

Religious Club To Hold Meeting

The Christian Science Organization will open a year's program of activities with its first regular meeting Tuesday evening in Room 109, Draper Hall, at 7:30 P.M. A business meeting will follow.

The regular meetings of this organization are conducted on alternate Tuesdays of the term, and its members extend an invitation to the entire student body and faculty to attend. For the information of those not acquainted with the nature and purposes of this organization, the group functions primarily as a religious and not a social body. According to Wayne Palmer '49, President, the organization desires to aid the Christian Scientists of the college, and any others who are interested to gain a better understanding of the truth about Christian Science as set forth in the Bible and the Christian Science Textbook, and, accordingly, conduct meetings after the order set forth in the Manual of The Mother Church, by Mary Baker Eddy.

Journalism Classes Resume Under Guidance Of Ann May

The Journalism class which was originated last year will be continued throughout the first semester every Thursday at 3:30 P.M. Ann May, Editor of the State College News, 1947-48, has been authorized by Acting President Nelson to teach the class. The purpose of this class is to furnish students with a background for extra-curricular work in high schools, and a fundamental knowledge of journalism.

Smiles Schedules Children's Party

At the first meeting of Smiles, plans were formulated for a party to be given by the children of the Albany Home for Children for the students of State College, Sunday, October 10. The children have suggested such a party as a token of appreciation for the efforts put forth in their behalf by the students of the college. They have, however, asked for help from the Smiles Committee and Susan Panek '51 has been placed in charge of this function. At the party, those students who have never visited the home will be taken to the various cottages so that they may meet the children.

Also under discussion at the meeting were plans for continuing the Saturday morning trips to the WROW radio program for children. The tentative date for the start of this program has been set for Saturday, October 9, with Clara Martha Brown heading the committee in charge of chaperones.

Maiseed Requests Information From College Social Groups

According to Mrs. Maiseed, secretary to the Dean of Women, there are several college organizations which did not submit the names of their officers when they handed in their social calendar blanks this spring. Mrs. Maiseed has requested that a list of these officers be given to either her or Dean Stokes as soon as possible.

The Man Who Plays Prettily To Make Music In Armory

Today, (Friday, that is, to those who come late) and today only in our fair city, Louie Prima orchestra conductor of some fame will entertain with sweet symphonic strains in the Washington Avenue Armory. At 8 p. m. he'll bring down his baton, and perhaps the house and the music will commence. (It ain't magic, they rehearse for days.)

For the microscopic sum of $1.50 per head (and body, too, if you prefer) even you can enter those rusty portals and lend an ear to the racket.

Mr. P., a man widely known for his great resourcefulness in the world of symphonic sound, adds a risqué tone to his orchestrations with witty Italian phrases, so if you're not up on your modern languages, you're lost, kid.

Nevertheless, in the words of them who know, "be happy with Louis Prima, the man who plays prettily for the people."

SCT To Select "Who's Who"

McCabe Will Conduct Annual Nominations

Jean McCabe '49, director of Press Bureau, will conduct the annual nominations of "Who's Who" for State College students in assembly this morning. There is a quota of sixteen students this year to be chosen from the Senior class.

"Who's Who" is an index of students from the various universities of America who, by their leadership, general citizenship, promise of future usefulness, and cooperation in educational and extra-curricular activities, are chosen by the rest of the student body to have their names appear before the public as an announcement of their prominence in college life. These nominees chosen by the student body will be sent to "Who's Who Among Students" for consideration by the board. If the nominees are accepted by the board as representatives of State College, the candidates will receive a form to fill out concerning the activities in which they have participated during their years in college.

Nominations can be made until 4:30 p. m. Tuesday. Myskana will distribute and count the ballots.

Those chosen will have their names published in the 1948-49 edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges" this spring. A copy of the publication and a key is offered for purchase to the sixteen chosen.

Evening Program To Feature Sing, Sophomore Skit

Vaughn Will Present Freshman Class Banner

Activities Day, the formal opening of extra-curricular activities and rivalry, will begin tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the Commons, according to Anthony Prochilo '50, chairman of Activities Day.

This day offers to both freshmen and upperclassmen the opportunity to sign up for the various organizations of the college. During the day, the unveiling of the Senior class banner and the presentation of a banner to the class of 1952 will also take place. Included in the agenda of the day is the Bonfire Snake Dance, the Sophomore reception for freshmen, and skit and an all-school dance.

To Sign for Activities

From 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., various clubs and organizations will have representatives at large in the Commons where those who are interested may sign up for the activities in which they wish to participate. Freshmen have already been acquainted with the activities of the college through the freshman orientation program, where a representative of each organization outlined the workings of his respective group.

