State To Meet Plattsburg; Play Last Home Game

Psi Gam Second BZ Takes Third In Sorority Tilts

By VIRGINIA DAY
CAUSE FOR COMMENT
 Several things were brought to our attention this week that warranted us up to now dubious opinion concerning MAA sports. There is a notice up for men's ping pong singles with eighteen signatures to date; and one up for doubles with fourteen names signed. (Just got a hot tip that Noble is going to walk off with the singles—anyone placing bets?) To top things off, two Grads coming from the Grad-Sophomore game, when asked whether or not they were of the opinion that the Grads were going to take the famous League A were actually vehement on the subject—see they, and we quote: "No doubt about it! Quin sabe? As for us, we were waiting until the play offs between Potter Club and the winners of League A. It should certainly be a drawing card since more and more interest seems to be forthcoming in men's intramurals. Things are looking up—or are they as concerning concerning MAA baseball.

AGAIN & AGAIN & AGAIN
 Twenty-five men signed up for varsity baseball—eight showed up for the meeting. So what? You heard it right, so what? How can the fellows be expected to turn their attention to baseball when we're still in the throes of a bilzard? The lukewarm attitude at the MAA Council meeting can also be explained by the weather. The decision to put varsity baseball on an informal basis may do as a temporary solution, but the final decision should rest on further investigation of the situation. It's one thing to start a sport early, but remember the chill is hardly off the basketball season!

WAA is fast writing fims to this season's basketball league what with Gamma Kappa Phi taking top honors. They deserve their title and the cup by putting out a team that not only took the soroty league, but beat the Pierce team from the Group House league.

Speculation on the outcome of the ping pong singles is running. (This seems to be the week for guessing games.) With several experts already contending (see WAA bulletin board for names) it will probably be hard fought. While we still have some allowance left we'll put it on Adeline Fischer—we admit the tables could be turned!

In its last home game of the season, the Varsity basketball team will play Plattsburg State Teachers in Page gym tonight. The preliminary game will feature Potter Club and Lippman's Pharmacy.

State played Plattsburg early in the season and defeated them in a close contest 51-43, at Plattsburg. The game was nip and tuck all the way and was tied 35-35 at the three-quarter mark when State in the last quarter started pulling away to take the game.

Merris, Plattsburg's captain, will be the man to watch and Coach Hathaway will probably give Bolo Marsland this job. Teamed with Bolo will be either Evans or O'Brien in the guard slots. Kirby, who started the last two games, will be in the center post with Ferah, Schick, George or Marzello as forwards.

Although the 1947 winter sports season has already halted Gamma Kappa Phi sorority as champions of the group house-sorority basketball tournament, the teams that will hold second and third place are still being decided. The playoffs are scheduled for next week when the rounds will be completed.

Psi Gamma Wins
 Tuesday night Psi Gamma met Beta Zeta in a poorly played game that resulted in a 10-5 victory for Psi Gam. Neither team used their regular players—Kopec, '48, and Genevess, '48 filling in for Psi Gamma while Brennan and Knapp, '47, and Parker, '48, substituted for the Madison Avenue squad. Most of the scoring was done in the second half although both periods were slow moving. Kopec, '48, was high scorer for Psi Gam with 4 points while Baker, '47, paced the Beta Zeta squad tallying 5 points.

Sorority League Completed
 The second and third place of the sorority league was determined Wednesday night as Phi Delta defeated Psi Gamma. This leaves Psi Gamma in the second position and Beta Zeta running third. Those teams will meet Farrell and Sayles respectively next week.

Classes Resumed In Life Saving

The WAA Life Saving classes were resumed this week according to Patricia Tilden, '48, Captain of Swim ming. The classes have not been held for the past three weeks due to an injury suffered by Miss Tilden in a basketball game.

Instructions are given each Thursday evening from seven to eight-thirty at the Jewish Community Center. Approximately sixteen swimmers are training for certification as Senior Life Guards while six persons are working for Advanced Swimmers badges under the Red Cross Water Safety program. Miss Tilden, a qualified life guard and holder of the Red Cross Instructor's certificate, is the only teacher in life saving this year.

According to Miss Tilden, interest in swimming has been high and classes well attended. The majority of the swimmers are freshman, many of whom show promise as excellent material for the rivalry swim. Miss Tilden urges all interested persons to contact her for additional information.

EPP Holds Lead Frosh To Meet Defeats KB As Myskania Thurs. SLS Takes Two In Loop Contest

Six fast contests featured play in the MAA Intramural Leagues this week. Second round got under way this week and better all-around play gave promise of better basketball for the remaining games.

In the Frat League Potter held its lead with a 69-27 win over KB. KDR split two games, downing KB 47-19 and losing to SLS 36-31. SLS also beat KB. In the Departmental League, the Grads nipped the Sophs 36-27 while the Frosh lost two, to the Jr.-Sr.'s 22-30 and to the Grads 18-37.

Ping Pong Tilt Near Final Set

The WAA Ping Pong Tournament has reached the final stages of the play-off. The fourth round has been entered with play-offs taking place between members in the third round.

In the fourth round only five of the seven games have been completed. The winners were: T. Mahoney, '47, over E. Adams, '50, S. Fisher, '48, over J. Serebnick, '50, B. Wakin, '47, over R. Lillienfeld, '47, A. Fischer, '48, over P. Tichy, '48, and R. Weiss, '48, over J. Evans, '49.

