

"News" Initiates Freshmen Recruit Classes; Slates Meeting

Freshmen Cub Classes Will Commence Soon

Sophomores and Juniors interested in journalism are invited to try out for State College News, states Ronald Lackey '55, Editor-in-Chief. Recruits are needed on the reporting, news, feature, business, sports and circulation staffs.

Previous experience is not a requirement. Students do not necessarily have to have had high school experience, and a knowledge of typewriting is not required.

There will be an initial meeting of interested students in the News Publication Office, Room 8, Brubacher, Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. All upperclassmen will be allowed to take an accelerated course, taught by Evelyn Ruben '55, past Editor of the News. Freshmen Cub Classes will not commence until after Activities Day.

Members of the News staff are requested to attend a meeting at 10 a.m., today, Draper 201, in order to obtain beats for the next issue, and discuss the first issue.

The first meeting of the News Board was convened Wednesday evening in the P.O. and Robert Ashfield '55, Sports Editor, submitted his resignation. A replacement election was conducted and Joseph Swierczowski '57 was elected Sports Editor for the year 1954-1955.

The News is a student owned and operated newspaper, published weekly, covering all information regarding student activities and student life. The newspaper is financed by the student budget and advertising. A subscription to it is included in the student tax.

Reporters are "behind the scenes" in college life and secure experience that may prove helpful when the time comes for applying for teaching positions.

College Area Churches Sponsor Receptions

The reception at the First Reformed Church at Clinton Square will be this evening at 7:30 p.m. St. Andrew's Episcopal Church at North Main and Madison Avenue has scheduled a reception at 8 p.m. this evening.

IVCF has also been invited by the Nurses' Christian Fellowship of Albany Hospital to a "get-together" tonight at 7:30 p.m. The group will leave from Brubacher at 7:20 p.m.

Newman Club has scheduled its reception for Sunday, 7:30 p.m. at Newman Hall. The first meeting of the semester will be Thursday at 7:30 p.m., states Catherine McCann '56, President.

Hillel will hold a reception Sunday at 7:30 p.m. to acquaint all students interested with the organization. The reception will be at the Congregation Ohav Shalom on Washington Avenue, across from Milne. Refreshments will be served and music will be provided for dancing.

State Adds Two New Houses To Campus

There are two new dormitories for girls added to the Campus of State College this year. Park House consists of two houses, Park North and Park South, which are located at 18 and 22 South Lake Street, respectively. The other new girls' dorm, also located on South Lake Street is Lake House.

Both houses are operated and owned by the State Dormitory Authority. The new dormitories house a few transfer girls and rest are freshmen girls.

Frosh - Look Sharp! Be Sharp; Wear Dior's Latest '58 Fashions

"What am I going to wear?" was the first question posed by every little sister. Each Junior GGuide tried to disclose the vital facts of the case and just the facts to her little sis. Here is a condensed resume of the facts taken in a survey of one upperclassman.

School wear is strictly formal. The male population usually attends classes dressed in dark business suits, white shirts with French cuffs, and a conservative tie; and for that nonchalant air—sneakers. Naturally girls must dress in accord, wearing those charming men's tailored suits, business sheers and heels.

The dungarees and Bermuda shorts of last season are definitely out for casual wear. Christian Dior has sent his latest design to State in commemoration of the Class of 1958. From now on the well-dressed coed at the soccer or basketball game or lounging in the Union will be wearing the belted hip, the shortened hemline, and the longer giance.

Hair this year is definitely growing. D.A.'s and Italian boys are a thing of the past. The chrysanthemum and cap-cuts are coming into vogue. If you're wearing a ponytail, better send it back to Steve Brody or trade it for a bun.

Upperclassmen will be sticking to their Greek togas for publicity's sake. All the Alphas and Sigmas will be displayed in their fullest glory in every color of the rainbow.

Receptions, parties and banquets have been designed to send the sports set scampering to the nearest salon for the latest darling creation. State tradition, however, forbids the frosh to wear anything but black or navy frocks with lace or organza collars. Grandma's day of Arsenic and old lace, is returning, after look up the rusty button hooks.

The worse possible fate of any student is to be improperly garbed for a particular affair. Where should one wear what? Don't get caught sans a beanie if you're a fearless frosh. The Sophomores dictate that fashion phase.

Student Activity Card Will Appear Sept. 28

Student Tax cards will be replaced this semester by a new student activity card, reports Ronald Koster '55. The new cards will be enclosed in plastic and will contain a picture of the individual student to whom it was issued.

The new cards will be available Tuesday, September 28, near the Rotunda. In order to secure an activity card, students must present their student receipt card issued to them during registration.

The cards will be punched with an "S" punch when issued to regularly enrolled students. Each succeeding semester the cards will be punched again. Each of the cards is designed to be used for a period of four years, thus freshmen will keep the same card throughout their four years at State.

The activity card admits students to all plays and other school events, and entitles students to a copy of the Pedagogue, Primer, Directory, and to copies of the State College News.

If a card is lost, the student should immediately notify Sue Barnhart '56, secretary of Student Board of Finance to obtain a new card at his expense.

Music Council To Present Pianist

Music Council members met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles F. Stokes at an informal party Wednesday evening to discuss plans for their forthcoming concert, slated for October 13.

Kathryn Johnston '55, President of Music Council, reports that the Council has arranged to have Steven Lipkin, pianist, give a concert that evening.

The aim of Music Association is two-fold, cultural and social. The association is governed by a Council composed of from fifteen to twenty members. In the spring, the operetta class, open to all students, presents an operetta, directed by the music faculty and student assistants. Other programs to be sponsored by the Council this year are: a program by the music faculty, a choral concert, and a spring ensemble concert.

Members of Music Council in addition to the President are: Barbara Murnane '56, Secretary; Carol Gerety '56, Treasurer; and twenty members at large.

President Collins Officially Welcomes Freshmen At Annual Reception In Brubacher Hall Tonight

Committees Give Reports At First Council Meeting

Wednesday night Charles Beckwith, SA President, presided over the first Student Council meeting of the year. Committee reports were given and plans were laid for coming events.

