Steno Pay Case Heard This Week

State stenographers' attention:

Two important hearings are scheduled in which you and your representatives will make a case for higher grades and pay.

One of these hearings will be held in Albany, State Office Building, on Tuesday, June 10, at 10:30 a.m. The second will be held in New York City at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 11, Room F, 6th floor, 270 Broadway. Both hearings will be heard by the State Classification and Compensation Division. Henry Galpin, salary research analyst for the Civil Service Employees Association, will appear to press the employee case. In the New York City hearing, he will be assisted by Charles Culyer, field representative, and Harold Herzstein, regional counsel.

Mr. Culyer announced that at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday morning there will be a preliminary meeting of stenographers in Room 905, 80 Centre Street, NYC, to plan the presentation of facts and arguments. He urges as many stenographers as are able to attend.

The application for pay increases has been made on behalf of stenographers and senior stenographers.

CITIZENS UNION TO PRESS PENSION CURB BILL AGAIN

The Citizens Union announced that it will renew its 10-year effort to obtain legislation denying pensions to corrupt officials and public employees. The bill to accomplish this result passed the legislature at the last session but Governor Thomas E. Dewey vetoed the measure.

Milton M. Bergerman, chairman of the Citizens Union, said the Governor had misconceptions concerning the bill.

New Plan Covers Vacation Time, Work Week, Leave Of State Employees

ALBANY, June 9—Proposals of the Civil Service Employees Association for revision of attendance rules for institutional employees were discussed at conferences called by J. Edward Conway, President of the Civil Service Commission, on May 28 and June 4.

Proposed revisions in attendance rules for institutional employees in the Department of Mental Hygiene, Correction, Health and Social Welfare, were submitted by the Civil Service Commission to the Association in January, 1952, and were reviewed by the Special Committee on Attendance Rules of the Association.

Dr. Wayne W. Soper, State Education Department, Chairman of the Association's Committee on Attendance Rules, William Connally, Training School for Girls, Hudson, and William F. McDonough, Executive Assistant to the President of the Association, appeared for the Association. Representatives of the State Departments of Mental Hygiene, Correction, Health, and Social Welfare, and of the State Budget Division were present at the hearing. William J. Murray, Assistant Administrative Director, Joseph Schechter, Counsel, and Garson Zausner of the Civil Service Department staff were also present.

Revision Urged
Association representatives urged strongly that the Commission revise the rules adopted in 1945 and revised slightly in 1947 to bring them in line with the best in employment practices. They stated that it was felt the revisions suggested by the Association would help to improve State service, assist in recruitment and be promotive of increased employee satisfaction and morale. The Association urged:

1. That provision be made that employees in administrative offices of the institutions be granted a maximum work week of 37½ hours during a 5-day period to correspond with the work week of like employees in departmental offices.

The Association stated that the present arrangement, which denies to these administrative employees the work-week accorded to like employees in the departmental services does not seem justified on any grounds of necessity is plainly at variance with good employment practice by reason of the fact that the departmental employees and institutional employees in the administrative offices meet the same qualifications and receive the same pay:

Travel Time
2. That time spent in travel on official business in excess of regular working hours should be credited as overtime.

3. That uniform leave of 3 days annually for religious observance be provided for all employees.

4. That when an officer or employee is necessarily absent from duty because of occupational injury or disease as defined by the Workmen's Compensation Law, that full restoration shall be made of sick leave for any period of time during which an award was made and credited to the State.

5. That where overtime has been accrued it shall be paid for or liquidated by leave taken before transfer from one department to another is made.

The Association insisted that in all cases overtime work required of employees should be paid for or equivalent time leave granted.

6. That annual vacation of 4 calendar weeks without reduction in take home pay be accorded to all persons employed on an annual basis.

7. That Election Day be added to the present holidays granted employees.

8. That safeguards covering earned sick leave credits be provided in every case of resignation or transfer and covering all employees.

9. That leave for serious illness in the employee's family be accumulative to a maximum of 8 days.

10. That employees be allowed time with pay to take open competitive and promotional State examinations.

11. That rules be clarified to grant leave with pay for educational purposes.

12. That occasionally required medical or dental visits be allowed without loss of pay.

President Conway stated that the recommendations submitted by the Association and Departments would be fully considered. No decisions were announced at the conferences.

Hearing Is Set On Pending State Job Survey

ALBANY, June 9 — The State Civil Service Commission has scheduled an open hearing for Albany on the matter of jurisdictional reclassification of many State jobs.

In anticipation of the meeting Monday, June 23, at 2 p.m., the department is compiling a list of job titles which will be discussed and on which suggestions and arguments will be heard.

The survey has been lying dormant for many months, although recently J. Edward Conway, president of the State Civil Service Commission, wrote Jesse B. McFarland, president of the Civil Service Employees Association that the matter would be carried through to a conclusion.

Started about two years ago, the survey covered a batch of jobs in the Division of the Budget plus some few others, and then stopped.

In April, Mr. McFarland sent another letter to Conway in which he pointed out that because of the lack of activity on the survey many CSEA members were convinced that the survey had been held up by pressure of other work but would be resumed and was not being taken lightly by his department.

In his answering letter Conway invited to view the entire matter lightly.

CAMERA FANS MUST HURRY!

The immediate success of the Civil Service LEADER'S extraordinary camera - and - film offer, giving for only $3.95 the equivalent of $33.95 in value, makes it possible that we may soon run out of the supplies available. While we are trying to make arrangements for additional cameras from our source, we have no assurance that this will be possible. The danger of being forced to cancel the offer without notice at any time remains. We therefore urge those who have been delaying to make their reservations without further delay and avoid any disappointment. Full details appear on page 7. If we are forced to halt this offer, we shall of course continue the coupons for a period to take care of all those whose reservations have been sent in.

Annual Westchester Dinner, Set for June 12, Promises To Be Outstanding Event

WHITE PLAINS, June 9—The annual dinner-dance of the Westchester County Competitive Civil Service Association will take place this Thursday, June 12. It is shaping up as one of the season's outstanding affairs, according to Margaret W. Trout, recreation committee chairman. The event will be held at the Larchmont Shore Club, on Long Island Sound. The program of entertainment lined up and the rapidly piling up table reservations, indicate this will be the finest and liveliest annual party yet given by the County Association, which is noted for outstanding yearly events.

Quintet will perform. Songs will be by Tommy Scafa, well-known Westchester night-spot vocalist. The entertainment will be headed by Joe Fiore, whose original program of mimicry and impressions has made him a headliner.

Attendance will be limited to the Club's capacity of 250 persons, instead of the 500 to 560 employees and guests who usually attend the dinners. This has given the committee an opportunity to arrange a really "different" social event and they have gone all out on it.

The Committee

Working with Mrs. Trout are: Decorations, Julia F. Dugan; Planning; finances, Alexander J. Ligay, Child Welfare; publicity, Marian Wood, Health; reception, John J. Breen, Park; seating, Eileen Kelleher, Accounting, Public Works; service certificates, Margaret M. Hughes, Child Welfare; and tickets, Walter M. Bogle, Stewards, Public Works, Leonard Mecca, Finance, and Loretta D. Smythe, Grasslands Hospital.

Twenty-four 25-year service certificates will be presented. The Westchester annual dinner has won a reputation as one of the finest of employee events.