Organizations Will Set Up Tables

The organizations having tables in the Commons will include: Dramatics and Arts Council, Music Council, Debate Council, Forum, Campus Commission, Inter-Group Council, Classical Club, Commerce Club, French Club, Math Club, Pan Amigos, Commuters Club, Smiles, in educational and extra-curricular activities, are chosen by the rest of the student body to have their names appear before the public as an announcement of their prominence in college life. These nominees chosen by the student body will be sent to "Who's Who Among Students" for consideration by the board. If the nominees are accepted by the board as representatives of State College, the candidates will receive a form to fill out concerning the activities in which they have participated during their years in college.

To Unveil Senior Banner

Following the sign-up procedure, the official unveiling of the Senior banner will take place. Robertson Baker, representing the class of '49, will then address the assemblage. At this time, the freshman banner committee will receive their class banner from Harold Vaughn, president of the Junior class. The afternoon's proceedings will end with the singing of the banner song.

Inter-Frat Council Schedules Smoker

Inter-Fraternity Council will hold an Inter-Fraternity smoker for all non-fraternity men of the college in the Commons tonight at 8 p. m., according to Richard Zeller '49, President.

Harold Mills '49, master of ceremonies for the evening, will take charge of the entertainment. Each of the four fraternities: Kappa Beta, Edward Eldred Potter Club, Sigma Lambda Sigma and Kappa Delta Phi, will present a share of the entertainment and sing its fraternity hymn at this open party.

Each freshman present will receive the fraternity handbook, "A Prospectus." The Inter-Fraternity Council publishes "A Prospectus" in order to give non-fraternity men some idea of the aims and purposes of each fraternity. It also contains histories of the fraternities and lists of their enrolled members.

Music Council Slates Weekly Melody Hour

Music Council will again present a recording hour from 12 noon until 12:35 p. m. Tuesdays, in Room 28, according to Jean Munro '49, President. Music Council would also like to bring to the attention of the students that there is an extensive collection of records in the library. These records may be taken out during the recording hour will be posted, so that the student may check those he would like to hear. As in the past, the student may bring his lunch with him. A new recording machine has been installed which will contribute to the half hour.

Religious Clubs Plan To Recruit New Members

Religious news of the week includes the decision of Student Christian Association, Newman, and Hill to set up tables for signing of new members, the release of S.C.A. program for the next week, and plans for a forthcoming picnic.

Newman, S.C.A., and Hill clubs will have tables outside of the Commons door today for the convenience of students. Freshmen who are interested in joining one of these organizations may sign up.

Student Christian Association will get underway in its fall program with a series of weekly chapel services on Wednesday noons in the Unitarian Chapel. Lyle Walsh '50 will be the speaker at the next service Wednesday.

The first general meeting will include a bulletin on the Dean field at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. One of the speakers who will help welcome new members will be Dr. Ralph Clausen, Professor of Biology.

"Faith That Works" will be the theme of a weekend conference at Syracuse this weekend, for all college students in New York state. Those representing State are Barbara Houck, Catherine Grant, Seniors, and Joyce Dodge '50.

All S.C.A. committees will meet in the Lounge Friday, October 12, from 3:30 to 4:30 p. m., to discuss plans of each committee.

The three religious clubs are holding a combined picnic October 21, at 5:30 p. m. on the Dorm field.

Students Invited To Albany Home

The Children's Committee, governing body for children at the Albany Home for Children, invites the students of State to a party to be held Sunday at the home.

An open house will begin at 2:30 p. m., followed by a soccer game between a "home" team and the "visitors" under captain Paul Wilbur '51.

Songs, dancing, skits and tumbling in the chapel will precede refreshments, and a marshmallow roast.

