COUNCIL PRESIDENT TO BE CHOSEN
JUNE 6 FROM STUDENTS IN ROOM 320;
AUCTION TO BE HELD TUESDAY, MAY 29

"The election of next year's Student Council president will take place June 6," announced Tom Watkins in the Council meeting Wednesday at eleven o'clock. The inauguration will not be held until next year. Only the Juniors in home room 320 will be eligible for nomination.

There will be an auction of all articles gathered in the Lost and Found during the year next Tuesday, May 29, at two o'clock in room 121. All lost articles should be called for before that time.

A report on the ticket money for the Student Council dance was given by Howard Rosenstein and Thomas Watkins. $13.20 has been collected. $10.00 is still out making a complete profit of $23.20. Home room 224 and 226 have not paid the assessed amount of $4.50.

Several students have still not paid their Student Tax. The Student Council urges these delinquents to do so at once.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM INCLUDES PLAY AND CONCERT BY COLLEGE CHORUS

The State College mixed chorus, under the direction of Dr. T. Frederick H. Candlyn, gave a concert for the Milne Junior and Senior High Schools Wednesday at 12:00 o'clock in assembly. The chorus was accompanied by Dr. Candlyn. The selections numbering six were both sacred and secular songs of the sixteenth century, including an arrangement of "Twenty-Eighten" by Deems Taylor, the noted American composer and master of ceremonies on Paul Whiteman's radio hour.

Home room 230 presented a comedy in one act entitled "Not Quite Such a Goose" by Elizabeth Gale. The players were Carolyn Hallenback, Frances Hoornbeek, Virginia McDermott, Ralph Norvell, and Douglas MacHarg. Miss Roselyn Maurice directed the play which was very well received by the audience.

Before the program began, Professor John M. Sayles cautioned the members of the school to be careful of the newly planted trees on the Milne campus. Several yew trees, Douglas firs, high-bush cranberry bushes, and barberry bushes have been planted. Touching them will retard their growth.

HURRAH FOR THE REVIEW!!!

Proverbs couldn't live long enough to be considered old unless they held a really worthy message. That is why we beg you to recall that ancient adage "Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today". And we beg you to apply it to yourself, seriously, especially at this time of the year when all the Senior High students are preparing for the Regents exams. (O fated eveth!)

Although it is too late now to bemoan the fact that whenever we could we speedily omitted as much home-work as possible, in pursuing joys of a more fleeting nature; nevertheless now is exactly the time to make the Regents review as complete as we can make it.

There are a blessed few who, in the beginning of the school year, applied themselves to their work so thoroughly that no review for the Regents is really necessary. But it is to be feared that more than a few of those others will neglect the review in preference to the pleasures of these delightful summer-like days. They will discount the value of a methodical and concentrative review, believing that the rapid assimilation of a great many diversified facts at the last minute (known as cramming) is sufficient. But let us realize that a last-minute cramming often does more harm than good. Yet this harmful cramming for a Regents exam four weeks distant seems small when weighed against a tennis game or a party in this terribly important present.

But those who reason this far overlook many possibilities. If the review is done faithfully every night, then some other more important opportunity may be taken advantage of, when otherwise the time would be spent in cramming. There is nothing so important in this world that it can not be denied, and that time so denied will be doubly spent later on.

So beware of promising yourself to do the review and then putting it off with some weak excuse. A very wise person once remarked, "The road to hell is paved with good intentions."

THANK YOU!!!

May we commend the department of Home Economics under Mrs. Anna Barsam for their spirit of cooperation. The new curtains for the Hawley gym, purchased by the school have been made up by the sewing classes and Mrs. Barsam. This ~~represents~~ represents a great deal of work and will improve the appearance of the Hawley gym in the same degree.

This is only one of the recent indications of the cooperative spirit in the Milne School. Several students in the art department under Miss Grace Martin have made all the "cuts" of the illustrations for the yearbook.

Jones: Yes, three daughters.

Betty: Who asked you?
Flo: My mother and father.

Snowden: Where are you from?

Snowden: One of those jerk towns where everyone goes down to meet the train?
Smith: What train?

Dent: I'm afraid I'll have to drop out.
Fred: What's the matter? Can't you fix my teeth without a rehearsal?

EIGHT GIRLS REPRESENT MILNE
IN INTER-SCHOOL GYM MEET ON SATURDAY

Milne was represented at a Gym Meet at the Hackett Junior High School Saturday by eight girls. They were Elisabeth Brown, Irene Hawkins, Dorothy Wallace, Dorothy Ann Duffy, Ethel Gillespie, Barbara Birchenough, Sarah Anne Knox, and Frances Levitz. Seven schools participated in the event. Each Milne girl was in a separate team. The various events included suitcase relay races, one-legged relay races, wheel-barrow races, skipping and jumping races, balance tests, and mosquito races. The team, of which El Brown was captain, was the winner.

A Girl's Varsity baseball game which was scheduled with State College for Monday was postponed because of rain.

MILNE SEWING CLUBS MADE
NEW CURTAINS FOR HAWLEY GYM

The sewing classes of the home economics department have just completed the making of a set of curtains for the Hawley Gym. This was all done under the supervision of Mrs. Anna Barsam.

The Hawley Gym has for the first time been used extensively this year by the Milne school. The Senior party and the Junior party were given there. The addition of the new curtains will therefore make the gym much more attractive and more popular than ever.

It has been suggested that new furniture be placed in the gym, but so far nothing has been done about it.