Captains A. Fischer, '48, and S. Fisher, '48, have asked that all games be played off as soon as possible or they will be forfeited.

There are only two more games to be played until the finals are reached. If time allows, after the final play-offs, women doubles will be arranged. It is also hoped that a game may be held with MAA.

Dr. John Sayles Retires Position As President

Nelson Assumes Duties Temporarily; Successor Will Be Named Later

Dr. John Marville Sayles resigned his position as President of State College last Monday. He has been ill with a heart ailment since February 9.

Dr. Sayles was appointed acting president in 1939 after the death of Dr. Abram Brubacher and was formally appointed to the position by the Board of Regents in 1943. Before becoming President he held several other positions at State College.

DR. JOHN M. SAYLES (Times Union)

Formulates Education Course
 Well known in educational circles, Dr. Sayles has been a frequent speaker at meetings of educators and a contributor to educational magazines. Here at State College, he formulated the educational program which consists of 2 years of education for Sophomores and Juniors and a schedule of practice teaching, and held monthly conferences and an annual round-table for teachers of the state. He is a member of the National Educational Association, the National Society of Teachers of Education, Phi Beta Kappa, and Kappa Phi Kappa.

Active in Albany Affairs
 Always active in Albany business circles, Dr. Sayles is a member of the Board of the Albany Home for Children, the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, and trustee of the Dudley Observatory, and as President of the Rotary Club in the years 1937-1938.

Until a permanent president is appointed, Dean Milton G. Nelson, Dean of the College, will act as President.

New Committee To Help Miller With Orphans

Student Council has appointed a committee to work with Charles Miller, '48, in providing more frequent entertainment for the children of the Albany Home. The members of the newly-appointed committee who will make plans for the remainder of this year and next year are Geraldine Cooperman, '50, Albert Kittredge and Jean McCabe, Sophomores, and Arline Ribber, '48.

The movement for orphan entertainment which was first inaugurated by Miller several weeks ago has been growing steadily since that time. As a result of his proposal the freshmen staged their Big-B "The P-wondered Wig," at the Home Wednesday, March 5, and the freshmen women have also made plans to take special interest in the children by having each student be in charge of one child. These students will seek to entertain the orphans through occasional movies, birthday cards and other special plans. The Sophomore class may also present their Big-B at the Home sometime in April.

Frosh May Sign For Ped

John Edline, '47, Editor of Pedagogue, has announced that today is the last day for freshmen desiring to work on Ped to sign up at the office in the Commons.

Compulsory Pedagogue club classes will be held Tuesday nights until Moving-Up Day for all members of the Sophomore and Junior classes.

Greeks Propose New Rush Rules For Next Year

Plans Will Eliminate Hush On Sororities

Molly Kramer, '47, President of Inter-Sorority Council, has announced that a new set of rules for sorority rushing has been proposed to take the place of the present regulations and which, if approved by Dr. Elton C. Stokes, Dean of Women, will go into effect next semester.

Rushing will still be conducted first semester and as in past years, open rushing will begin the first day of school but according to the new plans, will continue until the Monday after Thanksgiving, when silent period will open. This silent period will continue until the second Tuesday after Thanksgiving and thereafter when pledge services will be held.

Eliminate Non-Rush Period
 According to Miss Kramer, the non-rush period which extends from the close of the open houses to the beginning of the formal rush will be eliminated. During this non-rush period the present rules state that there can be no social engagements or exchange of greeting between sorority members and rushees at any time outside of the college.

As in former years, the number of women in any class that a sorority may pledge shall be limited to 15. However, according to the newly proposed rules, five more women may be pledged during second semester.

May Discuss Sororities
 Another change would be the elimination of the section of the rushing rules which says that individual sorority members may be friendly with rushees, but at no time may allow sorority matters to enter into the conversation. Under the new system, sorority matters would be discussed in the open much as in former years.

Lisker Elected Soph President, To Replace Baker

Thomas Lisker has been elected president of the Sophomore class to complete the unexpired term of Robertson Baker, who resigned his office two weeks ago. The new head of the Class of '49 nosed out his two opponents on the second distribution with 200 points over the college.

Numerical Results

Quota	120 x 100	+ 1	6001
Francello		2300	1
Kittredge		4400	2
Lisker		5300	6300
Total		12000	12000

Rivalry Standing
 As Lisker takes over the office, the Rivalry score stands at 14 in favor of the Sophomores. Last week's debate raised '49's total from 12 points to its present standing, and three more points will be at stake in the girls' basketball which opens next week.

Clowns, Magic, Music, To Furnish Background For Circus Charmers

Clowns, magicians and beauties are topping the entertainment bill at an amateur magician's show, of course. Someone asked if it were a beauty contest and the obvious answer is that in no other way can a review of fifty of the "pretties" of 1949 be presented.

It all sounds a little fantastic, but there aren't all fairy tales a little on the unrealistic side? Such a combination and more too, make for entertainment, according to Robert Wilcox, '49, who is the chairman of the whole affair.

"And Four To Go" is the Sophomore musical version of the final play in the series shown in New York City. During the last ten years, the three plays, "One For The Money," "Two For The Show," and "Three To Make Ready," have been titles as a slogan, the Sophomores have finished it with what they hope will be a smash hit.

