Against Downgradings

CSEA To Support Rochester Telephone Operator's Lawsuit

ALBANY, July 8—The Civil Service Employees Association will underwrite part of the legal expense incurred by police phone operators in Rochester who are fighting a downgrading, CSEA President Joseph F. Felly announced today.

Felly said the Association would furnish the financial aid under its special legal program. He called the downgradings "forced demotions" and said they would mean about $1,000 or more annual loss in pay for each of the nine operators affected.

It is understood that the operators have retained the services of a Rochester attorney and will fight the demotions in court.

Fired Then Rehired

Felly said the city abolished the men's former jobs as police phone operators, which paid a maximum salary of $5,707 annually, then rehired them in new titles with yearly salaries as low as $4,000 to do the same work.

Most of the men involved had signed dues deduction authorizations for membership in CSEA, he said, but, because the city has refused to recognize the Association, have not yet had dues deducted. He said several of the men, however, had paid their annual dues directly to the Association.

Felly also criticized a union, Council 30 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, to which the city has granted exclusive representation rights, as not "having lifted a finger to help these men, despite its claims that it represents all city employees."

Reallocation Hearing Date Is Postponed

The Civil Service Employees Association has been informed by J. Earl Kelly, Director of Classification and Compensation for the Department of Civil Service that the July 17 hearing on the application for reallocation of Employment Interviewer, Unemployment Insurance Claims Examiner and Building Guard has been canceled. A new date will be announced next week.

CSEA Charges:

Public Works Department "Callous And Indifferent" Toward Rights Of Employee

ALBANY, July 8 — The Civil Service Employees Association has charged the State Department of Public Works with exhibiting "a callous and indifferent attitude to the rights of inadequately paid employees" of the Barge Canal system, with respect to payment of overtime compensation.

The charge was in a message from CSEA President Joseph F. Felly to J. Burch McMorran, State Superintendent of Public Works, which followed a refusal by McMorran to grant a CSEA request for a meeting to discuss the salary and overtime conditions of Canal workers.

'Not Satisfied,' Says Felly

McMorran had told the Employees Association that he could not see "what purpose a meeting with me would serve at this time." He said a study was in progress regarding the staffing of the canal.

In answering the turndown, Felly said "Putting it bluntly, we requested a meeting with you because we are not satisfied by your earlier reports that a "study is in progress." "More specifically," Felly said, "we wish to tell you that the manner in which the employees on the Barge Canal have been treated by your department superiors in our view, a callous and indifferent attitude to the rights of inadequately paid employees who have every right to believe that they are entitled to more consideration."

Says Employees Pay

Felly's charge related to the department's handling of a recent breakdown of a canal lock at Tribes Hill in Montgomery County. He said the solution offered by the Department was to "pay for the damaged lock by reducing the overtime salaries" of the employees. Consequently, he said, "the employees feel, and I believe with some justification, that they are required to pay out of their salaries for an unfortunate breakdown which occurred on the Canal."

As an example, Felly cited the canal structure operator (grade 7) whose annual salary is $3,990 to $4,995. He said there are approximately 170 canal employees in the title range and that "the

1963-64 Salary Program

Nassau Aides Ask 7 Percent Across Board Increase

MINEOLA, July 8—The Nassau County chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, has submitted to county officials its 1963-64 program calling for a seven percent across-the-board pay rates for the 8,000 county workers.

The request for the pay raise, which would give county employees $2,500,000 in additional salaries, was taken under advisement by the County Executive Eugene Nickerson and by the members of the Nassau Board of Supervisors. Provisions for any salary changes would have to be included in the 1964 budget which will be prepared in the fall.

Irving Flaumenbaum, president of the Nassau chapter, said the chapter was calling for the pay increase to match the rise in the cost of living since county workers received their last pay boost in July, 1961. "We feel," he said, "that salaries and the cost-of-living should keep pace with each other."

The chapter's new program also called for the following items:

- The granting of protection against removal, without a hearing, for non-competit-

Mahoney Seen As Leader In Wooing Back Conservatives

THOSE 141,000 votes the Republicans lost from their ranks via the Conservative Party slate last year in the gubernatorial election may not seem anything to worry about but the GOP wants them back. The reason: some top Republican leaders feel the split between liberal and conservative party members shows signs of growing and the distaff vote could increase next time around, now that a Conservative

TIMES CHANGE — Times and uniforms change but pretty girls are still the same. The change in uniforms from 1824 to 1963 is graphically illustrated by this float in the 150 year celebration at Ossining recently. The float was sponsored by the Sing Sing chapter, Civil Service Employees Association. The pretty girl is Evie LaCroix, an employee in the accounting department; the present day officer is James Daley; representing the forefather of today's officer is Fred Starler, wearing the uniform of the day in 1825. The float was mentioned as one of the outstanding in the parade and drew much attention.

 Party actually is in existence. It is generally conceded that downstate Republicans tend toward the liberal wing of the party, while the upstaters go in the other direction. As a matter of fact, some of the arch conservatives upstate classify New York City Republicans as being "no more than disguised Democrats."

Conservative Viewpoints

The Conservative Party has made no effort to conceal its distaste for Governor Rockefeller's "liberal" administration. But it is important to note that they did not condemn either Lieut. Governor Malcom Wilson or Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney for supporting the Governor's programs. The Conservative Party view was that these latter two men "had" to support the programs but did so "reluctantly."

The views and activities of the Conservative Party are a current concern to some GOP regulars, who feel the open split could seriously interfere with the important elections of 1964—should Rockefeller win the Republican nomination for President—and 1966, when the next gubernatorial race occurs. Signs are that the job of wooing the conservatives back to the fold has, in the main, fallen to Senator Mahoney.

Upstate Leader

The Senate Majority Leader is known to take pride in the recognition that he is the voice and leader of the upstate conservative wing and it is said that the party leadership is depending on that reputation to make conservatives lend an ear to the Senator.

As a first big step, Mahoney has accepted an invitation to be principal speaker at the Conservative Party dinner in New York City Sept. 26 which will honor the Party's chairman, J. Daniel Mahoney (no relation). Senator Mahoney has made pitches to Conservative Party members at smaller meetings to return to the regular GOP ranks but this will be the biggest attempt of all. While it will not be spelled out in so many words, Mahoney's essential theme will be that the present objections to party programs will end before too long.

