Muddle

FOREMAN: Okay, bring that one down at this end here. That's it, ease it in. Hold it! Okay, dump in right there. Good! About eight more loads oughta do it. How's it coming on that end, Jim?

LABORER: Fine, we've got 'er just about graded.

FOREMAN: Good, keep at it; we'll have this end ready in just a few minutes. All right you men, stack these logs over by that tree. We can't have them in the way. That's it, good. Okay, here's that other load. Right in here, Charlie. Easy! Time! Dump it right in front of that pile there. Great! You're golden, Charlie. Well, that's the last load. Now all we have to do is grade this end and we'll be all set.

LABORER: Hey Ed! The president of the college is here to see you.

President: What's the idea of dumping all that mud in our parking lot? Moving Up Day is held in Page Hall.

FOREMAN: Oh! This isn't for Moving Up Day, Sir. We're having a sack race in pillowcases for a TIDE commercial.

Common - Slater

"We have come to bury Caesar, not to praise him."

—W. Shakespeare

BOB MOVED UP

For the second time this year, we offer our thanks to Bob who was the Common Slater who caused all the confusion, course, is the object of this column to needle tenderly his action, and Bob had one of the sharpest needles in his moved along to other things, congrats and thanks Bob.

ERGO, NEW RULES

We, the new Common Slater, hereby pledge ourselves to policy. To offer plaudits when deserved. To state in common language so there's no doubt who's getting. To reveal all the skeletons in everybody's closets, using of course, the key: "What a start!"

LADIES FIRST

Rumors are flying again. Sayles Hall slated for a new body really took this moving up day seriously. Don't worry, circus tents have been ordered and will be pitched in the too bad that they won't move the administrative office. Tuition line forms to the right.

COME ON, SPRING

So what? So this is Albany. We can still do without a winter. We want nice happy weekends, and sunny days, not all that ever heard of having mud in May? Any place that has isn't for us. We prefer our mud in January when it's to believe us, there's a lot of snow in January around here, could expect mud. But not in Albany mud comes in May.

HO-HUM

Guess we have to say something about Moving Up Day. It is that day. First of all, we offer a hearty "Well done" to the committee even though we haven't seen anything yet. They're good, so the results must be good. BUT we still think Moving Up Day is getting like the Academy Awards, and we fell asleep during it. You know, too long, too many trivialities. Time for a break, we think. Something like a short program in the morning, followed by an All College picnic or outing at some camp we could rent. It'd be Dippikill!

ALBANY, NEW YORK, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1961

VOL. XLVI NO. 17

Dr. Deeringer to Govern Academics as New Dean

A newly appointed administrator, Dr. Jack Deeringer, is the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Albany State. His appointment went into effect on September 1, 1961, after the College was without a dean after mid-July, when Dean Oscar E. Lanford was named President of the State University College of Education at Fredonia.

Dr. Deeringer will carry responsibility for several functions formerly discharged by Dean Lanford. Responsibility will be especially in academic counselling and the encouragement of scholarship.

Previous educational experience of Dr. Deeringer included positions as high school English and drama teacher, curriculum coordinator for the Lockport public school system, and admissions counselor at the University of Buffalo. In 1957, Dr. Deeringer was appointed Dean of Students at the University of Buffalo, serving in this capacity until 1958, when he accepted the deanship at Cornell.

Dr. Deeringer comes to Albany State from the State University, Cortland Community College where he held the position of Dean of Students. In fact, he was the first Dean for the college which was founded only three years ago.

Dr. Deeringer is a graduate of Hobart College. He received his Master's and Doctorate degrees in education at the University of Buffalo.

Active in educational and civic affairs, Dr. Deeringer is a member of Phi Delta Kappa, New York Association of Deans and Guidance Personnel, National Education Association, and Rotary International Committee of the Cortland Chapter. Also while at Cornell, he was a member of the Board of Directors of the Cortland Civic Music Association.

For the past ten years, he has been extremely interested in student life problems and student activities in colleges.

In a personal interview with this new administrator, he said that he was impressed by the caliber of our student body and the high caliber of the faculty staff.

DR. JACK DEERINGER

SU Obtains New Director

Approximately two weeks ago State College welcomed a freshman class of 790 students and Mr. William McKinnon, the new Union director.

WISCONSIN NATIVE

Born and bred in Wisconsin, Mr. McKinnon graduated from Stout State College in August, 1959, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Technology. While president of the student body and a member of the planning committee of the Student Union he became very interested in Student Union personnel and activities and the growing profession of student union management.

