1847 The Committee met at the office of the Secretary of State on Thursday April 29th 1847, at 12. M.

Present, Messrs. Benton, Bleeker & Campbell.
Mr Benton in the Chair.

Mr Page proposed to the Committee, to introduce Prof. Silliman's Chemistry as a text book into the Normal School, in place of Gray's Chemistry, which is now used.

Action upon this proposition was postponed until a future meeting.

Wm. H. Campbell
Secretary.

The Committee met at the Office of the Secretary of State on Wednesday May 5th at 12. M.

Present Messrs. Benton, Hawley & Campbell.
Mr Benton in the Chair.

The minutes of several meetings were read & approved.

Resolved:

That Silliman's Chemistry be introduced as the text book on Chemistry.

Whereas the increased number of the pupils demands the appointment of an additional teacher, & whereas the limited amount of the funds renders this impracticable, unless there be some curtailment of the present expenses; therefore

1. Resolved. That Vocal Music be hereafter taught by some of the regular teachers of the School.

2. Resolved:

That the services of Mr Isley be dispensed ~~be dispensed~~ with after the present date.

3. Resolved:

That in dissolving the connections of Mr Isley with the State Normal School, the Committee
