Last Chance for Coverage Under Social Security

Public employees who failed to avail themselves of Social Security coverage have one more chance to do so. And it will be the last chance.

Deadline to apply for retroactive coverage will be Sept. 29 as the new agreement between the State and the Federal agencies will take place Sept. 30.

The re-opening came as the result of negotiations with the Federal government and was urged by the Civil Service Employees Association.

Aides Must Get Forms

Interested employees should immediately obtain the necessary forms from their personnel or payroll officers and file at once. John F. Powers, CSEA president, has urged all persons who failed to take advantage of Social Security—including retroactive coverage—to do so now.

Who Is Eligible

Here are the eligibility requirements.

In accordance with the provisions of chapter 138 of the Laws of 1959 the following employees shall be eligible to request social security coverage effective March 16, 1956:

Members of the Employees' Retirement System, Hospital Retirement System, Teachers' Retirement System, Correction Department Pension Plan, and Military and Naval Affairs Pension plan who said "no" on their Declaration of Intention form or who failed to file a Declaration of Intention form between June 20 and September 20, 1957, or who formally revoked and withdrew prior to September 20, 1957, a previously filed affirmative declaration.

Those eligible according to the preceding paragraph, in order to obtain coverage for services during the retroactive period, must also be on the payroll as of the date of the amended State-Federal agreement or be persons with whom an employer-employee relationship exists at that time. An employee who is not on the payroll as of that date, however, and who has left his contributions in the Employees' Retirement System or the Teachers' Retirement System, should submit a card if he desires social security coverage when he returns to work.

The date of this new Federal-State agreement is expected to be Sept. 30, 1959.

Each employee requesting coverage under this law shall file a "Request for Social Security Coverage" with his personnel or payroll officer. This form must be filed no later than the date of the Federal-State agreement.

Southern Conference To Meet Sept. 25 At Warwick State School

The fall meeting of the Southern Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association will be held Saturday, Sept. 25 at Warwick State School, James O. Anderson, Conference president, announced.

The Conference expects candidates for the statewide Association election among the invited guests, Mr. Anderson reported.

Further details on the meeting will appear in a future issue of The Leader.

Joseph F. Feily, first vice president of the Civil Service Employees Association, and Henry Shemin, a former Association Conference president, will compete for the CSEA presidency this fall. Charlotte Clapper, Association secretary, announced.

Candidates for the offices of president, vice president (five are to be elected), secretary and treasurer were selected by the CSEA Nominating Committee at its final meeting July 17. The election roster will be submitted to the CSEA Board of Directors at its meeting on August 19 in Albany.

Miss Clapper announced that further candidates could be submitted by the petition method. According to the CSEA constitution, independent nominations can be made by a petition signed by not less than five per cent of the Association membership and the names of such candidates can then be printed on the official ballot if such nominations are filed with the secretary at least for 40 days before the annual meeting in October.

Other Candidates

Here are the other candidates for state-wide office:

First vice president — Albert Killian, Division of Veterans Affairs, Buffalo, and Charles Methé, Marcy State Hospital.

Second vice president — Raymond G. Castle, Commerce Dept., Syracuse, and Robert Soper, Was-sauk State School.

Third vice president — Vernon A. Tapper, Syracuse, Dept. of Parks, Syracuse, and Arthur Miller, Dept. of Welfare, Suffolk County.

Fourth vice president—Charles E. Lamb, Greenhaven Correctional Institution, and Grace Nulty, Division of Employment, Portchester.

Fifth vice president — A. J. Coccaro, Kings Park State Hospital, and Claude E. Rowell, Rochester State Hospital.

Secretary — Charlotte Clapper, Dept. of Health, Albany, and Dolores Fussell, Dept. of Education, Albany.

Treasurer — Theodore Wenzel, Dept. of Education, Albany, and Kenneth Valentine, Public Service Commission, New York City.

Candidates for departmental and agency representatives will appear in a later issue of The Leader.

October Election

Members of the Association will elect officers and a State Executive Committee composed of representatives from each State Department, including the Judiciary and Legislative Branches.

Official ballots will be mailed to each Association member prior to the election and such ballots must be returned to the Board of Canvassers of our Association on or before October 10 to be considered. Detailed instructions concerning the annual election will be furnished to each member with the election ballots. The CSEA Nominating Committee urges all Association and Chapter officers and committees to encourage all Association members to use their right to vote in the CSEA election.

Committee Members

The CSEA Nominating Committees elected by its Board of Directors are composed of Hazel G. Abrams, Chairman, Albany; James O. Anderson, Ossining; Eve K. Armstrong, Babylon, Suffolk County; S. Samuel Borely, Utica; Charles A. Brind, Jr., Albany; John A. Cromie, Albany; Vito J. 2 Seats Left For Capitol Dist. European Tour

Only two seats are open for the tour of Europe being sponsored by the Capitol District Conference of the Civil Service Employees Association, Hazel Abrams, Conference president, announced.

The tour leaves by plane directly from Albany on August 21 and returns to Albany on September 12.

Applicants for the remaining two seats available may have a choice of either purchasing the round trip air transportation or the whole tour. Price for air fare only is less than 300.

