

Distinguished Student Research Award

The purpose of this award is to recognize outstanding psychological research on ethnic minority issues conducted primarily by a graduate student, including – but not limited to — dissertation research. Candidates whose goals and professional development are consistent with a career involving the psychological study of ethnic minority issues will be given preference for this award. The award will be presented at the Division 45 Award Ceremony during the APA Convention. Awardees are presented with an engraved plaque and an honorarium.

Recipients:

- Kristine Molina (2009)
- Rachel Ishikawa (2010)
- Kimberly Langrehr (2011)
- Chelsea Derlan (2016)

Awardees are presented with an engraved plaque and an honorarium at the Division 45 Award Ceremony during the APA Convention.

Eligibility requirements:

Nominees must be matriculated graduate students (including pre-doctoral interns), and must be student affiliates of Division 45 at the time that their nomination materials are submitted.

Submission requirements:

Self-nominations are accepted. A completed nomination should include each of the following components.

1. Write a letter of nomination describing the nominee's achievements; include letter in packet
2. Two letters of support are required in addition to the nomination letter
3. Include copy of nominee's CV
4. A letter from the chair of the dissertation committee and/or training director indicating the student's good standing in the program
5. Provide contact information (postal mailing address & email address) for both the nominee and the nominator

Email all nomination materials to Jacque Gray at DrJacqueGray@gmail.com by March 1, 2017.