Mary Breziny '56 gave the social calendar report. Marilyn Gadd '55 asked for a decision from Council concerning assembly seating. A motion by Alan Weiner '56 was passed. It stated that seats would be provided for all freshmen at the assemblies.

A committee was appointed to investigate ways to enforce the compulsory attendance rule at assemblies. The members are Marilyn Gadd, Mary Ann Johnson, Seniors; Alan Weiner '56, and Morton Hess '57.

The Rivalry Committee report was presented by John Orser '55.

Miss Johnson, Chairman of Election Commission, announced that replacement elections will be held for Junior class vice president and for a Sophomore Student Council representative. Nominations will be opened after Assembly today. Miss Johnson also said that freshmen members of the All-College Revue Committee should be picked next week. A sign-up sheet will be placed on the SC bulletin board.

Miss Breziny announced that $50 boosters will be taken to finance Homecoming Weekend which is October 16. Backing up its resolution of last year, Council said it would require MAA to present an inventory of all (Continued on Page 4, Column 5)

Flags Fly At Half Mast

Big Brother is watching you; and you left that coffee cup on the table in the Snack Bar. Get that foot off the chair and pick up those books. Do you think this is a democracy?

The Pentagon with all its red tape couldn't be as messy as the cigarette butts, candy wrappers and coke bottles on the floor of the Commons. The time has come for the President to give a "State of the Union" message.

Flag Day has come to State. The Snack Bar has posted a banner that comes out and practically picks up your dirty dishes for you. Why not save it the trouble? Coats are not suitable flags to be hung at half mast on a convenient chair, either.

It's everyone's Union and Commons; yours and mine. I picked up my junk. How about you?

Greeks Slate Social Functions

Sororities and fraternities have held replacement elections and a party is planned for this weekend. The returning active brothers of Alpha Pi Alpha are planning an informal get together tonight at 9 p.m. according to Thomas Mullen '55, President.

The first meeting of Kappa Beta convened Monday evening, at which time nominations for replacement elections were held, and the constitutional revision was completed. According to Raymond Milnarik '56, Vice-President, a meeting is slated for Monday at 7:30 p.m.

According to Ellen Barons '55, President, Aileen Cochrane '56, has been elected treasurer of Phi Delta. The new house mother for Phi Delta is Mrs. Edna Starling. Beta Zeta is planning an open house for Statesmen tomorrow night from 8 to 11 p.m. states Marjorie Liddell '55, President. Chairmen for the committees are Patricia Atwood grad., Refreshments; Angela Kavanaugh '55, Entertainment; and Mary Breziny '56, Publicity.

Committee Sets Assembly Rules

Excuses for non-attendance in Student Association Assembly for this semester are to be in before October 6. Excuses should be addressed to Marilyn Gadd '55, Chairman of the Assembly Seating Committee, and sent by Student Mail. Only legal excuses will be satisfactory, according to Miss Gadd. A class at 10 a.m. Fridays or work constitute legal excuses. Those who are employed should submit a written notification from their employer. Any other excuse will not be recognized by the Committee.

Attendance will be compulsory for all freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors. A special area will be reserved for interested Seniors who wish to attend. The excuses will be given to Oscar E. Lanford, Dean of the College. All absences will be reported to the Dean for action, states Miss Gadd. Excuses which are not submitted before the deadline will not be recognized.

Registrar Needs All New Schedule Changes

Any changes in schedule must be reported to the Registrar's Office not later than noon today, requests Ruth E. Lape, Registrar. This concerns only schedule changes which have been made by students since registration forms were turned in during the registration process. It should be noted that these changes are to be on a "Change of Schedule Card." This announcement does not apply to any student who has already reported all such changes to the office.

Seniors Sign Up For Ped Pictures

Pedagogue is taking Senior, sorority and fraternity pictures in Page Hall for the remainder of this week and next week. A sign-up sheet for appointments is posted on the bulletin board in lower Husted near the cafeteria. Ronald Koster '55, Editor, urges all students concerned to sign up as soon as possible to have their pictures taken. All students who sign up should check their Student Mailbox for notices. Off-campus teachers should arrange to be photographed on Saturdays by contacting Dolores Price '56.

In signing up for appointments, Koster would like men's and women's pictures alternated. This will speed up the program and eliminate waiting, according to Koster.

Men are requested to wear dark jackets and long ties. Because of difficulty in obtaining blazers, the girls will be photographed in a black drape. Koster suggests they wear suitable blouses that will be easy to change when the drape is worn. No jewelry is to be worn.

The 1954 Pedagogue will be distributed Wednesday and Thursday evenings and week reports Marilyn Fuels, Distribution Manager for last year's yearbook. Students who have not yet received their Pedagogue should report to Room 7 in (Continued on Page 6, Column 2)

Council Revises Tryout System

Music Council is planning a meeting to revise the tryout system and a poster party.

The meeting will take place this Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in a Brubacher Activities Room to discuss revising the tryouts system, reports Kay Johnston, '55, President.

Any upperclassmen who are trying to earn points for Music Council are urged to attend the poster party in the Brubacher Activities Room. On October 15, Seymour Lipkin, Pianist, will present a concert in Page Hall. Anyone interested in joining the different groups or the Pop Band please contact Charles F. Stokes, Professor of Music.

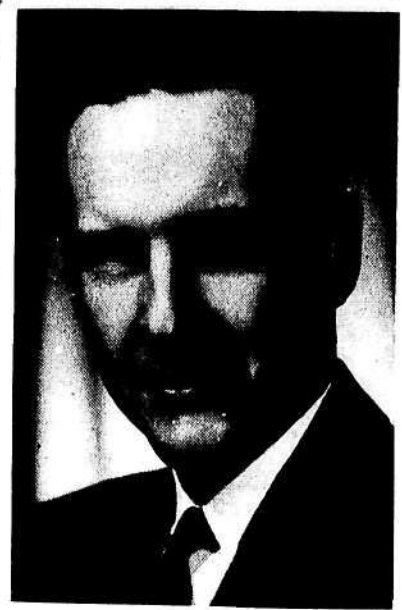

Red Devils To Spear Blue Jays; Cliques To Shanghai Neophytes

"Wanted" is the haunting refrain drifting from the juke box in the Snack Bar, the radio in every student's room and the organizations on campus. Activities Day, October 29, the "Dragonet" will be out around State to catch the gals and guys in beanies.

