Educators Hold Seminar Project

Yesterday, the first administrative seminar of the Cooperative Project in Educational Administration was held in Brubacher Hall Dr. Daniel Griffiths is Associate Director of this project.

Approximately 100 administrators and school board directors from the capitol district attended this seminar whose theme was "School Board and Administrative Problems." Dr. Herbert Bruner, of New York University, gave the luncheon address: "A Tax On The School." Dr. Raymond Collins, superintendent of schools at Manhasset, New York, and an alumnus of Albany State Teachers College, was one of the many consultants for the discussion groups.

David Clark, Grad, has been assisting Dr. Griffiths in this project. Ten other graduate students have also aided in the administerial duties of this extensive conference

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests No. 33...THE SHEEP

They tried to fool him with the "quick-trick" cigarette mildness tests-but he wouldn't go astray! We know as well as he there's only one fair way to test cigarette mildness. And millions of smokers agree!

It's the sensible test...the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke, on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments. Once you've tried Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why...

DON'T FORGET BROTHERHOOD WEEK . . .

Let's not limit this to race and religion; we need a lot of it among our little cliques and fraternity and sorority groups. Isn't it about time we stopped referring to the "athletic group" and the "arty crew," etc.? And isn't it about time such phrases as "Oh, him? He belongs to . . . " were canned? When it gets to the point where individuals from one group feel uncomfortable because another group is present it's just a little bit childish.

Choose Frosh,

The play is directed by Leanore Kotch. She is assisted by Marvin Chernoff, who also is the author of the play. Neil Brown is musical director, and Arthur Stone is in charge of choreography.

Musical selections which will be presented include the title song "Runaway Land," with lyrics by Chernoff and music by Brown, and two original parodies of Rodgers and Hammerstein songs, "Stairway to Paradise" and "Hello, Young Lovers" will also be sung by soloists with a supporting mixed chorus.

Love Affair Meets Opposition Robert Reigle, as Barbara's father, C. J., provides the opposition to the rapidly developing love affair. Joyce Normandin, as Agnes, with the help of the mysterious "X," sets in motion the events which lead up to the happy ending. Other supporting roles are played by: John Wilson, Dianne Wheeler, James Thompson, John Jacobus, John Cooper, Mary Ann Frascatore, Sonia Bush, Harry Warr, Anne Columbe, Arthur Stone, Henry Berleth, Arnold Smith, Eileen Snyder, Frances Ciliberti, Donald Duclos, and Donald Voelinger.
