DR. GERALD SNYDER

ALMA MATER

Hail, Alma Mater, true;
Our thoughts reach out to you-
Pledges of love renew
Endlessly revered.
Knowledge of truth and right
Guide us in paths of light;
We shall be joined in heart,
Never be far apart,
On altered trails embark
Each to each endeared.

bricks and ivy

foreword

For technical advice, assistance in organization, and for unlimited patience, the BRICKS AND IVY staff wishes to thank Mr. Edward P. Cowley, our Faculty Advisor, and Miss Virginia Bingham, our Literary Advisor. And to the many who helped us in producing this BRICKS AND IVY, we express our sincere thanks. Between these pages we have tried to capture those things which we cherish in Milne . . . music assemblies . . . Student Council . . . the long-awaited Senior Room . . . a friendly "Hi" in the halls . . . "knowledge of truth and right" . . . the things which make THIS school OUR school.

Our Principal Speaks

"This edition of the BRICKS AND IVY should be an outstanding one because it has a memorable year to portray and an unusually capable staff to do the work. This book should serve as a happy reminder of past experiences for those who leave Milne this year and as a stimulus to do an even better job in future years for those who again in the fall will have the opportunity to use the advantages available here. We feel sure that Milne will always have an excellent reputation if each student will be as good an ambassador for the school as this book is."

spring interlude

Sing a song of finals—

Of questions long and hard.

Of pencil points that break with ease,

Of chattering teeth and quaking knees,

And wistful dreams of "A's" and "B's"

Upon that fateful report card.

Sing a song of finals—

Of icy hands and "nerves".

Of "soporific" and "cataclysm",

Deponent verbs and Humanism,

Participles and Communism,

And eternal struggles with lines and curves.

Sing a song of finals—

They're what each student dreads.

But sing of when they're o'er and we

Give one great cheer at being free,

And, shouting with triumphant glee,

Make our mass exodus to "Ed's".

