Colleagues,

Apropos of David Wills' e-mail which I forwarded earlier this morning, I am also forwarding to you an e-mail that I sent to Jim Collins, regarding his column in the recent UUP newsletter. Those of you on the SEC last year will be familiar with these documents, but those who are new may not be.

Because these are actionable items, we are obligated by the Bylaws to put them on the agenda for 2/6/12. Doing so without SEC discussion will violate the Charter, but because the Bylaws and Charter are at odds about this I see no easy solution (maybe Josh can chime in here?). That said, I welcome discussion by e-mail over the weekend about these resolutions. I think it would be helpful on the Senate floor for the SEC to have considered the content ahead of time.

Subject: Senate Response to Program Deactivation

Dear Jim,

I read your article in the UUP Newsletter today, and wanted to make a correction. In the article, you write that "the University Senate....[was] supposed to be consulted on any program deactivations and flagrantly [was] not last year." Contrary to popular belief, though, the Senate WAS consulted. Below and attached is the e-mail sent out to the entire senate last year in response to the memo from the President of October 1. There were a few reports that came in late (after November 10), so they are separate. I'm also attaching the memo itself, and the minutes from the November 15, 2010 Senate meeting.

Consultation with the faculty happened over a long timeline, beginning with the Budget Advisory Groups, as I outlined in the GOV memo (part of the attached Senate summary). In his October 1 memo, the President wrote, "I am writing to invite the University Senate to comment on the academic component of my campus financial plan....I would appreciate receiving your comments by November 19, 2010." The Senate, thus being consulted, responded by various Council reports (also attached here).

These are all public documents, so feel free to forward them.

Sincerely,

Susanna Fessler
