Arlington School Unit Wins 6% Raise; More Paid Holidays Added

(From Leader Correspondent)

POUGHKEEPSIE — Salary increases of approximately six percent, greater health insurance benefits and a proposal to study and realign job classifications highlighted a contract signed by the Arlington Central School District and CSEA last week.

The CSEA represents school bus drivers and maintenance workers as well as teachers.

Basic provisions of the CSEA contract were agreed on late last spring. However, because of delays caused by vacations of negotiating personnel and several weeks needed to write the contract, final approval by the CSEA did not take place until late December.

One major change in the contract is the recognition of the realignment of certain positions. Written into the contract was the provision for the study of all positions and salaries with a view to realigning those positions where inequities exist.

Retirement Options

The contract also provides for two additional paid holidays and improvements in the retirement options.

Added to the retirement clause in the contract is the provision "that the district subscribe to that portion of the retirement plan options allowing application (by the employee) of unused sick leave as additional service credit upon retirement."

Also added is the provision that "the district shall make available upon application by any qualified employee, the retirement plan option allowing purchase of military service credit."

— New Hiring Starts — Dr. Miller To Work With CSEA On Staffing, Other Mental Hygiene Problems

In a meeting last week between representatives of the Civil Service Employees Assn. and Dr. Alan Miller, State Mental Hygiene Dept. commissioner, Dr. Miller agreed to a program of closer cooperation with the Employees Association in resolving numerous departmental problems.

Taking immediate priority was the hiring for 850 positions to be filled in institutions and schools for the retarded as the result of an infusion of several million dollars into the Mental Hygiene Dept. budget.

Dr. Miller agreed with CSEA representatives, headed by the organization's president, Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, that preference in hiring should be given to persons who had been laid off and that consideration be given to putting persons back on the preferred hiring list who were no longer on because they had rejected previous offers. In many cases, people left the preferred list because of transfers to work sites too far from their homes.

Of the jobs to be filled immediately, 300 have been assigned to Willowbrook State School; 200 to Letchworth Village State School; 100 to Wassaic State School; 200 to be divided between Manhattan and Brooklyn State Hospitals, and 50 to Rochester State Hospital.

In coming months, an additional 850 persons will be hired, bringing the total to 1,500.

Butchers, Farm Help

CSEA reported also that butchers in institutions throughout the State who were faced with immediate dismissal were being kept on the job through March 9. Dr. Miller agreed, in the meantime, to review a CSEA request that these butchers at least be absorbed into other positions if not kept in the jobs they now hold.

In another area, Dr. Miller also agreed to abide by the results of a contract grievance filed earlier by CSEA on behalf of some 100 persons who worked on institution farms. The Employees Association contended that, under its contract with the State, workers could not be fired because of work contracted to outside agencies. Dr. Miller agreed that farm personnel would be retained in other jobs and that those fired would be rehired.

Wenzl, Miller Laud Courage of MH Aides

Both Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, president of the Civil Service Employees Assn., and Dr. Alan D. Miller, Commissioner of Mental Hygiene, last week had great praise for the role of employees working in the State's institutions for the mentally ill.

"I continue to be amazed," said Dr. Wenzl, "at the untiring dedication that Mental Hygiene Department employees show under the most adverse circumstances.

"For over a year," he continued, "they have worked under tremendous pressures caused by a shortage of personnel. The public should know that the lives of innumerable patients were saved through this selfless dedication."

Montgomery Contract Grants Salary Hikes, Paid Leave

FONDA — Members of the Montgomery County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. recently ratified a one-year contract granting County employees an across-the-board five percent pay increase, improved retirement plan, and ten administrative leave days with pay for CSEA workshops, conventions, and other activities.

The contract also calls for a ten percent night pay differen-compensatory time for highway official employees and cash compensation for other employees.

The contract provides for consideration of a car pool and revisions in insurance procedures. The employees also called for clarification of the method for computing longevity payments.

The CSEA negotiating committee met several times with the personnel and finance committees of the County Board. Representing CSEA was Patrick Monnochino, collective bargaining specialist. Also representing the employees were Joseph Angelo, Helen Wolff, Winifred Rothmeyer, Margaret Bartlett, William Gustas and Martha Dockey.

Public Hearing Jan. 27

Women: Does State Law Discriminate Against You?

Are women occupationally protected — or disadvantaged — by New York State labor laws? This will be the topic under discussion at a public hearing conducted by the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Industrial and Labor Problems on Jan. 27 at 7 p.m. in the French Suite of the Biltmore Hotel, Madison Ave. and 43 St., New York City.

