COMMENCEMENT ✨ MAY 2010

THE WORLD WITHIN REACH

While you were here...

The Class of 2010 has experienced an exciting phase in the life of the University at Albany. This class has witnessed the most campus growth since the original construction of the main campus in the 1960s: the introduction of innovative new programs, major advances in the stature of University athletics, significant world events, spectacular growth, and much more. President George M. Philip and the entire University at Albany community feel privileged to have shared these years with you and want to send you off with the best wishes and the heartiest of congratulations.

WELCOME

Dear Class of '10 Graduates, Families and Friends:

Today is a major milestone for our graduates. It is also a day of great reward for their families and friends, as well as for all UAlbany faculty and staff. The campus community feels enriched by our students' achievements, knowing society will benefit from their contributions in the years ahead.

At the University at Albany, our goal is to put "The World Within Reach." Through coursework, research, internships, volunteer opportunities and campus life, our students' worldview is expanded. They have been surrounded by faculty whose research and scholarship are addressing today's most important issues. They have been part of a campus community enriched by a diversity of cultures and ideas.

Our graduates took advantage of these opportunities and applied themselves with dedication and commitment. They have grown personally and intellectually. We are all very proud of them. Among this class are our future business leaders, health professionals, scientists, teachers, social workers and policymakers. They join the ranks of the University's more than 147,000 alumni who are making a difference both close to home and around the globe.

We hope today's graduates leave with fond memories of their UAlbany experience. May this commencement celebration be remembered as one of their warmest and happiest occasions.

George M. Philip

ACADEMIC HERALDRY

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th-century castles and halls of learning. The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have long, pointed sleeves and are designed to be worn closed.

The holder of the master's degree wears a gown with an oblong sleeve open at the wrist. The sleeve base hangs down, and the rear part of its oblong shape is worn square cut. The gown may be worn open or closed. An alternate and older master's gown is also permissible. The gown is always worn open, has a long sleeve, which is square and closed at the end, and has a slit near the forearm.

Gowns for the doctoral degree may also be worn open or closed, but they carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. The velvet trimming may be either in black or the color distinctive to the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Academic gowns for each level are black, although a few institutions permit doctoral recipients to wear gowns of the characteristic institutional color.

Academic protocol allows trustees, presidents, and marshals of higher education institutions to wear gowns which are especially designed and colored. The president of the University at Albany wears a black and royal purple gown bearing four horizontal royal purple and gold bars on the sleeves. The marshals' gowns at UAlbany are gold and blue. Caps may be of serge, broadcloth, or, for the doctoral outfit only, of velvet. The tassel is black or the color appropriate to the subject, except the doctoral cap may have a tassel of gold or bullion.

It is the hood that gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. The hoods of the master's degree recipients are a black shell made of material to match the gown and use the institutional colors. The doctoral hood, which uses the same institutional colors, is larger and of a different style, having a flat panel at the back. The hood is bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn. Holders of several doctoral degrees may make a choice of hood for any particular occasion. The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities: White
Accountancy, Business, Commerce: Dusk
Economics: Copper
Education: Powder Blue
Fine Arts: Brown

Journalism: Crimson
Library Science: Lemon Yellow
Music: Pink
Philosophy: Royal Blue
Public Administration,
including Foreign Service: Teal Blue
Public Health: Salmon Pink
Science: Golden Yellow
Social Science and Social Work: Citron

Graduating students at UAlbany wear tassels of the color representing their field of study. Honors graduates of the baccalaureate program also wear honor medallions.

Candidates for degrees are listed as of April 5, 2010. No changes in status could be made after this date. Honors for degree candidates were computed using the cumulative grade point average as of December 24, 2009, and a projection that the student will have earned 56 or more credits at UAlbany, of which a minimum of 40 credits are A-E graded. Official honor status will be recalculated when spring 2010 grades are recorded and will appear on the diploma.

 Summa Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.75 or above

 Magna Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.74

* Cum Laude: signifies a cumulative grade-point average of 3.25-3.49

GRADUATE CEREMONY SPEAKER

Honorable Paul D. Tonko, Congressman for the 21st District of New York

Congressman Paul D. Tonko is serving his first term in Congress representing the 21st District of New York, which includes the state's capital city, Albany. Paul comes to Washington, D.C. with more than two decades of administrative, legislative and policy experience, having served in the New York State Assembly from 1983 to 2007, and as President and CEO of the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (NYSERDA) from 2007-2008.

