Congressman Moves To Put Air Guard In Retirement System; Feily Praises Act

ALBANY, March 7—Joseph F. Feily, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, announced that word has been received from the office of Congressman Frank J. Becker stating that approval had been granted by the Assistant Secretary of Defense to include in the 1962 Budget sufficient monies to permit the 2,000 employees of the Air National Guard in New York State to be participants of the New York State Retirement System. The salaries of these employees are now being paid by the Federal Government but in many other ways they are considered New York State employees.

"This is a giant step towards a solution of a problem which the Employees Association has long been interested in," Mr. Feily stated. "The Civil Service Employees Association is greatly appreciative of the efforts of Rep. Frank J. Becker of Lynbrook, N. Y. for his personal interest in getting this successful ruling of Assistant Secretary of Defense, Charles G. Finucane.

Wilson, VanLare Cited

"The Civil Service Employees Association also pays its compliments to Lieut. Gov. Malcolm Wilson and to Sen. Frank E. VanLare. In 1958, when Mr. Wilson was an

Mayor Conference Backs CSEA Plan Boosting Take Home Pay for Local Aides

ALBANY, March 7 — Application of a plan to give State employees a bigger take-home pay check by absorbing the first five points contribution to the State Retirement System has been endorsed for political subdivision employees by the New York State Conference of Mayors.

The state plan, which was conceived by the Civil Service Employees Association, won unanimous support among the mayors' group, holding its annual meeting here. The local groups would apply the plan on a permissive basis.

Albany Mayor Erastus Corning brought the state plan to the attention of the conference and proposed its adoption.

Feily Cites Need

In commenting on their action Joseph F. Feily, president of the Civil Service Employees Association, declared:

"We definitely feel that the employees of the local areas of the State are in great need of salary assistance. Although the five percent bill has not as yet been completely drawn, the Employees Association has already considered this possible extension.

"We are preparing a bill which will contain the necessary language making it permissive for localities to participate in this plan if they so desire. The CSEA compliments Mayor Corning for his prompt action in seeking to improve the salary structure of the employees of the municipalities," he said.

The committee's approval of legislation to permit cities and villages to make this extra payment for their employees does not necessarily mean all cities and villages would decide to put up the money for it.

Central Islip Sets Annual Talent Show

The 21st annual Talent Show presented by the patients of the Central Islip State Hospital, will be given on Monday, March 14, and Wednesday, March 16, at 1:30 p.m. in Robbins Hall for the patients, Dr. Francis J. O'Neill, director, will be in charge.

The public is invited to attend the evening performance on Tuesday, March 15, 1960 at 8:00 p.m. sharp in Robbins Hall. The program will feature vocal, instrumental and dance numbers with a musical background provided by the patients orchestra and glee club. The costumes are made by the occupational therapy department and the entire production is under the direction of the recreational department.

At the evening performance, in order to defray the expenses of the program, a voluntary contribution will be accepted from those attending (adults fifty cents, children twenty-five cents). It is hoped in this way to also provide funds for additional recreational facilities for the patients in the hospital.

The production is called, "Beach Capades of 1960".

The proposal for state employees has the approval of both Governor Rockefeller and Republican legislative leaders. Mayor Corning proposed the procedure be made permissible to local governments.

A feature of the plan which may make it attractive to state and local legislators is that the money to pay for such take-home pay increases could be raised in a later budget year.

The legislative committee of the opms Uuen Pm9. enetwsl Conference of Mayors approved the idea after a meeting at conference headquarters, 6 Elk St. The plan was explained to the committee members by Milton Alpert, counsel to the Governor's Office of Local Government, who had been invited to the meeting.

Mayor Corning did not attend the session, but talked with conference officials about the idea before the meeting. He is treasurer of the conference.

Harold Weiden, attorney for the Village of Floral Park and representative of the Nassau County Villages Association, presided at the meeting which was attended by about 16 city and village officials.

The committee considered only

Deadline on Payroll Deduction March 15 In Westchester

Employees of the County of Westchester are reminded that "Payroll Dues Deduction" applications will be accepted by the Finance Department until the deadline date of March 15, 1960. This will be the last chance for present employees to obtain payroll dues deductions until the next open period in September. You are urged to speak to non-member fellow employees about the benefits derived from membership in the Association.

New employees may obtain "Payroll Deduction" of dues, if they apply during their first 30 days of employment.

All members insured under the "Group Life Insurance Program" are advised that they may change their beneficiary if they so desire. "Change of Beneficiary" forms may be obtained by writing The Civil Service Employees Association, Inc., 8 Elk Street, Albany, New York. If you are in doubt as to whom you have previously designated as your beneficiary, you may also obtain this information by writing to CSEA Headquarters.

