Social Security: Don't Overlook Second Chance

Applications are now being distributed for Social Security coverage for members of the New York State Retirement System and the State Teachers' Retirement System who turned down the opportunity in 1956 and 1959, the State Social Security Agency has announced.

The agency said the forms have been sent to personnel officers in all state and political subdivision agencies for individual distribution. The agency stressed that eligible persons requesting coverage must file with their individual employers and with the Social Security Agency directly.

Must File Early

Individuals desiring to be included in the first coverage period under the new reopening, which will be executed about December 31, must file with their employers early enough to enable the employer to return the necessary form to the Social Security office in Albany by December 1. Subsequent coverage periods under this reopening are expected in late June, 1962, and, for a final time, about December 31, 1962.

Continuous membership in the State Employees' Retirement System of the State Teachers' Retirement System since the original opening of Social Security to these persons in 1956 is required for coverage under this reopening. In addition, eligible persons will be required to accept and pay for coverage retroactively to the original effective date in 1956.

Kuchler Heads Member Drive

UTICA, Oct. 23—Alfred Kuchler, a case worker in the Oneida County Welfare Department, has been named chairman of a membership drive being held by the Oneida County Chapter Civil Service Employees Association.

Mrs. Ruth Mann, president of the chapter, said the goal of the drive was 275 new members. Membership presently totals 725.

Kuchler, who resides in Stittville, attended Mohawk Valley Technical Institute and Utica College. He is a finance officer in the Stittville Methodist Church and also is active in the Boy Scouts. He is a member of the Barneveld Business Men's League, and Seaway Lodge, Odd Fellows.

Nassau Chapter Joins Metro Conference

Nassau County Chapter, Civil Service Employee's Association, has elected to join the Metropolitan Conference. This action is a result of recent revision of CSEA by-laws which allowed the move.

The conference, at a recent meeting, also voted to join with the Southern Conference for a Joint Spring Workshop to be held in April.

STATE POLICE APPEAL — Joseph F. Feily, left, President of the Civil Service Employees Association, urges Governor Rockefeller to reduce the 60-hour work week of the New York State Police. Feily, in a meeting at the Governor's Capitol office recently, outlined the Association's long-standing efforts to reduce the State Police work week to the same 40-hour week mandated for all other policemen in the state several years ago. He said the additional force necessary to accomplish the work hour reduction should be added at the earliest possible time.

Oswego Aides Still May Win Additional Benefits

(From Leader Correspondent)

OSWEGO, Oct. 23—Oswego city employees may still obtain additional benefits with their sick leave and vacation plan, it was indicated here.

Despite the discarding of a plan by Democrat Second Ward Alderman Anthony J. Crisafulli in favor of the plan proposed by Mayor Ralph Shapiro, the fight for the educational benefits in the "Crisafulli Plan" is still going on.

The Mayor's plan was adopted by the Common Council Aug. 14—after a blistering, hour-long debate over the two plans. The Council's action appeared to put an end to the battle.

CSEA At Work

But now, it is reported, the Civil Service Employees Assn. and others are working quietly to obtain some of the additional benefits in the Crisafulli Plan, which is said to include hospitalization, disability insurance, social security and workmen's compensation benefits. Full details of the alderman's plans have not been made public.

First Ward Alderman Robert Potter, one of three aldermen studying the question of employee benefits, has revealed that his group has discussed additional benefits with some members of the police and fire departments.

"Some" Changes Predicted

Also, he disclosed, a number of city employees have expressed a desire for such benefits as time off for holidays worked and time-off periods to attend funerals.

Alderman Potter said the question of "fringe benefits" was to be discussed by the Council at last week's meeting but no action was reported.

Host to Soviets

ALBANY, Oct. 23—The State Public Works Department and the State Thruway Authority last week played host to a delegation of Soviet highway engineers and officials. The visitors were shown major highway and building construction projects in the Capital District.

The alderman said the city undoubtedly will have to provide employees with some benefits not included in the adopted plan, but just what these benefits will be is not known now.

"What we are sure of," he said, "is that something extra probably will have to be provided, and before we get done we may well have passed a sizeable number of the benefits contained in the Crisafulli Plan."