The decorative scheme of the dance following the Big-8 will be similar to the one used in the auditorium. That's the Sophomore Big-8 and March 29, at 8:30 P. M. and tickets will be on sale in lower Draper all next week.

Thine The Hand . . .

Dr. John M. Sayles retires from position as President of State College. Just a few short words ending a great man's great work as State's number one personage.

To we, the present students of State, Dr. Sayles is as much a part of our college as Minerva herself. And there have been times in the past when we have wished he were just as passive as our goddess of wisdom—the day the summons arrived for the lecture on assembly cuts, the days he poked his head in the P. O. door and announced his disapproval at the littered untidiness, but his fairness and his trick of turning a desperate dilemma into a hearty laugh prompted a feeling of respect and affection in all the students he encountered.

And while "Who's Who" records lofty deeds of his instigating I'd courses and winning Phi Beta Kappa keys, we will remember his poking about in his pet shrubs and the surprise we experienced the first time he looked up and remarked about that, "sharp jacket you're wearing."

His years of experience as Principal of Milne acquitted him only too well with practice teacher blues and the Milne High maladies that infect our Senior students, and the special brand of understanding which he administered along with that extra pinch of humor, always eased the burden. Dr. Sayles used as his theme song, his own variation of the familiar adage, "I'm no chaplain; don't tell me your troubles." His variation—"I'm no chaplain, but tell me your troubles anyway."

State has lost a good President but we're sure she hasn't lost a good friend. You know where the key is, Dr. Sayles, drop in often, won't you?"

Congratulations . . .

From the paint smeared floor in the Annex to the actors' echoes in Page, A.D. has fought a winning battle to regain its former place of importance on campus.

Among the first of the war casualties to return to State, A. D. started its year off with a zest and managed to retain the pace down to the last Tuesday. Thanks for many enjoyable evenings go to the participating students and also to Miss Futterer for her excellent job of guiding. The props and costume committees deserve a special hand for the magic manner in which they transferred the same old equipment into new features each week.

Congratulations, A.D., on a good job well done.

Finale

By ASHWORTH and BARSELOU

Buriap had its night, to good effect, last Tuesday when Advanced Dramatics closed its successful season of one-act plays with the presentation of a "contrast in tragedies."

Miss Tellan is to be complimented for attempting so difficult a production as the St. John-Salomé affair. That she did not succeed completely was not entirely her fault. The play itself is a dangerously wordy one and far too long to hold the interest of the audience. It dragged, especially during the scene preceding the decapitation. If Miss Tellan had been less sparing with the scissors, perhaps the play would have been less tedious.

Orchids to production committee

The lighting and the make-up were adequate, the costumes were terrific! We seldom mention outright the members of that hard-working class known as "production committee," but we feel that this is a special case. So, we are proud to award the orchid of the week to Lois Filman who did such a wonderful job on the costumes with only the odds and ends in the costume-room to work with.

The set was rather unfortunate. Why is it that our stage crews always construct such symmetrical masonry?

About the cast . . .

Miss Felton gave a polished performance. We liked her gestures and the way she used her body. We feel, however, that she was not wickled enough to be the immortal Salome. She did not reach the heights demanded by the part.

Miss Hill was miscast. She was not the hard, incestuous woman who was the Queen. Her voice was not husky enough to sound "slutty."

State-Mint

By ELOISE WORTH

"If winter comes can spring be far beyond?" — It looks like old spring is coming down the home stretch. It wouldn't be a new season without new peppy arguments, and everyone's having them, so spring must be here.

The New Palz Vandal doesn't have enough letters to the editor at Brockport there's agitation for football next year—but Saint Lawrence University . . . revealed that the request for broader student government privileges was founded in part on a regulation denying second floor privileges to men students at sorority houses, and to women students at fraternity houses during house parties." Yes—spring is here!

Birds, and practice teachers are all aflutter. Interviews—good impression—$2400 minimum—and the P.T.s are beginning to find that it's not the school so much, it's the principal of the thing.

If at first . . . then by degrees . . . Down at the University of Texas a student in one beginning reporting class struggled with a wedding story. He didn't know much about it. And when the story was re-written, the student decided it was time for a conference with the instructor. "Mr. French," he started, "I'm a terrible. I have never made an F minus like this before. I'm ashamed of myself. Isn't there anything I can do to bring it up to an F?"

The Good Old Days
Everyone has so much to do now go bright!!!

Common-States

The Common-States is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the State College News.

One of the biggest events of the week was the combination of the recall of the Russian ambassadors from London and Washington, almost at the same time as President Truman asked Congress to grant $4 million for arms and supplies for Greece and Turkey.

This evoked a wild rumor about the lower halls and a hasty check into the files to see if geeses can still enlist in grade. The current drive for re-servants in all branches is also worthy of conjecture. The request by the president is no doubt an answer to the "get tough with Russia" sentiment voiced by many. While the implications, of this, especially, may cause a lot of sad shaking of heads, in the long run it seems desirable. The spread must be stopped somewhere, and the Near East appears the opportune place. And it's far wiser to stem the tide with dollars than lead.

At the Plattsburg conference last week-end, our representatives ran into a startling reality. Albany State Teachers College is not the only "State." Altho the largest, most complete and finest, we must give our little brothers and sisters their due. For purposes of clarity and economy, let's call Albany "State," and the other state colleges by name. Exchanges please note!