DORIS PERLMAN

Class of 1953

from wagar's to winnie's

"Hail Alma Mater, true" we were introduced to you at the opening assembly (friendly school?) . . . "Miss Murray, what's my locker combination?" . . . Sorry, wrong stairway! . . . utter confusion everywhere . . . This is a cafeteria? . . . our first taste of society—the Junior High Reception Dance . . . M.F.'s slumber party was our first sleepless night, the first of many . . . We played host to the kids from Brockport . . . Thespians!—Junior High Dramatics presented "The King's English"—Mike, what happened to Mrs. B's China? . . . Bellin's birthday party, co-ed too . . . Homeroom projects, Red Cross scrapbooks . . . Harold Tryon's capers during library—poor Mrs. Couse . . . Renee's party . . . the War Memorial service . . . Saratoga excursion, frogs everywhere, even in Diane's canteen—this is a blockhouse? . . . the Spring Concert. Funny, we were all sopranos . . . "Hay!" Sewell's having a party . . . Our first junior high formal complete with night-clubbing at Wagar's . . . The year was gone, but not us—not yet, anyway . . . Dr. Fossieck became principal with the start of our second year at Milne . . . The boys beat the girls in softball—"Give up, girls, you'll never win" . . . Blue sweaters were the rage . . . The Loudonville canteen—we only lived for Saturday night—Denny Flint and his "Seven Old Maids"—"Whose father is driving us out tonight?" . . . red spots before our eyes (the measles, everyone had them) . . . Dewey won in the Milne Presidential elections . . . Ruthie, our first contribution to the cheerleading squad . . . art class and sketching in Washington Park . . . down the Hudson to Hyde Park; acrobatics on the lawn of the Vanderbilt Mansion, and wading in the Hudson (how gloppy!) . . . anyone seen Bertha? . . . Our new book, Joan Edlestein's Party or Who Hid the Broken Vase Under the Radiator . . . Adelia lost her beautiful red curls . . . Walker was elected president of the Junior Student Council—platform, "swimming pools on every floor, homework eliminated" . . . on to Mr. Cohen's pharmacy—those cones with shot . . . Our Freshman day began at 8:10 a. m. Yawn! Oh, pardon me, it's the new schedule . . . Gee, are the seventh graders really that small? . . . Harry Gary and the contour plowing, Cassidy's cow capers—his first interest in the opposite sex . . . Our athletes made their debut as full-fledged members of the football, basketball, and baseball teams . . . Student-Faculty Night—the students won, but not by much . . . Charleston, Charleston, we stole the show at the Flapper Fling—our can-can chorus became hep to the Johnson Rag . . . We literally descended upon Cooperstown. The weather was miserable and so was the population until we left. Clowns Tripp and Muirhead tried on engagement rings—sorry Nancy, better luck next time. Funny, we were the last class allowed to go to Cooperstown . . . Mr. Coleman's party . . . Junior High Formal—great success—Mamie and Muirhead reigned as king and queen. We all ended up at Mike's, gobbled food, and posed for pictures . . . Games and dances ended at Howard Johnson's and so did our freshman year . . . Tenth grade and we found ourselves in the traditional seats of the sophomores in Page Hall . . . big year . . . Class rings arrived on Halloween—it wasn't any joke to us . . . Doris slaughtered the audience on 10th Avenue in the Red Cross show . . . Alma's comment on the Sally and Joe story . . . more confusion with geometry as a new venture . . . no, no, not the "hypopotenoose," the hypotenuse!— . . . Jailbirds and diapers made us wonder about the societies, too—Quin or Sigma? . . . Everybody joined the beanbag club—Dagmar presiding—"George!" . . . Varsity players were Billion, Wade, Walker and Clarke; Tripp, Dyer and Bellin, our varsity cheerleaders . . . scads of parties . . . "Buzz's" sweet-sixteen party in the Empire Room of the Ten Eyck, with, wonder of wonders, champagne! . . . Herbert's was the big spot that year—oh, that raised dance floor—allowances certainly didn't go far there . . . David Clarke, Nancy "T", "Buzz" and Carole Jean had been our "occifers" that year . . . As juniors, Bennett led the meetings, with Dave Clarke, Doris, and C.J.F. assisting . . . We chose our junior books, but Sue Barton