

Third Showing Of French Movie Primer Members In U. S. Comes To Colonial Theatre To Vote Today

"Les Enfants du Paradis," viewed in an advance showing this week at the Colonial theatre, proved to be a refreshing departure from the usual fare offered to American moviegoers. The story revolves around Baptiste, a mime, and his love for the beautiful Garance. The two meet during the Mardi-Gras celebration in Paris, in the reign of Louis-Philippe, and Baptiste obtains a job for the girl at the theatre where he works. They become stars, in the pantomime dramas there, but Garance soon leaves Paris with a nobleman to whom she is indebted. After a five-year lapse, the narration is picked up again and brought to a conclusion. Highpoints of the picture were scenes in the Funambules theatre where Baptiste, played by Jean-Louis Barrault, stars in the pageants he has written. The French actor, in his exaggerated clown suit and flour-colored makeup, is an untrange of emotions without the aid of words.

Nelson Shows State Movie

"Tomorrow's Teachers," a movie depicting life at State College, was recently shown at the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York City by Milton G. Nelson, Dean of the College, at the annual Metropolitan District Luncheon of the Alumni Association. The movie was taken in 1943-44 by Dr. Floyd Hendrickson, Assistant Professor of Education. Tentative plans have been made for booking the picture early in the fall.

MOVING-UP WEEK-END OPENS TOMORROW; STATESMEN FORMAL TO CLIMAX ACTIVITIES

The Statesmen will hold their annual Moving-Up Day Semi-Formal dance in the Gym and Commons Saturday evening from 9 P. M. to 2 A. M., according to Harold Weber, general chairman. Gus Metro and his orchestra will furnish music for dancing in the Gym while the State Stars will play in the Commons.

Romance is to provide the theme for the Gym, where a combination of soft lights and pastel colors will be employed, together with a variety of spring flowers. The Commons decoration scheme is centered around the traditional May-Pole with its colored streamers.

Lounge To Be Open
The Lounge will be open for relaxation and informal chatting for those who may not care to dance all evening long. Vases of flowers will be placed throughout the Lounge, made informal by dimmed lights.

Tickets for the dance, which is open to the entire college, are on sale at $2.40 per couple, and may be purchased at the table on the balcony of the Commons through tomorrow at 3:30.

Faculty to Act as Chaperones
The following faculty members will act as chaperones for the evening: Dr. Floyd Hendrickson, Assistant Professor of Education, and Mrs. Hendrickson; Mr. Arthur P. Jones, Instructor in Physics, and Mrs. Jones; Dr. Theodore P. Standing, Professor of Sociology, and Mrs. Standing; and Mrs. Kenneth Timmerman, Instructor in Chemistry, and Mr. Timmerman.

State Maidens Visit T.oy; Contribute Talents To RPI

State stars again... this time in the streets of Troy, under the banner of RPI. Four State College maidens, Helen Kissel, Lorna Kunz, Gloria Enea, and Marie Grieco, mounted the float of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity before the dance at RPI Friday night, displaying their charms to the friendly citizens of the shirt and collar city. According to all reports, what the girls didn't see of Troy wasn't worth seeing... and they certainly had an advantageous viewpoint.

The float dealt with a subject... especially State College... that of zeros. Half of the bandwagon depicted the joy of knocking down zeros during war. The other half pertained to a more intriguing saga... how to knock them down at college, with the help of a wife and children. This, it is understood, is the section of the float to which the fair representatives of State donated their talents.

Sophs, Freshmen To Present Skits

The Sophomore and freshmen classes will present their Moving-Up Day skits tomorrow night at 7:30. Harold Mills is directing the skit for the class of '49 while Rhoda Riber and Anthony Prochilo are directing for the freshmen.

The Sophomore skit is a "humorous fantasy" concerning the adventures of a gentleman with a dual personality, played by Dale Wood. The scene is laid at Schunline High School. Jenn Hoffman is in charge of chorus direction, and Jean McCabe, Cathrine Donnelly, and Dorothy Parr are committee heads for sets, lights and costumes. The freshmen skit is a radio mystery, with two main characters, Veronica Pool and Pierre LaTrine, played by Margerie Argust and Heinz Engel. Ruth Frambach, Gloria Sottile and Marian Klingman compose the technical staff.

State To Receive Visiting Colleges In Debate Meet

State will act as host for the Student Assembly of the New York State Debate Conference, scheduled for Friday and Saturday, May 16, 17. Mary Ellen Diener and Elizabeth Rose Hilt, Seniors, are co-chairmen of the Student Assembly, which has as its headquarters the Assembly Chamber and Committee Rooms of the State Capitol.

