Supports Retirement Bill

McGinnis Backs CSEA Correction Officer Legislative Goals

ALBANY, March 1—State Correction Commissioner, Paul D. McGinnis, has assured the Civil Service Employees Assn. of his support for Association-sponsored legislation that would provide correction officers in State service with one half pay retirement after 25 years of service.

McGinnis made known his stand at a meeting conducted recently by the Special Correction Committee of CSEA in Albany and attended by Assemblyman Louis Wolfe (D-Clinton) and Senator John E. Quinn, Jr. (D-Plattsburg) who will introduce the retirement bill for CSEA. At the meeting, CSEA representatives headed by president Joseph F. Feily, presented a multi-point program of job and pay improvements for Correction Department personnel.

Concerning the half pay retirement request McGinnis said that he would support such a plan provided legislation was "appropriate" and covered all necessary provisions.

Liason

As a result of the discussion, a 3-man subcommittee from CSEA's Special Correction Committee will be appointed to work with the two legislative leaders on questions pertaining to the bill. Richard J. Corcoran, committee chairman said that such questions should be sent to CSEA, 8 Elk Street, Albany, so they may be referred to the legislators.

Members of the Correction Committee stressed that legislation include the ability to improve the retirement allowance after 25

Strong CSEA Protest

Charge Lefk With Harrassing PW Aides In Highway Investigations

(Special To The Leader)

ALBANY, March 1 — Strong protests over tactics used by the State Attorney General's office in conducting investigations in the Metropolitan New York City area have been filed by the Civil Service Employees Assn.

In telegrams to Governor Rockefeller, Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz, and J.

Burch McMorran, Superintendent of Public Works, Joseph F. Feily, president of the 130,000-member CSEA, said:

"We strongly protest harassment and intimidation being practiced in the Long Island investigation by an assistant attorney-general. Public Works employees have been illegally required to fill out questionnaires relating to personal matters and have been questioned repeatedly about picaresque matters. Two highly respected Departmental engineers were indicted today (Feb. 19) for second degree perjury. By definition, their testimony was not — repeat — was not material to the inquiry. We cannot understand how State employees can be indicted for testimony that is admittedly not material to the investigation. We urge that no disciplinary action be taken against these employees until they have an opportunity to establish their innocence."

The Attorney-General's investigation reportedly concerns corruption in highway construction in the Metropolitan area.

It has been learned that the Employees Association is incensed over the fact that civil service employees are being used, they contend, as pawns in a "fishing expedition."

CSEA plans to bring the entire matter to the personal attention of Attorney-General Lefkowitz at a meeting that is scheduled for this week.

Erie Legislator's Bill Would Require Deputy Sheriffs To Take Exam

(From Leader Correspondent)

BUFFALO, March 1 — Erie County's Democratic assemblymen in the State Legislature are pressing for political reforms in the Erie County Sheriff's Department, a prime source of Republican patronage.

Assemblyman Arthur Hardwick filed a bill last week that would require deputy sheriffs to take civil service examinations before they can be appointed. The Civil Service Employees Assn. is seeking to place all deputy sheriffs in the State in the competitive class.

Erie County has about 400 deputies on the payroll and about 75 per cent are Republican committeemen, members of the Erie County GOP Committee.

All deputy appointments are made by Sheriff B. John Tutuska, a Republican.

Other bills, introduced earlier in Albany, would prohibit deputy sheriffs from engaging in any type of political activity. Assemblyman F. James Kane is the author.

The third bill, filed by Stephen R. Greco, would bar deputies from circulating nominating petitions during primaries.

Legislation to bar politics in sheriffs' departments has been introduced in the Legislature, often, in the past, with no success.

"But we've got a majority for the first time in 30 years," a leading Democrat said, "and the chances are good this year."

No Grievances, No Committee

WATERTOWN, March 1—City Manager Ronald G. Forbes was authorized by the Watertown City Council Sept. 30, 1963, to appoint a three-member grievance committee in connection with the council's State-mandated adoption of an employee grievance procedure.

Thus far, the committee has not been appointed.

Said the City Manager: "I have thought about it but so far there has been no employee grievance."

The grievance resolution was approved by the City Council to allow employees to come forward with grievances without "coercion or fear of reprisal."

Marion Javits May Have Last Word On Candidate For Mayor

NOTwithstanding any present statements, whether or not Sen. Jacob Javits bows to GOP grass roots urgings that he run for mayor of New York City next November may depend to some degree on how really homesick his wife, Marion, is for the Big Town here.