Every organization will erect streamered booths, flashy signs and sly decoys. Sign-up sheets will be the issue of the day. Don't be fooled by an old lady in a wheel chair. Madame De Furge in disguise might be knitting the names of the would-be recruits for DKA.

The despondent looking upperclassmen with a pencil tucked behind their ear are harried members of the State College News staff. Anyone who can write a letter home can become a club reporter with an opportunity for quick advancement.

Sophomores will be out in full strength to charge the usual admissions fees and collect rumor fees. Warnings and free passes to all movie theatres in town will be available at a mental fee. Every-

Group Sets Up Regulations For Social Calendar

In order to make the College Calendar both more accurate and comprehensive, and to avoid conflicts in time as well as in place, Mary Breziny '56, requests that all organizations cooperate by following carefully the procedures listed below. With their help, Miss Breziny claims the Calendar can be made of real service to the entire college.

Regulations to be followed are: All events of each organization (meetings, special affairs, rehearsals, etc.) shall be scheduled in advance in the Student Personnel Office, Draper 119. This includes events to be held in the college buildings including Brubacher Hall and elsewhere.

At the time of scheduling a card giving full information about the event shall be filled out and signed by the person making the reservation. No time and/or place will be reserved until this card has been approved by Mary Manson, Secretary, in Room 110 at the time the reservation is made. Chaperones must be members of the faculty and for social affairs attended both men and women guests, a woman chaperone must be present.

Any changes in schedules, scheduling new events, cancellations of events or a change in time and place must be cleared through the Student Personnel Office with the approval of the Calendar Committee.

Events in the Student Union will be scheduled as follows: For meetings in the activities (Continued on Page 4, Column 1)

Lanford, Dean of the College, and Mrs. Lanford; David Hartley, Dean of Men, and Mrs. Hartley; Miss Stokes; Beatrice Engelhardt and Sam Krchniak, Co-chairmen of Junior Guides.

To avoid overcrowding the freshmen will be received alphabetically according to the last names of their guides. They will meet the President at the following times: A-G from 8 to 8:30 p.m.; H-F from 8:30 to 9 p.m.; and Q-Z at 9 p.m. Faculty and Graduate students are also invited to attend.

Student Union Board will serve refreshments at the reception under the direction of Nancy Hazzard '55, Chairman of the Board. Punch and cookies will be served.

Junior Guides will lead the freshmen down the receiving line. They are requested to follow the time schedule to eliminate confusion. This Reception culminates the Junior Guides activities for the year.

Myksania Plans Debate, Election

Myksania convened for their first meeting of the year in the Government Room in Brubacher Tuesday evening. They discussed the forthcoming Rivalry events, Replacement Elections and plans for the semester, reports Joan Carlin '55, Chairman.

Charles Beckwith and Miss Carlin will serve as the Junior Class Guardians while Ann Tobey and Robert Sage are teaching. Iggy Komanowski and Miss Carlin will handle the Absentee Balloting Booth until Miss Tobey returns from off-campus teaching.

Replacement Elections for Vice President of the Junior Class and Sophomore Student Council member will take place in Student Association Assembly, October 8. Nominations for these positions will be opened in Assembly today. The list of candidates will be posted Friday, October 1.

TO THE CLASS OF '58!

'57 KNOWS IT!

'56 KNOWS IT!

'55 KNOWS IT!

CHESTERFIELD IS THE LARGEST SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA'S COLLEGES

THIS Chesterfield leadership is shown by actual sales audits in more than 800 college co-ops and campus stores from coast to coast.

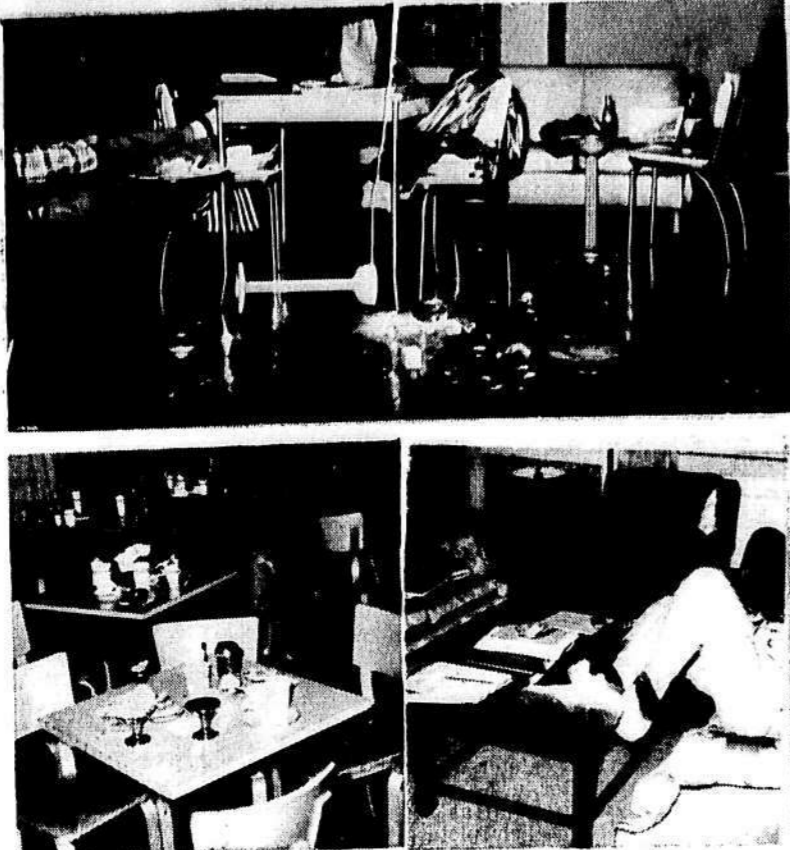

In choosing YOUR cigarette be sure to remember this! You will like Chesterfield best because only Chesterfield has the right combination of the world's best tobaccos—highest in quality, low in nicotine—best for you. All of us smoke for relaxation, for comfort, for satisfaction—and in the whole wide world no cigarette satisfies like a Chesterfield.