What this means is that many Republicans do not expect Rockefeller to be in the picture after 1966 at the latest, either because of the Presidential race of 1964 or Rockefeller's "predictable disinterest" in running for governor again in 1966. It is not surprising, therefore, that if the conservative wing of the Republican Party is likely to win back State control of the party, Mahoney will want to play a major role in conservative domination. Bringing back the Conservative Party votes to the regular GOP ballot would do a good deal to strengthen his position as top party man in the State with the departure of Rockefeller.

Mahoney's Reasons

Mahoney, of course, is too astute a politician to be concerned about the GOP splinter votes only in terms of his own ambitions. He feels quite sincerely that there is no need for the conservatives to go it on their own; that the Republican Party is a conservative party by nature and that this philosophy will always prevail in the end. He is genuinely worried about the loss of votes to the Republican ticket and feels he must convince the conservatives that they are only helping Democrats when they stray from the GOP ranks.

Note: One test of the GOP's ability to woo back the Conservative Party votes is in the making. David H. Jaquith, who ran for governor on the Conservative ticket last fall, is seeking reelection to the Syracuse Board of Education. He has the backing of the Onondaga County Republican Party. This is being taken by many GOP leaders as a sign that the regular Republicans and the Conservatives are not so far apart as thought and that it indicates that full reunion is not far off.

Governor Opens Belgium Office

ALBANY, July 8 — Governor Rockefeller will be Brussels-bound this Fall to open new offices of the State Commerce Department.

Mr. Rockefeller will be accompanied by his wife and State Commerce Commissioner Keith S. McHugh. They are scheduled to arrive in Brussels, Belgium the morning of Oct. 1 and they will remain in the city for two days.

The new office of the department will be located at 20 Avenue des Arts. It will be operated by the International Commerce Division, which was created by Governor Rockefeller to promote and increase international trade.

OATH ADMINISTERED — Ben Sherman, New York City field representative, Civil Service Employees Association administers oath of office to officers of the New York State Psychiatric

Tuition Free Nursing Schools Provide Career Opportunity For High School Graduates

Nursing is one of the most promising professional fields open to young people today. Not only is the demand great, but the supply continues to be inadequate. These are the conditions which prove the security and opportunity of a nursing career.

New York City's Department of Hospitals operates four professional schools which offer qualified high school graduates a three year tuition-free course leading to a diploma in professional nursing.

The four schools are the Bellevue School of Nursing, 440 East 26th Street, New York 10, New York; the Harlem Hospital School of Nursing 136th Street and Lenox Avenue, New York 37, New York; the Kings County Hospital Center School of Nursing, 451 Clarkson Avenue, Brooklyn 3, New York; and the Queens Hospital Center School of Nursing, 161st Street and 82nd Drive, Jamaica 2, Long Island.

The Bellevue School also includes the Mills School of Nursing for Men since more and more young men realize that nursing can be an ideal profession for them, offering as it does opportunities for the development and use of personal interests and abilities. For example, if a man has a special interest in science or certain mechanical abilities he will be able utilize them in one or another field of nursing.

Not only do these four schools offer tuition-free programs but students are also provided with free maintenance including board, room and laundry throughout their course of study. They are also paid an allowance of $20 a month to cover incidental expenses.

Classes are admitted in September in all schools. Applicants for admission must be graduates of a four year academic high school course, be at least 17 years of age, and be in good health.

There is in each school an entrance fee of from $100 to $200 to cover the miscellaneous expenses such as uniforms, text books, and initial equipment. There are, however, a limited number of loans and scholarships available to qualified applicants who cannot finance the course.

Non-high school graduates who cannot meet the requirements for the professional schools may enter the Central School for practical nurses at Welfare Island.

This school offers a one year course which prepares students to be practical nurses. They care for patients under the direction of licensed physicians or professional nurses. The starting salary for a practical nurse is $3,750 per year.

As in the professional schools, tuition at the Central School is free and uniforms, laundry, and room and board are provided. Students also get an allowance of $20 a month for incidentals.

Applicants must be at least

17 years of age and be in good health. They must have a minimum of two years of high school if they are under 35 years old and at least elementary school graduation if they are over 35 years old.

Further information about either the professional nurse schools or the practical nurse school can be obtained by writing the Hospital Recruitment Unit, City Personnel Department, 229 Broadway, New York 7, New York, or calling COrtlandt 7-880, Extension 337.

Rules Changes

THIS WRITER from time to time would like to call attention to changes which may affect some Correction employees.

THE ATTENDANCE Rule II (8) has been revised to provide full restoration of vacation, overtime, and sick leave credits, used by employees during periods of absences for which Workmen's Compensation Award is made, and paid to State. Previously such credits were restored on a pro-rated basis.

AN IMPORTANT Overtime rule change is to the effect that employees who have accumulated the maximum credit of 30 days may not be required to work additional overtime unless it is compensated by cash payment. Any credits earned after May 1, 1963 are to be liquidated by the close of the fiscal year following the one in which they were earned. Previously such credits had to be liquidated during the fiscal year in which they were earned. Employees eligible to earn overtime may accumulate up to thirty days overtime and when they retire are entitled to six weeks salary in cash.

EMPLOYEES WHO enter military service for purposes other than training are eligible to receive a lump sum payment for their earned and unused vacation credits, including the period while they are on military leave with pay. No vacation, sick leave or other time allowances are earned during the period that the employee is on military leave without pay, however, in the case of an employee earning vacation at the rate of 13 days per year, plus one additional day for each continuous year of service up to 7 years, his military service will count as continuous service.

UPON RETURN to State employment, this employee will earn vacation credits commensurate with his total State service, including military leave. When the serviceman returns to active State employment he resumes earning vacation credits in the normal manner. Any department or agency following any other practice is not following the Attendance Rules.

ANY ACTIVELY employed insured member of the Group Life Insurance Plan of CSEA who became age 50 or older on or before January 1 or whose 50th birthday is during 1963 may convert $1000 or $2000 of this group life insurance to a permanent form of individual life insurance which contains cash and paid up values without medical examinations. Group insurance would be reduced by the amount converted, and the payroll deduction for such insurance would be reduced accordingly. The amount of insurance an insured member is entitled to in the future under the group plan would be reduced by the amount converted. Request for the conversion forms are furnished by the CSEA and must be received by the Association at 8 Elk St., Albany, prior to September 1, 1963.