This is of utmost importance to all those who have recently been married. It is also very important in all cases where the designated beneficiary is now deceased. In recent months Westchester County has been reporting deaths of life insured members at the rate of about one a month. Please take care of this important matter.

March 12 is the date the certificate of representation is scheduled to be granted if no "good cause is found" why this should not be done.

Congressman Advances Air Guard Retirement Cause

Employees Association will keep its interests in this problem active to achieve the inclusion of the necessary monies in the 1962 Budget," said Mr. Felly.

The telegram from Congressman Becker is below:

"Congressman Frank J. Becker (R-NY) announced that for more than two years he has tried to rectify an injustice to New York State employees whose salaries are paid for by the Federal Government but were not covered under any retirement system.

Thanks Stevenson, Albright

"Without the introduction of any legislation, Congressman Becker has now brought this matter to a successful conclusion insofar as the Department of Defense is concerned. Becker stated, 'I am happy to announce that I was informed today by the Assistant Secretary of Defense, Mr. Charles G. Finucane, that the Department will recommend that its 1962 Budget include eight million dollars to cover the two thousand employees in the State of New York and a total overall number of thirty three thousand in the entire United States,' Becker said, 'This has required intensive cooperation between Assistant Secretary Finucane and me in securing not only the cooperation of the Department of the Army and Department of the Air Force, but the Comptroller General as well in the inclusion of this money to pay for the government side of the retirement benefits that was so badly needed.'

"Congressman Becker expresses appreciation to the Adjutant General of the New York National Guard, Brigadier General Charles Stevenson, as well as to Harry W. Albright, Jr., Assistant Counsel to the New York State Civil Service Employees Association for having called this matter to his attention. Both of these gentlemen have cooperated to the fullest extent in supplying all the information and details necessary to further this cause. 'It is only right and just that, when all other Federal and state employees are able to pay into a retirement fund and be covered under the law, these people should now be included,' Becker said. 'I am extremely grateful to Assistant Secretary Finucane; to General Stevenson, an old friend, and to the Civil Service Employees Association of New York State for their cooperation.'

"Congressman Becker further stated, 'Now that we are over this hurdle, the greatest one of all, my next step will be to convince the Budget Bureau to agree to this inclusion in the Department of Defense Budget for 1962.' Becker said, 'It is never an easy matter to convince the Budget Bureau; however, I will do everything in my power to have the executive branch of government put their stamp of approval on this most worthwhile item in the Defense Department Budget for 1962, and I feel certain they will agree.'

Capital District's European Tour Repeat of "A Good Time"

ALBANY, March 7 — Capital District Conference members will have an opportunity to visit Europe this summer on a repeat performance of the successful trip conducted last year by that CSEA Conference.

This year's trip will be the same as the one taken by 97 State employees in August 1959 except that a different airline will be used — the West German airline, Lufthansa—and a second tour will be offered. The traveling CSEAs will be permitted to choose whether they wish to see London, Paris, the Riviera, Rome, Venice Switzerland, Munich and Heidelberg on the southern tour, or Ireland, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and Germany's Rhein Valley on the northern tour.

Deloras Fussell, of the State Education Department, co-chairman of the tour with Ed Kahn of the Commerce Department, pointed out that the northern tour was designed specifically at the request of those people who took the trip last year.

"They had such a good time,"

Miss Fussell said, "that they wanted to try another part of Europe this year. So we decided to repeat last year's southern tour for those who did not get a chance to go, and schedule a northern tour for anyone who wanted to go back. Of course both tours are open to any conference member who wants to travel."

Both tours will leave from New York City on Sunday, August 14, 1960. The northern group will leave the main body at Shannon, Ireland and meet it again at Frankfurt-am-Main three weeks later.

The tour will cost $695, whether you go north or south. This price includes all room, board and transportation. Anyone who wishes to take just the plane ride and not remain with one of the tours is welcome too. The price for the round-trip air passage will be $261.73.

For information on the tour conference members should contact Deloras Fussell, 111 Winthrop Avenue, Albany, Phone IV 2-3597, or Ed Kahn, 85 Hunter Avenue, Albany, Phone IV 2-1353.

Chairman of the conference, consisting of about 40 men, was Ziv Remez, chief of the Program Management Division, Bureau of Field Operations, U.S. Civil Service Commission. Also attending from Washington, and senior U.S. aide present, was Frank Barley, chief of the Bureau of Inspections and Classified Audits, Maurice Etzell and Milton Sharin, Mr. Barley's assistants, were also present.