You smoke with the greatest pleasure when your cigarette is Chesterfield... Yes, these six words "highest in quality—low in nicotine" mean Chesterfield is best for you. Buy 'em king-size—or regular.

CHESTERFIELD BEST FOR YOU

Guilty? . . .

Were you in the Student Union this week? In one of the lounges? in the Commons? If you were, then you undoubtedly saw, and perhaps are guilty of, that which we have pictured to the right of this column. The end of the first week of school, the end of endless hours of cleaning and preparation. Should there be a correlation? We are speaking to the disrespectful and irresponsible members of Student Association, who completely ignore rules, and abuse student-owned-and-managed facilities. Student Union Board cannot follow you through the Student Union with a banner, conveying similar requests to that displayed in the Union this week. Campus Commission cannot enforce its rules either when so many students are negligent. Is it necessary for the Snack Bar to increase its prices in order to augment its staff so that the Union may be adequately cleaned each evening? Is it necessary for Campus Commission to close the Commons at such an early date? We think not, but it will depend upon your conduct.

Grinding Machinery . . .

Resulting from Student Council's initial meeting Wednesday evening which we feel will have future significance . . . the establishment of a permanent Better Government Committee . . . a Leadership Conference scheduled for this semester. It looks like this year's assemblies will not be barren of constitutionally-conscious students, still trying to solve the problems of compulsory assemblies, and attempting to find a more suitable form of student government. Will anything be accomplished? This year we feel there will, if only constitutional amendments. As for the Leadership Conference, an idea conceived and realized last spring, the benefits are not quite as evident, but they are present. Informed and co-operating leaders and administration heads will lead school organizations to increased harmony, a much-needed improvement. It is interesting to note that Student Council has informed Men's Athletic Association that it has until the latter part of November to prepare the mandatory inventory requested by Student Association last year. This should reduce the annually repetitious above-average loss in equipment connected with this organization, operating under the SA budget.

State vs State . . .

How compulsory is Compulsory Insurance? What happens if you do not pay the insurance fee and do not have any other policy? If you have such questions in mind, bring them to the Compulsory Assembly this morning. Questions relative to the legality of the insurance-coverage change, the possibility of the return of the prescription coverage, can only be answered by Mr. Kapner, so avail yourself of the opportunity to question the insurance company representative.

Common-States

By JOHN POLL and QUICK

ANONYMITY . . .

They started during the summer. Then, instead of subsiding when school began, they grew. And as they grew they became dirtier and more "choice." What? You don't know what we're talking about? Well then you haven't been associating with some of our more immature and inconsiderate friends. We're speaking of those people who approach you with a confiding smile and a vibrating jaw. "Now don't tell a soul . . . but have you seen . . . lately???" They say that . . . Get wise brothers and sisters. It may prove only to be an interesting moment or two for you, but it might mar a college career for someone else!!

BETA IOTA DELTA

Wow!! . . . talk about your social intercourse. Don't know about you, but we've never seen so many friendly upperclassmen . . . Must be a lean year in Greece.

INQUIRING REPORTER . . .

Out of the night they came . . . Where did they come from . . . Who's responsible for them . . . Who said they should and could be where they are . . . Hmm? Anyhow, who wants lung cancer? Smoke a pipe!

TIME FLIES . . .

It really makes you look for the wrinkles and gray hairs when you notice the same faces who, just a short while ago, were wearing the little green and white beanies, and are now trooping to Milne and off campus, all slicked up in their Sunday best. But again this year we are faced with the same, deep psychological dilemma: Why are the Milne students less susceptible to woolen jerseys than to sweaters?

CASH IN . . .

"Hey, why do we pay that $20.50 Dormitory Authority Fee?" That's a question frequently heard around the campus. Well, we'll clue ya . . . Part of it goes into the maintenance of the ping-pong tables in the Union, which outsiders are monopolizing again this year.

HERE IT COMES AGAIN . . .

Have you heard of the preferential voting system?? Hmm???. Today being the first day of assembly reminds us that, according to age-old tradition and schedule, that sporadic subject is due . . . O'mon, you future teachers, there must be a better pedagogical technique . . . After all, 13 heads are better than one.

POSSIBILITIES . . .

According to our favorite crystal ball, the plans for this year's student government may include the setting up of a permanent constitution revision committee and the definite maintaining of compulsory assemblies. Tell us more, Swam!, these both sound like good ideas.

EYE-SORE . . .

The year is young, but the lounges at Bru have that "end-of-the-year" look. Why? Weren't they cleaned during the summer? Or, have State students forgotten that the lounges are for their use, not misuse.

HOW ABOUT THAT . . .

We all agree that the prices in the Union are very reasonable . . . Only the prices aren't going to remain at this reasonable level if the customers don't start taking back their dishes, and don't begin taking care of the utensils. The word is out from Student Union Board.

ASSEMBLY . . .

All we want are the facts! Where are you going to be between 10 and 10:50 today? If you're going to be in Page, you can expect to see the first assembly of the year. If you're going to read the paper there, DON'T! Pay attention to student government!

PLAUDITS TO . . .

Sue Barnhart for one of the best-organized All-College Receptions we've ever seen. The show was good; the frosh talent is something to watch; and a fine evening was had by all.

Religious Clubs Announce Plans For Weekend

The Religious Clubs' activities for the coming weekend include a barbecue and vesper services. The Newman Club has scheduled a barbecue for Sunday. The barbecue will be on the back lawn of the Newman Hall grounds. A contribution of fifty cents will be asked of members attending the outing, reports Catherine McCann '56, President.