From 1959-1960, he served as the Union Program Director at the University of Nebraska, auditing and counselling student planned activities.

ALBANY RESIDENT

Mr. McKinnon, who now resides in Albany with his wife, Diane, will work with the Student Union Board in scheduling activities and meetings at Brubacher.

Students Plan Activities Day

This year Activities Day will be held in the Brubacher Game Room on October 7 from 2 until 4 p.m. Co-chairmen for this special event are Mary Alice Lynaugh and Andy Chudak, both members of the Junior class of '63.

The purpose of Activities Day is to acquaint freshmen and transfers with the many different organizations on campus and to encourage them to offer their talents to one or more of these organizations. About twenty organizations will be on display and more than willing to explain their respective purposes. As usual Student Union Board will be serving refreshments. The committee hopes that all new students will attend to acquaint themselves with our organizations.

DR. FRANK CARRINO

Carrino Heads Public Relations

Along with the new semester, new changes have been made in our administration. Dr. Frank G. Carrino is the new Assistant to the President of the College, and also holds the position of Professor of Modern Languages here at State.

As Assistant to the President, Dr. Carrino will head Public Relations. This position will consist mainly of coordinating information relating to our college and keeping the local press and other agencies informed. Also, it will include the lines of communication between the college and community.

Dr. Carrino graduated from Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan, with a Bachelor's degree in 1947, and his Ph.D. from the University of Michigan in 1950.

In 1949, Dr. Carrino began his career at Albany State as an instructor in our Modern Language Department, teaching Spanish.

Dr. Carrino accepted the three-year position of Assistant to the President in 1955, which was under the leadership of the United States Information Center Agency. He was later promoted to a position of Assistant to the President after which he returned to Albany State.

Rivalry Committee Enthused at Lively Spirit of Student Body

Howie Weidner, president of the Rivalry Committee, was enthusiastic about the lively spirit of the student body at the recent Rivalry Committee meeting. He said that the committee was pleased with the enthusiasm of the student body and the high caliber of the faculty staff.

The Rivalry Committee is a group of students who are responsible for the Rivalry Committee's activities. They are responsible for the Rivalry Committee's activities and the high caliber of the faculty staff.

President Collins Meets Class of 1965 at 8 P.M.

Friday night, in Brubacher Lower Lounge, the work of the Student Guides for 1961 will culminate with the President's Reception. From 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. the Class of 1965 will formally meet the heads of the college and student government. Receiving the freshmen will be Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the College, and Mrs. Collins; Dr. Elmer C. Mathews, Associate Dean of Administration, and Mrs. Mathews; Dr. Jack M. Deeringer, Associate Dean of Academic Affairs; Dr. Clifton C. Thorne, Dean of Men, and Mrs. Thorne; Dr. Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women; Mrs. David Brooker, President of Student Association, and Mrs. Brooker; and Miss Marcia English and Mr. Howard Woodruff, Co-chairmen of Student Guides.

To avoid a long wait in the receiving line, the freshmen will be received according to the first initial of the surname of their big brother or big sister.

A-E-8 p.m.-8:30 p.m.
F-K-8:30 p.m.-9 p.m.
L-R-9 p.m.-9:30 p.m.
S-Z-9:30 p.m.-10 p.m.

It is suggested that the upperclassman precede the freshman, introducing himself and the freshman to each person in the line.

The men attending the event are requested to wear dark suits. The women should be attired in dark dresses with hats and gloves.

Student Guide Program
The Student Guide program begins in the winter. When the prospective student visits Albany, a student guide assists the Admissions Office by escorting the applicant to his interview and giving him a tour of the campus. During the summer months, an upperclassman contacts an incoming freshman and acquaints the freshman with college life before he arrives at State.

College Adds Two Buildings

The two new buildings now being added by the college are the Washington Avenue annex, which was formerly the temple of Congregation Olav Shalom, and the Lake Street Annex, which was formerly a Presbyterian Church.

The Washington Avenue annex contains four classrooms, two of which are considered large lecture halls. Also it houses the Developmental Reading Office of Mr. Newton and Mr. Platt. The Curriculum Materials Library has been moved into this annex. Dr. Mathews has reported that the partitioning between the rooms will be improved during the year.

Lake annex houses one lecture hall. This hall contains a piano. Authorized student groups will be able to arrange for the use of this room with the Student Personnel Office. The rear of the building is occupied by the office of the members of the Psychology Department. The basement will be used as a Psychology Lab.