The purpose of the conference was a critical reviewing of the present programs of inspections for other agencies. Other conferences, arranged along similar lines, will be held for the other Civil Service Regions across the U.S.

Five Top Career Men Get President's Award

The nation's highest honor to career civil servants, the President's Award for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, was presented recently to five top career men by President Eisenhower.

In a presentation statement the President said the awards provide "an inspiring example for all Government employees, each of whom must perform at peak levels . . . if we are to solve successfully the complex problems of our times."

The Award winners:

- Andrew Barr, chief accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and former Yale accounting professor. He joined the SEC in 1938. He was cited for having "materially aided the process of capital formation in the United States and advanced the cause of investor protection."

- Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, was named for "scientific and administrative leadership in planning and organizing American space exploration."

- William J. Hopkins, Executive Clerk, White House Office, was honored for "effective and impartial administration and unselfish loyalty and high dedication to the service of the Presidency for three decades."

- Dr. Winfred Overholser, Superintendent of St. Elizabeths Hospital, was cited for his "profound and far-reaching contributions in the field of mental health."

- Robert M. Page, Naval Research Laboratory Director of Research, was named for "remarkable achievements in electronics research and the development of radar."

My Employees Win Performance Awards

Anne Bernstein, mail and records clerk of the First U.S. Civil Service Region, received a Department of the Army Performance Award Certificate at a ceremony at Governors Island.

The award, her second, was presented by Colonel Theodore A. Rathje, transportation officer of the First Army, for sustained superior performance during the past year. She also received a cash award and an outstanding performance rating.

Another First Army employee, Joan Lynch, a secretary in the Headquarters Engineers Section on Governors Island, also received a performance award for sustained superior performance.

Civil Service League Honors Ten U.S. Aides

The National Civil Service League, a nonpartisan civic organization, has announced its selection of the ten outstanding Federal Government employees for 1960. The awards were presented to 10 career officials—one woman and nine men—working in various agencies of the Government.

The League, whose purpose is to promote public understanding of the civil service and improve personnel management in government, has presented the awards annually since 1955 for competence, character and achievement.

The one woman chosen was Ethel B. Dietrich, economic officer of the United States mission to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and European Regional Organization in Paris.

Others chosen are: Dr. Allen V. Astin, director of the National Bureau of Standards; Judson D. DeRamus, manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Edwin L. Kilby, commissioner of the Public Debt; Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, Jr., inspector general, Central Intelligence Agency.

Eugene Stone Love, assistant chief, Aero-Physics Division, National Aeronautics Administration, Langley Field, Va.; Rufus E. Miles, Jr., director of administration, Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Franklin K. Pittman, director of the division of reactor development, Atomic Energy Commission.

Also, Alvin J. Roseman, regional director for far eastern operations, International Cooperation Administration; and William F. Schaub, chief of the military division, United States Bureau of the Budget.

First Army Gets New Safety Deputy

Bernard L. Taylor, former safety director, Headquarters Seoul Area Command, Korea, has been named by Headquarters United States First Army to be safety program administrator and assistant to the First Army safety director.

During the past seven years Mr. Taylor performed safety assignments for the U.S. Army in the Far East. He was safety director of the Japan Central Exchange from March 1953 to June 1954. From June 1954 to January 1956 he was chief inspector, safety division of Camp Yokohama.

In Tokyo he was assigned as chief, inspection and education branch, Headquarters Central Command, from January 1956 to January 1957, and later became safety director at Camp Drake. He is a graduate of New York University's safety course and of Northwestern University's Traffic Institute.

Plan to Fatten Pay Checks Backed By Mayors' Conference

THE NEW YORK State Conference of Mayors' legislative committee last week unanimously approved a proposal for State legislation to permit cities to give their employees a five percent take-home pay increase similar to that Governor Rockefeller is seeking for State employees.

An attractive feature of the plan, as far as the cities are concerned, is that the money to pay for it could be raised in a later budget year. The Governor's program for State employees, on which the Mayors Conference proposal is based, provides that the State would pay the first five points of present employee salary deductions for retirement funds.

It behooves New York City, as the natural leader among New York State municipalities and of those throughout the Nation, to be in the vanguard of this program, not in the lurch. Neither Mayor Wagner nor any other city official has yet commented on this pay boost proposal.

It is also essential to the City government's prestige as a liberal, labor-minded regime that it lead the way in this proposal. And it is of great importance to City employees that the City, leading or following, should adopt the plan.

Pay Not Only Issue Before Legislature

ATTENTION on action in the State Legislature is focused mainly on salary measures for public employees, but civil servants are reminded that several other important pieces of legislation are also under consideration.

Vested rights, payment of moving expenses, increased pensions for retired employees, higher mileage rates in political subdivisions and other fringe benefits are also up for action this year.

