The Documents Easing Govt. Father Deferments

So many questions from Federal employees have come in with respect to the new regulations concerning the drafting of fathers employed by the Government, that I am this week reprinting in condensed form the memorandum issued by National Selective Service headquarters to local boards on the subject:

FEDERAL BOARD MEMORANDUM NO. 115-F
 ISSUED: DECEMBER 28, 1943.
 SUBJECT: FEDERAL AGENCIES AUTHORIZED TO REQUEST OCCUPATIONAL DEFERMENT OF FATHERS EMPLOYED BY THEM.

1. President's letter and action of Chairman of the War Manpower Commission.—On December 22, 1943, the President of the United States addressed a letter to the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission authorizing Federal Government agencies to file requests for occupational deferment of certain fathers in their employ, stating that such fathers must be given consideration for occupational deferment similar to that accorded to fathers employed outside of the Federal Government. The President's letter was incorporated in a memorandum from the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, dated December 24, 1943, to all departments and agencies of the Federal Government. In this memorandum, authority is granted to the Federal Government to request occupational deferment of certain fathers employed by the Federal Government.

2. Action by the Director of Selective Service.—On December 24, 1943, the Director of Selective Service wired to the State Directors of Selective Service the substance of the President's letter and the action taken by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, directing that local boards delay the processing for induction of fathers employed by the Federal Government in war production in support of the war effort until agency committees had an opportunity to make requests, under the provisions of section 622.22-1, Selective Service Regulations, for occupational deferment for such fathers. We are informed that the filing of such requests is being expedited and should be completed not later than January 15, 1944. Requests for induction for the purpose of permitting the filing of such requests should not be extended beyond that date.

3. Reconsideration of classification of certain fathers employed by the Federal Government.—When an Authorized Government Request is filed for a father employed by the Federal Government who is in Class I-A, Class I-A-O, or Class IV-E, the local board shall re-examine and consider anew the classification of such registrant in the light of the Authorized Government Request.

What Veterans Must Do to Get Their City Jobs

The City Civil Service Commission has just set up a system for handling persons who return with honorable discharges from the armed forces, and are on a City eligible list, or are eligible for promotion. The Information unit on the Seventh Floor of the Commission's building at 299 Broadway is where the veteran will be sent.

Then:
 1. If he is on eligible list:
 His discharge will be checked to make sure that he has come in within sixty days of his discharge from service. Fingerprints appearing on the discharge papers will be compared with those on the Commission's files.

ODB Where Do They Come From?

When the Office of Dependency Benefits opened its office in the huge new Prudential Insurance Company building in Newark, 3,500 employees moved up from Washington. Some of them had gone to the Capital from the metropolitan area and were anxious to come North and near home, but most of them were from all corners of the nation. A majority of them were permanent civil-service employees who had been assigned to get ODB off to a good start, and after a year in Newark, members of this group hold many of the supervisory jobs. But another 5,400 employees were needed to staff the office and keep the checks rolling to families of service men.

Mostly From Here

Recruiting to build the office to its present peak of 9,000 was centered in New York City and the Newark area. Today, the force is about evenly split between New Yorkers and New Yorkers. A quick glance around one section with an officer produced an analysis of origin like this: New York, Newark, Bronx, Newark, Brooklyn, and yes, one from Washington, who proved to be a foreigner from the South.

In order to attract more out-of-towners to jobs at ODB, the office recently conducted a recruiting junket throughout southern Pennsylvania.

A unit made up of members of the Civil Service Board of the ODB spent three weeks on the road. They travelled from City to City, setting up headquarters in the local United States Employment Service Offices. Before they arrived, publicity in the local papers prepared the way.

Applicants were examined and hired on the spots. Clerks, typists, office-machine operators, and claims examiners were hired at salaries ranging from $1,750 a year to a few at $2,400.

In addition to the appeal of a job near the Big City, they were promised help in finding rooms and eating places in Newark.

"This is a great opportunity for you to help with the war effort and at the same time to engage in congenial work under excellent working conditions.

"Upon this great war agency in Newark depends to a great extent the morale of our Army and the security and well-being of millions of dependents of servicemen." That was the recruitment appeal.

While the ODB won't release the exact number of employees who joined the staff as a result of the drive, officials say that results were satisfactory.

High Illness Rate of Federal Employees Brings New Health Plan Before Congress

By CHARLES SULLIVAN

WASHINGTON — That long-delayed Federal employee health program may materialize soon.

Within the next few weeks, Civil Service Commission plans to ask Congress for legislation to make it possible.

And officials here think the chances are good that Congress will approve the idea.

If it does, Federal agencies will be given the right to set up medical-nursing units to protect the health of their workers. These units would strive to head off illness before they actually occurred.

Thereby, they would hope to reduce absenteeism, and increase efficiency.

The Plan

What the Commission wants is something similar to the so-called industrial medicine plans now practiced so successfully by many private business firms.

In these plans, the emphasis is on prevention of illness rather than cure. The latter is always left to the private physician.

One way or another, the Commission definitely has no idea of putting Government into the socialized medicine field on behalf of its employees. Socialized medicine still is much too controversial. The Commission's recommendations will stop far short of that.

In its 60th Annual Report, the Civil Service Commission revealed some amazing figures of accident and illness among Federal employees.

Illness caused an average loss of 10.2 days per employee in one large Government department in 1942. The National Association of Manufacturers reports that the installation of medical and health programs in 234 industrial establishments was accompanied by a 29.7 percent reduction in absences due to sickness (other than occupational disease). If this one Federal department could improve its illness record by 3 days per employee, over 246,000 man-days would be saved—the equal of 820 employees' full-time services for a year. Other Federal departments have estimated their annual loss through sickness at 6 to 12 days per employee.

In 1940, 24,279 employees lost time; in 1941, 34,031; and in 1942, 62,023. In 1932, 455 Federal employees were fatally injured while on duty. On the basis of estimates of the U. S. Employees' Compensation Commission, 76,500 will have been injured and 600 killed by the end of 1943.

The cost of these injuries is tremendous. More than 1,475 days were lost by Federal workers during 1942. This is equal to losing the services of 4,900 workers for one full year. The dollar cost of compensation for injuries in 1942 was $8,383,827, exclusive of administrative costs and salaries.

To aggravate the labor shortage conditions prevalent in the Government during 1943, accidents will have lost an estimated 1,000,000 working days—the equivalent of the full-time services of 600,000 workers for one year. The total will have reached approximately $10,000,000.

Customs Sampler Gives 13 Pints of His Blood

From Civil Service offices all over the City, come more and more contestants for top honors in donations of blood for the armed forces.

From the Federal Civil Service, Joseph S. Hochhauser, a veteran of World-War I, has already made 13 blood contributions, and is looking forward to his 14th trip to the blood bank. He works at the Appraisers' Stores, 201 Varick Street, and is a U. S. Customs Sampler.

Another from the City Department of Welfare appoligizes because a slight cold last week kept her from making her 7th donation. She's Frances K. McIntyre, of Welfare's Central Office at 902 Broadway.

