

My-Lites

So Selly
This is our week for apologies. First they are extended to WAA for our violation of a sacred trust in using our column last week for purposes other than those directly connected with sports. Secondly, we beg the forgiveness of the Seniors. We certainly did not contribute much towards a Senior issue that would live up to their expectations. We're sorry, but it seemed to us that the issue at stake at the time took precedence over any other consideration. By the way, it was a good fight. We enjoyed it. The I.G.C. has a good idea there. Here's hoping they can carry it out successfully.

Not Again
But our apologies are not yet complete. Last week the New Copy was lost again. With a deadline only an hour away, we were forced to compose a story on Major League baseball, originally written by George Hess—which reporter was nowhere to be found at the moment. We uncovered one person who knew the winner of last year's American League and with that to go on, plus the invaluable assistance of the Sports page of the Times, we batted out what will probably go down in history as the worst news story ever written. Added to this, we find that Detroit did not top the National League. If any St. Louis Browns fans were insulted by last week's issue, we include them on our list of PTAT.

Spring
This is the time of year when every respectable Senior is seen to wipe away a future tear at the mere mention of Moving-Up Day or graduation. It's the time of year when things you've known for four years suddenly seem new and you feel as if there is no time to have your fill of seeing them. Some friends you have made you know you might never see again and you try to crowd the lifetime of them you may miss into a few fleeting weeks that remain.

But this is a time, too, of a pull in the other direction. College is a phase of life much as childhood and adolescence are. And, like them, its passing closes the door on one world, but at the same time opens another on a broader, wider world. Mixed with the reluctance to leave the old, is the desire to taste the new. On the adjustment the individual makes between these two forces, rests his future happiness and contentment.

'45 is the war-time class, the last class which remembers State before she lived in the shadow of war. We're the solemn-faced kids who listened to a firm but sad voice announce that the United States was at war. Now we are the class that graduates on the threshold of peace. We graduate knowing that part of us—the part of us that marched off to battle—will be returning soon to resume its place. We are happy knowing this.

- From the Sublime
To proceed to a lighter frame of mind, we hereby submit our list of possible black-robed ones, with appropriate comment:
- 1. Sullivan—Slow but sure.
 - 2. Casey—Won't strike out.
 - 3. McGrath—Steady performer.
 - 4. Dunn—A lot.
 - 5. Miner—To Major.
 - 6. Slack—Schure.
 - 7. Berbrich } Photo finish.
 - 8. O'Neil
 - 9. Cronin—Keys of the Kingdom.
 - 10. Seymour—Or less.
 - 11. Buetow—We kno.
 - 12. Griffin—You win.
 - 13. Davis—Debate-able.
 - 14. Hamilton—Home run.
 - 15. Brinkman—Over the top.
 - 16. Crandell—T-S.

Seniors Display "Pep, Drive" In Athletic Careers At College

The Class of '44 was always hailed as the record-breaking class, but in looking back over the record of this year's Seniors, it becomes obvious that they have left just as many records in the dust. They have excelled, not only in scholastic achievements; their Signum Lauds attaining the highest average that group has ever had; but also in the athletic world which will be the main consideration here.

Good Start
Starting off with a bang, the first week they were at State, Nora Givell signed up for the Tennis tournament. Little did she know that it was the men's tournament she had let herself in for. MAA officials searched frantically in the books for a rule against girls entering—it was just that no one had ever tried it before. Nora distinguished herself in the tourney, reaching the semi-finals before she was defeated—by another '45'er, Norma Finar. Fran Mullin, also of the illustrious class, walked off with the title honors in the tournament. The frosh made a clean sweep of the tennis court that year, with Flo Garfall earning the crown in the Women's division. By a set of circumstances including the weather, broken fingers, etc., Flo still has the cup as no tournament has been completed since 1941.

'45 Lost But
As so many other freshman classes, '45 lost rivalry, but in some of the individual encounters, they came off very well. Girls' basketball was the heartbreaker. The frosh took the first game, but a two-point victory for the Sophs in the second put them back in the running and in a hectic final game they came through again 15-10. It was in softball that '45's girls shone. They knocked out 17 runs to 11 for the Sophs, the favorites to win.

'45 didn't have a chance in the athletic world against the might of '46. The blue devils were smothered in football as the Sophs men romped off with a 27-6 victory tacked away. The men's basketball was just as decisive. The 49-29 score is sufficient evidence of that fact. The girls, too, made a clean sweep in their department. Points for basketball were earned by a 36-32 win in the first game—an exciting overtime affair—and by a decisive 32-25 score in the second. Softball fell to the Sophs in an easy 35-25 win. It was Dave Griffin, '45, who proved to be the fastest man at State—in the track, of course—in a race that was the talk of the college for weeks.