What happens to a worker's pay check is important but his attention should not be riveted to that one issue. For this reason, public employees are urged to let their legislators know of the need for getting other measures passed.

The surest way of drawing attention to legislation is for a legislator to hear from many of his constituents on the matter.

Don't overlook the other activities in the civil service field. Other things are important, too, and since the Legislature is reaching the peak of its activity, now is the time to write and tell your own legislator that you want him to support ALL bills which will benefit the public worker.

CIVIL SERVICE NOTES FROM ALL OVER

LOS ANGELES, California—An innovation in the selection process for Assistant Steam Plant Operators makes use of a test battery administered by the State Employment Service. An applicant must have a certificate stating he has passed this before he may file an application with the city.

MANITOBA, Canada—Provincial civil servants who "keep" government cars at home for their work now will have to pay for them on a rental basis of $20 a month for standard models; $12.50 for smaller ones; and $10 for jeeps and light trucks. This applies to all persons from cabinet ministers on down except for those whose jobs require them to cover big mileage in large areas.

such as forest rangers. The fees will be collected by payroll deduction.

NEWARK, New Jersey—The Greater Newark Development Council recently retained a consultant on cultural developments to strengthen and broaden the city's cultural resources as part of the city's urban renewal activities.

NORTH CAROLINA—The state has upped the age to which the state contributes to the employee's retirement from 60 to 65. The State Personnel Department has established a testing program to assist in non-Merit System agencies; a public relations position has been established in the Department.

All letters to the Editor must be signed. We will withhold senders name upon request. Address all letters to the Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y. We reserve the right to withhold publication or to edit published letters as seems appropriate.

NO LUNCH HOUR CALLED ONE MORE REASON FOR FIREMAN PAY RAISES

Editor, The Leader:

Physicians and nutritionists advise that eating-time should be a peaceful, undisturbed, relaxed time. Firemen, however, do not have a lunch hour and thus they eat at will. Their lunch may be cut short by a fire alarm that may keep them busy for two or three hours or more, during which time they may take coffee or soda breaks and time out for a cigarette while fighting the fire. But these are no substitutes for a regular, decent lunch.

Lack of a regular lunch hour is one more reason for favorable action on the firemen's request for a $6,000-$7,500 wage scale. Also, a fireman's stomach, full or empty, does not mix well with heavy smoke inhalation.

HARRY FITZER

SAYS ACTION FOR CITY WELFARE POLICE OVERDUE

Editor, The Leader:

Recently City Welfare Commissioner Dumpson stated to the welfare patrolmen that we should come to him with our grievances instead of appealing to the newspapers and other outside sources. We had a meeting with the Commissioner, stating various aspects of our job which we sincerely felt should be improved. He was courteous in his manner, and told our committee that we would know his decision in several days.

It was several weeks before he told us he would have to confer with Mayor Wagner and the Police Commissioner before we had an answer. Then it was almost an entire month before we had his answer. He will not even back our Peace Officer Bill which is now in Albany. The Bill was passed last year, until the ex-commissioner asked the Governor to veto it.

All we ask in fairness is to have our title recognized for what it really is, a police job. We perform an important function in Welfare—preserving the peace and making arrests, all with the risks of other Peace Officers, but not with their pay, proper equipment, proper uniform allowance, etc.

Questions Answered On Social Security

Below are questions on Social Security problems sent in by our readers and answered by a legal expert in the field. Anyone with a question on Social Security should write it out and send it to the Social Security Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y.

My husband is totally disabled and is drawing disability insurance from social security. How old must I be to collect as his wife? We have no children.

The wife of a disabled beneficiary must be at least 62 years of age to draw wife's insurance benefits unless she has in her care children under 18 years of age or over 18 who have been permanently and totally disabled since before age 18 and who are entitled to benefits.

A co-worker of mine said he heard that everyone should have his social security account checked. Why is this? I thought all the social security records were accurate.

Your friend is correct. The Social Security Administration urges that every employee or self-employed person have his social security account checked on a regular basis, usually every three years. The old adage that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is applicable to your social security account too. The modern methods of recording each employee and self-employed person's wage information do a remarkable job of maintaining correct accounts but sometimes inaccuracies will occur. This can happen due to many reasons but usually because a social security number is omitted from the employer's report or an incorrect digit of the person's social security number is accidentally typed. When an individual has his account checked, he can quickly determine from the information he receives back from the Social Security Administration whether all his earnings are being credited to his account.

I have been drawing benefits for several years. I just took a job in a restaurant for $100 per month cash wages. My employer gives me two meals a day. He values these meals at 75 cents per meal. I now hear that the value of these meals must be considered in my total earnings for the year. Is this correct?