One hundred and fifty-seven pints is the total of contributions from the employees of the Structure Design Section (Hull) at the New York Navy Yard. The repeaters in that group: Lester Abrahamson, 5; Leonard Angerame, 2; Samuel J. Auerbach, 6; Ralph N. Axelrod, 3; Charles H. Blumenthal, 5; Emil Chatzky, 3; Louis J. De Michele, 5; Lester A. Diamond, 3; Isidore Ferbesoff, 3; Meyer Fisher, 2; David Friedman, 4; Joseph Greenberg, 2; J. Addison Kantor, 3; Robert Kalen, 2; William Levine, 2; Henry Liebeskind, 3; S. G. Lind, 5; Edward Moranty, 3; Jean E. Mosseler, 4;

Edward J. Raftery, 3; Aaron L. Resnick, 3; Aaron J. Sachson, 5; E. Schreiber, 2; Maxwell Strauss, 2; and Leo Yarrow, 2.

The City Department of Sanitation has been plugging the donations of plasma by its employees and can point to about 300 employees who have donated three or more pints.

Well, is Hochhauser the champion blood donor among civil service employees? Let's hear from others in your office, we're still looking for the champ. The LEADER will still continue to print the name of every public employee who has contributed his blood two or more times. If you haven't done your share, yet—the address of the Blood Bank is 2 East 37th Street. The telephone number is MU. 5-6400.

PURCHASE They Can't Get Together

He's still waiting to hear from the employee organizations, says Louis Yavner, secretary of the Department of Purchase.

The idea is to form a joint employee-administration committee to help straighten out any tangles that occur, and to swap ideas for the good of the office. The complication is that there are a flock of employee organizations represented on the staff and they can't seem to get together.

Not very long ago, Welfare had somewhat similar troubles when it came to apportioning funds raised for the War drives. The money was to be credited to the various employee groups, but trying to fix a ratio caused a blow-up.

end of 1944 as compared with 1,091 vessels at the end of 1939, the urgent need for these workers is obvious.

Where To Apply

Those interested in these jobs should apply at the following places: Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Sands Street Gate, Brooklyn Navy Yard; Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, West Gate, Navy Yard Annex, Foot of East 33rd Street, Bayonne, New Jersey; United States Civil Service Commission, Room 544, 641 Washington Street, New York City.

Men now engaged in essential war work must obtain a release or a statement of availability and applicants must be citizens or owe allegiance to the United States.

Sheet Metal Workers, Electricians, Machinists, and Shipwrights are needed in both the mechanic and helper grades. There are also numerous openings in which unskilled men can learn a trade. In addition there is a special apprentice training course for boys from 16 to 17 years of age who receive $4.64 per day and overtime.

These men will take their places among the civilians now engaged in building, servicing and repairing the U. S. Fleet. As the Navy will total some 40,000 vessels of various types and sizes by the

Navy Yard Seeks Workers At Good Pay

The U. S. Navy Yard at Brooklyn, N. Y. and the Navy Yard Annex at Bayonne, New Jersey, have many openings for both skilled and unskilled workmen on new construction and repair jobs. In announcing these positions, the U. S. Civil Service Commission stressed the vital importance of this work and the opportunity it affords for men to take part in the Navy's war-time program at good wages, based on a minimum rate for laborers of 80c per hour with time and one-half for work in excess of 40 hours per week.

Prison Employees Petition Dewey

ALBANY—Court action to place employees of Dannemora and Matteawan hospitals for the criminal prison workers may be taken by the Association of State Civil Service Employees unless the situation is remedied soon, it was stated this week.

Petitions urging parity treatment for the employees of the two prison hospitals have been sent to Governor Dewey and by him forwarded to Budget Director John Burton. Nothing has been done, however, and workers are becoming impatient. It is understood that a conference is in prospect on this issue between officials of the ASCSE and Governor Dewey.

The justice of this request is outstandingly evident that it does not seem even conceivable that it will not be granted," said Harold J. Fisher, president of the association. "These workers have been unduly penalized by delays since 1938. The principle of like work for like work was sound when adopted and approved in the earlier law of 1937 and it is sound now."

Supervisor's Plea
The Clinton County Board of Supervisors have adopted unanimously a resolution recommending to the Director of the State that workers in Dannemora State Hospital be accorded the salaries now ruling in the prisons of the State.

What applies to Dannemora State Hospital also applies to Matteawan State Hospital, Beatewan State Hospital, etc. These are prisons in every sense of the word so far as guards and other employees are concerned.

In their petition to the Government of the employees of Matteawan State Hospital said:

"We, the undersigned, employees of the Matteawan State Hospital, respectfully request for immediate inclusion under the provisions of the Field-Hamilton act. This right that has been denied us since 1937 at which time the law was rendered an informal one by general order of the Department of Correction, must be included under the Career Service law. Following this decision the State Classification Division established standard rates for the positions in this institution under the Salary Standardization Board. We are unable to find any reason why the salaries have not been included in the segregation for this institution. The allocations were determined after long and consultations with high officials of the Correction Department. This institution has functioned for many years as an integral part of the system of the State but the rates pay received by employees of this institution are far below those paid to employees in the prisons of the State. We hold that the custody and care of criminally insane necessarily involves responsibility and ability equal to or greater than that required throughout the prison service, and that there is every reason that the rates of pay should be at least as high as those paid in such service. We feel that we have been deprived of reason or justice of salaries properly set by the established agencies of government under a statute which has universal approval and we do not understand how this situation can be allowed to continue.

"We, therefore, earnestly urge that the established salary allocations applying to the Matteawan State Hospital be applied to the employees of the Matteawan State Hospital, and other appropriate allocations in the service, be made in the next quarterly segregation and respectfully request the favor of prompt consideration by you in this matter."

The problems of the extension of the career service law to the institutions as of October 1st are all uppermost in State service employment matters. This is true not only because of the need to do justice to each worker affected, but also because the maintenance of the integrity of the career service principles, vital to the whole State service and the whole employee body, is an over-all essential," said Mr. Fisher.

'Sliding Scale' Used to Mark Clerk Test; 1,981 Pass; C. S. C. Won't Tell Grades

A sliding scale "based on the needs of the service" was used to determine who passed and who failed the first part of the New York City clerk, grade 3 examination.

The exact words of the Commission on this subject make confusing reading: "The number of correct answers made by each candidate was counted. Since the examination consisted of less than 100 items the number right is then translated by means of a conversion table into a percentage. The adjustment table was applied to the percentage each candidate received. The adjustment is determined by the needs of the service. The adjusted rating is the rating which appears on the candidate's paper."

What Was Done
In an effort to translate the above words into English, a LEADER reporter discussed it with officials of the Commission. Here is what was done:

1—The Commission determined approximately how many vacancies would be expected to occur in the grade 3 title during the life of the list (1 to 4 years).
2—Then a sufficient number of candidates were passed to meet this need, allowing for some failures on Part II of the examination.

3—The actual passing grade would then be the score made by the lowest candidate of the total number which the Commission decided to pass.
"To pass this test," explains President Harry W. Marsh, of the Commission, "a candidate must have answered correctly 45 questions. This would have given him a score of 69.1 on the examination, which was set as the pass-mark."