"DEATH GAMBLE." The purpose of this law is to provide protection to employees who are members of the State Retirement System who remain in service beyond the date on which they were eligible to retire. Prior to this legislation anyone who worked beyond this period and died in service would only receive the same benefits as an employee who died in service regardless of age, that is, the ordinary death benefit and the return of employees' contributions. Under the new legislation an employee member, 55 years of age and under the 55 year plan, who desires to continue working, may file a form with the Retirement System, selecting an option available under the plan, or the member may file a later application for retirement, or if the member dies in service his retirement shall become effective with the same benefits to the beneficiary as if the member had retired on the day immediately preceding his death.

IF THE MEMBER does not select any prior option he shall be considered as having selected option 1, and his beneficiary may select the pension reserve and annuity account, or the sum of the death benefit, reserved for increased take home pay, return of contributions, interest, and loan insurance or on a "whichever is greater basis."

IN CONCLUSION, all retirement members who have reached retirement age of their selected retirement plan are covered automatically by this law. They need not apply for retirement until actually planning to retire and are fully protected.

Riley. In the background, behind Miss Meltzer, is Raymond G. Castle, second vice-president, CSEA.

CSEA Resolutions Committee Meets July 17-18 In Albany; Early Recommendations Pledged

ALBANY, July 8—The resolutions committee of the Civil Service Employees Association will meet July 17 and 18 in Albany to begin review of resolutions to be considered at the Association's annual meeting in October.

In advising all CSEA chapter's of the upcoming meeting, Committee Chairman Henry Shemin urged that as many resolutions as possible be sent to the committee prior to the first meeting.

In his notice to chapter presidents, Shemin noted the section of the CSEA by-laws which states that "all resolutions proposed for consideration at an annual meeting shall first be submitted in writing to the resolutions committee. All resolutions submitted on or before the twentieth day of August shall be reviewed, edited and consolidated by the committee, which shall, on or before the tenth day of September, report to all chapters of the Association the disposition of such resolutions."

Shemin pointed out that "the procedure established by the by-laws enables chapters to consider resolutions which will be taken up at the annual meeting and to instruct their delegates to the meeting in advance of the chapter position on such resolutions."

He said "it is not fair nor advisable for delegates to bring up new resolutions on the date of the annual meeting, which prevents full consideration of the proposal by our chapters and our resolutions committee, unless there is an emergency which has caused the delay."

County Chapter Meet Centers On Use Of Referendum As Tool

By JAMES T. LAWLESS

ALBANY, July 8—In a recent meeting of the County chapters, Civil Service Employees Association, Harry Albright Jr., associate counsel, explained some of the ramifications of the referendum as a tool of negotiation with local political subdivisions, counties and cities.

Albright's explanation came as a result of a question from Kenneth Hulbert, president of the Fulton County chapter and through the efforts of the research department of the Association. He defined some of the variations which are now available to chapters through the use of the referendum and stated that a complete explanation was now being prepared by the research department, under the direction of William Blom, and would be sent to all chapter presidents.

In an earlier discussion, Paul Kyer, editor of The Leader, explained some of the activities of the newspaper and discussed the function of The Leader and its relationship to the Association.

The group stressed the importance of having veterans and volunteer fireman file papers attesting to this status so as to gain

Children Are "Taken Out to the Ball Game"

The Bronx Post Office held its annual Children's Outing to the Polo Grounds last Friday. Postmaster Louis Cohen presented a baseball caps, lunches, and spending money to 300 children on behalf of the Bronx Post Office Employees before transporting the youngsters to the Polo Grounds where the New York Mets were playing the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Dworkis Appointed To Regional Director James Googe's Staff

Dr. Martin B. Dworkis, professor of Public Administration at New York University, was recently appointed for a temporary period to the staff of the U.S. Civil Service Commission's New York Regional Director James P. Googe.

In this capacity, Professor Dworkis will be engaged in studies relating to the effective use of graduates of two-year colleges and reviewing the use and effectiveness of internship programs in the Federal civil service.

At the present time, he is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Federal-College Internship Program. He was formerly Executive Officer of the Graduate School of Public Administration and Social Service at New York University. He has been a charter consultant to several municipalities including the New York State Commission on Governmental Operations of the City of New York.

Macy Declares Need For Efficiency in Key Supervisory Positions

In a recent testimony before the Government Activities Subcommittee of the House Committee on Government Operations, Civil Service Chairman John W. Macy, Jr. stressed the importance of effective selection and development of supervisory personnel in the Federal service.

He further stated, "I feel that one of the most important decisions that has to be made in every organization is the selection of a supervisor who is going to guide others because this is the point at which motivation is going to be generated. This is the point at which standards are going to be applied."

Macy also pointed out that inefficient key personnel do not have to be a part of the Federal service. He maintained that regulations protect, not hinder, the civil service in regard to hirings and firings. The reduction of personnel that has taken place in the Federal Government indicate that Chairman Macy is cognizant of the facts, the subcommittee reported.

Payroll Deduction Of Union Dues Scheduled For January, 1964

The Civil Service Commission is currently developing regulations and procedures in order to effect the voluntary payroll deduction of employee union dues by January of next year.

Although the CSC will establish the fees, it is working with the Labor and Treasury Departments, Bureau of the Budget, General Accounting Office, affected Federal agencies and union officials in the development of the union dues withholding program.

At the same time, a proposal for voluntary withholding of employee contributions to recognized charitable and health agencies and the deduction of State-of-residence income taxes of employees who work in one state and live in another is being considered.

Agency Heads Asked To Increase Negro Promotions, Hirings

At a recent meeting of the Inter-agency Advisory Group, Attorney General Robert Kennedy encouraged the Federal agency heads to hire and promote more Negroes.

He maintained that Negro members of the community are made to feel welcome in Federal offices which have already employed Negroes. In another part of his address at the closed door conference, he went on to say that more Negroes will qualify for Federal jobs if better education and training is provided.

He commended the Veterans Administration for employing Negroes in its Birmingham offices and conceded that a great deal of progress has been made but there is still a great deal yet to be accomplished. His own department was not excused, as far as he was concerned. It was indicated that the Advisory Group was in general agreement with the Attorney General's ideas.

CSC Cites Injustices Involved In Employee Relocation Policies

Although U.S. Civil Service Commission reports have confirmed employee attitudes about relocation expenses, agencies are forbidden by law to increase expense money for moving costs.

Many Federal employees have refused to relocate because it is financially irrational. The employees feel that if the Government insists upon the necessity of transfer, then the Government should be prepared to assume full financial responsibility for the move.