Let's Push Non-Contributory Pension System

ALBANY, Oct. 23 — Comptroller Arthur Levitt will make a major effort at the 1962 legislative session to obtain a "wholly non-contributory" State retirement system.

He has asked aides to prepare legislation that can be introduced early in the session, which will provide for the state to pay the full pension cost for its employees.

The bill, now being drawn up, also will authorize municipalities to grant the same benefits to their employee-members of the system.

Although recently defeated in a New York Democratic primary fight for the mayoralty nomination, Mr. Levitt is mapping an extensive legislative program that goes far beyond his own immediate realm as comptroller.

Cites Cost

State employee benefits is one important part, The Leader learned, but education and related fields will be covered.

The comptroller gave support two years ago to the Civil Service Employees Association request for a five percent take-home pay raise plan. He has told aides that the extension of this for a wholly non-contributory system is logical.

It is estimated that such a program would cost the state only about six or seven million a year, or about half of the cost of the five percent program.

Variable Annuity

Mr. Levitt also is interested in provision of a variable annuity plan for the State Retirement System. His position is this:

"As you know, one of the shortcomings of a normal retirement plan is that it pays retired persons only a fixed number of dollars per month. Since the dollar value has declined in purchasing power, the result is that such persons suffer greatly by inflation."

Other Projects

He suggests that such a new plan would involve the investment of a portion of employee contributions in common stocks and other equities — investments which may appreciate in value. The retirement allowance would be based in part on a fixed amount from the regular contribution and in part on a varying amount from that portion invested in equities.

Thus, retired persons would receive a larger monthly payment if the equity investments increase in value. However, benefits could be reduced if the stocks fell in value.

The Comptroller also is planning to sponsor legislation to extend to members of the State Teachers' Retirement System some of the benefits now enjoyed by those in the state system. These benefits include the five percent take-home pay plan.

Named to Board

ALBANY, Oct. 23 — Governor Rockefeller has reappointed Frank W. Dunham Jr. of Albany as a member of the State Board of Commissioners of Pilots for a term ending June 1963.

SAM CIPOLLA HONORED

For devoted and meritorious service to the Mental Hygiene Employees Association, Sam Cipolla, second from left, was presented with a bronze plaque by MHEA members during the annual meeting of the group, held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Civil Service Employees Association in

IN CITY CIVIL SERVICE

Housing Auth. Names Schreiber Design Chief

The New York City Housing Authority has appointed Max B. Schreiber as Director of Design, according to chairman William Reid. Samuel V. Becker, formerly Assistant Director of Design, has been promoted to Mr. Schreiber's previous post of Deputy Director.

The moves resulted from the call to active military service of Major General Edward J. McGrew, Jr., who had been appointed Director of Design in 1959 after serving as chairman of the New York State Building Code Commission. General McGrew reported to the Army's 301st Logistical command at Fort Bragg, North Carolina on Oct. 10.

Mr. Schreiber has been with the Authority since 1946, and Mr. Becker since 1955. When General McGrew returns from active duty, he will resume the post of Director of Design.

EA Continuing Campaign To Promote Courtesy

The Transit Authority is continuing its campaign to make ladies and gentlemen out of its subway riding public. "The one in a thousand offender is the one we are aiming our current campaigns towards", Authority Chairman Charles L. Patterson said this week. The latest facet in the campaign is a "name the offender" contest. The Authority has placed pictures of the four worst offenses in its subway cars and buses. A prize of a year's supply of tokens will be awarded to the four best names given to the offenders.

- The posters show:
- A careless passenger, designated as a donkey, is littering a subway car while the rest of the passengers look on. A conductor standing to the side, exclaims: "Haaaaay, Mr. Zoo Keeper! Here's one that got away."
 - The second poster shows an elephant blocking the doorway, while irate passengers are prevented from getting on or off the car.
 - A third card shows a sly fox sneaking into a seat which has been vacated to an elderly woman by a male passenger.
 - The fourth poster shows a bull charging into a line of men and women waiting for a TA bus.