Newman Club meetings are held every other Thursday evening at Newman Hall on Madison Avenue. Club functions include lectures, discussion study groups, corporate communions, a retreat, Holy Hour services, and varied social activities. The Student Christian Association will hold vesper Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. in the Unitarian Church on Western Avenue. Everyone is welcome.

SCA offers timely discussions led by local clergymen, supper meetings for discussions about personal faith and Bible study, opportunities to hear outstanding speakers, weekly chapels, and community service.

SPO Asks Names Of Late Registrars

Those students who did not have their picture taken for their Student Activity Card, in Room 111 during registration do not have their names on file, according to Ronald Koster '55. These students should report to the Student Personnel Office, Draper 110 and give their name as not having their pictures taken, so that a complete list may be compiled.

These pictures of the late registrars will be taken after the Student Activity Cards have been released, so that the pictures that will have to be retaken or pictures that did not turn out may be taken at that time.

You' Too Can Have Class

In case you haven't been scooped, all those characters you've seen strutting around the corridors wearing white shirts and ties aren't Frosh who missed the boat to Harvard. No indeed. And just because you see girls in heels and nylons, don't think they're unapproachably wealthy.

They're just Student Teachers in their, ahem, professional attire. And you should just see them clad in dirty sweat-shirts slaving at lesson plans over their beat up typewriters. Ha, that's a switch.

Yes, there comes a time in every Senior's life when Milne beckons. For about a hundred Class of '56ers, last week was it. For sixteen weeks they'll be lost in a fog of audio-visual aids, disciplinary techniques and late slips.

So, enjoy informally while you may. You too can, and may, become a Senior someday.

Radio Guild Begins Fall V.A. Program

Members of the New York State College Radio Guild have begun a series of programs at the Veterans Administration Hospital announces Nancy Feder '55, President. Mary Knight '57 did the first show yesterday over the hospital radio system.

All freshmen who are interested in working for Radio Guild are urged to sign up on the Radio Guild sheet on Activities Day. The Guild was established to present radio programs as a means of informing the public of the work of the College and its organizations and to offer students an opportunity for radio experience.

Commuters Club Plans Reception For Freshmen

A reception will be held by Commuters Club for both freshmen and transfer students on Wednesday, from 3 to 5 p.m. in the upper lounge of Brubacher Hall. All freshmen and transfer students are invited, announces Nancy Gade '57, Vice-president.

Serving on the committee handling the details of the reception are Norma Barney '56, publicity; Joan Gade, program; Sophomore Jane Whitehurst '56, will be Mistress of Ceremonies for the entertainment which will feature acts by Elaine Swarthout, Anne Ferrisli, and Jay Gorham.

The purpose of Commuters Club is to gain greater united representation for those members of the student body who commute daily. At present, the club sponsors many activities, among which are a newspaper and a Soc-Hop.

The present officers of the club are: President, Mary McCann '55; Vice-president, Nancy Gade '57; Secretary, Joan Rendert '57; Treasurer, Helen Cassavagh '57; Publicity Director, Norma Barney '56.

Students May Obtain Freshmen Handbooks

Any upperclassman who would like to obtain a copy of this year's Freshman Handbook may obtain one at 2 p.m. today or next week from 9 to 4 p.m. in Lower Husted or Draper.

Student Tax Cards from last year must be presented by upperclassmen who wish to own one of the copies. Freshmen who did not obtain their copies may have one also.

The Editor-in-Chief for the present handbook is Barbara Manlow '56. The handbook is published annually as a guide for incoming freshmen.

Directory Work To Begin Soon College Opens Applications For Fulbright Grants

Assignments for work on the State College Directory will be made at a meeting tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. in a Brubacher activity room, reports Ann Dvorak '55, Editor.

All those students who are interested in working on this year's publication and are unable to attend the meeting should contact Miss Dvorak through Student Mail. At this meeting work on this year's publication will begin. The Directory contains the names, the college and home addresses and telephone numbers of all State College students and faculty.

Students are needed for typing, proofreading, and art work. Sign up sheets are posted on the bulletin board in lower Husted and the Student Council bulletin board on the first floor of Husted. Volunteers are also requested for cover designing of the Directory.

Library Plans Student Exhibits

The College Library is planning a schedule of exhibits for the semester. The librarians will welcome any material owned by faculty and students that may be used for display purposes. If anyone has any material and is willing to have it displayed in a locked case for two or three weeks, they may speak to Mrs. Motliser or Miss Hastings in the library.

Suggested materials are: interesting hobby collections, material acquired on trips to foreign countries and materials of seasonal interest. Requests for exhibits in connection with course units or for special occasions will be considered. These exhibits may be arranged by faculty members, students or librarians, depending upon the wishes of the exhibition.

Students To Receive Tuition And Expenses

Applications for Fulbright Scholarships for foreign study are now being accepted in Room 339 Draper Annex, announces Dr. Munro, Assistant Professor of Modern Languages. All applications must be in before October 15.

All students applying for scholarships must have received their A. B. degree by June of 1955.

The awards will enable students in all fields of graduate work and those with specialized research projects to study in foreign institutions and universities under renowned professors and specialists. There are openings for studies in many countries of Asia, Europe and South America. Grants are also available to students with records of accomplishment in such fields as music, art, architecture and drama.

The grants are made under Public Law 584, 79th Congress, the Fulbright Act, which authorized the Department of State to use certain foreign currencies and credits acquired through the sale of surplus property. Grants are normally made for one academic year and generally include round trip transportation, tuition or a stipend, a living allowance and a small amount for necessary books and equipment. All grants under the act are made in foreign currencies.

In the past many professors of the New York State College for Teachers faculty have received these awards and have studied abroad. Last year Elizabeth Hunter '54 received a scholarship to study in Italy during the present academic year.

Debate Council Plans Reception

Debate Council will hold a reception for freshmen Wednesday at Brubacher in the Upper Lounge from 7:30 to 9 p.m., announces Phyllis Bialow '56, President. This year's topic and schedule, and last year's highlights will be discussed. All freshmen interested in debate are invited to attend.