We spent a good part of Wednesday at the legislative chambers. The Assembly convened at 2:00 P.M. for the purpose of considering the Condon-Waldin "Anti-American" bill, receded until 4 after taking note of the full house present, went into caucus until 6, adjourned until 8, and spent the remainder of the night discussing serious topics, the Condon-Waldin Bill not being included. We recommend that every one spend a few hours at the sessions to observe our law-making bodies in action. The privilege is guaranteed by the State Constitution, and there's "always a good show at the Capitol."

Congratulations are due to Inter-Sorority Council for liberalizing their rushing rules. Although far from ideal form, the content of the story appearing on the first page is definitely a step towards bringing sorority rushing rules to a point of satisfaction. The only rule governing frat rushing is that rushees cannot be promised a bid from a fraternity man. The complete lack of gripes in fraternity circles is something to be noted by the sororities. Or is the silent form of punishment inflicted upon the usually loquacious feminine element?

Although it's frowned upon in many of the best circles, we'll climb out on a limb, saw in hand, and predict the score of the Myskania-Frosh tilt which took place yesterday. (We go to press Wed midnight). Myskania, complaining of lack of practice, and a speedy Frosh team should bring on the final whistle with the latter hugging a 42-17 lead.

A letter to the editor in this issue brings to light a problem which, although overemphasized, is worthy of note. Much of what is said about the Commons can be applied to other parts of the college buildings, but it shall be interesting to note which of the administrative agencies of our student body does something. And how about that ping-pong table? Must it collapse of its own weight before being replaced?

D&A To Present Collected Works Of Faculty Artist

Hopkins Will Sponsor Tea To Open Exhibit

An exhibition of water colors and drawings by Miss Ruth Hutchins, Assistant Professor of Fine Arts, will open with a tea, sponsored by Dr. Vivian C. Hopkins, Instructor of English, for the Albany Artists' Group and the State College Faculty Monday at 4:30 P.M. in the Lounge. During the rest of the week, the exhibit will be under the sponsorship of Dramatics and Art Council.

The drawing, "Lifting Fog," recently shown at the Albany Institute of Art and Art, has been purchased by the institute, but is being loaned for the college exhibit. Miss Hutchins has announced that following the week's showing, the exhibition will be transferred to Room 201, Dra-per, where they will remain until spring vacation.

Represents New England

A number of New England scenes are represented in Miss Hutchins' work, including a New Hampshire creek, a new landscape watercolor, and drawings of Montserrat Island. Scenes near Lake George are illustrated by a water color view near Point Landing and a drawing of an old school-house near the lake.

Paints Albany Scenes

Miss Hutchins' interpretation of Albany scenery may be found in two paintings of views from her apartment, one in water color, one in pastels. Within the watercolor group is found two garden scenes, one in winter, one in summer; also a view of Willett Street houselets and the park spring. The latter is called "May Day Memories."

Stamp Booth Goes, Tables Come, Congestion Remains

The stamp booth's gone, and the lower hall of Draper is no longer congested . . . but somehow, it's more difficult to get to Husted than it ever was before.

You just clear the crowds outside the Co-op, and you bump your shins against the leg of a table. And before you know it, some late Science major is knocking your books all over the Annex. By this time you're so late for class that you decide to cut, and you miss an important test.

Anyway, it seems the State prison has been unloading their tables on us, and of all places, they've been put in the corridor to the Annex. What they're for, nobody seems to know, but they sure look pretty. In fact, it seems to give them to seminars or discussions, if that's what they're for, when these poor veterans who are ready to start house-keeping need them so desperately. Oh well, yet, they're a little long for a kitchen anyway.

Dorm Residents For Next Year To Apply Now

All under-graduates who plan to live in the Residence Halls next year must obtain their application blanks, contracts, and information blanks from Mrs. Bertha E. Brimmer, Secretary of the Alumni Association, from March 17-21 inclusive. These contracts are to be filled out and returned by April 16.

Any student in the college may apply for a room with the exceptions of the following: Graduate students, unless they are on the staff in some capacity, and Seniors who plan to graduate in January. According to Mrs. Brimmer, the latter will not be given rooms because there are freshmen who will take these rooms for the full year.

The contracts will not be valid unless the deposit has been paid, but the $10 from last year is transferable.

The rules of the previous years are still in force, mainly that no deposits will be refunded unless a student has been dropped from the college, or after a year of attendance. After March 21 application forms will not be given out to students in college.

All checks should be made payable to the Treasurer of the Benevolent Association, the amount again being $218 for the semester.

Stinard, Former State Teacher, Gives Illustrated Talk On Mexico To Club

Mr. Jesse Stinard, a former Professor of Spanish at State College, spoke at a meeting of Pan Amigos, the Spanish Club, last Tuesday. During the first part of the evening he showed slides of Mexico while commenting on them in Spanish, and after while refreshments were served everyone reverted to English while Mr. Stinard discussed informally his experiences as a teacher in the Philippines.

The slides of Mexico and Mr. Stinard's commentary brought out particularly the exotic beauty of Mexico and the contrast between ancient and modern culture. Mr. Stinard showed views of the remains of the ancient Mayan civilization with its grandeur and beauty. These people had built pyramids larger than those in Egypt and huge temples for the worship of their gods. In complete contrast were the slides of modern Mexico City with its department stores and modern means of transportation.