Board of Education Field Trips Expanded

The Board of Education has announced a new program for visits to educational exhibits and places of interest for the city's school pupils. As a result of a new transportation contract, the 40 buses now being used for transportation of pupils in the open enrollment program will be utilized by the assistant superintendents' offices in the five boroughs. The only extra cost to the schools will be parking, and tolls. Visits are planned for the United Nations, art centers, museums and zoos, the Board pointed out.

U.S. Service News Items

By CAROL CHRISTMAN

Suggestions Saved Govt. $63,927,159

Suggestions by Federal employees saved the government an estimated $63,927,159 this year. Following are some of the individual ideas out of the 110,295 contributed by Federal employees.

Four employees of the Cato-graphic Unit at the Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Office in South Carolina redesigned a standard 70 mm camera so that it now requires one man rather than two to operate it. The suggestion also means that this camera which is used to make farm planning maps, requires less film. This suggestion resulted in $11,000 in manhours and material savings.

$2,800 in manhour savings was the result of an idea of Jefferson Chittam, a guided missile mechanic. He designed and built an alignment press that simplifies the jobs of assembling the liquid oxygen valves on the Saturn space rocket.

An Army training instructor saved the government $166,000 in manhours and material costs. Robert J. Hornbeck suggested the use of an inexpensive training aid for instructing students in the maintenance and repair of radio equipment. Use of this "trainer tester" instead of actual equipment reduces training time from 33 to four hours per trainee and does away with damage to costly equipment.

Plan for Increased Economy Underway

Staff of both the White House and the Budget Bureau are drafting a plan to increase economy in Federal operations through better planning and management and increased productivity on the part of the employee.

This long range program has the support of President Kennedy. All Federal agencies are being asked for facts on their budgets and other pertinent information. The program will be in the final stage in about two weeks.

It is reported that President Kennedy has rejected the Eisenhower plan to cut costs by reductions in salary funds of agencies by two to three percent. It is also reported that the President will make each agency head responsible for the success of the economy program.

Group Studies Means For Quicker Decisions

A group of six men is making a survey in the State Department on the subject of faster decision making. The group is headed by Carlisle H. Humelsine, a past undersecretary for administration and president of Colonial Williamsburg.

Others in the group are: William Hall, former budget officer; Robert Macy, head of the International Division of the Budget Bureau; Walter Scott, a foreign service officer; Arthur Stevens, a former State administrative officer and Ralph Roberts of the management staff in the State Department.

VA Expanding Foster Home Plan in City

The Veterans Administration is trying to expand its successful foster home program within New York City. Dr. Sylvan A. Frankenthaler, clinic director of the New York office announced recently. The "foster home" idea was established in 1951 and is designed to provide a normal life for recovering mentally disturbed patients and to act as a step in their return from hospital to the community.

A majority of these homes are needed in Manhattan, Bronx and Queens. The "foster home" sponsors will have consultations with social work representatives from the V.A.

Anyone interested in offering a "foster home" for these veterans is urged to call the VA, 252 7th Ave., New York City at WATkins 4-5000, Ext. 591 or 546.

City P.O. Aides' Fund To Sponsor Scholarships

The New York Post Office Employees' recreational and welfare fund has voted to sponsor five $2,000 scholarships for children of its employees. Postmaster of New York Robert K. Christenberry announced last week.

For four years, starting with the Fall 1962 college entrance year, these scholarships will be apportioned in installments of $500. Contestants will be required to compete in the scholastic Aptitude tests conducted by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, as a result of which, the five candidates attaining the highest average ratings will be selected.

Other benefits created from funds of the recreational and welfare fund are: three ambulances to take care of employees who are taken ill or injured on the job;

City to Hire Ass't Accountants; $4,850

Assistant accountants will be hired by New York City at $4,850 to $6,290 a year. A test for this title will be open from Nov. 1 to March 30, 1962.

Candidates must have a baccalaureate degree with at least 24 credits in college level courses in accounting.

Fully Paid Pensions

STATE Comptroller Arthur Levitt has announced that one of his major goals in the State Legislature next year will be the creation of a wholly non-contributory pension system for state employees.

As head of the Retirement System, Levitt feels that a wholly state-paid pension plan is not only economically feasible but also logical from the point of view that state employees are already half-way toward such a retirement system as a result of taking up by the state of the first five employee contribution points. This plan was developed by the Civil Service Employees Association and has become known as the "Five Point Plan."

