McGinnis Backs Big CSEA Correction Officers' Program

ALBANY — The State Commissioner of Correction threw his support behind several key issues proposed at a recent meeting with the Special Correction Officers' Committee of the Civil Service Employees Assn. in Albany.

The meeting was also attended by Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, CSEA president, and members of the CSEA staff.

One of the main items supported by Commissioner Paul D. McGinnis was a request by CSEA for the three-grade reallocation of uniformed Correction Officers.

Other agenda items taken up and the commissioner's feeling on them were:

RECRUITMENT of Spanish-speaking officers to deal with the large Spanish-speaking inmate population at the various institutions. McGinnis said adjustments in the height and weight requirements for Correction Officers was made necessary because most Puerto Ricans were small in stature and could not meet the former requirements. The commissioner said that there are 30 positions for Spanish-speaking officers which will be distributed throughout the State. McGinnis noted, however, that applicants for these positions must pass the same written test as other entrants and also must take a qualifying oral test in which he must demonstrate his ability to speak Spanish.

DETERMINATION on appeal for food service manager and supervisors. The Commissioner stated the appeal was still pending.

CASH PAYMENT for overtime. McGinnis agreed there was a need for change in the overtime law and rules, but noted that there was nothing the Department could do because overtime fell within the realm of the Division of the Budget. He did say, however, that if time off is to be granted in lieu of overtime, then it should be on a time and a half basis. Committee members also brought up the question of supervisors arbitrarily assigning overtime. McGinnis said that overtime should first be offered on a voluntary basis and that the department would take steps to rectify the unfair distribution of overtime.

IMPROVE Correction Officers' 25-year retirement plan. The Department advised that it fully supported CSEA's sponsored legislation which would give the 1/60th pension credit for each year of service beyond 25 years.

PROVIDE A uniform allowance of $150. The Department said that it had requested this amount but the figure was reduced to $100 by the Division of the Budget.

HAVE ALL civilian titles in Department be preceded by word "Correction." The Department said that this system did not work out well in the past and this would not reconsider reinstating it.

UPDATE employees rule book. The Department said the book would be updated by early summer.

FURNISH copies of applicable correction and penal law to all employees. The Commissioner agreed to distribute new sections of the Penal and Criminal Code applicable to Correction Department to each institution.

REQUEST for survey to determine a reclassification of cooks. The Department agreed to send a

CSEA Attacks Plan To Move Comm. For Blind To Albany

A planned move of the State Commission for the Blind and Visually Handicapped, ordered for Jan. 1, 1969 by the State Social Services Department, has come under sharp attack from the Civil Service Employees Assn. and several other interested organizations.

Stating emphatically that the contemplated move from offices at 15 Park Row to Albany was "not in the interests of the blind and handicapped persons affected," a CSEA spokesman said last week that the organization had demanded Social Service Commissioner George K. Wyman "immediately rescind the order and meet at once with all interested and affected persons and parties on the issue."

A spokesman for the New York City chapter of the Employees Assn., which has led the fight against the agency transfer, said the board members of the Commissioner for the Blind, the statewide Empire State Assn. for the Blind and a number of specialized community organizations who help these afflicted persons are all against the move.

What particularly irks CSEA people is that the move apparently was decided upon without any prior consultation with staff or the parties and persons concerned. Some 6 staff positions could be affected by any possible move.

The New York City chapter action has the backing of the full statewide CSEA board of directors.

RFK A Major Factor To Presidential Hopes Of All Democrats

ALL the political figures and functionaries in New York State have two sides of the election apple to chew on this year. Giving food for serious thought on one hand is the fact that Hubert Horatio Humphrey, the latest contender for the Democratic Presidential sweepstakes, has, in a very short time, been raising unexpected, huge financing in New York and showing

Ulster Legislator Blisters County For Denying CSEA Chapter Sole Representation

(Special To The Leader)

ULSTER COUNTY—"I only regret that those for whom the laws are made, in this instance the county employees, are the first to be adversely affected by the unscrupulous schemanigans of certain politicians who weigh votes rather than the rights of man."

These were the words from County Legislator Joseph Martorana, R-Lloyd, Marlboro, Plattekill, Shawangunk, stating his disapproval in the scuttling by Chairman Peter J. Savago and Majority Leader Douglas Dye, of Martorana's two resolutions which sought to recognize the Civil Service Employees Assn. for Ulster County employees.

