INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE

EDWARD JARRETT, CHIEF CLERK

May 31, 1960

Dear Dr. Kirchheimer:

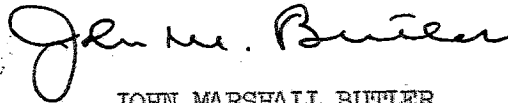

The Department of State has advised me that you have been awarded a grant under the International Educational Exchange program to lecture on American Constitutional Law at the University of Freiburg, in Germany.

I would like to take this opportunity to extend my congratulations to you upon receiving this award. If there is anything I can do to make your stay abroad more pleasant, do not hesitate to let me know.

I am enclosing a recent copy of the daily "Congressional Record" with the thought that it will contribute to a better understanding of the problems faced by the Congress and how that body deals with them.

With best wishes and kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

JOHN MARSHALL BUTLER
