ELECTION ISSUE

THE MILNE SCHOOL, ALBANY, N. Y.

MAY 29, 1952

STUDENT ELECTIONS TODAY

Bennett Thompson

The time has come again for the senior high students of this school to select the people who will make up our student council in the coming year. The importance of this election must be taken into consideration by all. The selecting of officers of our council should not be a "vote for your best friend deal." Qualifications and personal characteristics must be taken into consideration by the voters.

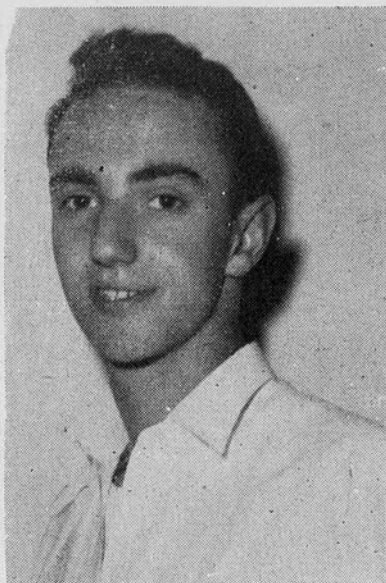

It is to everyone's advantage to study the candidates carefully and then to select the best ones for the various offices.

Bennett has held many positions while he has been in Milne. He has always been interested in school affairs and was elected president of his class in the eighth grade. In the ninth grade Bennett was a member of the class ring committee. The following are jobs that he has held since his freshman year: president of the dramatic club, chairman of the Alumni Ball committee, and president of his class in the eleventh grade.

Last week Bennett was elected by the members of Theta Nu to represent them on the Intersociety Council for next year. Bennett is serving on the newly organized assembly committee which is striving to give bigger and better assemblies.

After looking over the list of offices Bennett has held since he came to Milne, you will see that his qualifications are many. He has the necessary experience that is needed for a president's duties. This is proof that he is the man we want to lead us next year.

David Clarke

In 1947 there came to Milne a very outstanding group of students. Among them was David Clarke, one of the two candidates nominated by the junior class for the position of president of the Senior Student Council.

The student council this year is going to have one of its hardest sessions in many a year. One of the biggest reasons for the session ahead being one of many difficulties, is the school budget.

In any organization it is commonly known that the leader must be a person of high integrity, a person who possesses a high degree of intelligence, and most important of all, the leader must put his job first, above all other activities.

I will add at this point something that might help you freshman and sophomores who don't know Dave too well. Knowing Dave as well as I do. I have brought to light many interesting things about him. Dave has been in many extra-curricular activities while in Milne.

Most of Dave's classmates know that he is a very good student, but I don't think most of them realize how really good he is. I found out that Dave is ranked one of the first five in his class.

Dave with his wonderful sense of school spirit has also found time to be an outstanding athlete.

As I wind up this brief outline of Dave's activities during his stay at Milne, I want to point out that Dave has all the necessary requirements to fill the highest position of the student government.

Carole Jean Foss

BULLETIN: A 17 year old girl, 5 feet 7 inches tall, blue eyes, red hair has been seen roaming Milne's halls putting up posters. Opponents be on the lookout. She might win!

This girl has held many offices in Milne. For three successive years she has been a treasurer in some organization. In her freshman year she was treasurer of the Junior Student Council. She was treasurer of her class in her sophomore year. This year she was vice-president of the choir, member of the Music Council and treasurer of the class. She has also held many homeroom offices.

She is a member of Zeta Sigma Literary Society where she is the Inter-Society representative representing Sigma.

My candidate loves sports and participates in most of them. In her sophomore year she was the 10th grade representative of the Girls Athletic Association. This year she was vice-president of the Girls Athletic Association.

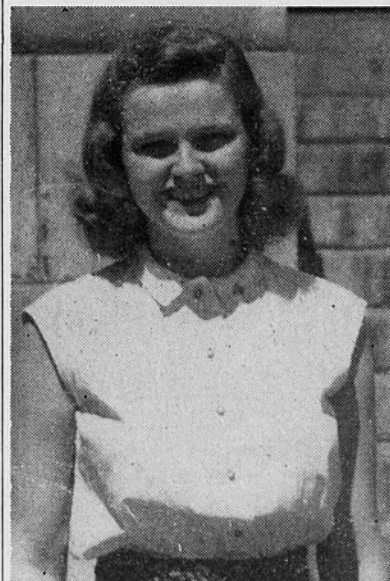

For the next year this girl was appointed editor of the Crimson and White. Holding these offices means that she can handle the responsibility of being vice-president of the Senior Student Council.

