THE WORLD WITHIN REACH

While you were here...

The Class of 2012 has experienced an exciting phase in the life of the University at Albany. This class has witnessed the most campus growth since the original construction of the main campus in the 1960s, the introduction of innovative new programs, major advances in the stature of University athletics, significant world events, spectacular growth, and much more. President George M. Philip and the entire University at Albany community feel privileged to have shared these years with you and want to send you off with the best wishes and the heartiest of congratulations.

WELCOME

Dear Class of '12 Graduates, Families and Friends:

Today is a momentous occasion for our graduates. It represents a culmination of the perseverance and commitment they have demonstrated in mastering a course of study. It is also a confirmation of the personal and intellectual growth they have achieved as members of a vibrant campus community. The faculty and staff of the University at Albany are tremendously proud of them.

We know this pride is shared by their families and friends. In the coming years, society will benefit from our graduates' contributions to science, education, social work, health care, business, public policy and numerous other fields. Our pride will only grow as we learn of their future successes.

Throughout this journey, they have been surrounded by faculty who possess a profound commitment to teaching, and whose research and scholarship address today's most important issues. UAlbany graduates are accomplished, not only in classroom study, but also because of research, internship, and volunteer opportunities. At the University at Albany, our goal is to put "The World Within Reach." Today, we stand before students whose worldviews have been enriched during their time on our culturally and intellectually diverse campus.

The Class of '12 joins the ranks of the University's 155,000 alumni who are having an impact close to home and around the globe. We hope as they leave our campus and for years to come, they will carry fond memories of their UAlbany experience and remember this commencement celebration as one of their warmest and most joyful occasions.

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning. The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have long, pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed.

The holder of the master's degree wears a gown with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down, and the rear part of its oblong shape is worn square cut. The gown may be worn open or closed. An alternate and older master's gown is also permissible. The gown is always worn open, has a long sleeve, which is square and closed at the end, and has a slit near the forearm.

Gowns for the doctoral degree may also be worn open or closed, but they carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. The velvet trimming may be either in black or the color distinctive to the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Academic gowns for each level are black, although a few institutions permit doctoral recipients to wear gowns of the characteristic institutional color.

Academic protocol allows trustees, presidents, and marshals of higher education institutions to wear gowns which are especially designed and colored. The president of the University at Albany wears a black and royal purple gown bearing four horizontal royal purple and gold bars on the sleeves. The marshals' gowns at UAlbany are navy and gold. Caps may be of serge, broadcloth, or, for the doctoral outfit only, of velvet. The tassel is black or the color appropriate to the subject, except the doctoral cap may have a tassel of gold or bullion.

The hoods of the master's degree recipients are a black shell made of material to match the gown and use the institutional colors. The doctoral hood, which uses the same institutional colors, is larger and of a different style, having a flat panel at the back. The hood is bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn. Holders of several doctoral degrees may make a choice of hood for any particular occasion. The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
Accountancy, Business, Commerce: Dusk
Economics: Copper
Education: Powder Blue
Fine Arts: Brown

Journalism: Crimson
Library Science: Lemon Yellow
Music: Pink
Philosophy: Royal Blue
Public Administration, including Foreign Service:
Teal Blue
Public Health: Salmon Pink
Science: Golden Yellow
Social Science and Social Work: Citron

Graduating students at UAlbany wear tassels of the color representing their field of study. Honors graduates of the baccalaureate program also wear honor medallions.

Candidates for degrees are listed as of April 6, 2012. No changes in status could be made after this date. Honors for degree candidates were computed using the cumulative grade point average as of December 24, 2011, and a projection that the student will have earned 56 or more credits at UAlbany, of which a minimum of 40 credits are A-E graded. Official honor status will be recalculated when spring 2012 grades are recorded and will appear on the diploma.

 Summa Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.75 or above

 Magna Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.74

* Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25-3.49

Thomas A. Constantine`71, State, National and International Law Enforcement Officer

Thomas A. Constantine was born on December 23, 1938 in Buffalo, New York. A product of parochial schools and graduate of St. Joseph's Collegiate Academy, Constantine began his career in law enforcement as a deputy sheriff with the Erie County Sheriff's Department in 1960.

In 1962, Constantine joined the New York State Police (NYSP) as a uniform trooper. Over the course of his 34 year career with the NYSP, he rose through the uniform and investigative ranks, which included service as a regional troop commander, headquarters staff inspector, and full colonel in the post of Field Commander in charge of day-to-day operations of both the uniform and investigative branches of the NYSP.

In 1986, Constantine was nominated by Gov. Mario Cuomo to the position of Superintendent of the NYSP. This marked the first time in 30 years that a member of the agency had risen through the ranks from trooper to superintendent. During his tenure as superintendent, the 4,800-member agency earned numerous awards, including the Governor's Excelsior Award as the best quality agency in state government.