Eight students have been pledged to Tau Kappa Alpha, National Honorary Forensic society, according to Paul Salmood, Graduate, President. The new pledges who have participated in inter-collegiate debate, discussion, or public speaking include: Jean Morris '55, Barbara Salvatore and Phyllis Lyeth, Juniors; Audrey Schmidt, Dick Clifford, Rita Cohen, Emelle Vavra, Sophomores.

Five of the June graduates who were Tau Kappa Alpha members were awarded fellowships for graduate study: James Thompson received a grant from Drew Theological Seminary. Edward Lehman received an $800 fellowship at Cornell University, and Marvin Chernoff and Sylvia Semmler were awarded teaching fellowships at the University of Iowa. The other Tau Kappa Alphas who graduated in June will handle debate in the schools this fall: Gloria Migliore at Mohawk Central School; JoAnne Doyle in Schenectady; and Paul Salmood at Milne, while he is completing his Master's degree.

For the benefit of the frosh, we will reprint an article from the Vermont Junior College News that appeared last year.

I love the paper I think it's swell The day it comes out I run pell meil To get my copy Around each one line The stories and columns I think are fine; I laugh at the jokes, I read all the ads, I note all the news, I take in all the lads, When I praise the paper I scorn those who laugh, I'm really loyal, I'm on the staff.

The following is an excerpt from the Grand Rapids Press:

"Three small managers of chicken farms in Soviet Russia were being questioned by a tough commissar.

"What do you feed your chickens?" he asked the first.

"Corn," the manager replied.

"You're under arrest; we use corn feed people," snapped the commissar.

The second overheard this conversation so he tried to play safe when the commissar asked him the same thing. "Corn bushes," he said.

"You're under arrest; we use the bushes to make cloth," said the commissar.

"And you?" he asked, turning to the third manager.

"I give my chickens the money and tell them to go out and buy their own food," he explained.

Beckwith said that a joint meeting of Student Council, Student Board of Finance, the Administration, and Mr. Gelbond would be held to determine policy concerning financial authority. The meeting was set for the last week of October.

It was suggested that a permanent committee be appointed to study the SA Constitution for clarification of certain passages, and other improvements. The committee is to be elected at the next Council meeting.

Thomas Dixon '55 moved that the Leadership Conference be held between the Thanksgiving and Christmas vacations. The motion was passed, and another conference was set for next spring.

Communications

To the Editor: I think the administration deserves a pat on the back for the job they did with the schedule. Although the eight o'clock classes seem at least an hour earlier than last year's eight-tens, the free periods at ten for class meetings and assembly should improve attendance at those affairs.

Concerning registration, I still had a great deal of frustration and certainly a good case of aching feet and a very sore pocketbook, but I imagine the IBM machines will be little better to carry out the necessary details more easily.

A very immediate benefit of the new schedule is the relief of the lunchroom situation. One can now get something to eat with considerably less waiting, and general commotion. In the not too distant future, however, even the staggered, lengthened, periods will not be sufficient to handle the increased enrollment. Better facilities will have to be provided.

Another peeve we have is that the only teams taking part in IM seem to be the frosh. We'd like to see more group houses and organizations come up with teams. There is still time. If we may, we'd like to suggest to the frosh to organize a football team at their next class meeting. Let the Blue Jay spirit sound off from the start!

Only through these means can the IM program fulfill its purpose and be of benefit to all.

SPORTS SHORTS: In writing last week's soccer story we inadvertently left out the name of Tito Guglielmo in the list of last year's outstanding freshmen. Tito was one of the key men in State's highly successful campaign.

With the football season starting Monday we feel pretty safe in predicting APA to retain their football championship. Many of the frat teams have been diligently practicing, and from what we have observed APA has what it takes. "What it takes" in the case of APA is the unpenetrable line which should average close to, if not over, 300 pounds. Potter Club is our pick for a close second over SLS.

We'd like to welcome Jesse Vics back to the sports staff of the News. Less Johns Arnie Newman and Dotie Rasmussen in our small circle of sports writers. At the same time we'd like to extend an invitation to any freshmen who may be interested to join us. All that is necessary is that you drop in at the Publications Office on either Tuesday or Wednesday evenings.

A reminder is given to all those interested in rivalry sports to watch the class bulletin boards for sign up sheets. One for softball has already been put up and the football as well as soccer sheets will soon appear.

Sports Desk Views Hockey, Soccer Practices Start

By JOE SWIERZOWSKI

Now that registration is complete and classes are well underway many of us may find that actually we do have spare time on our hands, whether it be two hours a day or a two hours a week. The natural tendency is to spend the time either at the Union or at the dorm "shooting the breeze." In doing so a large number of us may overlook the possibility of spending our time at a more useful recreation—that is participating in the Intramural sports program.

Everyone, regardless of whether his athletic ability is practically nil or not, should see to it that he gets the proper amount of exercise needed for maintaining good health. The IM program definitely is the answer to this need.

The MAA officials and league commissioners have worked hard to set up a varied program. Practically every sport is offered. Present fall sports include football, soccer, badminton, volleyball, tennis, and golf. Likewise new and better systems of running the leagues more smoothly have been set up. Competition, though somewhat keen, should not be an excuse for the exemption of anyone. Lack of a team to play on also need not be an alibi. IM officials will find room for anyone who wants to play but who does not have the opportunity to join any team.

Looking at the sign-up sheets in Lower Draper, we began to wonder where all the IM potential is. Male enrollment in State College five or six years ago numbered 350 yet 50 per cent of the men turned out for at least one sport. Today, with well over seven hundred men the possibilities of dropping certain IM sports is being considered because of the lack of support.

We're not advocating that everyone go actively crazy and sign up for all the sports, but rather that each individual should sign up for at least one sport—today (which incidentally is the last day for some activities).

Another peeve we have is that the only teams taking part in IM seem to be the frosh. We'd like to see more group houses and organizations come up with teams. There is still time. If we may, we'd like to suggest to the frosh to organize a football team at their next class meeting. Let the Blue Jay spirit sound off from the start!