Those who wish to take the entire tour are offered a real bargain, Miss Abrams reported. For less than $700 they will receive round trip air transportation, all land transportation abroad, all hotel rooms, most meals, sightseeing tours, night life entertainment in the capitol cities, etc.

Applicants must be members of the Conference and the only other persons who can go are a member's spouse, children or parents.

Miss Abrams announced that the final pair of seats open will be sold on a first come, first served basis.

All persons interested should contact Miss Abrams immediately at the State Education Dept., Albany.

No Moves From Labor Dept. NYC Research Office Until 1960; Maybe Not Even Then

Industrial Commissioner M. P. Catherwood announced that a study of the operations of the Labor Department's Division of Research and Statistics showed that no change in location would be necessary before September 1, 1960.

Commissioner Catherwood said that, in fact, the question whether any major function of the Division would be transferred, even after September 1, was still open to study. The Commissioner's statement was intended to put to rest speculation which arose as a result of his decision early in the year to make the Department headquarters at Albany.

Commissioner Catherwood said that it was possible that selected individual personnel from the Division would be transferred to Albany within the coming year but the number would not appear to exceed a half dozen and that there were no immediate plans for such transfers.

The Industrial Commissioner said that the whole question of the best integration of the Division of Research and Statistics has been carefully studied since the first of the year and that, on the basis of such study, it has been concluded that the Division should remain in New York City for the coming year.

When Commissioner Catherwood first took office it was rumored that wholesale moves of personnel from New York City to Albany would take place. The Leader predicted several months ago, however, that no such mass moves would take place and that comparatively few, if any, personnel would be transferred.

PBA Raps Kennedy Stand On Dues Checkoff, Denies It's 'Creeping Unionism'

John J. Cassese, president of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, has accused Police Commissioner Kennedy of going out of his way to stall a dues check-off for PBA's 22,549 members, and has announced a State Supreme Court suit on Aug. 8 to compel the check-off.

Mr. Cassese said the need for automatic payroll deductions has developed from a voluntary life insurance policy recently set up by the PBA for its members, with $1,000 coverage paid for by the organization and another $1,000 paid for by each man. Because of the 31-day grace period for paying the insurance premiums, it is often physically impossible for the PBA precinct delegates to collect from individuals, said Mr. Cassese.

It was indicated that the Commissioner opposed the dues check-off as a form of "creeping unionism." Mr. Cassese said, "There's no unionization involved here."

He stated that there was legal authorization from the City for such a check-off, and characterized Mr. Kennedy's stand as legally "irrelevant."

He said that Labor Commissioner Harold A. Felix said PBA was within its rights in asking for the check-off, that Controller Lawrence Gerosa's office had thousands of IBM cards ready for PBA use, and that Mr. Kennedy's inaction is holding up further steps — such as directing Chief Clerk Louis L. Stutman to process the cards.

The PBA head said that Los Angeles, San Francisco and other big cities has authorized check-offs for benevolent organizations, and that Transit Authority and Housing Authority police here have check-offs.

JOHN J. CASSESE

Legal grounds for the suit, it was stated, will be based on a 1956 resolution of the Board of Estimate permitting employee groups to deduct dues from paychecks once a month on a voluntary basis.

THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEE

By JOHN F. POWERS
President
Civil Service Employees Association

Attendance Rules and the Good Worker

In a recent letter to the President of the State Civil Service Commission we suggested certain modifications in the attendance rules for state employees. These modifications would benefit the great majority of the state employees whom we firmly believe to be loyal, faithful and efficient people. We believe the state employees are primarily interested for their own sakes as well as the state's in doing their jobs well and not "goofing off" by taking advantage of any "liberal" treatment the state may afford in its work rules.

It has been our contention that faithfulness among state employees should be rewarded. Work rules should be formulated which are positive and not punitive in their application. We have never liked the contention of the state personnel authorities that any stringency in the attendance or other rules was necessary to prevent the so-called "chiseler" or unsatisfactory employee from taking advantage of the state as an employer. We do not believe that the loyal and faithful employee should be penalized for the derelictions of a few. The attendance rules, as presently written, are doing just that.

The faithful employee who goes through years with a perfect or almost perfect attendance record is accredited no more recognition than the employee who year after year uses his sick and personnel leave allotment to the limit. By emphasizing the need of preventing crime by posing as a proverbial policeman swinging a club, we are not contributing to the positive personnel approach to public administration about which we have heard so much. Shouldn't we by some method encourage and recognize employees who have served with outstanding or above average attendance records? Isn't one of the ways to reward them, the method we suggest, by compensating them for their unused sick leave accumulations about 150 days?

We believe the fair and equitable administration of personnel in today's complex world to be a difficult problem. The treatment of large masses of people always begets problems. The state is a large employer, with 100,000 people working for it. We know that rules of operation are necessary to allow the machinery of the state to operate as smoothly and efficiently as possible. We know that audits are necessary to prevent waste, but we also believe that treating human beings with a positive rather than a negative attitude can be rewarding.

Most people like recognition. If they get it they are more often than not willing to gratefully repay that recognition in greater effort, greater devotion, greater service. Surely the cost in dollars to the state of paying for unused sick leave would in our opinion be small compared to the "morale boost" to the employee and the undoubtedly greater energy he would put into his daily work.