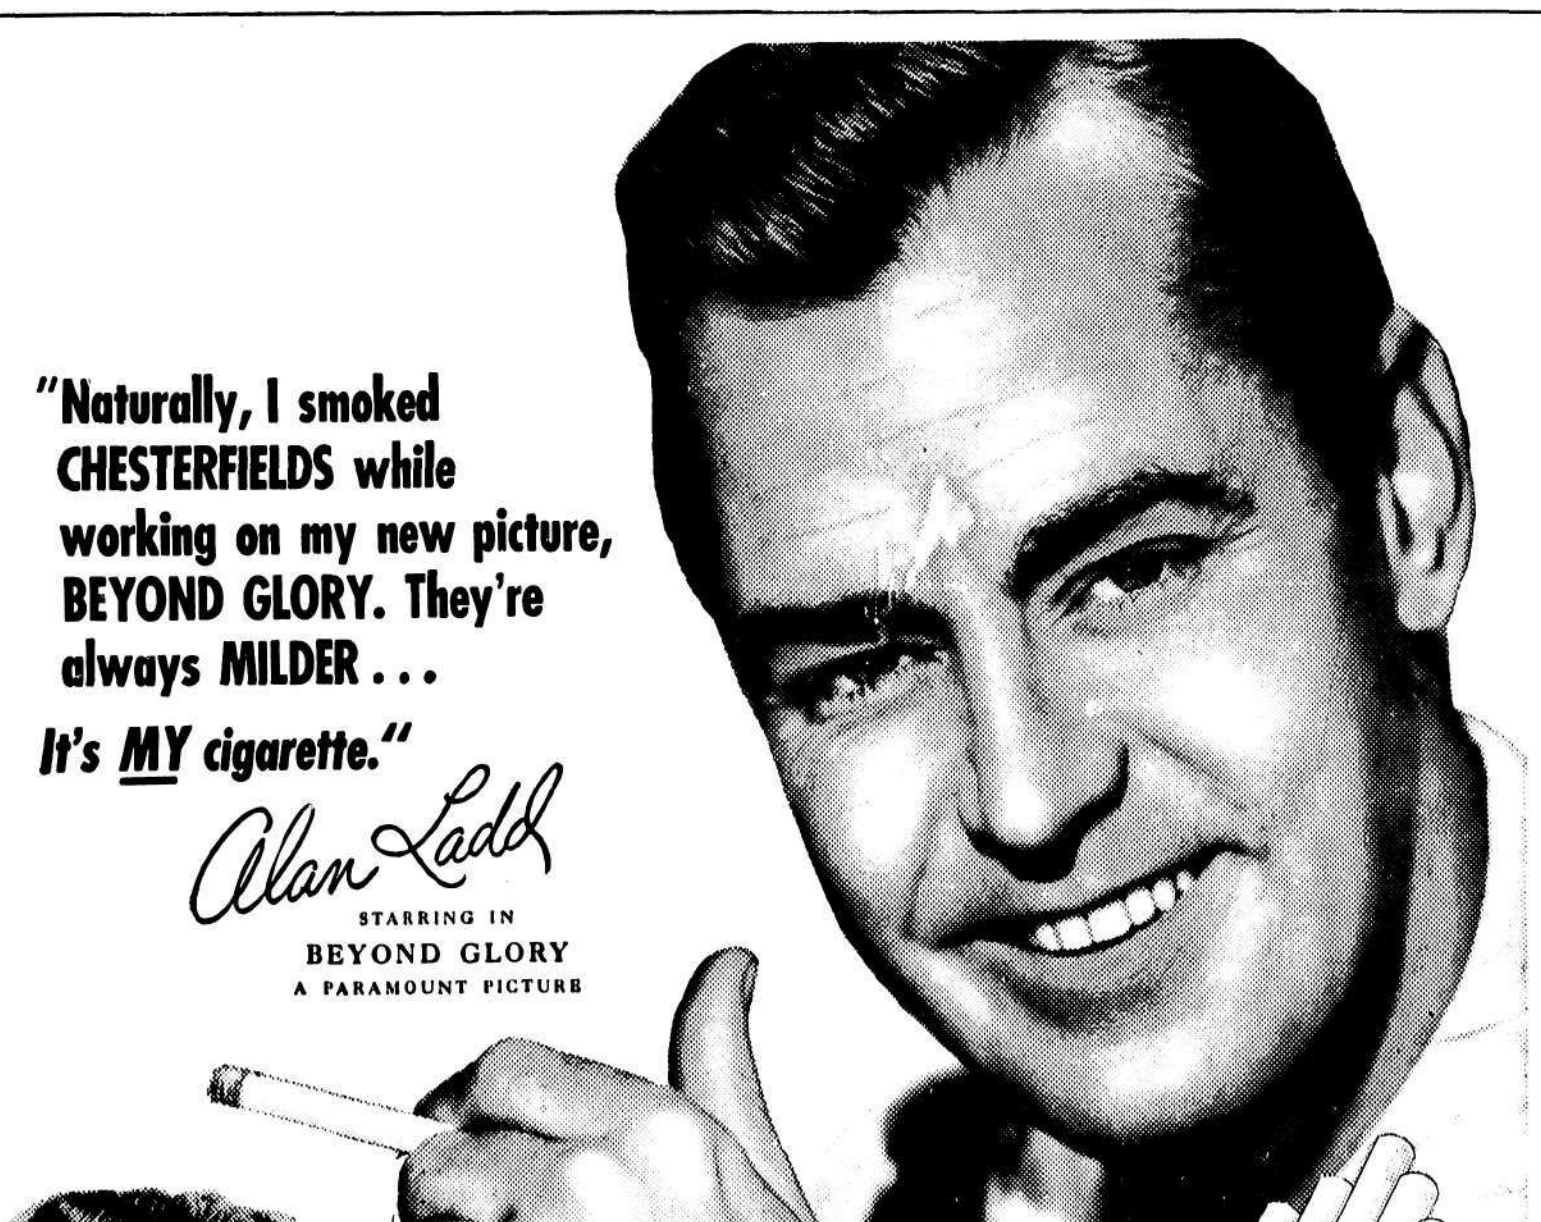

This is the first party at the Albany Home for Children at which the college people have been entertained by the children. According to reports, everyone at the home is that Ethel Ribler '50, has been chosen chairman of I G C affairs on Activities Day.

All-State Service Plan Heads IGC Calendar

Tentative plans for the Inter-Group Council calendar for 1948-49 were unfolded at the first I G C executive meeting of the year, called by Joy Simon '49, Chairman.

In order to eliminate duplication of activity in the Community Service program of Albany, Smiles, S.C.A., Commuters Club, and other organizations have joined with the I G C in the first All-State social service program.

Miss Simon announced that the first issue of the Intercollegiate News Letter, under the editorship of Judith Oxenhandler '51, will appear Thursday. She also announced that Ethel Ribler '50, has been chosen chairman of I G C affairs on Activities Day.

Esterbrook
STATE COLLEGE CO-OP.

Seesaw . . .

The Presidential election draws nearer . . . hot and heavy are the discussions in the halls and around Campus . . . the students at State College seem to have the greatest variation in their opinions concerning the suitable person for the Presidency. Groups of students went to hear Truman speak this morning; many others attended the Wallace rally a few weeks ago; some feel that the New York Governor is the man for the job; and then, there are the others who have loaded our mailboxes with those important sheets of yellow matter. Student's names have appeared on these yellow sheets as sponsors of the Norman Thomas meeting in Channing Hall. Onlookers have questioned whether this sort of thing should be placed in our school mailboxes. It's the old story of future teachers of America which may seem a bit trivial to some students but which is still something with which there must be concern in a teachers' college.

Teachers must be open-minded but they cannot afford being open-minded to the point of harming the profession. Outsiders . . . both former students of State College and educators of the State . . . show a great deal of interest in the polls which are conducted concerning such questions.

To determine the political stand of the Student Association, a straw vote will be conducted in assembly Friday, October 22. This election will give those people a chance to vote who are not yet of age and will also be of interest because of the numbers of those who will be voting in the national election. Statistics will be computed according to the voters, non-voters, and individual classes.

