CSEA CRUSHES TEAMSTERS

CELEBRATION — In Suffolk County white- and blue-collar representation elections in which the opposition did everything in their power to delay the day of reckoning, the Civil Service Employees Assn. won such a one-sided affirmation from the voters that there is little wonder a great deal of celebrating took place by officials who guided the victory campaign. Shown following the election, with a sign that only begins to reveal the jubilation are, from left, Irving Flaumenbaum, State first vice-president; Robert Villa, Suffolk County chapter president; Edward R. Valder, Suffolk County CSEA executive representative, and Theodore Wenzl, State president.

Safety Officers Assn. Splits With AFSCME; Will Work With CSEA

(Special to The Leader)

ALBANY — The Safety Officers Benevolent Assn. (SOBA) has severed ties with Council 82, AFSCME, and has endorsed the Civil Service Employees Assn.

In an open letter to Vincent Diglio, president of Council 82's safety officer local 1790, SOBA president Leo Moore charged that Council 82 had done "nothing" for safety officers and had neglected them in negotiations on the Statewide level for the Security unit, to which the safety officers belong.

SOBA had joined with Council 50, AFSCME, in order to represent the 7,300 members of the Security unit last year.

Views Changing On Public Employees' Right-To-Strike

THE notion that a strike by public employees can be equated with treason persists in the face of accumulated evidence that there have been hundreds of such strikes throughout the Nation. Indeed so deeply ingrained is the (Continued on Page 11)

SEIU Poor Third In Suffolk Fight

(From Leader Correspondent)

SMITHTOWN—The landslide victory of the Civil Service Employees Assn. in Statewide election last year was duplicated last week in Suffolk County.

Suffolk County employees voted by margins of six-to-one and three-to-one for representation by CSEA in both white- and blue-collar divisions over its closest competitor.

The vote set the stage for a similar showdown with raiding unions in Erie County this coming Friday.

Suffolk employees soundly rejected Teamsters Local 237 and Local 100 of the Service Employees International Union.

'We'll Swamp Erie Foes,' Wenzl Says

BUFFALO—On the heels of a landslide victory last week by its sister Suffolk County chapter in a representation election against the Teamsters, Erie chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. looks to a similar decisive win this Friday when it does battle with another high-dues union to determine the representative for approximately 2,500 Erie County blue-collar employees.

The voting machine election will take place from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. in nine separate polling places throughout the County. Voter turnout is expected to be heavy.

The Fire Officer

by Lt. John E. Kelly

President,
Uniformed Fire
Officers Assn.

What Firefighters Are Up Against

AS PRESIDENT of the 2,500-member Uniformed Fire Officers Assn., we read many articles pertaining to the work of the firefighters.

SOME ARE good — some are not so good.

ARTICLES are written about the brave men of the department who risk their lives each day going into burning buildings to save life and property.

FIREFIGHTERS are people—who fight fires, not other people.

THEY HAVE been bombarded while trying to do their duty. They have been hit by bricks, shot at, and fire equipment has been sabotaged.

ONE OF the news articles that has attracted much attention among both firefighters and the general public is one that we are reprinting with permission of the author, Dorsey Short.

SHORT IS a veteran newsman who writes for both the Ridgewood Times and the Woodside Herald, weekly papers published in Queens.

HIS article reads:

"What kind of mentality does it take to throw molotov cocktails and rocks at firemen attempting to put out a blaze that may cost human lives?"

"What kind of mentality does it take to try to cover up and smooth over the damage to the firemen and to the burned area so the public won't know just how bad it is?"

"Recently firemen in the East New York section braved molotov cocktails, rocks, sticks and any other missiles an unruly mob could get its hands on to battle fires of "undetermined" origin.

"Which means someone set the fires. And the same ones or others greeted firemen with a hail of missiles to keep them from putting the fire out. As one of the rioters put it: "it'll keep burning until the whole thing is gone."

"We cannot attempt to make sense out of this type of reasoning which even the college level youth uses as an incentive to burn valuable buildings on campuses.

"We can only find excuse in the supposition that these mobs are "doped up" by pushers who keep selling their deadly wares until the victims are no longer responsible for their actions.

"It's the reason we have so many muggings, beatings, senseless gunfire, etc. Dope accounts for more than half of the crime committed in this country.

"Which means it is high time the sources of dope were choked. We cannot buy the excuse that Congress cannot apply sanctions against some of the countries supplying dope to our giant market. Why should our American youth and adults suffer to protect a good paying racket for people in France, Mexico, etc.

"It is high time we put the health and welfare of our own citizens ahead of that of others who are using us as patsies to promote their own interests. Not to mention some individuals who are getting fat on the proceeds of the racket here and the clods on the streets known as "pushers" who also net a nice percentage of the profits."

"The rioters at least have the excuse of being befogged with dope. Those who order the firemen not to report their injuries because it will make the reports look bad and make the disturbances look bigger than they really were, have no excuse.

"We think it is time the public knew what the firemen are up against when they lay their lives on the line to protect the public. We think it is time we knew what patrolmen are up against when they lay their lives on the line to quell rioting mobs armed with fire bombs, rocks, bats, etc.

"Will it make it easier for them if we soften the statistics, cut down the list of the injured and try to make it appear things are not as bad as they seem?"

"Will this ostrich attitude encourage more men to become police and firemen and go up against rampaging mobs?"

"Gagging the firemen so the public will not know how many of them were injured is no way to solve the problem.

"It will be capable of solution only when it is met head on with sufficient force to repel rioters and a real effort to choke off the source of supply of dope that is at the bottom of most of our troubles and far more responsible for them than poverty."

WE REPEAT: "Firefighters Fight Fires — Not People."

State Spent $50,000,000 On Outside Consultant Fees Last Year, Stein Probe Shows

State agencies have spent more than $50 million in consultants fees during the past year, an investigation spearheaded by Assemblyman Andrew Stein has revealed. The Manhattan Democrat contended most functions performed by outside consultants could have been carried out as well by qualified State employees.

"In fact," said Stein, "it was only through the efforts of the Civil Service Employees Assn., last year, that the jobs of 35 State architects working for the State Office of General Services were saved. They had been scheduled for dismissal, supposedly as an economy measure. But CSEA proved that their jobs were necessary and that it would cost a lot more money to replace them with outside contractors."