W. D. Ives, Third To Head CSEA, Dies; Was Near 93 Years

Wellington D. Ives, who was the third president of the Civil Service Employees Association, died at his home in Albany recently, shortly before his 93rd birthday.

Mr. Ives was president of the Association in 1920-21 and at that time there were 1,000 CSEA members, compared to 87,000 today. Small numbers did not prevent Mr. Ives' tenure of office from greatness however. It was during his presidency in 1920 that the

WELLINGTON D. IVES

Association proposed establishment of the State Retirement System. It went into effect on Jan. 1, 1921.

In 1936, Mr. Ives retired as chief of the audit and estimate bureau of the Correction Department. He was born in Worcester, Otsego County, and lived in Albany for more than 60 years.

He was an active Mason, a past president of the Albany chapter, CSEA, and attended Trinity Methodist Church.

Services and burial were in Otsego County.

Assn. Meets With Catherwood Of Funds from U.S. Government

A cut in Federal funds, which will effect operations in the State Labor Department's Division of Employment, was among the top topics discussed at a meeting in Albany last week between representatives of the Civil Service Employees Association, headed by President John F. Powers, and Industrial Commissioner Martin P. Catherwood.

Present at the meeting with Commissioner Catherwood were: Mr. Powers, President of the Association, Grace Nulty, Labor Department representative of the Association; Constantine Mitchell, Chairman of the Division of Employment Committee of the Association, Edward Croft, President of the Division of Employment Chapter, Metropolitan area, John Wolff, Representative of the Division of Employment, Albany area, and John J. Kelly, Jr., Association Counsel.

Commenting on the meeting, Mr. Powers stated: "The first purpose of the meeting was to discuss the reported cut in Federal funds available for the administration of the Placement and Unemployment Insurance programs. Commissioner Catherwood confirmed the fact that a cut in Federal funds is planned in Washington. He stated, however, Mr. Powers continued, "the amount of reduction allocable to the New York State program and the probable impact of such reduction was not yet definitely known in Washington or Albany."

"As recently as Thursday, July 16, Commissioner Catherwood and Alfred L. Green, Executive Director of the Division of Employment and James Gavagan, Director of Office of Public Information, were in Washington discussing with Federal authorities ways to eliminate or minimize the effects of any reduction in the New York State program. The decision of the Federal authorities is not yet known, but Commissioner Catherwood expressed his hope and expectation that the effect would be substantially less than the loss of some 1200 New York State positions originally predicted late in June by the Regional Director of the Federal Bureau of Employment Security."

Mr. Powers continued: "Commissioner Catherwood assured the Association representatives that as soon as he had reliable advice as to the extent of the cut, if any, he would advise the Association and meet with its representatives at that time to discuss the problem further."

Mr. Powers stated further that during the conference, there was additional discussion relative to the procedures of the Division of Employment with respect to the recruitment and retention of temporary employees in the Division. "As soon as Commissioner Catherwood has a chance to look into these matters, there will be a further discussion," Mr. Powers concluded.

AIDES REMINDED HEAT ABSENCE IS CHARGED TO LEAVE

ALBANY, July 27 — The State Civil Service Commission has moved to clear up misunderstandings about state workers being excused from work during those hot weather days.

In a memorandum sent to all state departments and agencies, Commission President H. Elrod Kaplan declared:

"In the summer season questions may be raised as to excusing employees because of heat and humidity conditions. Governor Rockefeller has asked me to remind all agency heads of the Attendance Rules applicable to all employees in the classified service which provide that when an employee is excused from work because of such conditions, his absence must be charged to his accumulated leave credits.

"Agency heads are authorized to excuse employees only when such charges are made.

"You will appreciate that any deviation is not only violative of the Rules which have the force and effect of law, but also creates employee dissatisfaction resulting in numerous complaints to the Civil Service Department and to the Governor's Office. We find it necessary, therefore, to require all agencies to comply strictly with the provisions of the Attendance Rules."

Auburn Prison Gets Satisfactory Rating

ALBANY, July 27 — The State Correction Commission has given Auburn Prison a generally satisfactory report on its operations. The inspection report was released by the commission July 6.

But the commission pointed out that many vacancies, other than custodial, are filled on a temporary basis. The commission listed the unfilled vacancies as a pharmacist, telephone operator, institution teacher, an industrial inspector, and an industrial foreman.

Craig Colony Hosts Maintenance Men

A regional meeting for maintenance men for Western State Mental Hygiene Institutions was held at Craig Colony.

Chester Rice, Business Officer of Craig Colony, played host to Senior Maintenance Supervisors, Foremen and others from Gowanda, Buffalo, Rochester, Newark, Willard and Craig Colony.

Presiding over the meeting which was held to discuss problems of maintenance and ways to solve them were Paul Dwyer, Dept. of Engineering, Albany; John Rice, Head Maintenance Supervisor, Rockland State Hospital and President of Maintenance supervisors.

Daniels Named To New Audit Post

ALBANY, July 27 — John Daniels, a career state employee, has been appointed to the newly-created post of administrative director for the State Department of Audit and Control. The position pays $15,290 a year.