Martorana's first resolution would have recognized the CSEA, as represented by the Ulster County Chapter, as the sole and exclusive representative and bargaining agent for county employees, provided the CSEA had submitted the necessary proof. Savago claims that the CSEA had not submitted the required proof despite the Association's claim that it had. However, Martorana continued, Savago has not formally advised the CSEA of his refusal to recognize it and neither has he responded to the CSEA's request for recognition, which was

DISCUSS CSEA BILLS — State Senator John E. Flynn right, Westchester County Republican and chairman of the Senate Civil Service Committee, discusses bills sponsored by the Civil Service Employees Assn. with Seth Towse, assistant CSEA counsel. ## Greene Connty Chapter Is Named Sole Bargainer

CATSKILL — The Greene County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. installed officers and, at the same time, celebrated the occasion of the chapter's being recognized as the exclusive bargaining agent for county employees.

The installation dinner was held April 26 at the Catskill Country Club. Henry Werker, Greene County attorney, was toastmaster for the affair. The guest speaker and installing officer was Edward J. Gusty, a CSEA collective bargaining specialist, and former field representative in the Greene County area.

Installed were Al Jeune, Greene County Memorial Hospital, president; Dorothy Ricci and Dorothea White, also hospital workers, vice-president and secretary respectively; John Stypinski, Town of Catskill Highway Department, treasurer.

Seated as members of the chapter's Bord of Directors were Theodore Walsh, Catskill School District; and Harold Yager and Charles Kerschall, Town Highway Department employees.

Jeune read the contents of the resolution adopted by the Greene County Board naming CSEA as the bargaining agent.

Gusty spoke of the need for co-operation and unity within the chapter, especially now that it has the bargaining rights.

CSEA Recognized By Fulton County; Negotiations Soon

JOHNSTON — The Fulton County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. has been recognized by the County Board of Supervisors as the bargaining agent for county employees.

The decision came at a recent special meeting of the Board, which also rejected a petition for recognition filed by the New York State Nurses Assn.

Request for recognition was voiced at the Board's last regular meeting early last month by representatives of CSEA including Richard Tarmey, a State vice-president of CSEA; Joseph J. Dolan, director of local government affairs for CSEA; Bernard Ryan, CSEA field representative and Marjorie Sammon of the county chapter. Dolan called for speedy action on CSEA's request, noting that all of the necessary evidence proving that the Employees Association was the overwhelming choice of the employees had been submitted.

Miss Sammon and Ryan represented CSEA at the special board meeting.

Contract proposals affecting county employees are now being prepared in anticipation of the start of negotiations.

Unofficial Salary Chart

An unofficial State salary schedule has been prepared by The Leader to show the effect of the 10 percent, $600 minimum raise negotiated and won by the Civil Service Employees Assn. for State workers employed as of April 1.

Some confusion has arisen among persons who have seen jobs advertised by the State which contain only a 10 percent raise. These salaries apply only to people who come to work for the State after April 1. The second chart below will show that for the lower grade employee working prior to April 1 the pay raise exceeds 10 percent.

Why The Secrecy?

A move by the State Department of Social Services to shift the Department's Commission for the Blind and Visually Disabled from New York City to Albany without any advance notice or consultation with interested parties leaves the motives of that agency open to some serious questioning.

The employees involved, the Commission's board members, private agencies in this particular field both here and throughout the State and the Civil Service Employees Assn. have protested the planned action. Particularly being protested is the fact that the decision to move allegedly was made without any open debate on the effects of such a move.

The Employees Association has asked Social Services Commissioner George K. Wyman to rescind the order and open immediate hearings on the issue. Certainly, the needs of so many handicapped people is foremost and any action affecting their well-being deserves open debate and the contributions of ideas from all interested persons and parties.

The basic question is "Why the secrecy?"

Decentralization Issues

The City's decision last week to decentralize its examining and hiring procedures is welcome evidence of a desire to improve the manner in which new City employees are sought.

The action will undoubtedly help to reduce the discouragingly long wait that now often exists between the time a person applies for a job and the time he actually begins to work.

It may also help to make the job requirements and test questions more realistic for the positions open—since employees of the agencies which have the jobs will be directly involved in writing the axsm and hiring those who pass.

However, the decentralization decision seems one based more on the limited budget of the Department or Personnel than on the reasons mentioned. The examining and hiring process appears to be one of the areas in which decentralization is not necessarily more efficient or economical.