According to Assemblyman Donald C. Shoemaker (R-Webster), committee chairman, the meeting will review the State labor law restricting employment of women, and the possible elimination of such laws. Shoemaker said that under present law, female workers under 21 are restricted on daily and weekly work hours and on night work. Also, there is a restriction that prohibits females under 21 from operating a rapid transit vehicle or from delivering telegrams. The State industrial code in addition specifies weight lifting restrictions for women, as well as restrictions dealing with foundry operations.

The Jan. 27 meeting is the third in a series of meetings held on "Equal Employment Opportunities for Women."

The first two hearings were conducted in Rochester and Albany. The general reaction, according to Shoemaker, was that women are occupationally disadvantaged in relation to men. Pre-determined working roles based on sex have resulted in lower pay for equal work and discrimination in promotional opportunities.

Persons attending the meeting are invited to submit their written or oral statements.

NYC Police Commissioner Stance On Promotions By Merit Blasted By Bendet

An attack on the merit system by New York City Police Commissioner Patrick V. Murphy last week met with considerable heat from Solomon Bendet, president of the New York City chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Murphy's public statement that he felt "the civil service promotion system keeps good men from being elevated to higher ranks while promoting incompetents" caused a furor among public employee unions.

Bendet told The Leader that "public employees are getting damned sick and tired of appointed and elected officials constantly ripping the hide off civil servants to cover up the blunders and incompetency of political hacks who, in most cases, have no qualifications whatsoever for the positions they hold."

"I would like to point out," said Bendet, "that nearly every time charges of graft and corruption are made in the public service, it is the political animals, not rank-and-file civil servants, who are charged with betraying the public trust."

Bendet said Murphy's attitude toward merit promotions was "typical of the type of commissioner who wants to lard his department with old pals, political friends, etc."

"If there is incompetency in government," Bendet declared, "you'll find the biggest offenders among those very same appointees."

Bendet asked whether or not Murphy wanted a return to the old days when police jobs were bought in the political clubs.

"I see no way," he declared, "how the free-wheeling manner of appointment, as done in the old days, could lead to anything but corruption of the most sordid kind. It was to keep civil service above suspicion that the merit system was originated in the first place. And it works," he added.

County Rejects PERB Report

Jefferson Talks Deadlocked

(From Leader Correspondent)

WATERTOWN—Contract negotiations ground to a halt last week between the Jefferson County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. and the County Board of Supervisors, prompting a unanimous vote by CSEA chapter members on a resolution approving "whatever action deemed necessary" by the negotiating committee to reach a settlement with the County.

The deadlock resulted from the County's rejection of a Public Employees Relations Board (PERB) report. In rejecting the fact-finder's report, Kenneth W. Sebblen, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, claimed that the report was "employee oriented" and "failed to explain the County's reasons for not granting raises to employees this year."

Chapter president Eleanor Percy countered with the charge that the Board of Supervisors "at no time during the course of negotiations acted in good faith on any item." She indicated that the CSEA chapter would be willing to compromise with the County by accepting the PERB fact-finder's recommendations.

The fact-finder, Dr. Robert W. Rock of Oswego, had recommended a 5.4 percent wage hike for employees, supplemented by County assumption of all costs of employee hospitalization insurance and half of the cost for dependents, and a guaranteed minimum death benefit. Dr. Rock recommended no changes in sick leave regulations nor in retirement for deputy sheriffs, areas in which CSEA had originally called for improved benefits.

The County claimed that the ten percent hike asked by the chapter would cost the taxpayers approximately $286,000, citing the increased cost as the main reason for rejecting CSEA's initial position.

CSEA regional field supervisor Frank Martello and State CSEA collective bargaining specialist Harman Swits said, however, that the County had made no effort to aid negotiations with the fact-finder.

The next step is expected to be a public legislative hearing. Under the Taylor Law, the County is obligated to call such a hearing in order to attempt settlement with the employees. The possibility of a last-ditch super-negotiation is seen as highly unlikely.

Congratulations. You just saved $5 by doing your own income tax. And all it cost you was three long, sleepless nights.

And a slight case of heartburn.

If you had gone to H & R Block, on the other hand, you could have relaxed while someone else figured out your return. Quickly and confidentially. Probably unlike any way you've ever done it before.

And, when you figure your own, you may be entitled to deductions you're not taking and taking deductions you're not entitled to. For instance, do you know all about deductions for child care or casualty losses? Or, that if your income increased over the last few years, you may save tax dollars by "income averaging?" And even if you did, would you know how to go about "income averaging" to begin with? Probably not. And there's no reason why you should. After all, you're an amateur when it comes to doing income tax.

