

Student Association Meets In Convocation In Page; Agenda To Include Welcoming Address By Collins

Co-Chairmen Announce Plans For All-College Reception

Freshmen Meet Administration Officials, Student Association Officers, Myskania

Tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in Page Hall the All-College Reception will welcome the Class of 1961, announce Robert Fox and Jane Showerman, Juniors, Co-Chairmen. Fox will act as Master of Ceremonies for the production of music and comedy which will unite the talents of the four classes.

Representing the senior class will be the "three" Saylesmen, Ron Alexander, Bob Bosomworth, Tom Briery, singing your favorite songs in perfect harmony.

From the Junior Class, Remi Sepe will sing her explosive "Red Hot Mama", Connie Olivo and Kenny Kadet will duet a comical pantomime, Tom Hopkins and Joe Fosegan will entertain us with a dance number, and Marion Scortino will be as lively as ever singing songs from "Plain and Fancy".

Ro Bordanaro and Kay O'Connor, Sophomores will sing "We're A Couple of Swells" and will also do an imitation of Martin and Lewis. Robert Helwig will be singing and playing his guitar to remind us of the ever popular Harry.

Even the freshmen will be there in full force to show us their new found talent. Susan Berne and Lorna Wilson will render their version of the Charleston.

Even the grads will entertain us in the person of Dick Feldman and Joan Guinsberg both from the class of '57.

The evening will be climaxed by a dance at Brubacher Hall from 9:30 to 12 midnight. The dress is informal, and refreshments of cookies and punch will be served. The music will be furnished by the New Sounds Band. On the dance committee are Jane Cass, refreshments, and Betsy Learning, name tags, Juniors.

All-College Reception is a traditional event at State College. It is a time when the freshmen are entertained, and are given the opportunity to meet the upperclassmen on an informal basis.

DR. EVAN R. COLLINS

Student Association Convocation will be held this afternoon at 1 p.m. in Page Hall, announces Richard Hinck '58, SA President. The meeting is compulsory for freshmen, and upperclassmen are invited to attend. The agenda includes a formal welcome to the Class of 1961 by Evan R. Collins, President of the College, and an introduction of the College administration, Oscar E. Lanford, Dean of the College; Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women, and David Hartley, Dean of Men.

After welcoming the freshmen, Hinck will introduce the officers of the Student Association. These include Donald McClain '59 and Joan Cali '60, Vice-President and

Class President Selects Rivalry Activity Leaders

Frank Krivo '60, President of the Sophomore Class has announced the rivalry leaders for his class. They are as follows: Debate, John Trombly and Marion Silverstein; Skit, Robert Helwig, director; Sing, Rose Marie Bordanaro; Football, Herman Altman; Soccer, Terry Kerwin; Pushball, Joe Hickey; Cheerleading, Beverly Burke; Publicity, Rose Carbone; Mens Baseball, Al Jaques; Womens Baseball, Joan Novak; Mens Basketball, Stan Myslinski; Womens Basketball, Camella Acello.

Rivalry begins this year, October 5. The first event will be the men's and women's baseball games. Debate is on October 18, followed by Men's football and Women's soccer on October 19. The following weekend the Sing, October 25, and the Basketball games, October 26, will take place. The climax of Rivalry will be the November 16 with pushball during the morning and the Skit at night. This year the points for each event have been distributed in such a way, that the winner of Rivalry can not be determined until after the judging of the skits.

Freshmen must start to wear their beanie this Monday at 8 a.m. The annual Beanie Ball will be on September 28.

Arrangements for the Soph-Fresh Dance on October 5 have also been made. General Chairman is Paul Hooker; in charge of publicity Kay Behnap; arrangements Mark Nye; decorations, Grace Nesbitt.

There will be a Sophomore class meeting Tuesday in Draper 349 at 4:00.

Secretary of the Senate, respectively. Members of the Senior Judicial Society, Myskania, will also be introduced. They are, in the traditional seat order: Patricia Gearing, Joseph Szarek, John Stefano, Robert Kopecek, Ronald Alexander, Freida Cohen, Jack Tate, Sally Harter, Eileen Lalley, Marilyn Leach, Mary Bradley, and Lorraine Kozlowski.

Up We Go
Freshmen are expected to occupy the seats in the balcony of the auditorium. This is but one phase of college tradition which the Class of 1961 will become familiar in the weeks to follow. The meeting will open with the singing of the Alma Mater, directed by Miss Harter, Songleader of the Student Association.

Gibson Opens Driving Class

Thomas Gibson, Professor of Health and Safety Education, states that there are places open in the Learn-to-Drive Course. The class meets on Thursday from 3:30 p.m. until 4:40 p.m. in room 209. Practice driving will be arranged to fit the student's schedule. This class may be taken in addition to the students 17 hours. For information or to assure a place in this class, students are requested to see Mr. Gibson in room 012.

This course is helpful not only to learners, but also to licensed drivers who would like to become more proficient in their driving. All those wishing to enroll in this course should notify Mr. Gibson or appear in class on Thursday. Registration will be arranged later.