On the surface, this all may sound facetious but one person close to the Javits family told this column last week that one of the biggest boosters of the Senator as the Republican candidate for mayor here is his wife. Vivacious and attractive Mrs. Javits is an enthusiastic art, theater and music lover who likes to work at the lively arts and support them as well. She has all around enthusiasm for New York City, in general, and it's been reported that she feels she could contribute strongly to its cultural and philanthropical growth operating from the position of First Lady here.

DON'T REPEAT THIS

Last, but far from least, Mrs. Javits is said to feel deeply that her husband would make a great mayor and would serve the people of New York well—not to mention revitalization of Republican fortunes in the City.

The Senator's Thinking

As far as the Senator goes, Javits is said to prefer Washington and the opportunity to serve as a national spokesman for the many beliefs he champions in the Congress. He is not unaware that he is the first choice among his fellow Republicans to run against Wagner, and, privately, he is said to believe that he could defeat him.

But the pull of being the accredited spokesman for Israel in foreign policy debates in the Senate and for many liberal causes dear to the hearts of many people in this state and city gives Javits a stature in Washington that he would not easily lay aside, as much out of loyalty to these causes as to his belief in them.

All this does not mean that the Senator is completely out as a candidate, even in his own mind. He is a good enough politician to know that he has less to lose than GOP Congressman John Lindsay if the Republicans failed to capture City Hall. Lindsay is on his way up and Wagner is no easy man for anybody to take on. A big victory by Wagner could shoot down Lindsay's fast-rising star. It is generally conceded, however, that if Javits took on the Mayor this year and lost it would not impede his chances of being returned to the Senate in 1966, when he must run again. But if he should run and win, Jack Javits would run the GOP's 1968 convention and tag himself for the Vice Presidency.

Four years ago, Javits was able to resist all attempts to get him to run for Mayor. He may find it harder to refute the arguments at the breakfast table.

Addenda

1. With a Javits-Wagner ticket, the biggest problem would be posed to the Liberal Party. Leaders Alex Rose and David Dubinsky would be for Wagner. But the rank and file would be for Javits.

2. If Javits should run and take the mayoralty race, Rockefeller's worry would be how much of the 1968 GOP convention he would still be able to control.

3. President Lyndon B. Johnson would be paying a good deal more attention to Democratic state politicians were Javits to become Mayor of New York City.

When you're stretched out on the beach at Acapulco, having a tequilla on the "Reforma" in Mexico City, shopping in the enchanting 18th century town of Taxco, enjoying the excitement of the bull ring or looking at North America's ancient civilization expressed in the Pyramids of the Mayans, the snow, rain and sleet are hundreds of miles behind you.

Yes, it's fiesta time in Mexico next month and a surprisingly low-cost trip to America's "Little Europe" has been arranged for civil service employees who wish to enjoy the gay atmosphere of our most sophisticated southern neighbor. ### Lively Presentation Made

Long Island Legislators Hear Full Details of CSEA Goals At Conference Meet

(Special to The Leader)

BALDWIN, March 1—The legislative goals of the Civil Service Employees Assn. for 1965 were outlined recently for Nassau and Suffolk legislators at a meeting sponsored by the Long Island Conference of the CSEA. The Conference represents almost 40,000 employees.

The luncheon session was attended by 11 of the 13 assemblymen and senators from the Long Island counties and nearly 200 other guests. The legislators heard a point by point discussion of the seven part CSEA program and participated afterwards in a question and answer period. The meeting was held at Carl Hoppl's, this city.

The legislators also heard CSEA president Joseph F. Feily declare that in government, as in private industry, the welfare of the employees must be one of the chief concerns of management. CSEA attorney Harry Albright Jr. commented that public employees were usually loyal to those legislators who had worked for their benefits.

CSEA spokesmen presented the following programs to the legislators:

GEORGE KOCH of the Long Island Parkway Police chapter spoke in behalf of an 8.5 percent salary increase for all State employees. He said, "the great State of New York with her rich natural endowments should enjoy the best talent available within the civil service." He added that, "the maintenance of an adequate and highly competitive compensation plan must receive primary consideration in the formulation of the annual State budget."

THOMAS PURCELL of the Central Islip State Hospital chapter called for adoption of a rule paying employees for unused sick leave. He said, it would eliminate the abuses of sick leave time. "You will be doing the taxpayers of New York State a great benefit and you will be remedying a grave injustice for the employees," he said.

ROBERT BELL, executive director of the Nassau County Charter Revision Commission, called for providing retirement benefits based on the highest three years of salary instead of the highest five years.

GEORGE FELKEL of the Pilgrim State Hospital chapter asked that the State pay the full cost of health insurance. He called the proposal, "a matter of moral obligation of our State officials and taxpayers to provide public employees with this token of necessity that the people in private industry now take for granted."

