NECC NOTES:

(MEN) Tom Mason scored two goals, including the game-winner at 46:37, against Massachusetts-Lowell ... Mason also had a two-goal effort against Binghamton earlier this year ... Albany's five goals were the most since a seven-goal output against Lehman College in the 1995 Elmira College Invitational ... Jomo Forrester increased his career numbers to 18 goals and 11 assists ... Kevin Koscielniak, who missed five matches with a rib injury, netted UA's first goal on Saturday ...

(WOMEN) The Great Danes snapped a five-match losing streak with a 2-0 victory over LeMoyne ... Michelle Brogan's goal also ended a scoreless streak of three straight contests ... Albany also enjoyed its first NECC victory of the year in Saturday's 3-1 OT decision at Massachusetts-Lowell ... Sophomore Kristen Mulhern scored her first collegiate goal to break the tie with one minutes and 22 seconds elapsed in the extra period ...

Comments: NOTES

Men's Soccer: Albany was seventh among the Northeast Region top teams last week, but will most likely fall from the rankings. The Great Danes lost to New Hampshire College, ranked fifth nationally, and Dowling, the No. 13 team in the latest NSCAA Division II poll. Kevin Koscielniak returned from a rib injury, after missing five games since the season opener. Goalkeeper Mike Cooper (dislocated shoulder) and defender Marc Rosamilia (knee) are out indefinitely.

Women's Soccer: The Great Danes have dropped five straight, and were outscored 12-0 in three matches last week.

NEW ENGLAND COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE TEAM NOTES

Men's and Women's Soccer

ALBANY

Senior midfielder Jomo Forrester and sophomore defender Russell DiBenedetto were chosen to the all-tournament team at C.W. Post's Long Island Classic... In women's soccer Brett Wolfson (2 goals, 1 assist), junior midfielder Irene Elia (game-winner in OT vs. Castleton State) and Chris Tokarz were named to the all-tournament team at the St. Michael's/Hampton Inn Kickoff Classic.

BRIDGEPORT

Home season-doubleheader opener vs. Franklin Pierce on September 14 @ 11:00 a.m. and 1 p.m.

FRANKLIN PIERCE

The Lady Ravens lost their first match (3-2) in 40 games to Lynn University at the Umbro-Days Inn Classic at Franklin Pierce College. The Lady Ravens are the two-time defending champions. The FPC women crushed Ashland 6-0 in the tourney opener. The FPC men are currently 2-1. The men lost a heartbreaker to national power Tampa 2-1 on 9/6. Top scorer Seamus Donnelly did not play in the Tampa game because he received a red-card in the 1-0 victory against St. Leo on 9/2

KEENE STATE

The Lady Owls currently 3-0 are coming off two shut-out victories against assumption (5-0) and Eastern Connecticut (2-0). Senior Sharon Currie leads the team with four goals and one assist. Netminder Kristen Daly has two shutouts with a 0.64 GAA. The men are currently 1-0, defeating Rowan College 2-1. Newcomer Charlie Martin scored both goals for the Owls. KSC's game vs. Montclair State was suspended due to playing conditions.

UMASS LOWELL

Michael Cancado, a junior forward recorded his first collegiate hat trick in 3-2 victory over Merrimack, scoring all three goals in the second half, including game-winner with 23 minutes remaining. UML's win over Merrimack was the first since 1986. Cancado has nearly equalled his goal total of the season (4) with his hat trick against Merrimack. The UML women lost (0-2) a tough non-league contest to Bentley College to open the season.

NEW HAMPSHIRE COLLEGE

The Penmen are currently 2-0 on the season. Junior midfielder Dean Sewell totaled 14 points in NHC's first two games. Sewell netted all five (5-0) goals against Ashland and added a goal and two assist in a 5-1 victory over St. Anselm. NHC is currently ranked #2 in the Northeast Regional Poll as of Sept. 9th... The NHC Penwomen are currently 1-0-1 on the season. Freshman Hanna Stjernerg and senior veteran Heather Swabowicz lead the team with four points a piece.

NEW ENGLAND COLLEGIATE CONFERENCE TEAM NOTES

NEW HAVEN

The Chargers men are currently 2-1 on the season and ranked #8 in the Northeast Regional Poll. UNH is lead by junior midfielder Joe Oakes. The Wallingford, Conn., native has scored five goals in two games... The regionally ranked Charger women are currently 2-0 on the season. NECC Player of the Week, Christine Huber led UNH with four goals in four games. Alycia Kowal also has two goals for the Chargers. The women play Bentley College on Wednesday at 7 p.m., and open the NECC season at Keene State on Saturday, September 14th. Game time is Noon. The men will play KSC at 2 p.m.

SACRED HEART

The women are currently 0-2 with losses against Stonehill (2-4) and Merrimack (1-6). Kristen Ferguson, Amy Macauley and Cathy Collins lead the team with two points. Comments: SOCCER/VOLLEYBALL NOTES

Men's Soccer: Senior midfielder Jomo Forrester scored with three minutes and 42 seconds left in overtime in Sunday's 2-1 victory at Sacred Heart ... Forrester has 16 career goals and nine assists ... the Great Danes are 5-1-2 in their last eight conference matches dating back to last October ... freshman goalkeeper Dean deFreitas has been pushed into a starting role after Mike Cooper was injured in Thursday's match with Binghamton ... Cooper is out indefinitely with a dislocated shoulder ...

Women's Soccer: Freshman Brett Wolfson missed a non-conference match with American International due to a strep throat, but came back to score one goal in Sunday's 3-2 loss to Sacred Heart ... Michelle Brogan scored her first goal since the 1994 season ... Brogan missed all but two matches in 1995 ...

Women's Volleyball: Junior outside hitter Rafaela Nikas helped the Great Danes open with two victories against St. Rose and C.W. Post ... Nikas, a second-team all-NECC choice last year, combined for 20 kills, 32 digs and three blocks ... Sophomore Christine Lee also combined for 20 kills and recorded a .405 hitting percentage in 37 attempts ...