Freshman Classes Organizes In Beanie Ball Committees

Bruce Norton '59, President of the Junior class, announces the opening of organization committees for the Beanie Ball, which will be held on September 28. These are the first efforts of the freshman class.

Committee leaders from the Junior class include: Ellen Fitzpatrick, Publicity; Ronald Short, Chaparrones; Richard Willis, Entertainment; Richard Ronconi, Decorations; Marion Scortino, Name Tags; Sally Weeks, Refreshments; Natalie Lemoine, Set-up and Jay Cohen, Clean-up.

Friday is the last day for the freshmen to sign up for these committees. Freshmen should check the 109 to their local board if the sign-up sheets which are posted at that board has not already made such a request. This form is necessary for Huster, near the cafeteria. The continuing a student's deferment sign-up sheets will be taken down on Friday afternoon.

Statesmen Secure Deferment Forms

Oscar E. Lanford, Dean of the College, announces that all male students who are registered with a Selective Service Board should request the Registrar to forward form 109 to their local board if the sign-up sheets which are posted at that board has not already made such a request. This form is necessary for the fresh bulletin board in Lower Huster, near the cafeteria. The continuing a student's deferment classification. This form is sent to local boards only on request of the registrant or of the local board.

State Secures Flu Vaccine

The following is a message from Janet Hood M.D., College Physician:

"There is every indication at this time that our community may expect an epidemic of influenza this year. Although the disease in itself is not often fatal, there may be severe complications with high mortality. It is sudden in its onset which means students will be too ill to get home.

Epidemic Possible
It has been estimated that if we had an epidemic we would need a two hundred bed infirmary. This we obviously do not have and cannot get. Hospital will not admit uncomplicated cases of flu.

Therefore we must get all the protection we can. The vaccine is said to be 70% effective in preventing the disease.

Vaccine Available
We have ordered vaccine and it is our plan to make it available for approximately fifty cents to all college students as soon as we can obtain it, which will be very soon we hope.

If you are under 21 years of age see that your parents give you a signed permission slip which will be obtainable next week from the Student Personnel Office, Draper 110. If you have any history of allergy to eggs do not get the vaccine."

By ART PLOTNIK

Welcome back. The dorm fees have gone up twenty-five dollars, Greek house fees up twenty dollars, school fees up two and one-half dollars, insurance up ten percent, juke-box up one hundred percent, coke machines up one hundred percent, and Green Street prices up twenty percent.

Jacques Backer
A charming freshman woman told me that my column last year reminded her of Rimbaud. I agreed, and went to the library to find out who Rimbaud was. He turned out to be a fiery Frenchman who in his youth produced a number of pre-arradistic works of literature in which words were used to evoke emotion rather than meaning. The point is that Rimbaud reminded me of Bob Backer, whose surrealist features will appear shortly. I readily admit that I am fiery, youthful, and emotional, but certainly not French.

Draw Me
But before you do another thing, draw a little mustach on ink, please on the above picture of me. The "he" was taken last year in my clean-shaven youth, whereas the present brines with it a magic garden of hairy lip lollies. That's it, draw it shaggy and full, very good. You've won a free art lesson at Arthur Murray's. Incidentally, my mustach is the only one in the world with a caricature letter, which eliminates forty-three percent more nicotine and tars than urchins.

Same Game
So now I've mentioned hair and urchins, which emphasizes the point that things are stagnant, my column, the Union, the Commons, the students - everything is the same, which is nice because you're supposed to say how great it is to be back and how jousy the summer was and it's good to see you and how's the family and who and why and where and how much and when and all of which would never be said if things changed, because nobody

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."—Emerson

HERE'S TO YOU!

We hope our column will help to lighten your Friday morning coffee breaks. Greenness is not limited to the freshman class alone, we, too, must find our beginning. Our greetings to all the old faces and a hearty welcome to the new ones. We only hope the enjoyment of this column will not be ours alone.

VERBAL BOUQUETS

Congratulations are certainly in order to the officers and counselors of Men's and Women's Frosh Weekends. From all reports "A good time was had by all." Honorable mention must also be given to the Co-Chairmen of Junior Guides. Their job, too, was well done.

OOOPS! A GOOF!

The section on page 40 in the Frosh Handbook entitled "FINANCES" is not a part of the SA Constitution, in case anyone is confused. This is now legislated each year by the Senate.

LET THE SENATE DO THE WORK

With no more compulsory convocations you can read the News while it's still "hot off the press"—with a clear conscience.

"A" OR "D"?

A very successful Registration this year, but what happened to last year's marks???

THAT'S WHY THE MESS

No more floods at Bru! The new drainage pipes that clutter Dorm Field will soon eliminate unwelcome water surplus in Bru dining room. No boots to breakfast, girls!

SORRY! WRONG COIN!

The new juke box in the SU takes dimes and quarters—we can't expect old machines to last forever. The nickel box we had was one of the last ones in Albany. New records and new sounds cost money—we must Live Modern.