Yes. The value of the meals constitutes payment in kind and must be considered in the total earnings for the year. If you continue to work under the same arrangements you will earn over $1200 for the year and will not be due checks for all 12 months of the year.

A friend told me that I can pay my own social security tax. I earn wages of $4,000 a year in a shoe factory and I want to pay on $4,800 in order to get maximum benefits. How do I go about this?

Sorry to say your friend is wrong. As an employee, your social security tax is reported and paid by your employer. In order to pay the tax of $4,800, you must earn $4,800. Only self-employed business and professional people and ministers pay their own social security tax on the actual amount of their net business income for the year.

When I made my social security application for retirement benefits, the man at the social security office said I had to make some sort of report after January 1960. I stopped working in November 1959 and I'm way over 65. I for got what report he meant. Can you tell me what it is?

The social security representative was referring to an annual report of earnings. If your total earnings in 1959 exceeded $1,200 this report is made in order for the Social Security Administration to determine if you have received all checks to which you were entitled in 1959. A person is subject to loss of one or more social security checks if his earnings exceed $1,200 in a year. An annual report shows the exact amount of earnings. From this can be obtained the number of checks due you. You have until April 15, 1960, in which to make this annual report. You may be penalized additional social security checks for failure to make this annual report. The people at the social security office will be happy to assist you should you encounter any difficulty with the annual report form.

My brother is receiving monthly social security payments. Recently he moved to my house. He changed his address for mailing purposes with the post office. Is there anything else he should do about this matter?

Yes, there is. For social security purposes, it is necessary to complete a change of address card which is obtainable at the social security office. Your brother should write his name, social security claim number, and new address where indicated. He must also sign his name. Change of address can only be made by request of the social security beneficiary himself.

I employ a part time maid and pay her $10.00 a week. She says she does not want social security taxes withheld from her salary. Must I pay my employer's share of the tax, anyway?

You, as the employer, are responsible for paying all of the tax. If you do not withhold her share from her salary, you must pay all of the tax yourself.

What is the highest monthly benefit amount that will be payable in 1960 to someone who retired in 1959?

That would be $119. The person would have had to have been paid at least $4,800 in 1959.

What proof of earnings does a self-employed person need when he applies for social security?

When a self-employed person comes in to file for social security benefits, he needs to furnish a copy of last year's income tax return which we have to keep permanently. He also needs to furnish proof that he has filed this return with Internal Revenue Service; this proof can be the money order stub or cancelled check used to pay the tax. The latest tax return is needed too.

I worked part time, as a student, and had a social security number. Now that I am self-employed, do I use the same number to report my self-employment income from my business?

Yes. Once you have a number, that number is good for your lifetime. If you have lost your card, you should contact the nearest social security office for a duplicate with the same number as the old one.

How Can I Know?

"Free choice of doctor" is a much-used — and much-abused — term.

In health insurance it can mean very different things. It can mean the right to choose a physician blindly — or the right to choose intelligently.

Everyone will concede that choosing a doctor is considerably more important than selecting a washine machine or a vacation resort. Nevertheless, for many people the casual recommendation of a friend or neighbor is all too often the determining factor.

In H.I.P. your choice of physician is safeguarded. It is the only Community health plan in the New York area which maintains professional standards for all its affiliated physicians — family doctors as well as specialists.

Every doctor practicing in an H.I.P. medical group has been approved by a medical board of eighteen physicians distinguished in their profession . . . And each doctor gives only the kind of service for which he has been professionally trained.

meanwhile, full-time workers with three years satisfactory probation work would be granted tenure.

Teacher Wins Police Widow's Pension

A retired New York City school teacher and police patrolman's widow has just won her fight for a widow's pension more than 20 years after her husband's death, according to a decision by Supreme Court Justice Aron Steuer.

When her husband died in 1938 after 20 years in the Police Department, Mrs. Irene K. Wallace applied for a widow's pension. It was denied by then Police Commissioner Valentine on the ground that she was gainfully employed as a school teacher. Mrs. Wallace did not contest the decision and continued teaching until 1959 when she reached retirement age and began drawing a Board of Education pension.

She again applied for a widow's pension but the Police Pension Board again denied her. Represented by attorney Samuel Resnick, Mrs. Wallace sued and won. She had been with the Board of Education as a teacher since 1912.

Nominations are to be made by City department and agency heads on employees' demonstrated devotion to public welfare, promotion of efficiency and quality in public service and development of good will toward and enhancement of prestige of the City government and its employees.