The NEWS is the last organization in the world to tell anyone how they should vote but general opinion seems to have it that there are a few people who should consider their ballot a little more wisely rather than diving head-first for a new idea, a new party, a new candidate . . . anything to be different and to shock the more conservative straight-laced members of the student body and faculty.

Your ballot is yours both in the school and national election. Regardless of what is said in this editorial, people will vote as they please . . . but at least, those who are swaying from one candidate to another, don't be swayed until you are convinced of the reasons you are voting for a candidate . . . don't be swayed by other individuals but only through your own thoughts and opinions.

Attend, Please!

Students of Albany State will be guests of the children at the Albany Home this Sunday afternoon for the first time since the SMILES organization was organized.

All the work that has been done in the past could be undone by the failure of representation from State. Publicity has been given the party over WROW and Mayor Corning and a representative from the Knickerbocker News are expected to attend.

The very least we can do is to give them the support they must have and attend the party Sunday.

Common-Stater
By Tony Prochilo

The Common-Stater is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS.

FOR STATE

Tomorrow is Activities Day, when the freshmen are given the opportunity to enroll themselves on the rosters of tryouts and members of State's extra-curricular organizations. Working for these different outfits can be of great value to you. It's the beginning of your college social life and one heckuva good time. This is your chance to help yourself while you work for State College; let's see you take advantage of it.

Incidentally—you Sophs and Juniors—it's not too late for you to start doing your part. It'll certainly never hurt you to know how to run an extra-curricular activity when you get out teaching. Why not give yourself a break and drop around tomorrow between 1 and 4 p.m.?

GIVE THE KIDS A BREAK

Sunday, the kids at the Albany Home for Children are throwing their first party for outsiders. Every other time they've been the guests; now it's their show. Lots of Albany B.T.O.'s have been invited to attend, but we, the State students, are the ones the kids are so anxious to see again.

I dropped over there a couple of weeks ago to see my little three-year old friend, Terry Shultz. Terry says, "I wanna see Kay an' Jeannie an' Lyle an' EYVYBODY!"