Congressman Tonko is a nationally recognized expert on energy issues. An engineer by training, he served as chairman of the New York State Assembly Standing Committee on Energy prior to leaving the Assembly to join NYSERDA. As chairman, Paul fought to protect consumers, fought against utility deregulation and worked to upgrade our aging energy infrastructure. While at NYSERDA, Paul worked to advance an aggressive green agenda for businesses and residents throughout New York State.

Congressman Tonko has been a strong voice for responsible energy policy, job growth in upstate New York, unionized labor and affordable and accessible healthcare for all. In Congress, he is a member of the House Committee on Education and Labor, and serves on the subcommittees for Higher Education and Healthy Families and Communities. Building on his work in the New York State Assembly, where he fought for one of the nation's strongest mental health parity laws (known as "Timothy's Law"), he has always promoted fair and equitable health-care policies that strengthen our communities and protect our most vulnerable citizens.

Congressman Tonko is also a member of the Committee on Science and Technology, which merges his energy expertise with his environmental agenda. Serving on subcommittees for Energy and Environment, Research and Science Education, Technology and Innovation, he hopes to spur an environment where innovation and cutting-edge research and design spur economic development in the 21st Congressional District.

An advocate for a "green economy" and "green-collar jobs," Congressman Tonko has promoted wind development in Upstate New York and successfully lobbied G.E. to locate its growing G.E. Wind operations in Schenectady, N.Y. In the New York State Assembly, he was a lead sponsor of the Power for Jobs program, which provides low cost power to employers throughout New York State and has retained or created 300,000 jobs statewide. In 2006, he successfully negotiated for Beech-Nut to keep its plant in Montgomery County, and expand their operation by relocating its corporate headquarters. The new Beech-Nut headquarters will be a green building and retain 356 jobs while creating 135 new positions.

Congressman Tonko also has strong ties to local government, which he sees as a crucial partner in delivering programs and services to constituents. At age 26, Paul was the youngest person in the history of Montgomery County to be elected to the county's Board of Supervisors. He served as chairman of that body until 1981. Prior to his election to the Assembly in 1983, he was an engineer in the New York State Department of Transportation and also served on the staff of the Department of Public Service. Tonko has been a longtime member of the Public Employees Federation (PEF) and proudly serves as the first PEF member elected to Congress.

He graduated from Clarkson University with a degree in mechanical and industrial engineering. He is a lifelong resident of the city of Amsterdam, New York. ✱

Joseph E. Persico '52, Historian and Biographer

Joseph E. Persico, author and former speechwriter for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, was born to Thomas and Blanche Persico of Gloversville, New York, on July 19, 1930. In 1952, after receiving a B.A. in both English and Political Science from the New York State College for Teachers (now known as the University at Albany), he entered the U.S. Navy and remained in the military for three years. Persico served as a Lieutenant Junior Grade aboard a minesweeper and also with NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization) Headquarters in Naples, Italy. Returning to the U.S. in 1956, Persico matriculated at Columbia University in New York for his graduate work.

In 1956, Persico began his political writing career, serving Governor W. Averell Harriman as a writer and researcher. After three years with Harriman, Persico then became a Foreign Service Officer for the United States Information Agency (USIA) working in Argentina, Brazil, and Washington. Between 1963 and 1966, Persico served as Executive Assistant to New York State Health Commissioner, Hollis Ingraham. In 1966, Persico became the chief speechwriter for New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. Continuing in this position for seven years, he remained Rockefeller's primary speechwriter as the governor assumed the office of Vice President of the United States from 1974 to 1977.

In 1977, Persico transitioned into a full-time author, focusing on historical subjects. In that year, his Civil War piece, My Enemy My Brother: Men and Days of Gettysburg, was released. Two years later, he followed up this work with a novel, The Spiderweb, and a nonfiction study, Piercing the Reich: The Penetration of Nazi Germany by American Secret Agents During World War II. In 1982, Persico focused on Nelson Rockefeller's life and published the biography, The Imperial Rockefeller. During the 1990s, Persico created other historical works on both American espionage and the Nuremberg War Crimes Trials following World War II. These works were Casey: From the OSS to the CIA and Nuremberg: Infamy on Trial. Persico also targeted renowned broadcast journalist Edward R. Murrow for a biographical sketch in 1990. In addition to his books, Persico has also published numerous articles on American history.