Many Surprised
As a result of this method of marking the papers, some candidates were surprised to find that they had passed the test. They had compared their answers with the key answers and figured that they had made less than 70 percent and were out of luck. The "adjustment" explains the fact that instead of setting an arbitrary passing mark (say a grade of 70, which was actually set in the original announcement), the Commission was able to set the pass-mark according to the number of persons it wanted on lists in the various departments.

Those who failed may examine their papers at the Record Room of the City Civil Service Commission, 96 Duane Street, between 10-12 and 2-4 daily, 10-12 on Saturday.

Novel Procedure
A novel procedure was put into effect with this examination.

Failures were notified according to the usual routine, but in addition, lists of those who passed were sent to every City department, with a request to inform the employees who had passed. Those who passed were not given their grades, and were advised that this information would not be made available. Only the names and application numbers of successful candidates were released to the department.

Asked why the departments were notified as to those who had passed the test (usually no results except failures are known until the completion of the entire examination) Commissioner Esther Bromley had this to say:

"It meant a little more work for our staff, but it lifted the uncertainty of those who hadn't received a failure notice, and might have feared that a delay in the mails was holding up the sad news."

"Also, a number of the departments are planning to make provisional promotions, and knowing who of their clerks have passed the first part of this test will allow them to proceed with these promotions."

"The percentages weren't given because it would have entailed more work for our staff."

The Figures

Failure notices were sent out to 646 candidates. The Commission is unwilling to indicate the number who have passed (but unofficially, 1,981 have passed.) As a total of 3,523 were originally notified to appear for the test, almost 1,000 failed to show up, because they are in military service, or for other reasons.

The letter which went to the departments with the lists of names, said in part:

"We are sending herewith the list of employees of your department who have been successful in the first part of the examination for promotion to Clerk, Grade 3. Candidates who have failed this part will be directly notified by the Commission. We will not honor any requests for the ratings of candidates who have passed the first part of the test. These ratings will be made known to candidates when the examination is completed."

(A listing of the names of employees who passed the test appears on page 5).

Recent Actions On NYC Lists

Following are certifications made to the various City departments by the City Civil Service Commission to make new appointments and promotions.

Welfare
Three names from the promotion list to Assistant Director of Public Assistance, Grade 5, in Welfare are being considered for the $4,200 a year post. Alice M. Brophy, number 6; Rose E. Welfare is also trying to hire 6 clerks, grade 1, from the eligible list for part time jobs. The offer is $900 a year for 30 hours weekly, permanent. 25 names were sent in reaching number 4463.

Among employees active in arrangements for the dance are: Oscar Zinn, Queens; William Shannon, Brooklyn; and Edward Powers, Manhattan.

Mental Hygiene Workers Ask Fair Play on Salary

ALBANY—Representatives of employees in Mental Hygiene and other State institutions, each serving as a chairman of a sub-committee, meet on Tuesday, January 11, in Albany to summarize and put group appeals in form for presentation to the State Salary Standardization Board.

After weeks of see-sawing with the Budget Division in an effort to obtain fair play for hundreds of institution workers who claim to be wrongly classified and not properly allocated as to salaries, the Association of State Civil Service Employees is ready for a showdown on the issue.

Chairmen of the sub-committees were authorized at a meeting of Association delegates in September. Representatives of the Association have worked meanwhile not only with the Budget Division but with the Salary Standardization Board and with institution officials.

City Pay Increases Aren't Coming Until Feb. 15

Relax! You won't see the cost-of-living increase on your January 15 paycheck.

In his last public utterance on the subject, the Mayor said that he had approved the schedules of increases for Health, Hospitals and Welfare.

But people at these departments don't know anything more than what the Mayor made his speech. Few people like chief clerks and commissioners may know something, but so far as they are concerned, it's a military secret.

At the Budget Office, everyone is very busy, but no one knows anything that anybody might be interested in (for instance, how much a grade 3 clerk will get to meet higher living costs).

Budget Director Thomas J. Patterson has been out sick most of last week, and that may have slowed things up a bit.

As to when you'll see more money, the best guess is February 15. Then you should get a payment to make up for the bonuses from January 1, 1944.

If you want more information, the man to see is F.H.L.G. at the left side of City Hall. If the man

Firemen in Court to End 'Involuntary Servitude'

The case of New York City's firemen against Commissioner Patrick Walsh is brought in the names of the four officers of the Uniformed Firemen's Association: Vincent Kane, President; John P. Crane, Vice President; Michael Collins, Financial and Recording Secretary; Edwin S. Hoysradt, Treasurer. And the big point made in the case is that Commissioner Walsh hasn't the legal right to shout "emergency" and compel the men to work longer hours.

The case, brought in New York County Supreme Court, is a request for a court order to prevent the Commissioner from going through with his longer-work-week plans.

The close-knit legal brief, prepared by Attorney David Savage, argues that the Administrative Code (Sec. 487a-11.0) provides that firemen shan't be assigned more than 8 consecutive hours of work in any 24. This provision may not be repealed by a local law. It can be repealed only by (1) an emergency message by the Governor; (2) plus two-thirds vote of the Legislature; (3) plus an affirmative vote by the citizenry at the election. Thus, the firemen are given tremendous protection against the whim of officials.

Main Purpose

Now, in Fire Order 258, Commissioner Walsh says that the main purpose of overtime work is to eliminate on every tour the practice of having officers on duty. In answer to this, the UFA maintains that the practice isn't an emergency one, since it has been in practice many years. The legal papers say that Order 258 is "a sham and made in bad faith." Moreover, eligible lists for Lieutenant and Captain are in existence. Why aren't they being used? The UFA want to know.

The additional ground which the Commissioner has advanced in declaring need for the lengthened hours is manpower shortage.

Answers the UFA: The Commissioner has set up an auxiliary fire corps consisting of 30,000 members, who are permitted to do everything a regular fireman does except enter burning buildings and climb ladders. The Fire Department can even remove these two restrictions, if it wishes.

Draft Policy

What's more, in contradiction to a settled selective service policy, Commissioner Walsh has been refusing to request deferments except for marine engineers, pilots, and fathers who have been on the job more than two years. If there is a manpower shortage, the UFA insists, Walsh should do everything in his power to hang onto his men.

Put an end to "involuntary servitude," the UFA petition pleads. Nothing in the present action says anything about the $420 bonus, which Mayor LaGuardia granted, then rescinded. He still has the last word so far as money is concerned, whatever the outcome of the present action.

WELFARE

All This, and Women, Too!

Many employees in the Department of Welfare feel deeply regarding the discontent and low morale of the department.

This following letter, from a social investigator who requests to remain anonymous is one approach to the problem from the employees' point of view.

"As a social investigator of the Welfare Department, I wish to confirm your contention regarding the existence of a low state of morale in that department. . . .

"Obviously, the low prevailing rate of pay for a title calling for professional training and standards is the paramount reason for the widespread discontent. One can hardly call a maximum salary of approximately $40 a week suitable compensation. The fact that comparatively young, well trained, progressive staff in this title have already reached this figure and can look to no further salary increases certainly must go a long way to causing the general discontent. Another important factor tending to frustrate welfare investigators in the performance of their jobs is the supervision imposed from above on them by a hierarchy tending to create close, picayune supervision as well as instilling a feeling of inadequacy and dependence on the various ranks of supervisors about the smallest and inconsequential case problem decisions. Added to this is the ever changing policies and unending procedures issued by department heads which confuse and confound the staff.