At the last Smiles party I saw only about fifteen State students, each trying to be a pal to a dozen kids. Let's all go this time, so that there will be a dozen of us to each child; it'll make them ever so happy.

LEAVE WELL ENOUGH ALONE

Some students aren't satisfied with last week's decision on Myskania's ruling that freshmen will not vote in the Vice-presidential election. Obviously, something is missing in our constitution, when such a heated controversy arises. As it was carried out last week, the 2/3 majority ruled that Myskania's decision be upheld; this is the democratic way to do it. Steps are now being taken to fill up the loopholes in the constitution, so that this may not happen again. It's our duty to follow the ruling of the majority and to take the necessary preventative measures. The unsatisfied members should not be foolish enough to hold up attempts to rectify matters any longer.

LOOKOUT: RAILROAD

Lots of remarks are going the rounds about "politicians" who are "operating" for candidates for the coming Student Association Vice-presidential and freshmen presidential elections. I don't know to what extent these remarks are true, but I'd like to make a comment before the candidates are even nominated. I don't want to throw any bad light on the wrong people.

A way to check on the candidates is to watch for the clean campaign, the person who will talk straight organization business to anybody and everybody. Look for the nominees who make a full campaign; they're the ones who are showing that they're really interested and have the initiative to carry out the job.

Keep your eyes and ears wide open. Don't be taken for a ride on the well-known railroad.

WHO'S WHO

While we're on the subject of elections, a word about the Who's Who nominations should be mentioned. Last year, in this writer's opinion, several people, unconsciously or otherwise, offered the names of some completely undeserving individuals. Let's not make a farce of this one. Give credit where credit is due; award this honor to those seniors who have really earned it.

PLEASE: . . .

I have a little personal plea. While in possession of the Glass of 50 last year, the Campus Day cup disappeared. If any of you know of its whereabouts, will you please contact me or Sparky Vaughn as soon as possible.

BACK TO NATURE

A couple of weeks back I urged everybody to do his best to help Campus Commission in its job to keep our campus clean. That still goes, but now that their regulations are published, I find it necessary to disagree partially. Get a load of sections B-5 and C-5. I don't know, but I learned in Ed 10 that it's all quite normal. Should such things be put in writing? We're grown up, now, C. C.

The Major and The Minor
By SPARKY VAUGHN

I wuz stittin' in the store this other day playin' checkers an' we wuz all huddled up 'bout this comin' 'lection fer President of these Yewnted States. I ups and says to my ole neighbor, Bill Barnstead, "Bill, I I Sess, "how yew fixin' ta vote cum 'lection day?"

"Well," he sezs, "don't rightly know; who's runnin'? Teddy Roosevelt was gud 'nuff fer Paw and I recolt he oughta be gud 'nuff for me."

"Well, I had a noospaper with me an' I telt Bill an' my other neighbors there was sum young whippersnappers runnin' this time; namely Truman, Thomas, Dewey and Wallace. Some that it wuld be rite schrewd of us uns to investigot how godd they wuz."

So, we ups and gits us the school mstsr, us nacherly figgurin' im to know the mostest—and we asks im, "Homer boy, yew ben edjicated an' yew knows sumthin' 'bout this world. It wuld be rite kind if yew wuz ta clar we uns up on this here 'lection."

"Well boys, the more you know the more confused you can become. Let's start with Dewey and his Republican. He seems to be a very capable administrator, and at this point it looks as if he's a sure bet to win."

"Wall that," pipes in Clem, "jest what's the use in votin' then?"

"You see Clem, we not only vote for candidates, but also for principles and ideals. You must also know what the Republicans stand for, Civil Rights, relaxation of government controls—"

"Duz that mean the government wuld stop supportin' the price of my grain? I wuldn't vote fer that."

"What 'bout this here Henry Wallace? He's a farmer jest like us ain't he?"

"We can't be sure what Wallace stands for; He probably isn't sure himself. He just doesn't trust the people to go through war and depression and remain a democracy. He does not know the strength of the people."

"Whut wuld the Democrats do fer us? We like Harry fine but we ain't happy 'bout the way things are."

"There is little difference. The major one is that the Democrats stand for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law."

"Whut's that," asks Silas Sr.

"That was an attempt by our Congress to balance the scales between labor and capital."

Olé Bill jumps up and sezs, "My Paw tole me 'bout the times when he wuz a jest startin' out in this country. 'Bout the soot and sech fore he come to be a farmer. Labors been nigh on a hundret yrs gittin' nuff wages to hey a family and some time to fish now an then."

"Them that labor unions got tew big fer thar briches," says Silas.

"We haven't yet found how big to inake briches fer labor and how big for business."