Joining state service in 1938 as a junior budget research aide, Mr. Daniels has held numerous civil service posts in the State Budget Division. Just prior to his appointment by Comptroller Arthur Levitt, he was director of budgetary and administrative planning in the Department of Public Works.

BRAINSTORM NUMBER EIGHT

Shirley, right, dean, State University College of Forestry at Syracuse University, presents, on behalf of the New York State Employees Merit Award Board and the college, a Merit Award—the eighth she has earned—to Miss Elizabeth E. Klein of 1303 Carbon St., Syracuse, for submitting another award-winning suggestion adjudged of unusual merit "for the improvement of state service." Participating in presentation ceremony is her supervisor, Prof. Ralph G. Unger, left, director of college's Forest Extension Division. At the same time as the presentation was made, Miss Klein, a career state employee, was pleasantly surprised when Dean Shirley announced she is being promoted from senior stenographer to principal stenographer, effective immediately.

The Police Checkoff

POLICE Commissioner Kennedy's delay in allowing a dues and insurance check-off to members of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association is harming the police and the public—and not doing any visible good.

This is more than the matter of "creeping unionism" that he has been talking about. This is a matter of protection for the families of New York's finest.

Up to recently, there was only a $400 policy for each man, paid out of PBA dues. Now there is a regular group insurance plan at very low cost, up to $2,000 per man paid for by the PBA and the individual. To date, it has already paid out $72,000 in death benefits.

Being a policeman is a dangerous business. Families of the force need protection without paying overly high premiums. A total of 95 per cent has signed the check-off cards.

Half a dozen of the country's biggest cities have authorized this sort of check-off, and they were doing very well when last heard from.

The punch cards are ready. The Comptroller's Office has given the PBA full advice and assistance. The Labor Commissioner assures the PBA that it has full legal grounds.

Will lack of a dues check-off really prevent eventual unionism? Right now, there is no proper grievance procedure for policemen. If unionism comes, it will not creep, but stride right through the front door. If, say, 80 per cent of the force votes for a union, would Mr. Kennedy suspend every man of them?

Only one thing stops the check-off—one man's word. Mr. Kennedy has no legal stand, only the boss's power of telling his department employees not to process the check-off cards. He is arbitrary and capricious with the well-being of his own men.

One man stands above Mr. Kennedy. He is Robert Wagner, the Mayor of the city. His stand can make the difference between whether or not the police get the check-off.

RIF-Demoted U.S. Employee Normally Keeps Old Salary

If a well-qualified federal civil service employee is demoted during a reduction in force, he should retain his salary — unless it is clearly shown that the R.I.F. was due to low funds or lightened work load. That is what the U.S. Civil Service Commission has told the many Federal agencies who have asked about the situation.

"Salary retention applies to all demotions (where employees are otherwise qualified) in a reduction in force unless it can clearly be shown that the reduction in force was caused by either lack of funds or curtailment of work," the commission said.

If neither was the case, the CSC said, "such cases should be resolved in favor of the employee."

Reorganization involving a reduction in force does not affect the employees' right to salary retention where they are otherwise eligible, it was stated.

The CSC said that lack of funds, as used in the law and the regulation, may be caused by a cut in the authorized level of expenditures for personnel, or higher salary costs not accompanied by an increase in the authorized level of expenditures.

A ceiling on funds must be imposed by an authority outside the department, such as the President, Congress or the Bureau of the Budget, said the CSC guide.

Work curtailment is not valid, for instance, by piling up overtime to accomplish the same functions, or by shifting employees between pay systems, the Commission stated.

HITS LYONS LAW EFFECT ON CITY'S EMPLOYEES

Editor, The Leader:

I'm writing this for a neighbor and a close friend. He feels he can't sign his name to a letter that might be printed.

You see, he lives here in Yonkers and works for New York City.

He's a sort of D.P. He started out living in Manhattan, took a civil service job, got married, and rented a small apartment. It was all he could afford on his salary.

Then children came along, one, two, three. He had to find a bigger apartment, and that wasn't easy. He's told me how he looked from one end of Manhattan to the other, and in the other boroughs. Finally he found one — it was only a little more than he could afford, but he figured on his next raise it would be okay — and then he heard that a fourth child was coming along.

So he left the city. His frame of mind changed from "It isn't legal" to "They won't find out." He keeps a mailing address in New York City and so far everything has worked out.

There are hundreds of city employees who do the same thing, all because of the Lyons Law, which is costing the City plenty of good employees who are family men. They either become law-breakers or leave civil service.

HEAT'S ON POSTAL WORKERS IN SUMMER

Editor, The Leader:

Progress is a wonderful thing. Now we have the Discomfort Index, or Temperature Humidity Index, or whatever you call it. In the summer heat, out on the streets delivering mail, I call it murder.

The top brass is talking about bringing postal operations into line with the way they do it in private industry. A good part of private industry, and some City, State and Federal Agencies, have a policy of shortening hours when things get too hot.

But the letter carrier walks his full eight hours on blasted pavements, and the postal clerk sweats in his own poorly ventilated buildings. Air conditioning isn't for the likes of him.

Grievances are sent in, and then there's a long wait, and sometimes there's an answer and sometimes there isn't. Meanwhile politics goes on as usual — except for the political candidates. They'll wait until after Labor Day before they go to make speeches in the heat of the mid-day sun.