Speaking will be curtailed this year, Mrs. Trout states, with no more than one or two brief talks scheduled.

Civil Service Art Show Exceeds All Predictions; Open Till Friday, June 13

Civil service employees have in their ranks artists of rare excellence.

This is immediately evident from the showing, occupying four large studios, in the Riverside Museum, 103rd Street and Riverside Drive, NYC. The show played all last week to capacity audiences. It is a production of the Metropolitan Regional Conference, a unit of the Civil Service Employees Association.

Gordon Samstag, a director of the American Art School and a noted painter, who was a member of the jury selecting the prize-winners in the show, described it as "one of the best amateur shows I have ever seen." Admission is free.

Included, in the exhibits, which come from the metropolitan area, are oil paintings, watercolors, drawings, sculpture, ceramics, wood-carvings. Nearly 300 exhibits were submitted.

Amazing Quality

The quality of the work has amazed competent observers. The variety of techniques and conceptions range from traditional representation to the most advanced "non-objective" use of composition, color, lines, planes and mass. Subject-matter includes still-life, portraits, landscape and abstracts. The "best of show" is a black-and-white abstract lithograph given the award by the four-man jury because of its "surface texture." The artist had shown the versatility of black and white in creating surfaces having a variety of qualities.

The show was formally opened by John F. Powers, first vice-president of the CSEA, who pointed to the value of such a development in the activities of public employees, and expressed his view that on a long-range basis it represents a major forward step.

Golf, Swimming Among Treats Open to Delegates Attending June 28 Metro Conference

The Metropolitan Regional Conference, CSEA, will hold its annual meeting and installation of officers at Jones Beach on Saturday, June 28. Miss Edith Fruchthandler, Conference secretary, states that she expects the affair to be one of the "nicest" the Conference has held, with the many activities of Jones Beach available to all who attend.

The luncheon meeting will begin at 12:00 noon in the Marine Dining Room, Jones Beach State Park, L. I. Registration will begin at 10 a.m. in the morning, and installation of officers will take place after the luncheon. Miss Fruchthandler asks that she be notified as soon as possible of the names of delegates who will attend, so that all arrangements can be made.

Conkling Takes Chair

This will be the final meeting to be presided over by Sidney Alexander, outgoing Conference chairman. Mr. Alexander is taking a leave of absence from State service. Mr. Thomas Conkling, of Brooklyn State Hospital, newly-elected chairman, will take over the reins.

A large number of invited guests are expected, but there is assurance that speeches will be kept short and at a minimum.

All members of the Conference are invited to make use of the facilities, which include archery, golf, roller skating, paddle tennis, pitch-putt golf, — all free to those wearing badges or buttons issued at registration by the secretary. In addition, of course, there is both fresh-water and salt-water swimming. There will be a pool show at 9:00 p.m. in the West Bathhouse; night dancing at the music shell!

The new officers are, in addition to Mr. Conkling; William A. Greenauer, vice president; Clyde Morris, treasurer; and Miss Fruchthandler, secretary.

Better Deal Seen in 'Closed' Hospital Retirement System

ALBANY, June 9—Members of the "closed" State Hospital Retirement System have reason to look forward to a better arrangement when the 1953 session of the State Legislature meets.

Costs Reduced

At the past legislative session, a bill was introduced to permit payment of a death benefit for members of the Hospital Retirement System similar to the provision existing in the State Employees' Retirement System. The bill, sponsored by the Civil Service Employees Association, died in committee. The Association feels that the Hospital Retirement System should be liberalized, particularly for the benefit of those members who have been employed for 25 years or more and who received no additional benefits when they continued in service after becoming eligible for retirement.

The continued service of these members, the Association points out, reduces the cost of operating the Hospital Retirement System, and it appears only fair that these savings should be used to liberalize benefits.

Action Begins

Daniel J. Doran, Assistant to the Mental Hygiene Commissioner, states that the State Hospital Retirement Board has voted to authorize George Buck, actuary, to estimate how much it would cost to amend the Mental Hygiene law to accumulate interest at the rate of 3 percent a year on present contributing members' contributions; and also to provide ordinary death benefits to the members like those applying to members of the State Employees' Retirement System.

The Mental Hygiene Department and the Civil Service Employees Association will in all probability cooperate in pushing the legislation next year.

Everyone's talking about the camera-and-film offer for the readers of The LEADER. A $33.95 value for only $3.95. See details on page 7.

Creedmoor

THE PROGRAM committee, Creedmoor State Hospital chapter, CSEA, is discussing a proposed resolution, to be submitted at the CSEA executive committee, urging a united effort for the upgrading of all State employees.

The committee also is considering a request to have a field representative at the hospital at stated intervals.

Pension liberalization is another topic engaging the chapter's attention. A pension of $50 a month under Social Security, for two and a half years' service, was compared to $55 a month that a certain State employee will receive after 20 years' service. The conclusion was offered that the State Retirement System does not guarantee sufficient retirement benefits.

A proposal was made that the meal ticket controversy be decided by having employees specify which meals they will not regfy which meals they will not reganother that meal tickets be issued for a specific time period, and charged off only as used. The aim is to produce a pattern that will eliminate unnecessary food preparation and other waste.

Loss of sick leave on quitting service should be discontinued, except in cases of dismissal, was another proposal.

When the chapter reaches conclusions on these matters it intends to send copies of the resolutions to other hospital chapters, so that a united Mental Hygiene delegation can plump for the same resolutions.

Also up for consideration are these projects: a doctor's certificate to be given after pass day; no more annual ratings; establishment of the five-day week; seniority increments to be granted; an Association representative to be present at all grievance committee meetings.

Story in Civil Defense

Creedmoor is the largest hospital in NYC and is one of the hospitals signed up in the Medical Emergency Division of Civil Defense. Under the directorship of Dr. H. A. LaBurt, senior director, and Dr. F. M. Criden, assistant director, the Creedmoor group is recognized as one of the best organized defense units in NYC.

There is about everything within the hospital you would find in a small city. Creedmoor has its own auxiliary policemen and policewomen, light duty rescue unit, auxiliary fire fighters, medical teams, and a casualty room set up with medical supplies to take care of 250 casualties.

Dr. LaBurt, deeply interested in civic and civil defense affairs, has permitted the use of space to the Queens units for meetings. Creedmoor has contributed time and personnel in the form of one of the first all-out drills to be held in the country, and personnel for drills to be held in the police precincts throughout the City. I. J. Scott, chief engineer, is a deputy divisional supervisor, and Frank Pressell is precinct supervisor of the building defense. Roland Carpenter is deputy borough supervisor for Queens. Leonard Persell is deputy building control supervisor.

The hospital has signed up 780, or 80% of the employees for the Medical Emergency Division, and is prepared to open a hospital anywhere, at short notice. Public shelters on the grounds have been set up for visitors.

St. Lawrence State Hospital

ST. LAWRENCE State Hospital chapter, CSEA, has elected the following officers for the coming year:

President, Michael Leonard; vice president, Stanley Hobbs; secretary, Helen Dilcox, treasurer, Hugh Story; delegate, Ernest Richardson; alternate, Paul Briggs.

Elected to the executive council for two-year terms were Carl Premo, Louise McMillan and Lynn Mitchell. Holdovers from last year include Dr. Alta Brown, Irene Cunningham and Blanche Spilman.