Athletic Association Officials Appoint League Commissioners

MAA Notes

As a matter of interest this week, we would like to publish a list of rules governing the general conduct and responsibilities of the Commissioner or league manager of Intramural activities. The Captains and Assistant Commissioner also have assisted duties and we would like to have them stated herewith.

The Commissioner of Intramural leagues shall:

1. Organize the league
2. Prepare a schedule of games
3. Set down decisions in disputes upon the recommendation of the protest board.
4. Set up championships.
5. Give weekly reports to MAA and keep team records.
6. Provide for an election of a new assistant commissioner at the end of the intramural season.

The commissioner also has the duties to make the captains of each intramural team responsible for:

1. Roster and roster changes 24 hours prior to the actual games.
2. Outlining the playing field upon the designated day of play and providing for referees for the game.

The General Manager of the League (also known as the Assistant Commissioner of the League) shall:

1. Make certain each team has a manager who turns in a record to him of each man who has played.
2. Check out and check in all equipment from the locker in the locker room.

In addition, MAA also states that both commissioners are responsible for a written report at the end of the season containing a record of what Frosh Frolic is, where it will be and what it will feature, keep an eye on the bulletin board and your State College News.

Another peeve we have is that the only teams taking part in IM seem to be the frosh. We'd like to see more group houses and organizations come up with teams. There is still time. Soccer Returnees Form Nucleus Of Potentially Outstanding Team

He is a graduate of Homer Central School where he played soccer and basketball for 4 years and ran track for 3 years. As a freshman at Champlain College, he played soccer, and after transferring last year, played soccer for State. Last year he was chosen first string center halfback on the All State squad in addition to making the second string of the All America team. He is almost certain to be one of the bulwarks of this year's team.

Al "Rocky" Roeklein, a Sophomore, 18 years old, 5 feet 10 inches, 175 pounds, was one of the freshman standouts on last year's team. Al is a native of Mastie Beach, L. I., and attended Center Moriches High School where he was a most versatile athlete. He ran cross-country and track for 3 years, and played soccer, basketball and baseball for 2 years. Last year he won Honorable Mention on the All State squad as a center forward, and will probably play on the forward line of this year's team.

Bill Lindberg and Don Canonica, both seniors, are co-captains of this year's team. Bill is 21 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall, and weighs 150 pounds. He hails from He'er Central School where he played for 4 years on the soccer, basketball, and Champlain College for two years during which time he played on the soccer and basketball teams. He transferred to State. Last year, Bill was named as first string left halfback on the State team, and also gained honorable mention on the All America soccer team. Don is 20 years old, stands 5 feet 11 inches tall and weighs 185 pounds. He attended Mechanicville High School where he played football for 3 years, basketball for 2 years, and baseball for 2 years. He has played soccer for State during the past 2 years and is expected to bolster this year's defense playing in one of the full-back slots.

A reminder is given to all those interested in rivalry sports to watch the class bulletin boards for sign up sheets. One for softball has already been put up and the football as well as soccer sheets will soon appear.

Widely Varied Sports Program Outlined To Intramural Athletes

At a meeting of Men's Athletic Association held Tuesday night, President Thomas Hogue outlined a widely varied program of Intramural Sports. The names of the various league commissioners were named for the fall program which is due to get underway beginning next week.

The number one sport on the program will be the touch football league. At the time of publication Commissioner Robert Strauber announced that six teams had signed to participate. Heading the list were the four fraternity teams: Alpha Pi Alpha, Sigma Lambda, Sigma, Potter Club, and Kappa Beta. The other two are: Thurlow Hall and the "69ers." The gridiron sport is slated to get under way Monday, September 27, at 4:15 p.m.

Strauber likewise announced that an eight schedule would be drawn up to permit any such team who may wish to join. To assist Strauber MAA officials have chosen Ramond Castillo, a Sophomore. Next year Castillo will succeed Strauber and a new assistant commissioner will be chosen to fill the spot of Castillo. This is a new system designed by MAA leaders to give loop commissioners experience in handling the job.

Another sport slated to get underway will be golf. An eighteen hole tournament has been mapped out by Commissioner Raymond Milnarik. The tourney is scheduled to be played on the public links.

Walton Whitson, Volleyball Commissioner, has called a meeting for all team captains for Tuesday evening, September 28. Provided the weatherman cooperates, Walt has stated that the tourney will be a double elimination affair to be played on Page Field. Whitson also wishes to make clear that this is not the regular volleyball league. The league itself will be run off as an indoor winter sport.

Stark Heads Tennis

Another loop leader that must rely on the cooperation of the Albany Weather Bureau is David Stark, who will head the tennis tourney. Both singles and doubles tournaments are offered. The site of these matches will be the courts of Washington Park.

Taking a stab at a new Intramural activity, the MAA advisers have augmented their program with soccer. The sport which has fared so well as a varsity sport is under the direction of Donald Canonica, a co-captain of the Varsity footers.

To round out the slate of games badminton is also planned. Heading the shuttlecock game will be the empty bleachers in workouts, nevertheless, becomes apparent when the Peds make their entrance into the games. Their shouts echoing through the bandbox of Page Field do much to raise that much heard of "spirit" on the team. It's hats off to these girls appointed to look further into the idea.

'News' Opens 'Primer' Releases Meeting Date

Freshmen interested in working on the State College News are requested by Ronald Lackey '55, Editor-in-Chief, to report to Brubacher Activity Room 8, Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Upperclassmen who are also desirous of working on the News, especially Sophomores, are urged to attend this same meeting.

In order to begin work on this college publication, it is required that students attend a series of cub classes, taught by Evelyn Ruben '55, Managing Editor. During these meetings students learn styles of publication and various phases of newspaper work. Initiative and a sense of responsibility are the only two essential requirements, states Miss Ruben.

Working on the News expands the students' knowledge of factual and creative writing, thus improving their ability to write formally. Work on the News will also enable students to advise.

The Primer staff will hold a meeting Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in one of the Brubacher activity rooms states Bertram Sackman '55, Editor.