If the decentralization can be accomplished with existing personnel, there is no doubt that an improvement will have been made in the personnel-hiring process—but perhaps a better long-range answer would be to add to the Personnel Department staff.

unexpected delegate strength throughout the nation.

Many politicians are said to have moved swiftly to Humphrey because they felt they were not in strong with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy or his two leading supporters in the state, State Democratic Committee Chairman John Burns and county leader Jack English, of Nassau. These politicians had earlier committed themselves to President Johnson rather than Senator Kennedy. After being adrift for awhile when the President announced he would not seek re-election, these men soon found a new home with Humphrey, knowing that he not only has the sponsorship of LBJ and national labor leader George Meany but also many of the country's top Senators, Congressmen and strong political State leaders.

Kennedy Holding Strong

Under the direction of John Burns and brother-in-law Stephen E. Smith, the Kennedy people are still holding strong in New York, although losing some ground with the entry of the Vice President and the persistent boring in on all levels by Sen. Eugene McCarthy. Basically, however, Kennedy can be said to control the vast majority of delegates here as of this writing and the McCarthy troops, although coming up strong, are expected to throw their support to Kennedy if the Minnesota Senator loses his bid for the spot.

Despite the dilemma this triple political choice might make for some politicians it is not really a problem for the hard core Kennedy disciples, even if Humphrey should take the nomination and the election. What is not generally known at this point is that Humphrey and Kennedy have such friendship and respect for each other that even so unexpected a thought as a Humphrey-Kennedy ticket is not as outrageous as it sounds. Should this happen, anybody who stays for Kennedy right down to the wire would be "protected" and this is particularly true for New York Democrats.

Let's assume, though, that Kennedy doesn't get the nod for either spot. Humphrey or any other Democrat desiring White House residence would seek the support of the New York Senator before that of any other top Democrat. The Senator's effectiveness as a campaigner, his capacity for attracting people, his strong personal organization, all these qualities he holds to a higher degree than any other single campaigner in either the Democratic or Republican ranks.

Kennedy's importance to the Democrats is so significant that the pros believe that if President Johnson were drafted and ran again he, too, would stop first at the Kennedy door to seek support.

Add to all this the fact that Kennedy is a man that has a deep concern for his friends and that he will still be the Democratic chieftan of New York State, no matter what happens in the Presidential sweepstakes. On the Federal level, appointments still need his approval and he can still declare a person "obnoxious" and have his Senatorial prerogative heeded. This means that Kennedy, who doesn't forget, isn't going to let anybody in New York State

Civil Service Law & You

By WILLIAM GOFFEN

TENURE STATUTES entitle the civil service employee to a hearing upon charges of incompetency or misconduct to be held by the officer having the power to remove him or by a deputy or other employee designated to conduct a hearing. The deputy or other employee is required to make a record of the hearing for referral to such officer for review and decision.

JAMES WALLACE, a patrolman of the New York City Police Department, was dismissed by the Police Commissioner after a hearing held by a deputy police commissioner or trial commissioner. The trial commissioner summarized the evidence for the Police Commissioner and made findings and recommendations which the Police Commissioner approved. He ordered Wallace's dismissal. The dismissal was ordered months before any transcript of the testimony at the hearing was transcribed.

WALLACE INSTITUTED Article 78 proceedings (Wallace v. Murphy, New York Law Journal, April 24, 1968, page 1). As the determination to be judicially reviewed was made after a hearing required by statute, Special Term directed that the case be heard initially by the Appellate Division. The Appellate Division unanimously confirmed Wallace's dismissal. In cases of unanimous confirmation by the Appellate Division, there is no automatic right to appeal to the Court of Appeals. However, that Court granted leave to appeal.

JUDGE JOHN F. Scileppi writing for the unanimous Court of Appeals noted that the statute under which Wallace was dismissed (Administrative Code of the City of New York) does not require that a stenographic record be available to the Commissioner before he makes his decision. However the Jurist held that another statute (Laws of 1940, Chapter 834, Section 1) is controlling and requires the trial commissioner designated to conduct disciplinary hearings to make a record of the hearing for referral to the Commissioner before he reaches a determination. Although the statute uses the word "record" and not "stenographic record" the legislative intention was to require a stenographic transcript of the hearing and any exhibits to be referred to the Commissioner.