Willowbrook State School

SERVICE PINS commemorating 25 years of service were presented to six staff members of Willowbrook State School at a dinner on May 24.

Honored were Dr. Harold H. Berman, director; Maurice Sipple, head stationary engineer; Lillian Sipple, head laundry supervisor; Harry Gillette, maintenance foreman; Catherine Gillette, supervising attendant, and Michael McInerney, senior maintenance supervisor.

The awards were presented by C. Ernest Smith, president of the board of visitors.

Open house was held for all employees of the school. Hundreds paid tribute to the director and the guests. Refreshments were served. Music for dancing was provided by George Weickert.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Dr. Frank B. Glasser, Florence Goodfield, John J. Slano, Kenneth V. Borey, Fred Carroll and Mrs. Catherine Webb.

Jack DeLisi, newly elected vice president, will be appointed chairman of the membership committee. It is urgent that every member attend and bring a non-member.

Everyone should sign up now and become an active member. There is plenty of work to be done and lots of help will be needed. A 100% concerted effort is the only way to acquire any real recognition.

Congratulations to Luke Foster of the Adjutant General's Office, State Arsenal, Brooklyn, on the marriage of his daughter, Dorothy, to Technical Sergeant Robert Davis at the Church Redeemer, Astoria. Sergeant Davis is the circulation manager of "Leather-Neck," a U. S. Marines publication. They will live at Arlington, Va. The chapter wishes the happy couple many years of wedded bliss.

Sincere sympathy to George Bennett, 13th Regt. Brooklyn, on the recent loss of his father.

The home of Herman Johnson of the 101st Mechanized Cavalry, Brooklyn, is bustling. His daughter and three grandchildren are living with him while his son-in-law, Jack Nickelson, is serving with our armed forces in France.

Tony, Scala, corresponding secretary, 101st Cavalry Armory, Manhattan, lost his pay check. Arrangements will be made with the N. Y. Port of Authority for free passage on the ferry to and from Staten Island. On the way uptown he can stop at the local Bowery Mission for a hot meal each day, that is, until his check is returned.

They are: President, Martin Mulcahy; vice president, James Anderson; secretary, Irving A. Anderson; delegate, James Adams; alternate delegate, Charles Scully; sergeant-at-arms, Clifford Decker.

Elected to the executive committee are: James Adams, Carl Hunt, Charles Lamb, Frank Leonard, Charles Scully and George Vetter; and to the officers' mess committee, Fred Koopman, William Koblenzer and George Young.

Committee reports were submitted by August Westphal, Sr., on the dinner dance recently held at Bill Reibers' and by Charles Lamb, chairman of the membership and publicity committees.

Legislative plans were discussed and instructions were given to the delegate to the semi-annual Correction Conference which will be held in Albany June 17 and 18.

Erie

ERIE CHAPTER, CSEA, will hold its next meeting at Semper Fidelis Post, East Utica Street, Buffalo, on Wednesday, June 11 at 8:30 P.M. George H. Fischle is chapter president.

The Competitive Civil Service Employee's Association of Western New York, a unit of the Erie chapter, will meet June 19 at 8:30 P.M. at Daly Post in Buffalo. Frank E. McDade, unit president, will preside.

High-Pay Job for Speedy Steno

ALBANY, June 9 — Speedy stenographers will have a chance to compete for high-paying positions through an open-competitive examination for hearing reporter scheduled by the Civil Service Department for September 20. There will be no requirements of training and experience, and no written test. Candidates will have to pass a performance test—recording two-voice dictation by hand or machine at a speed of 175 words per minute and transcribing their notes by typewriter at a minimum speed of 25 words per minute—to qualify.

Jobs to Be Filled

There are about 60 jobs to be filled in Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, New York City, Rochester, and Syracuse. The starting salary is $4,206. Details will be available from the Civil Service Department when the examination is announced June 30.

Woman Cleaner Jobs to Be Filled Fast by NYC

Several hundred candidates in the woman cleaner test were examined medically by the NYC Civil Service Commission, so that there would be enough names on the list to take care of requirements for the next few months. The women were examined medically at the same time they turned in their written applications, and were also given a test of reading and writing at that time.

The candidates totalled 2,032. Applications were received for three consecutive days. On the first day 60 per cent of the total showed up. The eligibles are placed on the list in the order of application. The job is in the Labor Class.

Appointments are expected soon after the list is established. Those not yet examined medically will be called to the office of Paul M. Brennan, director of the Commission's medical-physical bureau. The list could be issued without examining all candidates medically, but before being appointed, eligibles would have to pass the medical.

There's a $39.95 value yours for only $3.95. Turn to page 7 for details.

H. Eliot Kaplan, Leaving State Post, Lauded by Dewey, Moore, McGovern, Aides

ALBANY, June 9—The work of H. Eliot Kaplan, who will this month leave his position as Deputy State Comptroller in charge of the retirement system, has been lauded by Governor Dewey, Lieutenant Governor Frank C. Moore, and Comptroller J. Raymond McGovern. Employees of the Retirement Division in the State Department of Audit and Control are honoring Mr. Kaplan in a dinner scheduled for Tuesday, June 10, at the Petite Paris Restaurant in Albany. They are presenting the retiring Deputy Comptroller with a scroll of appreciation.

Keen Understanding

Governor Dewey wrote: "It is with great regret that I learn of the retirement of H. Eliot Kaplan as Deputy State Comptroller. He has discharged the duties of that important office with keen understanding of its needs and has exercised consummate tact, intelligence and industry."

"Mr. Kaplan, who has been serving the people for a number of years in many capacities, has made valuable contributions to the cause of good government and to the public benefit. All of us in State government will miss him very much indeed."

"I am happy to join his associates and his many other friends in extending to him best wishes for success and happiness in his future activities."

Moore Lauds Devotion

Similar sentiments were expressed by Lieut. Gov. Moore, who wrote to Mr. Kaplan: "I regret that the people of the State will not have the benefit of your full time service, but I know that you will continue to make a great contribution to better government. Your devotion to the principles of civil service and your loyalty to our State and local employees have served as an example for all of us."

In a letter of resignation submitted last week to Mr. McGovern, Mr. Kaplan explained that he had accepted an invitation from Mr. Moore, who was then Comptroller, in December, 1948, to take the post he is about to leave because it presented an opportunity to put into practice business principles in governmental administration.

"Unfortunately," he continued, "I have found the sacrifice, economic, social and physical, far more onerous than I ever contemplated. In fairness to those dependent on me I find it imperative to return to the practice of law, and serve as consultant in the field of public and industrial pension administration."

High Standards

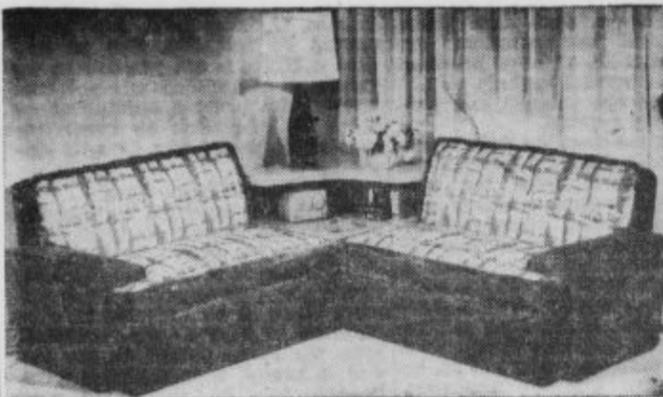

Comptroller McGovern, in accepting the resignation "with deep regret," wrote to Mr. Kaplan: "The high standards you have set have made a tremendous and lasting impression not only upon the office but upon all with whom you have come in contact and I am sure that the Retirement System has greatly improved under your leadership."

