Wrestling: Three Albany wrestlers won titles at the Empire Athletic Association Championships over the weekend. Van Fronhofer (Salem H.S.) won by fall over Cortland State's Josh Roe at 4:11 in the 142-pound championship bout. Anthony Camisa dec. Ithaca's Chris Pierce at 167, and Randy Shaw pinned Ithaca's Ben Weiland at 3:26 in the 177 classification.

All three UA wrestlers qualified for the NCAA Division III championships on March 3-4 at Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. Fronhofer, who returned to school this semester after training at the U.S. Olympic Center in Colorado, is making his third NCAA appearance. He lost in the 142 semifinals to national champion Frank Croce (Kean, N.J.) in 1991, and also qualified in 1993. Camisa and Shaw are in the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. Camisa lost in the first round to Central Iowa's Chad Jensen, 3-1, at 158, while Shaw was bounced, 7-5, by 167 national champion Chris Ricklic, of Case Western Reserve. Albany has had five individual NCAA champs, but none since 1987.

Track & Field: MEN -- Albany won the Collegiate Track Conference Indoor Championships over the weekend in New Haven, Conn. Individual winners: Geoffrey York (Troy H.S.), 55m hurdles, 7.42; Vincent Hodnett, high jump, 6'6"; Anthony Davenport, long jump, 23'0"; Travis Miller, 200 meters, 22.58 seconds; and Oscar Almendarez, triple jump, 46'4.75". The 4x400 meter relay (Courtney Currie, Travis Miller, Zamafa Chikwendu and Vince Hodnett) also won in 3:23.29. Junior Shawn McGrath (Shenendehowa H.S.) was fourth in the pentathlon (3,022 points).

WOMEN -- Albany was third in the CTC championships behind Trenton State and Southern Connecticut State. Individual winners: Kimberly Toone, 55m hurdles, 8.65 and long jump, 18'0"; Mary Walminski, 20-lb. weight throw, 41'0"; Roxanne DePrade, 1,500m walk, 8:24.4; Tanya Dunkley, triple jump, 36'6.75"; and Lisa Nesta, 5,000 meters, 18:22.8. The mile relay (Denise Dickerson, Dana Hoffman, Tracy Wienckowski, Kimberly Toone) also won in 4:08.24. Hoffman is a freshman from Niskayuna H.S. Other locals finishers: Dawn Kassabasian (South Colonie H.S.) was third in the pentathlon (2,325 points) and fourth in triple jump (32'8"), while Tonya Dodge (Granville Central H.S.) was third at 1,500 meters (4:51.09), and freshman Jennifer Smith (Mohonasen H.S.) was sixth in the 55m hurdles (9.60).

Swimming: Amy Hilton (Guilderland H.S.) swam in four events at the last weekend's New York State championships. Her best finish was fourth in the 200-freestyle. Also: 9th in 500, 11th in 100 and 15th in 50. Sophomore Debbie Armet was second in both the one-meter and three-meter diving events.

Men's Basketball: Ted Hotaling (LaSalle Institute) was named to the ECAC Upstate New York Honor Roll for the sixth time this season. Hotaling averaged 17.3 points and 5.0 rebounds in three games last week. He became the 18th player at Albany to score 1,000 career points, and is currently No. 15 with 1,041.

Women's Basketball: Christy Squires (Hoosic Valley Central H.S.) was chosen to the ECAC Honor Roll for the first time this season. Squires averaged 15.5 points and 10.0 rebounds in a 2-0 week for the Great Danes.

ALBANY EARNS NO. 5 SEED FOR NYS BASKETBALL TOURNEY
Great Danes Play at Ithaca on Tuesday

ALBANY, N.Y. -- The University at Albany women's basketball team will be seeded fifth in this week's New York State Women's Collegiate Athletic Association (NYSWCAA) Division III Basketball Tournament. Albany (16-8) travels to Ithaca, the fourth seed with a 14-10 record, on February 21. The game time will be announced on Monday.

The eight-team tournament begins on Tuesday with first-round games played at campus sites. The semifinals and championship move to Albany's Recreation & Convocation Center on February 24-25. Friday's semifinals are scheduled for 5:30 and 7:30, while the championship is slated for 2:00 p.m. on Saturday.

St. John Fisher, which comes into the tourney with a perfect 24-0 record, and has won six New York state titles since 1987, is the top seed, and entertains Clarkson in the opening round. If the Cardinals win that contest, they will face the Albany-Ithaca winner in the semifinals.

Albany and Ithaca met during the regular season, and the Bombers came away with a 52-49 victory on their home floor. The Great Danes are making their sixth appearance in the New York State Tournament.

The tournament's lower bracket includes, #7 Rensselaer (14-10) at #2 Keuka (16-8) and #6 Stony Brook (12-11) at #3 Hartwick (18-6).

DOUG SMITH WILL NOT PLAY TONIGHT DUE TO ILLNESS

ALBANY, N.Y. -- Sophomore guard Doug Smith, a fixture in Albany's starting lineup since late December, will not play tonight due to illness. Smith, who has been suffering with a virus, has returned to Syracuse to seek medical attention, and will be out for an indefinite period.

The 6'2' guard became a starter on December 29, and has since averaged 11.8 points per game. He has scored in double figures nine times during that stretch, and recently posted a career-high 20 points against North Adams State.

On the season, Smith is averaging 9.5 points and 3.2 rebounds, and leads the Great Danes in field goal percentage (.497, 76-153) and three-point field goal percentage (.471, 16-34).

HOTALING & GINSBERG NAMED TO ECAC HONOR ROLL

Ted Hotaling (LaSalle Institute / Niverville, N.Y.) has been selected to the ECAC Upstate New York Honor Roll in men's basketball for the week ending, Sat., Feb. 11. He has received the award five times this season.

