Gordon Corvill is in charge of the building of the booths. He will have a committee working under him.

The fee will be ten cents for the entire week. Only members of Milne High or State College may attend.

ADVERTISING CONTEST BEGINS

The annual advertising contest for the Crimson and White has now begun.

This year the system has been slightly changed, and instead of the prize of ten dollars, everyone will work on a ten percent system. This enables everyone to win something no matter how little he collects. Everyone gets ten-per-cent of the amount they collect.

For those interested, a meeting will be held Monday, November 9 in room 233, at 3:20.

 SCHOLARSHIP

A month has passed and the much dreaded examinations are over. We have all received our report cards and some of us have heard the family comments upon our achievements. After the smoke of teacher and family comment has blown away, what is your own estimate of your standing?

Have you done your absolute best? Are you able to sit back and relax with a feeling of satisfaction? It is a great comfort to think that you have done your best. It is with pride that you may attain honor marks. Study the following figures to see where you stand. There is no reason that Milnites should not have high scholastic standing.

During the last report period, a total of 783 marks were received in the senior high school; 133 of them were honor marks; 105 were failures; 545 were between 70 and 90. Do your marks fall in the group parallel with your ability? This is the best time of all the year to determine to have a good record. Whatever you plan for your future, your high school record will either bless or haunt you. Which shall it be?

HOW ABOUT SOME ASSEMBLIES?

How about some real assemblies, something that will interest the students and make them "sit up and take notice"? Let's put our assembly committee to work and give them something to do! They were appointed for a purpose. Shall we show them what that purpose is?

This type of entertainment affords a sociability that no other group is able to give. It reveals some hidden talents that might otherwise be left unnoticed. Scholastic values are not at all lacking in this sort of work. Undoubtedly, you will improve your speaking voices and mannerisms. Also, after your first attack of stage fright, which you probably have, you will create the ability to address any number of people without the slightest tinge of self-consciousness.

If enough enthusiasm and interest were shown perhaps some speakers from various places could be procured. Even among our own faculty we could very likely find some member who would talk to us on his or her travels. We might get some movies lent out by commercial advertisers for an assembly period sometime. We have seen some in the past year, and no doubt more are to be had.

At some time every member in the school should do his part in putting on an assembly. We can't all sit back and be entertained. The same people aren't going to do the work all the time. Do your share! We need some enthusiasm and pep! Show us you have some life in you! Get up and go to it!

 SOCIETY BLACKBALLING

Recently the question of whether or not to have blackballing in the girls' societies arose in Milne. Many heated arguments have been presented by both sides; some good, some not so good, and some entirely irrelevant to the subject. Most of these seem to center around the feelings of the girls entering the societies.

Undoubtedly those girls who are left out entirely will be hurt and disappointed. Put yourself in their position and you can understand their feelings. On the other hand, some declare that each society wants only the best girls to be its members. They do not want to be forced to accept just any girl who condescends to join.

It is an important question to the girls of Milne. It should be seriously thought of and thoroughly discussed before any set opinions are formed. We urge you to think of the feelings of others as well as your own desires as you debate this question.

EXCHANGES

Oh! mama that pesty exchange editor is here again. Well anyhow, count to ten, then read, grin, and bear it.

QUIN:

The meeting of November 2 opened with quotations from Dorothy Parker. Margaret Charles gave a report on the menu for the Quin Rush which will take place after school on November 20. Carolyn Hauseman is chairman of this affair assisted by Jean Ambler. The remainder of the meeting was spent in the discussion of black balling. As yet nothing has been decided.

Politics holds the spotlight for the moment, but you New Dealers, don't blame me. P.S.--Mother juice rhyme:
Lazy Mary will you get up
Will you get up, will you get up
What do you think you are, a W.
P.A. worker?

THETA NU:

The Theta Nu swimming team which was started last year under Captain Otto Shaler will continue this year competing with similar teams of other schools.

Terrace Tribune

This may be aimed at a blushing(?) Junior, who soon shall take the oath.
"I am devising the new radio marriage."
"Oh I see! A national hook up!"

Sheldon Bond gave a very interesting report on Gene Lisitisky's book, "Thomas Jefferson". A discussion was held after the report was finished.

Homer Academy News

This new "business" game is beginning to get me down. Evidently it has been caught by the other schools, too.

SIGMA

A report of the rush was given by Lillian Allen.

How Do You Feel?

"Juicy," said the orange
"Rotten," said the apple
"First class," said the Post-master
"Ripping," said the trousers
"Grand," said the piano
"Punk," said the firecracker
"Down-in-the-mouth," said the tonsils
"Keen," said the knife
"Fine," said the judge
"Swell," said the mumps
"Sew sew," said the needle

A discussion was held concerning the coming initiation.

The quotations this week were from Charles Lamb.

Because there was no more business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:20.

ADDELPHOI:

The Scribbler

The Adelphei initiation was postponed until November 13 because of the Hi-Y trip and the reception.

Remember the absent minded professor? Well, here he is in all his glory.

The initiates were informed as to what they should bring for the initiation.

The absentminded professor met his son in school one morning and said, "How is your father this morning, John?"

Seely Funk gave a literary report on "Rainbow Trail" by Zane Grey. This story is based upon the Mormons. The setting is in Utah.

Well, another week gone by (pew) and Aunt Lucy will once more wait till the last minute to give you all the "dope" on other schools humor.

CHEER LEADERS TO RECEIVE LETTERS

FRENCH CLUB

At the meeting of the Girls' Athletic Club last Friday, it was decided to give each cheer leader a letter. The money for the letters will be taken from the club treasury.

At the regular meeting of the French Club, the members were entertained by a singer. She sang French songs and was dressed in a peasant costume. The club sang "Il Etait Une Bergere" and "Sur Le Pont d'Avignon". The French play which they are practicing will be given next week in club period. At roll call, French idioms were given.

The club also decided to give each member of the girls' varsity basketball team a basketball pin.

Dania Winshurst and Marion Kosbob were chosen to ask Mr. Salyes if the G. A.C. members could spend some of their meetings in the small gym playing games.