EVE ARMSTRONG of the Suffolk County chapter spoke in favor of a bill to place all State employees under job protection status after five years. She said, "only a small minority of the total number of public employees are without any protection." She added, "to consider this group an important part of political patronage is most impractical."

IRVING FLAUMENBAUM, president of the Nassau chapter, discussed proposals to reopen the 55 year retirement plan.

The cost of the CSEA program, the legislators were told, would amount to a total of $75 million. The biggest share of this would be $50 million to pay for the 8.5 percent salary increase.

Guests

The luncheon was attended by Senator Henry M. Curran, (R-Oyster Bay), Sen. Norman F. Lent, (R-East Rockaway), Assemblyman John J. McCarthy, (R-Huntington), Assemblyman Prescott P. ## Hatch Act Hurts 2-Party System, Says Two U.S. Reps Who Seek Changes

Terming the Hatch Act a detriment to the two-party system in this country, two Democrats in Congress have introduced bills which would expand, rather than limit, the political activity of public employees.

The sponsors of the bills are Reps. Abraham J. Multer (D., N.Y.) and Hervey G. Machen (D., Md.). Machen's bill would permit Federal, state and local government employees to take an active part in political groups and campaigns within limits established by departments and agencies.

Multer's proposal imposes no limitations. His bill states: "No officer in the executive branch of the government shall make any rule, regulation or order limiting or restricting the right of officers or employees of the United States to take part in the political life of the Nation."

Machen, in submitting his bill stated that he hoped the Civil Service Commission would amend its regulations in accordance with the "sense of Congress," should his bill become law.

The Hatch Act has long been thought of by man as being unrealistic and unfair. In addition, the congressmen see it as a threat to the Democratic procedures of government. "The strength of this country lies in the operation of a two-party system," Machen said. The feeling is that a restriction on the active participation in the operation of that system by any group, especially a group which may represent a particular interest and which tends to be centralized into small areas of the country, thereby composing a large percentage of the population of those areas, is not conducive to the proper spirit or operation of a democracy.

The effect of the passage of either bill would be to "... bring the public employee back into public life and stop denying him the right to strive for the best interests of himself and family."

Success of the Hatch Act legislation depends on the quality and quantity of the support it gets from, among others, the Civil Service Commission, according to a congressional authority. Congress, it is thought, will not give the employees something they do not want.

A New Hatch Act?

PROPOSALS have been made recently by two Congressmen to loosen up the restrictions of the Hatch Act, which forbids Federal employees to directly engage in politics. New York has its Little Hatch Act, which was legislated along similar lines.

The arguments being presented essentially declare that the Hatch Act and similar measures have pushed the nation's large civil service body too far into non-partisan politics and that their very lack of participation is a blow to the two-party spirit so valued in this country.

It's an interesting thought and has some merit—if not carried too far. If it had not been for the very evils of political involvement of civil service through the spoils system, no Hatch Act would have been necessary. However, a compromise position sounds possible and we would like to hear more about it.

Legislative Committees

WITH the State Legislature now organized and in action, The Leader this week presents a full list of the committees of both the Assembly and the Senate. Our readers are advised to save this list for use when writing on bills of importance to public employees.

At this writing, it is not known how long the Legislature will be in session this year. Whatever the length of time, it is imperative that civil servants be prepared now to work hard for the bills in which they have an interest. The long delay in organizing the Legislature has created serious pressures that could cause public employee bills to be shunted aside unless strong interest is shown in them.

For that reason, this year more than any other demands an alert, vocal and active performance on the part of the public employee to see that his needs are taken care of.

Questions Answered On Social Security

Below are questions on Social Security problems sent in by our readers and answered by a legal expert in the field. Anyone with a question on Social Security should write it out and send it to the Social Security Editor, Civil Service Leader, 97 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y.

I have two social security account numbers; which one should I use?

If you have worked under both numbers, see your nearest social security district office so that the earnings record set up under each number can be combined into a single record. If you do use more than one number, all your earnings would not be credited to one account and you or your family might lose some benefit rights.

My five-year old granddaughter gets social security benefits based on her late father's account. Her grandfather and I are considering legally adopting her. Would this stop her social security benefits?

No. Adoption by a grandparent does not terminate a child's benefit. However, if the child were adopted by anyone other than the child's grandparent, stepparent, aunt, or uncle, the benefits would be stopped.

A cousin of mine was killed last year. He wasn't married and the lump-sum death payment went to his brother because he paid the funeral bill. My cousin had been supporting his parents for years, but a friend said was no need for them to visit the social security office because they're still in their fifties. Was that good advice?