Ah, Women

"Another thorn in the side is the almost exclusive dominance of a city department by women. It may seem a strange anomaly but most key and supervisory jobs are filled by women who pride themselves in their sexual ascendancy to the point of holding the men in the department in utter contempt. A male social worker is generally considered to have the status of a hopeless failure or an effeminate non-entity. "Also of considerable irritation and annoyance is the endless and monotonous staff organizational activity, political individualism and fund-raising campaigns. This, plus the unsavory physical surroundings of most welfare centers (generally being found in condemned city buildings) accounts in part for the low morale existent in Welfare."

Appointments Urged

With eyes on the City Budget which will set salaries for the period from June 30, 1944 to July 1, 1945, the State, County and Municipal Workers of America, CIO, have made their recommendations to the Department of Welfare.

Among the union proposals to pep up department morale are these:

Stenographer, Grade 3 appointments to secretaries of case supervisors, head typists, and secretaries to division directors.

Appointment of 16 stenographers, Grade 2, which would complete use of the present promotion list.

At least 10 promotions to junior account.

Promotions to fill all vacancies for assistant supervisor.

Two to War

The local draft boards weren't looking in the direction of Welfare last week. Only two department employees went off to the services, both to the Army. They were:

Morris Gewirtz, Clerk, Grade 2, Child Welfare.

Frank Giuliano, Cleaner, Building Management Procurement and Service.

SUBWAYS

Motormen On The Carpet

Subway motorman have to obey speed regulations and traffic lights just like automobile drivers. Last week, 2 IRT motormen were up on the carpet for violations. Cecil C. Lachman drew a 3-month confinement to yard duty and a 6-month probation. James L. Reilly received a 6 month probation.

Every Wednesday morning at 10:30, court convenes on the 6th Floor of the Board of Transportation at 250 Hudson Street, and employes of the Board who are charged with violating the "Rules and Regulations" are called up for trial.

Most of the business of the Trial Board, headed by Deputy Commissioner Edward C. Maguire deals with minor infractions. Violating the "no smoking" signs is the commonest offense, and usually brings a 3-day suspension, without pay.

Study for Promotion

Another set of the type of questions used by the City Civil Service Commission to test candidates for promotion to motorman follows. Answers to this set will appear in next week's LEADER. Below are the correct answers to last week's set:

- The fuse marked Number 6 is the
  - switching control fuse
  - series control fuse
  - multiple control fuse
  - forward and reverse control fuse
- Third rail power is used to light the
  - tail lights
  - cab light
  - marker and end signs
  - destination signs
- Before replacing a blown compressor fuse it is important to
  - remove all power from the train
  - ground the live end of the fuse block
  - open the switch controlling this fuse
  - slipper the third rail shoe
- If a door opens while a train is moving, the
  - brakes would automatically apply in emergency
  - brakes would automatically apply in service
  - the starting indication light would go out
  - the motive power is automatically shut off
- The position of the LE-26

ECONOMY

Did Peter Stuyvesant, a wise old gent
Establish economy as a precedent,
When for Twenty-four dollars and a smile
He purchased the Manhattan Isle?
If Pete were alive in this day and age
He would fuss and fume, and cuss with rage
And shudder enough to make one sick
At the penury of Father Knick.
While taxes rise and prices soar
On bended knee we must implore
To unlock his bankroll and his heart,
From a few bucks a week he'll not part.
City employees are in a sad plight,
They must work by day and work by night.
Old Knick's coffers filled with plenty,
But all he can spare is One-Hundred Twenty.
Our duties, of course, we must not shirk,
But is our only reward where to be more work?
Wouldn't it be a lot wiser
If Knick weren't such an awful miser?
Oh! Father Knick, are you such a knave
That pennies you must scrape and save?
If this be true then alas and alack!
To the Indians please give us back.

SANITATION Whitewings Up

City Superintendent John Garbarini, of the Department of Sanitation, was promoted last week to the position of Assistant to the Commissioner.

Other promotions and reassignments which went into effect with the new year:

Borough Superintendent Andrew Mulrain was elevated to City Superintendent.

Acting Borough Superintendent Patsy Anzalone promoted to Borough Superintendent, Borough of Queens, Zone Number 1.

Acting Assistant Borough Superintendent Charles Ludwig promoted to Acting Borough Superintendent, Borough of Queens, Zone Number 2.

District Superintendent James Walsh, District 7, Manhattan, assigned as Acting Assistant Borough Superintendent, Borough of Queens, Zone 1.

HEALTH How's About It, Commissioner?

Health Department has an honor roll listing the names of employees in military service. However, the names of the last 26 Health employees to leave for the armed forces aren't on the roll.

It costs 25 cents to add a name to the list. The department's "Honor" fund has a deficit of 16 cents. The American Legion Post in Health Department would like to take up a collection around the office. The legionnaires figure that a dime from each of the 3,000 employes would make it possible to keep the honor roll up to date, and to do some little things for the men in service to make them realize that they're not being forgotten.

The catch is that they haven't been able to get permission to make a collection in the Department.

When the Honor Roll was first erected, the Legion post had to raise the money. Now it would like to see the employees contribute, but first the Commissioner has to give his approval.

GET YOUR GUY, GALS!

"Get Your Guy." That isn't the slogan of the Canadian Mounties, but of the Career School of the State, County and Municipal Workers of America, CIO, at 13 Astor Place. This school is starting a special course to teach gals the tricks of making themselves more beautiful.

If You Should Be Injured

Employees of the Board of Transportation who are injured while at work get a break. In addition to the Workman's Compensation payments, they get the difference between that and their salary for the time they miss from work.

Last week, the Board of Transportation approved payment of that difference to James F. Campbell, an assistant-foreman, track, on the IRT. In his case it came to pay for 143 days and 1 hour.

Regulars Hired

Most subway employes now are being hired on a temporary basis, but some appointments are still being made from eligible lists for permanent jobs. Last week the IND line hired the following man as regular conductors:

CIVIL SERVICE New Organization Under Way

A new group of employees of the City Civil Service Commission was organized last week to "represent the people who have not been represented before."

The new organization, The Association of Employees of the Civil Service Commission, says that it has enrolled a majority of the Commission's staff, although the officers of the group prefer not to give any definite figure.

Indicating the breadth of the new association says Edward J. Carry, president, is the fact that all titles in the Commission's office except the Commissioners themselves and the head of the Examining Division are eligible for membership.

Unaffiliated
At present the group is not associated with any large civil employee organization. However, some members have indicated a desire to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. Membership in the Civil Service Forum has also been suggested.

As for future plans, the president says that the problems of organizing are taking all their energy now. They expect to bring problems of the employees to the attention of the Commission.

Other officers of the association: William H. Rocker, Payroll Division, vice-president; Cecilia Craven, executive office, secretary. The full executive board will be announced next week.

At present, two other organizations have membership among the Commission's employees — the State, County, and Municipal Workers of America, CIO; and the Civil Service Forum.