The Kid we be shure that if'n we do vote fer a party, they'ns il do whut we'uns r votin' fer 'em to do?"

"As for the President, Woodrow Wilson is quoted as saying that campaign platfoms are just campaign platfoms. That's usually about the sum of it. The philosophy of our major parties is a philosophy of meeting the situation of the moment—and of getting votes. For philosophy of government we must look elsewhere, for it has been miles and miles that we've been gettin' from time to time have stood forth and altered the course of the Republic."

"Norman Thomas, a minor candidate with a major platform, represents such a group. His platform of a generation ago is adopted and accepted today. However, it is still a gamble to vote for him and probably lose the vote."

"Wall, thank'ee kindly Homer: I ain't ready to vote but I'm gonna do sum thinkin' fore I do."

Varsity Bowlers
Beat Siena Five

The Varsity Bowling quintet inaugurated the 1948-49 Intercollegiate season last Wednesday night by taking two out of three games from Siena at the Playtium. After grabbing the first two games by a wide margin, State dropped the last one by twenty-six pins.

Frank Mullin put together games of 219-171-195 for a three game total of 585 to lead both teams in that department. His 219 effort was also high single game for the evening. Following Mullin were Joe Carosella who rolled a neat 525, and Don MacDonald, with 375 total for two games.

SLS and Van Derzee started the Intramural football season on its way by taking games from the Rockets and St. Mary's last Wednesday. The Pinks met KDR and the Angels took on the Ramblers Thursday.

Van Derzee, sparked by a fast moving back field of Wiley, Peene, and Moriarity, and a fast moving line, easily took St. Mary's in hand by the count of 32-0. Using the "T" formation, Van Derzee proved to be too fast and smooth for the losers. Taking to the air time and time again, the winners marched up the field on sustained drives. The smooth passing was offset by the fact that three of the five touchdowns were scored by long runs with Moriarity carrying.

Score Twice on Passes

The route was sparked by a short touchdown pass, Wiley to Powell, in the first quarter. The final score was made by Stevenson on the receiving end of a long pass from Peene.

SLS won its first game over the Rockets of Saint Mary's at Beverwyck Park by a 6-0 score. The heavy hard hitting line of the victors combined with the accurate passing of the backfield, proved too much for the Rockets. Roulier and Towey did the passing while Griffin received for SLS to account for the SLS victory.

The lightness of the Rockets was very noticeable against the heavier line of the SLS squad. Cummings and Lein of the Rockets showed indications of becoming a good running and passing combination.

Week's Schedule

The schedule for next week's games is as follows:

MONDAY
Saints vs KB
Ham & Eggers vs SLS

TUESDAY
KDR vs Gents
EEP vs Pinks

WEDNESDAY
Saint Mary's vs Rockets
Van Derzee vs Saints

THURSDAY
Ramblers vs Pinks
Angels vs KDR

All the games will be played at Page Field.

Results of games played on Thursday cannot be reported due to press deadline.

WAA Plans
Tennis, Riding

At its organization meeting Wednesday, the WAA Riding Club completed plans for its fall activity. Arrangements for a tennis tournament were also made by WAA this week.

The Riding Club, under the direction of Louis Prescott and Jean Sawyer, Sophomores, will meet at the Sand Dale Stables on the Schenectady Road. Lessons in riding will be given on Saturday mornings while regular riding will take place on Friday and Sunday afternoons.

Arrangements for riding hours, other than those scheduled, can be made by contacting Mrs. Louis Mouk or by calling Albany 2-4764. WAA credit hours will be kept by Mrs. Mouk. To earn credit for riding at other stables, a note signed by the stable managers should be given to Miss Prescott.

At the end of the riding season, those who have completed ten hours for WAA credit will receive a partial refund.

Final plans for the tennis tournament are still incomplete pending the final list of participants. The sign-up sheet for those wishing to enter the tournament will remain on the WAA bulletin board until next week. First round play-outs will be held on Tuesday and Thursday at Washington Park.

The Varsity Bowling quintet inaugurated the 1948-49 Intercollegiate season last Wednesday night by taking two out of three games from Siena at the Playtium. After grabbing the first two games by a wide margin, State dropped the last one by twenty-six pins.

Frank Mullin put together games of 219-171-195 for a three game total of 585 to lead both teams in that department. His 219 effort was also high single game for the evening. Following Mullin were Joe Carosella who rolled a neat 525, and Don MacDonald, with 375 total for two games.

SLS and Van Derzee started the Intramural football season on its way by taking games from the Rockets and St. Mary's last Wednesday. The Pinks met KDR and the Angels took on the Ramblers Thursday.