Within the buildings which were in use last year there have been many movements. The Medical Office has moved into the basement of Draper. The Admissions Office has moved into the Medical Office of last year. Draper 201 has been made into offices for ten members of the Social Studies Department.

In the library there is a new microfilm machine which takes photostats of the microfilm projection. There is a new Language Lab in Milne School and a Language Lab in the TV area. As of the spring semester, there will be a third annex called the Central Avenue Annex. The three classrooms will be used for the teaching of Biology, General Science and Earth Science.

Assisting Mr. Swearingin is Miss Gail Soffer. The production will be presented November 3 & 4 in Page Hall auditorium at 8 o'clock p.m., one-half hour earlier than most other productions. Mr. Swearingin may be contacted in Richardson 279.

Marcia English and Howard Woodruff practice for the reception.

Ode to Me Exhausted

By IRENE WISTER '62

Oh, when those Frosh came marching in . . .
we, counselors started that Friday with a grin.
The day dawned with a golden sun in a mellow sky . . .
and promised 790 anxious Frosh by sundown at 5
We padded our minds for the onslaught of queries . . .
and sutured our muscles for the weekend wearies.
With nametags and handbooks, we sent them off scamping to learn those 5 songs in one hour, was cramping.
When day turned to night, the Beanie Ceremony was flaming and later on stage we did some impromptu raving.
Home again, home again, and with clammy frankness
we all nodded over our common sleepish blandness.
Sing, sang, sung, we all . . .
then sleep, slept, slept, till the 7 o'clock call.
Saturday morn was the time for tours, and the ramparts fortified and Dr. Schultz for one hour advice and statistics afforded.
With careful instruction, we lead the assortment . . .
to the nineteen buses for the Thatcher transportation.
By two p.m. in the 755 were scoring and exploring while some of us did some ignoring and shoring.
The skits at nine were a humored compulsion
but by then we all needed automation propulsion.
Sunday was the time for fussing . . .
included some musing, discussing and cussing.
The Fashion show was astounding, with new styles noted while the Activities agenda was expounding and ribbing at prod.
The holiday meals, all along, the stomach did appraise but some alert Frosh did inquire about the strange syntheses.
A few stars glimmered that night, while nurse that was hep called to the Frosh for a social evening of step.
We joined in the fun, our corns were forgotten
there was always Monday to mend them somewhat.
The next morning was occupied with robust dispositions as we set the Frosh free, after our good natured blessings.
Oh, when those Frosh to register left . . .
well, crawled back to bed and unquestionably slept!

AMIA Starts New Season; Track Added To Schedule

Probably one of the most active organizations at State College is the A. M. I. A. (Association of Men's Intramural Activities), which governs all phases of Men's Intramural Activities during the school year. It has an extensive program of activities in which all men of State are welcome to participate.

The complete calendar of events includes: basketball, touch football, tennis, golf, volleyball, tumbling, trampolining, archery, softball, swimming, table tennis, and badminton. Other activities are included as interest is displayed. There are also co-ed activities that are jointly sponsored by A. M. I. A. and W. A. A. (Women's Athletic Association).

A. M. I. A. is an organization dedicated to helping the men of State gain release for some of their pent-up energies and to provide good healthful exercise for those who would not otherwise enjoy it. Always changing to fit the needs of a changing student body, for the first time in its history A. M. I. A. organized a men's track meet last spring. At that time trophies and individual ribbons were awarded to the first three finishers in each event. This year track is being added to A. M. I. A.'s long list of regular intramural teams. As in other sports, squads will be formed from the fraternities and men's residence halls.

All male students at State are heartily urged to participate in at least one of A.M.I.A.'s varied activities. At the end of the year there will be a presentation of awards for participation and achievement.

Officers of A.M.I.A. for this year are: Tom Ellis, President; Bill Burnett, Vice President; Pat Cerna, Secretary; and Lynn Costello, Treasurer.

Equipment Pool Offers Wide Selection Of Athletic Gear

With the advent of fall the Athletic Equipment Pool again as in previous years offers a wide range of sports equipment for any student of State College for nothing more than on a piece of paper.

This equipment has been widely used in the past and will be available this year in abundance. The variety of equipment available is such that it is worth mentioning here.

Probably the most widely used pieces of equipment are the English touring bicycles that were purchased in a small quantity four years ago and have been increased since then. These bikes are well built, expensive and can be used out for a full day to any State student.