You see, when it comes to income taxes, amateurs should depend on H & R Block. We have over 6,000 conveniently located offices manned by thousands of specially trained personnel. They're warm and friendly people who are anxious to help you. They'll sit you down over a free cup of coffee and show you some things about your income tax that you might never have known existed.

Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.

This means that H & R Block is ready to offer you year 'round tax service for just one low fee a year, with no extra charge for audits and estimates. H & R Block's charges start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.

Which is somewhat less than what you paid. Not to mention the fact that aggravation isn't tax deductible. And we are.

DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO H&R BLOCK'S JOB.

H&R Block.

The income tax people.

The Numbers Game

IT will come as no surprise to the rank-and-file civil service employee to find that the first report of a special State committee to study public employees pensions dealt almost solely with what these pensions cost. The report is, in fact, the old numbers game.

By tossing around billion-dollar figures, the committee has obviously laid the groundwork for the rest of their study — to prove to the public that civil service pensions are too fantastic to be believed.

We suggest that this committee visit thousands of civil servants already retired and just see how well they are living off all those billions in New York City and State pension funds. The true — and often sad — plight of these thousands might inspire the committee members to get to work without preconceived notions.

One last note: without any representative of public employees on this committee, you can be assured that civil servants in this State will give no credence whatsoever to the recommendations arrived at, no matter what they are.

Deserved Applause

MUCH has been written, said and televised about the nearly unbearable conditions in several State Mental Hygiene Institutions under which the unfortunates confined there have had to suffer. Not enough has been shown to the public of the effects of these same conditions on the attendants, nurses, bakers, butchers, guards and other personnel who staff these same institutions.

The basic problem, from which most other problems flow, is a shortage of personnel. We are delighted to report that in many hospitals and schools for the retarded, the hiring of additional personnel is beginning to take place, mainly as the result of a year-long clamor by members of the Civil Service Employees Assn. This is bound to bring some relief.

In the meantime, we would like to switch the spotlight of attention momentarily away from the patients and onto the personnel who take care of them. During these agonizing months, attendants and others have worked day in and day out with the burden of work constantly expanding. They shouldered this extra burden because they have such deep, personal concern for the mentally ill in their charge. It is backbreaking work that brings little attention or applause.

Frankly, we do not understand how so many were able to keep their spirits up and their hearts dedicated to the job. We can only be thankful that they did.

Social Security Questions & Answers

Q. I recently moved just across the street from my old address. Since the mailman knows where I live, is it really necessary to change my address?

A. Yes. Your present mailman may know where you live, but a new one may look for you at the address shown on the check. If he doesn't find you there, he may send the check back to the U.S. Treasury Department, and delivery of your check will be delayed.

Q. My 12-year-old son and I both received monthly social security survivors payments after my husband's death. When I remarried a year ago, my benefits stopped. Since I was divorced last month, can I again receive monthly benefits on my first husband's earnings record?

A. Yes. Call or visit any social security office to file a new application for benefits. You will need a certified copy of your divorce decree.

Have a question about social security and its retirement, survivors, disability or Medicare benefits? See your telephone directory for the phone number and address of the nearest social security office.

Don't Repeat This!

America's first Indira Gandhi or Golda Meir.

The latest female entry with Democratic Presidential aspirations is Rep. Patsy Takemoto Mink of Hawaii. Ms. Mink, a petite charmer who could win any Mrs. America contest she chose to enter, has chosen to enter the Oregon primary. However, her entry there will not pit her against the other female Presidential hopeful, Rep. Shirley Chisholm of Brooklyn, since the latter agreed to give her colleague a free run in Oregon. Representative Mink is a graduate of the Chicago University Law School, has served in the Hawaiian State Legislature and is now in her fourth term as a member of Congress.

Major Obstacle

In the meanwhile, Rep. Shirley Chisholm looms as the major obstacle in the Florida primaries to the hopes of fellow New Yorker, Mayor John V. Lindsay, to land the Democratic Presidential nomination. Both the Mayor and Mrs. Chisholm are looking for a heavy vote from blacks and the young in the Sunshine State. The split in this voting bloc between them will impair both their prospects. Democrats concede that Gov. George Wallace of Alabama will win the party primary because the liberal vote will split into smithereens among the large number of Democratic contenders.