and Mickey Spillane were forgotten . . . English trip to "The Playhouse"—we met our senior play director for the first time (second from left in first part of third scene) . . . Our strong-armed men, Dave and Bunny, were on the traffic squad . . . Bellin's slumber party—sardines in the bathtub at four o'clock in the morning (no one brought a chicken's foot to this party) . . . We ran the Alumni Ball—The photographer never showed up—M.F. added a green touch to her pink formal—she never did see that wet paint sign! . . . New Year's Eve parties! . . . New York never was the same after the C.S.P.A. conference . . . Vagrancy became our choice for vocations after writing our junior essays, but Mr. Tibbets soon straightened us out with all those college conferences . . . the trip to Manhasset—those bridge (?) games in the back of the bus . . . decorating for the Crimson and White—BRICKS AND IVY Dance, "Spring fantasy"—"Where's the scotch tape?" Our wishing well we borrowed from Academy, our friendly rival—Of course, everything was very "hush-hush"—then we were told our own Anne and Carole Jean were the new editors . . . the year of physics, finals, and, finally, planning the Seniors' graduation—what a chore! Amid flowers, decorations, rehearsals, and excitement, some order was maintained—Girls in new formals and boys in (rented?) summer tuxes did the ushering—Dave and Allison marched down the aisles as marshals . . . The year ended as we were introduced to Casolaro's and its pizza—"Anybody share a small cheese with me?" . . . "Dig those crazy seniors!" Ken Jopp's bop talk was the rage . . . After five years of anticipation we passed through the portals of the Senior Room—Wow!!! We went as far as Vermont (Maple Candies) to "purchase" furnishings for our second home . . . Dave was elected to lead us through this crucial year, with Mike, Doris, and Doug completing the roster of class officials . . . Mike, our sojourner, returned from Florida only to leave us for those pretty nurses at the hospital (lucky guy) . . . powder fights, risking our gym teacher's wrath—"My talcum smells better than yours" . . . those horrible pictures on the student tax cards . . . Our student council really clicked with Bennett, "Nate", Shirley, and Jerry as the bosses . . . Recollections gathered at random—"bombing" out to the Toll Gate, embalming B.T. at Doris's open house, supporting the M.B.A.A. movies, stealing beanies, going out "for a lark" after a victorious game, and bowling at Rices' on a wintry afternoon . . . "You Can't Take It With You" became our very own play—"I'd follow you to the end of the earth"—The Kiss—"Buzz, stop blushing!"—we migrated to the Sternfeld home to bathe in our success . . . Pep assemblies—we had lots—Louie and his coon-skin coat and Jerry with his trumpet—"Here come the seniors in a snake-line." Remember the crazy clothes we wore? . . . Marcia and her shak-a-roos and Allison's annual open house at Xmas time, Coach's Spaghetti dinners, the Father and Son, Mother and Daughter Banquets—we'll never forget all these . . . People are still congratulating Joan Edlestein on her marvelous management of the Card Party—terrific committee work (pass the cookies, hostess) . . . The strain of College Boards could be lifted by a Friday night visit to the Madison (theatre, that is) . . . hiding our books under the cushions, dancing at Circle Inn, greeting the gang at "Winnie's Tea Room"—all worthwhile senior activities . . . Favorite songs were "It's In The Book", "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus", "Sugar Blues" and "Yokahama Mama". The most-used expression was "Anyone for Eddie's?" . . . "My word!" . . . The C&W—B&I "Bop Hop" floorshow featured Henry, the velvet smog, and of course, "Buzz" and Bennett, our T.V. stars . . . Quin-Sigma dance—"I wonder what girl will ask me?" . . . Easter, spring and baseball . . . Our Senior Banquet was the best ever (even though it wasn't steak) . . . Senior Ball, Crooked Lake, breakfast, Lake George (in that order) . . . We kind of dreaded the tape measures which heralded the order of caps and gowns, but we managed a tremulous smile and an "Oh, I can't wait 'til I graduate" . . . Then, June 19, and we found amidst tears and cheers we weren't too glad to leave after all.

