At the head table: Mrs. Joseph D. Lochner, whose husband was honored with a 20-year testimonial dinner; T. Norman Hurd, State Budget Director; Allan S. Hubbard, Director of the Personnel Relations Board. It won't be long now that Mr. Hurd will be sitting on the opposite side of the table, conferring with Association negotiators on a pay increase for State employees. The delegates voted for 15 percent upward adjustments

A Must-Vote for Amendment 3

For minimum pensions, to aid the old retired civil servants who need it most, remember -

Vote YES on Amendment 3 election day. Make sure all your friends and acquaintances vote YES on Amendment 3.

The Fire Officers And the Dynamite

It must be sadly recorded that the lethargy of NYC public officials sometimes reaches an incredible stupor.

A case in point:

The most conservative group of City employees, the Fire officers - from lieutenant through chief - have publicly announced that they've reached "the end of the line" and that they must take "unified, direct action" to obtain wage adustments whose validity no one has ever disputed. These men, traditionally loathe to taking strong measures, are going to put on a "dignified gathering and parade" in City Hall Park.

Do members of the Board of Estimate grasp the full significance of such a measure by the Fire officers?

Probably not, or they would never have permitted the raw feeling of injustice to attain such a pitch. The simple fact is that the Fire officers have been shabbily treated, as indeed have nearly all other groups of City employees.

The City simply cannot forever ask that its employees continue to subsidize it by taking home less pay than they should. Such an attitude would never be tolerated in private industry; neither is it acceptable, by any legerdemain or obfuscation, in government. The action of the Fire officers is a symptom, a surface eruption of the seething discontent prevailing throughout the City service.

The Board is sitting on a piece of dynamite which has been sputtering a long time. If it ever explodes, there will be hell to pay. And among the heads likely to be blown off are many which have long been reposing in the result from the refusal of the insand.

THE POLICEMAN AND THE CIVIL SERVICE

THE STATUS of policemen has recently received the attention of the courts in several cases.

The Transport Workers Union sought a temporary injunction to restrain the NYC Police Commissoner George P, Monaghan from enforcing an order prohibiting policemen from joining that union. The Court refused to issue a temporary injunction in advance of the trial, on the ground that the plaintiffs had not shown that irreparable injury to them would junction. Any policeman who was disciplined or dismissed for joining the union had the right to review such discipline or dis-missal in the courts, the opinion read and if he established that the Commissioner had no right to discipline or dismiss him for joining the unon, then the policeman would be restored to his position with back pay.

The Court did point out that both sides had raised additional factual questions as to the pur-poses and activities of the union, which questions should be decided upon the evidence produced at a trial, and not upon affidavits in advance of a trial.

Exams Open Robt. Brady Dewey's Aide Interviewed Tells Class

Robert Brady, president of the Civil Service Forum, was interviewed Wednesday night, October 10, on the Barry Gray radio show, broadcast over NYC station

Mr. Brady said that the Forum seeks a $250 wage adjustment for municipal employees. He did not have any statement, however, concerning the Comptroller's position that funds for wage increases are not available.

He told the interviewer that he was hopeful the Mayor's Commit-tee on Management Survey would 'come up with something in the future for the employees." Lazarus Joseph, in whose department Mr. Brady works, is chairman of the Mayor's Committee.

Discussing the composition of the Civil Service Forum, Mr. Brady stated that it consists of a collection of "independent com-ponent councils representing mu-nicipal employees." nicipal employees.

Jobless Insurance Bill Comes Up Again

A bill introduced by Congress-man Forand, of Rhode Island, which provides for unemployment insurance for Federal civilian employees, was defeated in the House of Representatives for lack of a two-thirds vote.

The bill will again be brought up for a vote when only a major-ity is required to pass it.

By Barry Gray How It's Done

James C. Hagerty, Secretary to Governor Thomas E. Dewey, last Wednesday evening appeared as guest lecturer at a New York University graduate class conducted by Maxwell Lehman, LEADER editor.

Mr. Hagerty described the workings of information out of the Governor's office, the public relations aspects of gubernatorial and political campaigns, and answered a volley of questions from the students. He remained on the rostrum nearly two hours, and was given an ovation at the conclusion of the session.

The class, in "Government Information and Publicity," is un-der the university's Graduate Division of Puble Service, of which Mr. Lehman is a faculty member. It is conducted together with Mr. Leo Margolin former chief information officer for UNRRA.

Aides Urge Amendment4

ALBANY, Oct. 15-Public works employees from all parts of the State, meeting in Albany recently, have gone on record as favoring amendment number 4, and urging its support.

The employees pointed out that passage of the amendment would guarantee increased employment for some 12,000 State workers on highway construction and plan-ning. They added that no poli-tical considerations were involved in their support of the amend-

What It Does

Amendment number 4 would permit the State to guarantee the bonds of the Thruway Authority.