Stein said an investigation of public records in Albany shows what he called "numerous cases of unnecessary waste in the State's use of consultants." In one case, he said, $300,000 was spent for a team of consultants to supervise another team of consultants.

Stein urged the appointment of a temporary Joint Legislative Committee to probe State use of consultants. He also proposed an overhaul of the New York State Office for Planning Coordination, formed in 1966 to supervise State planning. The OPC heavily uses outside consultants rather than do its own planning, Stein said, and suggested that the OPC should be reorganized to include more of its own economic, architectural, engineering and planning specialists. Stein said the OPC could then be used as a planning aid to other State agencies.

"Certainly the State must turn to consultants from time to time," Stein said. "But it's a question of how often for how much, and under what supervision." He suggested the Joint Legislative panel consider:

(a) why highly qualified State personnel cannot be used more often in planning State projects

State Seeking To Add Aides In Day Care

Twin titles in the general area of day care specialist are now open: senior social service representative, offering $11,536-13,926, and senior social services consultant, with the pay of $12,831-15,436.

The jobs indicated are fully described in Exam Notice No. 20-526, available at any office of the State Civil Service Dept. The representative's title calls for a bachelor's plus four years of related work experience—in social work, education, recreation, day care, public health nursing or community organization. One year of administrative background is recommended, with related graduate work substitutable year-for-year of experience.

The consultant's post asks a master's degree plus three years of the job history mentioned above. One year holding a supervisory role is also requested of those applying. Doing social work in a day care program may also be given credit.

Selection is based on the results of a written test, conducted periodically. Its contents consist of: social service administration; administrative supervision, and social work principles and practices.

In addition to getting applications in person or by mail from the State Department of Civil Service, you may also visit the State Employment Service to gain more details on the exam and expected duties for each of the titles.

L.I. Conference Launches Push For $500 Welfare Plan, 20-Year Pension

(From Leader Correspondent)
PLAINVIEW—The Long Island Conference of the Civil Service Employees Assn. has defined a 20-year half-pay retirement plan and a $500 per employee welfare fund as essential to public employment in the last third of the twentieth century.

The board of directors unanimously endorsed a program to achieve the modern retirement benefits as endorsed by the Metropolitan Conference and the New York City chapter earlier. They also advanced the proposal for an adequate welfare fund to be administered by CSEA.

Conference president George Koch presented the program for action after discussions among officers and members.

Charge Onondaga County Dumps Additional Cases On Overextended Staff

SYRACUSE—Onondaga County officials have refused to follow the recommendations of their own Public Employees Relations Board in providing more funds for additional caseworkers, the president of the Onondaga chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., charged last week.

Andrew H. Placito Sr. said the County's failure to act on the Mini-PERB's recommendation led to the dumping of more than 700 local welfare assistance cases on Social Service Commissioner John L. Lascaris' office by public assistance caseworkers.

The caseworkers said they could not handle these extra cases because they each already are handling more cases than State standards permit under law.

County officials have known since at least July 9, 1969—more than a year—that the caseworkers were carrying the excessive case loads, Placito pointed out in a statement.

That was the date the Mini-PERB handed down a decision in a grievance case filed by Carol F. Gossner, then president of Onondaga chapter's Social Services unit, charging that public assistance caseworkers were assigned "unfair and unreasonable work quotas."

The CSEA unit represents the Onondaga County caseworkers and other employees of the Department of Social services.

Valid Grievance

The Mini-PERB ruled in the 1969 decision that "there is a valid grievance as there is a violation of the application of the existing laws as to caseloads and supervisory standards."

The board found that extra funds would be needed by the Onondaga DSS to resolve the caseload and supervisory standards problem. And, since there were no funds available in the 1969 County budget, the Mini-PERB had "no choice but to refer the matter to the County

Arbitrary Age

State first vice-president Irving Flaumenbaum, past president of the 44,000-member Conference, told the group that the "biggest complaint" of civil servants is against the arbitrary age limitation on retirement.

The plan advanced would guarantee employees two and a half percent credit for each year of service and retirement at half-pay after 20 years regardless of age. It would allow employees to accumulate additional credits and retire later at up to 100 percent pay after 40 years.

"This would eliminate the age limit," Flaumenbaum declared.

The proposed welfare fund would put $500 per employee annually to work in a union-administered fund that would finance life insurance; family health insurance coverage; health insurance after retirement, and other benefits such as education for job advancement or to send employees' children to college.

"Only the amount is new," Flaumenbaum said. "We need to make the amount something big enough to really do a job."

The proposals are being forwarded for study in time to be included in the next State contracts negotiations.

PERB Picks Mediators; Trio Named

ALBANY—The Public Employment Relations Board (PERB) has announced the appointment of mediators in the following contract disputes involving the Civil Service Employees Assn.:

Jerome Winterhalt, of Syracuse, to the dispute between Altmar Parish-Williamstown Central School (Oswego County) and the Oswego County chapter of CSEA;

William Duggan, of PERB's New York City office, to the dispute between North Babylon Union Free School District No. 3 and the CSEA;

James Belasco, of Buffalo, in the dispute between Wyoming County and the Wyoming County chapter of the CSEA. Belasco is an assistant professor in the School of Management, State University of New York at Buffalo.

Designated Mediator In Depew Dispute

Chosen to mediate the dispute between the Depew Board of Education in Erie County and the Civil Service Employees Assn. is Phillip Ross of Williams-ville. Ross is also a professor of industrial relations at the State University at Buffalo.

Placito Blasts Onondaga Cty. On Vote Against Fund Transfer

SYRACUSE—Onondaga chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., has taken sharp issue with Democrats on the County legislature who voted against a transfer of funds to pay for wage increases negotiated for County employees by the CSEA unit.

Chapter president Andrew H. Placito Jr. charged that the Democrats voting against the transfer used "poor judgment."

Democratic County legislators had voted for the 1970 contract which Onondaga chapter negotiated last Fall—a contract that included the pay increases, he said. The contract was approved 23 to 0.