Another contrast was shown between the people living in the mod-

State Colleges Blind Minister To Speak Of Newspapers During Assembly Today

At an Intercollegiate Press Conference at Plattsburg State Teachers' College last weekend, plans were made for the organization of a collegiate newspaper syndicate to be called, "The State Teachers' College Exchange." This press-conference was part of the Intra-College Conference at which eleven teachers' colleges were represented.

The delegates at the conference decided that a system of exchange should be formulated so that all the state teachers' colleges may be aware of what the others are doing and so that state colleges may become more closely-knit.

The proposed plan is that an intercollegiate column be adopted by each college as a regular feature in their publications. The material for this column would be compiled by one or two appointed members of the individual college staffs and the most interesting news from each college would be sent to the editor of the exchange. The Editor-in-Chief for the coming year is Larry Northram, of Potsdam State Teachers' College. In future years the editors will rotate among the various schools.

One of the features of the column will be student polls which will be tabulated and published from the 11 colleges. The first poll to be taken will be, "Do you think that professional groups should strike to meet their demands?" This poll will be taken in the near future among members of the present Senior class.

The immediate duties of the colleges who are to adopt the program are to name two delegates to the syndicate, to suggest possible names for such a column of intercollegiate news, and to conduct the poll as soon as possible.

Nelson Reports On Conference Principles Of Education Discussed At Meeting

Four members of the State College faculty, Dr. Milton G. Nelson, Dean of the College; Dr. Robert S. Fisk, Principal of Milne High School; Dr. Robert Frederick, Director of Teacher Training, and Dr. Wallace Taylor, Assistant Professor and Supervisor in Social Studies, attended the Convention of the American Association of School Administrators & Allied Organizations at Atlantic City last week. The theme of the conference was "Education and the Development of Human and Natural Resources."

Discussions at the four-day conference were devoted mainly to the educational problems facing educators today, federal education aid, rural education, the improvement of buildings, teacher shortage, curricula and training of good teachers.

Paul A. Witly, Northwestern University, in his talk to the National Society of College Teachers of Education, stated that in a recent survey conducted among pupils concerning what children like in their teachers, it was discovered that the following were the most common traits in the order of their popularity, cooperativeness, democratic attitude, kindness and consideration for the individual, patience, wide interests, personal appearance and impartiality, sense of humor, good disposition.

Topic To Cover Man's Happiness

To Vote On Resolution For Machine Purchase

LARMON S. SHERWOOD

Mr. Larmson S. Sherwood, a Methodist minister and lecturer, will speak in assembly this morning under the sponsorship of Student Christian Association on the topic, "The Reflections of a Happy Man." A resolution will be introduced and voted upon for the purchase of a new mimeograph machine.

Born in Washington, D. C., Mr. Sherwood attended elementary school at the School for the Blind at Baltimore, and graduated from the Cohoes High school, Cohoes. He then attended Union College, graduating in 1934, and did graduate work here at State. Mr. Sherwood is an ordained Methodist minister and in addition to his work in a regular pastorate, travels nearly 50,000 miles a year to fill his lecture engagements.

Three Students Represent State At Conference

At the second Intra-State Teachers' Conference of 11 state teachers' colleges which was held at Plattsburg last Friday through Sunday, State College was represented by Ruth Bentley, President of Student Association, Philip Lashinsky, Seniors, and Alice Williams, '48. Miss Bentley was elected Secretary of the conference.

The purposes of the conference were to further co-operation between state teachers' colleges and to advance the teaching profession in the state. Among the highlights of their discussions were problems of student government and social activities, the teacher salary bills, a cut system, financing of athletics, budget systems in the schools, housing, and a collegiate syndicate of newspapers.

Favor Young-Milmoe Bill

All of the delegates presiding at the conference collaborated on a telegram in favor of the Young-Milmoe bill for state aid and sent the message to Governor Dewey.

State College extended an invitation for the conference to be held in Albany next year and unanimously approved the message to Governor Dewey.

To Appoint Director

One other decision of the delegates at the conference was for each college to appoint a Director of Inter-Collegiate Relations in order to carry on the correspondence and other business.

Lost-Found Department Will Sponsor Sale

Pearl Pless, '49, Director of Lost and Found, has announced that a spring sale will be conducted to get rid of accumulated articles. Before the sale, lost articles will be posted in sections so that they may be claimed by the owners.

The list of lost items will be placed on the Lost and Found Bulletin Board in lower Draper along with the time they may be claimed in the Commons, beginning March 13. Any students who find it impossible to claim their articles at the specified time should contact Miss Pless by student mail, giving a full description of the article and the number under which it is listed on the bulletin board.

All articles not claimed will be sold shortly after March 24.

Audrey Bopp, '47, President of Commuters' Club, has announced that the organization has reserved the Lounge from 4 to 8 P.M. next Friday for the benefit of members before the performance of the operetta "Ermeline." Supper will be served under the supervision of Harold Tunkel, '50, former chef in the armed forces.

The menu will consist of macaroni and cheese, cabbage salad, coffee, peas, and gingerbread with whipped cream. The supper, served at cost, will be 30¢ per person, and a business meeting and dancing will follow.

