WINTER COMMENCEMENT * DECEMBER 2010

THE WORLD WITHIN REACH

WELCOME

Dear Class of '10 Graduates, Families and Friends:

Today is a major milestone for our graduates. It is also a day of great reward for their families and friends, as well as for all UAlbany faculty and staff. The campus community feels enriched by our students' achievements, knowing society will benefit from their contributions in the years ahead.

At the University at Albany, our goal is to put "The World Within Reach." Through coursework, research, internships, volunteer opportunities and campus life, our students' worldview is expanded. They have been surrounded by faculty whose research and scholarship is addressing today's most important issues. They have been part of a campus community enriched by a diversity of cultures and ideas.

Our graduates took advantage of these opportunities and applied themselves with dedication and commitment. They have grown personally and intellectually. We are all very proud of them. Among this class are our future business leaders, health professionals, scientists, teachers, social workers and policymakers. They join the ranks of the University's more than 147,000 alumni who are making a difference both close to home and around the globe.

We hope today's graduates leave with fond memories of their UAlbany experience. May this commencement celebration be remembered as one of their warmest and happiest occasions.

George M. Philip
President

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning. The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have long, pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed.

The holder of the master's degree wears a gown with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down, and the rear part of its oblong shape is worn square cut. The gown may be worn open or closed. An alternate and older master's gown is also permissible. The gown is always worn open, has a long sleeve, which is square and closed at the end, and has a slit near the forearm.

Gowns for the doctoral degree may also be worn open or closed, but they carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. The velvet trimming may be either in black or the color distinctive to the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Academic gowns for each level are black, although a few institutions permit doctoral recipients to wear gowns of the characteristic institutional color.

Academic protocol allows trustees, presidents, and marshals of higher education institutions to wear gowns which are especially designed and colored. The president of the University at Albany wears a black and royal purple gown bearing four horizontal royal purple and gold bars on the sleeves. The marshals' gowns at UAlbany are gold and blue.

Caps may be of serge, broadcloth, or, for the doctoral outfit only, of velvet. The tassel is black or the color appropriate to subject, except the doctoral cap may have a tassel of gold or bullion.

It is the hood that gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. The hoods of the master's degree recipients are a black shell made of material to match the gown and use the institutional colors. UAlbany's institutional colors are royal purple and gold. The doctoral hood, which uses the same institutional colors, is larger and of a different style, having a flat panel at the back. The hood is bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn. Holders of several doctoral degrees may make a choice of hood for any particular occasion. The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
Accountancy, Business, Commerce: Dusk
Economics: Copper
Education: Powder Blue
Fine Arts: Brown
Journalism: Crimson
Library Science: Lemon Yellow
Music: Pink
Philosophy: Royal Blue
Public Administration, including Foreign Service: Teal Blue

Public Health: Salmon Pink
Science: Golden Yellow
Social Science and Social Work: Citron

Graduating students at UAlbany wear tassels of the color representing their field of study. Honors graduates of the baccalaureate program also wear honor medallions.

Candidates for degrees are listed as of November 8, 2010.

No changes in status could be made after this date. Honors for December degree candidates were computed using the cumulative grade point average as of November 8, 2010, and a projection that the student will have earned 56 or more credits at UAlbany, of which a minimum of 40 credits are A-E graded. Official honor status will be recalculated when fall 2010 grades are recorded and will appear on the diploma.

*** Summa Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.75 or above

** Magna Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.74

* Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25-3.49

He has also initiated the Ted Anderson Law Fund, which is designed to provide support for law conferences, panels and discussions at the University.

Mr. Anderson earned his Bachelor's degree, Cum Laude, in Political Science in 1982 from UAlbany and his J.D. from Southern Methodist University in 1986. Mr. Anderson is the recipient of the President's Outstanding Young Alumni Service Award (1992) and UAlbany's Alumni Honor Roll (1998).

Dear Graduate,

These are challenging times in our world, and the time after graduation can be a particularly stressful one. I want you to know that help is available and the UAlbany Alumni Association stands ready to assist you.

At the same time, I want to issue a challenge to you to stay connected to UAlbany, because I have found in life you often get out of an experience what you put into it. So, I ask you to stay connected because it will help you in your career and because it will help build a stronger UAlbany, too. Here are a few ways your Alumni Association can help you on your way.

I encourage you to log onto www.albany.edu/alumni to access the alumni career center. I also invite you to join our Facebook group and get LinkedIn to expand your professional network, taking advantage of the adage-it's not just what you know, but who you know.

Your fellow young alumni have formed a group called GOLD (Graduates Of the Last Decade), which meets professionally and socially throughout the year. Please be sure on the lookout for future Gold Reunion events.

On behalf the University at Albany Alumni Association, it is a pleasure and a privilege to welcome you into the University at Albany alumni community. Congratulations and best wishes in all that you do.

With warm regards and yours in UAlbany,

ALMA MATER

College of the Empire State
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.
Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.

Ways of pleasantness are thine,
Leading where in wisdom's shrine,
Joy and cheer, and hope divine,
Ever dwell for aye.
Thine the voice whose call we hear,
Thine the hand which holds us near,
Thine the heart, so true, so dear,
Cherished, loved alway.

Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.
'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.