She likes good student government which is another reason why I think she would live up to being a good vice-president.

If you haven't already guessed the description of this girl with the bubbling personality, it's everybody's friend, Carole Jean Foss.

"Vote for Foss and it won't be a Loss."

Dick Nathan

Here at the Milne Downs, its post time, 1952. This is Lou Snyder in the press box to cover the 23rd annual running of the Milne Student Council vice-presidential race.

"Nate's" first positions coming to Milne from School 16 were as seventh grade homeroom vice-president and in the same year class Red Cross Representative. In these capacities he gained the respect of his classmates so that the following year he was elected homeroom president. Representing his freshman class on the M.B.A.A., Dick did an especially fine job. The following year he was both a representative and treasurer of this organization. He joined Theta Nu and, has just recently been elected president. He also holds the position as Boys Sports Editor on the staff of the Crimson and White. In addition to these many offices, "Nate" has been very active in all athletics which has proved a very valuable experience.

Dick's outside activities have been extensive, providing the kind of leadership experience that will make him a good vice-president. His earliest leadership training was in Boy Scouts. In Religious School "Nate" was a member of the Student Council for three years, serving one year as vice-president and the following year as president.

The honesty, efficiency, dependability, experience, and intelligence which my candidate has displayed are all good qualities of leadership. I feel that it is a special privilege to present "Dick Nathan for vice-president."

Doris Perlman

Got a minute? Here's a red hot tip non-stop from campaign headquarters.

There's a Milnite who has thrown her hat in the ring, and is running for the office of Senior Student Council secretary, who has really got it on the ball. She is the proud possessor of a completely overhauled fountain pen, a year's supply of Waterman's Blue-Black Ink, and plenty of ability to keep the Council's minutes without a faux pas. Her name? Why, Doris Perlman, naturally!

Born on October 18, 1935, Doris has spent a good share of her sixteen years dancing and writing. Her writing prowess led her to become the Feature Editor of the Crimson and White in her sophomore year, and to win the Regional Scholastic Writing Award this year.

Aside from extra curricular activities, Doris has maintained a high scholastic average and has always been a leader.

This year she held the positions of homeroom representative to the Student Council, treasurer of the Dramatics Club, and secretary of the junior class. It is this last office which we feel most qualifies her for the job at hand.

Doris is conscientious, hard-working, and efficient. She has showed great capability in every office she has ever filled. In our obviously unbiased, impersonal opinion, Doris Perlman is the only person for the job of Student Council secretary. It's up to you now. We've stated the facts. Quelle voulezvous en-core?

Shirley Wagner

If you have noticed the blue-eyed blonde about 5 feet 4 inches who has been acting secretary in the main office for the past few days, you have seen my candidate for secretary of Milne's student government.

Shirley Wagoner arrived in Albany the evening of April 5, 1935. She has lived these 17 eventful years at 26 Pinewood Avenue.

Her first years of schooling were spent at Public School 19 where she was an honor student. Upon graduation from the 8th grade she received a prize for having the highest marks in her grade. Her freshman year was spent at Hackett Junior High School where she continued her excellent work and was very popular. Shirley was elected president of her home room. At the end of the year she was awarded two money prizes for having the highest average and attaining a high average in Latin I.

Shirley came to Milne in her sophomore year and quickly proved herself to be everybody's friend. She was a representative on student council for that year. Shirley is a member of Zeta Sigma Literary Society and the F.H.A. During this year she was treasurer of the F.H.A. and was recently elected president for next year. She also held the office of treasurer for Tri-Y. Last June the Latin department awarded her $25.00 for having the highest average.

Shirley is a very ambitious and whatever she does is done well. She is capable of assuming responsibilities and also very conscientious. The job of Student Council secretary requires a conscientious and diligent worker. Because Shirley is in favor of a strong student government, she will be your representative and work hard to get what the students want for their school.