IN WEEKES v. O'Connell, the stenographic record of a revocation hearing held before a "hearing commissioner" of the State Liquor Authority was not transcribed prior to revocation of the license by the Authority. As Chief Judge Stanley H. Fuld observed in the Weekes case:

The mere availability of such a record tends to guarantee independent and informed appraisal of the proofs and the contention of the parties; the summary of the hearing officers, the litigants' briefs, if any, and other secondary, fallible guides may be checked against the primary, unchangeable reference.

JUDGE SCILEPPI, in reliance upon the Weekes case, directed that the proceeding be remitted to the Police Commissioner for appraisal of the entire record. The Judge did not mandate the extent of independent study required of the Commissioner, but, in the words of the Weekes case, stated that "the extent to which independent study of the evidence in the record is necessary to required exercise of informed judgment must be left to the wisdom and practical good sense of the commissioners themselves."

PRIOR TO his hearing, Wallace was confronted with a recording of a conversation which indicated his knowledge of a ferry toll collector's solicitation and acceptance of monies above the regular fare. The gravamen of the charge against Wallace was such knowledge, not necessarily collusion. Therefore, Wallace's contentions that there was no proof of collusion between him and the toll collector, that he was entrapped, and that he was deprived of a fair hearing, were held to be without merit. Nevertheless, the fact that the law required the making of a stenographic record of the hearing further necessitated that the hearing be transcribed and made available to the Police Commissioner together with any exhibits for his appropriate consideration before reaching a determination.

who is for Kennedy get hurt.

Note: In a lesser sense, New York Republicans who prefer Gov. Rockefeller are in the same boat but Richard Nixon is unlikely to hold it against anybody here who is for Governor Rockefeller and for a very obvious reason — the good will of Governor Rockefeller is absolutely essential to Nixon should the latter win the GOP nomination. Rockefeller is still the major Republican force, not withstanding Mayor Lindsay, in New York of any consequence to Nixon's ambitions and without his support and campaign efforts, Nixon could write off the State as a loss.

No other sedan can make this statement.

"One trunk to a car" has been sedan dogma ever since sedans began.

(And why not? Isn't it obvious that a car can't have two trunks? After all, how can you add a trunk without subtracting an engine?)

Well, you know how much we worry about dogma. So our new VW Fastback Sedan not only has two good-sized trunks, but—since even a Volkswagen can't get along without an engine—an engine.

(What we did was to make the engine only 16 inches high and tuck it underneath the rear trunk.)

Of course, while our Fastback may be the first two-trunked sedan, it's still a Volkswagen.

So it can make a couple of more statements most other sedans can't make.

Gas mileage: up to 27 mpg. The price: $2179*.

But best of all, with this car what you gain in function you don't lose in style. Shut both trunks and you have a dashing little fastback.

Believers in the "one trunk to a car" dogma can call us heretics.

But at least we're good-looking heretics.

Probation Periods For New Workers Extended By City

The City Civil Service Commission has ordered a May 21 public hearing on a resolution to permit longer probation periods for new City employees.

Under existing rules, the initial probationary employment period of a new City worker—the period in which he can be removed without a full hearing—may be extended only once and for a period of six months.

The proposed plan would permit unlimited additional probationary periods, which must be renewed every six months, however.

Trainee Exam

The Department of Personnel recently gave a written exam to 479 candidates for City fingerprint technician trainee positions.

Research for Protection ... so more will live.

More than 45,000,000 Americans now living will develop cancer unless effective means of prevention are found. Only research will provide the knowledge necessary to allow saving the 50 percent for whom there is no cure at present. The American Cancer Society's national research program supports the work of hundreds of scientists who are endeavoring to learn how cancer starts, and how it can be halted, or even reversed or prevented.

- Examination of the research projects supported by the Society shows that:
- ... scientists are probing the biological and chemical processes that underlie cancer.
  - ... the two established methods of curing cancer — surgery and radiation — are being constantly improved.
  - ... new methods for certain detection of cancer are being sought.
  - ... an intensive drive is being conducted to find a chemical effective against cancer.

When will the final conquest of cancer come? No one can tell. But it will come.

Your support of the American Cancer Society's program through a voluntary contribution will hasten the day when all of us may be protected from this killer. Support their campaign this month.

Benefits for Protection ... so more will be secure.

More than 813,000 state and local government employees and their dependents are enrolled in the New York State program for health insurance. All have the unique benefits of Blue Cross. Over 83.5% selected the STATEWIDE PLAN: Blue Cross-Blue Shield-Metropolitan Major Medical.

Why such overwhelming preference for the STATEWIDE PLAN? One important reason is that the Statewide Plan is backed by the pioneers in hospitalization and medical protection (Blue Cross-Blue Shield).