Apparently, the CSC is in complete agreement with such employee feelings. It recently submitted much more realistic legislation to the Budget Bureau.

Even though this new legislation is still not on a par with private industry, it is a considerable improvement.

Among the items covered in the proposed legislation is the cost of a round trip to the new location to find housing. The payment of per diem expenses to family members for brief periods during relocations, and the payment of rent in temporary housing for restricted periods while waiting for permanent housing have also been included in the proposal.

"That was the best fire sale I've ever been to—these bargains are still hot."

Reprinted from the New York World-Telegram & Sun

Red-hot bargains they may be, but one of the hottest bargains anyone's likely to find is ready and waiting at home—electricity.

If you're like most of the people Con Edison serves, you're using considerably more electricity these days, for the average family's use of electricity has doubled in the last fifteen years. Which, of course, explains why your electric bills may be somewhat higher now than they were a while back.

Yet electricity is still one of your biggest household bargains. You see, with Con Edison's step-down rates, the more electricity you use, the less it costs per kilowatt-hour.

A Revamped Policy Should Be Studied

RAYMOND R. MAYR was a fireman. He was assigned to Ladder 134 in Far Rockaway where his company was his second love. His first love was his family—his wife Audrey and five children, ranging in age from 16 months to 15 years.

Fireman Mayr was a fireman for 17 of his 38 years. He had three years to go before he retired, if he had wanted to do so. His brother firemen said that he loved his job enough to continue past the minimum retirement time. Most fire-fighters feel that way.

But Raymond Mayr will not retire. He was killed in the collapse of a vacant building while fighting a fourth alarm blaze in Far Rockaway. Five other firemen in his company were luckier than he—they only suffered serious injury. We say only because serious injury is common to New York City's firefighters. They expect it—but not in a vacant building where no lives, other than their own, are at stake.

The Uniformed Firemen's Association has suggested that a study be undertaken to review and subject to close scrutiny circumstances which were involved in the death of Fireman Mayr. In addition, UFA President Gerald J. Ryan pointed to the death of six firemen who had their lives snuffed out in another unused, unoccupied building in Maspeth in October, 1962.

The UFA's point is that a possible revamping of department policy could be made, especially in fighting fires in untenanted buildings from dangerous positions.

No matter what the cost, an empty building is still less valuable than a human life and we must agree that a serious study should be made to lessen the chance of any recurrence.

Questions Answered On Social Security

Below are questions in Social Security problems sent in by our readers and answered by a legal expert in the field. Anyone with a question on Social Security should write it out and send it to the Social Security Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, New York.

"If I earn over $1200 during the year I retire, will I lose my social security benefits for the rest of that year?"

No. Regardless how much you earn in a year, you can still get benefits for any months in which you neither earn over $100 in wages nor render substantial services in self-employment. Even if you take a job after you retire, you may still be able to get benefits for some months, depending on the amount of your benefit and how much over $1200 you earn.

"I read that the new law lets people get retirement checks for less work under social security.

How much time under social security does a woman need to get checks if she will be 62 this year? Also, what about a man who will be 62 next year?"

A woman reaching age 62 this year needs only 12 social security work credits (about 3 years of work). A man who will be 62 in 1964 will need 16 work credits (4 years of work). All work under social security, even as far back as 1937, can be used to make up these work credits.

"How can I make sure all my earnings have been credited to my account?"

Check your W-2 forms and pay stubs. Keep good records and check your social security account once every three years. We have a post card form that you can use just for this purpose. It's called Form 7004. All you do is fill it out and mail it in. In a few weeks you get a record of the earnings reported to your social security account.

Your Public Relations IQ

By LEO J. MARGOLIN

Mr. Margolin is Adjunct Professor of Public Relations in the New York University School of Public Administration and is Vice President, Public Relations, of A. J. Armstrong Co., Inc.

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer and do not necessarily constitute the views of this newspaper.

"Fair" Public Relations

THE ESSENCE of good public relations is good communications, and the New York World's Fair has both.

THIS AUGURS well for the success of the Fair, which opens April 22, 1964 to a potential 70 million plus visitors.

WHEN THERE is good communications, it invariably means there are good communicators. And no better communicator exists that the president of the Fair, Robert Moses.

MR. MOSES is the Fair's chief spokesman, as well as its chief do-er. It would be difficult to find one more articulate in both the written and the spoken word.

THE AMOUNT of information given to the public about the great Fair is but one indication of the Fair's good communications. Equally important are the communicators, and, in our professional opinion, they're the best.

THERE IS Bill Berns, who heads a most appropriately named Fair department, "Communications and Public Relations." Public relations leader Tom Deegan and his team are consultants, and the peerless Bill Donohue and his outstanding group handle publicity.

IT ISN'T OFTEN that one finds that all teams in an all-star league are pennant winners. Well, the Fair's communicators are that caliber.

WITH THE FAIR just nine months away, a new phase of the Fair's communications has begun. It is based on the sure-fire public relations principle of "partnership."

THIS PRINCIPLE says simply: "Make 'em partners and they'll do handstands to help you."

THE FAIR'S communicators have begun a series of press conferences to report on the Fair's progress.

MR. MOSES set the tone for the Fair-press partnership:

ERROR IS the besetting sin of journalism, perhaps occasionally acknowledged in the Confessional, but almost never publicly. At worst it is no more reprehensible than incompetence in administration and insolence in office which are our besetting sins, the existence of which we too usually vehemently deny.

SO LET THERE be some mystery about our respective professions, and let us admit that we are all human and potentially brothers. This realization will lead to much pleasant companionship. Let's be working partners in bringing the world to New York in 1964 and 1965. Go easy on our deficiencies. We strive for, but make no claim to, omniscience and perfection. Do not, we ask, over-emphasize the absentees. At the end of the first season they may be sorry they stayed out.

THIS IS A sincere bid for a working partnership, which is highly intelligent public relations. To implement this partnership, Mr. Moses cemented the bonds with a wise public relations invitation:

"WE ARE not shrinking violets or sensitive plants and constructive questions won't irritate us."

WE COMMEND the Fair's intelligent, sophisticated public relations to all in and out of government.

A LITTLE BEFORE THE CIVIL WAR, Gail Borden discovered a way to process milk so that its nutritional qualities could be preserved almost indefinitely without refrigeration. With this canned, "evaporated" milk, it became much easier for medical men to fight malnutrition under the most adverse conditions of climate.

