When the game has gone against you,
And your back is to the wall;
When the luck has simply left you,
And your pride seems like to fall;
Though defeat appears quite certain,
And at heart you're feeling sick -
Don't despair - fight to the finish;
Stick it out, lad, always stick.

When the clouds ~~loom down~~ and cheerless,
And you're scorned, discouraged, crossed;
When the future seems quite hopeless,
And you fear your cause is lost -
Don't be tempted then to falter -
Fate oft plays this scurvy trick;
Stick it out and win - keep smiling -
Don't give in, lad, always stick.

MARTIN CREESY ELECTED HEAD OF STUDENT COUNCIL TRAFFIC CLUBS

The most important news of interest to the Junior High is that five students with Martin Creesy at the head have been elected to keep order in the cafeteria. These people were voted to do this by the members of the Council and went on duty last Monday. The members are Dick Selkirk, Gordon Robinson, Martin Creesy, Donnor Atwood, and Mary Winhurst. The penalty for disobeying orders has not as yet been decided, but it will be severe, according to Mr. Creesy.

ANNUAL ANTICS TO BE HELD TONIGHT IN PAGE HALL GYM

This evening at 7:30 o'clock the Sixth Annual Antics will be held in the Page Hall gym. Annual Antics is presented by the Milne High girls under the direction of Miss Hitchcock. It represents the progress made by them. Tickets at $.25 may be purchased at the door, or from any girl who takes part. Miss Hitchcock expects a large attendance.

The program will start with a grand march in which all the basketball pupils will take part. This will be followed by several dances by the Senior High girls, tumbling and apparatus by the seventh grade and Senior High. The juniors and seniors will play a basketball game which will determine which class will hold the championship. The captain of the winning team will be presented with a silver cup. An unusual feature of the Antics will be a game of Badminton which will be played between two Senior High School girls. Badminton has been taken up this year for the first time. It is a game similar to tennis, in which a feathered cork is driven over a net with a light racket.

Miss Hitchcock desires a large attendance, and urges every girl to sell as many tickets as she can. Members of the Girls' Athletic Club will act as ushers and program "giver outers."

MILNE DEFEATS STRONG UPSTATE TEAM

Milne defeated Peru, a strong upstate rival, in a hard-fought game Friday, March 1, by a score of 21-14. Milne led at the half by a scant margin of 7-6 but in the second half Milne speeded up and scored 7 baskets, thus giving them their victory margin. McHarg was high scorer with 9 points, followed by Rosenstein with 6. Those who played were: McHarg, Blocksidge, Simmons, Norvell, and Rosenstein. This was Milne's seventh victory against one defeat, losing only to Troy Country Day School. It was also Milne's fourth consecutive victory.

Tomorrow night Milne will play the last game on this season's schedule. It will be with Cobleskill High School at Cobleskill.

TIME FOR ANNUAL ANTICS

Another year has rolled around and it is once more time for Annual Antics. It was a great success last year and should be the same this year. Miss Hitchcock has already distributed tickets among the girls who are doing their part to make this annual fete a success.

It is not only up to the girls to support the Annual Antics. Every boy with any school spirit will be willing and glad to help to put the affair over with a "bang." The girls have given their whole-hearted support to the basketball teams this season. The boys will be "pikers" if they do not in their turn help out.

FIE! FIE!

Today we had an examination;
(Our knowledge had long passed us by.)
We sat and chewed and sucked our pencils,
While the teachers cried, "Fie, fie!"

We wished we had paid more attention.
We wished our thought were not so shy.
We sat and tried to ask our neighbors,
But then the teachers cried, "Fie, fie!"

We yawned and stretched and tried to think,
But still our thoughts would not come nigh.
And when the teachers took our papers,
We clung to them; they said, "Fie, fie!"

When we get our papers Monday
You'll hear a deep and heavy sigh.
We wonder if, when parents see them,
They'll look at us and say, "Fie, fie!"

STOOGES OR STOOGES-MASTER?

Are you a "stooge" or a "stooges-master"? You must be one or the other or you will find yourself decidedly behind the times in the Junior High. It is a common sight to see some poor under stooge carrying three huge stacks of books. However, under the rules of the S.R.A., a person may have no more than two stooges. Some prefer to have only one as the one is then subject to more "bossing" from his stooge master.

A few have developed the clever trick of being each other's stooges. In that case no pay is involved which is not such a bad idea at that. If you would like to start in on the stooge idea, today you may find a list of rules and regulations on the Junior High bulletin board.

If you would like an example of the perfect stooge and his master, let us cite Wilson Hume and his master, Betty Douglas. For his ten cents a week he sharpens pencils, carries books and does every other duty required of an ideal stooge.

ANSWERS TO BRAIN TEASERS

1. The letter "E."
2. Daughter.

READ "TISH" FOR A LAUGH

Did you ever read "Tish" by Mary Roberts Rinehart? You can find this book in the Milne library, but, if you read it there, you will disturb the other students with your chuckles. Yes, you're bound to laugh at the antics of Tish, who is a tomboy at fifty, and her friend. Those two grown-up children get into more mischief than you ever did when you were five years old. It's a grand book to drive away old man gloom with and one that every student in Milne High School will enjoy.

The sequel to it, "More Tish," by the same author, may also be found in the Milne library.

Mary: Who is the champion light-weight in our town, Mother?
Mamma: My grocer.

"I am banking on you," the farmer said as he hilled up his potatoes.

A person old enough to know better, on seeing a sign post which said, "This will take you to Albany," sat on it. After two hours of sitting, he said, "I wonder when it's going to start."