No. While it's true that your cousin's dependent parents can't receive benefit payments until they're 62, they must file evidence with social security to prove their dependency. This proof must be filed within 2 years of the date of your cousin's death. The local office will be glad to help in filing this proof.

Where can I get information to estimate my social security benefit?

You may telephone or call your nearest social security office, or write for a free booklet which tells you how to estimate your benefit. Ask for Pamphlet 855.

Letters To The Editor

Urges Reclassification Of Grade Four Stenos

Editor, The Leader:

With reference to Mrs. Helen Thompson's letter which appeared in the Feb 16th Leader, I agree that reaching the top as a stenographer in Grade 4 leaves very little incentive. There is a terrific gap here and I believe that reclassifying of positions should be seriously considered.

I have had the experience that taking the test for senior stenographer Grade 8 got me nowhere and I no longer wish to aggravate myself taking tests over and over again in order to get ahead.

While I know I could do much better in private enterprise, I am left with no alternative but to remain with civil service since I must work to support myself and a daughter in college. I say this because I do not have the advantage of youth and therefore can read the handwriting on the wall. There is no chance of proving ability because at this stage of the game, you are not even considered. I know this only too well because I have tried.

I entered civil service only upon the death of my husband five years ago. Previously I had worked off and on throughout my married life in private enterprise where there was great incentive because increments were given on the basis of performance. Now there seems to be no incentive to do a good job since I must wait four more years for my next increment.

One gets tired after a while of taking tests and I don't feel they prove anything. By the time something is done about this deplorable situation, it will no doubt be too late to do me any good but if a few more of us voice our opinions, it may pave the way for those who have many years ahead of them.

Suggests Death Gamble Petitions To Legislators

Editor, The Leader:

In accord with your principal of securing fairness for all Civil Service employees, I suggest that a petition for the expediting of legislation on the "Death Gamble" bill, for those of us who do not now have this protection, be published in your paper.

As practically all civil service employees, as well as their families and friends, are vitally concerned with this bill, the contacting of those whose assistance is essential to its passage would, I believe, result in obtaining the recognition and consideration of our just claims.

It is very unfair that certain segments of those in civil service receive this justifiable protection for their loved ones while others in the same system are ignored.

I feel sure that the publishing of such a petition for our signatures would be greatly appreciated, and that its use would facilitate the passing of the necessary legislation to protect all of us in Civil Service by its provisions.

Truth Or Consequences

IT NOT infrequently happens in peace time that a kindly disposed military doctor grants a medical discharge to a homesick youngster although the true medical condition does not warrant it. The honorable medical discharge from the Army, from which no harm to the beneficiary is foreseen, may block a future civil service career—especially when a high degree of physical agility is a prerequisite.

THE PETITIONER, when eighteen years of age, sprained his right shoulder because his hand slipped in the act of swinging on a rope over a ravine as part of Marine Corps training. A sympathetic Marine physician, understanding the young man's desire for a return to civilian life, paved the way for his discharge with a diagnosis of chronic subluxation (dislocation) of the right shoulder. Five years later, although the petitioner had passed all tests for the position of patrolman—including rigid physical tests—he was denied certification because of his medical history based entirely upon the Marine Corps discharge papers. Of course, the petitioner could not explain that the service diagnosis was an exaggeration, but he did point to two years of experience with the ASPCA requiring such vigorous activities as climbing trees to rescue cats. He submitted himself for physical examination at the Orthopedic Clinic of Jacobi Hospital which found that there was no history compatible with dislocation and diagnosed his shoulder as completely normal.

IN THAT state of the record, the Court ruled that the refusal to certify the petitioner was not based upon reasonable evidence. The Court stated that the respondents should not have relied exclusively on past history in disregard of the current negative findings and remanded the case for complete reevaluation.

UNFORTUNATELY, a remand to the Civil Service Commission often results in a reaffirmance of the original diagnosis. This case was no exception. The petitioner accordingly reapplied to the Court, but on this application the Commission improved the medical basis for the disqualification by stating:

"We do not dispute the data submitted in his behalf by his physicians and concede that examination concerning his right shoulder is completely negative. Where we do differ with his doctors is that first the condition was deemed serious enough to warrant the dismissal from the armed reserve in 1955. Also a chronic and recurrent location of the shoulder is invariably associated with a tear in the capsular ligament of the joint which leaves a potential weakness and a greater tendency to recurrence of the former dislocation."

THE IMPROVED statement of medical reasons for rejecting the petitioner impressed the Judge so that he felt impelled to dismiss the Petition because the Commission's medical report was now shown to have a rational basis.

IN ANOTHER action for judicial review of a rejection of a candidate for the police force, the petitioner's Army record reported that he suffered from hematuria. The Commission's medical board did not examine the candidate for this illness but relied upon the Army diagnosis.