CATCH?

We truly hope that the fall sport of soccer which our team works so hard for each year will catch on. In past years school spirit was something that was referred to only in the sense of the liquid refreshment.

We not only have a good team, but we also have a squad of cheerleaders whose pep is often wasted because of a lack of audience participation. Worse yet—because of a lack of an audience. Since soccer is a skilled sport, it is, therefore, an interesting one. Not that we mean to sound trite, but let's get out and support the State team!!!

LONG TIME NO SEE

Tradition for the Common Staters has been to reveal their identities not only through their names, but through their photographs. Because of broken cameras, this honor will be withheld until next week. We're hurt. (?)

NOTICE ANY OPEN SPACES?

The barracks finally came down on this year's schedule. Let's hope the new dorm goes up fast. We hear it's nice and cozy in Bru's triple rooms!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Are you lost?

DON'T FORGET THE ALL COLLEGE RECEPTION TOMORROW NIGHT!!!

For The Record!!

Frosh Weekend has been designed to give the freshmen a warm and hearty "hello" from State College. Fortunately this has been achieved in the past, but this year's Women's Frosh Camp barely scratched the top.

It would be unfair to claim that the officers did a poor job; for they did not. It is certainly not their fault that the number of frosh women skyrocketed to 340. And it is not their fault that the first day of camp had to be further complicated by a conference which was held in Brubacher Hall. A conference which the officers were not notified of until the day before camp. We realize that Bru does offer a fine meeting place for State organizations, but it seems rightfully unfair that these conferences should assume a position which surpasses a traditional State College activity—an activity which has been scheduled since early spring. Are we wrong in believing that Brubacher Hall belongs to us, that it was built to be used by the students of Albany State? If this assumption is not false, then why didn't Frosh Weekend have priority over other activities.

Just how can the students enrolled at this college be certain that when they have scheduled activities that they are not going to be constantly impaired by outside organizations?

If we were to have a little more cooperation and understanding from all corners of our far flung campus, a more realistic and balanced program could be planned by all users of our facilities. Surely, neither group benefitted from the pure chaos that reigned in Bru Friday morning.

"Around The World In 68 Days"

By JOHN STEFANO

This past summer there were nine students from the State's four-year colleges who were fortunate enough to spend their school vacation on the European Continent. The delegate from Albany, after being chosen from thousands of applicants, departed the 17 of June on the Empire State III. The speedy vessel crossed the broad Atlantic in fourteen days.

July 2, 1957 was the Emancipation date for the cadets, officers and guests. The city of Dublin, Ireland, spread its arms to welcome the Americans. The newly elected Lord-Mayor of Dublin held a reception for the officers and cadet officers of the training ship; it was very interesting to note the manner in which the Lord-Mayor was chosen. It seems the election resulted in a tie and the victor was announced after his name was drawn from a hat. The Free State is in a very perilous situation because of their lack of raw materials, industry and people. The Irish people were the only people I met who desired to leave their homeland. There are approximately 3,000,000 people, and 100,000 of them are unemployed (equivalent to 3,000,000 unemployed here).

The next port the ship visited was the city of Amsterdam in the Netherlands. On the 8th of July I departed from the ship with another guest to begin our travels on the continent. The Dutch people were fascinating. They appeared very ambitious, clean and more prosperous than the Irish people. While in Holland I had an opportunity to stay with a Dutch schoolteacher and his family. The most remarkable thing about the visit with this family was the very warm reception they gave us and the manner in which they went out of their way to show us all that was possible for us to see in our two-day visit. They spoke very freely about their country and asked us many questions about the United States. The Dutch people are amazing in that they make use out of every bit of the land they possess. There are many skilled workers in Holland and there is still a demand for more of the same. Amsterdam is a very intriguing city with all its many canals, immense boat harbor, and historic buildings.

Ever since the first issue of the State College News appeared on October 4, 1916, editors of this newspaper have had the privilege of welcoming back old friends and greeting new faces to State College. To welcome back the upperclassmen we need only extend a warm "hello." To greet the new faces—the Class of 1961—is a more difficult task. Perhaps this is because each editor in the past has felt it necessary to offer to the incoming class some words of advice... we offer no formula for a successful college career, but we do offer this...

The primary aim of any institution of higher learning is to give to its students the best it can offer academically. Books, buildings, and a faculty cannot do this alone. As freshmen, you have yet to face the actually minor hardships of acquiring an education. You will meet them soon. Some of you will refuse to face up to these hardships... in the end, experience will again prove the best teacher. The best advice we can possibly offer is to plant two solid academic feet on the ground now, rather than limp along through the rest of your college career.

No college career is complete without some fun, and you will find your first year overflowing with frivolity, chiefly through the traditional Rivalry with the Sophomore Class. Rarely has a freshman class captured the Rivalry Cup from their arch-foes, the Sophomores... it might be a good year to try.

We have said we offer no formula for a successful college career, but perhaps the key to such a formula is a proper balancing of all facets of State College life. It might be to your advantage to experiment.