Committees include: salad, Joan Peterson and Mary Alice Rega, Freshman; dessert, Florence Albright and Jane Condo, Freshmen; arrangements, Miss Bopp, and Clara Creighton, '48; entertainment, Ann Gourley, '49; music, Miss Bopp. All commuters, who wish to attend, should sign up on the Commuters' Club bulletin board. If this supper is successful, Miss Bopp stated that others would be planned.

Dorothy Sturzenberger, '47, President of Pi Omega Pi, honorary commerce fraternity, has announced that all commerce faculty and students are invited to a punch party in the Lounge Tuesday at 3:30 P.M. Games will be played and refreshments served.

Review "Stormy" Session Of Legislature For Benefit Of Uninitiated Spectators

The student body of State College is fortunate in having the legislative halls of the State so close to its campus. It would seem that even science majors would take advantage of the opportunity afforded them to observe the wheels of government grinding action.

But recent surveys, by an impartial agency, disclose that most residents of State never enter the Senate or the Assembly. So here is a brief summary of legislative procedure for the uninitiated.

If you have the perseverance to plod your way through the maze of hallways to one of the galleries, if you have the patience to sit through hours of routine business, you may be treated to the sight of a full dress debate on a chamber floor. Of course you must be careful not to lean over railings, drop your coat on the benches, or smoke. And if you are not in agreement with the speaker you must remain silent on punishment of being shown the door.

position, consistent behaviour, interest in pupil's problems, flexibility, use of recognition and praise, unusual proficiency in presenting subject matter.

In a discussion on the problems of securing adequate problems for rural areas, Clifford F. Archer, of the College of Education of the University of Minnesota, stated that low salaries was one of the chief reasons given by rural teachers for leaving the profession."

In the Wednesday session building trends were discussed. Such improvements as audio-visual aids and conditioning schoolrooms for eye-comfort and efficiency were suggested.

At the ninth general session, the Honorable Robert A. Taft outlined a basis for federal educational aid. At the tenth general session, Fred Waring, speaking on music education stated that group singing is the key to musical culture.

The convention was entertained Tuesday night by Phil Spitz and his all girl orchestra and chorus and by a session of "Information Please" with John Kiernan as the feature speaker.

The concessions and shows will be judged on the basis of originality and attractiveness. The judges who will also serve as chaperones for the event will be Miss Catherine Newbold, Instructor in Social Studies, Dr. Varley Lang, Instructor in English, and Mrs. Lang, and Dr. Robert Rienow, Assistant Professor in Social Studies, and Mrs. Rienow.

Jean Alverson, and Alice Knapp, seniors, are in charge of prizes with Wilma Diehl, '48, Frances Flanagan, and Jean McCabe, Sophomores, as treasurers. Helen Kistler, Dorothy Diffin, and William Baldwin, Juniors, have planned the finale, and Marion Vitullo, '47, will lead the singing.

The general committee assisting Miss Prindle includes Eloise Worth and Gloria Gilbert, Juniors, Jean Pulver, '49, and Geraldine Cooperman, '50.

Junior Editors To Attend N. Y. Press Meeting

The three associate editors of the STATE COLLEGE NEWS, Carol Clark, Ann May, and Ellen Rochford, Juniors, will attend the Twenty-Third Annual Convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Thursday through Saturday, March 20, 21, and 22. The theme of the convention, which is being held at Columbus University in New York City, is "The School Press—Instrument of International Understanding."

This annual convention will unite the school presses of the country in meetings, conferences, and discussions with student editors, faculty advisers, and professional journalists. These meetings will cover all phases of writing, editing, publishing, and advising student publications.

Round table meetings will be conducted by student leaders Friday afternoon, while the popular afternoon will be given on Thursday afternoon and Saturday morning. Besides the number of sectional meetings scheduled, there will also be several general meetings for the publication staff as a whole.

Entertainment will also be included to produce a well-rounded program, revolving around the central theme.

Also, according to the proposed plans, rushees could enter sorority houses and telephone sorority women at any time. Emphasis would be placed on more coke parties and open houses to better acquaint rushees and sorority women.

Penalize First Offense

Formerly, there was no penalty for the first violation of rushing regulations but according to the new proposals, one offense will result in the denial of the individual from attending the buffet supper.

State Becomes "Superior" At Plattsburgh Conference

Of course, we here in Albany realize the superiority of our Alma Mater, but after the conference that was held in Plattsburgh last week, I'm sure the other State Colleges in New York do, too.

The reasoning behind this statement is easily understood. You see, every time one of our loyal representatives wished to refer to the school that had sent him, he would merely say State. The fact that the conference was only for State Colleges didn't bother these students in the least. However, it soon became the standard "joke" of the other delegates, and in this way we became known as the "superior State."

Gee, aren't you glad that we sent such wise members of our student body to the meeting and aren't you glad you go to State?

Communications

To the Editor:

We have, at State, one place of recreation: the Commons. The Commons is dirty and needs a general cleaning, overhaul and paint job.

Entertainment will also be included to produce a well-rounded program, revolving around the central theme.

place used as much as our Commons is. Let's see a little co-operation between M.A.A., W.A.A. and Campus Commission with some goading by Myskania, Student Council and all of us. We can't have a Student Union now so we'll have to use what we have and with a little effort we can improve what we have tremendously.