Pioneers in Protection

Just as Borden's research opened new vistas of food preservation for the benefit of all mankind... so the Statewide Plan was the first program of protection against the costs of hospital, surgical-medical and major medical care for the employees of the State of New York.

This three-part program — Blue Cross, Blue Shield, and Major Medical — offers most State employees, active or retired, the most liberal benefits at the lowest possible cost. That's why more than 425,000 State employees and employees of many local subdivisions of New York State and their dependents are now subscribers.

If you are not a subscriber and would like all the facts on the Statewide Plan, see your payroll or personnel officer.

Buffalo State Office Bldg. Named For Hero General

BUFFALO, July 8—Dedication ceremonies were held recently here for the new $4.2 million State Office Building, which has been named after the late Major General William J. Donovan.

A clergyman brother of the General participated in the ceremonies.

He is the Rev. Vincent C. Donovan, O.P. of Ossining, who offered the prayer of dedication at the ceremony.

Governor Rockefeller led a delegation of top ranking State and Legislative officials. The speakers, in addition to the Governor, included Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney, Mayor Chester Kowal of Buffalo and J. Burch McMorran, state superintendent of public works.

The invocation was given by Rev. Martin L. Goldberg, Rabbi of Temple Ben Zion, Buffalo. The Rev. Canon Burtis M. Dougherty of Buffalo, Canon to the Ordinary, the Episcopal Diocese of Western New York, offered the benediction.

The Buffalo Police Band, accompanied by its drill team, participated, along with the honor guard of Minutemen of Troop I Post, American Legion of Buffalo The 209th Missile Group, 27th Division, provided a color guard.

The consent of Father Donovan to offer the dedicatory prayer adds to the role of the Donovan family in the city. The General's widow, the former Ruth Rumsey of Buffalo, unveiled an oil portrait of her husband which is to be hung in the building lobby after the ceremony.

The Buffalo Area Chamber of Commerce and veterans' organizations assisted the State Department of Public Works with the dedication of the $4,250,000 building. Lower Main Street in front of the structure—between Exchange and Scott Streets—was closed during the one hour ceremony through the cooperation of the City of Buffalo.

The building, constructed by the State Department of Public Works for State agencies in Buffalo, was named for General Donovan by the State Legislature in 1962. Since interior construction is still under way, an open house was not held.

General Donovan, a native of Buffalo, was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor in World War I, and directed the U.S. Office of Strategic Services during World War II. His career also included public service as Assistant U.S. Attorney General and Ambassador to Thailand. He died in 1959.

17th Annual Armory Conf. Elects Minerly President

The 17th-annual meeting of the State-wide conference of Armory Employees chapters, Civil Service Employees Association, was held at the local Armory 6-7 recently.

The meeting was the site of the election of the officers for the coming year. Those elected and installed at the meeting were: Robert B. Minerly, president, Hudson Valley Armories chapter; William J. Hiron, first vice president, Syracuse and vicinity armories chapter; Joseph P. Kenney, second vice president, Western New York Armories chapter; George J. Fisher, treasurer, Metropolitan Armories chapter; and Roy Houghtaling, secretary, Hudson Valley Armories chapter.

Jack DeLisi, Metropolitan Armories chapter, was reelected to the position of representative to the Board of Directors of the CSEA.

Resolutions

Resolutions were adopted recommending to the Division of Military and Naval Affairs that studies be instituted to determine the necessity of additional employees in certain armories because of special local work conditions; also recommending the amendment of present staffing pattern to increase salary grades one step since men are now performing higher job skills which results in savings to the State.

Other resolutions adopted requested CSEA to institute necessary procedures to secure a retirement plan for Armory Employees after 25 years of service; to sponsor legislation of the lump sum payment of unused sick credits at time of retirement or upon death to beneficiary; to secure changes in Section 215 of the State Military Law to include widows.

Recent Dinner

A dinner was held at Cedar Post restaurant with General John

C. Baker, vice chief of Staff to the Governor as principal speaker. Other guests of honor included Colonel Arthur G. Eckert, Armory Maintenance supervisor; and Henry Galpin, assistant director, CSEA. Hosts of the meeting and dinner were Captain Albert M. Homburger, Office in Charge and Control, and Carlton A. LeBeau, superintendent of the Saranac Armory.

SUPPLIES & EQUIPMENT

By PETER ALLISON

Republic Aviation, which has been hard hit by the change-over from planes to missiles, was awarded a $102,-713,024 contract by the Air Force last week for the continued production of F-105 attack aircraft and related equipment. The work will be done at Farmingdale. Two other contracts went to General Electric Co., one for the repair of electronic equipment at Utica.

Sperry Gynoscope in Great Neck was awarded a $2.4 million order for Navy Weapons—directing equipment and Grumman Aircraft at Bethpage will do $1,545,846 in design work on the Navy E-2A.

The Sperry contract is for the study of the laser, a navigating device for moving vehicles. A break through in the development of this light amplifier came last year. Sperry scientists have demonstrated that laser beams can detect and measure movement, but so far they have been able to measure high speeds of motion—over 1,000 mph.

Subway Cars By Budd

Budd Co. broke tradition last week and took a contract to deliver 600 new subway cars for New York City at a price below the 1946 level. The TA will pay $68,-820,000.

For the past five contracts, in which 1,520 cars were purchased, the low bid was taken by St. Louis Car Co.

All the cars will be stainless steel. The bidding was presented with three alternatives including one for part stainless steel. The new cars are lighter and expected to save on power and maintenance. The City hoped for a Federal subsidy for the experiment with stainless steel from the Federal Housing & Home Finance Agency. However, the low bid makes the subsidy unnecessary.

Music With The Bosses Voice

A new Voicewriter dictating machine offered by McGraw-Edison system puts a musical background on dictation-transcribing machines. Experiments with school children indicates better concentration with this background music. Typists who find the music distracting can tune it out.

Beach Comber

A better beach cleaner is offered by Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. The new sand sifter, called Beach Sanitizer, is tractor-hauled and can hold two tons of trash and can sift an acre of beach in an hour. The cost is approximately $7,000.

Hawaiian Tour Set For Aug. 23

It is last call for "All Aboard" to Hawaii and the Golden West. Irving Flammenbaum, president of the Nassau chapter, advises that their 17-day air tour to Hawaii is rapidly filling up. The inclusive fare for this package trip departing Friday night, Aug. 23, from Idlewild is only $489. The entire party will fly in a specially chartered four-engine DC-7 aircraft with comfortable, reclining seats and plenty of leg room; the flights will feature champagne for all and hot meals aloft.