POSTAL WORKERS' KIDS SEE YANKEE BALLGAME

Under the sponsorship of Postmaster Robert K. Christenberry's Committee for Children's Outings, more than 1,700 children of postal employees saw the recent Yankee-Cleveland ball-game.

These summer outings and other social activities for employees' children were initiated five years ago by the New York Post Office, under the direction of the Postmaster's Committee.

Questions Answered On Social Security

I am 37 and have a severe disability. I have not worked for a year now. My wife told me I should see about social security disability benefits. I told her I had to be at least 50 to get any benefits. Who is right?

You are both partly right. Although disability benefits may be paid to severely disabled workers only from age 50 to 65, the disabled worker under 50 should act to protect his wage record by filing an application for the disability freeze. This action will protect your disability payment at age 50, your retirement benefits, or the survivors benefits payable to your family in case of your death.

My husband died in 1943. I received social security benefits for myself and my daughter until she became 18. A friend of mine told me I can now qualify for benefits because I am 62 years of age. What do I have to do to get these benefits?

The law was amended in 1956 permitting widows to qualify at age 62 instead of 65. If you have not remarried, you may now become entitled to widow's benefits. When you call at our office bring with you your husband's social security card and a birth certificate or other document to prove your age.

Can I get a disability freeze on my account for the 8 weeks I was off work because of a broken leg?

No. The freeze was designed for severe disabilities which will extend for a long and indefinite duration. You must be disabled at least 6 months before you can freeze your account.

I am 45 and receiving benefits as a widow for myself and my son, age 16, who is paralyzed. Will the benefits stop when my son is 18?

If your son has a severe disability which prevents him from working the disability provisions of the social security law permit continuation of the monthly benefits to you and your son beyond the age of 18. The necessary applications must be filed for this purpose shortly before your son's 18th birthday.

How can my wife find out what social security benefits she and our children would receive in the event of my death?

The best possible thing to do is ask your social security office for a free informational pamphlet which will explain all types of payments under social security. Ask for booklet OASI-35.

My husband and I received a notice that our social security checks will be combined in one check. My husband is out of town a lot and it will delay me getting my money if I must wait for him to get back to town to sign it. Is there any way I can continue getting my check separate from his?

Combining checks will save the Government an estimated $1 million a year. You may, however, get your check just as you always have if a combined check would be inconvenient.

I am 40 years old and was injured in an accident which kept me off work for 8 months. Can I draw social security benefits for that period?

No. Benefits are not payable for a temporary disability. Moreover, benefits are not paid to a disabled wage earner who is under 50 years of age and not earlier than the seventh month of his disability even if he meets other provisions of the disability law.

Law Cases

Sidney M. Stern, counsel, submitted to the New York City Civil Service Commission the following report on law cases:

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Court of Appeals

Austin v Board of Higher Education. Plaintiffs, in an action at law, seek to recover their salaries from the time of their discharge in 1953. They were dismissed without a hearing on the sole ground that they had invoked the Fifth Amendment when questioned by a sub-committee on internal security of the U.S. Senate. Special Term granted a motion to dismiss the complaint for insufficiency. The order was reversed by the Appellate Division. The Court of Appeals has reversed the order of the Appellate Division and reinstated the order of Special Term holding that a discharged public employee must seek reinstatement in an Article 78 proceeding as a condition precedent to obtaining back salary.

Special Term

Murino v Zurmuhlen. Petitioner sought to direct the Commissioner of Public Works to comply with a determination pursuant to Section 220 of the Labor Law that his wage rate is "time and one half for holidays when worked." Prior to said determination petitioner worked 362 days a year, including holidays, at straight time pay. The court held that while petitioner is entitled to receive wages and benefits in accordance with the prevailing wage scheme, he is not entitled to be employed in excess of the time allotted for his particular position in the budget, and that the present scheme of paying for any six-day week including a holiday — four days at straight time, time and one-half for the holiday worked and one day overtime for which the employee receives one day compensatory time off — complies with determination.

Davis v Kross. Petitioner was dismissed at the end of his probationary term as correction officer. Holding that the commissioner has broad but not unlimited discretion in determining whether to move petitioner from a probationary status to a permanent rank, and that in this case petitioner is entitled to an opportunity to prove that the facts relied on by the commissioner can be shown not to warrant his dismissal, the court ordered a trial on the issue.

PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED

Schatkin v Felix and Cooperman v Felix. Both proceedings are brought by attorneys in the Law Department who seek reclassification to senior attorney.

IBM Key Punch Deadline Aug. 10 On State Post

Applications will be accepted until Aug. 10 for the State examination for IBM key punch operator. The starting annual salary is $3,050; through five yearly increases, it reaches $3,810. The examination is scheduled for Sept. 12 in New York City and Albany. Applicants must have experience running an IBM key punch or verifying machine or have completed a course in operating those machines. Information and applications may be obtained from the State Department of Civil Service at the State Campus, Albany 1, N. Y.; or Room 2301, 270 Broadway, New York 7, N. Y.; or offices of the State Employment Service.

QUEENS BUILDER URGES HOME BUYING NOW AS HEDGE AGAINST RISING COSTS

The prospective home buyer who waits too long is more than likely to pay a penalty for his delay before the end of the summer, according to Charles Winston of Ames Realty Corp., 167-10 Hillside Ave., largest home builders in Queens.

