Spett, Max Israel M.

Born on February 9, 1888 in Brosewnica (Poland).
Since 1899 was living in Wiesbaden (Germany), since 1918 in Luzerne (Switzerland), since 1922 again in Wiesbaden and since 1933 in Brussels (Belgium).

Since 1910 member of the German Socialist Party-S.P.S.
When in Switzerland - member of the Socialist Party of Switzerland. Since 1933 he edited (or printed in his workshop and publishing house) the known German pacifist weekly of Professor Friedrich Wilhelm Foerster "Die Menschheit", "Die Menschheit" was the official organ of the German Pacifist Society, which discovered the secret arming of the Reichswehr and the connection of the various ministers (members of the government) with the Nazis.

In 1933 more than 50 Gestapo agents searched the publishing house, the printing shop and the apartment of Mr. Spett.
They took away eighteen large packages with different materials.
The printing shop was closed in the summer of 1933. (See "Deutscher Reichsanzeiger" N 209 of September 7, 1933).

After this Spett flew to Belgium and continued there his work as publisher. In Belgium he published German and French books of a known anti-Nazi character (Alfred Kerr, the known Berlin critic and editor of the "Berliner Tageblatt" and S. Hambitzer).
He published also the book "Die Diktatur des Bauernschicks" (very known in the circles of German emigrants), which bore his name as editor and publisher. The same publishing house issued Jewish books and magazines in French, especially the weekly "L'Avenir Juif" (Jewish Future), well-known in all Europe and North Africa for its relentless fight against the Hitler System. The last number of this weekly appeared on May 10, 1940, (the same day that Hitler suddenly attacked Belgium) with an ardent appeal against the Nazis.
The weekly also bore the name of Mr. Spett, as editor.

On May 13, 1940, he flew to France, was interned in Revel and then brought to the camp of Agde, where he still is now, together with his wife and four children. In his last letter of November 6, 1940 he wrote: they will all die of starvation if help will not come from abroad. If the Gestapo should find that he is in this camp, they would undoubtedly extradite him, since they spent days hunting for him in Belgium.

Dear Mr. Spett:

The President's Committee called me this afternoon again and we were informed that the affidavits could not be considered strong enough.

They were very sympathetic and said that it was simply not possible to pass the papers though they would very much like to do so.

I am very much afraid that you will have to get an additional affidavit.

This is to certify that Mr. Israel Mendel Spett and children are "protégés" of our committee and that places have been reserved for them on the s.s "Wyoming" by the Commandant of the Camp des Milles. Mr. Spett's and his childrens' visas have been authorized by the State Department. We should be very grateful if you would grant them in time to enable them to take the boat. Since Mr. Spett was born in Poland and you have no Polish quota numbers, we hope you will give him a visitors' visa rather than ask him to wait for an immigration visa.

Liebe verehrte Miss Strunsky, darf ich Sie durch diesen Brief noch einmal bitten, wie versprochen, morgen Dienstag an Frey zu telegraphieren, um ihm dringend ans Herz zu legen, dass die Spetts mit dem naechsten Mai-Schiff loskommen? Ich bin fest ueberzeugt, dass nur das von Miss Warburg vergessene Telegramm an Frey schuld daran war, dass dieser nicht mehr rechtzeitig die arrangements fuer das Schiff vom 10. Mai fuer die Spett-family treffen konnte. Ich mache mir wirklich Vorwuerfe, dass ich mich damals nicht misstrauisch bei der Emerescue vergewissert habe.

Koennten Sie nicht bei der Emerescue anregen, dass auch diese nochmal an Frey telegraphiert, damit dieser bestimmt fuer das naechste Schiff arrangiert? Ich waere Ihnen sooo dankbar.

Mit vielen herzlichen und ergebenen Gruessen auch an Frl. Rosenberg