The Comptroller's proposed legislation to create such a plan deserves the most serious attention of employees. It is a plan that will appeal to many. But to some others, the plan appears to practically eliminate employee participation not only in payments but in any way at all about the system.

All factors concerning such a plan, therefore, should be carefully examined and any needed safeguards should be proposed.

Levitt has invited employee opinion on most moves concerning the Retirement System and we feel sure he would be only too happy to hear from employees on his current proposal.

Question 3, Vote Yes

BOTH THE Uniformed Firemen's Association and the Uniformed Fire Officers Association are campaigning, with the assistance of candidates for New York City office, for the passage of Question No. 3 on the Nov. 7 ballot.

This question, if passed, will grant firefighters a guarantee that they will continue to work the same 2-platoon system which is now in effect. There has been no opposition to the passage of the question, but we urge every Civil Service worker to assist them in the question's passage by voting "YES" to Question 3 on Nov. 7.

Questions Answered On Social Security

Below are questions in Social Security problems sent in by our readers and answered by a legal expert in the field. Anyone with a question on Social Security should write it out and send it to the Social Security Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, N. Y.

I have just turned 62 and am thinking about retiring now and collecting social security benefits. If I do apply for my old-age benefits now, will I need credit for as much work under the law as I would if I waited until I am 65 to apply?

Yes. The amount of work a man needs to get old-age insurance benefits himself—and to insure his wife for aged widow's benefits—still depends on when he reaches 65. As soon as he has this amount of work and is at least 62, he can, if he chooses, apply for benefits. If you are 62 this year, you will need credit under the 1961 amendments for 3½ years of work regardless of whether you apply for benefits now or wait until you are 65. Under the 1960 law, you would have needed credit for 4¼ years of work.

My husband died in 1957, but I have not been able to get social security benefits even though I am past 62. I understand that he did not work long enough under the law. Now that the law has been changed, can I get benefits?

If your husband has credit for at least 1½ years of work under social security, you will be able to get benefits under the 1961 amendments. So, visit your local social security office and file your claim again. Your benefits could start with the month of August.

I am 69 but have not been able to get social security benefits because I have not worked long enough under social security. Will the recent change in the law help me get benefits now?

Very likely. Under the recent change in the law, a person 69 or older can get old-age insurance benefits if he has credit for as little as 1½ years of work under social security. Visit your local social security office now to see whether you may now qualify for benefits.

Welfare Patrolmen Await Better Pay, Working Conditions

Editor, The Leader:

The Welfare Patrolmen are still waiting as usual for some solution to their problems of low pay and shabby working conditions. Last year at the Mayor's request, Commissioner James R. Dumpson made an evaluation of the patrolmen's duties and stated they should have a recognized police line of promotion, proper title, and a police pay scale at least on a par with the N.Y.C. Housing Police force.

It has been proved over and over again that these officers perform a police function, yet because they are assigned to a Social Agency they must remain with a below living wage of only $3,500-$4,580. These men have families and bills to pay just like everyone else. The discrimination of this group is unworthy of City Administration, it must stop or law enforcement will suffer a blow that it will never recover from.

Welfare Cop Demands Peace Officer Status

Editor, The Leader:

The duties of the 60 Welfare Patrolmen are essentially the same as any other patrolmen. We are duly sworn and empowered to make arrests and also must protect life and property. Yet, clarification of our peace officer status by action of the Legislature never has received the support of the Welfare Commissioner or the Mayor.

Additional injustices stemming from this primary evasion include a thoroughly inequitable pay scale, no promotional lines whatever, a misleading title, an inadequate $75 uniform allowance, and other "evils". Our $3,500-$4,580 pay is less than the salaries of the N.Y.C. Housing Police, the lowest paid comparative title. It is the same as city elevator operators and cleaners and is less than that of city laborers. This factor alone has been demoralizing enough to continue the rapid turnover and require the use of provisionals. Turnover in the past 20 years has been unrivaled in city civil service, averaging near-

Civil Service LAW & YOU

By HAROLD L. HERZSTEIN

Mr. Herzstein is a member of the New York bar (In Mr. Herzstein's column in the issue of July 18, he invited the New York City Mayorality candidates to write on civil service. Following is State Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz's response to the invitation.)