As superintendent, Constantine was credited with establishing several innovative programs for the agency. These included the INTERPOL Liaison Program between the state and the U.S. National Central bureau of INTERPOL; the Driving While Intoxicated Checkpoint and "1-800 CURB-DWI" programs; a computer crimes unit; the Homicide Assessment Lead Indexing Network; the Saturation Speed Enforcement Programs; and the Consumer Product Tampering Program. His tenure received its highest acclaim for the State Police's emergence as a major force in combating drug trafficking.

Constantine's successes caught the attention of Attorney General Janet Reno and FBI Director Louis Freeh. On their recommendation, he was appointed administrator of the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) by President Bill Clinton on March 11, 1994.

As administrator of the DEA, Constantine oversaw a work force of more than 8,400 special agents and support staff assigned to the agency's 200 domestic offices and 78 foreign offices in over 55 countries. In this capacity, he promoted closer cooperation with state and local law enforcement agencies and directed DEA resources toward assisting foreign governments in their efforts to dismantle powerful drug trafficking organizations in the United States and abroad.

Constantine emphasized the need for increased integrity and ethics standards for all DEA employees. Since 1994, all new DEA special agents have been required to meet the most rigorous entrance standards in U.S. law enforcement.

In 1999, after retiring from the DEA, Constantine joined the University at Albany's Rockefeller College of Public Affairs and Policy as a public service professor. In May 2000, he tackled the biggest challenge of his career when he accepted an appointment by the United Kingdom Secretary of State to serve as Oversight Commissioner of the Independent Commission on Policing for Northern Ireland. He led a team of policing experts from the U.S. and Canada in initiating police reforms. In 2007, he was appointed to a select Senior Advisory Group to the U.S. Director of National Intelligence, where he provided independent assessment and guidance on security and law enforcement issues.

Constantine has been honored with the Nation of Colombia's Distinguished Service medal, the FBI's Penrith Award for Outstanding Law Enforcement Leader in the United States, and the New York State Governor's Law Enforcement Executive of the Year award. In 2011, the School of Criminal Justice presented him with a Distinguished Public Service Award. Constantine's photo can be viewed gracing the pillars of campus as a featured "Outstanding Alumnus" whose remarkable career path is a point of pride for the UAlbany Community.

Constantine earned an associate's degree from the Erie Community College, a bachelor's degree from The State University College at Buffalo, and his master's degree in Criminal Justice from the University at Albany in 1971. In addition, he holds honorary Doctor of Law degrees from Stonehill College and Niagara University. *

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT
THE UNDERGRADUATE CEREMONY

The Honorable Judith Sheindlin, Presiding Judge

Judge Judith Sheindlin began her career as a lawyer in the Family Court. Ten years later, in 1982, she became a judge in that court and in 1986 was appointed the Supervising Judge of the Family Court of New York.

A swift decision-maker with no tolerance for lame excuses, Judge Sheindlin earned a reputation as one of New York's most outspoken judges. While on the bench, her message was simple - "Take responsibility for yourself, your actions and the children you've brought into the world." Judge Sheindlin is credited with pioneering an "open court policy," allowing the public and the media to view her day-to-day proceedings, which was not a common practice at the time.

As the subject of a Los Angeles Times article in February 1993, Judge Sheindlin's story caught the attention of "60 Minutes," which soon led to a segment on the popular newsmagazine show. After her appearance, Judge Sheindlin was approached about the possibility of presiding over real cases with real consequences in a television courtroom. Shortly thereafter, "Judge Judy" became a reality, premiering in national syndication on September 16, 1996.

In 1996, Judge Sheindlin published her first book, "Don't Pee On My Leg and Tell Me It's Raining." In this brutally honest criticism of the family court system, she offers provocative and realistic suggestions for what she sees as weaknesses in the Family Court system, including steps to reform welfare fraud, foster care, juvenile delinquency and frivolous lawsuits. Her second book, "Beauty Fades, Dumb Is Forever," was published in January 1999. A national best seller, the book takes an in-depth look at women's issues, including the need to have self-esteem, independence, self-reliance and, most importantly, a sense of humor. Published in 2000, Sheindlin's third book, "Keep It Simple, Stupid: You're Smarter Than You Look," shares her wisdom and opinions on solving everyday family squabbles.

In February 2000, Judge Sheindlin published her first children's book entitled "Win or Lose By How You Choose." Her second book in the genre, "Judge Judy Sheindlin's You Can't Judge A Book By Its Cover," followed the next year. Designed as tools to help parents interact with their children, engaging illustrations accompany a series of clever questions that encourage parents to discuss the answers and evaluate the consequences of each course of action with their children.

Over the past 15 seasons, the popularity of "Judge Judy" has transcended daytime television to become part of America's pop culture. As a result, she has appeared on "Saturday Night Live"; has served as a judge for the "Miss America Pageant"; and has been profiled on "Nightline," A&E's "Biography," and MSNBC's "Headliners & Legends," to name a few. She's also been featured on numerous programs including "The Today Show," "Dateline NBC," "Larry King Live," "The Tonight Show," and "Live! With Regis and Kelly." In addition, she has been interviewed in major national publications such as The Wall St. Journal, The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, USA Today, Family Circle, and People.