In addition to the broader basic benefits of Blue Cross and Blue Shield, there is the additional protection of a realistic Major Medical which protects against the day-to-day expenses of medical care, such as home and office visits, drugs, nursing, etc. in or out of the hospital.

Another important reason is that the Statewide Plan is tailored to the needs of public service employees.

P.O. Has Summer Jobs For 15,500 Young People

Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson has announced that an estimated 15,500 young people will be offered post office jobs this Summer as part of the effort to provide employment for the disadvantaged.

Seasonal employment, under President Johnson's Youth Opportunity Campaign, will be made available to individuals between the ages of 16 and 21.

Post office jobs will go to youngsters from low-income families—those eligible to receive financial assistance under a public welfare program or those whose income is below standards established by the Bureau of Employment Security of the Department of Labor.

"We are proud to participate in the President's campaign to provide employment for young people who want it and need it," Postmaster General Watson said.

"Besides pay, post office jobs will offer these youngsters valuable work experience as well as an insight to career opportunities in the postal service."

In addition to the Youth Opportunity hiring, another 5,000 to 7,500 summer appointments will be made from the register of those who passed the special civil service examination earlier this year. No written tests are required for those who are employed under the Youth Opportunity Campaign.

State Employment Services will refer all applicants for Youth Opportunity jobs, and interested persons may apply at any State or local office affiliated with United States Employment Service.

Increased employment of women, particularly in professional, scientific, and executive fields, is an economic necessity, according to John W. Macy, Jr., chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

Addressing a meeting of the Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services (DACOWITS) at the Mayflower Hotel, chairman Macy emphasized that advancing the employment status of women is a matter of vital concern not only to the Federal civil service but to the Nation as a whole.

Macy described some of the measures now being taken under the Civil Service Commission's Federal Women's Program to establish true equality of opportunity for women in appointment, training, and advancement throughout the Federal service.

The objective of the program, he said, is to enable the Federal

New Attack On Urban Crises

SOME OF THE frustrations our civil service readers experience—a major cause of some of civil service's negative public relations—may disappear in the not-too-distant future because of a new power assist being given government.

THE NEW MUSCLE is the Urban Coalition, a public opinion conglomerate which includes an almost unbeatable combination of big business, big labor, big city government, civil rights leaders, and national church groups.

LESS THAN a year old, the Urban Coalition is taking on assignments to apply its strength in attacking the basic causes of the urban crisis—bad housing, bad schools, lack of jobs, aimless and jobless youth, and the lack of municipal finances to make even a slight dent in the escalating problems.

THE CIVIL service corps has long been aware of the deep-seated reasons for urban decay. The frustration evolved from civil service's inability to do very much about the complex of problems because elected officials hoped that "the problem would just go away and get lost."

INSTEAD OF disappearing, the problems just heated up into the spontaneous combustion of urban riots—110 of them in the 48-hour period following the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

WHAT THE Urban Coalition proposes is a do-it-yourself confrontation of ghetto and racial problems, using the know-how of its members to develop programs that would take the heat out of a potentially combustible situation in every part of the United States.

THE COMMITMENT by big business and big labor to use its know-how and its combined financial and political power to get things done—primarily through the Federal government—is a new twist in lobbying.

AMONG DEDICATED civil service people who have wanted to correct a badly deteriorating set of conditions for years, the new allies give renewed hope for extricating the country out of the serious trouble into which it has blundered.

THE NEW full-time chairman of the national organization of the Urban Coalition is John W. Gardner, who until very recently was U.S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Health Careers Get Top Billing At CC VIII

Community College VIII, to be opened by the City University of New York in 1969, will focus on preparation for health careers in two-year programs leading to senior college transfer, two-year programs leading to jobs, and adult education leading to advancement for health workers on the job.

A prospectus for the new college prepared by university staff was adopted by the Board of Higher Education at its regular monthly meeting last week. The chairman, Porter R. Chandler, said that specific plans will await the appointment of a president and faculty. Approval of the trustees of State University will now be requested since community colleges operate under the program of the State University.

"Focus on the health sciences," said Dr. Albert H. Bowker, chancellor of the university, "will enable us to move ahead with a number of new ideas aimed at providing enough and improved medical care in the next decade. The metropolitan area between 1966 and 1975 is expected to need 14,000 nurses and 2,700 other professional and technical workers in addition to doctors, dentists, and optometrists.