However, he explained, when the Legislature sought to transfer the money needed for the higher salaries and wages for

Special Southern Conference Railroad Service To Buffalo Saves Delegates 25 Percent

HARMON—The Penn-Central's Empire Service to Buffalo will have an extra car on it Sept. 8 as the 9:21 a.m. train will be carrying a group of Civil Service Employees Assn. members to the annual meeting at Buffalo's Statler-Hilton Hotel.

After stopping at Poughkeepsie at 10 a.m., where the group will be joined by more CSEA members, the train carrying the CSEA special car will continue directly to Buffalo, arriving at 4 p.m.

Coordinating the trip for the Southern Conference, CSEA, is James Lennon, first vice-president of the Conference. Tickets for the special service are about 25 percent less than a regular round trip—$31.50 from Croton-Harmon and $28.50 from Poughkeepsie. The return trip will leave Buffalo at 10:30 a.m. on Sept. 11.

Checks for the special train should be made payable to the Penn-Central Railroad and mailed to Lennon at 58 Drake Ave., New Rochelle, N.Y. 10805 before Sept. 3. For further information, contact Lennon at (914) 632-1474.

Members of the committee are Joyce Beckley, Albany; Irene Carr, Oneonta; Robert Carruthers, Albany; Ethel Chapman, Syracuse; Edward Dudek, Elma; Jean Fatica, Albany; Mary Hart, Albany; Raymond Hunter, Albany; Joyce Jewell, Utica; Edna Percoco, Staten Island.

Mary Gormley of Buffalo will assist the committee in its preparations for the meeting there.

Public Contact Exposure Emphasized By CSEA In Seeking New Field Reps

Feelers have been sent out to find new prospective field representatives for the Statewide Civil Service Employees Assn. The jobs feature the salary range of $11,286-$13,676 and emphasize public contact in day-to-day labor-management dealings.

Sought of applicants are a combination of qualifications, including a high school diploma, three years of "responsible business or investigative experience which must have involved public exposure," and two additional years of such background or a baccalaureate from a recognized college or an equivalent amount of training and experience. Examples of public contract work which typify this requirement are being an adjuster, salesman, customer representative, investigator or inspector. Labor relations experience, states the CSEA, "is especially desirable."

Additional requirements revolve primarily around mental, physical, character and residence criteria. Besides being a New York State resident and possessing a license and car, you must be in good physical condition and not suffering from any mental or physical defects that may interfere with job performance.

Character Standards
In terms of character, conviction of a felony or other law violation may bar appointment. Personal traits, according to the CSEA, should demonstrate "the ability to meet and deal effectively with others and to secure cooperation and avoid antagonisms." Good powers of observation and memory are considered essential. You must also be able "to understand and carry out complex written and oral directions.

Duties vary greatly and are given in full description on the job announcement, available through CSEA Headquarters. Among the highlights are servicing a number of chapters units, and occasionally a conference of the membership. This may involve surveying needs, establishing public relations contacts, examining records, representing members in employment disputes, and other sundry responsibilities "to promote confidence in public employees and the Association and understanding of their problems."

Cutoff date for filing comes fairly soon—on Sept. 15. Interested persons, men and women, are urged to apply immediately. You should address all correspondence to: Civil Service Employees Assn., Inc., 33 Elk St., Albany, N.Y.

Retain Mon.-Fri. Format To Attract More Typists Into Spots In City Govt.

Aware that the need to fill numerous typist vacancies continues, the City Personnel Dept. has determined that it will retain the daily walk-in test series until further notice. It also hopes to intensify a broadscale search for applicants once Autumn arrives.

Many essential City services rely in large measure on clerical staffs. In this connection, typists form an integral link. To promote their entrance into City government, the rapid appointment system has been successfully implemented, paving the way for high scorers on the exam to be hired within one week.

To join the ranks of the typist staff, you'll need neither formal experience nor specific schooling; instead, the stress will be put on speed and accuracy on the keyboard. The Department of Personnel permits up to five mistakes as your limit if you can demonstrate your ability to type 35 w.p.m. As with all City aides, the final step before appointment can be implemented is the qualifying medical exam.

To take the test, report to the Department of Personnel's Recruitment Div., Room M-1, 220 Church St., Manhattan, from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Monday through Friday except holidays. Persons passing the test will be issued applications and will be directed to report for placement at the weekly certification pool.

Candidates who wish to work for the Department of Social Services should go to the fourth floor, 305 Broadway, Manhattan, on Monday, Tuesday or Thursday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Adjudication Post Goes To Berke

ALBANY—Sidney W. Berke of New City has been named to head the State Motor Vehicle Dept.'s new administrative adjudication program for the Bronx.

Assisting him will be five referees: Frank M. DeBellis, Pelham; William P. Harnett, Bronx; William A. Giustiniani, Yonkers; Album C. Martin, Bronx, and Jack Schifter, New York City.

Stein Probe Shows $50 Million Paid By State In Consultant Fees

instead of higher-salaried outside consultants?

(b) what criteria and procedures are used in the selection of consultants?

(c) how much State money goes to consultants outside the State?

(d) how closely do consultants work with existing State planning bodies?

(e) should an ethics board review contracts with consultants? Stein said examples of retired State officials receiving consulting fees were not unusual.

Stein said an examination of records indicates that more than $30 million in fees to consultants will be spent during construction of the South Mall in Albany.

Stein charged that since its inception in July of 1968 the State Urban Development Corp. has contracted to pay outside consultants more than $11 million (30 percent of UDC expenditures). Consulting contracts of more than $500,000 each were given to the firms of James Polshak, Giovanni Pasanella, Paul Rudolph, Gruzen and Partners, all of New York City, and to Sert, Jackson and Associates.

Since August of 1969, Stein's investigation showed, more than $16 million in non-engineering, non-architectural consultant contracts have been contracted for by various State agencies. The major share of these contracts was issued through the following State agencies or departments:

Who Spent What?