LOUIS J. LEFKOWITZ
ATTORNEY GENERAL
STATE OF NEW YORK

80 CENTRE STREET
NEW YORK 13, NEW YORK

Dear Harold:

THE THOUSANDS of men and women employed by the City of New York have a vital stake in this year's municipal election. I congratulate you for a fine service to them in opening your widely-read column to the mayorality candidates for a presentation of their position on key issues.

A GENUINE CONCERN for the welfare of public employees has guided my action since my early days as an Assemblyman from 1928 to 1930. I am proud to have been the author of numerous bills which bettered the welfare of civil service personnel both as to salary and pension rights. My legislative record was endorsed by the Civil Service (City and State Employees) Forum.

THROUGHOUT THE YEARS, my thoughts and my actions have been predicated upon one basic proposition—that government needs and deserves employees of the highest caliber, and, in even measure, that government must set a pattern as a model employer through concrete recognition of the devotion of those who serve it.

I AM GRATIFIED that I have been recognized as a "strong advocate of government matching private industry" (CIVIL SERVICE LEADER, May 6, 1958). In the same issue, under a heading "Lefkowitz Blazes Trail," Contributing Editor H. J. Bernard, in his "Looking Inside" column, wrote:

"ATTORNEY GENERAL Louis J. Lefkowitz, addressing the spring workshop jointly conducted by the Metropolitan and Southern Conference of the CSEA, frankly favored premium pay for overtime, and in money, not equivalent time off. So far as I know, he is the first important public official to make such a recommendation, one that should have been made by a host of public officials at least two decades ago when the time-and-a-half principle gained vogue in private industry.

"MR. LEFKOWITZ promised he would do all he could to make time-and-a-half rule come true. . . ."

"PUBLIC EMPLOYEE groups might well pass resolutions thanking Mr. Lefkowitz for his outspoken endorsement of premium rates for overtime, and the granting of vested pensions. When they have a stout hearted supporter they should be as alert in recognizing the fact as he is in recognizing their needs."

ON OCTOBER 23, 1960, when I was honored as the "Civil Service Man of the Year" by the Council of Jewish Organizations in Civil Service, I repeated my strong belief that government and the public must learn that there is no inconsistency between fiscal responsibility and adequate compensation and fringe benefits for civil service employees.

TO ACHIEVE THIS understanding, I have pointed out, government officials and employee representatives must concentrate on a "public relations job which will advertise their manifold and invaluable contributions to the general welfare and the efficacy of responsible government."

I AM PROUD to be a member of a State administration which has worked closely with civil service employees' organizations to promote the welfare of its personnel.

IN 1959 and 1960 essential steps were taken to make State service more rewarding to its employees, to attract other qualified individuals into their ranks, and to make equitable provision for those employees who had retired.

ACTUAL "TAKE HOME" pay was increased through the State contribution-to-pension plan. A vested pension rights program was adopted. A supplemental pension bill was approved. Increased death benefits ranging up to two full years' salary were authorized. Provision was made for more liberal investment and higher yield for pension funds. Salaries were increased approximately 5 per cent for all State employees, with individual raises ranging from $200 to $486 a year. But even more important, and indicative of the Administration's concern with the welfare of the civil service, a study was authorized to serve as a guide in making State salaries more competitive with those in private industry and other governmental jurisdictions.

AS A RESULT of this imaginative step, action taken at the 1961 session of the Legislature has made it a banner year for the State's civil service employees.

Oneida Water Bd. Expands Employee Absence Rules; CSEA Seeking City Action

(From Leader Correspondent)

UTICA, Oct. 23—Regulations extending allowances for employee-absences in the Board of Water Supply have been adopted in a move that has won the praise of the Oneida County Chapter, Civil Service Employees Association.

Board officials extended vacation time for veteran employes as well as leaves for sickness, deaths in the family, and holidays.

The changes affect 136 board employes. More than 60 per cent of the employes are members of the Oneida County Chapter, CSEA, according to Samuel Borely, executive representative of the unit.

Borely described the new regulations as "liberal" and praised the board for its recent adoption of the program.