AT THE outset of his learned opinion the Judge denied the Commission's contention that the Petition was not timely because of the expiration of the eligible list. Expressing a natural law philosophy, the Court correctly resolved this issue as follows:

"If a petitioner in a proceeding, timely brought, ultimately establishes that he was wrongfully refused appointment, justice forbids the denial of his due, solely because of the intervening expiration of the eligible list."

THE PETITIONER had actually been appointed as a probationary patrolman after passing all tests, including a medical test. He took the oath of office and received a manual of procedure and shields. The next day he requested a leave of absence because of his mother's illness. The leave was denied with a suggestion that he decline appointment and make reapplication when he was ready to enter the police academy. Two months later he asked for recertification, but this time the police surgeon rejected him entirely upon the basis of the Army record of hematuria. The commission revoked his certification even though he submitted a certificate of his own physician that appropriate medical tests for hematuria were negative.

IT WILL BE observed that there was no rational basis at all for petitioner's rejection in that he was in good health rendering academic whether the Army had at one time cor-

Q & A WHY CAN'T OTHER PLANS DO ALL H.I.P. DOES?

Q. Why is it that only H.I.P. is able to provide the widest range of services, including "miracle" surgery, without extra charges, loopholes, claim forms, deductibles, discussion of family income with the doctor or other red tape?

A. It's not hard to see if you picture each H.I.P. Medical Group as a sort of "super-doctor"—a kind of family doctor who at the same time possesses all the specialist skills, knowledge and equipment of modern medicine. Since he combines all medical training and experience, he needs to maintain only one professional office and pay only one technical and nursing staff.

Furthermore, instead of giving this "super-doctor" a fee each time you see him, suppose you decide it makes more sense to pay him a certain amount every month to take care of all your family's medical needs. You pay him the same amount whether everyone in the family is sick or well during the month. Since this "super-doctor" has all the skills and experience to be found in the medical profession, you would know your family was in capable hands. And you would know that the monthly amount you pay him is all you have to pay.

That's the idea behind H.I.P. But since there is no such person as this "super-doctor", H.I.P. offers an even better alternative—the combined services and combined judgment of a whole team of family doctor and specialists who work together for you. And you have no doctor bills to worry about!

MUST A RESIGNATION BE ACCEPTED TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

What happened: There are times when a resignation is a salvaging operation. A public employee under fire tries to go through the emergency escape hatch to save his pension rights, avoid disciplinary hearings and guard against the onus of peremptory dismissal.

Ordered to report to the office of the Commissioner of Licenses in New York City, license inspector Sid White had premonitions of what lay ahead. His fears were confirmed. The open file on license application of Playtime Billiard & Pool Parlour was on the Commissioner's desk.

"We understand, Inspector," the Commissioner said, "that you discussed this application with Inspector Wilson—and requested 'sympathetic treatment' of the application."

"I wouldn't call it that, Commissioner—merely speedy handling."

"Isn't it a fact you have a financial interest in this pool parlour?"

Although White, vehemently denied this, the Commissioner ordered a thorough investigation.

Five days later, Inspector White advised the Commissioner that he was resigning, effective within four days. Promptly, his superior told him that his resignation was unacceptable and ordered him to report for work the next day.

The same evening White sent a telegram reconfirming his resignation. It was countered by a letter advising him to report before the Department of Investigation for hearing.

When White failed to appear, he was charged with misconduct, incompetence and suspended without pay. Soon after, he was dismissed from the service on the charges. The duel continued in court. White asked for a ruling to void his dismissal. "In the absence of written charges," he told the Court, "I had a right to resign. Whatever the department did thereafter was just an idle gesture. There never was a valid dismissal."

The department defended:

1. White did not have the right to resign.

2. We did not accept his resignation.

Was The Resignation Valid:

YES ☐ NO ☐

Hospital employees contributed to the purchase of the gifts.

HAPPEN
TO YOU

(Law Case On Page 9)

What N.Y. Supreme Court Justice Mangan held: The entire question hinges upon whether White had the right to resign when he did. If he had that right, then "his alleged dismissal at a later time is a nullity."

"It is clear beyond peradventure that a person has the right to resign his position and that there need be no acceptance of such resignation to give effect to it. The right to resign a public office may even be exercised pending removal proceedings."

Judge Mangan vacated the dismissal. (10-2-64)

COMMENT: The court's decision is strongly entrenched in the common law. It will apply unless statutory law is contrary.

- For instance in New York City resignations of police and firemen are regulated by specific sections of the Administrative Code.
- An agency with appropriate legislation or ordinances can restrict the "escape hatch" kind of resignation and force a straying employee to face disciplinary proceedings. Frequently, this is of prime importance in determining pension rights which may be affected by dishonorable dismissal.