Van Derzee, sparked by a fast moving back field of Wiley, Peene, and Moriarity, and a fast moving line, easily took St. Mary's in hand by the count of 32-0. Using the "T" formation, Van Derzee proved to be too fast and smooth for the losers. Taking to the air time and time again, the winners marched up the field on sustained drives. The smooth passing was offset by the fact that three of the five touchdowns were scored by long runs with Moriarity carrying.

Score Twice on Passes

The route was sparked by a short touchdown pass, Wiley to Powell, in the first quarter. The final score was made by Stevenson on the receiving end of a long pass from Peene.

SLS won its first game over the Rockets of Saint Mary's at Beverwyck Park by a 6-0 score. The heavy hard hitting line of the victors combined with the accurate passing of the backfield, proved too much for the Rockets. Roulier and Towey did the passing while Griffin received for SLS to account for the SLS victory.

The lightness of the Rockets was very noticeable against the heavier line of the SLS squad. Cummings and Lein of the Rockets showed indications of becoming a good running and passing combination.

Week's Schedule

The schedule for next week's games is as follows:

MONDAY
Saints vs KB
Ham & Eggers vs SLS

TUESDAY
KDR vs Gents
EEP vs Pinks

WEDNESDAY
Saint Mary's vs Rockets
Van Derzee vs Saints

THURSDAY
Ramblers vs Pinks
Angels vs KDR

All the games will be played at Page Field.

Results of games played on Thursday cannot be reported due to press deadline.

Competition Underway
In Men's Tennis, Golf

With play beginning this week, first round matches in the MAA golf and tennis tournaments are to be completed by October 8th and 16th respectively. Tennis will be played on the Washington Park courts while the golf tournament will be run off on the Albany Municipal golf links.

"Doc" Hoyt, manager of tennis, has announced that a special doubles tournament will be included with the scheduled singles. Twenty men have signed to compete in the tennis matches.

In the handicap golf tourney, sixteen men have signed up to take part. If the weather remains favorable, both tournaments should be completed during October. Included in this year's competition are many of last year's varsity players. In addition, many freshmen have signed up to take part.

Referee Course Offered

The Woman's Physical Education department has initiated a new course in basketball refereeing.

The class, which will meet every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from four until five, will continue through the fall season.

WAA Plans
Tennis, Riding

At its organization meeting Wednesday, the WAA Riding Club completed plans for its fall activity. Arrangements for a tennis tournament were also made by WAA this week.

The Riding Club, under the direction of Louis Prescott and Jean Sawyer, Sophomores, will meet at the Sand Dale Stables on the Schenectady Road. Lessons in riding will be given on Saturday mornings while regular riding will take place on Friday and Sunday afternoons.

Arrangements for riding hours, other than those scheduled, can be made by contacting Mrs. Louis Mouk or by calling Albany 2-4764. WAA credit hours will be kept by Mrs. Mouk. To earn credit for riding at other stables, a note signed by the stable managers should be given to Miss Prescott.

At the end of the riding season, those who have completed ten hours for WAA credit will receive a partial refund.

Final plans for the tennis tournament are still incomplete pending the final list of participants. The sign-up sheet for those wishing to enter the tournament will remain on the WAA bulletin board until next week. First round play-outs will be held on Tuesday and Thursday at Washington Park.

The Major and The Minor
By SPARKY VAUGHN

I wuz stittin' in the store this other day playin' checkers an' we wuz all huddled up 'bout this comin' 'lection fer President of these Yewnted States. I ups and says to my ole neighbor, Bill Barnstead, "Bill, I I Sess, "how yew fixin' ta vote cum 'lection day?"

"Well," he sezs, "don't rightly know; who's runnin'? Teddy Roosevelt was gud 'nuff fer Paw and I recolt he oughta be gud 'nuff for me."

"Well, I had a noospaper with me an' I telt Bill an' my other neighbors there was sum young whippersnappers runnin' this time; namely Truman, Thomas, Dewey and Wallace. Some that it wuld be rite schrewd of us uns to investigot how godd they wuz."

So, we ups and gits us the school mstsr, us nacherly figgurin' im to know the mostest—and we asks im, "Homer boy, yew ben edjicated an' yew knows sumthin' 'bout this world. It wuld be rite kind if yew wuz ta clar we uns up on this here 'lection."

"Well boys, the more you know the more confused you can become. Let's start with Dewey and his Republican. He seems to be a very capable administrator, and at this point it looks as if he's a sure bet to win."

"Wall that," pipes in Clem, "jest what's the use in votin' then?"

"You see Clem, we not only vote for candidates, but also for principles and ideals. You must also know what the Republicans stand for, Civil Rights, relaxation of government controls—"

"Duz that mean the government wuld stop supportin' the price of my grain? I wuldn't vote fer that."