Vets Administration Gets No. 1 Priority Rating

Veterans Administration has been lifted from a Number 4 priority position in the Federal setup to Number 1.

To employees at the local office it means that their chances of going after better-paying and more congenial jobs are nil. Those who want to leave will have to take a 60-day, War Manpower Commission vacation before they can work again—unless they can wrangle a release on grounds which satisfy the WMC.

It means that more workers will be in Veterans Administration in New York. It has been learned that this office asked for permission to retain the temps who were originally hired until December 30, then had their jobs extended until February 15. That permission will be forthcoming, it is believed. It means an expansion of the local offices of the Administration. The building at 346 Broadway can't hold many more people. It means that more promotions will be forthcoming, and plenty of employee dissatisfaction.

Promotions

The heads of the office will use the promotional panels which have been set up, using the lists of those in Clerk, grade 3, for instance, who have "excellent" efficiency ratings and longest seniority. But the top persons on the lists won't necessarily get the promotions. The officials of the agency talk over the promotions, eliminate those who they think haven't the necessary ability to make good supervisors. The ones who are passed over are expected to do a lot of complaining.

It also means that in all probability, Vet Administration will be in business after a great many of the other "war baby" agencies have disappeared from the scene.

No New Rights With Transfers

ALBANY—Employees transferred from the Metropolitan Division of the Public Service Commission to the regular payroll of the Commission, or Department of Public Service, can be given neither greater or different rights or disabilities than any other civil service employees, Attorney General Goldstein ruled this week.

In reply to a question from counsel for the Civil Service Commission about the transfer of employees of the Metropolitan Division, which last year was abolished, the Attorney General ruled that "titles and designations of persons transferred could be changed only to the extent necessary to conform their former Transit Commission titles with the titles and designations of similar positions in the state divisions."

HEALTH DEPT. SUFFERS FIRST WAR CASUALTY

Health Department suffered its first war casualty last week, when notice was received of the death in action of private Henry Stein. He was a former laboratory helper in the department, and was killed during the advance in Italy.

A Salary Should Mean What It Says

ONE thing the State Legislature should do promptly at this session is to bring all State employees up to the minimum of their salaries under the Feld-Hamilton act. Curiously enough, the State has for many years been advertising its job-openings at one salary, then hiring candidates at another salary—lower than the advertised one. As a result, there is now a hierarchy of State employees earning—yes, even in these times—less than the minimum of their grades. Another result has been that recruiting of personnel is hampered.

And even if departments should wish to hire new employees at the minimum of the grade, they can't do it, because if new appointees received the minimum, in cases where similar positions are now paying less than minimum, the old employee would be earning less money than the person just coming in.

A few years ago, the State Civil Service Commission tried to do something about this problem. But it was estimated then, by the Budget Division, that it would cost about $6,000,000 to raise all employees earning sub-minimum wages up to the lowest figure in the salary grade in which they had been bracketed. It was felt the State couldn't stand that financial cost in one year. Since then, through increments bringing the sub-standard salaries up to the minimum, and because of vacancies, the over-all cost is now estimated to be about $100,000. In other words, that small amount of money in lump sum raises, would clear everybody affected and raise them all to the minimum of their grades. That would clean up the situation once and for all.

It would be good business for the Legislature to remedy this situation.

4. Classification standards.—Local boards, when classifying fathers employed by the Federal Government for whom Authorized Government Requests have been filed, will apply the same standards for occupational classification as are now being applied to fathers not employed by the Federal Government. . . .

Director.

OCCUPATIONAL DEFERMENT MEMORANDUM NO. 14

TO: All Departments and Agencies
SUBJECT: Requesting Occupational Deferment for Pre-Pearl Harbor Fathers

The following letter has been sent to the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by the President:

December 22, 1943.

Dear Chairman:

Since the issuance of Executive Order No. 9309 and the enactment of Public Law No. 23, it has become necessary to remove dependency as a ground for deferment, and accordingly the classification of registrants in Class III-A and Class III-B has been discontinued. With the removal of dependency as a ground for deferment those registrants employed by agencies of the Federal Government previously entitled to reclassification in Class III-B, by reason of their employment in war production or in support of the war effort, must now be considered for classification in Class II-A or Class II-B. . . .

Therefore, pre-Pearl Harbor fathers now employed by the Federal Government and covered by Part VI of Executive Order No. 9309 and by Public Law No. 23 must now be given consideration for occupational deferment similar to that accorded to fathers employed outside Federal Government.

Under Part VI of executive Order No. 9309, you are accordingly instructed to prescribe standards under which Agency Committees may make requests for the occupational deferment of such fathers employed by government agencies. The standards to be established should, to the extent you find appropriate, authorize the government agencies to file deferment requests for fathers in their employ who are necessary men in war production or in support of the war effort, and who otherwise meet the requirements of Selective Service Regulations and Selective Service directive for occupational deferment laid down for fathers not in government service. . . .

(signed) FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

In order to accomplish the purposes expressed in the last two paragraphs of the President's letter, Agency Committees are hereby authorized to file Form 42 and 42 Supplement with the appropriate local board requesting occupational deferment for pre-Pearl Harbor fathers who are necessary to the effective operation of their agency's war program, and who otherwise conform to the standards prescribed by the Selective Service System to govern the occupational deferment of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers not in Government Service.

No prior approval of the Review Committee will be necessary and copies of such deferment requests need not be sent to the Review Committee for post audit.

Don't Repeat This!

Politics, Inc.

Here's the Dewey presidential set-up as of now. He can have the GOP nomination if he wants it, easy. The politicians who've grown grey analyzing these things, say he'd be crazy not to accept, and he must come out ahead even if he loses. He lost in his campaign against Lehman, but grew in prestige, and won the next time by a terrific landslide. If he should run against the Champ and come out on the shorter end of the electoral vote, he will still be Governor, still young, still have the prestige of having run for the Presidency, and his personality will still dominate the national Republican situation. And then, he might win. On the other hand, if he doesn't accept the Republican nomination now, anything can happen in four years, and the high reputation which he holds now might not last that long. Moreover, other Deweys might grow up. . . . The only woman whom Dewey has nominated to a high State office is Louise C. Gerry, State Civil Service Commissioner. And even she isn't in the top spot. Both Roosevelt and Lehman, on the other hand, appointed many women to key posts.

LaGuardia and Dewey

. . . One Commissioner reveals that the LaGuardia feelers about how he'll maybe serve overseas with the Army is strictly for local build-up. Not a chance. . . . The story behind all those magistrate jobs that LaGuardia isn't filling, is this, say the insiders: The Little Fella is waiting for a year from now, when he'll need the influence of political Republicans for renomination. However, there's one big factor that's different today from what it was in '37 and '41: namely, the GOP has a powerful Statewide leader and also big State patronage. LaGuardia will have to ask Dewey—and only Dewey—if he wants the Mayorality nomination—not some local leader who might be tempted by minor patronage. . . . The dailies didn't tell the whole story about why OPA boss Woolley's publicity staff left him. The press boys blanched at what he wanted, said they'd quit first. "All right, quit!" Woolley answered. . . . Rumored as the next OPA press chief in NYC is Max Mensescher, Secretary of City Markets Department. . . . It's said Woolley has hopes of being next Mayor of Pa Knickerbocker's bailiwick. . . .