Persico collaborated with former Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and later Secretary of State Colin L. Powell on his biography. Between 1994 and 1996, the author developed a personal relationship with his subject, occasionally addressing Powell as "Sir Colin," and "Mon

General," from "The Hired Pen." Persico continues to publish books on historical subjects. In November 2001, Random House Inc. released Roosevelt's Secret War: FDR and World War II Espionage and in 2004, Eleventh Month, Eleventh Day, Eleventh Hour: Armistice Day, 1918, World War I and Its Violent Climax was published. His words live and breathe in granite as well as on paper. Throughout his career, Joe has penned thousands of words. There are seven however that touch the lives of many, on a daily basis, who visit the World War II Memorial in our nation's capital. Underneath the 4,000 gold stars, each one representing 100 US soldiers who died in the country's service during World War II is inscribed:

"Here We Mark The Price Of Freedom"

He is a frequent reviewer for The New York Times Book Review and the Washington Post Book World and is a commentator on several PBS and History Channel documentaries.

Persico was born and grew up in Gloversville, N.Y., is married to the former Sylvia LaVista, has two daughters, five grandchildren and divides his time between upstate New York and Mexico. ✱

KERMIT L. HALL AND PHYLLIS A. HALL INAUGURAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

One of the first things the late Kermit L. Hall did when he became the University at Albany president in February 2005 was establish The Inaugural Scholarship Fund to provide need-based undergraduate student scholarships. The fund was jump-started with $100,000, in lieu of a formal presidential inauguration. Hall and his wife Phyllis also contributed an additional $10,000 to the fund, which was renamed the Kermit L. Hall and Phyllis A. Hall Inaugural Scholarship Fund in honor of the president, who passed away August 13, 2006. This fund provides need-based undergraduate student scholarships as well as scholarships for students who have been admitted to the Honors College. CLASS GIFT CONTRIBUTIONS

The 2010 Class Gift supports the renovation of the intramural softball field located behind State Quad. This field is used by hundreds of students and intramural teams each year and is in need of updates to make the space more functional. The field will also be renamed Class of 2010 Field at the end of the year and be a lasting legacy on campus for decades to come. Thank you to everyone who has supported this project. If you would like to contribute, please visit www.albany.edu/giving

CONGRATULATIONS

When you start your career, it's nice to know a network of 147,000 alumni is ready to help you get your big break.

Dear Graduate,

These are challenging times in our world, and the time after graduation can be a particularly stressful one. I want you to know that help is available and the UAlbany Alumni Association stands ready to assist you.

At the same time, I want to issue a challenge to you to stay connected to UAlbany, because I have found in life you often get out of an experience what you put into it. So, I ask you to stay connected because it will help you in your career and because it will help build a stronger UAlbany, too. Here are a few ways your Alumni Association can help you on your way.

I encourage you to log onto www.albany.edu/alumni to access the alumni career center. I also invite you to join our Facebook group and get LinkedIn to expand your professional network, taking advantage of the adage-it's not just what you know, but who you know.

Your fellow young alumni have formed a group called GOLD (Graduates Of the Last Decade), which meets professionally and socially throughout the year. Please be on the lookout for future Gold Reunion events.

On behalf the University at Albany Alumni Association, it is a pleasure and a privilege to welcome you into the University at Albany alumni community. Congratulations and best wishes in all that you do.

With warm regards and yours in UAlbany,

William J. McCann Jr., Esq. '86, '87
President, University at Albany Alumni Association

University at Albany Photo Release

The University at Albany's Commencement ceremonies are public events that are videotaped, photographed and recorded. I understand that by attending I give permission for the University to photograph and record me and then use my physical likeness and sound in University at Albany related publications and productions. The University at Albany may convert the video, photographs or audio into any format that exists now or may be devised in the future. The University at Albany may edit and repackage my physical likeness and sound as recorded this day into any existing format or one devised in the future. I will not seek any claim on the University at Albany or anyone else with whom they've contracted over the use of my physical likeness and sound recorded this day or for any other projects that grow out of it. This means, among other things, that I will not sue for invasion of privacy, right of publicity or any other right connected with the use of my physical likeness and sound recorded this day or any other projects that grow out of it. I intend for this to be a blanket release for the University at Albany and anyone else they may deal with in order to broadcast, promote or distribute the images and sound recorded this day or any projects that grow out of it.

ALMA MATER

College of the Empire State
Mother of an army great,
Thou the molder of our fate,
Thee we sing today.
Thine the hand we clasp so strong,
Holding tho' the years be long,
Thou the burden of our song,
Thee we sing today.

Ways of pleasantness are thine,
Leading where in wisdom's shrine,
Joy and cheer, and hope divine,
Ever dwell for aye.
Thine the voice whose call we hear,
Thine the hand which holds us near,
Thine the heart, so true, so dear,
Cherished, loved alway.

Wisdom's duty heeds thy call,
Ever in Minerva's thrall,
Pass the torch from one to all,
Guide each destiny.
'Neath the Purple and the Gold,
Let thy history unfold,
Sons and daughters, young and old,
Hail to Albany.