The goal of the conference is "to develop techniques by which a number of individuals can arrive at a solution reflecting the best of which the group is capable." To carry out this objective the Student Assembly is organized as a modified State Legislature. Governor Thomas E. Dewey has been invited to speak at the open Assembly.

Fifteen colleges and universities in the state, including Syracuse University, Cornell University, Queens College, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and Union College, will have delegates on the three committees which have been formed. There will be a Committee on Education to consider bills on teachers' salaries, state assistance to local school systems, and the establishment of a State University. The second committee, on Veterans' affairs, will consider veterans' housing, on-the-job training programs, and educational benefits. The third committee on the condition of New York State and its people will cover other state problems which are of interest to the delegates.

State College debate council has named the following people to the three committees: Committee on Education, Samuel Scott, '48, floor speaker, Marilyn Thompson, '48, committee representative; Veterans' Affairs, Stanley Abrams, '48, floor speaker, George Christy, '50, committee representative; New York State and Its People, Elsie Worth, '48, floor speaker, and Rita Shapiro, '48, committee representative.

First Student Elected Myskania Closes Year's Work Tomorrow

State became real democratic last year about this time and decided to hold elections for its judiciary body. With a dramatic finish, the old Myskania destroyed all its records, including its constitution, leaving the newly initiated body to founder in the proverbial sea of darkness, and "sink or swim".

The first student elected Myskania didn't know its purposes or its own method of doing things, except for what was stated in the Student Association Constitution. It had to start from scratch. Myskania (the new one) adopted new policies, came on the stage satirically, and generally rejuvenated itself.

Every Tuesday night two members of the elite body cooked supper for the members of the phylarchs. In the beginning of the year this was carried out with more than the usual difficulty, owing to the fact that the old Myskania had even gone to the point of removing the official pots, pans and hot plates. May we add that one editor of the NEWS cooked spaghetti causing the judiciary to be unable to talk for the next day or two. They never knew before that spaghetti was made from horses.

The orphans were entertained here they are: Jean Helen Alverson, Ruth Winifred Bentley, Theodore Robert Combes, James Thomas Conley, Clyde Keith, Elizabeth Rose Hill, Lois Irene Hutchinson, Philip Lashinsky, Elizabeth Ann Margol, Alice Knapp Randall, Edna Mae Sweeney, Mary Ellen Tellan, Mary Frances Tessier.

At this time of the year, a rather-bleary-eyed Myskania, is packing up and getting ready to leave its place to his new heirs.

Events Will End With Skits, Sing Tomorrow Night To Reveal Officers, Myskania In Assembly

JUDITH DUBE

State will hold its thirty-fourth annual Moving-Up Day exercises tomorrow morning. These ceremonies will conclude the extra-curricular activities of all four classes for this year.

After the procession of all classes from Draper to Page Halls, Ruth Bentley, President of Student Association, will open the Assembly. The class speakers will be first on the program. Respectively, they are: Heinz Engel, '50, Agnes McIntyre, '49, Edith Dell, '48, and Harold Gould, '47.

Committee Checks Voting Procedure Welcomes Suggestions From SA Members

William Marsland, '47, Chairman of the committee to investigate the voting procedure at State College, has announced that the committee will hold an open meeting in Room 2, Richardson Hall, Monday. Anyone wishing to speak on any part of the program is requested to see some member of the committee to get his name put on the agenda since the meeting will be conducted in a manner similar to that of a Congressional committee hearing.

The purpose of this meeting is to consider all ways of improving the voting system now in use, and suggestions in the following fields are requested: (1) System of voting, (2) Place of voting, (3) Posting of ballots in advance of voting, (4) Separate days for Student Association and Class voting.

Marsland Emphasizes Attendance
Marsland is emphasizing the fact that everyone should come to the meeting whether or not he has requested time on the agenda. Written suggestions will be accepted from those unable to attend the meeting and should be in the hands of the committee by Monday noon. If the occasion demands, a second open meeting will be held for further discussion on the question.

Records To Be Filed
William Pawlockie, '49, has volunteered to take shorthand notes of the meeting, and these records will be open for examination after the committee report has been filed. The remainder of the committee is as follows: Elizabeth Margol, '47, Stanley Abrams, '48, James Brophy, '49, Anthony Prochilo, '50, Dr. Ralph Beaver, Professor of Mathematics, and Dr. Robert Rienow, Assistant Professor of Social Studies, are faculty advisors.