Stuff and Such

Despite the shouting, the figures show less crime in New York than before the war. However, there are odd kinds of crimes, especially those committed by men about to go into the Army. Thus, a guy working honestly for a boss many years suddenly embezzles thousands of dollars. There are enough such cases to indicate to observers a curious mental pattern afoot among some of the men who feel they have only a few weeks left as civilians. . . . The new area publicity director for USES will be Henry Sampson, formerly a branch manager in a USES office. . . . Pvt. Paul J. Kern still at Fort Custer, learning how to be an M.P. . . . Lieut. Henry Pfeifer, formerly a Sanitation Dept. clerk, has designed a machine gun mount for sentry boxes which costs $3. The Govt. now pays $1,500 for such mounts. Some of Pfeifer's mounts have already been experimentally installed. . . . Prof. Francis P. Wall, who used to design those physical tests for selecting cops and firemen, is now training soldiers who are in the Army's Specialized College Training Program at NYU. . . . Here's a tip to War Dept. employees: They're planning a whole series of aptitude tests like those in the Army, to place the right employee in the right job. . . . Postal service is getting awful bad when it takes up to 36 hours for an air-mail special delivery letter to get from Washington, to NYC. Postmaster General Walker and Postmaster Goldman better look into it. . . . Col. Joseph S. Bradley, Deputy Commander and Chief of Staff for the task force which recently broke through and took Saidor, New Guinea, from the Japs, is the son of Brigadier General John J. Bradley, LEADER Military Editor. . . .

Merit Men

Three Generations Of City Employees

But he'd rather talk about his family than himself.

To begin with, he even married in the tax office. Thirty years ago he decided that the confidential stenographer to the Commissioner should be married instead of working in an office, he married her.

His son, Harold Cox Simons, followed him into City service. The son's first job was with the Tax Bureau, and now he's an assessor, but he's temporarily tied up with another firm, as a corporal in the Army Air Forces at Santa Maria, California. Shortly after he married for the Army, Harold's wife had a child, and there's another City employee coming along if grandpa has his way.

Most Valuable

The desire to work for the City comes naturally to the Simons family. Back in 1906, the elder Mr. Simons, Reuben Simons, considered the "most valuable employee of New York City."

He was an assistant foreman of the Street Cleaning Department, drawing the then princely salary of $900 a year. He had lost his sight, but despite this handicap he was the general of an army of 150,000 children.

Sanitary conditions in the City were chaotic at that time, and Mr. Simons hit on the idea of organizing the school children into "Street Cleaning League." He travelled around to the public schools. The children were told the importance of keeping the City clean and carried the message home. Some took scribbled notes of violations in their neighborhoods and reported them to the Street Cleaning Department. Open meetings were held and the children explained to housekeepers and janitors the importance of cooperating with the Cleaners.

To return to Henry Clay Simons he had more excitement in the days. Before 1933 the City had personal property sales tax on the efforts of citizens to avert the verge of bankruptcy forced around the office. Today, it's mainly a matter of real estate taxes and he doesn't find that exciting.

THREE GENERATIONS of actors make a Royal Family of the theatre. But right in the City offices are men whose fathers worked for the City before them, who are working for the City, and whose sons are working for the City. Henry Clay Simons can make that claim.

He's chief clerk of the Tax Department. He first began working for the City in 1899, when he became a junior clerk in the Police Department at 19. One year later, he transferred over to the Tax Department, and soon was put to work on payrolls. After 43 years at the same job, he's an encyclopedia of the past and present employees of the Tax Department.

Learned Law at Night

While working for the City he found time to gain a law education at night, and was admitted to the Bar in 1904, after completing a law course at N. Y. U.

He says that he isn't as young as he used to be, and doesn't do much now except handle his job. But in his younger days he was one of Brooklyn's leading orators. Church dinners and department affairs weren't complete without an address by Mr. Simons.

When he has a reflective mood he opens the big drawer of his desk and pulls out his mementos. There's a silver match-case, souvenir of a dinner at Shanley's back in 1903. There's a faded list of speakers at a rally in 1914, and Henry Clay Simons appears on the list.

He's been at the job long enough to make his sunny little office on the 9th Floor of the Municipal Building fit him like a glove.

Letters

"Squeeze Together A Little"

Sirs—I have never written a letter to a paper before, and never thought I would find myself writing to a civil service paper, but one incident the other day made me want to write in complimenting an employee of the Subway on her good humor.

It was during the morning rush hours, and there was a mob of people trying to get into the elevator leading to the Independent Subway platform at 168th Street.

Despite all the excitement, the small colored woman who was operating the elevator managed somehow to keep her good humor.

With a bunch of people pushing to get into the elevator, and the people inside rushing to keep near the front, she suddenly came out with this cheerful remark: "Come on ladies, don't be bashful, squeeze together a little so we can get started."

In an instant, it seemed that everyone was smiling. The tension ended. The elevator started down, and I for one, was put in a good mood that lasted all morning.

It gave me a good feeling about City employees.

JUST ANOTHER CITIZEN

Soldier Asks Where Does He Stand?

Sirs: Before entering the Army

I took a New York City Civil Service examination for a job as Station Man. I wonder what happens when I come back after war.

Will I have a job with the City? Will I have to begin waiting over again for a City examination to come along which I can take?

If I were not in the Army would have been appointed to City job.

CORPORAL J. W.

Just where you stand is one of the war-time puzzles of the Municipal Civil Service Commission. The State Military Law is valid on your rights. However, it is expected that the State Legislature will pass a law before the end of the war to give you the right you have missed because of the fact that you were in military service.—Editor.

Worry, Worry

Sirs: I wonder if there is a law which says that City employees always have to be in doubt.

Outside jobs; we don't know whether or not we can take them. —Increases; we don't know how we stand;—working hours; seem to depend on the Mayor's whims;—Promotions; they seem to be about the only tainties along with death taxes for the City employees.

POLICE CALLS

Tracking Down A Rumor

A rumor flew around the department last week. It went like this:

A group of draft board chairmen went to see Mayor LaGuardia. "Mr. Mayor," they are reported to have said, "in view of the many fathers we are now compelled to draft, we can no longer continue to grant deferment to members of the Police Department, particularly those men who are single."

Well, we set out to confirm that rumor. First, we called the Mayor's office. There, the girls who check in visitors seemed genuinely mystified. "No," they told us, "we don't recall any group of draft board chairmen."

Next, we got in touch with the P. D. Military Service Bureau. "No, nothing along those lines has happened to our knowledge. Still going along on the same old basis."

Then we contacted Selective Service Headquarters. "We haven't been notified of such action by any local board," SS explained, "and normally it would be proper of the local board to tell us before going to see the Mayor on such a mission."

So, if you've heard that rumor creeping around that draft standards are being relaxed, you can put it down as nothing but a rumor.

On Retirement

To all you men who have left your retirement papers in, and are now leaving the department, Police Calls wishes godspeed and good fortune. We'll keep you informed about pensions and other departmental matters in which you're interested. Those of you who had your papers in and pulled them out—or intend to by January 13, the last date—may do so with the assurance, as Attorney Jim Tully interprets the law, that you'll be able to put your papers in again whenever you're ready to retire, and leave the job immediately.