Women's and men's rivalry contests this week and the Rivalry sports program for the year. Seven points are involved and may be decisive in the final results. Wednesday afternoon the women's contest took place at 4:30 on the field in front of the college. Features were a three-legged race, straight relay race, sack race, suitcase race and team relay races each carrying one rivalry point.

The frosh participating were: Ginny Young, Barbara Harris, Ruth Osborne, Sheila Magness, Scoop Gilbert, Sue O'Connell and Mary Quinn. Young and Harris took part in the suitcase race, Osborne and Magness in the relay race. The sophomores were represented by Edna Sweeney, Martha Dunlay, Gloria Baker, Louise Renna, Marge O'Grady, Vivian Nielsen, Betty Rose Hill and Ann Marstrangle.

Representing the Sophs were: Frank Woodworth, Hal Weber, Jim Whytock, Gene McCarthy and Bill Mallory.

Personally, we give the nod to: Sullivan, Casey, Dunn, Griffin, McGrath, O'Neil, Berbrich, Miner, Cronin, Buetow, Brinkman, Hamilton, Davis. The End
Now is the time for all good colonists to say sweet words in farewell—which leaves us out. . . .

Bowling, Basketball Ocean No Moving-Up Day Secret

Tomorrow will witness the culmination of the dreams and ambitions of literally hundreds of State College students. It is the day towards which all the efforts of the past year have been directed. The secrecy of the "day of days" has been played up enough to need going into here. People who know secrets are assuming blank expressions—trying to make believe they don't. That's a sport in itself.

Gremlin Gain
"One man's loss is another's gain," they say and Russo was definitely a gain for the Gremmins. In her freshman year, she obtained credit in three sports—softball, basketball and hiking. She took part in rivalry swimming, basketball, softball and track events. Early her skill in basketball was noted and it was undoubtedly one of the main factors in helping '47 win rivalry basketball last year against some of '46's seasoned players. She also participated in swimming credit ping pong not receiving credit, however, in either of these sports.

Frosh Take Softball, Add To Rivalry Tally

Sophs Bow To Frosh, 13-7 In Exciting Scoring Spre
A determined freshmen squad took the field Thursday afternoon and finally broke the Sophomore winning streak by triumphing in the rivalry softball game 13-7. Peg Daly starred as the frosh pitcher. In the first inning Jean Valentine, Lydia Boynton and Pat Tilden brought in runs for '48, but the Sophs were unable to connect with Daly's slow, steady ball and the second frame opened 3-0 in favor of the freshmen.

Moving-Up Day . . .
3 P. M. to 5 P. M., an iced tea sponsored by Myskania is scheduled in the Commons. Members of the Student body, their friends and relatives and faculty members, are invited.

In the evening, the Sophomore-freshman rivalry skills will be presented in Page Hall at 8:45. At 7:30 P. M., the four classes will take their respective places on the front steps of Draper Hall for the traditional Moving-Up night sing. To climax the day's activities, the winner of the Freshman-Sophomore rivalry will be announced, and the rivalry cup presented to the President of the victorious class. A dance in the Commons will follow from 9 P. M. to 12 P. M.

7NT of WAA

Have you ever heard of Campbell? No? Well don't feel bad 'cause not many people have heard of it. The same can't be said for its star resident and this week's 7NT'er—Gloria Russo. Campbell declared a holiday and went into mourning when she left. You know one person in a town of 200 means a lot. There she participated in all the major sports offered in a high school—basketball, softball and track. Track, however, should not be taken to mean just track—at Campbell it was all inclusive, and relays, dashes, broad jumps and high jumps, came under this heading.

By a substantial majority of the votes cast in last Friday's election Helen Slack Shure gained the office of President of Student Association for next year. Out of a total of 818 votes cast, Mrs. Shure gained an easy margin for herself on the first distribution, polling 457 votes, 47 votes over the quota.

Weinberg Wins Vice Presidency, O'Brien Secretary

Robert Sullivan, runner-up in the race with a total of 279 votes, failed to equal his record of last year when he captured the vice-presidency of Student Association by approximately the same margin that Mrs. Shure carried this year. James Crandall, the third candidate, failed to even show in the election, trailing Mr. Sullivan by 108 votes.

The Vice-Presidency election was more hotly contested, the main contest being between Mr. Lashinsky and Mr. Weinberg. Weinberg's majority in the third and last distribution was only 108 votes. Lorna Kunz and Gertrude Smith both drew small totals.