Dear Editor:
Something very serious has been happening during the last few weeks. Things have been disappearing from the Lost and Found Department in lower Draper. Since these boxes are kept locked and I am the only person who has the keys, it is certain that someone is taking these articles through the slots in the top of the boxes.

All I can say is that it is pretty low when someone steals things from the Lost and Found department. I'd appreciate it if anyone who sees students around these boxes would let me know, and I'd also appreciate it if this stealing would stop.

State To Debate Cornell Squad Next Thursday

State will meet Cornell University in a debate Thursday, March 20, at 7:30 P.M. in Room 20. Maryellen Diener, '47, President of Debate Council, has announced that State will uphold the affirmative of "Resolved: That industry should pay a guaranteed annual wage."

Lou Rabaneau, '47, and Samuel Scott, '48, will take the affirmative for State, with Arthur Bustein and Herbert Hadison upholding the negative for Cornell.

Limbacher Coaches Team
Mr. Carl Limbacher, Instructor in English, who is the faculty advisor for the Council, has been coaching the team. Cornell is stopping here for the debate on their way to New England. Miss Diener has stated that a decision will probably be made, but as yet, this isn't definite.

Drew university, whom State defeated two weeks ago, has been successful in defeating Harvard University.

Cancelled Union Debate
The debate with Union, scheduled for last Wednesday was cancelled, but Debate Council is planning to meet St. Vincent's squad before the end of the semester. Miss Diener also stated that there is a possibility the Council will "go on the road."

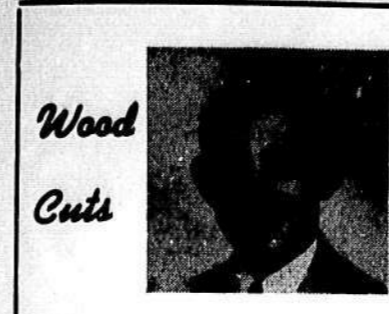

We seem to be working an endless game here. A few fellows approach us and ask why MAA doesn't do something. We proceed to pounce on MAA for slipping up on the job. Next MAA makes a big effort to get fellows interested. Finally, after all of this long process has transpired, we find that only a very few fellows were interested after all. All this has three very bad results:

- 1. It puts MAA on the spot because of our criticism.
- 2. It puts us on the spot for being critical without real justification.
- 3. It does not get down to the real problem which is to seek a means of fostering athletics.

As we see it, a relatively small number of men are participating in sports activities—AND THE SAME FEW MEN ARE ACTIVE IN EACH SPORT. Our problem is to seek the forgotten men (by their own choice) and to get them interested. The softball season will begin very soon after Easter recess and we want to see at least 8 teams in the league, and more if possible. You don't have to be a "hot-shot" in play; basketball emphasized that. All we ask is active participation.

Basketball Excerpts
Tuesday night saw a double-header in Page gym. In the first game a heavily favored Senior-Junior combination took a dubious 26-24 win from the Sophs. (Something should be done about the scorekeepers.) At any rate the game was unimpressive from start to finish with the edge going to the Sophs in team play. Al Beninati led the scoring column with 13 points.

In the second game the Finks outscored a spirited KDR team in the second half after trailing through the entire first half. Final score was 43-34 in favor of the Finks. Gipp and Ruback looked good for the Finks and Dickinson and Stone were outstanding for KDR. Fore a more detailed account of the game, we refer you to Louise Dodge, '47, who saw the entire game from the edge of the seat. For biased versions, see either Dizzy Dickinson or John Dooley. For the least detailed version, see Sullivan. (Next week it'll be your turn, Brophy!)

By FRANK WOODWORTH

It seems that we always have something to gripe about so this week we will take a crack at the so-called indifference to athletics that exists in this school. During the past week both ping pong and bowling lists were posted. The response to ping pong was fairly good with the result that the matches are already underway. In spite of this, however, the bowling league seems to be at a near standstill. At the time of writing the only visible evidence of interest was a list posted by KDR. At this rate there will be four teams in the league—all frat teams. This seems to be a pretty poor representation out of the total number of guys in school.

Apology Due

We seem to be working an endless game here. A few fellows approach us and ask why MAA doesn't do something. We proceed to pounce on MAA for slipping up on the job. Next MAA makes a big effort to get fellows interested. Finally, after all of this long process has transpired, we find that only a very few fellows were interested after all. Sports' Snoop

By PAULA TICHY

"Super Sleuth Sports Snoop" has returned to the scene of the time again. In accordance with our usual or unusual good taste the query, "Do you believe that Student Association or the college should own a camp" was thrown to the wolves.

Glancing over the answers it seems that State is strongly in favor of this program.

Lubey, '48—If one were being planned for, it should be provided for on the same basis as Student Union. As for how the money is obtained it's a good idea.

Sweeney, '47—It would not only be good for the college kids while in college but would help them as future teachers because camping will be playing a big part in high school curriculum in the future.

R. Johnson, '50—Yes. It would serve as an incentive for school spirit to have a camp which is "State."

G. Miller, '47—I think it would be nice but also I think that most of the student body is too busy to put much into it.

W. Baldwin, '48—It would be beneficial for all students and especially for the summer students because there are no extra-curricular activities going on. Also it's the best season for that type of recreation. It'd be better than swimming in mud in the 6-mile water works.