For the tennis enthusiast there are large numbers of Cortland Tennis Racquets ranging from the light weights for the girls to the medium and heavyweights for the men. Tennis balls are also available in large quantities.

In addition to the equipment ofered above, the equipment pool offers a wide range of other sports equipment such as golf clubs, bags, softball equipment, archery sets and tents, and a small amount of track equipment.

The Athletic Equipment Pool is an organization financed by AMIA, WAA, and other groups for the purpose of offering the equipment for all students of college without charge. The pool consists of the respective students of the AMIA, WAA, and other groups, with Coach Hays as the faculty advisor.

Career Cues

"Cure for job boredom: I made my favorite pastime my career!"

Richard Bertram, President
Bertram Yacht Co., Division of Nautech Corp.

"When you stop to think what percent of our total waking hours is spent bread-winning, you realize how tragic it is for any man to work at an occupation he doesn't enjoy. Besides frittering away life, it reduces chances of success to just about zero. I know... because it almost happened to me!"

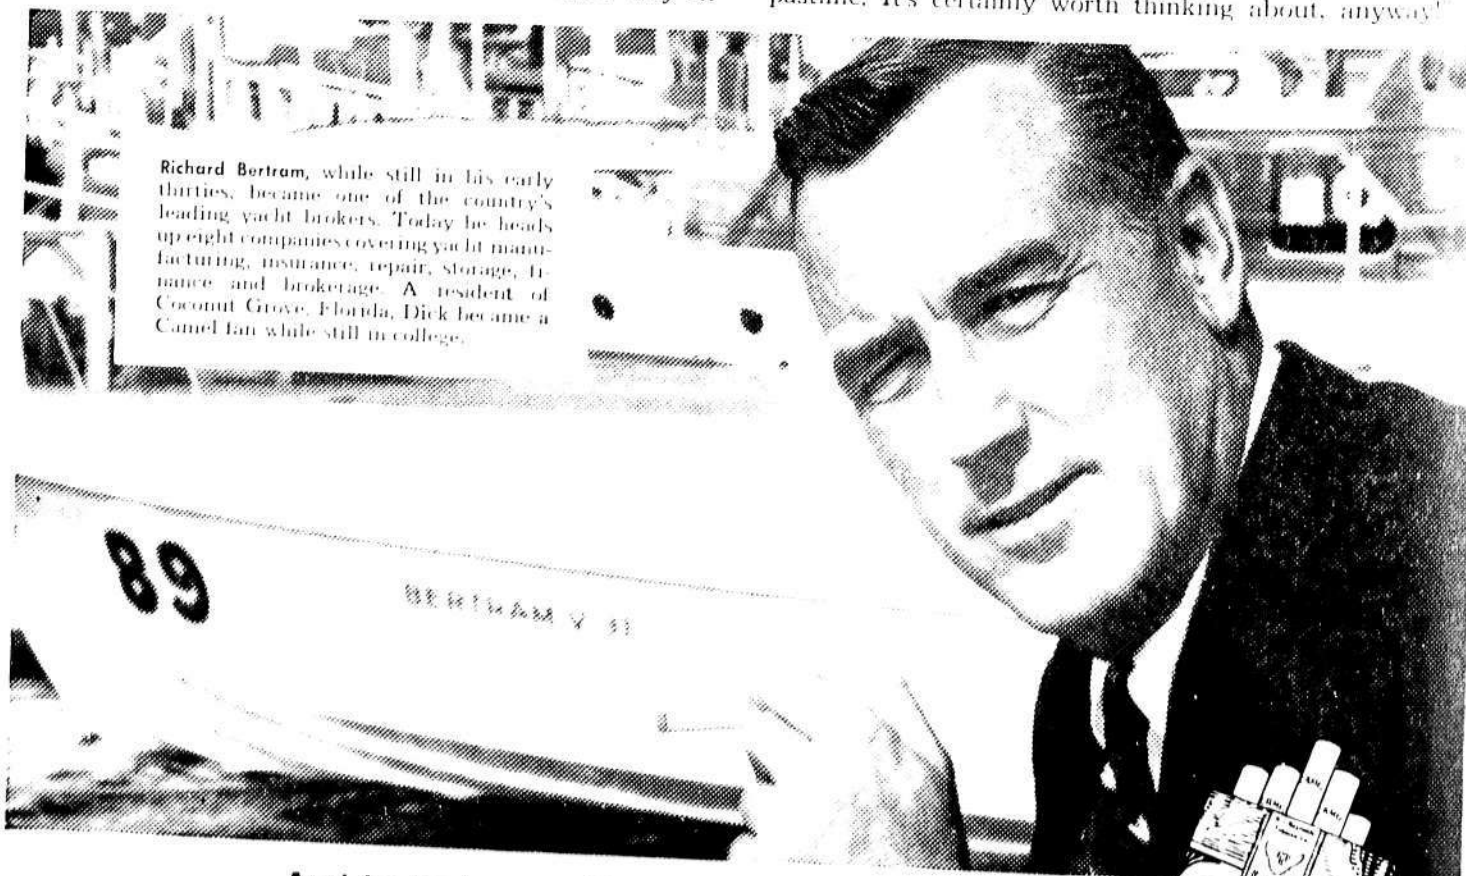

After college, I did what I thought was expected of me and joined a solid, Manhattan-based insurance firm. I soon found office routine wasn't for me. I lived only for lunch hour when I could walk to the Battery and mentally sail with the ships that stood out in the Narrows... and for the summer weekends when I could go sailing. Fortunately, the company I worked for is one of the leading insurers of yachts and after two years I was transferred to their Yacht Underwriting Department. Enjoyment and interest in my work improved immediately 100%.

After World War II, I started my own yacht brokerage firm and yacht insurance agency in Miami, combining my marine insurance background with an even closer relationship with boats.

My only problem ever since has been a feeling of guilt that my work was too easy. I love boats and boating people. That affection has paid me rewards way beyond the financial security it has also provided.

The moral's obvious. You have an odds-on chance for success and happiness working at what you enjoy most—what comes naturally! And if it's not just frivolous, your life's work could well be what you now consider just a pastime. It's certainly worth thinking about, anyway!

Richard Bertram, while still in his early thirties, became one of the country's leading yacht brokers. Today he heads upright companies covering yacht manufacturing, insurance, repair, storage, finance and brokerage. A resident of Coconut Grove, Florida, Dick became a Camel fan while still in college.

And to make any time pass more enjoyably...

By BOB DAVIES

As of the present time there are six Varsity sports in the athletic program of State College. At various times in the past new sports have been added with various degrees of success.