"Rising costs of materials and labor—the latest as a result of the recent cement workers' strike—will be reflected in the cost of new construction," Mr. Winston said. Homes scheduled for completion between now and September must inevitably show an increase in price over comparable units built or begun within the past six months and now available for occupancy.

"By purchasing now, therefore, the new-home buyer can effect a substantial saving—an opportunity which is not likely to be available much longer, in view of the tremendous demand for new dwellings, particularly within New York City limits."

The Ames Realty construction program has been particularly intense in the most desirable areas of Queens—So. Ozone Park, Baisley Park, St. Albans, Hollis, Springfield Gardens, Jamaica Hillcrest, East Elmhurst, where a wide variety of one-family ranch homes and colonials and two-family homes are now being offered at prices which compare more than favorably with those of previous years.

As an additional inducement to immediate purchases, which will effect a substantial long-range saving to people who buy now, the Ames Realty firm has arranged for mortgage financing of its homes at current rates of in-

U. S. Offers Typist-Steno Jobs in Area

Many federal installations are offering well-paid positions to skilled typists and stenographers. They include Fort Monmouth, N. J., Bayonne, N. J., Mitchell Air Force Base, L. I. and West Point, N. Y.

Little experience is required, and the starting pay is good.

Application forms and further information are available at the office of the Second Civil Service Region, Federal Building, Christopher Street, New York 14, N. Y., or at almost any main post office.

Young men and women with top-quality typing and stenographic skill may still find a fairly warm welcome from the U.S. Government this summer, despite the fact that most such jobs are already filled.

Most U.S. summer student jobs were filled weeks ago, which leaves few clerical or messenger jobs open.

Interest, thus offsetting the considerable increase in financing costs which will result from the higher mortgage rates soon to take effect.

For that new home be sure to call Ames Realty Corp. largest home builders in Queens at OL 8-4000.

Work-Study Program for Collegians in Fourth Year

ALBANY, July 27 — A ten-week summer work-study program with the New York State government is under way for 25 college students who have just completed their junior year.

The program, now in its fourth year, is believed to be the only one of its kind in State government although private industry maintains similar plans.

The students have come to Albany from locales throughout New York. They will be divided among 16 State agencies here but some will have assignments that will occasionally take them to other areas.

One purpose of the program is to stimulate undergraduate interest in State government careers. It is hoped that many of these students will return to State employment after graduation and also interest their classmates in competing for civil service positions.

First Hand Observations

The trainees will be able to scrutinize the operations and problems of State government while putting their college training to good use on specific work projects. They will also be getting an up-front look at the large variety of career opportunities available to college-trained personnel. Plans are to bring the students together at least once a week in informal sessions with top State officials. At these sessions they will get an even broader picture of New York's government than they would normally receive in the agency to which they are assigned.

The students were chosen on the basis of high scholastic ability and interest in government service. Officials at various colleges were asked to select the students who would best represent the school. No more than one student was chosen from a college.

They receive $60 a week and free lodging in a State University dormitory in Albany. The program, which is directed by the Department of Civil Service, ends August 26th.

Board of Regents Makes Appointments

ALBANY, July 29 — A series of appointments and reappointments have been announced by the State Board of Regents.

Three persons were reappointed to the State Board of Medical Examiners. They are Dr. Leon Grey Berman, Syracuse; Dr. Donald Covalt, New York City and Dr. John R. Pike, Albany. Each will serve a three-year term beginning Aug. 1.

Two new appointments to the board are Dr. Alyn B. Ley, New York City, and Dr. Milton G. Bohrod, Rochester. Dr. Ley succeeds Dr. Howard A. Eder of Yeshiva University, who is resigning Aug. 1. Dr. Bohrod will fill the unexpired term of Dr. John J. Clemmer of Albany, whose term ends July 31, 1961. Dr. Clemmer resigned.

The Regents also announced appointment of Muriel Carbery, New York City, for another five-year term on the State Board of Examiners of Nurses. The reappointment was effective July 1.

Maurice Hopkins, New York City, was named to the State Examinations Board, succeeding the late William A. Hamm. Dr. Hopkins will serve until Dec. 31, 1963.

Dr. Abel Garfain, Yonkers, was appointed to the State Board of Podiatry Examiners for five years. He succeeds Dr. Albert Graf of Glen Cove, who has served two, five-year terms.

Dr. Richard A. D. Stewart of Williamsville was named to the State Parent Education Committee for three years. He succeeds Mrs. Edith Eaton of Buffalo.

MAKES INTERSTATE APPTS.

ALBANY, July 27 — Governor Rockefeller has named three members of his administration to the Joint Legislative Committee on Interstate Cooperation. They are: J. Victor Skiff, deputy commissioner of conservation; Carroll Wainwright, assistant counsel in the Governor's Office and Oren Root, special assistant for federal-state relations.

Chas. Lamb Chief Speaker at Annual Albion Installation

The annual installation banquet of the Albion chapter, CSEA, was held on Saturday, June 29th, at the Village Inn.

Thanks went to Mrs. Rose Blackman who made all the arrangements. Mary Orlando was toastmistress.