'64 Beauty Harvest Bears Vintage Selection

Early indications are that the 1964 crop of beauties entered in the "Miss Civil Service" contest will make the judges' task a cottin pickin' pleasure. The contest will be part of the activities on the Civil Service Day program at the World's Fair on May 31.

The winners are chosen from among entries submitted by readers in the form of a glossy photograph of the candidate along with her name, address, department, title, and age. Preliminary selections will be made from the photographs, so the best available should be sent.

The standard 8 x 10 inch size is the best, though not necessary.

In no case, however, should the pictures be smaller than 2 x 3. And all photos should be black and white.

The winners will be chosen by a panel of judges to be named later. The selections will be made in three stages, preliminaries, semi-finals and finals.

The prizes will be announced later. Last year's winners each won a trip for two to Puerto Rico and a week's stay at a luxury beach hotel there.

rectly diagnosed hematuria. The Court concluded "if the petitioner is to be disqualified medically, both he and the Court are entitled to a more explicit statement of the grounds that are revealed in the record as it now stands. The matter is, therefore, remitted."

ARMY MEDICAL discharges may affect a young person's whole future. In those situations in which the Army doctor's diagnosis is deliberately erroneous in sympathy with the soldier's desires, the latter many one day find himself on the horns of a dilemma. Should he limit himself to medical evidence of present normal health and risk rejection based upon his past history? Or should he reveal to the Civil Service Medical Board the deception in the Army diagnosis and risk rejection for moral turpitude?

men named by Powell is in jail awaiting trial on first degree murder charges in the very case mentioned by the Congressman, while police "wanted" circulars for the other two men were distributed throughout the State more than a month ago.

COMMISSIONER Arm laid it right on the line when he said: "CONGRESSMAN Powell is lying..."

THERE WERE other charges made by Powell against the police. Still cloaked in Congressional immunity, the Congressman said the police were being paid to protect narcotics sellers.

HE ALSO charged that "the dregs of the police department" were assigned to police Harlem.

YOU MIGHT call Powell's performance "effrontery", "brass", "check", "impudence", "temerity" or whatever. We call it a gross disservice to as dedicated and as brave a body of men as

LEGAL NOTICE

SUPPLEMENTAL CITATION. — THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, By the Grace of God, Free and Independent.

TO: Edward Baumgarten, Etta Tafra, Ceil Feldman, Gussie Gerber, Gussie Feldman, Rose Fields, Meyer Helfrott, being the persons interested as creditors, distributees or otherwise in the estate of Baruch A. Rottenberg, also known as Baruch A. Rottenberg and Baruch Abraham Rottenberg, deceased, who at the time of his death was a resident of 345 West 86th Street, New York, N.Y., Send GREETINGS:

Upon the petition and the supplemental petition of The Public Administrator of the County of New York, having his office at Hall of Records, Room 309, Borough of Manhattan, City and County of New York, as administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of said deceased:

You and each of you are hereby cited to show cause before the Surrogate's Court of New York County, held at the Hall of Records, in the County of New York, on the 13th day of April, 1963, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the account of proceedings of The Public Administrator of the County of New York, as administrator of the goods, chattels and credits of said deceased, should not be judicially settled, and why the sum of $350 should not be expended for the erection of a monument on the decedent's grave and for religious services.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused the seal of the Surrogate's Court of the said County of New York to be hereunto affixed.

(Seal) WITNESS, HONORABLE JOSEPH A. COX, a Surrogate of our said County, at the County of New York, the 10th day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

Philip A. Donahue, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court

you would find anywhere in the world.

ANY POLICEMAN who has walked a beat in Harlem will tell you that it is hardly a picnic, and not nearly as relaxing as Powell's villa in Puerto Rico or the cocktail bar at a luxury hotel in Hawaii.

COMMISSIONER Arm told newspapermen that the Congressman's "other charges can be judged in the light of this untruth"—his phony charge that police were sheltering three murderers.

WELL, MAYBE Powell will learn a few public relations lessons from his disastrous strikeout—public relations lessons our readers have long known by heart:

- Good public relations must be earned; it can't be "talked";
- Good public relations is won by good performance in the public interest; it can't be won by "schmaltz" sham and self-serving declarations;
- Good public relations is based on truth; lies or half-truths in the public relations process are almost inevitably fatal.

TO THE dedicated members of the New York City Police Department we say this:

CONGRESSMAN Powell owes all of you an apology, which we doubt you'll ever get. For the time being, take solace from the fact that you have a courageous and knowledgeable deputy commissioner in charge of community relations, such as Walter Arm, and a strong, competent, highly professional police commissioner, such as Michael J. Murphy.