The tour party visits San Francisco first, arriving there Saturday morning, August 24th. Their hotel at the Golden Gate City is just a few steps away from famous Union Square and together with sightseeing of this sophisticated city there will be plenty of time for individual exploration.

Next there will be ten days in romantic Hawaii, where the tour party will enjoy their stay at the luxurious Hawaiian Village right on the beach at Waikiki. Their sightseeing program will take them around the Island of Oahu one morning. They will pass through beautiful Nuuanu Fall seeing the Upside down Falls and other sights of interest. On another day they will take in a Hula Show, compliments of the Kodak Company, followed by sightseeing tour of Hawaiian Industry. There is plenty of time to enjoy (Continued on Page 13)

Legislation

The following is a Digest of 1963 New York State Legislative action on laws concerning veterans or veterans organizations.

Executive Law

Section 465 of the Executive Law, pertaining to the powers and duties of the State Bingo Control Commission and the General Municipal Law, as they affect applications for a license to conduct bingo and the issuance of such licenses has been amended and the following procedure is to be followed in the future.

A. Under Section 458 of the General Municipal Law, every applicant for a license to participate in bingo activities, must obtain an identification number from the Bingo Control Commission prior to filing with the city or town clerk for permission to act as an agent or employee of any organized bingo activity.

B. An applicant for such a license must be a person of good moral character and must never been convicted of a crime or if he was convicted of a crime, he must have received a pardon or a certificate of good conduct.

Civil Service Law

Section 65, Subdivision 3 of the Civil Service Law has been amended in regards to the termination of provisional appointments. A provisional appointment to any position shall be terminated within two months following the establishment of an appropriate eligible list for filling vacancies in such positions. This law also provides that any department or agency in the state or local government which feels that this two month period would not give them sufficient time to make appointments without disturbing essential public services, may present evidence of this condition to the Civil Service Department, which, upon finding that it is in the best interest of public service, may waive the provisions of this new amendment, but in no event shall the employment of a provisional appointee be continued longer than four months following the establishment of an eligible list.

Section 150, Subdivision 2c has been amended and provides that a retired member of a retirement system other than the State Employees Retirement System, the State Teachers' Retirement System, may be hired on a temporary basis in public service until June 1, 1964, provided that his compensation in such a position does not exceed $1800 per calendar year.

This section of the law requires that such a person filing a statement with the retirement system indicates that he wishes to exercise the benefits of this amendment and that his retirement allowance does not exceed $3500 per year. If his retirement allowance exceeds $3500 per year he must waive that portion which is in excess of $3500 per year.

Conservation Law

Section 213, Subdivision 3 has been amended so as to provide that a person who is a patient in any Veterans Administration facility in this state, or in any public hospital or sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis or a resident patient at a rehabilitation hospital of the Department of Health will not be required to purchase a fishing license provided he carries identifying information on an official form of the Department having jurisdiction over the hospital of which he is a patient.

Section 213, Subdivision 5 has been amended so as to allow a resident of this state who is on active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States and who is not stationed within this state for a period of not longer than 30 days on leave or furlough to hunt fish and wild life except deer and bear as if he held a valid hunting license. This section requires that he must carry a copy of his furlough or leave orders on his person while so engaged in these sports.

Military Law

Section 327 of the Military Law has been amended to read that the "New York State Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1951" will remain in effect until it is repealed or otherwise terminated by a subsequent act of the Legislature. Up to this time, this law required an amendment every year to keep it in effect.

Domestic Relations Law

Section 14 A, Subdivision 2 & 3, has been amended to read that no fee for the issuance of a marriage certificate registration shall be charged by either a town or city clerk for the issuance of such a certificate when it is required by the Division of Veterans' Affairs of the State of New York to be used in determining the eligibility of any person to receive benefits made available by the United States Veterans Administration or by the State of New York.

Section 117 of the Domestic Relations Law has been amended to provide that an adopted child and adoptive parents would inherit only from and through each other and the natural and adopted kindred of the foster parents. The adopted child cannot inherit from his natural parents.

Section 145 of the Domestic Relations Law has been amended to remove certain discretionary powers from the court and declares that a child of a person whose marriage is annulled either on the ground that one of the parties has not attained the age of legal consent or because of idiocy, lunacy, incurable insanity, or incest shall be deemed legitimate as to both parents.

General Municipal Law

Section 200 B, Subdivision 1 extends the time wherein a volunteer fireman, in good standing, enters upon active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States, shall be given a leave of absence from his company or department provided he is on active duty during the period ending July 1, 1964.

Eversley Apprehends Escaping Holdup Man

Another Terminal Employees Local 832 member became a hero this month when correction officer Arthur Eversley, assigned to the Manhattan House of Detention for Men, cornered a holdup man without regard for personal risk.

As the officer was walking along Madison Avenue, on 128th Street in Manhattan, a man ran past Eversley followed by a man pointing him out as a thief who had just stolen a wallet from his pocket.

Taking chase, Eversley caught the thief, handcuffed him and took him to the nearest police station where a routine search revealed that the man was carrying a razor sharp carpet knife. Research of the prisoner's past revealed that the prisoner had previously had eight arrests, including possession of narcotics instruments, burglary, disorderly conduct, assault, etc.

After the prisoner was booked and held without bail by Magistrate Schreckiner, Eversley reported this event to his commanding officer.

'All in the line of duty,' said Eversley nonchalantly, when congratulated.

Record Income Noted In Local 832 Fund

Terminal Employees Local 832 has announced that its affiliate, the Local 832 Welfare Fund, which is the pension arm of the Local, has added to its investment portfolio and can now boast of a very diversified list of securities.

Elsie A. Knight, chairman of the Fund, said that the income of the Fund, which is distributed to all pensioners of the Local, has hit a record high. Mrs. Knight further stated that Local 832, which distributes pension checks to its pensioners annually, is the only local of its kind where city employees, if pensioned and a Local 832 member, pay no dues but receive a union pension for life.

Reported purchases by the Welfare Fund now in its portfolio are 20 shares, American Banknote 6% Pfd; 32 shs., American Tel & Tel; 40 shs., American Tobacco; 50 shs., Boston Edison; 40 shs., Columbia Gas and Electric; 24 shs., Consolidated Edison; 30 shs., Equitable Gas; 15 shs., Liggett & Myers Tobacco; 35 shs., R. H. Macy; 25 shs., Mays Dept. Stores; 40 shs., New England Electric; 20 shs., Niagara Mohawk Power; 22 shs., Olin Mathelson Chemical; 2 shs., Standard Oil of N.J.; 20 shs., U.S. Smelting and Refining Pfd.