Since Governor Wallace is not deemed to be a viable Democratic contender, all other entries, including Senators Hubert H. Humphrey, George McGovern and Edmund S. Muskie, are hoping to finish no worse than second. Only Senator Henry Jackson, who is hawkish on the war, will be directly hurt by the Wallace candidacy since they hold consistent views on Vietnam.

A Governess First?

It is entirely conceivable that a woman will move into the State's Executive Mansion before one takes over the White House. A likely prospect along those lines is City Consumer Affairs Commissioner Beas Myerson, who did win a Miss America contest in Atlantic City. Until Miss Myerson moved in on the political scene, the City Consumer Department was a toothless agency, concerned with something so lacking in political sex appeal as weights and measures, something that is exciting only for beauty contest judges, Commissioner Myerson turned out to be the right woman at the right time and place. She came into office at a rising moment of consumerism, and she displayed the imagination and drive to make the most of her opportunities. During Mayor Lindsay's re-election campaign in 1969, Commissioner Myerson was a more effective campaigner than all the Mayor's cabinet put together.

In four consecutive campaigns, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller took the measure of the best that the Democrats could offer. During the second special session of the Legislature, the Governor suggested that he may make a fifth try, and he is likely to rout the Democrats again. Even if the Governor does not run again, the Democrats will be faced with an uphill struggle against Lieut. Gov. Malcolm Wilson, Assembly Speaker Perry B. Duryea, Jr., Senator James L. Buckley, or any other candidate who may emerge as the Republican nom-

Civil Service Law & You

By RICHARD GABA

Mr. Gaba is a member of the New York State Bar and chairman of the Labor Law Committee of the Nassau County Bar Assn.

Civil Service Administration

(First part of two-part article on Civil Service Administration)

THE CIVIL SERVICE Law establishes a department of civil service in State government headed by the president of the State Civil Service Commission. There are three members of the Commission who are appointed by the Governor on a bi-partisan basis. He also designates the president of the Commission, who serves in that capacity at the pleasure of the Governor. None of the members of the Commission is permitted to hold office in any political party or organization, nor is he permitted to engage in partisan political activities. The term of office of each commissioner is six years from Feb. 1 of the year in which the term of his predecessor expired. Vacancies are filled by the Governor for the unexpired term.

AMONG THE POWERS and duties of the State Commission is the extremely important and sensitive power to make rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of the Civil Service Law and civil service provisions of Article V, Section 6 of the New York State Constitution. The State Commission has the power to establish time and leave rules as well as rules for other terms and conditions of employment in the four jurisdictional classifications of the classified service. The Commission also has the power, notwithstanding any other provision of the Civil Service Law or any other law, to establish rules governing cash payment of the monetary value of accumulated and unused vacation or time allowances granted in lieu of overtime compensation standing to the credit of an employee at the time of his separation from service, or at the time of his appointment, promotion or transfer from one department or agency to another. Rules of the Commission have the force and effect of law after they have been approved by the Governor and filed in the Department of State.

THE COMMISSION ALSO has the power to conduct hearings, require the attendance of witnesses and the production of records, hear and determine appeals, establish rules governing examinations, appointments, promotions, transfers, leaves of absence, performance ratings, and establish rules for the jurisdictional classification of offices and positions in the classified civil service of the State.

CIVIL SERVICE LAW provides for optional forms of administration of civil service in political subdivisions throughout the State; that is, municipal commissions such as county, city, regional, and suburban towns.

INSTEAD OF A commission, there may be a personnel officer, who has all the powers and duties of a municipal civil service commission. The term of office of municipal commissioners and personnel officers is six years, and in the case of a three-man commission, the members are appointed on a bi-partisan basis with no more than two members being from the same political party.

MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONS and personnel officers have rule-making power which is much more limited than that power possessed by the State Civil Service Commission. County and regional commissions and personnel officers may adopt rules which become effective only after approval by the State Civil Service Commission. In the case of a city, the rules must be approved by the Mayor or City Manager as well as the State Commission. If he fails to take any action for thirty days after a rule is submitted to him, however, it is deemed to have been approved by the Mayor or City Manager.

THE GOVERNING BODY of a municipality having a commission or personnel officer, or which participates in a regional form of civil service administration, may elect to change its method of administration to a different optional form available under the Civil Service Law. In fixing the effective date of the change, however it may not be less than one year from the time of such election or two years from the date of the last change, whichever is the longer period.

inee to succeed Governor Rockefeller.

In that context, the Democrats can do no better than Commissioner Myerson as their candidate; they certainly can do a lot worse.

