Head Coach Mary-Frances Monroe

Mary-Frances Monroe enters her second year as head women's soccer coach at the University at Albany. She previously served as an assistant coach for the Great Danes in 2005 and was an assistant at Wellesley College in 2004.

Monroe led the Great Danes to a 5-13-1 record a year ago and finished eighth in the America East. The 2006 squad broke records for points in a season (64), and assists (16), and tied the record for goals scored (24).

A four-year college All-American at the University of Connecticut and UCLA, Monroe was a candidate for both the Hermann Trophy and M.A.C. Awards, which are given to the best female collegiate soccer player in the country. During her freshman year, Monroe set UConn's single-season school record with 65 points and finished fourth among national leaders. She was named the Big East Conference Rookie of the Year and earned first-team all-conference honors. Monroe, who was selected Freshman of the Year by Soccer America, finished her three years at UConn with 117 points, ranking among the school's all-time points leaders. She spent her senior year at UCLA, tallying 12 goals and four assists.

Monroe has played professionally for the Philadelphia Charge and Boston Breakers of the Women's United Soccer Association and the New England Mutiny of the Women's Premier Soccer League. In 2005, she played professionally in Sweden for KIF Orebro.

Monroe guided the New England Mutiny to the 2007 WPSL Finals.

Monroe has also represented the United States at both the youth and senior levels. In 2000, she started for the U-21 Nordic Cup Team that won the championship in Germany. She made her senior team debut later in the year against Australia. Overall, Monroe has represented the United States on nine occasions, starting in six matches.

A native of Northport, N.Y., Monroe was a two-time Scholastic All-American at Northport High School. She scored 85 goals and added 43 assists while leading her team to the New York State championship in 1996. Along with being NASM certified as a personal trainer, Monroe currently holds a USSF "C" Coaching License. She earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from UCLA.