Each City agency with fewer than 5,000 employees may submit three nominations. Those with more than 5,000 employees may submit six candidates. Nominations must be made by April 1. The Department of Personnel is handling the nominations.

Con Edison has held the price line on electricity.

Please keep this in mind when you hear or read about electric rates.

NEW YORK GROWS ON ELECTRICITY

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT ELECTRIC RATES

The long-term trend of Con Edison's average electric prices has been steadily downward. The average residential rate, for example, declined from 5.04 cents per kilowatt-hour in 1945 to 3.98 cents in 1959. Likewise the average commercial and industrial price declined from 3.11 cents in 1945 to 2.63 cents in 1959. Can you think of anything else in common use that has gone down as much?

From time to time, adjustments in rates have slowed but have never reversed this downward trend of electric prices. But during recent years the downward trend has been in the face of rising costs. So the company had to ask for certain increases. Early in January the Public Service Commission authorized adjustments in electric rates as a step to bring them more into line with today's conditions.

Over all, the increases are moderate. New York's average residential consumer will pay only 1% more... which averages about 6 cents a month. The large commercial and industrial customers will bear the greater part of the increase.

WHY THE BIG FELLOW GETS THE BIGGER INCREASE

Rates are set with the aim of playing fair with everybody. Electricity, like most everything else, is sold at a quantity discount. The more you use, the less you pay per kilowatt-hour. This is a sound principle.

However, the quantity discount rates for the largest users were too low in relation to the cost of supplying electricity today and the big fellows simply weren't paying their way. At the same time, as their demand for electricity increased, they were taking more and more at the lowest rates. Last year some of them were paying less than 1.5 cents per kilowatt-hour and this was below the cost of service.

If you sell too cheap, the more you sell, the more you lose. The new rates tend to correct this. Naturally, the large users are not particularly happy at the prospect of paying more. Nor do we like to charge anyone more - but each group should pay its own fair share.

At the same time, we can well understand people asking, "Why should anyone pay higher rates?" We think a few facts will give the answer.

IT COSTS MORE TO SUPPLY ELECTRICITY TODAY

Everything that goes into supplying electricity costs more today - boilers, turbines, wire and cable, materials and supplies, wages and, of course, taxes. But what a lot of people don't know is that if it weren't for the tremendous advances and improvements Con Edison has made in generating and distributing electricity, we would have been forced long ago to raise rates drastically. Now costs have risen so far they have overtaken the best that science and industry can do to hold the price line.

While we're talking about costs, there is one point that we think deserves special mention. That is taxes. Con Edison is the most heavily taxed electric company in the United States. Just recently New York City added an additional 1% tax on utilities, and this extra tax eats up every cent of the additional money residential customers will pay us because of the recent rate adjustment. A tax on us is a tax on you!

WHY IS THERE A NEED FOR PROFITS?

We've heard people ask why a public utility like Con Edison has to make profits. Every time we pay a dividend to our stockholders, some people point to this as though paying for the use of somebody's money is a "giveaway." They forget that our national, state and municipal governments, as well as thousands of businesses, have to pay dividends or interest for the use of money. They also forget that your constant demand for more and more electricity makes it necessary for us to build new power plants and install new distribution equipment. To pay for these, we have to sell more bonds and more stocks. Investors just won't buy these bonds and stocks unless they can be sure of getting fair pay for the use of their money. They know they can get fair returns from others so why should they take less from us?

CON EDISON HAS TO BUILD FOR YOUR FUTURE

New York grows on electricity! And it certainly is true that every day sees a greater and greater demand for electricity. This calls for constant building of new generating and distribution facilities. In 1959 alone we spent $210 million on new additions to our system... and we plan to spend well over a billion dollars during the next five years. Anything that would prevent us from raising this money would mean that we could not provide all the electricity you will need in the years to come.

By constantly developing and installing the most modern methods and equipment we have brought about savings that have helped offset the steadily increasing costs of doing business. We've spent money to save money! This we'd like to continue to do - for it is the best way in the long run to hold down costs and the price of electricity to you.

We hope you'll keep these facts in mind when you read or hear about electric rates. Con Edison's aim is to provide you with all the electricity you need - now and in the years to come - at the lowest practical rates.

H. C. Forbes

ACTIVITIES OF EMPLOYEES IN STATE

Tompkins

Mrs. Emma Adams and Evalda Holman of the County Hospital have returned to work after being hospitalized. We are glad to have them with us again.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mary Clelland of the County turned home from the hospital, Health Department, who has read and hopes to return to work soon. Charles Kelber, past president of the Steuben Chapter, has joined the staff of the Tompkins County Laboratory. Welcome to Tompkins Chapter.