Last year a track meet was held and a great amount of support was tapped, mushrooming the attempt into a successful start. This year there will be a program of team competition instead of a meet for individuals.

Although the track team has gotten off to a favorable start, there is still much hard work to be done in raising the sport to varsity status. There are ten events in college track, each event requiring a minimum of three competitors. This in turn demands that there be four to six men trying out for each event in case of injury. Therefore, in order to have a team we will need at least 30-40 men trying out and staying out for the entire season.

The AMIA has approved team competition for track. This is the next necessary one in the development of track as a Varsity sport. This year's set-up will allow for the formation of three to four or five teams. Any of the five fraternities, Waterbury Hall, or the Men's Group houses may start a team, either as a unit or in union with other groups if they are too small. The AMIA is purchasing three trophies which will be awarded to the top three teams. Also, ribbons will be given to the top three individuals in each event.

Perhaps of the most difficult of events to train for are the distance runs, mile and two-mile. In fact, those persons who frequently run these distances sometimes participate in a unique sport of their own—Cross country running. Those persons interested in this type of event will have the opportunity of participating under the supervision of Mr. Munsey. Mr. Munsey will be starting practice on this Monday at 3:30 p.m. by the equipment shack on Veteran's Field. In order to have a team, enough interest must be shown by those attending practice. Remember, nothing is gained in sports without work, but the eventual rewards are worth far more than the work put out in attaining them.

As a closing note, it will be necessary to consider that although distance runners are necessary for any track team, they are not wholly sufficient. Therefore, if we are to have a track team, we will have it only by a co-operative effort of everyone concerned.

Frosh Booters Have It Rough

A season marked by some of the toughest competition in the state faces the State Frosh soccer team this year.

About half of the thirty candidates for the squad have had high school experience, and according to Coach Bob Burlingame, "There are a number of good looking prospects, but it's still too early to choose a starting team yet." Practice sessions began more than a week ago, and a first string lineup will be formed in a few days.

As always, the highlight of the Frosh season will be the "Homecoming Weekend" game, played Oct. 14 against Colgate in a simulated "Homecoming" game last year, Colgate beat the Peds 12 in a hard-fought overtime affair. This year the game will start at 12:30, as a preliminary bout to the varsity contest with Plattsburgh.