New Regulations

Under the new regulations, employes with 25 years service will get four weeks vacation. Employes with service of 10 years or more will get three weeks off.

Previously, all vacation time was limited to two weeks.

Sick leave will be granted at the rate of 12 days per year, and will be cumulative up to 150 days.

For illness to any member of an employe's immediate family, an employe may take leave up to three days a year. An employe may have more leave for this purpose he deducts it from his own accumulated sick leave.

CSEA Moves On

Three-day leaves will be granted to employes who have deaths in their immediate families.

Borely said he and Mrs. Ruth Mann, president of the county chapter, would meet soon to prepare a similar program for presentation to city and county officials in behalf of city and county employes. He said that details would be announced later.

The new Board of Water Supply regulations had been long sought by CSEA members in the city's water system, Borely said.

Residency Required By LeRoy Police Dept.

LEROY, Oct. 23 — Any member of the Le Roy Police Department who receives a promotion or anyone given a permanent appointment to the force must become a resident of this village within 30 days, the Village Board has ruled.

The ruling preceded an examination conducted by the Genesee County Civil Service Commission. Two patrolman vacancies now exist in the village.

Schoharie Chapter Host to 140 Guests At Annual Banquet

The Schoharie County chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, held its annual banquet last month. Some 140 gathered for the dinner at the Breezy Acres Motel, Cobleskill.

Out of town guests present including Francis Cases of Albany, Sam Borely of the Central New York Conference, Harry Kolothros, Mary Hart, and Doloras Fussel of the Capitol District Conference.

The main speaker of the evening was Harry Albright, associate counsel of the C.S.E.A.

Mr. Albright spoke of the respect due civil servants, whose first allegiance is to the law. He commented that everyone in the room was vitally interested in good government. In closing, he pointed out that the Association is not a union with union practices. He urged that the CSEA be recognized and nurtured in order that extremes in public representation be avoided.

The Honorable J. R. Johnson, judge surrogate, introduced the supervisors and the County officers and their wives and brought greetings from Charles Mix, chairman. Senator Owen Begley praised all civil service employes at various levels of government for their dedicated service. The Honorable Russell Selkirk, Assemblyman, commented briefly.

by a complete change of complement annually.

In a demonstration of bad faith, the Welfare Department has refused qualified patrolmen merited promotions to Welfare fraud investigation duty. Instead, it has deputized "Social Investigators", given them badges and firearms assigning them as "Police." Requirements for Welfare Patrolmen were lowered to make the age maximum 45 for appointment, to permit eyeglasses and to eliminate the competitive physical test although the responsibilities remain unchanged.

Welfare Police records show an average of 125 arrests annually, 60 to 70 assaults, 250 Court appearances, 1,000 to about 1,500 aided cases, 30,000 to 40,000 incidents. The average per officer is higher than that of any police department, including New York City. The only results of efforts by Welfare Patrolmen in the past 20 years have been their recent inclusion in a three year uniformed force increment plan, one promotional line to Senior Welfare Officer and a ludicrous raise to $3,500-$4,580, a $250 annual increase. The promotional title was relegated inconsistently to the Career and Salary Plan with an eight year wait for maximum pay. The Welfare Commissioner requested pay parity with the N.Y.C. Housing Police at the Mayor's request for an evaluation last year. The Personnel Department, however, refused to honor the request unless the "Department" agrees to support fully the Welfare Patrolmen's police status by endorsing their "Peace Officer Bill."

Most Policewomen Want Promotion

Editor, The Leader:

Last January six policewomen of the New York City Police Department applied to take the May 6th examination for promotion to sergeant, but were declared ineligible. One of the applicants is now seeking legal redress.

The Policewomen's Endowment Association, at its October meeting, discussed the possibly erroneous impression that only the six applicants want promotion. An overwhelming majority of the members present at the meeting voted to inform the public, through the press, that they are in favor of promotion for policewomen.

Welfare Patrolmen Remain Forgotten

Editor, The Leader:

I am writing this appeal on behalf of the forgotten man, the Welfare Patrolman of that department. It has long been a known fact that we are considered the lowest paid group of law enforcement officers in the city.