Don't miss the sensational camera-and-film offer on page 7 Value of $33.95 for only $3.95.

Art Show Is Only a Beginning

CIVIL service employees have put on an art show that matches, in content, quality, and maturity, many of the "professional" shows. Now showing at the Riverside Museum, in New York City, the show is the work of an employee group, the Metropolitan Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association. It is the second time such a show has been put on; the first one was staged in the Albany Museum of Art last year, and that too proved to be an outstanding success.

There exists a reservoir of talent among public employees. It is a forward step that this reservoir is being tapped.

Now that the art shows have proven successful in Albany and in New York City, why not have them in other centers around the state, too? And why stop with painting, sculpture, and ceramics?

Why not civil service symphony orchestras, choral groups, jazz bands, camera clubs and competitions, little theatre groups? Encouragement should be given to the development of literary talent among public employees. Nor would we stop with the cultural aspects of living. There is a vast prospect in the development of craft and hobby interests among civil servants.

We feel that in opening up this aspect of employee activities, unsuspected new opportunities both for employee development and for public relations present themselves.

Prevailing Pay—State Policy or Local Whim

THE Court of Appeals decided a close question of law when it held that employees in the graded service of the competitive class are not entitled to the benefits of Section 220 of the Labor Law. Under that law, laborers, workmen and mechanics engaged in construction, maintenance or repair of public works are entitled to the pay rates prevailing in local private industry. Under the Civil Service Law the pay must fall within the salary limits of the grade.

The way is now open to communities to nullify the Labor Law provision entirely, by putting ungraded laborers, mechanics and workmen into the graded service. A city hard up for funds might be strongly tempted to avail itself of this loophole. The fears of thousands of ungraded employees, now paid prevailing rates, should be allayed. The NYC administration should immediately disclaim any intention of resorting to this pinching subterfuge.

It is our view that Judge Stanley H. Fuld, in his dissenting opinion, has succinctly stated what is now a very real fear of the employees: "Section 220 ceases to be a state-declared policy and becomes an act of grace on the part of local officials, to be granted at a whim or withheld at a pen stroke."

June 30 Last Day to Switch To NYC's Most Liberal Pension

NYC employees have only until Monday, June 30, to transfer to the liberalized retirement plan under which half-pay retirement after 25 years, at age 55, is possible.

The employer's contribution toward pension rises about 20 per cent, and the employee pays additional annuity in the future, and has a choice of different ways of improving his annuity account for previous years' service.

Employees may get information from the pension representative in their department or from the NYC Employees Retirement System, 52 Chambers Street, NYC.

Living Costs Up Again

The general trend of wage statistics is still on the upswing. The Consumers Price Index, which took a sharp drop in February, has now nearly regained its all-time high position in January of 189.1. The Earnings figures continue, generally, to increase, as do the Federal Reserve Bank Indexes. Hourly Earnings in New York State Manufacturing remain the same, while weekly earnings increased very slightly over the previous month.

NYC Law Cases

THE COURTS are trying to determine what constitutes military pay. Is it base pay? Base pay plus longevity pay? Longevity pay is a fixture, and possibly to be considered a part of base pay. Incentive pay is not a fixture. Should incentive pay be included, nevertheless, such as for sea, flight, paratroop, and other such military duty? And is the definition of military pay, as related to salary differentials to be paid by NYC, the same for pension purposes, in which the City makes the annuity contributions for the veteran for the period of military service?

There is no firm answer yet on the overall question.

Suit Over Incentive Pay

James H. Sheridan, a stenographer in the Court of General Sessions, NYC, is suing the City for $814 in the Municipal Court, claiming that the amount represents the unpaid difference between his lower military pay and his City pay, arising from sea duty pay. He says he's entitled to that extra difference under Section 245 of the State Military Law. That section provides that after the first 30 days those members of a reserve force or corps ordered to military duty shall receive the differences if they were in the reserve prior to April 1, 1942.

Mr. Sheridan was a member of the Naval Reserve, which was ordered to Navy duty during the war. He received the difference between his total military pay and his City salary, but with the sea duty pay left out. The difference was $812 short, he asserts.

Incentive military pay is not included in figuring the City's annuity contributions for veterans, covering their period of military service. Mr. Sheridan says that therefore, he is entitled to the difference between his civil salary and military base pay and not to a difference between his civil salary, and "military base pay" plus incentive pay.

The City says that Section 245 of the Military Law, which concerns salaries, differs from Section 246, which deals with pensions, because the wording is different. Section 245 requires that the veteran shall receive "such part of (civilian) salary or compensation as equals the excess" of job pay over military pay. The City contends that the words "salary" and "compensation" are interchangeable, and for purposes of pay differential include all the money that the veteran was paid for military service.

In a recent case the City maintained that it did not have to make annuity contributions for veterans' annuity where military base pay exceeded civil compensation. The City maintained that base pay includes incentive pay. Such a construction would make the contribution by the City smaller. Justice Samuel H. Hofstadter, in New York County Supreme Court, held that incentive pay was not to be included for annuity purposes, since such pay is not a part of base pay. The City did not appeal. So "military base pay" alone is the determining factor. Mr. Sheridan and others want to know why it shouldn't prevail for salary differentials, bonuses and increments. In fact, Mr. Sheridan has started a separate suit for inclusion of bonus and increments.

Suit Over Bonus

Raymond F. Foy, a stenographer in the City Court, is suing to compel the City to include bonuses covering the period of his military service in figuring differential pay.

The bonus question is before the Brooklyn courts in another case. An employee won a suit in the Municipal Court, the Appellate Term affirmed the decision, and the Appellate Division, Second Department, reversed both lower courts, and sent the case back to the Municipal Court for a trial of issues of fact. These issues relate to whether the bonus was lawfully awarded to the employees, or an appropriation made for his bonus, and, if so, the Appellate Division held, the bonus should be included. But in any case a bonus is not payable to an employee as a matter of right, unless he can prove a specific allotment or allocation to cover his own case, under the Court's decision.

State Guard Case

Edmund C. Buehler, an investigator in the Comptroller's office, is also suing for differential pay. He was a member of the State Guard, which the law provides is a reserve force to be included in differential benefits. He resigned from the State Guard during the war to accept a commission as a Captain in the Army. He maintains that his answer to his country's call—the Army was building up its investigating unit—was ordered military duty such as entitles him to the differential. The City says that he was not a member of the State Guard when he joined the Army, that his act in so joining was voluntary, based, as it was, on his application for a commission in June of 1941, and not the result of "ordered military duty," and that the State Guard never was inducted into the Federal military service. Only when one's induction is ordered by the U. S. Government, from reserve to active status, can the differential apply, the City asserts.

Messrs. Sheridan and Foy are representing themselves, while Mr. Buehler's attorney is Frank J. Horan, Assistant Corporation Counsel Albert Cooper represents the City in all four actions.

CITY ZONE STATE

State Scheduled to Settle Question of 'Heat Leave'

ALBANY, June 9—The subject a topic which has blown hot and cold in recent months—is once more scheduled to be on the Civil Service Commission calendar.