The Frosh booters will get their 1961 campaign underway next Saturday Sept. 30, against Orange County Community College. Orange County has been rated first in the nation in junior college soccer for the last four years, and presented the Peds with two of their three defeats last year. On the first go round, State was romped 10-2, but the Frosh improved enough by the second tilt to reduce the victory margin to 4-2. The result of next Saturday's game against this top-notch team should serve as an excellent indicator for the entire Frosh season.

Night Soccer at Blecker Kicks-off 1961 Home Season

This year promises to be a very challenging one for the Varsity Soccer team. With a full schedule of ten games, six of them in conference play, the twenty-five members of the squad will find themselves very busy in the weeks ahead.

A new innovation has come to the State sports scene—night soccer games at Blecker Stadium. The first home game, against Oneonta, will be played under the lights. This feature should be advantageous to State College students, since weekday games would be inconvenient both for spectators to attend and for players who would have to miss classes.

The possibility of having bleachers for home games has been advanced. The State has approved use of bleachers but has not as yet appropriated the necessary funds.

The team starts its season with an away game at R.P.I., Sept. 30. Last season the Peds wound up in a tie game with the Engineers, the score standing at 1-1.

The first conference game is set on the following Tuesday at Potsdam. This will be State's first encounter with Potsdam. Last year State finished with a 2-2-1 record for conference play. Sources from other conference teams have been making noises about giving State a hard time this year.

The squad has had two scrimmages so far this year. Although both were lost, Coach Joe Garcia has been busy correcting defensive flaws in the team. Mr. Garcia has mentioned that the team seems in better shape than it was last year. He also added that conditioning is being overshadowed by the skill of State's opponents. Therefore much more concentrated practice is needed to put the team in shape.

The team is under the leadership of three captains this year, Karl Heins Gerstenberger, Ed Broomfield, and Dave Frank. Frank and Franny Zwickbauer, two of last year's injured, have been forced to start practice at a slower pace because of their conditions. Ed Broomfield has been the mainstay of the practice sessions, keeping his teammates in step with the practice schedule, and in doing so, exhibited fine leadership. He has been a chief factor in the progress of the team. Karl Gerstenberger, voted Most Improved Athlete last year, figures to be one of the key men on the squad.

Perhaps the most vital improvement needed in the team is that of improved intra-group coordination. Passing between teammates, defensive plays, knowing when to pass into a hole, are all part of the needed polish.

Rivalry

As the school year begins anew, so does Rivalry here at State. The first scheduled rivalry events will occur tomorrow. Tug-of-war will be held in the morning, with softball in the afternoon on the play-mat field located in back of Brubacher Hall.

The freshman softball team is in a strong position according to team captains Al Drake and Lester Keys. With only a short period of time to organize the team and practice, they have done a remarkable job.

At practice held yesterday afternoon, the team was cut to its final number of twenty, all of whom will see action in tomorrow's game. Many of the team members were varsity ball players in their high schools, a fact which greatly enhances the strength of the team.

All of the Rivalry teams are good, but this is not enough. In order for the team of your choice to win, it is necessary for you to show spirit and enthusiasm by attending each of the scheduled events.

Signum Laudis Gives Rare Book

Signum Laudis presented a rare copy of William Blake's Book of the Urizen to Hawley Library last June. Dr. Arthur Collins of the college faculty has written a review of the book which is printed, in part, below.

"Currently on display in the College library is one of the world's unique books. The Book of Urizen by William Blake. The college copy, one of a limited edition of 500, was printed last spring with a special donation from the scholars of the honorary Signum Laudis.

William Blake (1757-1827), a contemporary of Wordsworth, combined the graphic and literary arts. His books are not illustrated texts in the usual sense, for he engraved both the text (which he wrote himself) and the illustrations. Frequently he combined the two on a single page creating a visual picture in which the engraved text forms part of the unified artistic composition. Whereas one judges most illustrated books by the fidelity of the illustrations to the printed texts, in Blake's books one is justified in looking to the illustrations to clarify and amplify the text itself.

This facsimile edition has been called one of the finest ever produced. The present display, which will last through the month, was prepared by Miss Margaret Wagner of the Hawley Library.

Senate started the new year off right by having their first meeting Wednesday night.

The first order of business concerned the filling of a vacant position on the Camp Board. Camp Board submitted a letter unanimously recommending Alden Pierce to this position. Senate elected him reported that architect's drawings have been presented to Camp Board for a new building to house 32 and feed 80. The building will cost approximately sixty thousand dollars.

President David Brooker reported first on the possibility of forming a karate club. A demonstration is tentatively scheduled for all students interested next Thursday evening. More information will be found in the lower peristyles of Draper and Huested Halls.

