CRIMSON AND WHITE

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1938

ALBANY, N. Y

THE MILNE SCHOOL

VOLUME IX

JUNIOR NEWS

NUMBER 7

JUNIOR HIGH PLAY IN FULL SWING

There are twenty-six characters in the play which will be produced December 1896. He seen became the principal at 14, under the direction of Miss Donnelly, Genese's. When he became principal of Miss Bolton, and Miss Waterbury. So you Milno he insisted that h high school be can impaine how many people are rushing built. In 1929 he established the prote and fro between the English Office, sent Milno High School. Mrs. Barsan's, and Miss Martin's, trying to got through on time. The costumes are coming along well with the able assistance that a picture be painted. It was paintof Miss Martin, Mrs. Barsam and her sowing od by David Lithgow. It was the combined classes. The costumes are designed by the Gift of the Class of 1938 and a friend, Art students and are made according to and now han s in the office of Milno. costume books on the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries in England. Some methors are also assisting with the cestumes.

Since this is a ghostly play, you know a lot of work has to be done to put this play on. After all this wak has been done to present a good play for our amusement, every one should turn out to soo it. The tickets are only twenty-five cents. We will be seeing you Wednesday night.

CLUB TEWS

The band is pr gressing nicely. They have two new members; Harvey H bmes, who plays the trumpet, and Fred Detwiler who plays the clarinet. The band will scon start playing "Stardust" . . . . The Swing Club Miss Whomling's and Miss Waterbury's is decorating the Home Economics Room with chains and bells. They are doing a very nice job, and the room looks levely. ... The Game Club played checkers, binge, and indoor tonnis this wook. . . . The Science Club took a trip to the Weather Bureau last week. They saw the instruments which recorded the weather. The program committee for next week is Rebert Eckel and Bornard Gelding. Joseph Jarvis has been elected their new president. In two wooks they plan to visit the observotory.... The Sub-Deb Club is having a ton next week at the State College Darnitery. The ten is being given by their sponsors. Ruth Salter and Eleaner McFoo will pour.

The Boys! Sports Club was atside practising basketball and pass-w rk. ... The Stamp Club was looking at stamps. Three begrs brought their albums.... The First Dancing class learned the Lamboth Walk. The Second Dancing class is learning the tea stop and the two stop, and they are clur learning how to pivot. The Third Darring class is learning the shar guid the weeve and dia. . The Boys! Cooking Clair made minute tepi en pudding with bananas

DR. MILME'S PORTRAIT

Dr. Milno came to this institute in

The Senier Class of 1938 suggested

EIGHTH GRADE TO PRESENT PAGEANT OF CHRISTIANS IN DAYS OF PAST

Noxt Friday afternoon, the combined oi this rate classes are presenting the on wal Christians assembly program. The program is to be a Christmas pageant which partrays Christmas days of tho past here in the vicinity of Albany. The henceons of Miss Wheeling, Miss Waterbury, and Miss Martin are working together in the pageant and on committees to make this assembly a success.

The idea for the Christmas pageant was started by Miss Wheeling. Four cellogo soniers wrate it, and it is coached by mombers of the Junior Methods class. honore as have the speaking and acting parts. Miss Martin's homeroom will havo complete charge of staging, properties, and advortising.

The play is based on historical direugistances in a Dutch community near Albany during the Revolutionary war. The names, of course, are fictitious. The childrens' methors are making the costumos.

BAND REHEARSALS

Brass and Druns......Tuesdays Any Instrument......Thursdays

Particular attention will be given to beginners on Thursday.

Please come each wook. The band cannot succeed without your cooperation. Now members are always welcome.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL STAFF

Editor-in-chiefMiriam Boice
Associate Editors Ethlee Gould
Goraldino Paul
Boys! SportsRobort Weiss
FashionsCorinne Edwards
HumorCharles Kosbob
ArtMarcia Bissikum	er
MineographingCraig Walkbillig
James McClure
Donald Morriman
CirculationRobert Kohn
RoportorsSue Hoyt
Arnold Baskin
Arthur Sonnors
Norma Silversto	in
Janice O'Connel
Faculty AdvisorMiss Waterbury

CONDUCT IN GENERAL

Every year we have the same difficulty of Wagar's. Why do people want to take souvenirs and build benfires in the ashtrays at Wagar's? All this might cause a lot of trouble. Such things will hurt Milne High School as well as the night at six o'clock, the ninth and person. So have this in mind when you so stable

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF --

-- Walt Austin combed his hair?

-- Someone showed up at Christmas play rohoarsals?

-Bob Loo didn't say "say?"

-- Joc Rose wasn't a jittorbug?

--George Porkins didn't put fish oil on his hair?

-- Boverly K. came back to Milne?

--Barbara Russell didn't go to A. H. S. next year?

-- Dick Mull went to Milne?

--Bob Clark didn't spond his time in Ro n 333 before 9:00?

-- If the Junior Crisson and White had more than two pages?

-- If June Black had another party?:

-- If Morion Boico did some work on this paper?
--If the circulation manager were allowed to circulate?

-- If Norma Silverstein found out she was on the Crimson and White?

--Arnald Baskin moved?

-- Joyco Wo pos liked Albany?

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS

Miss Eaton suggested these books for Christmas so that you can surprise someone by putting it in their stocking.

For younger children they are as follows: Wee Gillis, written by Munro Leaf with pictures by Rebert Lawson; The Goldon Cockerel, written by Elaine Pogany with illustrations by Willy Pogany.

The high school people willpprobably like Penn by Elizabeth Janet Gray and Leader by Destiny by Janet Eatton, for people who like biography.

The Scarlet Oak by Cornelia Moggs are for people who like books in which things happon.

NINTH GRADE DEFEATS EIGHTH 23-14

person. So have this in mind when you go eighth grade boys' basketball teams there next time. clashed. The boys playing on the ninth grade team were John Poele, Ely, Hunting, Gordon Jones, Dorwiler, Eckel, and Jasing. The boys who held up the eighth grade honor wore Swartz, Mitchell, Game, Edick, Cross, Hocker, and DoMoss. The final score was 23-14, in favor of the ninth grade. The boys who scored for the ningh grade were: Gordon Jones, cight points; Ely, seven; Jansing, four; Detwiler and Hunting, two each. The eighth grade scorers were headed by Edick who scored seven points. Other scorers were Swartz, six, and Cross, one.

WHAT THEY WANT FOR CHRISTMAS

Well, here it is Christmas again. Everyone is busy buying and tying Christmas presents. And Old Santa is getting protty busy once again.

Sally Hunt has been especially good this year, and so first on her Christmas list is a brand new radio. The better to hear with, Sally.

John Lansing has his heart stt on a chemistry set with logs.

June Bailey wants a toboggan. Midge Wright wants a toboggan also.

After a considerable number of changes Joe Hunting finally decided on a

Dorothy Amenhuser wants white skates.

Too Clark wants skis. Gretchen Phillips has that desire, also.

Woll, Santa, here it is. I know you will make us all happy.