It is entirely likely that the Commission will take action at the meeting beginning June 24, on the proposal received from the State Personnel Council to abolish the practice of allowing employees to go home en masse when the temperature soars.

Deferred Twice

It appeared first on the Commission's April calendar. It was deferred to the May schedule but at that meeting the CSC decided to talk to the Civil Service Employees Association and again put off taking final action.

The matter was touched upon in a meeting between CSC and CSEA representatives meeting to discuss the entire attendance rule situation, but no firm decision was reached.

So the topic of whether or not to give free time off in hot weather is once more back to the Commission itself.

Two Plans Discussed

The LEADER learns that a large bloc of sentiment has formed which opposes setting any hard and fast rule on the long standing practice. These persons feel that no matter what is decided certain departments and agencies, by their size or nature, will continue to do as they see fit.

Another bloc feels the plan currently in use in DPUI, and incidentally the one proposed by the Personnel Council, is best. Under this system employees are allowed to take time off but they are charged for it in sick or vacation time.

Conn. Calls Stearns as Exam Expert

HARTFORD, June 9—J. Allyn Stearns of White Plains, N. Y., 3rd vice president of the Civil Service Employees Association, has been at the Connecticut state Capitol in Hartford, last week assisting that state in the conduct of a series of state-wide competitive civil service examinations. Mr. Stearns is serving as an expert on a State Examining Board and is acting as chairman. This is the third time that his services have been used by Connecticut for civil service examinations. He has been highly commended by State authorities for his work.

Hiring Pool For Attendant Under Way

NYC hiring pools for filling jobs from the eligible list for attendant will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 10 and 11. A thousand eligibles have been called to the Civil Service Commission's office, 299 Broadway, where personnel officers of City departments will do the hiring.

There are 500 vacancies in 12 City agencies, most as attendant, others as messenger, bridge tender and watchman.

50 Firemen, 8 Chiefs Named to NYC Fire Dept.

Fifty new firemen and eight new battalion chiefs are scheduled for appointment in the NYC Fire Department, effective Monday, June 16. The appointments followed a long campaign by the Unformed Fire Officers Association and the battalion chief eligibles. Battalion Chief Tom Hartnett, of the 17th battalion, was especially active in marshalling the arguments, facts and statistics to prove the need and feasibility of the new appointments at battalion rank. It is also known that Fire Commissioner Jacob Grumet personally went directly to the Mayor with a demand that these appointments are a "must." Commissioner Grumet had requested 170 firemen. He is not satisfied with the 50 firemen he has received, but, he told THE LEADER, "half a loaf is better than none, and this helps a little." The present quota for firemen is 8,574, and with 50 new men appointed, there will be 190 vacancies in that rank.

The appointments follow the recent action of the NYC administration in appointing six deputy chiefs.

The New Appointees

The eight men on the battalion chief list who are slated for the appointments:

William H. Carmichael, H&L 128.

Herman Sayger, Eng. 5.

James J. Leahy, Eng. 158.

James H. Cochford, limited service squad 1.

Jeremiah G. Cronin, Jr. H&L 162.

John J. Culley, H&L 111.

Robert J. Reynolds, Eng. 72.

Martin P. O'Connor, Eng. 41.

Next man who now goes to the top of the list is Richard Baker, followed by Daniel O'Connell.

The Winning Arguments

Among the arguments which were presented to support promotions were these:

The following reasons were presented to support promotions to the rank of Battalion Chief on Medal Day, the Fire Department's Traditional promotion day.

In the rank of Battalion Chief, eight vacancies now exist.

On June 2, 1952 there were Captains Acting in the Rank of Battalion in the following number: 36 men in approximately 50 battalions (26 on the 6-9 tour). About 36%.

In addition there are a number of Battalion Chiefs assigned to L.S.S. No. 1 and continued light duty.

If the vacancies are filled there will still be a shortage of ten Chiefs below that given as a minimum requirement by the Lazarus Report. Specified minimum number in that report is 182.

Battalion Chiefs are considered the "work horses" of the Fire Department, being the key men in the fire fighting phase of the job as well as being the most important liaison group in the Department.

Since there are at present no captain or lieutenant lists in existence, promotions to battalion chief will not necessitate any other promotions to fill in. Vacancies will not be filled in therefore, and the vacancy control desired by the administration will not be jeopardized.

The captains now on the list are acting in the rank of battalion chief without compensation, and in addition are responsible for the proper running of their own companies, even though they are not there.

There is more justification for vacancies in the rank of captain than in the rank of Battalion Chief due to the lack of a captain's list. It is more reasonable to expect that a "company officer" fill-in for the rank of captain than for a captain to play two parts, that of a company officer and a chief officer, all without the proper compensation.

To promote battalion chiefs at the present rate of $6,700 will appear less of an expense than to defer it and promote them later at the new rate of $6,700 plus the new cost of living bonus.

The cost estimated for the promotion of captain to battalion chief for the present budget will amount to about $33 per man. This is based on the fact that there will be no overall increase in each other line to fill in, due to absence of other lists.

The Fire Department immediately requested the Civil Service Commission to certify eligibles for the promotion of eight to battalion chief and the appointment of 50 firemen.

Five Changes Announced In Top Mental Hygiene Posts

ALBANY, June 9 — Dr. Henry Brill, director of Craig Colony, Sonyea, and Dr. Robert C. Hunt, director of St. Lawrence State Hospital, have been appointed assistant commissioners in the Department of Mental Hygiene. Both appointments are effective July 1 at starting salaries of $12,521.50 a year, in the administrative offices of the department at Albany.

Appointed to succeed Dr. Brill as director of Craig Colony is Dr. Charles Greenberg, assistant director at Harlem Valley State Hospital. Dr. George F. Etlings, assistant director of Rome State School, will succeed Dr. Hunt as director of St. Lawrence State Hospital.

Appointed director of Buffalo State Hospital to fill a vacancy caused by the retirement last month of Dr. Christopher Fletcher is Dr. Duncan Whitehead, presently assistant director of Brooklyn State Hospital. The three appointments named will be effective July 1 at a salary range of $11,329.75 to $13,667 a year.

Long-Time State Aides

Both assistant commissioners have been in state hospital service approximately 20 years. Dr. Brill, a native of Bridgeport, Conn. graduated from Yale University with the degree B.A. in 1928, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa and holder of several scholarships, entered the Yale college of medicine, where he graduated with the degree M.D. in 1932. He went to Craig Colony as director in June 1950, after 18 years in various positions on the staff at Pilgrim State Hospital, serving also as consultant in neurology and psychiatry at Southside Hospital, Bay Shore. He is the author of many scientific papers, most of them dealing with shock therapy and pre-frontal lobotomy.

Dr. Hunt Born in Egypt

Dr. Hunt was born in Egypt of missionary parents and came to the United States when he was 12. A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania college of medicine in 1931, he interned at Bryn Mawr (Pa.) Hospital and served for a year as resident psychiatrist at Strong Memorial Hospital, Rochester. He was appointed to the staff of Binghamton State Hospital in 1933, and the following two years was a fellow in psychiatry at the Institute of the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia. From 1935 to March 1950, when he was appointed director of St. Lawrence State Hospital, he was on the staff of Rochester State Hospital, except for military leave of absence from 1942 to 1946. In conjunction with his work at Rochester State Hospital he also served on the staff of the University of Rochester school of medicine, and was assistant psychiatrist at Strong Memorial Hospital. He is a lieutenant-colonel in the medical corps, U. S. Army Reserve.