After Pat Benedetto, new Campus Commission chairman, reported on the progress of Campus Commission. Senate presented the newly married President and Mrs. Brooker with a gift.

Service Group Awaits Clues

Frosh, got a complaint? Here's your chance to say what you want without being reprimanded. The Services Committee of the Senate will listen to you.

These complaints should concern suggestions for improving the campus. They do not concern Rivalry. Any suggestions which you have will be reviewed by the committee and if containing merit, will be presented to Dean Thorne.

In the past the administration has always welcomed the students' views. It is impossible for everyone to see Dean Thorne personally. Results can not always be promised, but every suggestion will be examined.

Some of the things which have been looked into are: more library hours, the parking problem, the Commons, name plates for Waterbury and Alden Halls, ivy on the dorms.

The members of the committee are: co-chairman Geri Schleifer and Dick Kelly, '63; Elaine Houser, '62; Bill Burnett and Don Allen, '63; Pat Cerra and Lenny Lapinski, '64.

Freshman Writes Home: Rivalry Keeping Him Busy

September, 3:30 a. m.

Dear Mom and Dad,
This Saturday morning at the ungodly hour of 9 a. m., the Rivalry Committee with their chairman, Howie Woodruff in the lead, will hold the cherished "ole State" banner, so that we Frosh and The Sophs must climb into trees, dig in the mud and hunt under logs to find it. This time, there will be no ladders, keepers.

The class which finds the banner first will win two rivalry points. In the afternoon at 1:30, we girls play the Soph girls at Volleyball. Mary Call, a junior, is in charge of this event.

So far, Mom and Dad, we're winning. Rivalry, 5-1. Last Saturday morning we won 2 points each for the men's and women's soft-ball games and in the morning 1 point for the men's tug-of-war. The Sophs have won only 1 point for the women's tug-of-war.

Our first edition of the "Satan's Scribble" comes out this Friday, but then, so does the Sophs' "Ye 'Ole Yeller."

Last night the Court of the Adjudication of Infractions of Traditioned 64 of us Frosh. Really, Mom, I couldn't wear my beanie that day 'cause it was wet 'cause it was raining outside and nobody would listen to me and this nasty Sophs made me wear it anyway.

and would you believe it? Mom, but I have a cold!

Gotta run, Mom and Dad. Have to write some more for the "Satan's Scribble" which is due Sunday and also re-write some lines in the "Satan's Scribble" we're trying to finish today. Besides, I have to write a letter to Dad.

Rivalry Chairmen, Pete Fisher, Howie Woodruff, and Bill Barnett discuss coming events.

Albany State Readies for New Campus; Construction Slated to Begin Next Spring

New Plans Released

The State University of New York has released for publication the plans for the new campus of this college. Three hundred acres of land located between Western and Washington Avenues on the site of the Albany Country Club have been appropriated and construction is scheduled to begin next spring.

Architects

The initial plans were drawn up over the summer. Coordinating architect for all phases of the project is the eminent Edmund Stone, highly lauded by President Evan R. Collins. Mr. Stone has designed the U. S. Embassies in New Delhi and Pakistan.

Model

The picture below is of the first model of the new campus, completed at a school of architecture in Albany. It is a scale model of the 220-acre site, including the additional 80 acres to be included in the additional campus. The model is on display in Draper Hall.

Transition

The first building to be constructed on the new campus will be a dormitory for 1,000 students. The building will be completed by the fall of 1963. The new campus will include a system of preference discrimination against Negroes because they lack the community status necessary to exert pressure for admission.

Also, according to SCAD, a "grandfather clause" favoring applicants whose relatives have attended Milne "excludes" Negroes forever.

In the face of these charges, administrative officials admit that the preference and "grandfather" systems were wrong. J. Edward Conway, SCAD's investigating officer, claimed that any attempts to justify the present admission policies are "mere exercises in semantics."

Shown is a bird's-eye view of the first 220 completed acres of the new campus. The model in Draper Hall will include the total 300 acres.

