Phi Delta will hold an "International" Buffet Supper, Margaret Smythe '52 is General Chairman. The traditional "BZ Heaven" will be featured in the Formal Dinner. General Chairman is Harriet Juengling '52.

Phi Delta will hold an "International" Buffet Supper, Margaret Smythe '52 is General Chairman. The Formal Dinner will have a "Showboat" theme with Mary J. Sweet '52 as General Chairman.

The sororities have appointed entertainment committees. Entertainment will be furnished at both the Buffet Supper and Formal Dinner.

Those invited will be called for at their place of residence. Albany commuters will be escorted to the sorority from their homes. Other commuters will be called for at one of the dormitories.

The waiters at the Buffet Supper and Formal Dinner will be Statesmen, both freshmen and upperclassmen. Statesmen will also act as taxi drivers for some sororities.

Students Desire ROTC At State

"Do you want an Air Force ROTC unit here?" The result of the poll was not quite as strong as it would be to the inquiry "Should all Statesmen be exempt from the draft?" but let's not be optimistic. Men are receiving their notices every day.

With more than 75 per cent of the student body voting (the rest couldn't bear to face it) the opposition popped up with the enormous number of 24. The uniforms couldn't have any attraction. Probably the 76 who checked "Indifferent" haven't given up hope of being 4F.

With 572 "strongly favors" and 301 "favors" it seems that Statesmen (and women) have become military minded, even as a matter of necessity. The poll showed that State wants an ROTC unit, but now comes the hard job of trying to get one set up here. It's all up to the administration and the Air Force officers who decide the location of the ROTC units.

College Admits Frosh, Transfers

The Office of Field Service at State College has issued information concerning students who have enrolled for the second semester. Among the students included are freshmen, transfers, graduates, and those who have asked for readmission or who have applied for admittance for their own special interests.

Enrollment has increased by about seventy-five students, with freshmen and graduates leading in number with 17 and 24 respectively. The transfers are 12 in number, while the readmitted students equal 10. There are five special students.

The new enrollees represent all sections of the state and hail from numerous colleges outside of the state. The admittance blanks show that boys and girls have transferred from the University of Pennsylvania, the Western Michigan College of Education, Union, Champlain, and Cortland State Teachers College. The hometowns represented were: Troy, Rochester, Plattsburg, Barneveld, Albany, Croton-on-the-Hudson and Schenectady.

Commerce Students Plan Yearly Banquet In Red Cross Center

According to an announcement from Joan Whitcraft '51, Commerce Club will hold its annual banquet at Herbert's Thursday, Dr. Donald J. D. Mulkerne, Supervisor of Business Education in the Milne School, will give a brief talk. Arrangements have been made for group singing and entertainment by Commerce students.

The price of the dinner will be $2.10 including tip. Money will be collected today, Monday, and Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 2:30 p. m. The banquet is for the benefit of all Commerce students.

Lost And Found To Hold Sale Of Unclaimed Articles Today

The sale of unclaimed articles from the Lost and Found Department will be held today from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. according to Virginia Norton '51, Grand Marshal. Helen Hagel and Alice Cohen, Sophomores, will conduct the sale outside the Commons.

Books, pens, pencils, jewelry and other miscellaneous items will be sold. The proceeds from the sale will be added to the Student Association budget.

Students Participate In Red Cross Center

At the recent meeting of the Red Cross College Unit of State, Marylou Noble '52, Acting Chairman of the Unit, states that students were enrolled to help at the Chapter House as Staff Aides during their free periods and to drive for the Motor Service, which has great need for volunteers. According to Noble, there is a great demand for volunteers in all the various services.

State now has fifteen Gray Ladies working at the Memorial Hospital, the Anna Lee Home for the Aged, and the Albany Hospital. Fifteen other girls are also taking a preparatory course at the Chapter House.

The Unit is moreover formulating plans for a dance to be held April 6. The dance will take place in the Dewitt-Clinton Ballroom.

Board Schedules Budget Hearings

Student Board of Finance will begin its hearings on organization budgets Monday, according to Robert Krelling '51. The Board requests that organizations begin to plan their budgets for next year. The budgets should not exceed the limits adopted last year states Krelling.

State To Debate In MIT Tourney

Debate Council is planning to send one team to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Annual Invitational Tournament today and tomorrow, according to Thomas Godward '51, President of Debate Council. As a result of try-outs, four students have become eligible for the novice debating team.

Eight debates are scheduled for the MIT Tournament. The Council is sending one team composed of Thomas Godward '51 and Anita Lienfeld '51. This varsity team will debate the negative side of the national topic.

Four students are eligible for novice debating as a result of the recent tryouts. They are Albert Casier, Jay Clark, Merle Fifield, and Andrew Sim, freshmen.

Debate Council will send one team to the University of Connecticut Friday and Saturday, March 2 and 3. This is an elimination tournament, and the winners will qualify for the Eastern Regional National Tournament to be held at West Point.

AD Class Selects Annual Spring Play

The Advanced Dramatics class has decided upon the play which they will present at their annual spring production, according to Agnes Putterer, Assistant Professor of English. The play, to be presented in Page Hall, May 18 and 19, will be directed by Miss Putterer.

The class chose the three act comedy "Al, Wilderness!" written by Eugene O'Neil. This is O'Neil's only comedy. Tryouts will be held in the Auditorium March 7 and 8.

'Shade Downers' Don Fancy Titles

"Atomic Bomb, crouch and cover." "This is it kids, every man for himself!" These were among the statements that State faculty members promised to utter, should Albany be a victim of that attack for which we've been preparing. Another professor feels that if an atom bomb falls in the vicinity all will be a purely academic question anyway.