The Secretarial race narrowed down to two candidates due to the previous preferences of both Justine Maloney and Gloria Gilbert for other offices. Just before Easter vacation, something happened to her back, which, unless some quick mending takes place, will prevent her from participating in any more sports, this year or next.

The Grand Marshall election was never long in doubt as Betty Hamilton took the lead on the first distribution and reached the quota on the third distribution. Her nearest competitor was Marianne Davis.

Other Student Association elections resulted in the victory of Peggy Casey as Songleader and Betty Brennan, Mary Carey, Rita Coleman and Genevieve Sabatini as Cheerleaders. In explanation of the last distribution for the Songleader election, it will be noted that Miss Casey needed only a few votes to reach the quota of 410 so that only enough of Mary Tellan's votes were distributed until Miss Casey got the required total.

The newly elected members of the Student Board of Finance for next year are: Judith Gerodsky, Gloria McFerran, Betty J. McGrath and Joseph Palevsky from the class of 1946; Justine Maloney and Trudy Smith from the class of 1947.

New members of the Student Union board are: Katherine Kendall, and Jean Whitney of the class of 1946 and Carol Berg and William Mallory of the class of 1947.

'46 Student Council
Student Council for the coming year will consist of the following members besides the Student Association officers and the same presidents: Class of 1946, Eileen Moody, Shirley Passow, Louise Stryker and Robert Sullivan; Class of 1947, Celena Axelrod, Joy Beckers, Ruth Bentley and Phillip Lashinsky; Class of 1948, John Bolles, Rita Coleman, Robert Hurd and Alice Prindle. To these will also be added the members elected from the incoming freshman class.

Serving under Miss Hamilton on Campus Commission next year will be Marian Vitullo, Ann Luscock, Lorna Kunz, Judy Dube, Jean Elling, Juniors; Elaine Tupper, Mary Jean Garner, Alice Williams, Rita Shapero, Helen Kissel and Helen Lengyel, Sophomores.

The next inning was one of sloppy fielding for the Sophomores but neither team made any runs and at the top half of the third the frosh still held their lead. Forty-seven struck out again and as the possibility of a shut-out game loomed the freshmen sought a more decided victory. The daily chessers, led by Valentini, Shaprio, Boynton, Tilden, Diehl, Lengyel, Young and Daly all come home in the bottom of the third and the score was 11-0.

No one can deny that she was one of the mainstays on Newman Hall's squad this year. And didn't their team make any runs and at the top half of the third the frosh still held their lead. Forty-seven struck out again and as the possibility of a shut-out game loomed the freshmen sought a more decided victory. The daily chessers, led by Valentini, Shaprio, Boynton, Tilden, Diehl, Lengyel, Young and Daly all come home in the bottom of the third and the score was 11-0.

The Sophomores thwarted '48's hope for a slipshod game when Sweeney and Margot came home in the fourth. But the frosh evened up their lead bringing Young and Daly in and the last inning opened 13-2 for the freshmen.

Just before Easter vacation, something happened to her back, which, unless some quick mending takes place, will prevent her from participating in any more sports, this year or next. This would not only be a loss to the class but to Strill as well. A good all-around sport is always missed. Somehow we feel tho', that this is not the end of her spectacular sports career. Good mending Russo!

Moving-Up Day Schedule

- 12 Noon— Ivy planting in front of Page Hall. Ivy speaker will be Martha Joyce.
- 3-5 P. M.—Myskania Iced Tea in the Commons.
- 6:45 P. M.—Rivalry skits, Page Hall.
- 7:30 P. M.—Sing in front of Draper Hall. Instructions: Seniors will be on main steps, facing Western Ave., Sophomores across square facing Seniors, freshmen with backs to Library. Juniors across square facing freshmen. After the Senior Banner Sing, Seniors will sing the Step Song once through in their places. White Seniors sing, Juniors will turn, allowing their banner to go first, and enter Draper through the Husted peristyle door and stand behind Seniors. As Seniors sing Step Song a second time, they move down to the place vacated by the Sophomores who take over the Junior section. Freshmen remain in place. Seniors turn and face Draper with banner in front as Juniors start out front door and down steps, singing the Step Song. When they finish singing, the Seniors turn and face Western Avenue with the banner at their back, and go down the walk singing Great Fire. They will move up Western Avenue in the direction of Albany High.
- 9:00 P. M.—Hanging of '45 banner in Commons. Dancing in Commons.

Berbrich, O'Neil Retiring Society Chooses Twelve Women, One Man

The expectancy and speculation of several weeks ended this morning as an assembled student body watched the tapping of the 1945-46 Myskania. There will be 13 members on next year's leadership society, the first time this number has been tapped since 1943. The new Myskania also signals the return of men to the body with one member for the coming year.