Welcome to State College, frosh!

From Amsterdam I took a train to Kohn, Germany, which was the beginning of many exciting experiences. In Kohn I got a glimpse of some of the finest modern buildings I've ever seen. In many cities in Germany I found that the people were doing an excellent job rebuilding their demolished urban centers. The people were very friendly and co-operative and did not seem to resent Americans at all. From Kohn I took a river boat trip up the Rhine and it was by far the most wonderful experience I had. There were beautiful old castles and chalets along hiltops which were present on both sides of the river. The trip was approximately fourteen hours long and ended at the city of Mainz, Germany—home of the Gutenberg Bible and press. After crossing the river to the resort city of Wiesbaden, my companion and myself rented a Volkswagen for three days. Thus we were able to see more of the countryside. While on this little jaunt, I had an opportunity to talk to many German school children and also explained the strange game of baseball to them.

July 19 we entered Switzerland by train from Mainz and travelled to a little village, Rorschach, by name, on the Swiss, German and Austrian border. We stayed with a family in the village for four days. Once again the hospitality was wonderful and the main topic of conversation once again settled on the United States and in this case Switzerland. The Swiss people do a great deal of tourist trade, and they do not hide this fact. Actually, they welcome all foreign visitors. The Swiss were most co-operative and friendly people I came in contact with while on the continent. The Swiss countryside is breathtaking and is so fascinating that it is hard to realize that you're not looking at pictures from some photography magazine. The mountain tops are snow capped almost all year round, and the surrounding scenery is brilliant because of the dark forests, bright mountain flowers and beautiful homes. Incidentally, Switzerland was the only country where I saw buildings made of wood, and these were only in the mountains. We did not leave Switzerland until the 30th of July, and in that time we visited many small cities and resort areas; some of these were Lugano, St. Moritz, Montreux and Interlaken.

Glimpses Into The Future For The Red Devils

Frosh Invade Bru And Wide Open Spaces; Absorb Traditions—Strain Lungs, Muscles

Frosh Camp Stories: Marlene Ackerman, Joan Call,

Jack Ormsbee, Arnie Rothstein.

Rivalry pictures by Willard Gillette.

"Where Oh Where Are the Verdant Freshmen?" If you had meandered over to Bru last weekend this would not have been questionable. For—the Red Devil women ascended on Bru on one of the hottest days of the year to begin their adventures at State College. Skits and sings and rambling talks AND more skits and sings and rambling talks accounted for much of the weekend's activities.

A Poem
Of course there were sports galore—
To Frosh up sore muscles from sitting on the floor!
Cheering on the sidelines added enthusiasm and pep—
And—Watch out Sophs cuz these frosh are really hep!
A variety of discussion including extra-curricular as well as curricular was also on the agenda. Here the frosh received valuable insight to the workings of State College.

A fashion show at Pierce demonstrated what the campus gals will wear. Bermudas stole the show!!! An impressive Candlelight service was one of the highlights of the weekend as the frosh formed an "S" on Dorm Field amidst the chanting of the "Torch Song" and the firecrackers of the "Torch Song" and the firecrackers of the Albany urchins.

Questions Anyone?

You've heard of the question of the week from the Commonstater. Now here is the question of the weekend...

Anyone for abstractions?

Where oh where is the Morgan

Linen Man?

When does the second floor go down?

Isn't Men's Frosh Camp here, too?

Do the upperclassmen always act like this?

Does the Blue Shield fully cover

you? (Insurance Candlelight service was one of the highlights of the weekend as the frosh formed an "S" on Dorm Field amidst the chanting of the "Torch Song" and the firecrackers of the Albany urchins.)

Do you have an announcement to make? (Of course the vocal chords do not function on this one unless you put your right hand on your head and your

Jazz Age

Entertainment-wise, much talent was displayed by both the counselors and the frosh. In the little time the frosh had to organize, we feel that they came through first-rate. Their talents ranged from the classical to the jazz of the roaring twenties. You should have seen those Red Devils do the Charleston... Man those Devils are cool!

Faculty Show

And, the faculty had the opportunity to let their hair down, too. With their musical ability and humor, they were the hit of the weekend, for they won the hearts of all the frosh.

Congratulations

Hats off to Marilyn Leach '58, Director, and all her officers; Sally Harter '58, Assistant Director; Carolyn Olivo '59, Secretary; Leah Greenman '59, Treasurer; and we must not forget the counselors who worked so hard while having a good time, too.

Final Note

As we leave you, our final note is directed to the Sophs—We say, Beware, 'cause all the frosh say, "Let the Heavens re-echo the shout—Sixty-one!"

Men Leave Frosh Camp; Shaggnasty Still Missing

By ORMSBEE & ROTHSTEIN

Frosh Camp was a howling success, a whooping, hollering, shouting success. The sheer vocal power of these new Frosh is impressive. Still, Rivalry's cheering points might go to the Sophs, because '61 didn't really get noisy until after "lights out" at midnight, which is later than any of the scheduled Rivalry events.