At the moment, she is under considerable pressure to move into the political scene by running for Congress against Republican Congressman Seymour Halpern in Queens. Whether she will do so may depend upon the action of the Legislature in re-apportioning Congressional seats.

Male chauvinists and unsympathetic sisters may be unhappy about the bright future for women in politics. Realities suggest that they had better learn to grin and bear it.

City Recruiting Psychologists

Psychologist jobs await qualified applicants on an open-continuous basis, offering $12,000 in starting pay. In-person filing is required.

PARTIES HONOR DELVECCHIO ON RETIREMENT

During his many years in positions of leadership with the Civil Service Employees Assn., Michael DelVecchio has earned the respect and good will of many people throughout the State. Upon the occasion of his retirement this month, DelVecchio, who is president of the Westchester County chapter and chairman of the statewide CSEA insurance committee, was honored by parties in Larchmont and in Albany. At the affair in Westchester (left picture), Mike, second from left, receives a wallet and money gift from Ivan Flood, chapter vice-president, as statewide president Theodore C. Wenzl and Mike's wife, Dorothy, observe the presentation. In addition to the money-filled wallet, which was a gift from the some 165 attendees at the party for Mike, a $100 gift certificate was given Ms. DelVecchio for her years of service in the chapter office. In the State capital (right picture), Mike, second from left, was honored by CSEA's County Executive Committee. Others, from left, are Robert Young, outgoing vice-chairman of the committee; Joseph J. Dolan, Jr., director of local government affairs for CSEA, and Joseph J. Lazarony, chairman of the committee.

Does The City Owe You Money? New Information Helps Recover Unclaimed $$

Of the many thousands of City employees owed money by the City The Leader has so far listed approximately 2,000 of them in the ten weeks since the listing began. Unclaimed wages, vacation pay, retroactive wages and uniform allowances account for the estimated $1 million dollars in unclaimed checks waiting for City employees.

If your name is listed here, the City owes you at least $75. In seeking to claim this money, you should go first to the payroll department of your agency, the abbreviation of which is noted after each name.

Because a number of administrative problems in claiming checks were reported to The Leader, we rechecked our sources and found that additional information is now necessary in order for payroll departments to locate the unclaimed checks. If your name has appeared in a previous edition and you have experienced difficulty in claiming your money, write to The Leader, giving your name, address, department and the edition in which your name appeared. Please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. We will then be glad to send you the information required.

The dates following the names below indicate the date of the payroll which the employee neglected to claim. Claimants should supply this information to their payroll departments, which should then fill out a Check Pay Order, requesting payment from the City Paymaster. The process of making out and auditing the check should take about four weeks.

Some of the employees listed below are deceased, in which case their beneficiaries may make claim by presenting either a Surrogate's Court order or a paid-in-full funeral bill plus death certificate to the former employee's department or agency payroll office.

This week's list of names is divided into four groups: the first three are Health Department employees only, and the fourth is employees of miscellaneous departments.

Kopstein Retires From IRS Post

Philip E. Kopstein, Chief Special Investigator of the New York office of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Internal Revenue Service, has retired after more than 36 years of Government service.

As chief special investigator, an office he held since 1963, Kopstein was responsible for the control of the legitimate alcohol, tobacco and firearms industries as well as the enforcement of internal revenue laws relating to the illegal traffic in firearms, explosives and liquor in the State of New York. The recently enacted Federal firearms and explosives laws greatly expanded the scope of his work bringing him in contact with militant organizations advocating the use of violence. In connection with these duties he was instrumental in causing the arrest of H. Rap Brown, Rabbi Melr Kahane of the Jewish Defense League, as well as many top level members of organized crime syndicates in the New York metropolitan area.

FIRE FLIES

Paul Thayer

When the U.F.O. "TRUMPET" arrived this week my eyes refused to believe that which they saw. This writer's name was mentioned in three different spots and in the nicest possible terms. Thank you very much gentlemen . . . you are very kind and the series of plugs is deeply appreciated.

After being seriously burned and trapped in a Harlem tenement, Lieutenant Garry Hack of Squad One is going through painful skin grafts. That was same fire where Fireman Ed McLaughlin was also trapped and swallowed fire as the room above the fire floor exploded like a bolt from the blue. McLaughlin still in tough shape with seared lungs. Whizz kids at City Hall please take note.

Heard on the air January 17th in p.m.: "Rescue 3 to Bronx . . . we're leaving the scene of the second alarm . . . do you want us to take in the 'all hands'?" The same old dedication which always existed is still there . . . they may get a little angry once in a while but one thing for sure, true dedication cannot be stifled and that virtue is something with which the New York firefighter is abundantly endowed . . . thank God!

