A MESSAGE TO OUR GRADUATES

On behalf of the University at Albany, it is my distinct honor to congratulate you on the conferral of your baccalaureate degree. It took years of hard work, perseverance, and dedication, but you have crossed the finish line on this remarkable achievement. Every member of our faculty and staff – the entire UAlbany family – is proud to have been part of your UAlbany experience.

At the end of today's ceremony, you will be a graduate of a very special institution. UAlbany is one of the nation's most diverse research universities, committed to academic excellence and deep engagement that create a better future for our students, our communities, and our world.

This is an exciting time, filled with new challenges and opportunities. Inevitably, when it comes to the future, there are often more questions than answers. But I am confident that your academic journey has supported you to develop the knowledge, skills, and connections to be the author of your future success.

I want to thank each of you for your unique and significant contributions to UAlbany. Through your scholarship and research, through your participation in athletics, clubs, and community service, through friendships and mentorship of your fellow students, you have made an indelible mark on this institution, and left it a better place than you found it.

My deepest congratulations to each and every one of you on this monumental accomplishment, and my best wishes to you as you bring your UAlbany experience to the next chapters of your story. As you join the ranks of 180,000 proud UAlbany alumni worldwide, I assure you that the time, energy, and spirit you have invested in this degree will pay tremendous dividends throughout your lives – and will enhance your every endeavor.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Dan Hart '83

President and CEO, Virgin Orbit

Over the course of his career, Dan Hart '83 has served in senior leadership roles across a wide range of aerospace programs, spanning human spaceflight, satellite development, launch, and missile defense and running through all phases of the aerospace product life cycle, from research and development through design, production, and space-flight operations.

Dan currently serves as President and CEO for Virgin Orbit, Richard Branson's pioneering commercial space firm, which is launching small satellites into space from a rocket carried under the wing of a modified Boeing 747. It is Virgin's contribution to the massive transformation going on in space technology, and has the clear goal of opening access to space to improve life on earth.

Before joining Virgin, Dan spent more than three decades at the Boeing Company, where his most recent position was Vice President of Government Satellite Systems. In that role, he oversaw Boeing's government satellite programs, developing and managing missions for the U.S. Department of Defense, NASA, NOAA, and other national programs. Dan's portfolio included marquee programs such as Global Positioning System (GPS), Wideband Global SATCOM, the Tracking and Data Relay Satellites (TDRS) system, and the X-37 spaceplane.

After beginning his career with McDonnell Douglas supporting the Spacelab Program at NASA's Kennedy Space Center, Dan was soon loaned to the European Space Agency to support system integration, followed by roles on the Delta and Delta II launch crews, then leading the Systems Engineering, Integration and Test Team for the development of the Delta IV Launch Vehicle. Dan was subsequently named Chief Engineer for the Ground-Based Midcourse Defense (GMD) anti-ballistic missile system, before becoming Chief Engineer over all of Boeing's space programs.

Dan is a proud alumnus of the University at Albany, having earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Physics in 1983. He also attended the Harvard Business School Advanced Management Program. A passionate and committed advocate for Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math education, he serves on the Executive Board of the California Science Center.

Dan knows his way around an electric guitar and full drum kit, but is holding out for the return of Virgin Records before unleashing his debut album on the world.

UNDERGRADUATE HONORS, AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

SCHOLARSHIPS: GRATEFUL STUDENTS, GENEROUS DONORS

The success of our students would not be possible without the generosity of our donors. Alumni, parents and friends of the University support and encourage UAlbany students through gifts to scholarships, awards and prizes. The impact that these benefactors have on our students, particularly to our graduates, cannot be overstated.

A blessing, life changing, amazing ... these are just some of the words our graduates use to express their gratitude for our donors' contributions and support. Many also aspire to give back by someday establishing scholarships and mentoring students, providing financial assistance and personal guidance to future students along their academic journey.

Our thoughtful donors create a lasting legacy, inspire others and prepare future generations of leaders as they obtain their degrees. For a complete list of undergraduate honors, awards and scholarship recipients, please visit www.albany.edu/uafoundation/scholarships2018.

Minerva, the Roman goddess of wisdom, is the enduring symbol of the University at Albany. The figure of Minerva has appeared on the University seal since about 1913, along with the Latin motto "Sapientia et sua et docendi causa," or "Wisdom, both for its own sake and for the sake of teaching."

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning.

Tradition dictates that chains of office are worn by University Presidents on ceremonial occasions as part of their regalia. UAlbany's presidential medallion, designed by Kurt J. Matzdorf Silversmith, Inc. of New Paltz, New York, is sterling silver and features the University seal.

The mace symbolizes the authority invested in the president by a school's governing body. Carried by the Grand Marshal, it is used only at formal academic occasions. A gift from the Class of 1930, UAlbany's mace is made of bronze and walnut, with several symbols incorporated into the design and a base that reflects the fluted columns of the campus.

Almost all graduation ceremonies feature "Pomp and Circumstance" as part of the processional. Named after a line from Shakespeare's Othello, the song was written in 1901 by Sir Edward Elgar. It was played when Elgar received an honorary degree from Yale University in 1905.

Other schools quickly picked up on the tune, which eventually spread to nearly every college and university in the U.S.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WELCOME

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations! After years of hard work and dedication, you've earned your University at Albany degree. Welcome to the UAlbany Alumni Association! As a graduate, you are now part of an extensive network of UAlbany alumni and automatically a member of the Alumni Association, a non-dues paying organization that works on behalf of all alumni.

Being a UAlbany alum comes with many benefits. I urge you to tap into the power of the 180,000-strong UAlbany alumni network for career opportunities and to stay connected with friends and classmates. UCAN, the UAlbany Career Advisory Network, is a premier online tool for connecting with alums to expand your professional network and get feedback on your career strategy and goals.

As a GOLD alum (Graduate of the Last Decade), you'll receive invitations to special events designed especially for recent grads. Events include both social and professional development events in New York City and the Capital Region. Find out more about being a GOLD alum by visiting our web page at www.alumni.albany.edu/GOLD.

There are many easy ways to stay in touch and make sure you get the latest news: Connect with fellow alums through the alumni Facebook group, do some professional networking through LinkedIn, or learn about UAlbany news and GOLD events by following @UAlbanyGOLD on Twitter. You can also stay connected through UAlbany's free alumni online community, which includes an alumni directory, permanent email and much more.

Whenever you are on campus, stop by the Alumni House to say hello, find out what's new on campus and take advantage of our free parking for visiting alumni. The Alumni Association has been serving UAlbany graduates since 1849, and we hope you'll consider the Alumni House your new home away from home! We are here to help you stay connected.

With warm regards and best wishes for success,

ALMA MATER

College of the Empire State
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.

Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.

Ways of pleasantness are thine,
Leading where in wisdom's shrine,
Joy and cheer, and hope divine,
Ever dwell for aye.

Thine the voice whose call we hear,
Thine the hand which holds us near,
Thine the heart, so true, so dear,
Cherished, loved away.

Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.
'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.