Activity seemed to be the primary of this year's Camp. Basketball, tennis, and volley ball courts were crowded, the swimming pool looked like a vat at a sardine cannery. Soccer and basketball players were carefully eyed by coaches Garcia and Sauters. Rumor has it that Garcia carried a long whip, and that Sauters was even milder.

Our faculty won the traditional Faculty-Frosh softball game. Dr. Lemon pitched his team to an 8-2 victory over the frosh, with only a slight bit of assistance from some otherwise perfect umpires.

The Frosh couldn't seem to understand the basic rules of the game, which should show the faculty what they will have to expect from their freshman classes. The Counselor-frosh softball game was really no contest, the counselors won easily by a score of 1-0 hard put at times to keep the game from being too one-sided in their favor.

The skits were par for the course, namely as usual, but providing a lot of fun for all. Soap and Kleenex were two mentionable prizes.

Dean Hartley, Doctors Winn, Moore, and Scullie, were the Faculty advisers this year, and very good ones, too. Dean Hartley plays a mean game of volleyball, and while Dr. Winn almost lived in the pool. Both Dr. Moore and Dr. Scullie held classes in Chess and that old Navy game, pennant.

All in all, this year's frosh class appears to be a good one indeed. They seem to be thirsting for knowledge. In fact, several of the counselors were prevailed upon to demonstrate water safety, clothes and all. Some of the counselors were a bit hesitant, but at fresh insistence, they complied.

The credit for this year's very successful Frosh Camp goes to Wagnara Dunham '58, who as director, organized the whole show. The lead was excellent, the facilities better than ever before, and the atmosphere terrific. Everyone had a good time.

Kapital Kapers

By ART PALAZZOLO

This critic would like to extend our small welcome to all the incoming Frosh, and congratulate them on their good taste in reading this column. Keep it up! (We need the free tickets.)

PALACE

STRAND

Around . . .

(Continued from Page 2, Column 5) journey and we arrived there on the 31st of July. Just about this time I was broke so my feet took a beating from the Paris sidewalks. The Eiffel Tower, Arc de Triomphe, Napoleon's Tomb, Notre Dame, Folies Bergere, Lido (night club), Palace of Versailles, Pantheon and Louvre were some of our stops while touring the city. The Champs Elysee and Latin Quarter (left bank) also proved to be adventurous events in our four-day visit of Paris.

My last stop in Europe was the French Riviera. We met the Empire State in Ville-France which is next to the famous resort city of Nice and a short distance from Monaco and Monte Carlo.

No where in Europe did the people make me feel unwanted or uncomfortable. I would like to thank the college for making this trip possible and wish the utmost success to the next delegate from Albany.

tell us: "Their lips met and the world whirled about them! Could he tell her now that there was a wife?" (Gad, what a cad!) Oh well, the theatre's air conditioned. Also showing is Public Enemy No. 1 with Red S. elton and Vivian Blaine. It's supposed to be funny.

RITZ

The Pajama Game with Doris Day, John Raitt, Carl Haney and Eddie Foy Jr. This movie is a cleaned-up version of the hilarious Broadway play from which it was taken. The Hernandez Hideaway dance sequence is the high point of the movie. The second hit (?) is Apache Warrior.

Incidentally, for those among you who hate movies, the local drive-ins offer a varied selection of flicks, ranging from Elvis P. in Loving You showing simultaneously at 4 theatres, to The Quiet Man at the Mohawk and Jerico drive-ins. A movie that deserves to be watched.

Book Exchange Opens Today

Patricia Ireland '59, Chairman of the Used Book Exchange, announces that the book exchange desk will be open today and all next week from 9-4 p.m. The desk is located in lower Draper by the girls locker room.

People who want to sell books should list the books with the exchange, and those who want to buy books should check the lists and get in touch with the seller.

The exchange contains books from almost all courses, and those who desire to save money by buying second hand books, should go to the exchange.

Frosh Set Early Pace At Frosh Camp

The so-called verdant frosh proved themselves right well in their full participation of sports at Freshman Camp. Finely coordinated activities were utilized by the campers to create a strong spirit and a tight bond that were apparent for the entire weekend.

The sports varied from checkers and chess to football and softball; and were enacted on the spacious grounds of Camp Schodack, eight miles from Etate.

Competition brings drive; drive of springs standouts and highpoints. Here they are—

Gunderman huris frosh softball win
Rebounding from a 1-0 setback on Saturday, the frosh, led by pitcher Larry Gunderman, defeated a combination of counselors and waiters, on Sunday, 4-3. Storming from behind, they scored three times in the fourth inning to win. The series ended with each side claiming a victory apiece.

To the right of the softball games; basketball, tennis, swimming and diving, football, volleyball and ping-pong were played enthusiastically.

Upon careful examination of this list, it appears that this reporter has omitted the most important of all sports here at S.T.C. The activity being, soccer. However, due to the alert soliciting of varsity player, Warren Dunham, soccer hopefuls were scouted. Needless to say, the report was encouraging.