Junior, Sophomores State Annual Picnics

The Junior and the Sophomore classes will hold their picnics May 24, according to their presidents, Alice Williams and Thomas Lisker. The Junior committee heads are as follows: transportation, Wilma Diehl; entertainment, Donald Herold; refreshments, Virginia Gminski. Marion Hawkins has been appointed chairman of the Sophomore outing.

Lost, Found Records Sales
The sale of lost and found articles, Thursday and Friday in the Commons, netted a total of $5.25, according to Pearl Pless, '49, head of the Lost and Found Bureau.

State-Mint

By MARJORIE HARLAND

Our round of the campuses begins at New York State College for Teachers at Buffalo where their greatest high school day was recently held.

In Potsdam plans are underway for the second public world performance of Paul Hindemith's "Requiem". The Crane mixed chorus under the direction of Robert Shaw, renowned American conductor, will present the number during its annual Spring Music festival on May 24-25.

Buffalo is also holding a Baby Picture Contest in which all students are asked to submit baby pictures of themselves together with a recent picture. Students will then vote for the baby picture most like the recent picture, the one least like the present and also the prettiest baby.

A Word of Consolation As exams approach an too quickly we find this note of consolation in the Champlainer of Champlain College.

For those who consistently flunk math there is the record of Thomas Edison whose highest math mark hovered around the upper forties.

Common-States

The Common-States is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the State College News.

CONTRARY TO THE STATE COLLEGE NEWS

Contrary to the State College NEWS, the open meeting of the committee investigating a new voting procedure will not meet in Room 2, but rather in some room not yet determined.

The fact that the student body voted for the appointment of the committee is a good sign. Much of the discussion in Assembly last week was not relevant to the proposal. As was pointed out by the proposer, this committee will only determine whether or not some other system or systems are superior to the one now in use.

Without the kind permission of Mrs. Skolsky and Eunice Rice, '22, author of the reprinted item below, we publish the words to that immortal ARM.

ARM IN ARM THROUGH FRIENDLY WAYS

Arm in arm thro' friendly ways, Press we on these college days, Common bond we owe to thee.

NYSC

Stunts and sings and rambling walks, Frolics, dances, weighty talks, All of these we owe to thee.

NYSC

Eager are we in this youth Following wisdom's mind to truth, Inspiration comes from thee.

NYSC

Strong old elms will shield no more, Open roads will stretch before, Courage we shall gain from thee.

NYSC

A reminder, it would be a good idea for all possible to bring the NEWS issue of April 18 to Assembly next week. Also last week's. The first has the budget outline which is convenient to refer to during discussion.

OK. Now for those vultures who plowed through the above and are waiting for the predictions for Myskania.

We wish to make it clear that the following is merely guesswork. We have no official information. The only scientific angle used was the formula:

Budget Blues . . .

For a group of supposedly intelligent and responsible students, the assembly-goers at State exhibit a remarkable amount of rudeness.

Eating lunches and reading is bad enough, but greeting budget items with hoots and whistles marks a new low in misconduct. In the first place, a great deal of time and thought has gone into this budget. The people who draw it up receive no compensation for their efforts, and the attitude of Student Association is nothing less than a kick in the teeth for them.

We envy those who care so little about money that they can afford to make a joke out of more than $20,000. Sincere questions are always welcomed; that is why we have a budget assembly. But stupid queries that have no relation to the subject under discussion and are obviously intended to be funny are out of place in a serious meeting.

There are only two assemblies left this year. The budget must be approved by the end of the month if campus organizations are to continue functioning. Wasting this short time with unnecessary fooling will profit no one.

It is time that a small group of students dropped the attitude that officers of budget-supported groups are trying to get next year's room and board money out of Student Tax. If you have a legitimate question, ask it; if not, don't waste the assembly's time with pointless nonsense.

Memo on Rivalry . . .

With Moving-Up Day only 24 hours away and Rivalry almost at an end, we'd like to devote some space to a memo for the freshman and Sophomore classes.

The Sophs know, and the frosh have no doubt heard, that tomorrow's activities attract a great many parents and guests to the school. These outsiders who come to watch our traditional ceremonies will carry away a definite impression of State. Will it be good or bad?

That, obviously, depends on our conduct throughout the day. If things continue to go on as they have for the past few years, State's reputation will suffer a serious setback. Parents do not enjoy watching the rival classes crawling along the sidewalk and fighting over bits of ribbon or beanie. It is, to say the least, a disgusting display of childishness and lack of dignity.

This year both classes have promised to forget about the "rough stuff" on Moving-Up Day. It's safe to say that most members of the classes in question will stand by their pledge. It will only take a few people, however, to spoil everything. A few unfortunate incidents last fall proved that it does not take many "non-conformists" to thwart the best of plans. Since that time the conduct of rivalry has been very good, with little cause for complaint.