There is a young lad in the Bronx who is employed as a clerk for the F.B.I. and, for several years now, he has busily gone about amassing one of the most unbelievable collections of firemanic memorabilia this writer has seen. His name is Cliff Miller.

He's the kind of lad you like upon first meeting because there is nothing phony about his dedication to the fire service. In addition to his gathering material for his collection, he also writes very nicely about "the job" for the 'Bronx Press Review' and has an excellent style which he uses to the firefighter's best possible advantage. The extent of his collection of badges, helmets, photos and apparatus are such that they in themselves are a tribute to his personality because, when people own these items, they are usually not too happy to part with them even for money, much less to give them away. However, most of his materi has come to him in the form of gifts with letters of good wishes to a young winner.

In gathering material from foreign countries, he has visited the various consulates in New York to obtain likely names and addresses of persons with whom he might correspond and obtain additions for his museum. One day, thinking nothing of it really, he visited the Russian Consulate and asked for names of some home folks who might have a helmet or a badge they would be willing to send over. He thought nothing of it until he got back to the office and was called before the head man who wanted to know what the hell Cliffie was doing at the Russian Consulate a few minutes ago? Seems the rookies screamed for help and thought Cliff was some kind of spy or whatever. When the truth was known, everybody had a good laugh but Cliff says it was a tight squeak for a minute or so!

He plans to get married soon and has his bride-to-be already interested in helping gather the firemanic material. On her recent vacation she came home with a big carton of frontpieces, helmets, trumpets and badges . . . which seems to qualify her for her future position as his Missus. Good luck Cliff — It's nice to know ya!

Ken Fisher, Bronx Dispatcher No. 95 rolled in behind 33 Truck and 75 Engine on Sunday night, (Jan. 17) to Morris Ave. and Burnside Rd. The second floor was roaring, there was life hazard on the second, third, fourth and fifth floors. The response was one and one and a chief (19th Battalion).

In the hallway on the first floor lay a woman, not breathing. Rescue was called and Ken went to work, giving the victim mouth-to-mouth until the arrival of both Ambulance and Rescue. When the victim was removed to the hospital, she was breathing again and her removal, with Ken lending a hand, was recorded by WPIX for Channel 11. Sounds like a write-up coming your way, Ken! Congratulations and good luck!

Next week I'll do more on this story, especially as it applies to Fireman Val Morretti of 33 Truck. He's quite a Tiger and well deserves the plug he'll receive here. Stay tuned!

New V.P. To Head HIP Reorganization

The Health Insurance Plan of Greater New York, one of the nation's largest prepaid group practice health plans and which serves the civil service community, recently appointed J. M. Sleeth vice-president for administrative management.

Sleeth will head a task force of HIP personnel in prepaid group planning, carrying out the first reorganization of HIP since its founding 25 years ago in New York City.

Spend your health care dollar as carefully as you spend your food dollar.

It's ~~just~~ as important

A smart food shopper compares sizes, quality and price. You buy the food that your family enjoys, but if you have a choice, and all things are equal, you'll take the lowest priced item.

In health care protection you should compare too. While price is important — a few pennies one way or another for the best buy is not important. A serious illness can cost thousands of dollars. If you choose the Statewide Plan, you're not only getting the most for your dollar, you're getting peace of mind by the carload. The combination of Blue Cross, Blue Shield, with Metropolitan Major Medical adds up to your best buy in health care protection — no matter what little goodies or frills you might be offered by the options available by other plans.

Remember — a bad buy at the market only costs you a few pennies. A bad buy in health care protection could be disastrous. Choose the STATEWIDE PLAN.

Syracuse Housewarms New HQ

(From Leader Correspondent)

SYRACUSE — More than 300 members and guests of the Syracuse chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., attended an open house to see the chapter's new office at 315 E. Water St., almost directly behind the State Office Building.

The office will be headquarters for the chapter, most of whose members are employed by departments in the State Office Building.

Richard E. Cleary, president of the CSEA unit, said he was "gratified at the turnout." But he noted that many members were unable to attend because of responsibilities which took them away from their offices at the time of the affair.

He said he had to sandwich the open house between contract negotiations in Albany, which he must attend as vice-chairman of the Professional, Scientific and Technical Bargaining Unit representing some 32,000 State employees.

Proceeds of an annual Christmas contest, Cleary added, helped to pay for the open house.

Richard Cleary, center, Syracuse chapter president, works in office as Tina Thorton, left, office assistant, and Robert Bilotti, open house chairman, stand by to assist.