Urban Development Corporation _____ approx. $2 million
Department of Transportation _____ approx. $3.5 million
Office of Planning Coordination _____ approx. $2.5 million
Department of Conservation _____ approx. $.5 million

Special consultant contracts cited by Stein include:

Contract No.	Amount	Department	For
c40398	$ 69,000	OPC	Manpower study
d40638	125,000	Conservation	Development of Iona Island
d40667	125,000	UDC	Queens platform over RR yard
c41205	2,000	Battery Park Authority	Advise Authority on public relations
s43552	17,775	Senate	Individual consultant on insurance rates
s43075	1,000	Military and Naval Affairs	Brig. General to consult on retirement program
c40038	10,000	UDC	Formation of housing companies
d41295	300,000	UDC	Consultants to supervise other consultants

"With State officials, including Governor Rockefeller, constantly complaining about the shortage of funds," Stein concluded, "it seems worthwhile to find out exactly how these sums I have cited are being spent."

Close Filing Sept. 21 For Consult. RN

The title of consulting nurse is coming closer to its deadline date, Sept. 21, points out the Dept. of Civil Service. Applicants are invited to write that source in order to obtain Exam Notice No. 23-302, which outlines the job description.

Basic requirements revolve around possession of or eligibility for a registered nurse's license as well as a bachelor's and master's in some area of nursing and nursing administration. Additionally sought: five years of experience, including "three years of nursing supervision, administration or consultation pertaining to hospital, nursing home or related facilities."

Scheduled exam date is Oct. 24, with the written test to focus on: administration of hospitals and nursing homes; nursing principles and procedures; supervision and administration; and community and interprofessional relations. The current salary for this title lists the range as $13,528 to $16,243.

Erie, Babylon, Islip Employees—Take Note

THE Civil Service Employees Assn.'s crush of two rival unions in representation elections in Suffolk County shows all who are interested in horning in on the public employment labor field that they had better come armed with a history of service, integrity and democratic unionism if they want to go anywhere with their plans.

Idle promises, carpet-bagging employees and high dues are the calling cards of many of these labor organizations who are losing members in the private sector and who feel free to barge in where they are, quite obviously, not wanted.

Twenty-six hundred sixty-nine Suffolk County employees were quite vociferous in their belief in CSEA, as they voted for the union with a history of fighting for the rights of the public employee—and winning their fights.

Six hundred thirteen Suffolk employees were taken in by the unsubstantiated stories of the union that has experience in the trucking industry, but little in the field of public employment.

Only 71 chose the Service Employees International Union—so their story was even less believable.

But the 2,669 employees who picked CSEA by a vast margin have, by their decision, aided all their fellow employees by retaining in Suffolk County the union for civil service employees. CSEA's motto "We Serve" is as much descriptive of the union itself as it is for the employee who daily serves the public.

The president of the Safety Officers Benevolent Assn. who, last year, joined with Council 50 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union to represent the 7,300 members of the Security Unit within State employment, last week severed all relationships with that AFL-CIO affiliated union.

Council 82, AFSCME, was formed from the SOBA and Council 50 memberships in order to defeat CSEA. However, Leo Moore, president of the SOBA, has renounced affiliation and endorsed CSEA. Charging that AFSCME had done "nothing for safety officers," Moore admitted that, "We were fooled one time but do not intend to be fooled a second time."

Erie County employees in the blue-collar unit as well as employees in Islip and Babylon should heed the example of their fellow public servants on Friday and vote CSEA—the union that returns hard work and accomplishment for the dues dollar—and crush, once more, any union that returns only high-cost lip service and idle promises for its outlandishly high taxes.

Bracing For Big Test

Be prepared with a preview of test content for the upcoming exam you plan on taking, by reading The Leader, which outlines what's on tap.

Your Public Relations IQ

By LEO J. MARGOLIN

Mr. Margolin is Professor of Business Administration at the Borough of Manhattan Community College and Adjunct Professor of Public Administration in New York University's Graduate School of Public Administration.

School Benefits Adults, Too

KNOWLEDGE is power.

FOR CIVIL servants, knowledge is also promotion as well as the best kind of public relations.

AS THE time approaches for schools and colleges to re-open next month, every civil servant should plan now to increase his or her knowledge, skills and opportunities for promotion.

THERE IS no such thing as being "too old" or "too near retirement." In the language of the younger generation, that's a "cop-out."

LAST JUNE, a 67-year-old retiree was graduated from Manhattan Community College with a degree in business. He is now continuing his studies at a unit of the City University for his baccalaureate degree.

HE INSISTS he will earn his master's degree in business administration before age 75.

STUDY COURSES for active and retired civil servants are available everywhere in New York State. State residents are fortunate to live in a State with a top-notch University and its complex of major units, agricultural and technical institutes and community colleges.

STUDY COURSES for State residents are available everywhere. There is hardly an area of the State that does not have a unit of the State University within reasonable driving distance.

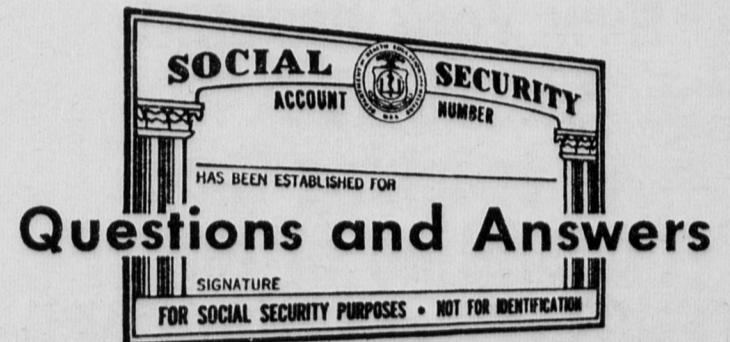

ADULT EDUCATION courses abound. But why confine yourself? Aim for a degree, if you don't already have one. It's knowledge in your head and surely money in your pocket.

AND FOR those civil servants who insist they haven't the time, or can't get to a unit of the State University conveniently, write and ask about the University's television study courses.

THE ADDRESS is Television, State University, 60 E. 42 St., New York, N.Y. 10017.

FOR THOSE of our readers who live near a unit of the State University or a community college, phone or write for the list of their course offerings this Fall.

THERE IS no time to be lost. Most courses begin right after Labor Day. So take a giant step toward knowledge, promotion and improved public relations for all of civil service.