All persons, including freshmen, who are interested in working on Primer are urged to attend this meeting and sign up for one of the three Primer staffs. The three staffs are: literary, art and business.

The Primer annually publishes the student creative writing including the short story, verse and essays. It also prints illustrations drawn by student artists. All members of the State College student body are invited to contribute their literary work for publication.

The purpose of Primer is to encourage the creative talent of students and to issue a publication that will record the literary and artistic achievement of State College. It also offers students an opportunity to become familiar with style and make-up of a literary publication.

Poor Cooperation May Break 'Ped', Studio Contract

Koster Urges Students To Make Appointments

The Sargent Studios, Photographers of the 1955 Pedagogue, have announced that the students have broken their contract with them by not showing up to have their pictures taken. The students of State College are guilty in this matter and as a result have forced upon the photographers this sudden announcement. Only two-thirds of the students who signed up to be photographed have done so. Unless more students do get photographed the Studios will leave as of tomorrow.

Seniors, Honoraries, Sororities and Fraternities have been guilty of signing up for a period of time and not showing up for the period that was reserved especially for them.

Ronald Koster '54, Editor-in-Chief was able to get a minimum of eight proofs for a two dollar fee because of the arrangement of having thirty people photographed a day.

Thirty people have signed up but only twenty people have arrived to be photographed per day. The president of the corporation (Sargent Studios) is threatening to relieve Pedagogue of the photographer as of tomorrow.

Anyone who has signed up for this week is reminded to show up for his appointments and to ask other people who haven't signed, to come, in case someone doesn't show up. They might fit into the schedule.

If enough students do not sign up, the photographer will leave tomorrow and break the contract. A new photographer, at this time of the year, will charge three to four dollars per sitting for only three or four proofs.

If all the people show up as they are supposed to between today and tomorrow.

Editor Releases 'Directory' Lists

Lists as they will appear in the State College Directory will be posted Monday, states Ann Dvorak '55, Editor. Typing will begin October 9. A complete list of all names that are to be printed in the Directory will be posted on the Student Association Bulletin Board in Husted and the Directory Bulletin Board in Lower Husted near the Cafeteria. Students are urged to check these lists for correct spelling of their name, home address, college address, class and college telephone number, according to Miss Dvorak.

Typing will begin October 9 in the Publications Office in Brubacher. Anyone interested in typing the "final" lists to be published in the Directory should contact Miss Dvorak by Student Mail.

Those interested in designing the cover for this year's book, should contact Miss Dvorak for complete information.

TPB Requests Seniors To Register Promptly

All students who will graduate in January 1955, and who wish to obtain teaching jobs starting then are urged to register with the Teacher Placement Bureau.

The Teacher Placement Office requests that Seniors graduating in January register with them between October 4 and October 15. Those students graduating in June will be given the opportunity to register during the month of November for teaching positions starting next September.

Past - Your - Eyes Milk For Peds

A new cow has been grazing outside the Commons for a week. It has been milking thirsty students every day.

More mothers recommend their brand. But who's going to recommend a satisfactory method of making the machine work? As much as thirty cents has been spent in futile attempts to taste the nectar of an orange.

Good fortune struck for one out of a hundred when the machine said "fill" and paid off for two milks for the price of a half.

The cow seems to conveniently run dry when money is deposited. Perhaps it hasn't been introduced to Mr. IBM, the most important man on the campus.

If everyone has to continue nudging the machine, it will start spurring milk shakes and orange fizz.

Religious Clubs Release Plans

The Student Christian Association, Christian Science Organization, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship and Newman Club have announced plans for the following week.

SCA will hold its second Vesper Service Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the Unitarian Church on Washington Avenue, directly across from New Draper. These services will be continued throughout the year.

The same group will hold a meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Brubacher Hall. They have extended an invitation to anyone interested.

The Christian Science Organization has announced that Willard Reitz '55 and Marjorie Jelley '57 will act as Co-Chairmen of the CSO booth for Activities Day.

On Tuesday, October 12, the CSO will elect officers from the list of nominees selected at a recent meeting.

The IVCF has scheduled a meeting for Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Brubacher Hall. Discussion and plans for the fall conference to be held at Camp Pinnacle in the Heldebergs will be continued. The camp, which is scheduled for October 8-10, will be attended by any student of State College. Miss Dorothy Farmer, a staff worker for IVCF, will talk on the camp.

Daily prayer meetings will be scheduled as soon as a worship center can be set up, announces Ann Kammer '56, President. She states:

Foreign Film Group Will Present Movie

Thursday, October 7, the International Film Group will present at 7:30 in Draper 349 its second film of the semester, "Kameradschaft." Directed by G. W. Pabst, this German film with English subtitles depicts the famous mining disaster on the French-German border a few years after the First World War. The film portrays the German miners coming to the aid of their one-time enemies, the French, in a realistic study of international relations. It denounces the "fatality of impulse" which makes men erect fences against their brothers. Season tickets can still be purchased from Miss Hanna Wilfert, '56, for the remaining five films. The season ticket is $1.50; single admission is only 50c.

The main purpose of the group is to bring to State College films of interest to entertain, but to introduce a better appreciation of the technique and art of cinema.

Activity Cards To Arrive Soon

Student Activity Cards will be handed out next week due to a delay in photography. Extra pictures of freshmen for the Administration has caused some delay. Notices will be posted as to when the cards will be released. Cards for upperclassmen will be out early next week. It is hoped that all cards will be out by the end of next week.

According to Nan McEvoy '55, the distribution of the cards will be undertaken by Student Board of Finance. Members of Student Board of Finance will distribute the cards in the Rotunda. All students must present their Student Receipt Card. It will be impossible to obtain them without the Student Receipt Card.

Those students who did not have their picture taken for their Student Activity Card, in Room 111 during registration do not have their names on file, according to Ronald Koster '55. These students should report to the Student Personnel Office, Draper 110 and give their name as not having their pictures taken, so that a complete list may be compiled.

These pictures of the late registrars will be taken after the Student Activity Cards have been released, so that the pictures that will have to be retaken or pictures that did not turn out may be taken at that time.
