

Over the past month, our leadership team here at UAlbany has been truly inspired by the response of every member of our campus community.

We want to express our deepest appreciation and thank you all for all that you have done.

I'm grateful for our faculty for making the transition to remote teaching.

I'm grateful for all our student athletes who've returned home and are maintaining their focus on academic excellence.

For our amazing student leaders who have risen to the occasion.

All the faculty, staff, and students who continue to push forward with their research scholarship.

For the dedicated essential employees that have been keeping our campus operational day in and day out.

For our diverse and inclusive community, supporting each other during these challenging times.

Thank you for your support of the student emergency fund.

For our research in minority health disparities.

Our dedicated staff who are adapting to new ways of doing business.

For all the ways the University at Albany has been able to support our local community.

And on the home front, I'm particularly thankful to have a chance to spend time with some of my favorite Great Danes.

For my co-workers at home.

A loving family.

For my own Great Dane Chloe.

My wonderful family, friends and colleagues.

Maximus gratias.

Go Great Danes!

You are the heart and soul of this institution, so from the bottom of our hearts, thank you very much.

Muchisimas gracias.

Okay that's a wrap, cut.