Local 832 members who have retired in 1963 or who contemplate retiring during the calendar year are urged to contact Rose LaMorte, Secretary, Local 832 Welfare Fund, 325 Broadway, New York 7.

William Williams

POUGHKEEPSIE, July 8—William Williams, 34, of 51 Ridge Rd., Poughkeepsie, died July 1 at Vassar hospital, here. Mr. Williams had been a senior engineer in the Soils Department of the New York State Department of Public Works for the last 15 years. He was a member of the Civil Service Employees Association.

Eligibles Request Screvane Intercede

A group of eligibles from the City-wide Committee of Administrative Assistant Eligibles Committee held a meeting with City Council President Paul R. Screvane last week. A group request was submitted to Screvane asking that he intercede for those eligibles on the City-wide promotion list in order to provide immediate promotion.

Due to the provisions of the City Charter, which became effective July 1st, officials of the City are unaware as to how to proceed with promotions. To date, departmental budget examiners had received no word regarding their department promotion requests, usually announced in mid-June.

Budget Director William Shea is apparently awaiting word from the Mayor as to the exact procedure to follow. At issue is the possibility of making promotions retroactive to July 1st, even if acted upon after that date. The Board of Estimate, previously acting on all promotions, is now out of the picture; promotions, or more specifically, relocation of funds, must now be advertised in the City Record by the department head for ten days and then approved by the Budget Director, presumably with the blessings of the Mayor.

On the committee were Elsie A. Knight, chairman of the committee and vice-president of Terminal Employees Local; Thomas Hughes; Nathan Krupnick; and Jerry Kornfield.

Change May Affect VA Pension Payment

(From Leader Correspondent) POUGHKEEPSIE, July 8—Samuel Manners, Veterans Administration representative at the Castle Point Veterans Administration Hospital, Castle Point, has announced that payment of VA pensions to veterans or their dependents may be affected by the payment of increases in Civil Service annuities.

Persons receiving pension under the law in effect prior to July, 1960, may waive part of their annuity to meet the pension income requirements.

Local 832 Demands Promotion List Release

Herbert S. Bauch, president of Terminal Employees Local 832, the City's largest clerical-administrative local, this week asked the Department of Personnel to immediately release the promotion lists for senior and supervising clerk and stenographer.

Bauch revealed that the promotion examinations had been given over a year ago and maintained that the delay in the establishment of the lists was unprecedented. The examinations were given on June 30, 1962.

In a letter to City Personnel Director Dr. Theodore H. Lang, the local president demanded that both lists be made public and established during July. Bauch stated, "There was no valid reason why, with the additional help in Personnel, City employees should have to sit on their hands and await the establishment of these lists."

Bauch also asked Dr. Lang to speed up the rating of the essay portion of the supervising clerk examination, as it had come to his attention that examiners were still rating the papers. "At this rate," wrote Bauch, "the supervising clerk list has very little chance of being established prior to Thanksgiving Day, and that is too much to ask."

The Local is awaiting Dr. Lang's reply and expects action on the request to follow.

Monroe Supervisors Approve Salary And Job Classification Plan; Minimum Raise—$100

(From Leader Correspondent)

ROCHESTER, July 8—The Monroe County Board of Supervisors has adopted a new salary and job classification schedule for its 3,500 employees.

The new plan, which will cost $465,000 for the remaining six months of 1963, incorporates raises of at least $100 each for every permanent employee.

This was one of the key points raised by the Monroe chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, whose president, Vincent A. Alessi, told the board's Salaries and Personnel Committee at a hearing last week:

Alessi Thanks Board

"The Monroe chapter . . . wishes to express its appreciation to you for your efforts on behalf of the county employees in securing the necessary funds to make it possible to adopt the revised plan . . ."

"Generally we concur with the recommendations. There are always inequities in a study of this scope and it is hoped that further consideration be given to appeals.

"We also recommend adjusting salaries of incumbents so each employee receives a salary increase of not less than $100."

The original plan had some yearly increases as low as $59.

Alessi also recommended a continuous study be maintained of changes in the Rochester area cost of living index, and bracket adjustments be applied periodically, at not less than yearly intervals.

Longevity Not Included

"We note with regret," Alessi said, "that the recommendations of the Bureau (of Municipal Research, a private organization) concerning adoption of a longevity plan has not been given consideration. We approve of the Bureau's recommendation of recognition of total consecutive years of satisfactorily rated service with the county by the addition of increments to the present bracket for employees with either 10, 15 or 20 years of service.

"We realize it may not be financially possible to recognize all tenure groups. We suggest consideration be given to the 20-years-and-over group of employees at this time and further consider the over-15-years-of-service group in January 1964."

Among the changes authorized in the new schedule was the upgrading of public health nurses to put them in parity with physical therapists. They had been scheduled to receive a maximum of $6,188, but now will get $8,474. City-County Youth Board staff members also were upgraded. Caseworkers, who made a strong plea for more money at the committee hearing, received none but will get "consideration" before the 1964 budget and salary schedule are adopted.

State Mental Hygiene Department Revamped; 7 Appointments Made

(Special to the Leader)

ALBANY, July 8—Three State agencies have cooperated in "the difficult task of reorganizing the largest and most complex State government agency in the country."

With these words, Dr. Paul H. Hoch, State Commissioner of Mental Hygiene, announced a major reorganization of the central office of the department here.

He said it followed a "full-scale study of department responsibilities," and the commissioner paid tribute to the "invaluable cooperation received from the Division of the Budget and the Classification Division of the Department of Civil Service."

Seven Approved

Seven top-level appointments were announced at the same time.

"The reorganization will give the necessary personnel and organization structure to discharge the present and foreseeable responsibilities of the department more effectively and efficiently," Commissioner Hoch stated.

Noting that the central office changes were only "the first stage in a total department reorganization," Dr. Hoch added: "The Division of the Budget has indicated that it is prepared to work with the department in continuing studies in depth of the central office functions, and a study of the organization of the department's institutions and their relationship to the central office and to the community mental health programs."

Another aspect of the reorganization will be a remodeling of the State Mental Hygiene Law.