Charles E. Lamb, guest speaker from the CSEA Southern Conference, gave a talk divided into three parts — unity, action and cooperation between chapter and association. Mr. Lamb paid special tribute to past and present officers, especially the delegates who have travelled to out-of-town meetings. He noted that they were always well-versed on all topics of discussion.

Mr. Lamb also encouraged younger members of the chapter to take an active part in all activities and meetings. These members will be called upon to be leaders in the future. "The time to prepare for this momentous task is now! Chapter members should always actively participate in chapter affairs. We must be strong in our demands but humble in our victories."

Genevieve C. O'Connell, superintendent of the Western Reformatory and State Training School, presented state service pins to the following employees: Warner Johnson, Mrs. Helen LeFrois, Mrs. Dorothy Duffree, Mervin Thompson, Catherine Flannigan and Ida Rhodes. Congratulations to these faithful employees for their many years of dedicated service.

Reverend Donaldson, chaplain, gave the invocation and the closing benediction.

Rockefeller Makes Several Appointments

ALBANY, July 27 — Governor Rockefeller has announced the following appointments:

Hugh S. Coyle of Westchester County as Supreme Court Justice for the Ninth Judicial District. The appointment will be effective until Dec. 31, 1959. Voters will fill the office at the November election. The judgeship pays $32,000 a year.

Dr. Theodore R. Proper of Newburgh as a member of the Board of Trustees of Washington's headquarters. He succeeds Fred D. Bayne of Newburgh.

Mrs. Alberta T. Kline of Port Jervis as a member of the Board of Visitors of Westfield State Farm to succeed Mrs. Betty Granger of East Elmhurst.

The Rev. C. Philip Torrance of Elmira as a member of the State Probation Commission. He succeeds the Rev. John F. Stearns of Elmira. The commission consists of seven members and advocates the state director of probation.

Tax Bureau Fetes Mr. Conlin

The Sheraton-Ten Eyck Empire Room, Albany, was the setting recently for a cocktail party and dinner in honor of Mrs. Marguerite S. Conlin, who is retiring from the Income Tax Bureau, Section IV.

Mrs. Conlin, a Principal Clerk, entered State service on January 1, 1918 when she was appointed as a clerk in the Health Department. Three years later she transferred to the Narcotic Drugs Unit, where she remained until 1922 when she became a member of the staff of the Department of Taxation and Finance. She was first attached to the Fiduciary and Partnership Unit and remained there until October 1945 when she was promoted to Principal Clerk in Section IV, Income Tax Bureau. She will now devote full time to being a painter.

Toastmaster of the event was John Cregan, Senior Tax Administrative Supervisor. Also honoring Mrs. Conlin on this memorable occasion were Commissioner Edward D. Igoe, Assistant Director John Donovan and Miss Anne Gaffney, former Chief Clerk of Mrs. Conlin's unit.

The General Committee was headed by Edythe Led Duke, General Chairman. Honorary Chairmen were the Senior Clerks of the unit; Erma De Jong, Florence Benoit and Marion Adams. Other Committee members were Marion Seeds, Gladys Mann, Sallie Ebel, Jean Kerwin, Jean Koper, Alvina Collins, Mary Peluso and Kay Hart. The Committee chose individual favours of miniature china cups and saucers for the guests.

Mrs. Conlin's farewell gift, presented by her assistant, Rita McManus, was a giant size china cup and saucer planted with decorative greens. Arranged tastefully in the green foliage were fluted greenbacks on streamers.

Entertainment, under the auspices of Frank McCullough, was provided by talented members of the honor guest's own unit, Section IV.

Ex-Detective Named Lefkowitz Aide

ALBANY, July 27 — William F. Larkin, a former detective with the New York City Police Department, has been named as assistant attorney general by Louis J. Lefkowitz.

The attorney general said the new appointee would be assigned to the claims bureau of the department in New York City.

Mr. Larkin is a graduate of Fordham College and St. John's Law School. He is a World War II veteran. His salary will be $8,000 a year to start.

A PAY RAISE, TOO

ALBANY, July 27 — State Education Commissioner James E. Allen Jr. is entitled to the state pay raise voted by the 1959 Legislature, under a ruling by Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz.

The question arose because the State Constitution bars any increase or decrease in salaries of officials whose jobs are named in the Constitution.

The state education commissioner's name is mentioned, but Mr. Lefkowitz noted that he is not appointed for a "term" but serves at the pleasure of the Board of Regents.

The Attorney General said it was "readily apparent" that the constitutional restriction did not apply to someone without a fixed term, such as the commissioner.

Trooper Kitchens Being Closed

ALBANY, July 27 — State Police are discontinuing the service of food at trooper barracks throughout the state and will provide food allowances instead.

The plan, an economy move approved by the State Budget Division, has gone into effect at Troop A barracks in Batavia and at Troop K barracks in Hawthorne. The messes will be ended by Aug. 26th in three other barracks.

It is estimated the change in policy will save about $50,000 a year.

Sleeping quarters at trooper barracks also are getting less use since a 60-hour work week was put into effect, after a vigorous battle by the Civil Service Employees Association. With the shorter work-week, troopers have more time off to spend at home.