Do You Want Study Materials?

We've had several requests to run the answers to the Lieutenant exam, as study material. These answers are in essay form, and very extended. They would have to be run over a period of months. But if enough of you men want it, we'll be glad to do it. The stuff is valuable, of course, not only to prospective lieutenants, but to all members of the department readying for promotion tests. If we get enough letters saying Go ahead, Police Calls, we'll run the material.

$2,000 Entrance Pay Proposed

There's a good chance that the pay of probationary patrolmen may go up to $2,000 again—where it belongs. A bill introduced at the first session of the City Council, meeting last week, provided that a very important and dismal-sounding section be knocked out of the administrative code. We'll give you the whole bill. The boldface type near the end is what goes out. The bill reads:

A LOCAL LAW to amend the administrative code of the City of New York, in relation to the salaries of probationary Patrolmen or policemen.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Item (c) of paragraph seven of subdivision (a) of section 434a-10.0 of the administrative code of the city of New York is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) The annual pay or compensation of the members of the police force who are patrolmen as aforesaid, shall be as follows: For members of the first grade, at the rate of not less than three thousand dollars each; for members of the second grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars each; for members of the third grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars each; for members of the fourth grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand five hundred dollars each; for members of the fifth grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand two hundred fifty dollars each; for members of the sixth grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand dollars each; for members of the seventh grade, at the rate of not less than two thousand dollars each, except that the annual pay or compensation of members of such seventh grade shall be at the rate of not less than one thousand three hundred twenty dollars each during the probationary period of their service).

Section 2. This local law shall take effect immediately.

Why the bill has a chance to pass is this: It was introduced by Vice-Chairman Sharkey, and they say he's really behind it. Well, let's hope so. If the democratic majority wants it, they can pass it, and they can get enough votes from the minority even to override the Mayor's veto.

Cop Makes Two Suggestions

Some week's ago, Police Calls asked for suggestions that might make for improvements in the P. D. We got a raft of interesting letters, and from time to time we'll run them. We want more. Here's one:

"Dear Editor:

"If you will read Rule 42 of the Police Department you will notice that the Borough or Division Commander is given the exclusive right to determine who shall be designated to fill a temporary vacancy created by the absence of a member of the Force attached to their command. In order to eliminate the possibility of favoritism in such assignments I would suggest that Rule 42 of the department be changed to read. "And a vacancy occurring in the rank of Sergeant, Lieutenant, Captain shall be filled by a member of the Force of his command if there be one on an eligible list for promotion to such rank, according to his standing on such eligible list."

In other words, he would be compelled under the rules of the department to give the citizens of the City of New York a qualified man for the job instead of some favored son. What's wrong with that suggestion? If there is no man in the command on a list, then he could use his own judgment.

"May I also suggest that there should be a Personnel complaint Bureau where a member of the department could register a just complaint? There are many injustices committed in the name of discipline. In other places of business the employer is interested to know conditions among employees and tries to maintain a co-operative relationship between employer and employee. The policeman's lot is not and never was a happy one. He listens to every one's tale of woe but who is there to listen or pay any attention to his?"

Joseph A. Sharkey: He's trying to get a $2,000 entrance salary for police rookies

Eligible Lists Issued by City

The following lists of eligibles who have passed recent examinations was released by the City Civil Service Commission last week:

Promotion to Mortuary Caretaker, Grade 2, Department of Hospitals; 23 names; Promotion to Cashier, Grade 2, Board of Transportation, General Administration, 33 names.

These lists may be examined at the Offices of The LEADER, 97 Duane Street, during business hours.

Navy Yard Employees Discover You Can't Tamper With Uncle Sam

Don't try to defraud your Uncle with the top hat, whiskers and striped pants. You may get away with it for a while, but sooner or later he'll catch up with you. This sad fact was learned the hard way by nine Navy Yard employees last week, and it looks like the lesson is going to strike some others, too.

Jail sentences and stiff fines hit nine employees who had been "accumulating" overtime—that is, putting in claims for overtime pay without putting in work. Their names:

Edward E. Neatherland, 14-09 31st Avenue, Astoria, got 6 months in jail. Neatherland, formerly supervisor of the Blueprint Division, had been with the Navy Yard since 1932.

John P. Alfano, 135 Washington Walk, drew a $100 fine, plus a six-month suspended sentence. He is on probation for a year. Michael Autera, 314 East 159th Street, 3 months in jail. Autera is an assistant supervisor in the Blueprint Division.

Albert Francois, 913 New York Avenue, Union City, N. J., got 3 months in jail. Francois is also an assistant supervisor in the Blueprint Division.

Louis Cicero, $100 fine. Henry J. Hinton, $100 fine. James C. Marisello, $100 fine. Isadore I. Shapiro, $100 fine. Frank B. Tuddo, $100 fine.

Non-Resident, Not Non-Citizen

Mrs. Earle straightened out a "boner" at last week's Council meeting.

Last year, the Health Department asked her to introduce a bill in the Council to allow a non-resident of the City to be appointed as Director of Nursing.

However, through some mixup in Subdivision B of Section F41-14.1 of the Administrative Code, the bill as it came out would have allowed a non-citizen to take the job, but said nothing about residence.

So Mrs. Earle introduced a new paragraph to correct the error. The bill was laid over until the Council gets around to appointing a Committee on Civil Employees.

Not Many Are Being Examined

One place where the war boom isn't being felt is the offices of the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

The annual report of the Medical-Physical Unit for 1943 ends with this notation: "Smallest number in many years."

Last year, the Commission gave 7,631 medical examinations, 1,416 medical re-examinations, and 1,238 competitive physical examinations.

"Can't Retire A Dead Man"

Pensions have been a cause of activity in the Courts lately, and the Court of Appeals last week handed down a decision which won $1,500 for the widow of a Board of Education worker.

In this case, Mary McAllen vs. Marshall, Mr. McAllen, an employee of the Board had filed an application for retirement on grounds of disability.

Then, while the application for retirement was pending, and before the Trustees of the pension fund had acted, Mr. McAllen died. After he died, the Pension board voted to retire him, and to pay the widow the death benefit of a retired employee.

"You can't retire a dead man", held Mrs. McAllen's attorney, and sued for the $1,500 difference in death benefit between what is paid to the heirs of an active employee and a retired employee.

The widow won in the lower courts, but the City appealed. Now the Court of Appeals has again upheld the verdict. Attorney in the case was David Savage.

For the returning soldier—there's nothing better to keep him up-to-date on Government job opportunities than the Civil Service LEADER.

PUBLIC WORKS Extra Hours

Employees in the Department of Public Works are now contributing another 4 hours each week to the City.

The increase in working hours, explains David I. Shivitz, new acting deputy commissioner, has absolutely no connection with the expected cost-of-living bonus. It's just that the shortage of help makes it necessary for everyone to work a little longer.

Under the new schedule, people in the department are expected to report at 8:45 a.m. The working day ends at 5:15 p.m., and the lunch period has been cut from an hour to 45 minutes. On Saturday the working hours are 8:45 to noon.

