

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING between the American Psychological Association and the Society of Indian Psychologists

The American Psychological Association (APA) and the Society of Indian Psychologists (SIP) agree as follows:

WHEREAS the Bylaws of APA and the Bylaws of the SIP share mutual objectives calling for the advancement of the discipline in the public interest; and

WHEREAS it is desirable to have integration and exchange between APA and SIP; and

WHEREAS mutual concerns make it likely that occasions for joint consultation and cooperation will present themselves in the years to come; and

WHEREAS both organizations wish to anticipate such occasions by establishing a framework, when possible, for their timely discussion;

NOW THEREFORE the American Psychological Association and the Society of Indian Psychologists affirm and reaffirm their working relations in this Memorandum of Understanding.

FURTHERMORE pursuant to this Memorandum of Understanding, the executives of APA and SIP shall maintain regular communication to discuss matters of common concern.

FINALLY APA and SIP will seek to identify projects and activities in which they may work together, assist or support one another, or otherwise cooperate for the betterment of psychology and the public interest.