I was baptized shortly after my birth. I have a baptismal record. Will this be sufficient proof of my age or should I get a birth certificate for social security purposes?

The baptismal certificate should be sufficient.

I was born in England. I will retire in about five months. Should I write for a birth record for social security purposes or will other evidence be sufficient?

You should write for a record of your birth. If no record can be located, then ask your social security office what other evidence can be used.

My husband passed away recently and I have two small children. My friends say we are entitled to social security benefits. What proofs should I bring when I go to the social security office?

You should bring in the birth or baptismal certificates for yourself and your children; proof of marriage and proof of death. Information on how much your husband earned last year and this year will also be needed. Bring in his W-2 form or tax return if he was self-employed. We will, of course, need your deceased husband's social security number. If you or the children have a number, please bring these in also.

Psych. Jobs Now Stress Researching

Renewed interest in research upon psychological and social attitude problems looms as a field to be attacked by those who pursue two psychologist titles with the State. The respective posts pay $11,315 and $12,585, and a 14 percent salary jump is in store.

The bulletin points out: "State psychologists are moving forward with bold new programs in mental health and retardation; they are seeking new ways to alleviate crime and delinquency and rehabilitate the offender; and they are working in a pioneering approach to the treatment of narcotic addicts. You'll exercise the opportunity to join with other professionals in a team approach to resolving these problems."

What's more, because of the breadth and diversity of the State's programs, psychologists may choose from nearly 50 locations, including urban, suburban and rural areas. You may be employed in the hospitals, institutions or clinics of the Depts. of Mental Hygiene, Correction or Health; in the training schools of the Social Services Dept., or in the treatment centers of the Narcotic Addiction Control Commission. Qualifications for one of these positions hinge on having a master's in a recognized psychology field and two years of professionally supervised experience. Graduate study beyond the master's degree, up to 24 credits, may be substituted, however.

Test content will concern principles and practices of psychology; statistics and psychometrics; research methodology, and counseling, diagnosis and evaluation. In applying, write or visit any regional office of the State Dept. of Civil Service and obtain a job bulletin so you can effectively prepare yourself for your new scope of responsibilities.

A $2,975.00 TOTAL INVESTMENT

puts you in a unique no overhead, no selling business. A realistic profit potential of $12,000 to $15,000 per year can be yours. Work only PART-TIME at your convenience. Limited openings available. Call Mr. James (201) 567-6862.

Foster Parents are "Special People"

25 years in the making.

We'd like to thank the makers of the other new economy cars for giving us such a nice head start.

It gave us time to develop an inspection system so ridiculously scrupulous that it expects every VW to pass 16,000 examinations.

It allowed us to find out (at a reasonably scientific pace) how we could double our horsepower without doubling the cost of your horsepower. (The VW still gets about 26 miles to the gallon and requests only a smidgen of oil.)

It permitted us to work on things that didn't even have to do with the actual making of the car. Medi-car, the Volkswagen Diagnosis System, for example. Electronic equipment that can spot trouble in a car before it gets to be trouble. When you buy a new VW, you get 4 free Medi-car checkups.

Of course, it took great fortitude to resist squandering our time on phony styling improvements.

The beetle looks just as good (or bad) as it did 25 years ago.

DON'T REPEAT THIS!

concept of illegality of strike action by public employees that elected officials have traditionally shunned use of the word "strike" as if abjuration of the word would eliminate the conduct.

The classic example of resort by such officials to pejorative synonyms for a strike is the comment by Calvin Coolidge when he was Governor of Massachusetts and aggressively suppressed a strike in 1919 by policemen in Boston. Coolidge insisted that the job action taken by the Boston police should not be called a strike. When pressed for a more appropriate term, he described the police action as "desertion from duty." Similarly, President Franklin D. Roosevelt once denied with wry humor that employees of the Works Progress Administration were on strike. According to the President, the employees had "merely returned to their homes."

Earlier Strikes

Despite the paucity of records and the predilections of public officials against tagging public employees with the label of strikers, the history of public employee relations is punctuated by strikes and by strike threats. That history reveals, for example, that the first policemen's strike in New York State took place in 1889 in the City of Ithaca. That strike was precipitated when the Mayor appointed policemen at a $14 weekly salary but the City Council appropriated only $9 a week.

As far back as 1888, the garbage and ashcart drivers in New York struck because they had not received their wages. Two years later, in 1890, the drivers of street sprinklers struck for more money. In 1906, the entire street cleaning force of the City struck for a 48-hour week and for relief from other annoying regulations. After three days of this, refuse was piled so high, particularly in the City's East Side tenement district, that Mayor George B. McClellan invoked the emergency powers of the City Health Dept. to terminate the strike.

Despite the vast numbers of strikes by public employees, many elected officials seek to sustain as inviolate the sacrosanct proposition that a strike by public employees is an offense against the State. Whatever the merits of the doctrine, it is now being questioned by many experts in the field.

No Strike Provisions

Just two weeks ago, the Federal Association of Government Employees amended its Constitution to delete a no-strike provision. The American Federation of Teachers at its convention last week appointed a committee headed by former United States Attorney General Ramsey Clark, to seek State legislation to bar resort to an injunction by public agencies threatened by public employee strikes. Both Pennsylvania and Hawaii presently have laws that recognize public employee rights to strike under certain conditions.

Theodore W. Kheel, a top labor mediator, has for a long time espoused the doctrine that existing laws prohibiting strikes by public employees undermine the collective bargaining process in public employment. According to Kheel, strikes should be barred only among policemen, firemen and other vital areas of public service. As an antidote to strike threats among civil service employees, Kheel further recommends a Taft-Hartley 80-day cooling-off period before a strike is called to permit full use of available techniques for breaking a collective bargaining impasse.

The simple truth is that responsible civil service employee organizations are not strike-happy. It is also a fact that Taylor Law injunctions and penalties have not prevented strikes. Nor did Federal penal laws against strikes stop the post office employees from striking, under circumstances that they had no collective bargaining procedures through which to present their demands in an orderly and effective manner.

Institutions do not easily change but the ancient views about public employee strikes are undergoing a complete metamorphosis.

Alert Ambulance Man Foils Attempted Holdup Of Cabby In Brooklyn

James Garvis, an ambulance driver with the New York City Health and Hospitals Corp., customarily is viewed as a quiet and easy-going fellow.