Previously the program called for a 9:15-5:15 working day.

Many employees of the department have jobs which call for around-the-clock tours. They have also been given longer hours.

For example, bridge tenders and operators had been working rotating shifts and used to get one day off each week. With the new program they get an 8-hour

"swing" and one full day off every two weeks.

How do the employees feel about it?—How would you feel if you were given a present of an extra half day's work each week, and no extra pay.

BOROUGH OFFICES Bernard, Kelsh Get City Posts

Edgar J. Nathan, Jr. President of the Borough of Manhattan, last week filled two exempt positions in his office. Herman J. Bernard, formerly of the news editing staff of the New York Sun, was sworn in as confidential assistant to the President at $4,100; and Mrs. Bertha Kelsh, of 124 East 101st Street, assumed the post of secretary of the borough, at $4,000.

Mrs. Kelsh has been Republican co-leader of the Eighteenth Assembly District (Upper Yorkville) for twenty-two years and is active in Red Cross and War Loan drives. She succeeds Margaret M. Burnet, who was appointed a Municipal Court Justice by Mayor LaGuardia.

Mr. Bernard, who was born in Yorkville, and has served during all campaigns since 1913 on the Republican Speakers Committee, succeeds William R. Peer, resigned. Mr. Bernard has served as an examiner in the office of the Commissioner of Accounts (now known as the Department of Investigation), and has been a newspaperman of long standing.

CORRECTION Wanted: New Titles

They haven't had any luck working through the Department of Correction and the Budget Office, so the correction officers are off on a new front to gain their objective.

John Reardon, president of the Correction Officers Benevolent Association, says that the group is working on a bill to give the men the same status as police—$3,000 top salary instead of the present $2,400, and better chances for advancement. They intend to bring their measure before the City Council, and hope for favorable action.

For the past 3 years, says Mr. Reardon, this has been the prime aim of the organization.

The auto enginemen in Correction, who would like to obtain the title of correction officer because they do the same work, suffered a setback when the City Civil Service Commission turned down their request for reclassification. Although the Correction Officers association endorsed the change of the enginemen, it looks as though they'll have to remain auto enginemen despite the fact that their duties consist partly of transporting and guarding prisoners.

Machine Shorthand

"Pencil Packing Stenographers" are old fashioned, say students of the Stenotype course at the Heffly & Browne Secretarial School, 7 Lafayette Ave., Brooklyn.

Stenotype is the machine shorthand system taught at the school. Replacing the pencil with the Stenograph machine, students are taught the machine method which is legible to both speedy executives and their stenographers. By means of this method, old notes cannot become "cold", absences need not delay work, and the notes of one stenographer may be interchanged with that of another. The Stenograph machine standardizes the shorthand notes.

The school also teaches "Pencil Packing Stenographers." In fact, several hundred students are now enrolled in the Pitman and Gregg Shorthand courses given at the school. Mid-winter registrants at the school will start their training on January 31 and daily thereafter.

State Employees Expect Action on Pay Problems

ALBANY—Although several bills were introduced to boost the pay of State employees, Governor Dewey in his annual message to the Legislature failed to mention what he has in mind about renewing or increasing the war-time emergency compensation enacted last year.

It is confidently felt here that Mr. Dewey will tackle this problem in his budget message due the latter part of this month. The State surplus of $140,000,000 which the Governor forecast for March 31 will not be available for any expenditures and the Governor has warned that he doesn't intend to dip into that fund for anything.

Came Out of Odds and Ends
Last year the wartime bonus paid State employees came out of lapsed appropriations, money for unfilled position, and other odds and ends, aggregating around $6,000,000. Employees are now talking about a continuation of the wartime bonus in some form, but at a higher figure. It is certain that demands will be made upon the Governor and Legislature for more pay.

Commenting upon the Governor's message, Harold J. Fisher, President of the Association of State Civil Service Employees, said:

ASCE Sees Special Message

"The completion of Governor Dewey's first year in office reveals a fine record of progressive accomplishment and a vigorous clear-cut program for the future. His message did not touch on civil service matters but he doubtless is reserving these recommendations for his later budget or for special messages."

Neither Mr. Fisher nor other Association officers were depressed because the Governor failed to comment upon pay raises or other civil service problems. They feel that he will get around to these in due time.

Meanwhile, however, Assemblyman Robert Crews introduced bills to boost pay of State employees. One of them also would raise the minimum to $1,500 a year and another would provide for time-and-a-half for all time over 40 hours a week. The majority of State employees now are working less than 40 hours weekly except in numerous instances where their extra duties require considerable overtime. They get no additional pay.

Another pay raise bill would give all employees getting $5,000 a year or less an increase of 15 per cent.

As things shape up it is probable that the question of pay increases, whom they will cover and the amounts will be one of the most important issues of this session to State workers.

'Under Protest' Signing Would End

The first meeting of the City Council last week saw the re-introduction of 3 Civil Service bills by Councilman Anthony Di Giovanni. These bills had died when the old Council ended. However, the measure were laid over until a Committee on Civil Employees is appointed.

The bills had the following objectives:

1. Provides that it would not be necessary for City employees to sign their payrolls "under protest" in order to be able to bring suit later for collection of back salary, or unpaid increments.
2. Provides that any salary voucher for a City employee must carry a notation that the employee is actually working in the department to which he was appointed.
3. Provides that notice of any proposed reclassification or change of title must be advertised by the City Civil Service Commission with the name and description of the specific positions concerned so that the employees may have an opportunity to appear at the public hearing.

Returning Veterans

certification records. Then the Certification Bureau will be notified to replace him on the list for appointment.

2. If he has missed a promotion examination because of military service:

a. If an application for a promotion examination has not been filed, he will find in the Information Office a list of promotion examinations which have been given, and from these he will determine which he might have taken. Then he will fill out an application form which will be placed on file until the special examination for the promotion is given.

Special promotional examinations for persons honorably discharged from the services will be given by the Commission within one year from the date when the ex-soldier filed his application. In cases where there are a large number of returning candidates for a promotional examination, it will be given at least once a year. Whenever practical, it is intended to hold the special examinations in May and November.

b. If he has filed, but never took his promotional examination he will receive a refund of his filing fee, and will be treated as above.

c. If he has taken part of a promotional examination, but not completed it, he will be credited with the part of the test he has passed and will be allowed to take a special examination for the parts which he has missed.

Advice Regularly

Every three months the Information Unit will send a letter to each City department reminding them to advise persons returning from military service to call at the Commission to determine their promotional rights. A similar notice will appear in the City Record each week.

Medical Discharge

But those men who get out of the Army via a C.D.D. (medical or physical discharge) face a different routine. They are re-investigated. They get another medical examination if it seems that the reason for their Army discharge is one which might interfere with their work for the City. If they have been discharged for psychoneurotic conditions, they must go through an examination by City psychiatrists before being allowed to accept a City post.

CALL CIVIL SERVANTS

The oldest religious chimes in New York — in Wall Street's Trinity Church — will ring out daily at noon, except Sundays, to summon civil service employees, numerous in the vicinity, for the Fourth War Loan Drive which starts January 18th.