Assisting the Commissioner in directing the major programs of the department will be a first deputy commissioner, a deputy commissioner for program administration and a deputy commissioner for professional standards and services.

The first deputy will assist in the development and implementation of the total program of the department and in the direction, control and coordination of all divisions of the department, both staff and administrative.

The deputy commissioner for program administration will be in charge of all services and facilities operated or supported by the department while the deputy commissioner for professional standards and services will direct the development and maintenance of standards for the full range of professional and technical personnel and for the public or licensed facilities involved in the care and treatment of patients.

Guidelines

Following the guidelines of the master plan, the reorganization will focus attention on the development of community services for psychiatric disorders as well as expansion of programs of care and treatment for the mentally ill in the state hospitals and the mentally retarded in the state schools.

Three associate commissioners will have responsibility for these respective areas of service. Programs dealing with special groups such as narcotics addicts, alcoholics, disturbed children, and the mentally ill aged will be under the direction of an assistant commissioner.

Other aims of the reorganization include expansion of research, training of professional and technical personnel, and the continuing development and evaluation of plans to meet the overall objectives of the department. These three functions will also be directed by assistant commissioners. Field investigations of special problems in the institutions and licensed hospitals particularly in regard to patient care will be carried out by an inspector-general. He will also handle special investigations in collaboration with the Office of Council.

The newly designated first deputy commissioner is Dr. Henry Brill, who entered the state hospital system in 1932 following his graduation from Yale Medical College. He has been a deputy commissioner with the department since 1959 and prior to this served as assistant commissioner.

Since 1958, Dr. Brill has been on a leave of absence as director of Pilgrim State Hospital to work in the department's central office. He is a diplomate in both neurology and psychiatry of the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology and a diplomate of the National Board of Medical Examiners.

He is a member of the faculty of Albany Medical College and lecturer at the Upstate Medical Center.

Dr. Ernst Schmidhofer

Dr. Ernst Schmidhofer, the deputy commissioner for professional standards and services, came to the department from North Dakota where he served as superintendent at the Jamestown State Hospital.

Dr. Leonard Lang

Dr. Leonard C. Lang is the associate commissioner for community services under reorganization. He has been serving as assistant commissioner in charge of community services and earlier was assistant director at Buffalo State Hospital.

Dr. Charles Niles

Dr. Charles E. Niles holds the new title of inspector-general. He formerly served as deputy commissioner for administration.

He entered State service as an intern at Hudson River State Hospital in 1926, where he progressed through various civil service grades until his appointment as a senior psychiatrist in 1931. He also served at one time as assistant director of Pilgrim State Hospital. He is a fellow of the American Psychiatric Association and diplomate of the American Board of Mental Hospital Administrators.

Dr. Stamatovich

The assistant commissioner for special programs is Dr. Constantine Stamatovich, who began his state service in 1950 as a psychiatric resident at Central Islip State Hospital.

Daniel Doran

Daniel J. Doran, the business assistant to the commissioner, now will serve as assistant commissioner for administrative and fiscal management.

He started his career with the department as a junior clerk in 1911 and won various civil service promotions. He was made director of mental hygiene accounts in 1939. He was graduated from Albany Business College, and a charter member of the National Association of Mental Hospital Business Administrators.

Hyman Forstenzer

Appointed assistant commissioner for mental health resources and policy planning is Hyman M. Forstenzer, who entered state service in 1950 with the State Department of Education.

He was graduated from Fordham University Law School and is assistant clinical professor in psychiatry at the New York Medical College. He also is chairman of the mental health section of the American Public Health Association and a member of the editorial board of the American Journal of Orthopsychiatry.

tive and labor class employees after six months of service. Currently these workers can be fired without any hearing.

- Overtime pay at the rate of time-and-a-half for overtime work.

- Ten percent premium for night work.

- The payment to the worker, upon retirement or separation, of accumulated sick leave time. Currently workers get 12 days a year in sick leave up to a total of 150 days but they do not get credit in cash for the time if they leave the job.

- The granting of the first longevity increment after 10 years of county employment and the granting of a second increment after 15 years of employment.

- Creation of a 25-year pension plan at a guarantee of one-half pay.

- Establishment of a perpetual position classification and salary review board.

extra days of overtime which such an employee has received for a period of almost 15 years amounts to from $400 in 1950 to approximately $700 in 1963. At present," he said, "this represents about 15% of the grade seven worker's annual salary and any cut at this low range works a most serious financial hardship on the families of these employees."

At Leader press time the Association had received the following letter from J. Burch McMorran, superintendent of Public Works:

Dear Mr. Feily,

Your most recent letter concerning barge canal operations disturbs me because of apparent misrepresentations about our operations and the limits of this Department's responsibilities in the areas of personnel, classifications and compensation matters.

It is my belief that a meeting with you will aid in clearing away the confusion. At the present time, for instance, it is obvious from your letter there is confusion existing over our efforts to develop a uniform staffing pattern for barge canal operations and temporary situations resulting from current budget limitations. Apparently there is also confusion in your office over the financing of emergency work this spring at Lock 12, Tribos Hill and the curtailed operating hours on the western section of the Erie Canal. My schedule this month is particularly heavy but I suggest a meeting in my office at 10 a.m. on July 30. Please bring such members of your staff as you may wish so they may have first-hand information to pass on to the members of your Association.

Very truly yours,

J. Burch McMorran

Superintendent

Public Works

Feily pointed out that only Barge Canal employees, among all other State employees, are excluded by law from the mandatory forty-hour work week. He said that because of the department's treatment of the present issue, the employees feel they are actually working for less money, and that they view the overtime as not merely overtime pay but as salary.

The CSEA head also requested McMorran to rescind immediately a so-called experimental schedule in effect at the western division of the canal, where a third shift reportedly has been eliminated, resulting in a two-shift, 16-hour day.

Asks Reallocation Support

In addition, Feily asked that the Public Works Department support a salary reallocation for all canal employees "who are working below that of competitive wages in the areas surrounding them and receiving substantially less monies than those employees of the Federal government doing similar work."

Feily said that unless some "immediate relief is given to this unwarranted and unjustified personnel practice, we shall be required to test this matter by the filing of a grievance."

County Meeting

the protection provided by the general municipal law.

The County chapters also went on record as being in favor of mandated salaries (with a maximums and minimums established) to attempt to promote basic programs for school districts and political subdivisions with the option to change from mandated to permissive if necessary.
