting wants a giant telescope....one that will allow a quick look all the way down south.

Chuck Locke wants a special basketball with a direction finder attached. It will automatically jump into the basket when he touches it. We don't see why you need it, Chuck.

Ethel Baldwin wants to get at least 100% in all her mid-yea. It must be wonderful to be ambitious.

The rest of you had better hurry up and write your letters. or Santa Claus won't get them on time. Here's hoping you get what you want.....!!

Do You Remember When.....

The Senior High had a barn dance and Norman Andrews led the square dancing?

We went to Wagers and only Wagers after every affair, large or small?

We received a talk on "Souvenirs" from Professor Sayles?

And do you remember why we received such a talk?

Beverly Kemp sang "You Too Can Be The Life Of The Party?" And then her farewell party before leaving Albany?

Marcia Schifferdecker wore long curls?

Bob Taft was our "star" on the basketball court?

Leah Einstein danced and sang to "I'm Back In Town" at the first junior high party six years ago?

Ed Meghreblian couldn't lindy? Well, he can now.