Receptacle of all and any,
 The things you hold are varied and many
 Kleenex tissues—a large bunch,
 A paper bag that's left from lunch,
 Her gym suit that is rent and soiled
 To show how in the games she's toiled,
 A pair of sneakers worn and old,
 A last week's sandwich thick with mold,
 A coat and hat and comb and brush,
 Some rubber boots all wet with slush,
 Some lipstick to improve her looks,
 And strangest yet—perhaps some books.

"eddie's"

Oh, place of refuge from the cold,
 Emporium where all is sold,
 No wonder that we love you so!
 (Especially your pistachio.)

good heavens!

senior class prophecy

The time is 2053, the scene is Heaven, and the reservations have been filled by the class of 1953 . . . It is a happy sight as we look from cloud to cloud . . . St. Peter has just taken the annual celestial census with the assistance of his two secretaries, FRAN and PEGGY . . . Look there, over by the Providence Press. A notice in the Milky Way, our daily paper edited by CAROLE JEAN, reads "Meyers Meets Kramar In Net Tournament." S'pose we'll ever get the Davis cup from "down under?" . . . There's "GENE", our heavenly butcher. He's been put out of the Cloudy Room for leaving his wings there overnight . . . Famous Dancing Angelettes are taught by DORIS, our Barnard graduate . . . JERRY is giving Gabriel a little competition on that horn of his . . . Hear that "Stardust" melody? Our choir, which is definitely out-of-this-world, is being led by ELEANOR, with SHIRLEY as accompanist on the harp . . . Jumpin' Jupiter! That's what "TOBY", a forest ranger through and through, has to do daily in order to herd the clouds over air-pockets . . . Our big-business man HENRY still supplies us with party decorations from his factory . . . There's JUDY sneering at the astronomy "prof". She's now wearing Saturn's ring . . . ADELIA is chief chef at PETE'S Twilight Cafe. That's where "BO", brain surgeon while on Earth, gets his grilled green-cheese sandwiches . . . DAVE'S laboratory produces new cloud formations and those luscious rainbows (the pots at the ends are now filled with Mercury) . . . FRANCIS has engineered new locks for the pearly gates (can't be too careful, you know) . . . A chariot service for sight-seers is run by "OZ". Two of his rivals are LARRY'S Satellite Service and RON'S Comet Cabs . . . We have two artists among us. YVONNE sketches summer sunsets while ANNE paints the silver linings on the clouds . . . A garage on Cloud 77 is run by "FRANK"—he carries that Super Sky-Chief . . . As a dental assistant, RENEE minds our molars . . . Society reporter ALLISON is constantly finishing phrases with "boop-oop-a-doop" . . . "JOANIE" hurries hundreds of halos to happy newcomers . . . Don't think sports are strictly "for the birds", because we play them too. We have the best basketball team in "these parts" with DOUG as our coach and "Saint of the Week" COOMBS as a regular player . . . NANCY "G." teaches at the Kosmic Kiddy School . . . NANCY "O." came here to be gay—Wellington, that is . . . EDNA is a dietician in our hospital, we left Brady back in Albany . . . M.F. was chosen queen of the Moon-Beam Ball last week. Why? Because her hair so closely resembles the moonbeams . . . Holy cow! MORT'S a mathematician . . . We are sorry to see that MARCIA is missing. She just couldn't make the grade, but she's still trying . . . RUTHIE took up retailing and introduced many new styles (our long, white robes are now sky-blue-pink) . . . SUSIE was a seamstress; she still mends holy clothes . . . KEN is gone; existence here was just too dull for him . . . A beauty contest and a trip to the stratosphere—these were won by our gal MARILYN (we call her Venus) . . . DON and ARTIE now own an orbit in a section reserved for ex-Air Force officers. Now they're really "Up in the air, junior birdmen" . . . ANDY is a guard at the Pluto Prison (we do have some mischievous souls up here) . . . See DICK and SANDIE skating over there? Oh, oh, here comes Dr. DENNIS, bone-specialist SEITER, and our two nurses, HARRIETT and ISSY (must have been a new routine) . . . ROBERT "A." and BUNNY are now physical education instructors at the Happy Hunting (play) Ground . . . MARY has a very important job keeping the big dipper clean . . . Do you have trouble with your "skydio"? Just take it to NEIL; he does a good job fixing them . . . New customers and old applications—LOIS helps the director of admissions keep them straight . . . LOUIE owned Wintergreen Arena and made a mint . . . The best place to stay hereabouts is the Starlight Hotel, managed by REDFORD. It got its name from our celebrities, BENNETT and "BUZZ", who were stars (radio, T.V., and movie) long before they even arrived here . . . "TRIPPIE" finally got Michigan State admitted. She always knew it was heavenly . . . CRESSY speaks Spanish to ERIC; he replies in his scientific (physics) language, and neither understands the other . . . BOB B. has just arrived via his automotive invention—he lived to a ripe old age . . . BELLIN has brought her socialized medicine with her . . . BILL is still trying to hit a homer "Outside of Heaven" . . . All those social reforms during the latter part of the 20th century were a result of NATE'S civil service work . . . LYNDA LEE, our home economist, cooks ethereal love dreams. JEANNE eats them and still keeps that dreamy figure . . . DIANE invented a remedy for moonstruck people (she always knew those chem. labs would pay off) . . . SANDY "C." occupies her spare time by writing a book about us entitled, This Is Paradise? . . . Over there is our cheerful chapel where you'll find JAY, our Mars-velous minister . . . It's during the quiet hours spent there that we grow serious . . . One thought keeps coming to us all . . . If we could only spend just one day back at Milne, just revisit it for a little while, we'd all truly be in "seventh Heaven."

Help! Mutiny!

Ahoy, Henry!

The morning after . . . the night before

Woof!

Anyone for tiddly-winks?

Where's Noah?