Balance of the proceeds, he said, were split into two sums—$100 to the Attica Memorial Fund and $50 to the Vietnam Veterans

"Home for the Holidays Fund" used to finance air transportation of local military men home from the Far East.

L.I. Conf. Sets Preview On CSEA Restructuring

(From Leader Correspondent)

PLAINVIEW — A report on the dramatic changes in the Civil Service Employees Assn. to flow from the report of the restructuring committee will be featured at the Feb. 19 luncheon of the Long Island Conference, it was announced by president George Koch.

The meeting will be called at noon at the King's Grant Motel here.

Judge Installs Nassau CSEA's Court Officers

MINEOLA — The new officers of the reorganized court unit of the Nassau chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., were installed in a well-attended ceremony at the Nassau County Court Tuesday, Jan. 18.

Michael Gilbride and his ticket were sworn in by County Court Judge Francis X. Altamari. The Part I courtroom was jammed with members of the unit.

Also in attendance were chapter president Irving Flaumenbaum, County Court Judges Douglas Young, Raymond Wilkes, Harold Spitzer and John S. Lockman, and District Court Judges James Niehoff, James Griffin, Henderson Morrison Jr., Alfred P. Samenga and Henry J. Kalinowski.

Pledges Accomplishment

Gilbride pledged "a year of accomplishment and cooperation" and urged all members to attend unit meetings. He also announced the appointment of a board of directors representing all courts, and urged members to consult with the director in their court on any job problems.

The newly named board of directors includes: Gary Tovsky, District Court; Doug Wilkens, Supreme Court; Joseph Smith, County Court; Ms. Eleanor Koch, District Court; Henry Brumley, Family Court, and Ralph Hewlett, Surrogate's Court.

GEORGE KOCH

The committee's Phase I report of last September and Phase II report expected shortly will be the subject of the Conference's March meeting. The February meeting will serve as an in-depth preview, Koch said. State second vice-president Victor Costa, head of the restructuring study, vice-chairman Ronald Friedman and committee member Koch are expected to take part in the presentation.

In addition, a representative of Ter Bush & Powell will explain newly arranged group automobile and homeowners insurance available to CSEA members.

Nassau Contract Ballots Mailed

MINEOLA — Ballots were mailed last week to County employee members of the Nassau chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., seeking ratification of the 1972 contract.

Ballots must be postmarked by midnight, Jan. 30.

The settlement was recommended by the 15-member negotiating team and the 60-member steering committee. The package negotiated provides a five percent pay increase in addition to increments and more than two dozen other new benefits.

Smith Is Appointed Regional Attorney

RIVERHEAD — Warren F. Smith has been appointed regional attorney for the Civil Service Employees Assn. in Suffolk County, CSEA announced last week.

Smith, who maintains an office at 35 West Main St., Smithtown, begins his duties immediately. He replaces Lester Lipkind, former CSEA regional attorney, who resigned.

Praise For M.H. Aides

tion; that the care and affection they showed to patients never has flagged.

Wenzl called the institutional and school staffs "the unsung heroes in one of the most arduous situations ever to exist in public service. "We all owe these people a tremendous debt," he declared.

Dr. Alan D. Miller, State Commissioner of Mental Hygiene, also commended ward service and other employees at State hospitals and State schools "for their courage and dedication in providing care and treatment to patients in residence in the face of the overwhelming problems created by staff shortages."

His comments came after recent visits to Willowbrook and Letchworth Village State schools, Brooklyn State hospital, and other State Mental Hygiene facilities which have been hard hit by staff shortages as a result of budget restrictions and a hiring freeze.

"I am proud of the way ward service employees in particular have reacted in this time of crisis at our State institutions," the Commission said. "They have displayed enormous strength, character, perseverance and love in working under very difficult conditions. They have truly been our unsung heroes."

Dr. Miller said the job of caring for profoundly retarded children who cannot talk, walk, feed, bathe or dress themselves is a difficult task under ideal conditions.

They Did Not Falter

"Conditions today are far from ideal," Dr. Miller said, "but our ward employees have returned to work day after day and have not faltered in their duty or devotion. "Our employees are a testament to the capacity of people to feel at one with even the most disabled of their fellow men. They set us all a great example. Let us follow their example by giving them the help they need."

CSEA

MASTERPLAN

Buying and Paying for Auto & Homeowners Insurance used to be a nuisance. THOSE DAYS ARE GONE FOREVER!