"Hopefully Community College VIII will produce new recruitment and admissions procedures to develop new sources of talent; new educational components for the career-ladder idea; new courses, schedules, and evaluation to upgrade workers already committed to service in the health field, but trapped at low levels; and new patterns of cooperation with organizations in the City concerned with education health personnel."

While no site was recommended, the planning report indicated that locating the college near the new Lincoln Hospital in the South Bronx, as has been suggested, would meet criteria for site selection.

It is estimated that 30 to 40 percent of the students will be in transfer programs, including pre-pharmacy and pre-occupational therapy; 40 to 50 percent will be in health related career programs; and 20 percent in business career programs. In addition to preparing nurses, medical technologists, X-ray technicians, and medical records librarians, Community College VIII may add curriculums in medical instrument repair, environmental technology, and biomedical computer science if the demand justifies it.

Half-Day Clerical Holidays Listed

Schools on all levels will be closed for a half-day on prescribed dates in June to enable staff members to complete end-term clerical duties.

As announced by executive deputy superintendent Nathan Brown, the dates are June 7 and 20 for elementary schools, June 10 and 20 for junior high-intermediate schools, and June 21 and 24 for high schools.

Music Welcomes Spring At Many City Schools

The sounds of music are in the air throughout the school system as pupil musicians and singers approach their climactic annual concerts. The program:

All-City High School Band — Brooklyn Academy of Music, May 1, 8:30 p.m.

All-City Orchestra and Chorus — Philharmonic Hall, Lincoln Center, May 8, 8:40 p.m.

JHS "Salute to Music"—Manhattan, Julia Richman HS, May 18, 8 p.m.; Queens, Queens College, May 19, 2:30 p.m.; Richmond, Staten Island Community College, May 22, 8 p.m.; Bronx, Carnegie Hall, May 23, 8 p.m.; Brooklyn, Brooklyn College, 8 p.m.

The high school band, organized two years ago, consists of 135 students and last appeared at a convocation of Puerto Rican organizations at the HS of Art and Design, Manhattan. The band is directed by Gabriel Kosakoff of the HS of Music and Art, Manhattan.

First Scholarship Award

The all-city concert, sponsored by The News, will be highlighted by the presentation by Superintendent Donovan of the first Roberta Peters Scholarship established by friends in honor of the Metropolitan Opera star whose early schooling was at Joseph H. Wade, JHS, Bronx. Benjamin S. Chaney, acting director of music, will conduct the orchestra while John L. Motley of the bureau staff will lead the singers. More than 250 young people are expected to participate in the program, which will be telecast over WPLX-TV (Ch. 11).

The "Salute to Music" is sponsored by the Friends of Music of Junior High Schools and will involve more than 1,000 pupils, according to Assistant Superintendent Benjamin Anker of the Office of Junior High Schools.

Not to be outdone by the "pros," District 14, Brooklyn, will present its annual "Festival of Dance, Music and the Arts" at John D. Wells JHS on May 1, beginning at 8 p.m. Participating schools are PS 16, 19, 37 and 122, Hostos IS and Wells.

Spanish-Speaking Teachers Sought

New York City's Board of Education has assigned a specialist in Puerto Rican affairs to help recruit larger numbers of native Spanish-speaking teachers for the New York City school staff.

Mrs. Carmen Dinos of the migration division of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico in New York City has been assigned as administrator of this new recruitment effort.

Mrs. Dinos is a specialist in English who taught in all divisions of the school system of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, including college for 11 years. Thereafter she became supervisor and coordinator of education for Puerto Rico, assigned to the migration division.

Board's Budget Cut; Big Classes, Fewer New Teachers Planned

The Board of Education has announced plans to eliminate all after-school recreational programs, evening academic high schools and evening trade schools next fall. A cutback in the number of teachers hired to handle an expected enrollment increase of 22,000 pupils in the day school is also planned.

The Board said, in addition, that it must increase the size of many classes and reduce expenditures for textbooks and supplies.

Alfred A. Giardino, president of the Board, explained that these moves are necessitated by the Mayor's announced $141.6 million cut from the school system's budget request for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Giardino expressed grave regret at the prospects of these major cuts. "The State Legislature and the City Administration must recognize that it does not make sense to expect to raise pupil achievement and at the same time fail to provide funds for improvement and even take away from the present program," he said.

Other aspects of the inadequate budget allowance will be restrictions on the school repair and maintenance program, reduction of the system's teacher-training program, and an increase in the number of teacher-assistants hired to help instructors handle class loads.