The risks of our jobs are as great as that of any peace officer, yet our pay is as low as $3,500-$4,580, less than that of a city laborer and the same as an elevator operator. How can the city fathers see any married man with children try to live on this when families on relief get almost double?

Police groups such as Transit, Housing, Correction, etc. will receive pay increases on January 1, 1962 that will leave us behind by a margin of $1,800. For the city to condone compromising any police group will cause a set back that they may never recover from. These men are desperate and something must be done soon or they will not be responsible for their actions.

Lefkowitz on Civil Service

ALL SALARIES in classified service have been increased from 5 per cent to 17.5 per cent thus providing an average increase of approximately nine per cent for all State employees. Similar adjustment are provided for employees not covered by the salary schedule. Additional increments are authorized, as well as additional longevity increments for 15-year service. Five percentage points reductor of employees' contribution to the retirement system also was continued.

A SIMILAR REFORM program for New York City's employees is badly needed and long overdue. I also pledge:

1. A multiple choice health plan such as is enjoyed by State employees;
2. Employee representation in the administration of pension plans;
3. Elimination of the "death gamble" in pension operation;
4. Overhaul of the Career and Salary Plan so as to achieve its aims of insuring equal pay for equal work, incentives for advancement, and the encouragement for men and women of ability to make a career in the municipal government;
5. Stop the system of promoting employees by designation and call a halt to perpetuation of past inequities and political and personal favoritism;
6. Modification of the Lyons Law to place responsibility in the Mayor for waiver in instances where the nature of the position and the best interests of the City so dictate; and
7. Elimination of useless and unnecessary exempt positions.

I AM PROUD of my record; I am sincere in my promises. But I do not ask for the support of civil service employees on these things alone.

THEY ARE MEN AND WOMEN who live and work, and raise their families in our City. They know the problems which have been allowed to fester into crises - fear for personal safety in our streets and parks; blight and slums; shocking conditions in our school buildings; inadequate hospitals and threats of centralization which will close community institutions; nightmarish public transportation; choking street traffic; air pollution. These and many more are the concern of every man and woman in our City.

INDECISIVE, VACILLATING leadership has fostered these and many more shameful conditions. New York City has been allowed to deteriorate into a "sleeping beauty." I think it is high time that she be awakened with a return of good, responsible government.

Sincerely,

Louis J. Lefkowitz

CONGRATULATIONS — H. Eliot Kaplan, president of the New York State Civil Service Commission, congratulates Louis J. Naftalison for his "Manual for Hearing Officers in Administration Adjudication." Civil Service Unit, CSEA, Sponsors Training Classes

ALBANY, Oct. 23 — The first class in a course in "Elementary Business Mathematics" was held on Monday, September 25, under the sponsorship of the Civil Service Employees Association. Thirty-five employees of the C. S. Dept. are enrolled in the class, which will meet evening for two hours a week for four weeks. The instructor is a qualified local high school teacher with several years' experience teaching the subject to both high school students and adults.

According to Beth Lique, chairman of the education committee of the chapter, this is the first in a series of courses that will be designed to offer training opportunities to all Department employees. The chapter plans to engage subject-matter specialists from outside the department — preferably teachers and professors from some of the many outstanding schools in the Capital District. "The unanimously enthusiastic response so far is indicative of the interest in the program," Mrs. Lique says.

John Cosgrove, Chapter president, adds these comments: "The executive council of the Civil Service department chapter believes that it is the responsibility of any employee organization to provide its members with opportunities to develop into increasingly capable and more sought-after employees. The primary purpose of this program is to meet that responsibility.

"Furthermore, activities such as this demonstrate the interest CSEA has in the individual employees. The result should be not only increased chapter membership, but also heightened interest on the part of the members in ship, but also heightened interest on the part of the members in all the programs of the chapter."

Delegates Hear Progress Report In Feily Message

Joseph F. Feily, entering his second term as president of the Civil Service Employee's Association, opened the 51st annual meeting of the Association with a review of the highlights of the past year.

"The gains of our past year," he began, "include the following:"

"Substantial progress was made towards gaining for state employees parity with private industry in the salary area. We hope to gain a pay adjustment for state workers this year to completely close the remaining gap. All the facts, figures, and arguments to secure this adjustment will be prepared and presented to the executive and legislative branches of state government and I am confident we will gain success.