On a note of complete satisfaction by all; an interlude neither short or drawn out, frosh camp ended 3 p.m., Sunday.

One may only remark—Beware! Sophs! The freshman athletes are coming!

Kampf Komments:

Seven,
Come Eleven

Six and one add up to seven; seven is a lucky number; therefore, the class of sixty-one should present a winning combination in this year's Rivalry. Let's face it, Sophs, the class of '52 turned the trick on the upperclassmen in their freshman year.

This realization came to this writer as he floundered in the pool with all his clothes on up at Men's Frosh Camp this past weekend. It has been said up to date that this year's crew of Red Devils hasn't shown as much enthusiasm as last year's Yellow Jackets. We find this feeling to be primarily false especially in the field of athletics.

Cohen, Bearden Best Bets For Varsity
Coach Sauers has two outstanding varsity basketball recruits in the persons of Don Cohen from Albany High and Don Bearden's younger brother, Dave. Both of these boys possess the capabilities to make them varsity members come the opening of basketball season.

The soccer squad has been increased by some twenty or more freshmen who are out to boost Coach Garcia's hopes for a winning season.

As far as intramural and Rivalry activities are concerned, one need only make his way to Dorm Field to watch the Sayles Hall team in its practice sessions. The class of '60 isn't going to have an easy time of it this year.

AMIA Football Gets Under Way

A bigger and better football season is in store for all of you who enjoy the rough and tumble sport. The athletes haven't let the departure of Dorm Field interfere with plans for the coming league action. All games will be played on an enlarged field on Beverwyck Field.

There have been some minor changes made in the playing area this year, the most important being that the end zones have been increased by five yards. The field has also been widened to give a greater playing area.

Action will get under way on September 30 with about eight or nine teams participating. Last year's undefeated champions, Potter Club, will be out to make it two years in a row, but they have lost a couple of linemen and possibly the signal calling of Tom Brierly. SLS has been hurt by academic failure and transfers, but cannot be counted out of contention. The forward wall of APA will average close to two hundred pounds per man this year and will be about the strongest in the league. KB has picked up a couple of fine additions to their squad of last year and could loom as the spoiler in league action this season. Next week we will begin a series of reports on all the teams in the league.

Will the Humps return to "action" this year?

Coach Garcia Issues Call For Candidates In Interview

This fall Joe Garcia will begin his eighth year as coach of the State soccer team. Coach Garcia doesn't think the chances of an outstanding season are very promising. There are eight returning lettermen, but seven mainstays of last year's club were lost through graduation. The two things that could put us up there in contention are more candidates for the squad and much more enthusiasm, both from the players and the rest of the student body.

Frosh to start
The lineup looks fairly good at the present time. Two freshmen look ready for starting berths. They are Lou Walnar a goalie and Bob Pallace, a real hustling lineman. Junior Gus Tillman looks like the replacement for Tito Guglielmo. Gus is playing outside-left and is doing a good job for a beginner. The other mainstays on the club probably will be Lou DeSignore and Wendy Fowler at halfback. Bob Backer, Ed Jones and Warren Dunham will be up on the line. These boys are all lettermen, but any candidate who comes out has a chance for a starting assignment.

Dammer and Maxon lead team
Paul Dammer and Carl Maxon are this year's co-captains. Both were All-State selections last year and Maxon received honorable mention on the All-American squad. Paul and Carl will be starting this year at the fullback positions.

--- AMJA Notes ---

Touch football returns to State on September 30 when the AMIA intramural league will once again resume action. All games this year will be played on Beverwyck Field.

Head commissioners for the league this year, Russ Hall and Bob Slisco, announced this week that there will be a captain's meeting on Monday, September 23 in the Brubacher game room.

THE MIXTURE AS BEFORE

Today begins my fourth year of writing this column and, as before, I will continue to explore the issues that grip the keen young mind of campus America—burning questions like "Should housemothers be forced to retire at 28?" and "Should pajamas and robes be allowed at first-hour classes?" and "Should proctors be armed?" and "Should picnicking be permitted in the stacks?" and "Should teachers above the rank of associate professor be empowered to perform marriages?" and "Should capital punishment for pledges be abolished?"

Philip Morris Incorporated sponsors this column. Philip Morris Incorporated makes Philip Morris cigarettes. They also make Marlboro cigarettes. Marlboro is what I am going to talk to you about this year.

Before beginning the current series of columns, I made an exhaustive study of Marlboro advertising. This took almost four minutes. The Marlboro people don't waste words. They give it to you fast: "You get a lot to like in a Marlboro... Filter... Flavor... Flip-top Box."

Well, sir, at first this approach seemed to me a little terse, a bit naked. Perhaps, thought I, I should drape it with a veil of violet prose, adorn it with a mantle of fluffy adjectives, dangle some participles from the ears... But then I thought, what for? Doesn't that tell the whole Marlboro story?... Filter... Flavor... Flip-top Box.

Marlboro tastes great. The filter works. So does the box. What else do you need to know?