This attitude, however, changed Sunday, Aug. 9, at 6:57 a.m., when he noticed an altercation at Amboy and Blake Avenues in Brooklyn. A quick glance and he realized what he was witnessing: the attempted robbery of a cab driver.

He immediately sent word to his dispatcher on the two-way radio in his vehicle for police assistance. Then he attempted to help the cabby.

The situation became quite tense after the arrival of the first police cruiser and a "10-13" to "Assist Patrolmen" was flashed to Police Headquarters.

Heroism Lauded

A total of nine patrol cars responded and three arrests were made. Garvis went back to work with praises from both the police and the cab driver ringing in his ears.

This week, Dr. Joseph T. English, president of Health and Hospitals Corp., was apprised of the heroic efforts of Garvis. He authorized the issuance of a special citation and commended him for his heroism.

Garvis, it is understood, will shortly be awarded a special Civilian Commendation Bar by the New York City Police Dept.

Placito Blasts Onondaga County

County employees, four of the Democratic legislators voted against the transfer resolution.

The "Yes" votes were enough to pass the measure, but the action of Democratic members voting "No," he said, "leaves much to be desired in the minds of our members as to the intent in fulfilling the requirements of the Taylor Law."

Placito pointed out that State law "gives us the right to organize and negotiate with the County, and requires both the County and our union to conduct such a relationship on a good-faith basis.

"We have been representing public employees in Onondaga County for many years. The Onondaga chapter feels that it has made a successful attempt to carry out the statement of policy in the Taylor Law in attempting to promote harmonious relationships between County government and its employees and to protect the public by assuring at all times the orderly and uninterrupted operations and func-

Big Showdown In Ellison Park: Monroe Dept. Heads Take On Legislators At Picnic Game

(From Leader Correspondent)

ROCHESTER—Monroe County Deputy Parks Director Sam Cooper scored big against the Monroe County Legislature recently even though the legislators were fielding 11 men at the time.

The County department heads were battling the legislators in softball at the annual picnic, sponsored by the Monroe chapter of the Civil Service Employees Assn. and by the County, when Cooper whacked one into right field for a home run. Cooper, who helped plan the outing at Ellison Park, just outside Rochester, drew a walk his next time at bat.

"They're afraid of me," he boasted.

The sun ducked behind the clouds just enough to keep things cool and the annual affair, which attracted more than 3,000, was a delight for the employees.

It also was a heyday for the kids.

Six-year-old Laurie Celeski paused long enough before the tions of government.

"Since our contract negotiated last year was previously approved unanimously by the County as an employer, we anticipate the County should be willing to pay the cost of its negotiated agreement," Placito said.

"There's all these lollipops stuck in the ground and you pull them out. You get to keep them," she said.

Town Of Union Chap. Fills 4 New V-P Posts

The Town of Union chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., has created and filled four new vice-presidential positions in a major reorganizational move of the unit's structure.

Unit president Anthony Combpiano announced the appointments of Richard Longo as vice-president in charge of legal and statistical negotiation needs, Betty Stolz as vice-president for negotiation scheduling, George Mancini as vice-president for non-competitive negotiations and Angelo Vallone as vice-president for special affairs.

Caseworkers Overworked

executive for appropriate action."

Commissioner Lascaris said after the caseworkers had left the cases in his office that he had asked for 36 additional caseworkers in the 1970 budget, but this request had been reduced to 18.

He has asked for 100 more caseworkers in the 1971 budget, Lascaris said. The department now has 100 caseworkers working on public assistance cases. About 70 of these turned over the excess cases to Lascaris on Aug. 13.

Caseworkers who participated in the action said the State mandates that caseworkers not be assigned more than 75 cases each. Some of the Onondaga County department workers have been assigned to as many as 105 cases they said.

In a letter telling Lascaris of their planned action, the caseworkers said:

"Our primary concern for this action is the client. Because of the high caseloads per worker and because of the increasing amount of paperwork, we feel it is impossible to enable the recipient to help himself and to eventually become self-supporting."

Mini-PERB Decision

This same theme was echoed in the Mini-PERB decision:

"The Board, however, highly recommends that serious consideration be given by the County legislature and the County executive for additional funds in the budget for the year 1970, so that the caseworker may be given caseloads which will insure proper processing and effective work, so that methods of administration will result in efficient operation and adequate application of the now existing laws."

The grievance case was handled by Earl P. Boyle, CSEA regional attorney, who represented Miss Gossner.

Placito pointed out, too, that at a March 10, 1969, hearing on the grievance, both Lascaris and Miss Gossner agreed as to the acts and so stipulated that a stenographer would not be needed to take minutes.

And, he said, that the local PERB was established by the County legislators under the Taylor Law "to promote a harmonious and cooperative relationship between the County government and its employees and to protect the public by assuring, at all times, the orderly and uninterrupted operations and functions of County government.

"It appears that the County legislature has not acted in good faith either on behalf of the public assistance caseworker or the public in not budgeting adequate funds as recommended by the local PERB," he said.

Roswell Park Aides Receive Cancer Grant

BUFFALO — A $50,399 grant for cancer research has been received by Roswell Park Memorial Institute, the State Health Dept.'s cancer research and treatment center here. The grant was announced by Dr. Hollis S. Ingraham, State health commissioner, and Dr. Gerald P. Murphy, acting director of RPMI.

The grant, from the John A. Hartford Foundation, Inc. of New York City, was made through Health Research Inc., a non-profit agency of the State Health Dept. Studies under the grant will be conducted by civil service employees directed by Dr. George E. Moore.

In the research, volunteer patients with advanced cancers will donate small quantities of blood from which white cells will be removed. The cells will be used in an effort to grow artificially antibodies used in treating drug-resistant disease organisms. The project will be carried out in two stories of a special RPMI annex under the supervision of George V. Vosseller, a chemical engineer.

The grant is the second from the Hartford Foundation to be announced this month. The first grant provides $302,607 for a two-year study at RPMI of the possible causal relationship of certain viruses and cancer. The new grant brings the amount contributed to RPMI by the Foundation in the last two years to $1,822,771.

