CALLING ALL COUPLES

Tonight is the QUIN SIGMA dance. All know that, but are you all planning to be present? If not, there's something lacking in your attitude toward Milne and our various projects and social affairs. The girls in the two societies are working hard to make their annual dance a success and it's up to the students of Milne to back them. Decorations and Lew Rider's music and a good gang will all combine to make this a red-letter night for everyone there.

Milnites will be expected to support our dance tonight especially since no outside couples will be allowed. Certainly you don't want to be left out of an affair which is exclusively for Milnites. Of course a boy or girl from Milne can bring an outside friend. It'll be spiffy, alright, with every factor pointing toward its success. Other schools sponsor big dances without outside help. Let's show what Milne can do.

OUT IN THE COLD

We're out int the cold again! It matters not what kind of weather, rain or shine and sometimes snow, we must go outdoors. Sometimes, too its quite a shock, going from a warm building into the cold air. It stuffs up your head and makes your eyes water, and often you contract what is commonly know as a cold.

As perhaps you may have guessed, I'm talking about the closed doors of the auditorium. Every afternoon something takes place there which necessitates our walking outside even to reach the locker-room. The doors of Page Hall are locked. If you knock someone will politely tell you you can't come in, that they do not wish to be disturbed. But, do they tell you how to reach your destination without going outside? Do they give you a coat to wear? Do they give you a cold remedy? No, some people are heartless.

The girls sometimes may go down- stairs and through their locker room. However, the boys have no alternative. They must go outside. And the pitiful part of it is, so must the faculty. Don't worry, we've noticed their annoyed looks as they walk around the auditorium.

There are two propositions which I have to offer. One, we could wear out hats and coats through school, or two, come to peaceful terms with the occupants of the auditorium. It would be rather uncomfortable to accept the first one so let's see what we can do about the second.

BOOK REPORT

Have you read "A Son of the Revolution" by Orcksy? It's the kind of a book that holds your interest throughout and for a long time after you have finished it.

With the French Revolution as its background, the story concerns the life of a young man who was made what he was by the stormy times and great questions at atake.

A thread of romance is woven skillfully into the tale as Andre, a citizen, saves the life of his former master and his daughter in what seems to them more horrible to death, his marriage to her.

The story contains enough true background to make the book as worthwhile as it is gripping. I would recommend it to any senior high student with a couple of hours to spare for reading a good book.

HOOK, LINE, AND SINKER

COMMENTATOR

Fishy Phrases-- "Look! Mother!", cried a little fish, "Isn't that a fly?" "Not by a darn-site," cussed his Ma," that's just an alibi!"

Charles M. Collock, Ed. Hunting, Leonard Benjamin, and I went on a hike to Pine Busa, Saturday. Well, er, we rode a little. Boys, weren't the fried pork chops and the mushroom soup good?

Woe is me! I found a trout the other day in fishing facket. I forgot to remove it, after the season folded up. How can I remove the smell? Home Economics students please answer.

THESE SPRING HIKES

Nothing pleases me more than seeing either a group of Boy or Girl Scouts on a hike in the woods. It is there, they learn how to conduct themselves properly and also to enjoy the full benefit of the great outdoor life. Not only that, but they keep out of trouble, and off the busy city streets. The outdoors is responsible for the bringing up of these future American citizens with a wholesome outlook on life.

MILNE BOYS TO COEYMANS HIGH
CREESY STARS WITH 7 POINTS

Milne's Crimson and White basket-ers met defeat on the Coeymans High School court last Friday high when they engaged the Coeymans quintet.

After setting the pace for most of the game, Coach Ryan's men were nosed out in the last few minutes of play. Milne held a two point lead at the close of the first period and stretched the advantage to six points by the half. Late in the third period, with Milne on the long end of 20-17, the Junior Varsity went into action and did comparatively well against the Coeymans varsity until the Varsity returned.

In the closing minutes of the game the score "seesawed" due to a number of fould shots. When the final bell rang it was discovered that Milne had made one less foul point than did Coeymans, thus a one point victory for Coeymans. Individual honors go to Creesy, who chalked up two field goals and three fould shots for a total of 7 points.

I might just as well put last week's column in again and change only the name State Frosh to Coeymans. After a slow, monotonous game we ended up on the low end of a 24-23 score. Coeymans, of all schools, and we lost! Oh, well, lets talk about the coming Vincention game Saturday night.

I'll admit our chances of winning are slim, but we should see a real fight because the boys are eager to give them a hard fight. If the boys should win, we could excuse some of these one point loses.

I have a feeling that the noise of those workers out there is indirectly going to cut "The Commentator" rather short.

Speaking of Vincentian, the Adirondack District Amature Golden Gloves are going to be held in the Vincentian gym March 8, 10, 11. For real slugging matches you should see those fellows fight. There will be ninety rounds of boxing each night.

THRU THE KEYHOLE
BY HIDE AND SEEK

Bob Emerick seems to have quite a crush on Lois Nesbitt, at least for walking her downtown and around. Have fun, kiddies? You oughta'.

We see Franklin Steinhardt gave Jinny McDermott quite a rush last Friday at the Tea Dance. Where was Bobby Taft? Perhaps he was obeying coach's orders. Let that be a lesson to you, Beagle, Funk, and Davis.

Did you hear that Mary Winhurst has taken the attention of Buddy Raeder--at least for the Quin-Sigma. She's been doing all right for herself lately, the State College Junior Prom and all.

Points and People of interest at the Quin-Sigma ----- Margy Charles with Otto Schaefer-----novel decorations-----
---Annabelle Vogler with a Sophomore-----
Gordon and Gordon together again-----
Lew Rider's fancy music-----Orton and Hayner; Schultz and an unknown blond-----
Peg Jantz will be in New York. Question: Will Doug McKean come, and if so, with whom?

Well, I don't want to tell you everything that's going on because then you wouldn't have the fun of finding out for yourself.