"What 'bout this here Henry Wallace? He's a farmer jest like us ain't he?"

"We can't be sure what Wallace stands for; He probably isn't sure himself. He just doesn't trust the people to go through war and depression and remain a democracy. He does not know the strength of the people."

"Whut wuld the Democrats do fer us? We like Harry fine but we ain't happy 'bout the way things are."

"There is little difference. The major one is that the Democrats stand for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Law."

"Whut's that," asks Silas Sr.

"That was an attempt by our Congress to balance the scales between labor and capital."

Olé Bill jumps up and sezs, "My Paw tole me 'bout the times when he wuz a jest startin' out in this country. 'Bout the soot and sech fore he come to be a farmer. Labors been nigh on a hundret yrs gittin' nuff wages to hey a family and some time to fish now an then."

"Them that labor unions got tew big fer thar briches," says Silas.

"We haven't yet found how big to inake briches fer labor and how big for business."

The Kid we be shure that if'n we do vote fer a party, they'ns il do whut we'uns r votin' fer 'em to do?"

"As for the President, Woodrow Wilson is quoted as saying that campaign platfoms are just campaign platfoms. That's usually about the sum of it. The philosophy of our major parties is a philosophy of meeting the situation of the moment—and of getting votes. For philosophy of government we must look elsewhere, for it has been miles and miles that we've been gettin' from time to time have stood forth and altered the course of the Republic."

"Norman Thomas, a minor candidate with a major platform, represents such a group. His platform of a generation ago is adopted and accepted today. However, it is still a gamble to vote for him and probably lose the vote."

"Wall, thank'ee kindly Homer: I ain't ready to vote but I'm gonna do sum thinkin' fore I do."

Communications

To The Editor: A painting, in my opinion, is a moving sensation and an enjoyable moment—if it is a painting. It is disconcerting, to say the least, to see how low the human torso has dipped as is evidenced by that atrocity hanging in the student cafeteria. Beach scenes, by nature, are usually rather happy ones; to be tainted by that spindle-shanked, gaunt, homo-sapien passing himself off as a male is more than the ordinary lover of art can countenance. He appears to be modeling for a sand statue, or else, waiting for the sea to put him out of his misery.

Why, even the most elementary rules of safety have been ignored: to wit, a banana peel is strewn near the path of the running girl at the left of the pseudo-mural. And what appears to be a boat, resembles more closely a mummy's coffin—which incidentally should have been enlarged so as to encompass the entire eyesore. It wouldn't surprise me to see some morning a doughnut hanging close by that gaunt and emaciated male's lips.

Why not replace it with something a bit more easier on the peckers? Burt Jablon, '51

Baker, Houck Announce Date For Election Of '52 Officers

Robertson Baker and Barbara Houck, Seniors, Myskania class guardians for the Class of 1952, have announced that nominations for freshman class officers will open Thursday, October 14, and will close at 4:30 p. m. October 18. The candidates for President will make one minute speeches in orientation Monday, October 25. Balloting will take place in Assembly October 29, and the results will be announced one week later.

To Discuss Practice Teaching

Where the '48 graduates are teaching, what salaries they are making, and the special fields open to graduates of '49 will be discussed by Dr. Mathews, Director of Teacher Placement Bureau, on October 13 in Page Hall at 3:30 p. m. for all the Seniors and Graduate students of State College. A question period will follow the speech. Arrangements for students' off-campus teaching will be made later. The initiation of the student teachers to faculty meetings at Mline will start October 11 in room 20 Richardson.

Frosh Buy Dates, Sign For Seats, Religious Clubs To Hold Annual Picnic Thursday

The Freshmen were "taken in" to the activities of State College last Saturday—and in more ways than extracurricular.

The Class of '51 took in an all-time record of $56. It seems that their only difficulty during the day was discouraging unknowing over-perclassmen from being fleeced. Past records prove that the class of '50 made only $26.05, and the Red Devils of '49 got a mere $12.40. Statistically speaking, the Yellow Jackets ought to crack $100 next year.

$26.80 worth of Frosh paid admission to the Commons and the Soph skit, $3.59 worth took chances on a toy dog which was won by Eleanor Butler, '51. A donation of $1.55 was made for the movement towards inter-sorority -fraternity housing.

A Date Bureau, sponsoring better coeducational relationships, presented applicants to state their preferences. Some of the men asked for domineering, handsome, and eager.

After the soph skit, the Bonfire and the body-wrenching snake dance, a dance held in the Gym ended the day.

The older children's soccer team tied State's team at 2-2 with the assistance of goalie Petri. Bob Kittredge sweated it out helping the tumblers do their stuff.