However, Giardino pointed out, despite the system's financial predicament, it will undertake some new measures to strengthen education in poor areas.

School Volunteers Help 100,000 Pupils

The New York City public school system is inviting the cooperation of the entire City in its search for 3,000 additional school volunteers. The recruitment drive has the enthusiastic support of the City's first family as well as of civic and community leaders throughout the five boroughs.

Mrs. John V. Lindsay is honorary chairman of the school volunteer recruitment drive.

Mayor Lindsay noted that school volunteers had contributed half a million hours to more than 100,000 pupils in the City school system, working with individual students in reading, assisting young people for whom English is a second language, helping teachers with classes in art, music, creative writing and drama.

K, 1st Grade Began Registration May 6

New York City's 609 elementary schools will register kindergarten and first-year pupils who will begin their schooling next Fall in a preliminary two-week enrollment period which started May 6 and continues through May 17.

Children who do not take advantage of the Spring enrollment dates will be registered for these classes in the traditional Fall registration period on September 4, 5 and 6.

Spring enrollment is encouraged by public school officials because early pupil registration permits better planning for September programs in the individual schools.

Children born in 1963 will be accepted for placement in kindergartens. Those born in 1962 will be placed in first grade, including also children born in January, 1963 who have had acceptable previous kindergarten experience in registered non-public schools.

Parents should accompany children at the time of registration and bring with them proof of the child's age and of vaccination. The current kindergarten registration is approximately 91,000 and first-grade enrollment is about 92,000.

Pupils who expect to enter pre-kindergarten classes in the public schools in September will not be registered in the May 6-17 period. They will be registered in the Fall on dates to be announced.

He added that this involves changing attitudes and practices within the agencies and not just insistence on superficial evidence of compliance. The need is not to make a brief showing through a drive to employ and promote more women, he said, but to make the opportunities equally available to all qualified persons without regard to sex.

Twenty employees have earned the highest honors of the Post Office Department for outstanding achievements in post office administration, labor relations, postal economics and other professional specialties.

Darling, Deputy Executive Assistant to the Postmaster General; Henry L. Dixon, Jr., Special Assistant to the Assistant Postmaster General for Operations, and Arthur Eden, Director of the Office of Postal Economics.

The Meritorious Service Award and a $500 check went to 10 other persons from headquarters and six from the field. Forty-five other citations for their contributions to the success of last September's National Postal Forum

New Officers

ALBANY—The State Department of Correction chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., has elected new officers with David Harris chosen as president.

Other new officers are Carl Brown, vice-president; Marie Blondl, secretary; Carol Purzycki, treasurer; Joseph Oppedisano, delegate; and Evelyn Zeh, alternate delegate.

THE LOCAL coalitions will have the same targets as the national organization—mounting maximum community support for jobs, housing, and school programs.

BUT EQUALLY important is the objective of educating business and community leaders about the drastic social changes we are experiencing, which to the average American appears increasingly ominous.

WHATEVER the motivation—fear, patriotism, or samaritanism—strong public relations overtones are everywhere in this new effort to use the combined weight of the strongest elements of the nation's leadership to attack problems which face all of us around every corner.

FOR THE CIVIL servant, it could be a time for renewed dedication to increase his efforts to make the force as effective as humanly possible. Some civil servants tell us that it feels as if they are fighting in another war.

THIS REACTION is just another indication of the keen intelligence of civil service people. They are right. This is a war, and all of us hope that, with redoubled efforts, we'll win this one.

made many weeks ago.

Warns of Consequences

Warning of the consequences that could result from a "hands-off" policy which apparently Savago has assumed, Martorana stated. "At a recent Salary Study Committee meeting, the CSEA claimed that its request for recognition was being ignored by the chairman of the county legislature. In addition, the Association indicated it had submitted the necessary written proof and it was prepared to file a petition for certification with the State Public Employment Relations Board in Albany if action was not taken by the Ulster County Legislature."

Concluding his statement, Martorana said, "The purpose of the Taylor Law was to promote harmonious and cooperative collective bargaining relations between government and public employees. To date here in Ulster County, insofar as county employees are concerned, the policy, spirit and implementation of the law has been kept down to a minimum. Perhaps the only good that has come out of the many hours of conscientious committee work is that although the chairman rejected the committee's second resolution — to take the necessary steps to recognize CSEA — he has agreed to take my advice anyway by inviting the Associate Counsel of the State PERB to a meeting with the Legislature."

and Assembly bill 6046 which will allow employees to trade days off with other employees upon written agreement with the appointing authority in which payment for overtime is waived.