J. Cafaro, '50—No. A campus would be foolish, unnecessary and cause hardships. Why be uncomfortable when you can be comfortable? Camps remind me of camp fire girls and camp fire girls remind me of . . . oh well.

J. Morley, '50—I think it would be fine if the support of the camp wasn't placed entirely on the student body—we're paying too much already. It would be a good place for practical training of high school students in outdoor activities with student teacher supervision. It could be run as a business organization of student body with payment of fees by people attending, like regular school.

Stone Announces Bowling Tourney

Al Stone, Captain of MAA bowling, has announced that the tournament will be run on a handicap basis and will be two rounds long.

The most convenient method of giving the reduced rate will be to charge each man a quarter for every game he rolls. Captains of each team should keep a duplicate score sheet. At the close of the tournament, these sheets will be consulted and to each man in the league will be paid a nickel for each game that he bowled.

The schedule for the week of March 16:
Tuesday, 4:30—SLS-EEP.
KDR-Vand Hall.
Thursday, 4:30—SLS-KDR.

MAA Nears Final Play-Offs In Basketball

Competition in the MAA Basketball Leagues neared conclusion and playoff games as two previously scheduled games were played this week. In the Frat League, the Finks downed KDR, 43-34, while in the Departmental League the Jr.-Sr.'s beat the Sophs, 26-24. Five more games remain to be played in the second round before the playoffs between the first two teams in each league.

Coming from behind in the second half the Finks nosed out KDR, 43-34. KDR led at half time, 21-17. "Diz" Dickinson and Al Stone kept KDR in the lead in the first half as Stan Gipp and Hank Ruback were scoring for the Finks.

O'Leary Leads Finks
Returning in the second half the Finks began to click as "Red" O'Leary found the range with four field goals. Stone and Paul Merritt kept the score close but Ruback's ability to get the ball off the boards and score the taps paid off in the end. Ruback and Stone divided scoring honors with Ruback getting thirteen and Stone twelve.

Jr.-Sr.'s Down Sophs
Led by Joe Carosella who dumped in four field goals and a foul, the Jr.-Sr.'s beat the Sophs, 26-24. Al Beninati was high for the Sophs with fifteen points.

MAA is sponsoring a ping-pong tournament this spring with Al Stone in charge. In the men's singles only two games have been played with Sullivan defeating Dickinson in two close games, 21-19, and Mullins topping Heriweg.

Eggert Schedules Fencing Classes

The WAA Fencing team began its new season last week with a practice held Saturday morning in the Milne High gym. Peggy Eggert, '48, is Captain for the team.

According to Miss Eggert, practices will be held each Saturday from ten o'clock until twelve. Mr. Joseph Messier, of LaSalle, has been engaged to instruct the group again this year. Later in the season, matches will be scheduled between the State College team and LaSalle, with possible matches between other teams.

Classes for Beginners
Members of this year's fencing group include Peggy Eggert, '48, Margaret Hoefner, '49, Margaret Seaman, '49, Martha Murphy, '50, and Audrey Eveleigh, '50. Classes for beginners will be held at the same time. Miss Eggert urges all students interested in fencing to come to the practices at Milne on Saturday.

Reports from those who are fencing this year show that enthusiasm is high and the sport enjoyed by all. According to frosh, Marty Murphy, "It's fun. We get enough exercise to last all week from these Saturday morning practices," while Meg Hoefner, '49, had this to offer, "Oh, my aching muscles!" The fact that there are to be masculine opponents has also added to the appeal of the sport.

Mens' Ping Pong Season Starts

MAA is sponsoring a ping-pong tournament this spring with Al Stone in charge. In the men's singles only two games have been played with Sullivan defeating Dickinson in two close games, 21-19, and Mullins topping Heriweg.

Miller, Carr, Margolin, Weiner, Zippin, McLaren and Sherer have drawn byes in the first round while Weber will play Hoyt, Gordon will take on Noble, Walsh will try to defeat Horsman, Wagner will try to top Leader, McClintock will take on Christy, Brophy will try to vanquish Baron and Wingate will play Eaton. This round must be completed by March 20 and the winner must take 2 out of three games.

Eight teams have signed up for the doubles. The first round must be played off by the 19th of March. The playoffs in both tournaments will take place on April second.

Fersh High Scorer In Second State Win

Fresh from their decisive victory over Plattsburg and pointing for their fourth win of the campaign, the Purple and Gold journey to Oneonta tomorrow night to take on a strong Hartwick five in the final game of the season. The Varsity is definitely "up" for this game and would like nothing better than to return with a win.

Strengthened by the addition of two stellar players, Hartwick will be a tough nut to crack. Playing at the center slot for the Indians will be George "Zeke" Zelle, a #17 sharpshooter who joined Hartwick in mid-season. Zelle tallied twenty points as Hartwick carried Siena into an overtime period recently, losing 54-64.

Marsland and Evans Bowling Out

Leading an aggressive State squad into action in their final game in State livery will be "Red" Evans and "Bolo" Marsland. Paired at the guard post, the two Seniors have been the main cogs in State's defense all season and will be sorely missed when they hang up their State uniforms for the last time. The squad feels that they are a better team than the one that bowed to Hartwick earlier in the season, 56-62, and will be out to prove this tomorrow night.