Bob Seiter

White bucks are now the rage at Milne. The only one wearing gray bucks is Robert Seiter, worthy candidate for treasurer of the senior Student Council.

He attended Binghamton Central high school at Binghamton, New York, before coming to Milne in his junior year. Bob was very active in sports and dramatics at Binghamton but found time to carry the office of secretary of his class as a freshman. Bob was treasurer of his class during his sophomore year. While at Binghamton he was in the top third of his class.

Bob gained membership in the national fraternity Lambda Sigma, and also the New York State Athletic Association before attending Milne.

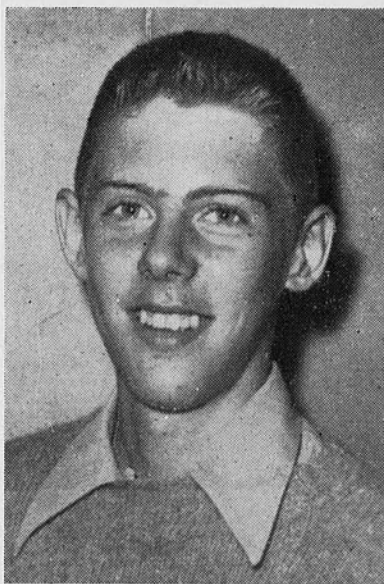

At Milne Mr. Seiter settled down to the job of bringing home a good report card. After five respectable report cards he was able to take time out to play tennis for Milne. Bob is fifth man with the Milne netmen. He is also one of the few exclusive members of Mr. Thier's physics club.

Born in 1935, Bob is a man of the world, for he has traveled far and lived in many states. That he has moved 16 times is proof that he has been around.

Bob Seiter is sure to be in Milne next year and expects, if elected, to fulfill the office of treasurer to the best of his ability.

Jerry Hanley

Jerome Richard Hanley was born in Chicago, Illinois on May 20, 1935. Shortly afterward he moved to New York State and he has resided here ever since. Before moving to the Capital District Jerry lived in Kinderhook, and there he attended Martin Van Buren high school.

At the Kinderhook school Jerry was active in music, sports, and dramatics. Since junior high school Jerry was a member of the school student council. Jerry also found time to maintain his "A" average which he has had from the first day he entered school. His high marks in mathematics make him ideally suited for the job of treasurer.

Fortunately for us Jerry moved to this vicinity last summer and entered Milne in the fall. He immediately took part in many school activities. He has become feature editor of the Crimson and White, a member of the band, and a member of Theseum. He is also a member of the dramatics club. Jerry played a trumpet solo in the Christmas show. He started bringing his trumpet to the basketball games where his timely blast even inspired Smitty to greater deeds.

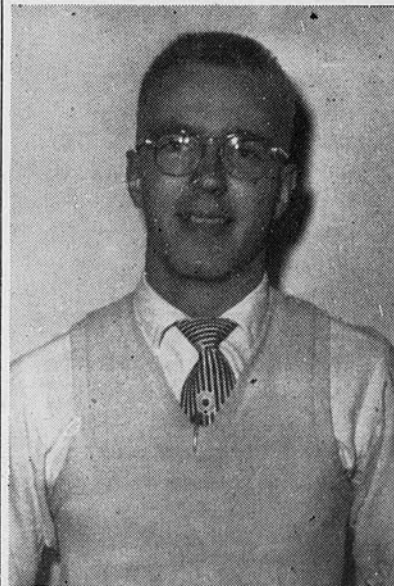

In his spare time (he does things so quickly and easily he has lots of it) you might find him working out with the tennis team at Ridgefield.

Last summer Jerry worked in a local super market. Before that he worked on a farm where he learned to raise and take care of that nice lettuce.

He comes from a long line of politicians, that's not a naughty word, and he is the grandson of the former Lt. Governor of the same name.

It's very difficult to get this tall, quiet, good natured guy to talk about his accomplishments. I hope I have given you an idea of what he can do. If you want the man that is best qualified for the job of student council treasurer, then cast your vote for HANLEY. When it comes to experience and ability he has the mostest and the bestest of each!