$725 Shared By 15 State Workers Under Suggestion Program

ALBANY, March 1—Fifteen State employees shared in the $725 awarded in January by the New York State Employee Suggestion Program for work-improvement ideas. Increased efficiency resulting from ideas submitted to the Program in 1964 saved the State more than $470,000.

A Department of Public Works laborer foreman received $400 for solving a long-standing maintenance problem. Ernest Potter, Warrensburg, made an oil coated shield to be placed low on the nozzles of highway paint striping machines. This prevents the buildup of paint on the equipment from splashing as the machine's nozzles work within an inch of the road surface. A lengthy, twice-daily cleaning of equipment has been replaced by an occasional cleaning of the shield with a putty knife and re-oiling of the shield.

Three employees earned $50 each for their ideas. Clair E. Saford, Delmar, a senior food bacteriologist with the Department of Agriculture and Markets, eased the clerical workload of the State Food Laboratory by proposing that each analysis of food samples be reported in condensed form when tests do not indicate violations. The old procedure of preparing a detailed certificate of analysis in triplicate is now used only when there is a violation.

Caesar J. Coluzza, Utica, a supervising food inspector with the Department of Agriculture and Markets, simplified a form used in sanitary inspections of restaurants and cafeterias. He suggested that rules and regulations pertaining to these establishments be placed on the back of the form for quick reference.

The third $50 award went to Lewis S. Peck, Hornell, a core drill operator with the Department of Public Works. Using a brass welding rod, he designed a tool for removing test cores from highways. The tool costs 38 cents. It replaces steel tongs costing $174.

Awards of $25 each went to Michael P. Lynch, Albany, and to Robert A. Shaw, Albany, both tax examiners, Department of Taxation and Finance; Arthur C. Kratz, Syracuse, core drill operator, Department of Public Works; and jointly to Josephine L. Hammer, Hicksville, and Carol G. Esserman, Bronx, dictaphone machine transcribers, Department of Taxation and Finance.

Fifteen dollar awards were made to Pauline K. Hansen, Troy, senior audit clerk, Department of Taxation and Finance; Carol Yesalonis, Brooklyn, typist, Department of Labor; and to Rose B. Cooper, Belle Harbor, senior industrial investigator, Department of Labor.

Three awards of $10 each went to John H. Sheehan, Albany, head account clerk, Department of Taxation and Finance; Etta S. Drucker, Woodside, principal stenographer, Department of Labor; and to Sylvia Josefsberg, Brooklyn, assistant workmen's compensation examiner, Department of Labor's Workmen's Compensation Board.

Certificates of Merit without cash grants went to A. Leo Brackley, Cohoes, senior mail and supply clerk, Department of Public Works; Bernard F. Dwyer, Watervliet, senior electrical engineer, Department of Public Service; Joseph A. Husselbeck, Albany, principal clerk, Department of Audit and Control; Anna E. Reilly, Troy, typist, Department of Public Works; Donald H. Streeter, Chittenango, senior valuation engineer, Department of Public Service; and to Victoria F. Boreffi, Endicott, assistant workmen's compensation examiner, Department of Labor's Workmen's Compensation Board.

Certificates of Merit also went to Dorothy Commerford, Rome, stenographer, Department of Mental Hygiene's Rome State School; Isidore Cohen, Woodhaven, compensation claims examiner, Department of Labor's Workmen's Compensation Board; Rose Cooperman, Brooklyn, clerk, Department of Taxation and Finance; Lella Durso, Bayside, typist, Department of Motor Vehicles; and to Rudolph Steinfeld, Brooklyn, senior tax collector, Department of Taxation and Finance.

McGinnis Pledges Support

years of service and it was felt strongly that pension adjustments should be made to provide additional retirement allowance credit for those affected by the bill who would retire prior to the effective date of a non-contributory retirement bill.

Uniform Allowance
CSEA also stated its case for an increase in uniform allowance granted correction officers. McGinnis told the CSEA group that this year his department sought a $150 uniform allowance which was reduced to $100 by the Division of Budget. He emphasized that the Department considered its request to be adequately justified.

McGinnis pointed out that the Department initially asked for a $125 annual allowance for correction officers at the time when an increase was granted several years ago. Subsequently, the Departmental request was cut by the Division of Budget by $100 per year.

With respect to providing uniforms to other groups of correction employees, McGinnis said that the policy of the State would have to be changed in order to provide uniforms to certain classes of employees. This would be necessary because other State agencies would be involved.