senior class will

We, the undersigned, being of sound mind(?) and memory, have compiled this last will and testament in order to make the following bequests . . . "That House" at 1020 Madison Avenue from Nancy Bellin to all future open houses and get-togethers (oh, those parties!) . . . All poker players are "in the chips" because Morton Hess leaves his facial expressions to them . . . Lucky DeeDee Davison—Mike Meyers is left to her by her cousin, Willie Wade . . . Many "objects d'art" made their appearance in the senior play—of them, Doris's leotard, worn in first act, could go to no one more deserving than Barbara Mabus; while Nate's toga (genuine Roman) is presented to Brother Tom . . . Sandy Cohen leaves her calendar—on the wall in the French Room—to any junior gal who has a boyfriend in college . . . To Mr. Montgomery, from Kenny "Dad" Jopp, goes a "real crazy" book, Human Problems Through Literature . . . "That set shot" is Bunny's gift to Tommy Sternfeld—the other member of the Sternfeld clan leaves her pony's tail to Evergreen Stables . . . Dave Clarke bestows a little brotherly advice upon Freddy Brunner . . . Geeh! Atomic pink, chartreuse, and black, all add zest to Adelia's hat—this object is left to all who admire it . . . A split baseball bat goes from "Slugger" Crane to Mimi Ryan, the home-run queen . . . Henry leaves his camera behind, not because he wants to, because we're making him . . . One liver to Dr. Moose from Mike Meyers for further biological observations . . . "Flamingo" presents his pink shirt to Criss Cross, and Peggy's exotic green hair goes to St. Patrick . . . Red Sanderson proudly bequeaths a can of dead tennis balls and a manager's book to Carl Eppelmann . . . "Oh, Happy Day", Marcia leaves her finger for the dime slot in Eddie's juke box . . . To Herman Smith, Gene Cassidy's love-life repertoires and "grandpa gray" hair . . . Those Betty Grable gams, owner Bob Albert leaves to all envious girls . . . Renee and her waves from the history-room window—we can't leave Renee, but the waves go to Connie Olivo (don't get caught) . . . M.F.'s initials naturally revert to the other Mary Frances in Milne . . . Six-foot-three Neil Brown leaves all those inches to atom-bomb-drill shade "puller-downers" . . . A leisure reading book from Issy to anyone who needs one . . . Judy Behymer just left . . . And to each and every one of you we leave our "wunnerful" Senior Play, because we "can't take it with us!"

Stop! Look what's here—Sigma! . . . with a "yo ho ho and a bottle of rum" . . . a wonderful rush . . . pirates making sophomores walk the plank to the little gym . . . treasure chest and candlelit tables . . . new members . . . then the Invitation Banquet . . . what good little girls! . . . and the food—"delish" . . . Christmas, the main theme of entertainment . . . Heard about the chaos of our meetings? . . . "Please, girls, pay your dues!" . . . the bowling party . . . Sigma girls rolling in strikes and spares—how could we lose? . . . we didn't! . . . finally, the po-or seniors wearing hard-earned keys . . . so happy!!! . . . juniors and sophomores sporting Sigma pins . . . annual Quin-Sigma . . . big event . . . everyone dressed to the "nth degree" . . . for dancing . . . Pierce Hall . . . sad at losing Dr. Raanes . . . happy to welcome our new advisor, Miss Hudson . . . our final banquet . . . new officers installed . . . always our familiar cry, "Green and blue, we're for you!" . . .

Quin's Rush . . . refugees from Dogpatch . . . Where's Mama Yokum? . . . big secrets until the fateful day of rush . . . Everything went over with a bang . . . Milne girls invaded Brubacher for Installation Banquet . . . new members . . . Sophomores entertained sisters at banquet . . . a current crop of Sarah Bernharts . . . our wonderful faculty advisor, Miss Wasley . . . oh, those hectic meetings . . . Ruthie's plea for quiet . . . Shutup! . . . still ringing in hallowed halls . . . mad rush to pay dues and get over to Ed's . . . bowling party . . . So, what if we did have to make the cookies? . . . Quin-Sigma Dance . . . the best one ever . . . that wonderful day when our long awaited keys and pins came . . . final banquet . . . new officers announced . . . Has everyone learned the Quin Song? . . . "The girls are the best to be found!" . . .

Tri-Hi-Y

Our second year of existence! . . . brand new officers . . . new members, too . . . Again we heard the familiar cry, "5 cents for talking" . . . the trip to Johnstown for the state-wide convention . . . "Why can't we have our meetings at the Y.M.C.A.?" . . . "Swing your partner" was heard in the big gym . . . Why? . . . Of course, the Tri-Hi-Y Square Dances . . . Will anyone ever forget them? . . . Everyone just had to buy a shakeroo . . . Miss Murray and Mrs. McLaughlin were our faculty advisors . . . recreation . . . "We Are Climbing Jacob's Ladder" . . . movies . . . "Yes, this is the second floor" . . . Oh, those parents' nights . . . (hostessing was our service project to the school) . . . We know our young organization will continue to grow and to thrive . . . 's wonderful! . . .