This is a request to both the Sophomores and freshmen: confine your activities to official competition tomorrow and forget about the rest.

All in A Day's Work

WAA Bowling Won By Farrell

W.A.A. bowling drew to a close this week with Farrell House capturing the top place.

Although not all the matches scheduled were played off, Farrell was able to take the league by not losing as many games as any other team, although they did not win any more than Gamma Kappa Phi or Wern Hall.

The season's high scorer was Mary Jane Peris, with an average of 194. Other scorers only managed to bowl in the 150's, while Farrell's high average only hit in the 120's.

EPP, SLS, Tie For First Place In Intramural Softball League

Old man "stormy weather" took over play in the MAA intramural softball league this week, washing out all but two games. The postponed games have been rescheduled for Monday afternoons and as evening games on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, regular playing days.

Sandwiched in between rain storms, however, were two games played Thursday. KB and SLS emerged winners in these games with victories over VanZee and KDR, respectively.

The rivalry score now stands 15 1/2 to 11 in favor of the Sophs. The results of the swimming events can not be published because the NEWS deadline and the softball games have to be played. Swimming is worth two points and each softball game will add two points to the victor's score.

First Encounter For Tennis Team Rivalry Events Scheduled Today

State will meet Middlebury in its first tennis match of the season tomorrow. Fran Mullin, Captain, has chosen his six-man team and with favorable weather the squad will start out at 10:00 a. m.

The team will drive up by car in the morning and the match will begin at 3:00 p. m. There are to be six singles matches first followed by the three doubles matches. The doubles teams won't pair up until after the singles have been played off.

The six-man squad consists of Fran Mullin, Clancy Oarr, Fred Root, Roy Fersh, Bob Merritt, and Lou Rabineau.

This is actually the third scheduled match but the two previous meets with Siena and Plattsburg were postponed because of precipitation. Yesterday's match against Siena has been postponed for a week to be held on May 14. Another match with the same team has been set for the 21st of May.

Matches may be scheduled with Union but no definite plans have been made to date.

Reveal New Myskania Today; Students Choose 13 Members

Ten Women, Three Men On Judiciary; New Procedure Used For Second Year

The second elected Myskania in State College history was tapped in Page Hall auditorium this morning during traditional Moving-Up Day activities. In accordance with Student Association constitution, the new judicial body for 1947-48 contains 13 members, seven from the recommended list submitted by this year's organization, and six elected from the 21 students suggested by members of Student Association and Myskania.

Tapping ceremonies began after classes had "moved up" to their new seats and participated in the singing of "Arm in Arm". Elizabeth Rose Hill, Myskania president, and Theodore Robert Combs stepped to the front of the stage to signify that the ceremony was about to begin. Then Philip Lashinsky and Alice Knapp Randall left the stage and walked up opposite sides of the auditorium. Meeting in the back of the room, they proceeded down another aisle and Combs announced the name of the new Myskania's first member, STANLEY ABRAMS, Speaker of Forum, and active in Debate and Athletics.

Leaving the stage to tap the second member were Joan Helen Alverson and Mary Frances Tessier, who escorted GLORIA LILLIAN GILBERT to the stage. Miss Hill pinned the purple and gold Myskania tassel on Miss Gilbert's dress, and the new member was led to her seat. She has been director of Student Union Board, class president during her Sophomore year, and has participated in many campus activities.

After these members of the old and new Myskania had resumed their places, Elizabeth Ann Margol and Edna Marie Sweeney moved off the stage and proceeded slowly to the rear of the auditorium, and continued to the row in which HELEN MARY KISEL was seated. The new Grand Marshal joined her escorts and proceeded to the stage to receive her tassel and be congratulated by Miss Hill. Miss Kiesel has been Student Association song-leader for two years, assistant director of Press Bureau, Campus Commission treasurer, and an active member of Inter-Group Council.

Co-chairman of Junior Guides, Myskania's fifth member has also served as treasurer and first cabinet member of SCA.

Next in order was ALICE MAY PRINDLE, who will take over the gavel as president of Student Association. She worked on the constitution committee last Spring, was chairman of State Fair, and served in several other organizations at State.

The second man to be tapped this morning was JOHN FRANCIS DOOLEY, well known for his participation in sports and present member of Men's Athletic Association council. Dooley, who was led to the stage by Ruth Winifred Bentley and Clyde Keith Cook, is also vice president of his class. With six still to be tapped, Miss Bentley again left the stage, accompanied by Clyde Keith Cook, as Combs announced the election of ELOISE CONSTANCE WORTH, Vice president of Student Association this year.