State, SCAD Rap Milne Policies

By BILL FRANKONIS

In a sudden, and unexpected, report this week, the State Education Department admitted that the admission policies of the Milne School constituted discrimination "as far as race and socio-economic status are concerned." Following close on the heels of this report, the State Commission Against Discrimination (SCAD) charged that the Milne admissions policy violated the state's Anti-discrimination Law on two counts. The charges lodged are the culmination of an investigation begun last March. At that time, Mrs. Rhunette Bates made a complaint to SCAD that her daughter, Sharon, had been rejected by Milne on the grounds that she is a Negro.

word, composition of the Sophs and Frosh. Year beans, a CAT "Five Hundred Good Reasons Why" contest, and you bet sure. Every Frosh should wear his "Ye 'Ole Yeller" beanie. Red Devil Golly, Mom, I could hear it. P. S. Please send me some of those 500 reasons. I'd love to read them to my parents and to my friends. All I can think of is that it's kinda...

SCAD Charges
SCAD's report, based on EPA's report, interpreted the Education Department's claim that Milne officials did not decide to exclude Negroes deliberately, by stating:

The absence of Negroes at Milne School is the immediate and direct result of admission policies deliberately established, maintained and practiced by school officials.

The Milne policy is to admit students on the following schedule:

1. Brothers and sisters of current and former Milne students.
2. Children of State College and State University faculty and staff.
3. Referrals, especially from other educational administrators.
4. By a chronological waiting list.

SCAD further charged that such a system of preference discrimination against Negroes because they lack the community status necessary to exert pressure for admission.

Also, according to SCAD, a "grandfather clause" favoring applicants whose relatives have attended Milne "excludes" Negroes forever.

In the face of these charges, administrative officials admit that the preference and "grandfather" systems were wrong. J. Edward Conway, SCAD's investigating officer, claimed that any attempts to justify the present admission policies are "mere exercises in semantics."

Following the release of the charges by both agencies, Dr. Thomas H. Hamilton, President of the State University, said that he hoped to be able to announce new admissions policies for Milne within a week.

According to Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of SUCE at Albany, a committee of Milne faculty members has been working on developing a new policy since last Spring, when the charge was first made. At present, it has been decided that the policy of sibling preference would be eliminated, but beyond that, no decisions have been reached.

Mr. Conway, who stated that the doors of the Milne School have been effectively closed to Negroes because of admission policies, also remarked: "It can be assumed that their (Milne) solution of the problem will insure equal opportunity, uniform treatment of all applicants, and the elimination of discriminatory practices."

Negroes in Milne
In spite of claims that there are no Negroes in Milne, a Negro applicant for the eighth grade has been admitted, and officials have offered to admit Sharon Bates. The latter, however, has yet to make a decision, and is currently attending another school.

College officials have stated previously that any discrimination because of race was not intentional; especially, they said, since it is illegal to include any information about race on an application blank. Furthermore, when asked about the number of Negro students in Milne, President Collins said, "It is illegal for me to know the number."

SCAD, however, contends that an intention is not necessary to sustain the discovery of a probable cause. In short, because of preference, it is possible to assume that some people are being discriminated against.

Short Investigation
The investigation carried out by EPA was completed in a few days. After interviewing Dr. Theodore Fossieck, Principal of Milne, and checking application records and other data, the investigation was concluded and a report submitted to the Education Department and SCAD.

SUB Sponsors Sock Hop

Student Union Board will sponsor a cabaret dance Saturday, September 30, from 8:30 to 12 p.m. in the Student Union Game Room. Since the dance will be a "Sock Hop," all who attend are requested to dress casually (no shorts please) and to wear the brightest, zaniest socks possible.

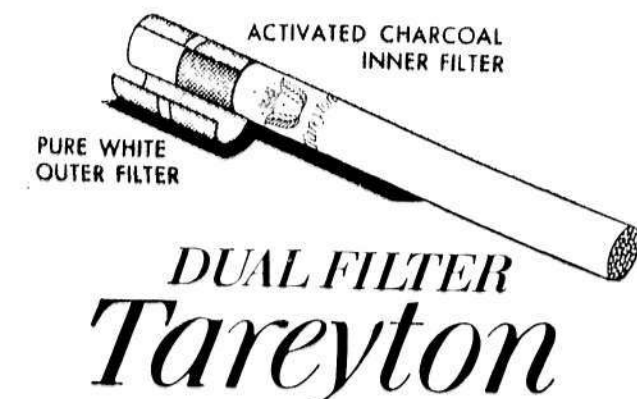

Co-chairmen Carole Potts '64 and Helen Vanderbilt '64 hope that the dance will acquaint State's new Red Devils with the upperclassman transfers. The new Student Union coordinator, Mr. William McKinnon, and his wife will serve as chaperones.

Shown is a bird's-eye view of the first 220 completed acres of the new campus. The model in Draper Hall will include the total 300 acres.