Milne Girls' Athletic Association

Started the year off with a bang . . . annual skating party . . . "Who you calling a good skater?" . . . Student Teacher-Faculty Teas . . . never thought we'd make it . . . high heels . . . sore feet . . . smiling 'til our faces were stuck . . . headaches . . . money in the making . . . glittering gold and silver . . . Dig those crazy bracelets! . . . Beans got their start from our organization, too . . . hours after school . . . basketball . . . bowling . . . tramp . . . softball . . . Slowly, but surely, the credits came . . . "Miss Murray, will I get credit for bowling?" . . . emblems . . . chenille "M's" . . . honor pins . . . a successful assembly . . . Mother and Daughter Banquet . . . flowers, food . . . entertainment . . . We'll never forget Miss Murray's face as she "lets us in on a little surprise" . . . the precedent we set—a Milne Girls' Playday . . . new G.A.A. officers . . . first meeting . . . learning the ropes

OFFICERS: ALLISON PARKER, President; BERYL SCOTT, Vice-President; "HONEY" MCNEIL, Secretary; SALLY SIMMONS, Treasurer; ANN CROCKER, Office Manager.

Milne Boys' Athletic Association

Our first problem was to raise money . . . Remember that movie we presented? . . . profits plus! . . . athletes received sweater awards as result . . . "Coke" and ticket sales at home games—we handled them . . . brand-new policy . . . Any boy who had received a varsity letter became an automatic member of our organization . . . officers drew up constitution—good one, too . . . another movie . . . This time proceeds furnished team's fare to Saratoga (Sectionals, you know) . . . Father and Son Banquet . . . food . . . awards . . . entertainment . . . big success as always . . . "congrats" are in order . . . a big hand to Bob Dorn for terrific job as head manager . . . and many thanks to our advisor, Coach Grogan . . .

Fifty-two-fifty-three season . . . best in years . . . exciting games and tight games . . . Some were won by a "squeak"; others lost by a point . . . Led by Coombs' drive and Cross' eye, we made headlines repeatedly . . . lots of spirit, lots of talent—"Bun", "Criss", "Flamingo", "Tiger", "Horace", "Nate", "Dave", "Herman", "Murph", "Joe", "Meel" . . . Coombs received All-Albany honors and "Creight" received honorable mention (nice going, fellows) . . . hit brick walls at Watervliet and Hudson . . . left our mark at Rensselaer, B.C.H.S., and Academy . . . won the right to compete in Class C sectionals at Saratoga—first time in Milne's history . . . big play-off with Central . . . on to the "Spa" . . . ran into a Corinthian defense . . . tough loss . . . still the best season. . .

Tennis

"Net Men Face Heavy Schedule" . . . This might well be the title of our write-up . . . Albany High, Albany Boys' Academy, Christian Brothers' Academy, Troy High School . . . tough opponents all . . . lost our first four men at graduation-time last year . . . Hanley, Heinmiller, Seiter, and Richardson (all of the class of '53) fill those empty spaces this year . . . "Bo" Bullis is our captain . . . can't forget all the other members of our squad, though . . . "Love" that team! . . . such wonderful spirit . . . We started the season off by losing a few, but see all those wins just around the corner . . .

Baseball

Rensselaer, Schoharie, Altamont, V.I.—we've beaten them all so far . . . terrific 4-I record . . . Keep it up, you guys! . . . Pitching credit for two wins goes to "Birch"; for one, to Dave; for another, to "Russ" . . . Academy got the better of us (just by one point, though) . . . B.C.H.S. game's next week . . . The seniors, with eight representatives on the team, vie with the juniors, who also number eight. The sophomores contribute one. "Russ" Peck, a newcomer to Milne and the only "frosch" on the team, has done a great job . . . got a late start this year (too much rain) . . . However, a terrific wind-up is expected . . . With a team like ours, how can we miss?

Varsity Baseball Team

Honors Awarded Year Books Printed by Us

"All American Honors," National Scholastic Press Association,

ALL PRINTED AND BOUND IN OUR PLANT

YOUR school Year Book will some day become one of your most cherished possessions. Each time you thumb its pages, memories will return to give you joy and pleasure. You will see the faces of old friends and chums—of campus sports and dozens of other pictures which will recall fond memories. These mementos should be preserved in an attractive cover, beautifully bound and printed.

Annuals by Fort Orange Press possess a certain beauty and distinction that experience alone can give. Scores of beautiful and attractive illustrations are available to help you create your own designs.