IT'S OFFICIAL

FEBRUARY 1st IS CSEA MASTERPLAN DAY. This is the day when state employees of CSEA will be eligible for one of the most far reaching benefit programs offered by any organization in the country — PAYROLL DEDUCTION AUTOMOBILE AND HOMEOWNERS/TENANTS INSURANCE.

PAYDAY BUDGETING is here at last. Now you can purchase many forms of personal Automobile and Homeowners/Tenants Insurance the same effortless way as other insurance benefits you've grown accustomed to. CSEA MASTERPLAN offers you the opportunity of ridding yourself of that yearly nightmare of coming up with large sums of cash, of deciding which company to go with, the one which is higher priced and offers better claims service or the company that has a lower cost and only claims to have good service.

Yes, buying and paying for Auto and Homeowners insurance used to be a nuisance. CSEA MASTERPLAN has eliminated the nuisance and the nightmare.

HIGHLIGHTS OF CSEA MASTERPLAN

Many months in the making, this bold concept was accepted after lengthy discussion and competitive negotiations. The plan is written through TER BUSH & POWELL, INC. and underwritten by THE TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANIES, a leader in the development and marketing of such programs.

REDUCED COSTS, CONVENIENCE AND GOOD SERVICE keynote CSEA MASTERPLAN. These major features make the program one of the finest ever offered to members of any organization.

REDUCED COSTS

CSEA's purchasing power has been put to work for its members. The personal protection available through CSEA is offered at rates provided only through this plan. Selling costs are less and administrative expenses are lowered through central billing and payroll deduction and the resulting savings are passed on to the CSEA members.

CONVENIENT PAYMENT

The cost of policies purchased will be automatically deducted from your salary in small regular payments throughout the year without finance or service charges being assessed for the convenience. Pay day budgeting, among other things, means no more checks to write, no more dates to remember and no more large lump sum payments to save for.

PROMPT PERSONAL CLAIM SERVICE

The Travelers offers the finest claim service in the industry. Local claim offices are located throughout the state in over 30 different locations, and are equipped to assist you promptly and efficiently when you need claim service. FAMILY AUTO INSURANCE

Every time you drive, not only your investment in the car itself, but your home, your pay check and life savings are exposed to loss. Most CSEA members could not meet today's liability judgment without the best insurance coverage.

MASTERPLAN AUTO through CSEA gives you a choice of low cost packaged auto insurance plans which include the entire spectrum of coverage, such as:

Bodily Injury Damage to the Car
Property Damage Uninsured Motorists
Medical Payments Towing and more . . .

An added feature that may save you even more money is the discount for insuring two or more vehicles in this program . . . and when you receive your policy(ies), guess what? You'll be able to read it because Travelers has developed a special car insurance policy for CSEA that's in booklet form, indexed and easy to read.

HOME AND RENTERS INSURANCE

The largest investment most individuals make is the purchase of a home. With this in mind, a new Homeowners policy was designed for CSEA which provides broader coverage than those policies commonly found in today's market.

Maximum coverage is provided to protect the home itself as well as the personal property of the owner and his family, e.g., personal property coverage is worldwide and protects against:

Fire
Burglary
Explosion
Windstorm and many other perils

For those members who rent, the special Tenants Policy provides the same broad protection for your possessions.

Both the Homeowners and the Tenants insurance plans provide COMPREHENSIVE PERSONAL LIABILITY COVERAGE FOR MEMBERS AND FAMILY at home and away. It protects against lawsuits, claims for bodily injury and property damage, even if they are groundless, false or fraudulent.

HOW TO ENROLL

CSEA has worked closely with Travelers to simplify the process of enrolling our members in the program. As a result of these efforts, a mailing will be made to all members on February 1, 1972. This mailing will contain a separate request form for Automobile and Homeowners/Tenants insurance. The forms in essence comprise a request for quotation to The Travelers which, in turn, will compute the cost of your desired coverages and return a quotation to you by mail.

In addition, a brochure entitled "Answers to your Questions" will be enclosed. This brochure will address itself to the more important questions you might have about the program. Finally, a pre-addressed, return envelope will be provided for your convenience.

Briefly then, here's what to do:

1. Review the material carefully.
2. Complete the Auto and Homeowners requests for quotations.
3. Return the request forms in the envelope provided.

REMEMBER, THIS IS THE ONLY WAY TO FIND OUT WHAT THE PROGRAM WILL COST YOU.

Since this program is completely voluntary, requesting a quotation does not obligate you to purchase insurance in any way. However, we do expect that most members and their families should benefit substantially from lower insurance cost.