The offer provides that any actively employed insured member of the group life insurance plan who became age 50 on or after Jan. 1, 1970, or whose 55th or 60th birthday is during 1970, may convert $1,000 or $2,000 of this group insurance to a permanent individual insurance.

Group insurance would be reduced by the amount converted, and the payroll deductions of such insurance would be reduced accordingly.

The conversion plan features many other items of interest to group life insurance members.

All of those interested may request information on the conversion privilege by writing to the Civil Service Employees Assn. at 33 Elk St., Albany, N.Y. 12207, prior to Sept. 1, 1970. # FIRE FLIES

Paul Thayer

Some time ago, a truck company in Brooklyn was sent a spare rig that had no protection for the men against missiles, etc. When they were ordered to locate into a high harassment area they reneged. One thing led to another, red ink was splashed around and the thing got sticky. Frankly I think they had a point and I'm in their corner.

As a result of that incident, one would assume that the Division of Apparatus would have learned its lesson. However, on the morning of Aug. 17, in the wee hours, Ladder 27-2 bogged down in a lake of water created by open hydrants and was forced out of service. (It is feared that the rig is so badly damaged that it will have to go back to Pirsch.) Meanwhile Ladder 33's truck was given to 27-2 and a spare (wooden) with protection only for the officer, chauffeur and tillerman was delivered. It was found to have a defective hand brake and was rightly refused. Spare No. 2 arrived and this baby had no protection for anybody. As of this writing, that's what they are responding with and it would seem that people top-side just don't profit from experience!

While visiting with 31 Truck the other day I was told about an outstanding performance made by Probationary Fireman John Perno, who gave an excellent account of himself at a fire at 1555 Bryant Ave. some two weeks ago. When a blue-shirt from 31 says it was good, it must have been really good. Checking on it, however, I got the impression that it was considered routine fire duty and far be it from me to question it further. I would say this to Probationary Fireman Perno: Don't be discouraged if your effort was not recognized with a write-up. There will be other times perhaps, and even if there aren't, you know in your own heart you've done your best. Charlie Ballentine spent 20 years in Ladder 26, was admired and respected by everyone as one of the greatest truckies ever to wear a helmet, yet never once did he get a medal. It just happens that way sometimes.

We just lost two Marine Companies! In some quarters, the fact that the eleventh floor waited until the executive boards of both the UFA and UFO were safely out of the City and at the IAFF Convention in Florida is referred to as dirty pool.

I don't like Monday morning quarterbacking, so I'm going to make a prediction. Somebody is going to rue the day those companies were disbanded. Maybe not tomorrow, or a year from now, but like the night the Empress Bay exploded in the East River and the Brooklyn Bridge got going real good Every Marine company was ordered to the fire and the chief was damned glad he wasn't minus two. The Princess Bay blew up in Bayonne a few months ago, but there are plenty of the same type tankers plying the waters of New York

John P. Sullivan No. 2 is the first whip of Ladder 23 and a hell of a fireman. Looks like the cycle has gotten 'round to him. On Aug. 3 at Broadway and 145th St., he saw a man running, suspected he was up to no good and grabbed him. Just then the store manager came running, yelling "Stop thief." Sully already had made the collar. On Aug. 8, while a fellow blueshirt was at the tip of the aerial, operating the ladder-pipe manually, a citizen hopped up on the turntable and attempted to work the controls. Sully subdued him and the citizen was arrested for interfering and endangerment! On the same tour, while searching at a two alarm (L23 first due) he found a seven-month-old infant apparently dead. Taking it to a place of safety, he brought it back in about ten minutes via mouth-to-mouth. A week later, Aug. 17, he joined his buddies on the net in the rear of 612 West 140th to catch a male jumper from three stories up. Alongside him was Fireman Jim Crosby, who had just broken the three-story fall of another jumper with his own body. Next night, nothing in the press about it! # Wenzl Predicts Erie CSEA Ballot Victory

been thrown around by AFSCME in this campaign as they were by the Teamsters in Suffolk," said Erie County chapter president George Clark. "The campaign has been hot and heavy. "But CSEA has a great deal of confidence in a victory on Thursday. We think we have made it clear to County employees by our record over the years that CSEA can do the best job for County workers. Our overwhelming victory in Suffolk proved this."

Wenzl Sees Victory

Theodore C. Wenzl, CSEA president, predicted that CSEA would swamp Local 1095 in the Aug. 28 vote. "Erie County employees have seen through AFSCME's smoke-screen," he said.

"Bargaining is the name of the game now. And only CSEA can point to hundreds of contracts negotiated and signed throughout the State, including right here in Erie County where white-collar County employees are now at the bargaining table, represented by CSEA.

"CSEA has also proved itself in the area of resolving employee grievances," he said. "Just last week, an employee at Meyer Hospital had a grievance and she brought it to both CSEA and AFSCME. In a manner of one day, CSEA had the matter resolved, and the employee got what she wanted. AFSCME promised action, but sat on its hands."

Safety Officers Renounce AFSCME

second time," said Moore.

Citing several instances where Council 82 had overlooked or neglected the work demands of safety officers, Moore thoroughly condemned the AFSCME Council and insisted that SOBA was very much alive and would seek the assistance of CSEA, which represents the four other State units.

CSEA president Theodore C. Wenzl said, "We welcome the support and participation of safety officers in our union. We will do everything in our power to help them. SOBA's dissatisfaction only proves what we've been saying all along: Council 82 has neglected most of the groupings within the unit, I strongly believe AFSCME will rue the day it decided to ignore the problems of the safety officers, the conservation officers, forest rangers and other employees in the unit."

Fact-Finder Recommends Pay Increases For Aides In Middle Island School Dist.

RIVERHEAD—A State-appointed fact-finder has recommended an increase in salary for all non-instructional employees of the Middle Island Central School District No. 12 in Suffolk County.

The fact-finder, Lawrence I. Hammer, of Massapequa, was assigned by the State Public Employment Relations Board under provisions of the Taylor Law to recommend a settlement in the dispute between the School District and the Middle Island Civil Service Employees Assn.