Dr. Whitehead in Army Reserve

Also a lieutenant-colonel in the U. S. Army Reserve medical corps is Dr. Whitehead, who has been assistant director at Brooklyn State Hospital since 1946. He entered state hospital service in 1934, joining the staff at Utica State Hospital, and was on war leave from May 1941 to February 1946, serving as chief of the neuropsychiatric service at Lovell General Hospital, Fort Devens, Mass. He was born in Lynn, Mass. in 1905, attended public schools of Lynn and Fitchburg, Mass., and graduated from Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., with the degree of B.A. in 1926. He spent the following two years on the faculty of Cornell University college of medicine, department of anatomy, and in 1928 received the degree of M.A. In 1931 he graduated from the same institution with his M.D. degree, and entered upon two years internship at Bellevue Hospital, New York City. In 1940 Dr. Whitehead, while on the staff at Utica State Hospital, was appointed associate editor of the Psychiatric Quarterly and in 1950 he became acting editor, in which capacity he now serves.

Dr. Etlings from Buffalo

Dr. Etlings, born in Buffalo in 1903 and graduated from the University of Buffalo college of medicine in 1928, has been in state hospital service since 1929, when he was appointed to the staff of Buffalo State Hospital. Three years later he was transferred to Rockland State Hospital, where he remained in successive grades until 1944, when he became assistant director at Rome State School. During this period he did graduate work at the Psychiatric Institute, completing a course in neurology and psychiatry in 1932, and in 1941 he completed courses in general, surgical, and neurological pathology at the New York Postgraduate Hospital. He served as lieutenant-commander in the medical corps, U. S. Naval Reserve, during World War II.

Dr. Greenberg Was Navy Man

Dr. Charles Greenberg is a native of New York City, born in 1906. After attending Fordham University two years, he graduated from New York University in 1927, receiving the B.S. degree. After two years at Dartmouth College he entered Rush Medical College of the University of Chicago, and graduated in 1931 with his M.D. degree. He was appointed to the staff at Harlem Valley State Hospital in 1935, after two years internship in City Hospital, Welfare Island, which included a residency in neurology, and a one-year residency in psychiatry at Syracuse Psychopathic Hospital. On war leave from 1943 to 1946, he was a lieutenant-commander in the navy and is now in the reserves. At Harlem Valley he progressed through various grades on the medical staff to the position of assistant director.

You Need College Degree To Be Steno or Typist, But There's a Reason

Unusual promotion opportunities are offered by the Overseas Affairs Division, U. S. Army, to typists and stenographers who will work in Japan. For that reason a college degree is necessary for appointment, an unusual requirement for such jobs. The Division explains that it is unusual also to hire anybody for overseas work who has no experience in a specialty, because the degree is made the complete equivalent of experience. The Division hopes to get many applicants from this month's graduates.

The jobs pay $2,950, with 10 percent extra because of overseas duty, and are filled on a two-year basis. Transportation to Japan is provided free, as is the return trip on completion of the duty tour. Free housing is also provided, but appointees must pay their own food bill, about $45 a month. Ages are 21 to 40.

Other New Overseas Jobs
 Other jobs opened since the publication of the complete list in last week's LEADER follow:

 General recreation supervisor, $5,060 and $5,950, for work in Germany. Dramatic or musical experience is required as the work is in connection with the soldier shows.

Military intelligence analyst, $4,060. These jobs are in Japan. Five years' experience in such work, or related work, is required, or a college degree and two years' experience. The college studies should have included subjects pertinent to intelligence analysis, such as mathematics, statistics, war operations.

Interviews will be conducted at the Professional Office of the New York State Employment Service, 1 East 19th Street, NYC, and at the Army's Overseas Branch, Room 505, at 346 Broadway, NYC. Interviews began on June 9 and will continue through Friday, June 20. Interview hours are 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Pension Waivers Must Be Signed Or Bonus Is Denied

Waivers are being circulated to all NYC employees, so that, on signing them, the City may be freed from any possible requirement of including bonus in the computation of pension benefits. Those employees otherwise entitled to a bonus, but who don't sign, won't receive the bonus. An additional bonus goes into effect on July 1, with the new budget, but not for laborers.

Among those not entitled to bonus, who receive waivers along with all others, are laborers. Employees not entitled to a bonus do not sign the waivers. Jerry Wurf, general representative of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, who negotiated a proposed pay settlement for laborers, says that false statements are being made that handing waivers to laborers indicated they would get the bonus.

Mr. Wurf explained that the Board of Estimate made it clear that laborers are not to receive the bonus.

About 100 titles are excluded from the bonus, including those of employees paid under determinations made pursuant to the Labor Law, and those who have joined in suits for higher pay under that law, Mr. Wurf added.

The laborers do not waive pension rights on back pay covered by the proposed settlement agreement, said Mr. Wurf, but receive such pay with full pension benefits. The proposed agreement would cover a period dating back nearly a decade, and ending on June 30, 1952. Mr. Wurf has taken steps toward negotiating a new agreement, to be effective July 1, 1952, and confidently expects to win an increase.

Bonus Must Be Included In Figuring Pension, Court Holds in Vital Decision

Salary is payment for personal services rendered, and as bonuses are also payments for personal services rendered, so bonuses must be included in the computation of pension. Supreme Court Justice James B. McNally ruled in a case bearing tremendous significance.

The Board of Education had adopted a resolution granting cost-of-living bonuses but expressly stated that the bonus was not to be included for pension purposes. The Court's decision, in effect, held that the Board was powerless to impose such a condition, since pension rights are contractual under the State Constitution, and may not be impaired or diminished. Failure of the NYC Teachers Retirement System to include the bonus in figuring pension was an impairment of contract, the Court held, which could not be imposed on the teacher, although the Court did add that by an agreement the terms of the contract, as of any other contract, could be changed.

Many Affected

NYC, which has contended right along that the bonus is not to be included in pension computation, is preparing to appeal the decision. It contends that employees agree to the terms and conditions of resolutions carrying the appropriation of the bonus funds when they sign the payroll.

If the decision is upheld, the same rule would apply not only to all other NYC employees who are members of a municipal pension system but also to employees of all government units in the State. The issue does not affect State employees, as their bonus, or emergency compensation, has been specifically included in computing pensions.

There has long been much interest among employees in getting a decision holding that the bonus must be figured in the pension reckoning, but it was necessary to have such a case brought by a person who was retired on a pension that excluded bonus effect, and who would wage the case to a final conclusion. May Rosen brought the successful suit, as representative litigant, backed by the Teachers Union. The union's attorneys, Zelman and Zelman, instituted the suit. Benjamin M. Zelman handled it.

Annuity Problem Arises

If Justice McNally's decision prevails, a practical question also will arise concerning the annuity, the part of the retirement allowance which the employee provides for himself out of salary contributions. As the City did not include the bonus for purposes of pension—the part of the allowance that the City provides—the employees were not subject to salary deductions for annuity, on the bonus part of their income. Thus employees would have to be given an opportunity to increase their annuity deposits.