"We were happy to secure an additional longevity increment in the state pay schedules which has been helpful to employees who render valuable and devoted service over long periods without opportunity for promotion.

"Our staff has helped in every way possible our members employed in political subdivisions to present their salary needs to their respective governing bodies and in presenting other programs for work condition improvements to assist our members employed by local government.

"Over 700 cities, counties, towns, and school districts have now adopted the "5% reduction in employee retirement contribution" plan, which was originally devised and won for state employees by CSEA.

"Likewise hundreds of local governments have provided for their employees state health insurance plan coverage, also gained through the efforts of our organization.

"We were gratified by the conversion of approximately 4,000 state year-round laborers to an annual pay basis. This victory provided a number of benefits in addition to more adequate salaries. We hope that this group will gain an additional pay adjustment this coming year to more closely approach pay accorded laborers in private industry.

Social Security

"Very recently we were happy to learn that a new Federal statute, recently enacted will give public employees in New York State a "second chance" to secure social security coverage.

"We hope during the coming year, through legislation and other efforts to hasten the establishment of basic grievance machinery in all local units of government and to gain for political subdivision employees definite salary schedules.

"Notable progress has been made in gaining additional membership support of local government employees in various areas of the state. It is my opinion that our organization has won the respect and recognition of local government officials and employees and that we have an opportunity to rapidly expand our membership to benefit the public service and public employees in local government.

"Relative to the state retirement system we won extension of various benefits which we hope to secure on a permanent basis in the future. An improved interest rate was gained for members joining the retirement for state police after 25 years—an important principle which we hope will be extended to include other groups.

The Future

"After several years of effort we convinced the state to establish a policy to pay reimbursement of moving expenses for employees transferred or promoted in state service. This is experimental and can be improved in the light of experience.

"We enjoyed other successes throughout the year too numerous to mention herein.

"I heartily congratulate my fellow association officers and committees and all chapter officers, committees and delegates for their constant, unselfish efforts on behalf of our members. We now are enjoying an all-time record high membership in excess of 97,000 mainly due to their hard work. I commend the staff of our Association for their efficient operation throughout the year.

"I am confident he concluded, "that through continued unity and cooperative effort our Association throughout the coming years will enjoy progress to the benefit of our members. As I have stated in each report to the delegates during the last two years—"You can be proud of CSEA, and I am proud to be its president."

Capital Conference Offers Triple Choice in Travel

Because of the great success of its travel program in recent years, the Capital District Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association this year will offer its members a triple-choice of tours, Deloras Fussell, conference president announced last week.

Last year's Hawaii tour, which was a popular hit, will be offered again. In addition, the Conference will present a European travel program that will allow two choices of itinerary — a tour of France, Switzerland, Italy (partial listing) or Spain, the Riviera, Portugal and either Majorca or North Africa.

The Conference will also participate in a Caribbean cruise covering six ports in 14 days and which leaves from New York March 16.

All the above programs have been arranged by Civil Service Travel Club, Inc., of New York City in cooperation with Knickerbocker Travel Service.

Details on the European trips will appear in a future issue of The Leader.

Apply for Hawaii Now

The Hawaiian tour will leave Albany Friday, June 22, and return there on that day two weeks later. The program will include a tour of Hollywood and visit to Disneyland; a nine-day stay in the Hawaiian Islands at the Hawaiian Village, directly on the beach, with tours of the island of Oahu and Pearl Harbor, a native beach party (luau), a tour of San Francisco, a visit to Chinatown and the Redwood Forests and a dinner at one of Chinatown's most famous restaurants. Complete price, including round trip air transportation and all hotel rooms, is $495.

Persons wishing information and applications for the Hawaii trip, which was sold out early last year, may contact Harry L. Ginsberg or A. A. Kranker at HE 4-8131 during the day. Mr. Ginsberg may be reached at IV 9-6311 in the evening and Mr. Kranker at HO 3-0506.

Applications, deck plans and prices for the Caribbean cruise may be had by contacting Hazel Abrams or by writing to her at 478 Madison Ave., or calling HE 4-5347.

Miss Fussell announced that details of the twin-tour of Europe will be reported in the near future.