In order to determine the need for an adequate uniform allowance for correction officers and nurses, CSEA is undertaking a questionnaire survey of the Department of Correction.

Among the other high points of the meeting were:

- Establishment of a training academy for correction officers—The Department is in favor of such an academy. However, McGinnis said he did not feel that the present funds which are allocated for the Moran Institute, should be used for such a facility.
- Provide public school calendar for institution teachers—McGinnis said that the money would be there for the teachers this year if it is not withdrawn by the legislature.
- Provide a personnel officer at each institution — McGinnis said he could not recommend such a proposal at the present time and that personnel problems should be handled by the steward office at the institution.

Other items discussed were provision for land shelters, examinations and testing, promotion opportunities within the Department, availability of personal leave, name plates for personnel, the use of identification cards and wallet shields and badges for women and insignia identification at Matteawan.

In addition to McGinnis, departmental personnel at the meeting included, Joseph David, deputy commissioner; Mrs. Helen David, secretary to the commissioner and Larry Kerwin, director of personnel.

At The Meeting

CSEA Correction Committee members present included Chairman Corcoran; Charles Lamb, E.D. Updike, Irwin Cameron, Harry Yelke, Maynard Gardner, James Wilkinson, Albert Foster, Averill Tice, Donald Ter Bush, Joseph P. Keenan, Nicholas J. Ferrone, Arthur Parry, Margaret

In addition to Feily CSEA was represented by: Joseph D. Lochner, executive director; F. Henry Galpin, assistant executive director; William L. Blom, director of research; Thomas M. Coyle, research analyst.

Insurance Plan Open Without Physical Test ONLY During March

New applicants for Civil Service Employees Assn. group life insurance who are under age 50 will not be required to take the usual medical examination if they apply during the month of March, 1965.

Announcement of the month-long special enrollment period was made by Joseph F. Feily, CSEA president, who emphasized that there are many advantages to the plan for those who qualify.

Many Features

Among the inviting features are:

- No medical examination for applicants under age 50 who have not been previously rejected for this insurance on the basis of a medical examination.
- Your premiums are waived if you should become permanently and totally disabled as described in the plan.
- Eight per cent additional insurance guaranteed until Nov. 1, 1965 without additional charge.
- Double indemnity in the event of accidental death at no additional charge, as described in the plan.
- Low cost—much less than you can arrange through regular channels, regardless of whether your occupation is hazardous. The 30 percent additional insurance furnished prior to Nov. 1, 1961 is incorporated into the basic amounts issued under the plan effective that date.
- Payroll deductions make it easy to pay.

Dutchess Salary Study May Be In Works Soon

(From Leader Correspondent)

POUGHKEEPSIE, March 1—A committee of the Dutchess County Board of Supervisors on Feb. 15 reviewed a proposal for a job efficiency study and a salary survey for the County's 500 employees, calling for the study as a result of an attack by the Civil Service Employees Assn. and several department heads calling the present schedule unfair. The study would be by Hanawalt Associates of New Jersey and would cost $16,950.

Last year, Supervisor Louis Donaldson, Democrat from the City's fourth ward, pledged that a new survey and job study would be conducted. The firm says it is prepared to start the study on March 1.

Seeks Bipartisan Effort

With an eye to the political implications of a new salary schedule, Donaldson said, "This is a problem that must be solved through a coordinated effort by both parties. The County employees are a responsibility of both parties and should not be involved in politics." He said he planned to call in Supervisors David Schoentag, (R-Beekman), the minority leader, and Al Friedmann, (D-Fourth Ward), City of Beacon, majority leader, to review the proposal prior to the committee making any recommendations as to accepting or rejecting the plan.

The Hanawalt plan is, as detailed in a report, a far-reaching study. In addition to the basic question of salaries, the firm proposes to make recommendations on operating methods of the departments, to prepare staffing standards in the form of a manning table for each department, to compare salaries in other counties and in industry, and to evaluate job classifications. The firm estimates that the survey and evaluation would require about four months.

Legislative Goals

man of the CSEA Legislative Committee; Solomon Bendet, chairman of the CSEA Salary Committee; Henry Shemin, chairman of the CSEA Resolutions Committee; Gary Perkinson, public relations director for the Employees Association, and Paul Kyer, editor of The Leader.

Thomas Dobbs and Flaumenbaum were co-chairmen of the event. President of the Long Island Conference is Arthur Miller.

In Japan there will be visits to Tokyo, the temple city of Kyoto, the lake country and other beauty spots. Five full days will be spent in Hong Kong.

Before reaching Japan, tour members will spend a brief time in San Francisco and Hawaii on the way Eastward to assure a leisurely approach to the Orient. On the way home there will be a stop in Los Angeles.