It is to be regretted that so many members of our chapter were ill and unable to attend the Syracuse workshop as planned. We hope you have all recovered. Remember there is another workshop in Binghamton in April and we hope you can make this one.

The membership chairman report that the campaign is about ready to roll, you will see us around, and remember new members can now join at half the yearly rate.

The next chapter meeting will be held soon. There will be an announcement in the Journal News as to date. Watch for it come and bring a friend.

Syracuse

Compensation: on Jan. 30 Jon Dussing and Margery Kinder exchanged marriage vows at St. Lucy's Church. Jon is the son of Mrs. Eloise Dussing, principal compensation clerk. Best wishes for their happiness are extended by the office.

The calendar section is sorry to see Barbara Root leave. Miss Root has taken a position at General Electric.

Dorothy Stillman was welcomed back to work after a recent illness. Sympathy is extended to Ruth Burtless on the death of her father, and to Helen Thornton on the death of her uncle. Clarice Adams is in Florida for a two-week vacation.

Public Works: the death of Othmer Chapman, Liverpool, on Feb. 21, after an illness of two weeks, came as a shock to his many friends in the department and throughout the State. Chappy had worked for the Canals and Waterways Division since May of 1937.

Besides his wife, Ethel, also with Public Works, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Floyd Gardner of Taberg. Chappy was a past master of Liverpool Lodge No. 525, P&AM, and he and Ethel have been active in CSEA for many years. He will be sorely missed.

Madison State

Representatives from every service, building and department were present at a special meeting of the chapter, held on the first of March in the Assembly Hall. A buffet and refreshments were served and a pleasant and informative session was held.

John Powers and James Casey, association field representatives were on hand to aid in a Chapter membership drive, and answered many questions regarding the activities of the CSEA, in Albany, on their behalf.

A regular meeting of the Chapter will be held on March 23, in the assembly hall at 4:45 p.m. All officers and members are urged to attend this meeting. Many important items of interest will be discussed including the nomination and election of Chapter officers for the next term of office.

The following employees are on the sick list and we extend best wishes for a speedy recovery to them: Joseph Edwards, Sabrina Carey, Edward Furman, Dorothy Baccus, Gardenia Wilson, Matt Walsh, James Grub and Mary Duncan.

Tony Sayers has the love light in his eyes these days; between figuring on getting married and planning the trip to Ireland, he's walking on clouds.

Steven Donahue of the refrigeration department, recently was married. Steve and Mrs. Donahue are spending their honeymoon in the Poconos. Congratulations folks and best wishes.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the family and relatives of the late Mrs. Anna McHugh who recently passed away. Her many friends and co-workers will miss her.

Middletown

The hospital's new social center is a very attractive spot, and members of the Middletown State Hospital chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, met there for the second time for the monthly meeting Feb. 17.

Field Representative John Corcoran, Jr., was guest speaker. Mr. Corcoran spent the week at Middletown, consulting with employees on various problems of retirement, insurance, etc., and working with chapter officers on plans for the soon-to-be-launched membership drive.

Agnes Henry, treasurer, has selected a very fine membership committee, with representatives in each building and department; a list will be posted shortly. The chapter is planning a dinner especially for these people who, in giving a very small amount of their time, will help to increase membership in CSEA, the most successful, worthwhile, and least expensive organization for state employees.

Also discussed at the meeting was the need for salary increases, and Governor Rockefeller's Public refusal to include an adjustment in his budget. Mr. Corcoran also explained some of the bills which are expected to pass, such as increased retirement benefits and vested rights.

The next meeting will be in the social center March 16, at which time you can hear reports from delegates to the mid-year Association meeting in Albany, to be held March 9 and 10. Also nominations for new officers will be presented. Other activities coming up include another 50-50 Club; a Workshop at the Concord Hotel in April; and possibly another dinner-dance. The big deal right now: getting new members.

THREE R.P.M.I. AIDES RETIRE

And by the way, there are still too many of you regular members who are members on paper only, who stay home rather than come out to a meeting once a month. Come and bring your arguments, criticisms, problems, and grievances, and share them with your fellow employees who are vitally interested in bettering our working conditions. The refreshments are good too.

Our sympathy to Mrs. Coleanti, whose husband, former business officer C. C. Colesanti, died in Florida last week. Glad to hear that Barbara Murray, stenographer in the business office, is home from the hospital. Irene Hite of the O. T. Department has had a long siege of illness also. If you have items of interest for this column or know of members off sick, please notify B. Mc Daniels, O. T. Department.