The bonus in the teacher's case ranged from $300 to $350 a year. Her pension was computed on her average base pay for five consecutive years, the same general principle as applies in the NYC Employees Retirement System, but not in the Police or the Fire pension systems, where the annual salary rate just before retirement is controlling. But even in the Police and Fire cases, the same principle of inclusion of bonus would apply, since these departments, along with the other City departments, received bonuses.

Future Bonuses

"Undoubtedly numerous employees in other retirement systems will be affected by the decision," said Zelman and Zelman. "It will not be possible in the future to grant cost-of-living bonuses without corresponding pension rights, unless the employees waive such rights. Whether teachers and other employees may legally waive their constitutional rights in matters of this sort has never been legally tested, and it is assumed that in such cases the questions will be presented to the courts."

NYC is now circulating waivers of pension rights under the additional bonus which takes effect on July 1 with the new budget. Unless an employee signs the waiver he does not receive the bonus. Some employees have been informed by counsel that any waiver signed under such circumstances is void because of duress. A waiver, counsel told them, to be legal and binding must be completely voluntary.

The same waiver system was used by NYC regarding previous bonuses.

Some Benefit Obtainable Now

Pension and annuity benefit from bonus may be obtained by members of the NYC Employees Retirement System under Chapter 486 of the Laws of 1951. That law permits the member to decide, just prior to retirement, to contribute toward his annuity account on the bonuses received during any of the five consecutive years that he selects for pension purposes. Only if he thus contributes on the basis of the bonus amounts does the City then grant him pension benefits on the bonus, and only the years of bonus receipt are covered.

The member can not make the decision in advance of retirement because he does not then know what five years he will select for the final average on which pension is predicated.

An unusual advantage to the member arises because his annuity contributions, based on bonus amounts, are at a parity with the City's. This contrasts with the usual insufficiency of the annuity account to purchase as much benefit as the City provides through pension, at minimum retirement age. The annuity contributions are a set percentage of salary. The average of salary over all the years of service is less than the average of the best five consecutive years, at minimum retirement age. Therefore the disparity results in less than half pay, usually, for that period. To gain half pay, or more, City employees remain on the job longer. Although most such employees are under an age-55 plan, the average retirement age is 65.

Also, Chapter 590 of the laws of 1946, provides as follows: If maximum age requirements are established by law, or rule or by action of a civil service commission for examination for, or for appointment or promotion to, any position in the public service, the period of military duty as hereinbefore defined of a candidate or eligible shall not be included in computing the age of such candidate or eligible for the purposes of such examination or appointment or promotion.

The competitive physical tests will be designed to test competitively the strength, agility, stamina, and endurance of candidates. Candidates will take the physical tests at their own risk of injury, although the Commission will make every effort to safeguard them. Activities of Civil Service Employees in N. Y. State

James E. Christian Memorial

THE JAMES E. CHRISTIAN Memorial chapter, CSEA, reports:

The following chapter members have been elected to serve on the executive council: Dr. Arthur Bushel, Dental Health; Paul Robinson, Local Health Services; David Zaron, Office of Personnel Administration; Clifford C. Shoro, Office of Business Administration; and Carl Berger, Office of Business Administration. These members will serve with the elected officers mentioned in last week's LEADER.

The sudden death of Peter Carley, a senior account clerk in the office of Business Administration, was a profound shock to his fellow chapter members and co-workers. Mr. Carley was taken ill and died suddenly at his desk as he was about to leave at the close of business at 5 o'clock on May 28th. Mr. Carley entered State service in June 1947, a World War II veteran. He leaves a widowed mother and sister. The sincere sympathy of the entire chapter, a senior account clerk in the Office of Business Administration, and his fellow employees is extended to his family.

Mrs. Helen Chico has returned from Boston where she attended her sister's wedding. . . Mrs. Mary Carlson and her husband are vacationing in California and plan to tour the states on their return trip. . . Doris Benway will attend the statewide convention of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs at the Sagamore Hotel, Lake George, on June 5th to 8th. . . Mrs. Ethel Donohue, of Public Health Nursing is a grandma again—this time a granddaughter, born May 19th. Congratulations to Ethel. . . Dorine Loso has been appointed a consultant in public health nursing in the New York State Dept. of Health. Miss Loso is a graduate of St. Joseph's School of Nursing, St. Paul, Minn., and has a B.S. degree, having majored in Public Health Nursing at the University of Minnesota. . . Joanna McNamara of Vital Statistics has returned from a vacation trip in the Southland, with a stop at Miami. . . Josephine Valenti, typist in Vital Statistics, was married to Joseph Merolle at St. Anthony's Church on Sunday, June 4th. The couple will honeymoon in Canada. Congratulations!

Motor Vehicles, Albany

APPROXIMATELY 125 chapter employees and friends attended the third annual installation dinner dance held recently by the Motor Vehicle Chapter, CSEA. The new officers for the coming year are Alfred Castellano, president; Dominick Tate, vice president; Alice Walsh, secretary; Mary Jane Carroll, treasurer. The delegates are Richard H. Barrell, Matthew W. Fitzgerald, Michael Lester and Joseph P. Ryan. The new officers and delegates were installed by Jesse B. McFarland, President of the CSEA. Commissioner James R. Macduff presented Michael Lester, retiring president with a gift presented by the Chapter. A turkey dinner was served and dancing followed. Round and square dancing was enjoyed and everyone young and old participated enthusiastically. The entire committee under the chairmanship of Edith Flynn and Emma Reed are to be commended on the excellent results. The floral decorations, the easy atmosphere and good fellowship that insured a good time reflected the efforts put forth. Rose Holland, publicity chairman, wishes to thank Mrs. Josephine Van Galen for the striking and unusual posters made to advertise the event.

PERSONALITIES: May Mahoney (Reference) returned recently from a Mediterranean cruise. You appear to have had a wonderful time, May. Best wishes to Cora Cronin (Finance) for a speedy recovery. Cora is at St. Peter's Hospital. We hope to see Elsa Stutz (Central Typing) back at her desk in the best of health very soon. Good luck to Gladys Martin (Central Typing) in her new job at the Thruway. (Gladys was honored at a luncheon attended by many of her Motor Vehicle friends. She was presented with several gifts.) We are sorry to see you leave, but our best wishes go with you. Congratulations to all of the new officers and delegates in our chapter. We are looking forward to a prosperous and entertaining year! The game of the century has been scheduled by the Soft Ball Team. They are opposing a team consisting of nine "Old" evaluators. The girls in the office have the liniment in readiness! Our deepest sympathy to Ann Gavin, nurse, on the loss of her brother; and also to Gertrude (Knauf) Lemerise (Executive Section) on the loss of her husband. Good luck to Bill Barry (Pending File) as the Navy's shortest and newest recruit. Bill was honored at a luncheon and was presented with a gift from his many friends in the M.V.B. "Dick" Barrell presented the gift in the most entertaining way. Deputy Commissioner Howard E. Miles has returned from a vacation spent in Arizona looking fit as a fiddle. Gerry Magee (Evaluation) is spending a week's vacation painting his house. Hope he does a good job. Josephine Van Galen (Coding) was the official escort of the Baroness Vos Van Steenwyk, wife of the Netherlands Ambassador. The Baroness attended the Tulip Festival Flower Show at the Albany Institute of Historical Art. Josephine Van Galen is one of our outstanding Dutch Society members.