The 6'5" senior forward averaged 19.7 points and 4.7 rebounds in a 3-0 week for the Great Danes. He scored 21 points in Saturday's 91-89 overtime upset victory at Elmira, ranked No. 4 in last week's NCAA East Region Poll. His double-figure streak stands at 21 straight games. Albany (14-5) is at Hartwick on Tuesday at 8:00 p.m.

Samantha Ginsberg was also chosen to the ECAC Honor Roll in women's basketball. The sophomore guard has been selected on four occasions this year.

Ginsberg averaged 16.0 points, 3.0 assists and 3.3 steals in three games.

Women's Swimming: Sophomore Amy Hilton (Guilderland H.S.) set a school record in 1,000-freestyle last Friday, Feb. 10 with a time of 11:04.58. Hilton, who owns a combined total of 10 Albany and pool records, qualified for the ECAC championships on March 2-4 at the University at Albany. Hilton, who had never competed in the 1,000 previous to Friday, will swim this weekend at the New York State championships.

Wrestling: Seniors Anthony Camisa (22-5 record, 167 lbs.) and Randy Shaw (22-5 record, 177 lbs.) are Albany's top contenders at this weekend's Empire Athletic Association Championships. This meet is a regional qualifier for the NCAA Division III championships. Locals James Kane (17-10 record, 150 lbs.) and Van Fronhofer (142 lbs.) will also compete. Kane is from Voorheesville (Christian Bros. Academy), while Fronhoffer is from Salem High School.

Track & Field: Shawn McGrath (Shenendehowa H.S.), a junior, won the pole vault at the Adirondack USAT&F Invitational last Saturday at Albany's Recreation & Convocation Center. McGrath went 13'3" or 4.04 meters.

Junior Dawn Kassabasian (South Colonie H.S.) won the women's high jump in this same meet at 4'9.75" or 1.47 meters. Randi Mason was a double winner in the long jump (16'7.25") and 55-meter dash (7.7 seconds).

Men's Basketball: Ted Hotaling (LaSalle Institute) was named to the ECAC Honor Roll for the fifth time this season. The 6'5" senior averaged 19.7 points in a 3-0 week for the Great Danes, and has scored in double figures in 21 straight contests.

Boggie 2-2-2

Women's Basketball: Sophomore Samantha Ginsberg made her fourth appearance on the ECAC Honor Roll this season. Ginsberg, UA's top scorer, averaged 16.0 points and 3.3 steals in three games last week.

Track & Field: Albany set five school records at Saturday's Capital District Championships...freshman Anthony Davenport (Roslyn, N.Y.) won the long jump with a leap of 23'9" (7.24m)...that broke a 17-year-old record held by Donald Dross, who went 23'4.5" in 1978...Davenport's record was also the longest jump by a Division III athlete this season...he was second in the state scholastic outdoor meet (23'11") last spring...

Other records: Geoffrey York (Troy H.S.) went 6.82 (50-meter hurdles) in his heat, but was third in the final due to muscle spasms...Travis Miller (def. back on last year's football team) went 6.05 in the 50-meter dash...Tanya Dunkley (6.5 seconds, 50-meter dash)...Mary Walminski (42'11" or 13.08m) in 20-lb. weight throw...

Men's Basketball: Freshman Andre Duncan was named as the ECAC Upstate NY Co-Rookie-of-the-Week with St. Lawrence's Carter Perryman...Duncan had career-highs in points (20) and blocked shots (5) in a 91-86 (3ot) victory over Oneonta State (Jan. 31).

Ted Hotaling (LaSalle Institute) was selected to the ECAC Honor Roll for the fourth time this season. He had a season-high 25 points and a career-best 10 rebounds against Oneonta State.

Women's Basketball: Freshman Kerry Ochal (Amsterdam H.S.) recorded career-highs in points (16) and rebounds (16) in last Thursday's 92-35 victory at Southern Vermont. She led Amsterdam High to a pair of Big Ten titles and a 42-5 record over the last two years.

Boggie 2-2-2

Feature Idea: Senior Christy Squires (Hoosic Valley Central H.S.), a co-captain on the Albany women's basketball team, gets up at 5:00 a.m. every morning to milk cows on a dairy farm in Rensselaer County. In addition, she makes the 30-minute commute each day to campus to attend classes and practice/games.

A 19-game starter, she is averaging 6.6 points and 5.8 rebounds as a forward. Squires led Hudson Valley C.C. to the 1993 NJCAA Division III national title, and was a second team All-America choice prior to enrolling at Albany.

UNIVERSITY AT ALBANY EARNS BID TO 1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT Great Danes Make Second Consecutive Appearance

ALBANY, N.Y. -- The University at Albany men's basketball team has earned a berth in the 1995 NCAA Division III Basketball Tournament. The 64-team was announced on Sunday evening.

Albany (17-7) is seeded fifth in the East Region, and will play at No. 4 seed St. John Fisher (16-9) in the first round on Thursday, March 2. Game time will be announced on Monday. St. John Fisher, which has won 10 of its last 11 starts, defeated the Great Danes, 89-82, on its home floor on February 21.

The Albany-St. John Fisher winner will take on the survivor of the Rochester Institute of Technology-Geneseo State first-round contest. R.I.T. (21-4) is the East Region's No. 1 seed, while Geneseo (18-7) is the eighth seed.

Albany is making its 11th appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Great Danes, which have made the tourney four times in the 1990's, reached the NCAA's Elite Eight last year before losing to New York University, 67-65, in the East Sectional final.

The Great Danes secured their place in the tournament with a 62-50 victory over Stony Brook in their final regular-season contest. Albany posted a 12-3 record since mid-January in making its run to the national tournament.