LACK OF availability of promotion for diagnostic and treatment personnel. The Commissioner stated that those in diagnostic centers should be given the same promotional opportunities as Correction Officers, provided that these employees meet the minimum qualifications for these positions.

REQUEST BY uniform charge officers at Attica for the return of Eisenhower jackets as optional uniform item. The Department agreed to use of these jackets in certain areas and noted that a directive will be issued to implement this request.

SHOULDER patch on Correction Officers' uniform. The Department said the insignia patch will be sent to each institution.

PROVIDE water cooler for employees at Elmira Reformatory. The Department said it was unaware of this situation and would look into it.

Negotiations At Impasse

MINEOLA — An impasse has been reluctantly declared in negotiations with the Garden City School Board on behalf of non-teaching employees.

"The board is seeking to substitute the dispute settlement procedures of the Taylor Law for the bargaining that is required," asserted Irving Flaumenbaum, president of the Nassau chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn. "The board made one offer, and said that was the final offer. They have made no reasonable effort to achieve a settlement, so CSEA has been forced to declare an impasse." Personnel of the State Public Employment Relations Board were expected the scene shortly.

Conservation App't.

Conservation Commissioner R. Stewart Kilborne has announced the promotion in the Department's Division of Fish and Game of William G. Bentley, a 45-year-old career employee, to assistant director of the Division.

In his new post, Bentley succeeds Albert G. Hall.

Armory Employees Choose New Officers; Prepare For Albany Conference May 9-10

NEW YORK—The Armory Employees chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., elected new officers May 1 at the 102nd Medical Battalion Armory, Manhattan. Peter J. Monahan was re-elected to a third term as president.

Other officers elected are: William P. Wright, vice-president; Charles Rizzo, executive secretary; John Sergee, corresponding secretary; Roy Seabrook, recording secretary; Leon Nelson, treasurer; and James Clifford, sergeant-at-arms.

The session had on the largest attendance of any meeting of the year because of interest in the election and the recent State pay raise.

Old and new problems were discussed at the meeting including items that will be brought up at the Armory Employees Conference in Albany on May 9 and 10. Monahan, Rizzo and Wright will be delegates to that conference.

Wenzl And Roulier Will Appear May 8 On Rochester Radio

ALBANY — Civil Service Employees Assn. members in and around Rochester will have the opportunity on May 8 to hear Dr. Theodore C. Wenzl, CSEA president, talk about CSEA's accomplishments during the first year under the Taylor Law on the "Opinion" show over WHAM radio, Rochester.

Dr. Wenzl, along with Joseph B. Roulier, director of CSEA public relations, will discuss the significant events of the past year relating to CSEA's recognition as bargaining agent for virtually all State workers and the problems encountered with the Public Employment Relations Board, instigated by several smaller unions, court battles and victories; the pay and retirement package recently won for State employees through negotiations, and other matters.

The program will be aired at 7 p.m. over WHAM, at 1180 on the radio dial.

"Opinion" host Mike Morgan will conduct the usual informal discussion with his guests and get answers to questions phoned in by the audience. The phone number for listeners to call is: (area code 716) 454-5757.

Dr. Wenzl and Joe Roulier recently appeared on the Jerry Ducie Nighttime Television Show broadcast over radio station WGY in Schenectady which covers an area encompassing much of Eastern New York, including the greater tri-city area.

Bahama Tour On Memorial Day Is Re-scheduled

Because of the many requests for a departure date that did not require taking off work on Wednesday, the Memorial Day trip to the Bahamas for members of the Civil Service Employees Assn. has been rescheduled.

The trip will now depart at 8:30 a.m., May 30 from New York and return at 6 p.m. on June 2, giving nearly four full days in the sun. The price is still the same—$165—and a few seats are still available. Apply at once to Sam Emmett, 1060 East 28th St., Brooklyn, N.Y., 11210, telephone (212) 253-4488 after 5 p.m.

RETIREMENT DINNER — Taking part in a dinner honoring 29 retiring employees of the State Department of Transportation's Utica district office at Twin Ponds Golf Club are, from the left, Donald Ketchum, toastmaster; Charles White, retiring after 37 years with the district and three years of earlier State service; John Evans, chairman of the event and Nicholas Cimino, CSEA chapter president.