So, with the Marlboro story quickly told, let us turn immediately to the chief problem of undergraduate life—the money problem. This has always been a vexing dilemma, even in my own college days. I recall, for example, a classmate named Oliver Hazard Sigafoos, a great strapping fellow standing 11 hands high, who fell in love with a beautiful Theta named Nikki Spillane, with hair like beaten gold and eyeballs like two table-spoons of forgetfulness.

Every night Oliver Hazard would take Nikki out to dine and dance, and then to dine again, for dancing made Nikki ravenous. Then they would go riding in the swan boats, and then Nikki, her appetite sharpened by the sea air, would have 8 or 10 oysters, and then Oliver Hazard would take her home, stopping on the way to buy her a pail of oysters or two.

To raise money for these enchanted evenings, Oliver Hazard took on a number of part-time jobs. Between classes he cut hair. After school he gutted perches. From dusk to midnight he vulcanized medicine balls. From midnight to dawn he trapped night crawlers.

This crowded schedule took, alas, a heavy toll from Oliver Hazard. In the space of a month he dwindled from 260 to 101 pounds—but that, curiously enough, proved his salvation.

Today Oliver Hazard is a jockey, earning a handsome living which, combined with what he makes as a lymph donor after hours, is quite sufficient to curb Nikki's girlish appetite. Today they are married and live in Upper Marlboro, Maryland, with their two daughters, Filter and Flavor, and their son, Flip-top Box.

The makers of Marlboro take pleasure in bringing you this free-wheeling, uncensored column every week during the school year... And speaking of pleasure, have you tried a Marlboro?

Garcia Booters Intensify Drills; Open Soccer Season Next Friday

Will the factors of experience and a good early season workout make up for a tougher schedule and the loss of seven lettermen? This is the question in the minds of the Albany fans this week as the team which looked good in intrasquad scrimmages plays two exhibitions before initiating the season on Friday of next week.

Co-Captains of last year's soccer team, Bill Bonsteel and Tito Guglielmo, hand the ball over to Paul Dammer and Carl Maxson, Co-Captains of this year's squad.

Season's Opening

Fraleigh Dickinson will be the host in this afternoon fray, marking the first game for both schools and the first meeting in soccer between Albany and F.D.U. The only new name on the schedule, this New Jersey College should provide one of the toughest tests the Peds will face, for they meet Geneseo the following week after beating the Western New York team by a 5-0 score in last season's opener. Garcia's scholars will then move home to face Adelphi and avenge a 4-2 loss of last fall before crossing the Hudson to RPI whom they defeated in Bleecker Stadium in 1956.

Lettermen

Significant among the returning lettermen are Carl Maxson, the All American honorable mention of 1956, and Paul Dammer of the New York State team. The pair will co-captain a team composed of veteran players Wendell Fowler, Warren Dunham, Bob Backer, Eddie Koubeck and Lou DeSignore. DeSignore was a recipient of All State honors in 1956, when as a Sophomore he played a back position during the season. The others were all forwards.

Fowler, whose goal production was low last season, is coming along very well in pre-season workouts and should experience the great season of which he is capable. Eddie Koubeck, plagued by tough luck last year, along with Bob Backer whose play should have great impact on the team. It was Backer who contributed much to the success of the squad last season when the Garcia-men took five straight in roaring to a 6-3 record, losing a ball game by a 1-0 score on a freak goal and dropping one to Panzer and Adelphi. The varsity was undefeated on home soil in 1956.

Up from the JV will be Art Hackett, Lee Uperait, and Gus Tillman. The trio which shows tremendous improvement and looked good in scrimmages, will figure in Coach Joe Garcia's long range plans this fall as the pair of Sophs and the Junior (Tillman) will add a scoring punch in the forward line and a good defense as Gus is in line for the goal-tending job. He'll have a big pair of shoes to fill in those of departed Tito Guglielmo, but he appears to have the stuff to do the job.

The freshmen will have a lot to say about the ball club's destiny this season as the innocents get their first taste of college soccer. Showing a lot of stuff this week were war vet John (Jack) Jones, Danny McNeill of Oceanside, New York, and Middleburgh boy Merle Miller, just to mention three of many on the field.

The athletes this fall will enjoy the best conditions they have had in a long while as they will have Chuck Fowler '60 as head manager, assisted by a very able freshman in the person of Rog Sherman. News of their feats will go all over the northeastern part of the country as the publicity staff has now been augmented by George McGaughey, a freshman from Aiden, New York.

It looks as if the fans will have a lot to cheer about this year when the team returns to face Adelphi on Saturday, October 12, in the homecoming game, for this may well be one of the best squads in Albany history.

State University Opens New Teachers' College

The New York State University and board will be $500. The Dean of the College is Leonard K. Olsen who has recently been assistant to the president of State University.

With an enrollment of fifty-six women and ninety-two men composing the first freshman class, plans are going into operation for a more permanent college than the present one. At present, the campus is located on the 409-acre estate of the late William R. Coo. The permanent location will be at Stony Brook in Suffolk County.