Between 20 and 30 non-Civil Service employees connected with the barracks kitchen force will be let go, but efforts will be made, it was stated, to place the employees with other state institutions or in other police work.

The kitchen equipment, now in the barracks, is being placed in other state institutions.

Civil Service Dept. Refutes Insurance Examiners' Suit On Promotion Test Changes

A change in minimum qualifications for an examination as Senior Life Insurance Examiner has been defended by the State Civil Service Department as "sound and reasonable."

The Association of New York State Insurance Department Examiners instituted a suit in the State Supreme Court in June asking the court to order the Civil Service Department to set aside minimum qualification changes in the exam. The Department had reduced the requirement of service in the grade from one year to three months.

In so doing, the Department said it could allow two men, Albert Barnett and Joseph Altman, to compete in the promotion examination, thus allowing all that would eventually be eligible for the test to be on the promotion list, if they passed the exam. The Department, in its reply requesting dismissal of the suit, said that persons on the list would still have to have a year's duty in the lower position before being eligible for higher appointment.

The Insurance Examiners Association termed the changes in requirements unreasonable and discriminatory and also a violation of the State Constitution. The group charged there were more than enough candidates for the exam and that others had had to compile full service in order to qualify for this particular exam. The group declared the sole purpose of the change was to permit two persons to apply for the exam who did not have sufficient service in the grade.

TEACHER COLLEGES TO GET NEW NAMES

ALBANY, July 27 — The Board of Trustees of the State University of New York announced today that it has taken action to standardize the names of the University's 11 colleges for the preparation of teachers, and to formalize the names currently in use for the six agricultural and technical institutes.

Effective September 1, 1959, the teacher-preparation colleges will be called colleges of education; e.g., the college here will be called the State University College of Education at Albany. The six two-year colleges will continue to use the name "State University Agricultural and Technical Institute at city."

The renaming of the colleges which educate future teachers was recommended by the Committee on Teacher Education of the Board of Trustees. The Committee pointed out that the name "College of Education" is more appropriate than "College for Teachers" or "Teachers College" for a college which, in addition to its function as a teacher-training institution, serves as a center for research, experimentation, and service to the public schools.

The Board's action will result in uniformity of nomenclature. At the present time, nine of the colleges are called "Teachers Colleges" and two "Colleges for Teachers."

The colleges of education are located at Albany, Brockport, Buffalo, Cortland, Fredonia, Genesee, New Paltz, Oneonta, Oswego, Plattsburgh, and Potsdam. This past June they graduated 3,366 students qualified as teachers, nearly all of whom will enter public school systems this fall.

The names of the agricultural and technical institutes have been changed from time to time as their functions changed. Established as agricultural schools on the secondary level between 1907 and 1919, they are now college-level institutions which grant the Associate in Applied Science degree. Under State University, their curriculums have been upgraded and broadened to include many non-agricultural courses, including mechanical technology, electrical technology, and business management, among others. The institutes are located at Alfred, Canton, Cobleskill, Delhi, Farmingdale, and Morrisville.

Governor Insists Aides Use Safety Belts in State Cars

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is concerned over the large number of state employees who don't bother to use safety belts provided for their protection while driving state cars.

To make sure employees become more safety conscious, the Governor issued the following directive to all state department and agency heads:

"Within a comparatively short period of time the front seats of all official State automobiles will be equipped with safety seat belts. Persons wearing such devices are far less prone to death or serious injury if involved in automobile accidents on the highway. In fact, reductions in fatalities and injuries of more than fifty percent are indicated by some studies.

"The State Police, who use seat belts extensively and willingly, report numbers of cases in which troopers were saved from death or serious injury by the use of seat belts.

"It has been brought to my attention that comparatively few other State vehicles use the seat belts with which State vehicles are equipped. Accordingly, I request that you include within your departmental regulations a stipulation that employees operating State cars or riding in the front seats of State cars, use the safety belts provided, and further, that you take such action as you may deem appropriate to see that this stipulation is carried out."

Informative Articles On Variable Annuity Appear In Leader Next Month

William Dugan, chairman of the Pension-Insurance Committee of the Civil Service Employees Association, has announced that during the next two months the columns of the Civil Service Leader will carry a series of at least three articles on the theory of the variable annuity. These articles will be expository and will not in any way indicate the thinking, attitude or policy of the Civil Service Employees Association.

The variable annuity is the new concept being introduced into pension systems for a greater dollar flexibility in the retirement allowances by investing a portion of the members' contribution in common stocks. During periods of inflation any increase in the value of the common stocks will accrue to the members' pension fund and provide extra dollars to compensate for any shrinkage of the dollar's buying power.

This problem has from time to time during the past two years been considered in Association gatherings. In 1958 the state comptroller, Arthur Levitt, announced, at a meeting of the Metropolitan and Southern Conference at Grossingers, his interest in exploring the possibilities of the application of the variable annuity to the State Retirement System. Chapter and conference meetings have at various times heard the subject discussed by representatives of the State Retirement System. The Pension-Insurance Committee last year held a meeting at which the pros and cons of the variable annuity were discussed by representatives of two large insurance companies.

The articles which will begin in August will seek to explain what the variable annuity is, what has been its history, what it is expected to do and also the possible application to the State Retirement System.
