dedication

. . . because we love you . . .

In the midst of deposit slips, student tax forms, credit vouchers, and a desk stacked with papers a mile high, you have always been willing to lend an ear to our problems. Your contribution cannot be measured in dollars and cents, but will surely be evident in our accomplishments in future years. And so, with this in mind, we dedicate this yearbook to you, Uncle Gus, Mr. Gustave Mueller, and to you, the "bon vivant" of Milne, Mrs. Susan Losee, who has endured six painful, joyful years of our class. You, Madame L., have involved yourself in the construction of the most important production of our lives, our years at Milne which we will not soon forget.

So, to you, Mrs. Losee, and you, Mr. Mueller, our grateful thanks and our love.

"Life is not a jest, nor is it pleasure; it is not even enjoyment . . . Life is hard work, renunciation, continued renunciation – that is its secret meaning, the solution to the enigma. Man must work not to fulfill his cherished thoughts and dreams, sublime though they may be, but rather to do his duty."

Mr. Mark Yolles, Miss Lydia Murray

In battle or business, whatever the game,
In law or in love, it is ever the same;
In the struggle for power, or the scramble for pelf,
Let this be your motto – Rely on yourself!
For, whether the prize be a ribbon or throne,
The victor is he who can go it alone!

"So the little computer stood all day in the corner, looking out the window at all the flowers and the birds and the trees and the big yellow sun. He thought a lot about these things and wondered at their variety and color. Even during night school, when he was sent to the corner, he would look out of the window at the moon and the stars and marvel even more at the mysteries and beauty. In fact, he spent so much time in the corner, looking out the window, that he felt he knew the moon and the stars by name and that they knew him, too."

Rattles and blocks
Diapers and pins;
Playpens and strollers
Parents, with grins

Piano and toe shoes ·
Baseball and bats;
Doll clothes and G.I. Joes
Space suits and hats.

School daze and friendships
Some good and some bad;
School books and learning
With teachers getting mad

Maxi and mini
Short hair and long;
Girls do it, boys do it,
Some weak and some strong.

Babyhood through childhood
It all goes so fast;
Before we all know it,
It will be in the past.

The teens may be the hardest age,
The most difficult and misunderstood
stage
When we make our feeling known.
By adults we're always shown
How wrong our feelings really are,
But can they really see that far?
We think in many different ways,
But after all we're going through a phase.

In spite of it all we're still mature
Perhaps we will find a cure
For the gap between the generations
Going on throughout the nations,
For love and respect does still abound
Even though it looks to be underground
But adults we beg: have no fear
For we will mature with each passing year.

I've often wondered about Children.
I was one myself,
But time goes on and
Heaven Knows
I can't be left behind

Children always help their Friends.
I used to help them,
But now I don't want opponents.
It's too bad,
My friends are the same way.

As a kid I saw things
Clearer.
I don't have to bother now.
Everything's shown to me.
Good God,
Even my own life.

I don't wonder about children
Anymore.
I finally discovered
What they are, What they know.
They're the hope.
They can hear, see, and think.
The only problem is, They'll forget how.

Student government has moved forward to take a leading role in the affairs of Milne. Concern for the students, a desire to help others, and dedication to difficult tasks are marks of a Council member. The smallest to the tallest student all have a voice in the affairs of the school, and that voice speaks through Milne's student government.

Hard work is required from a Council member because only diligence results in decisions favorable to the students and faculty. Student Council is not only an experience in government, but also a link to the future.

“. . . you see, it takes all the running you can do to keep in the same place. If you want to get somewhere else, you have to run at least twice as fast as that!”

Lewis Carroll

The harriers had another banner season. They were led by their co-captains Chris Barker and Dean Karlaftis, and their venerable coach, Art Ahr. Others instrumental in bringing Milne its 8th straight Class “D” Section II title were Wayne Elsworth, Dave Slawsky, Steve Dunn, Dino Patelos, Mark Landau, Pete DeLong, and Larry Abrams. With all the varsity members of this year’s team returning, plus the addition of runners from a strong freshman squad, Milne looks forward to another fine year from the cross country team in 1970.

Passing, jumping, and scoring are all parts of the girls' basketball team's special abilities. These girls are equally at home in uniforms or evening gowns. Sneakers only temporarily replace graceful slippers, but when they do, these girls are veritable fleet footed terrors. Their dribbling sometimes deflates the ball and always deflates their opponents.

FIRST ROW: B. Gordon. SECOND ROW: M. Santen, N. Kahn, L. Freedman. THIRD ROW: D. Baldes, M. Clifford, D. Schuman, Miss Brown.

To the inexperienced person, bowling involves the evils of dropped balls and sore arms. To the experienced kegler, enjoyment outweighs the occasionally painful mishaps. Nothing except pizza equals the thrill of a strike, and nothing except measles equals the despair of losing a ball to the gutter. Bowling requires character and fortitude, especially when your opponents are the tried and trusty members of Milne's Varsity Bowling teams. Not even the combined evils of athlete's hand, lost shoes, and closed snack bars can discourage these troupers.

Using a balanced attack throughout the year, Milne's fine J.V. squad captured the C.H.V.L. crown with a 10-2 mark and achieved an overall mark of 15-3. Led by George Khachadourian, Chap Hanley, Lou Iselin and Eric Schlamowitz along with the astounding progress made by freshmen Larry Abrams and Dave Edwards, the J.V.'s show a promising future.

The Milne Baseball Team was fortunate this season, having many returning veterans who formed a strong nucleus. Leading the way were this year's senior co-captains, Bill O'Brien and David Wollner. Other stalwarts included: Larry Patent, Brian Reilly, Dave Bulger, Jon Drew, and Dave Rood. The pitching staff was headed by Bill O'Brien, Dave Rood, Brian Reilly, and newcomer Rick Coburn. The leading hitters included O'Brien, Wollner, Patent, Drew, and Rich Lipman.

A gift for this year's graduates ... free checking account service

You want to be sure you manage your money wisely, right?
Of course.

So our graduation gift of free checking account service for one year will help you do that.

"How?" you say.

Glad you asked.

When you pay by check your quarterly statement will show what you've spent and where the money went.

And more.

Those cancelled checks will be proof you paid.