Griffin Edits Ped., Buetow Primer Ed

Elected to edit the State College News for the year 1945-46 are Joan Berbrich and Elizabeth O'Neill who will act as Co-Editors. Both Miss Berbrich and Miss O'Neill were tapped as members of the new Myskania. Elected to edit the State College News Board are three Associate Editors, Kay Hagerty, Lois Holstein, and Mary Tesser; Sports Editor, Mary Louise Sullivan; Business Manager, Katherine Kendall; and Circulation Manager, Josephine Maggio.

Class Elections Quiet This Year

Class elections were comparatively quiet this year, no major office being very hotly contested. The main race was in the Class of 1947. The Class of 1946 had an extremely small number of candidates for many offices which resulted in several cases of the election of an officer by default as the only other candidate had already indicated her choice for another office.

The three major councils are to be headed again next year by three women. Miss Casey was tapped in this morning's ceremonies. The president of D & A will be Marjorie Cronin while Mary Lou Casey will head Music Council, and Marianne Davis will fill the president's position on Debate Council.

Councils Select New Officers

SCA, Newman, Hillel Seymour Heads WAA, Woodworth Lead MAA

The three religious clubs on the campus elected as their presidents, Harriet Brinkman, President of S.C.A.; B. J. McGrath, President of Newman Club; and Joseph Palevsky, President of Hillel. Miss Brinkman and Miss McGrath were both named for Myskania this morning.

McDonald Named Intersorority Head

The presidents of the seven sororities on campus will make up next year's Intersorority Council. The Council's leader will be Joyce Armstrong, aided by Vice-President, Marjorie Noyes; Secretary, Anita Pedersen; and Treasurer, Jean Whitney.

The Council's leader will be Joyce Armstrong, aided by Vice-President, Marjorie Noyes; Secretary, Anita Pedersen; and Treasurer, Jean Whitney. Other members of the Council will be Betty Hamilton, Shirley Ford and Genevieve Sabatini.

Edna May Marsh

Edna May Marsh then stepped out of line, descended the steps, circled the auditorium and called out the name of ELIZABETH JANE HAMILTON, newly elected Grand Marshal of Student Association and also an active member of S.C.A. Press Bureau and Forum. She was conducted to the stage to become the first member of the incoming group. Luellie Helen Gerg then tapped, naming HARRIET MAY BRINKMAN, President of SCA for the coming year. Next to tap was Joan Elizabeth Smith who relinquished her place to HELEN ANN SLACK SHURE, new President of Student Association, former president of her class and active member on Student Council.

Mary Dunn

The sixth member

The sixth member of the new Myskania was next revealed as Dorothy Marian Meyers left the stage to pin the purple and gold ribbons on SHIRLEY SIEGEL PASSOW, representative to Student Council, active member of the newly formed Inter-Group Council and columnist on the State College News. The female ranks were broken as Martha Elizabeth Sprenger tapped next, calling out the name of ROBERT FRANCIS SULLIVAN, representative to Student Council, Vice-President of Student Association for this year, and former two-year president of his class. It was now the turn of Florence Theresa Garfall who left the stage to return with JOAN DOLORES BERBRICH, Co-Editor in chief of the State College News for the year 1945-46. Miss Gerg now stepped out of line a second time and once again tapped naming ELIZABETH JOAN McGRATH, President of Newman Club for next year and chairman of the Big Eight activities at school this year. It was also Miss Now's second trip and she this time named MARY LYDIA SEYMOUR who will direct WAA activities for the coming year. Sunna Esther Cooper now tapped and named MARION LOUISE BUETOW, who will edit the 1945-46 Primer and who has been an active member for The State College News, D & A and Dramatics.

At this juncture 11 Juniors had been tapped. Marguerite Dwyer Bostwick left her place circled the stage once, presumably to signify the end of tapping, but then moved down the steps and along the aisles to stop and name MARIE GARDNER LEHL, Chairman of War Activities Council and active member of D & A. Mary Dorothy Aiken now left the stage and returned with MARY LOUISE CASEY, new president of Music Council and Student Association Song Leader for next year. Joan Elizabeth Smith circled the stage once to formally end the ceremony and the 1945-46 Myskania now stood complete entirely filling the thirteen places, the maximum number that may be tapped at one time.

Let's raid the icebox... Have a Coca-Cola

Have a Coke are words that make the kitchen the center of attraction for the teen-age set. For Coca-Cola never loses the freshness of its appeal, nor its unfulfilling refreshment. No wonder Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes from Maine to California, has become a symbol of happy, refreshing times together everywhere.