Creedmoor

Arthur Heidenrich of the merchandise office reports the new class of students taking the Fundamentals of Supervision course as follows: Mary Miller and Dorothy Paterson of the administration

Office: Celeste Falco, sewing room; Mary Hastings, administration office; Meg Fowler, R building; Marion Rada, dining rooms; Mattie Dudley, dining rooms; Martha Bailey, dining rooms; Gladys Fitzpatrick, Building L; Richie Harris, Building N; Harry Bickel, Garage; Bill Keely, Powerhouse; Roy Keller, Carpenter shop; John Joyce, Building P; Peter Byrne, mattress shop; Frank Riley, Safety Service; Benn Sullivan, print shop and Joe Sulkowski of Building S. Mr. Heidenrich is the Leader of the group.

We finally got a report from one of our outposts. Ida Williams, building representative of building 38 tells us that Leona Arendes, staff Attendant, just promised to love, honor and obey somebody we don't know who, and we all extend the best of luck to Leona and her new hubby.

The not so good news from there is that Daphne Browns and Shirley Spears are in the hospital and we hope they are up and about on the old grind stone in the near future.

The Mens Bowling leagues are nearing the end of the schedule and we will print the final results in the near future. It looks at this point to be a shoo-in for Oscar Langhorne, Bob Held and Gustave Juhlin of the Tuesday night league. Leading the Monday night league are Jacobs, P. Chase and S. Chase.

Nora McCarthy, chief supervisor, and Elizabeth Burbury, super of Building R, are on vacation in sunny Florida.

Don't forget to come on out for the Annual St. Patrick's Day Dance which is being held by the veterans of the hospital on March 17. The dance will be held in the Amusement Hall. This year the tickets are $1.50, but the reason for this is that entertainment is on the menu in addition to the usual good time we have been having at these dances. Only couples are permitted at the dance so line up your partner now and make arrangements.

Celia Neville is doing a good job at taking Mrs. Grimes' place while the latter is temporarily house-keeping for Dr. LaBurt. Dr. and Mrs. Berardelli are cruising to Havana on vacation.

the proposal to let municipalities pay part of their employees' contributions to the State Employees Retirement System. They did not consider a companion idea to let school districts pay part of teachers' contributions to the State Teachers Retirement System, which would bring a similar take-home pay increase for teachers. Mayor Corning has proposed legislation to make this permissible, too.

ALBION STAFF HONORS RETIREE

Shown being presented with a purse from his fellow employees at Albion State School in honor of his retirement after 32 years of State service is Gerald R. Sullivan. Presenting the gift to him is G. C. O'Connell, superintendent at the school. Mr. Sullivan went to work for the State in 1917, served in the U.S. Army and worked in private business, and was appointed chauffeur at Albion in 1932, and has been employed there since. The gift was presented at a dinner in his honor held at the Albion Elks Club.

MENTAL HYGIENE MEMO

By A. J. COCCARO

SAFETY AND CORRECTION

A short time ago the writer received a letter from a safety officer in Psychiatric Institute.

In his letter the officer compares the title, duties and salaries of the safety officer in the Mental Hygiene Department and the correction officer in the Department of Correction. His complaint is that the duties of the positions are similar but the pay difference is great. The basic officer position in Mental Hygiene is from $780 to $900 a year lower.

Correction Salaries Not High

The salary of the officer in the Department of Correction is low. Their problems have been very ably explained from time to time in our "Correction Corner." Yet by comparison the Mental Hygiene officer position is considerably lower.

The highest institution safety officer position in the Department of Mental Hygiene is Chief Safety Supervisor, Grade 12. The top man in many of our institutions is the Institution Safety Supervisor, Grade 10. The Supervisor is responsible for police and fire protection, and institution safety for thousands of patients and employees. The responsibility of the position is great. Yet, his salary grade is lower than that of the freshly recruited Officer in correction and his salary much less than that of plain patrolmen in many of our cities and villages throughout the State.

The whole series of Safety Officer titles in the Department of Mental Hygiene needs up to date revision that would place them in line with other state departments and other public jurisdictions.

ROCHESTER CHAPTER SHOWS APPRECIATION

One hundred and fifty calendars are in the process of being delivered to various offices at the Rochester State Hospital with the compliments of the Hospital's Civil Service Employees Association Chapter. The gifts are being given to hospital offices and individuals to show the Chapter's appreciation for cooperation in CSEA membership and social functions. Shown inspecting one of the calendars are Claude Rowell, CSEA fifth vice president; Bill Rossiter, Chapter president; Ruth Lewis, chief supervising nurse; P. J. McCormack, business officer; and Dr. C. F. Terrence, director of the Hospital. The Chapter's membership is nearing the 1,000 mark and credit must be given to the hard work of the membership committee and its chairman, Leonard Swanson.