John J. Cox and Charles J. Hall, speaking for the Public Works employees, stated that large benefits would accrue to the citizens of the State through passage of the amendment. "A saving of $120,000,000 will be realized," they said, "if the voters approve this amendment." Two different legislatures have approved the amendment, and it will go to the voters at the forthcoming November election.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey congratulates Marshall J. Sheldon (center), handicapped occupational therapy aide in the State Rehabilitation Hospital at West Haverstraw. Mr. Sheldon was cited for outstanding job performance in his State civil service position. John L. Train (left) chairman of the New York State Committee to Employ the Physically Handicapped, made the award.

In Wheelchair 23 Years, State Worker Is Cited for High-Speed Machine Skill

Left an apparently helpless invalid after an attack of polio 23 years ago, Marshall J. Sheldon has been cited for outstanding job performance as an occupational therapy aide at the State Health Department's Rehabilitation Hernital West Havarstraw. tion Hospital, West Haverstraw, N. Y. He has been employed there for the past 19 years.

Announcement of the citation was made by John L. Train, Chairman of the State Committee of the Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, after a special canvass of handicapped State civil service workers. Presentation of the award was made in the Executive Chamber at Albany, in the presence of Governor Thomas E. Dewey, who also per-sonally congratulated Mr. Shel-

Record Praised Praising Mr. Sheldon's record as "an outstanding example of the type of contribution which can be made by many workers often overlooked by industry," Mr. Train revealed that Mr. Sheldon's handicap was particularly severe, involving all four extremities and trunk. He is permanently confined to a wheelchair and must rely almost completely on just his fore-arms and hands.

For th first 14 years of his employment at the Rehabilitation Hospital, Mr. Sheldon aided in maintenance work for the hospital and for patients' apparatus. During the evenings he supervised boys' recreation. For the past five years, as Occupational Therapy Aide, he supervised the power-woodworking shop and aided registered Occupational Therapists in solving equipment problems.

Has Inventive Faculty
Mr. Sheldon, who has worked at high-speed machines in the power-woodworking shop for many years without any severe accident, has contributed many mechanical pieces of apparatus for patients, including an improved adjustable duraluminum baby crutch. Born at Salt Point, Dutchess County, in 1905, Mr. Sheldon has two married children and three grand-married children and three grandchildren—all girls. As a hobby he breeds tropical fish.

He was chosen for the citation from among 30 nominated handicapped workers on recommendation of a panel of experts selected by Mary Goode Krone, chairman of the State Personnel Council, who was requested by Mr.
Train to assist in the selection of an outstanding handicapped Civil Service Worker.

New Plan for Civil Servants: Learn to Paint, Relax From Tension in Art Lessons Art interest among civil service ted, in small classes or alone, to employees is at an all-time high. develop at his own rate of speed.

Indications are that more pubhe workers than ever before are going into painting, drawing, sculpture, and other art activities. The Civil Service Employees Association art show in Albany any other exhibit ever held in the Albany Art Institute.

Now comes along a new idea for adults, including civil servants, who are interested in becoming amateur artists. It's a combination of learning art and emotional relaxation at the same time. The plan is being started by Doris Meltzer, well-known artist and director of the National Serigraph

Galleries in New York City.

How It Works

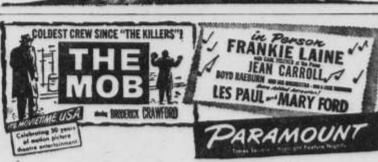

Idea is this: In individual lessons, the amateur will be permit- NYC.

There is no emphasis on creating "masterpieces." Miss Meltzer gives each student her undivided attention during the entire period GS-647, Medical and X-Ray Techof each lesson. Says the instruc-ter: "The adult who finds it diffihas drawn larger audiences than cult to relax after years of tension from mental stress will find this kind of help can be real therapy." Students don't need to buy supplies until well under way, since Miss Meltzer's studio is well-equipped. A large art-library and reproductions of fine works are also available. The studio is in downtown Manhattan.

Appointments may be made by telephone: Algonquin 5-0424 mornings or Circle 5-8936 afternoons. The National Serigraph Society is at 38 West 57th Street,

State Expects Record Hiring of Handicapped

Aiming at increasing last year's total of jobs found for the physically handicapped by about 33%, field representatives of the New York State Employment Service called on employers in connec-tion with National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, Physically Handicapped Week, proclaimed by President Truman and Governor Dewey for October

If the pace since January 1 is maintained, the Employment Service reported, more than 28,000 jobs will be found for the handicapped this year as compared with 21,079 in 1950.

Employment Service officials pointed out that persons classed as "handicapped" are not totally incapacitated. Lack of an arm or leg does not hamper a worker in many jobs; at times a handicap, such as deafness in a noisy plant, enables better performance. In addition, the partly disabled usually are more conscientious than ordinary workers, says the NYSES.