VH1 named Judge Sheindlin one of the "200 Greatest Pop Culture Icons" in 2003. In 2006, Judge Sheindlin received a prestigious Star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame. She also received the Gracie Allen Tribute Award from American Women in Radio and Television for her significant contributions to the broadcasting industry. In 2007, Judge Sheindlin was named one of the top celebrities in entertainment in Forbes' "Celebrity 100" List.

Smart, savvy and opinionated, the irrepressible Judge Judith Sheindlin continues to hold court as presiding judge on "Judge Judy," which has been the #1 show in daytime for two consecutive seasons, and the #1 show in first-run syndication for the 2010-11 season. She recently extended her deal to continue "Judge Judy" through 2015.

Judge Judith Sheindlin attended college at the School of Government at American University in Washington, D.C., and after her graduation in 1963, went on to New York Law School where she received her degree. In addition, she holds honorary Doctor of Law degrees from Elizabethtown College and New York Law School.

Judge Sheindlin is married to Judge Jerry Sheindlin, a former Justice of the Supreme Court of New York. The second marriage for both, they have five children between them: Gregory, Jamie, Jonathan, Adam and Nicole, as well as 11 grandchildren. The Sheindlins are no strangers to UAlbany - three of their children are alumni. Gregory, '86 an attorney in New York, Adam Levy, District Attorney, Putnam County and Jonathan '89, a physician specializing in Vitreoretinal Surgery. ❄

KERMIT L. HALL AND PHYLLIS A. HALL INAUGURAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

One of the first things the late Kermit L. Hall did when he became the University at Albany president in February 2005 was to establish The Inaugural Scholarship Fund to provide need-based undergraduate student scholarships. The fund was jump-started with $100,000, in lieu of a formal presidential inauguration. Hall and his wife Phyllis also contributed an additional $10,000 to the fund, which was renamed the Kermit L. Hall and Phyllis A. Hall Inaugural Scholarship Fund in honor of the president who passed away August 13, 2006. This fund provides need-based undergraduate student scholarships as well as scholarships for students who have been admitted to the new Honors College. CONGRATULATIONS

When you start your career, it's nice to know a network of 155,000 alumni is ready to help you get your big break.

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the UAlbany Alumni Association. After a significant investment of time and effort, your admirable hard work has paid off - you are now an alumnus of the University at Albany! As I salute and welcome you to the ranks of our alumni, it is appropriate that I address my remarks to your future association with UAlbany.

Being a UAlbany alum comes with many benefits. I urge you to tap into the power of the 155,000-strong UAlbany alumni network for career opportunities or to stay connected with friends and classmates.

As a GOLD (Graduate of the Last Decade) alum, you'll also be receiving invitations to special events designed especially for you, like the ValleyCats GOLD event last summer, the GOLD Schmooze in New York City each fall, and the annual GOLD reunion at Homecoming each October. Find out more about being a GOLD alum by visiting our web page at www.albany.edu/alumni/GOLD.php.

There are lots of ways to stay in touch and make sure you get the latest news: Connect with fellow alums through the alumni Facebook group, do some professional networking through LinkedIn, or learn about UAlbany news and GOLD events through our GOLD Twitter group. You can also stay connected through UAlbany's free alumni online community, which includes an alumni directory, a career networking database, permanent email and much more.

Whenever you are on campus, stop by the Alumni House to say hello and take advantage of our Alumni Concierge Program, which offers computer access, free parking and more to visiting alumni. We hope you'll consider the Alumni House your new home away from home! We are available to help you get connected. Help us help you.

With warm regards and best wishes for success,

Canon Kay C. Hotaling '67, '70
President, Alumni Association

University at Albany Photo Release

The University at Albany's Commencement ceremonies are public events that are videotaped, photographed and recorded. I understand that by attending I give permission for the University to photograph and record me and then use my physical likeness and sound in University at Albany related publications and productions. The University at Albany may convert the video, photographs or audio into any format that exists now or may be devised in the future. The University at Albany may edit and repackage my physical likeness and sound as recorded this day into any existing format or one devised in the future. I will not seek any claim on the University at Albany or anyone else with whom they've contracted over the use of my physical likeness and sound recorded this day or for any other projects that grow out of it. This means, among other things, that I will not sue for invasion of privacy, right of publicity or any other right connected with the use of my physical likeness and sound recorded this day or any other projects that grow out of it. I intend for this to be a blanket release for the University at Albany and anyone else they may deal with in order to broadcast, promote or distribute the images and sound recorded this day or any projects that grow out of it.

ALMA MATER

College of the Empire State
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.

Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.

Ways of pleasantness are thine,
Leading where in wisdom's shrine,
Joy and cheer, and hope divine,
Ever dwell for aye.

Thine the voice whose call we hear,
Thine the hand which holds us near,
Thine the heart, so true, so dear,
Cherished, loved alway.

Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.
'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.