Hammer called for all those at the minimum hourly wage to be increased to the State minimum of $1.85 per hour and all other hourly employees increased 20 cents per hour or a cost-of-living increase of 7½ percent, whichever is greater. He further recommended that all full-time employees be placed upon the median of the ten contiguous school districts.

Other recommendations include:

- All night differentials to be at the ten-district median, with a guaranteed minimum of $215 annually.
- A 30-minute lunch break provided employees remain on the district grounds (For those on a regular daily work basis of more than 270 minutes)
- A minimum guaranteed 30-minute daily lunch hour for all custodial and maintenance workers working eight hours per day, five days per week.
- Time-and-one-half compensation for all hours in excess of 40 hours.

- Half-day cumulative sick leave per month for part-time employees.

- Ten-month clerical workers to receive 60 percent of vacation granted 12-month employees—two weeks after one year, three after five years and four after 10 years).

In the dispute between the East Meadow Union Free School District No. 3 (Nassau County) and CSEA, Anthony M. Mauriello of New York City has recommended a two-step across the board increase for all non-instructional employees. He called for a $750 increase in the first year of the proposed contract, and an additional $650 the second year. Also recommended was a salary adjustment with more equitable promotional opportunities for long-tenure employees.

Visitors Named

ALBANY—Members of the five-member Board of Visitors for the new Wilton State School for the Mentally Retarded in Saratoga County are: Mrs. Sidney Van Dusen of Glens Falls; F. Donald Myers of Wilton; Paul E. Pontiff of Glens Falls; Ellis T. Riker of Ballston Lake, and Dr. Clarence V. Latimer Jr. of Hudson Falls.

After AFSCME Failure

CSEA Solves Erie Problem In Few Hours

BUFFALO—The Civil Service Employees Assn. may have set a new record when it settled a grievance last week involving an Erie County employee, The Leader has learned.

George Clark, president of the Erie County chapter of CSEA and chairman of the CSEA grievance committee at the County Home and Infirmary, said that a grievance involving an employee at the home had been resolved in less than a day.

The complaint was filed with CSEA representatives on Aug. 18 by Francine Lloyd, a nurses' aide, who had asked for a leave of absence because she had to undergo an operation. She was denied the leave because she was a temporary employee and was not eligible, according to the County, despite the fact that she had been employed at the home for 17 months.

Miss Lloyd met with field representatives Robert A. Milling and Ann Chandler and Clark, who took the grievance immediately to the director of nursing. The very next day, Miss Lloyd, who would have had to resign her position and return as a new employee after the operation, was made a permanent employee and granted the leave of absence because of CSEA's efforts.

Miss Lloyd also had sought assistance from Cameron Hunt, an international organizer sent to Erie County to help Local 1905, AFSCME, in the representation election against CSEA. Hunt, it was reported, told Miss Lloyd that he would take care of the grievance, but failed to do anything about it.

Bulletin

Hempstead Aides Gaining $1,250 Hike Over 2 Years

HEMPSTEAD—Employees of the Town of Hempstead have voted approval of a new contract featuring $1,250 minimum pay increase, according to Kenneth Cadieux, president of the Town unit of Nassau chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn.

The new two-year contract negotiated by the Civil Service Employees Assn. provides a $750 across-the-board pay boost in 1971 plus an additional $500 or cost-of-living adjustment, whichever is greater, in 1972. Full details of the package which includes 19 other major gains, will appear in next week's edition.

Special MH Comm. Sets Sept. 16 Meet

A luncheon meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 16, by the Special Mental Hygiene committee of the Civil Service Employees Assn., reported Irene Hillis, chairman of the 17-member panel. Place of the noon-time meeting will be the Dewitt Clinton Hotel in Albany.

ADVICE — Giving pointers to pollwatchers of the Civil Service Employees Assn. on how to detect election frauds is State CSEA president Theodore C. Wenzl, in advance of last week's Suffolk County representation election in which CSEA scored a landslide victory. Seated at left is Arnold Moses, CSEA supervising field representative.

CSEA Dumps SEIU And Teamsters In Suffolk Cty. Election

present throughout the day at Suffolk chapter headquarters here, commented: "It is a shame that the labor unions, with all the unresolved internal problems they have, keep trying to raid the civil service. But civil service employees have more intelligence than these people give them credit for."

He added, "We're Number One."

State first vice-president Irving Flaumenbaum, a Long Islander, asserted gleefully, "We REALLY beat them, didn't we!"

The Teamsters tally of less than 20 percent of the vote, he said, "was a pretty poor showing for a group that worked for two years." The SEIU tallied less than seven percent in the blue-collar division.

Chapter president Robert Villa said employees voted on "CSEA's record of performance rather than on promises."

The results triggered an impromptu party among workers at chapter headquarters, where they were commended by Wenzl. Hundreds of telephone calls were received from employees eager to know the outcome.

Negotiate Now, Villa Demands

SMITHTOWN — The Suffolk chapter, Civil Service Employees Assn., Friday demanded an immediate start of negotiations for 1971.

Chapter president Robert Villa said the representational elections had delayed the start of talks on reopenable issues of the CSEA contract concerning wages, retirement, dental coverage, sick leave and overtime.

PERB Replacement

The State Public Employment Relations Board has announced its choice of Jerome Winterhalt of Syracuse to replace James Sharp as mediator in an Oswego County dispute. Parties to that dispute are the Parish-Williamstown Central School District and the Civil Service Employees Assn.

Pass your Leader on to a non-member.

Regional field supervisor Arnold Moses, who directed the staff effort to get out the vote said, "This proves we have the best field staff team."

The returns showed that the Teamsters got zero votes in the Town of Babylon polling place, where the CSEA is challenging the Teamsters in a Town representational vote Sept. 2.

The vote was also read as significant to the Town of Islip election between the CSEA and the whipped Teamsters union Sept. 1.

But, most of all, it was a bell-weather for Erie County employees.

Wenzl commented: "It is in the big urban and suburban areas that we are faced with these challenges, which take up so much of our effort." He looked forward to an early disposition of the union raids.

The final tally, announced by Suffolk Labor Commissioner Lou V. Tempera, was:

	CSEA	Teamsters	SEIU
white collar	1,953	374	—
blue collar	716	239	71