Compared to the 100 to 1 ratio of students to faculty in some public colleges and universities, the ratio at the new College is 10 to 1.

Like all New York State Teachers Colleges, there is no tuition charge to residents of New York State. Special fees are not expected to exceed $100 a year. The cost of housing will range from $180 to $220 explained.

Chairman Lists "News" Always Comes Events Planned Out On Friday (Whew!) For Weekend

Should you notice a few mistakes in today's issue, please direct all complaints to the United States Post Office. When our staff of four reached the Hudson printers early Thursday afternoon, we were greeted with the news that the mails failed.

Homecoming Weekend is a tradition that began here five years ago. Its purpose is to create an opportunity for alumni to renew acquaintances with administration, faculty, and undergraduates, and to get an up-to-date view of New York State College for Teachers at Albany.

Varied Program This year Homecoming Weekend will be held on October 12-14. The schedule of events for Saturday is: parade to Blecker Stadium, soccer game (State vs. Adelphi College), sorority and fraternity buffets, and a dance. On Sunday there will be a jazz concert at Brubacher Hall.

Committee Assignments Committees for Homecoming are: General Chairman, Winifred Youngs; Parade, Robert Fox and Kenneth Kadet; Dance, David Youst, Barbara Nardiccia, Juniors, and Bruno Rogers, Grad.; Publicity, Betsy Leaning; Treasurer, Sue Goodrich, Juniors.

Religious Groups To Hold Meeting

The Lutheran Student Association will schedule its first meeting of the college year, announces Walt Heins '59, President. The meeting, which is set for Sunday evening at 6 p.m., will be held at St. John's Church, 169 Central Avenue.

The members of this association are giving a supper for the frosh and transfers. Following the supper will be entertainment. Anyone desiring further information may call Gale Kleinman '59, through either main, nor sleep, nor slow trains to Hudson, the State Samuelson '59, Alpha Pi Alpha, Albany 62-9268.

Really? . . . do you know? I'll tell you. I'll tell you what's coming next! Aside on the street that just can't do it. Very nice. Art. A guy makes State

Association Officer Speaks Tuesday At Education Night

On Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. in Class of 1937 from New York State E. Kullman, Jr., Administrative Assistant to the Executive Secretary of New York State Teachers Association, will speak at State College's first Education Evening. The title of his speech will be "You Are Here—Why?"

This Education Evening is important to every student at State College, for this is an excellent opportunity to learn about your chosen profession. This is to be the first of many such evenings devoted entirely to teaching topics so that students will become more aware of what they are actually training for at State College.

There will be a questioning period following Kullman's speech. The members of Alpha Epsilon, Education Sorority, will act as hostesses and coffee will be served.

Freshmen Join For Activities Week Events

Plans are being formulated for Activities Week, according to Carolyn Olivo and Carol Altie '59, Co-Chairmen. Thirty-three extra-curricular organizations have scheduled receptions from Monday through Thursday, at which time brief explanations of the organizations' activities will be given. Time will be allotted for a question and answer period, and refreshments will be served.

On Friday night, October 18, there will be a traditional bonfire, the banner presentation to the freshmen, and a skill. Miss Olivo requests that freshmen look for further information concerning Activities Week in the form of posters, on the frosh bulletin board, and in the State College News.

Activities Week will be held early this year. It is a tradition. It has one main purpose — to acquaint freshmen with the major extra-curricular activities offered at State College. Receptions are to be held by the following groups: athletic, dramatic, departmental organizations, publications, and religious.

President Chooses Committees For Beanie Ball; Announces Freshman Class Rivalry Chairmen

On September 28, from 8 to 12 p.m. in Brubacher Hall the Beanie Ball will take place. The Beanie Ball is a traditional freshman dance. It is the initial attempt on the part of the freshmen to organize a function that is completely theirs.

Reuben Merchants is the name of the band. It will supply music for both square and round dancing. Informal apparel should be worn. Freshmen are reminded to wear their beanies.

The committees for the dance, composed only of freshmen, are: Myron Baum, Peter Cardamone, Barbara Clapp, Chaperones: Alicia Burton, Nancys; Harriet Sutcliffe, Sue Rodevich, Refreshments; William Kelly, Set-ups; Robert Baker, John Johnson, Peter Spina, Entertainment; Marilyn Alston, Kay G. Gwinn, Decorations; Donald Donato, Publicity.

Dr. and Mrs. Larney and Dr. and Mrs. Schultze are the chaperones for the evening. Mykama and the co-organizers of the class, Sharon Moore and Robert Fox, Juniors, have been invited.

Freshman women may stay at the dance until twelve o'clock, but they must return to their dorms or group houses immediately after the dance ends.

Now I have competition. Max Shulman's column will appear every week in this paper. Max sells Marlboro's, I sell myself. Sometimes I think I'd be better off selling reefer, but then again it's pretty much the same thing. I left out a few items last week: Books up, about ten per cent; frantically dues up as much as five skins, cafeteria food up for investigation.