Brockport State Teachers College

THE FOLLOWING have been elected to serve as officers of the Brockport State Teachers College for the coming year: President, John H. Predmore; Vice President, Wilbur Adriance; Treasurer, Mrs. Hazel Nelson; Secretary, Mrs. Mary Fiorino.

State Insurance Fund

THE ANNUAL Bowling League dinner of the State Insurance Fund chapter, CSEA, held at the Boat House in Astoria on May 29 was an outstanding social success. All who attended had a grand time. There was plenty drinking, eating and socializing. The presentation of the Bowling League awards by Tom Gorman, Head of the Policyholders Service Department, was a high spot. The dais was impressive with a large number of bowling trophies and each winner was proud to be presented with one. These trophies were presented to the Orphans Team, Champions of the 1951-1952 season, and to all its members individually. Charles G. Mallia, Captain, Max Garfinkle, Ed Kretch, Moe Brown, Bernie Eisner, Jack Stein and Sal Arena. Trophies were also awarded to the winners of the team high scores. They are: L. M. Cloonan, Claims Seniors; F. Hanson, Medical; M. Wechsler, Payroll; S. Teitelbaum, Accounts; M. Thompson, Claims Sophs; B. Riccardi, Safety; T. Hores, Underwriting; R. Heatley, Policyholders; W. Ginsberg, Personnel. Another high spot of the evening's festivities was the movies of the bowlers in action. These films were shown by William Ginsberg of the Personnel Team who is also a good movie cameraman. The Bowling League deserves congratulations for this excellent affair.

Fundites were saddened by the death of Mr. Wilson Armstrong, assistant director, and join with his family in mourning his loss. He had spent 30 years in the service of the State Fund and had earned the esteem of his coworkers and associates.

The following Safety Service Department Group, all members of the Metropolitan Chapter of the American Society of Safety Engineers, are looking forward to their annual meeting and dinner under the auspices of the parent engineering chapter: Harry W. Gabor, Owen J. McKillop, A. Stephen, Joseph Christy, Sr., N. Feigenblatt Jr., John H. Marron, Sam Brookins, R. Burkhardt, William Dillon, F. Rodden, A. Weiner, R. Robinson, H. Bach, H. Rosenthal, R. Rollinson, G. Halcrow, and H. Martin.

Charles Lacey and William Wohl, both of Safety Service, have completed 25 years of service in the Safety Service Department. Both veterans received congratulations and pins from William B. Folger, executive director. Here's hoping they continue in good health. Mr. Lawrence H. Claffin, of Claims, received congratulations and a gold pin from Mr. Folger when he recently celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary of his employment in the State Fund. A few of his friends in the Claims Department honored him with a luncheon on this occasion, and these represented only a small part of the many Fundites who wished him well on this occasion.

There is still time for Fundites to see a play being presented by the McBurney Chelsea Players on Sunday June 15th. Fanny Arnon and Ralph Meyerberg, of Actuarial Department, are in the cast and it should be fun to see one's co-workers in another role. The play is "Another Language," at the McBurney YMCA at 23rd Street and 7th Avenue. For tickets see either Fanny or Ralph.

Ulster

THE ULSTER County Chapter, CSEA, held a successful meeting on May 26. James P. Martin, president, chaired the meeting. Guest speaker was James Pigott, field representative of the Association.

A question-and-answer period followed Mr. Pigott's talk and many civil service problems were reviewed and much information gained by those present.

President Martin paid tribute to A. Foster Winfield, who was given a testimonial dinner by 150 members of the A. H. Wicks Engine and Truck Company, Inc. on completion of ten years service as captain of that volunteer fire unit. Mr. Martin said:

"During his term of office as president, many outstanding accomplishments and advantages were obtained for the employees. Among these were additional sick leave and vacation, salary adjustments and paid holidays for the per diem workers. Many interesting and informative speakers were invited to the meetings and the members learned a great many things about their organization.

"He made it a point to hold several social events during the year which promoted good will among the employees and various departments of the city and of the county employees.

"We are indeed proud of this member, not only for his outstanding record as a volunteer fireman but also as a co-worker and member of our Association.

"We extend our congratulations to you, Foster, and wish you continued success and happiness in all your undertakings."

Western New York Armories

THE REGULAR spring meeting of the Western New York Armory Employees Association chapter, CSEA, was held at the State Armory, Olean, N. Y., Wednesday, May 28. A chartered bus was provided for the occasion by the 174th and 106th Armories of Buffalo.

Prior to departure from Buffalo the members ate a steak dinner at Duke's Tavern, Michigan and North Streets.

Highlights of the meeting consisted of discussion of Section 28 of the Military Law, the employees pay bill, and the election of chapter officers for the coming year. The following were elected:

After the meeting refreshments were provided by the employees of the Olean State Armory. Lieutenant Lee Stark, officer in charge and control of the Armory, welcomed the chapter.

Manhattan State Hospital

A SPECIAL meeting, sponsored by Manhattan State Hospital chapter, CSEA, will be held Wednesday, June 11, at 4:45 p.m. in the firehouse lecture hall. The purpose is to secure free bridge toll privileges for non-resident car-owner employees. It is believed by the committee that a concerted action by all affected employees will correct the present discrimination followed by the Triborough Bridge and Tunnel Authority.

Guest speakers are Harold Hertzstein, Association Regional Counsel, and Charles D. Culyer, Association field representative.

Camera fan? Wanna become sensational camera-and-film offer. Don't miss The LEADER's Details on Page 7.

Every non-resident car-owner employee should make an effort to attend.

Congressman Sidney A. Fine has shown an interest in this problem, indicated in letters to the chapter president.

Court action on behalf of the claimants in the Female Home fire has been progressing steadily. Especial thanks are extended to Association Counsel John J. Kelly, Jr. for his attention in preparing and presenting the case.

Nearly every day the baseball field is a beehive of activity. Patients are drilling for the Annual Field Day, and the ball team is practicing energetically.

A few familiar faces missing are—George Shanks of the Carpenter Shop, who underwent surgery; Joe McDonnell, has pleurisy; Mary Campbell, recuperating; Mary Tyrrell, still in misery after a nasty accident; Elizabeth Ruane, on the sick list. Margaret Connors thanks those who sent her get-well wishes during her recent surgical session.

The chapter hopes that the above-mentioned employees will be back in good health and on the job soon.

Catherine Cassery of the Laundry Department sailed for Ireland recently. All wish her a pleasant trip and enjoyable visit, weather included.

Betty O'Doherty and Mary K. Healy are in good health and back on the job again.

The Nurses Workshop is in its second session and the representatives present, from Creedmore, Psychiatric Institute, and Brooklyn, are getting some fine ideas in the Dynamics of Interpersonal Relationships, which the entire program, sponsored by the Mental Hygiene Department, is based upon.

New members are permitted to join the chapter for $2.50 dues. There are quite a few who still are bashful about sending in their applications and dues to Dennis O'Shea or John Wallace. Dennis is located in the Business Office, and John in the Electric Shop. Applications may be obtained from them or from the bus stop shelter bulletin board, opposite the Laundry.

Membership committee members are urged again to contact all non-members and convince them that they need us as much as the chapter needs them.

The institutional and other State stenographers will be accorded a hearing with J. Earl Kelly, Classification and Compensation Director, in the near future.

The new Keener Building library is well stocked with reading material. It is a wonderful improvement and deserves a vote of thanks for those instrumental in its initiation.