In Commerce classes students decided that persons assigned to the task of shade pulling should have distinctive titles, since they will be the ones to save our lives. Among the titles considered were Atom Aides, G. F. S. H. (Glass Protection Spattering Personnel), and the A. S. S. (Atom Service Staff).

Not to be pessimistic, but one faculty member is expounding upon the theory that after an attack, one either gets up and walks away, or one doesn't!

Religious Clubs Sponsor Dances

Among the events scheduled by the religious clubs are the annual "Cupid's Hop" sponsored by Student Christian Association and the Hill and SCA joint square dance. The former will be held from 9 to 11:30 p. m. tonight and the latter dance is scheduled for Sunday from 6 to 11 p. m.

A Valentine's Day theme will predominate at the "Cupid's Hop" to be held in the Commons, according to Anne Braasch '51, President of SCA. Music will be provided by Bob Massey and his Blue Notes.

State To Debate In MIT Tourney

The Heads of the various Committees are as follows: Publicity, Barbara Benson '51; Decorations, Douglas Nielsen '53; Music, Janet Bookstaver '52; Refreshments, Nancy Worden '53; Tickets, John Jacobus '54; and Entertainment, Helen Pilcher '52. Carol Jenkins '51 will be the General Chairman for the entire affair.

Hillel and SCA Plan Dance

Hillel and SCA will hold a round and square dance at the Washington Avenue Synagogue as announced by Barbara Stein '51, President of Hillel. The program will include dinner and speakers besides dancing. Guest speakers at the supper will be Dr. Frances Colby, Instructor in English, and Rabbi Harold Schechter.

Pagodas, Lollipops To Reign At Dorm Formals

Rickshaws, candy canes, oriental lanterns, ice cream cones—it's all according to not how, but where you live. If it's Snyles, then you'll be seeing things from the Far East. If it's Pierce or one of the cottages, you'll be spending your night in sweet surroundings. Of course, if you're a fellow it's all according to where your friends live.

Saturday, March 3, is the date; 9 p. m. is the starting time; and the Hillel room at Pierce Hall or the Snyles Hall gymnasium are the places. And the event... the annual Pierce, Snyles Formals, naturally.

Let's peep through this arched bridge (it's really a door) and is that the gymnasium? The dancers look familiar enough; the orchestra sounds like Don Burt's; but the walls are covered with rick-

Defense Drill Heads Agenda For Assembly

Today's assembly will include a Civil Defense Drill directed by Elmer C. Mathews, Director of Civil Defense for the college, according to the agenda approved by Student Council. At the Council meeting Co-chairmen were appointed to investigate the establishment of an honorary society for women at the college. A definite date has been set for the sale of the Student Council sponsored blazers, and the Council heard a report concerning insurance for cars used for Student Association purposes.

The assembly agenda planned for today will include, besides the Civil Defense Drill, discussion on a constitutional amendment. This amendment, concerning Campus Commission, was proposed by Virginia Norton '51, Grand Marshal, last week. Co-chairmen were appointed to investigate the election of the Grand Marshal to be done by Campus Commission instead of student association. It will also change the constitution by increasing the number of members from seventeen to twenty one.

To investigate the establishment of an honorary society for women, Student Council chose Co-Chairmen. Those appointed are Evelyn Wolfe '51 and Marian Newton '52. Victoria Baldino '52, Chairman of the blazer committee, has completed plans for the sale of the blazers. Orders will be taken Wednesday in the Lounge from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m.

A report on insurance for cars used by Student Association for trips was made by Gerald Dunn '51. The Council decided to investigate the matter further.

List Requisites For Certificates

Regarding the Certificate Policy of State Education Department, Elmer C. Mathews, Director of Teacher Placement Bureau, has stated that a certificate valid for teaching an academic subject requires a four-year program leading to a Baccalaureate Degree and in addition 30 semester hours in approved graduate courses. There will be no change in this requirement unless by summer the war requires re-consideration.

This certificate is necessary in order to get a beginning teaching position. Those already in positions will be issued renewable certificates upon evidence of completion of six semester hours in the graduate level, until the requirements are completed.

Fraternity Council Will Issue Bids In Lounge Today

Fraternity bids will be issued to eligible Statesmen today according to James Dunn '51, President of Inter-Fraternity Council. Any man who has attended State College for at least one full semester (summer sessions not included) is eligible to receive bids from the four fraternities: Kappa Delta Rho, Edward Elmer Potter Club, Kappa Beta, and Sigma Lambda Sigma.

The following procedure is to be followed in picking up and returning bids. Men who have been issued bids will be notified of the fact through student mail. They are to go to the Lounge between the hours of 8 a.m. and 12:35 p.m. today to pick up their bid or bids. These bids, signed or unsigned, are to be returned to the Lounge Monday between the same hours.

Any bids which are not picked up or returned during the hours mentioned above will be invalid. Failure to pick up or return a bid will result in making the man concerned ineligible to join a fraternity until next semester.

Appoint Pillard To Direct Study

An announcement from the Kellogg Foundation and the Capital Area School Development Association, a cooperative organization of schools in the Hudson-Mohawk Valley, reveals the recent appointment of Dr. Matthew H. Pillard of New York City, to direct a study which the organizations are sponsoring, to improve the quality of public school administration in the Capital District. Dr. Pillard, whose headquarters are at State College, assumed his duties February 1.

He has met with the executive committee of CASDA and with representatives from 41 schools to plan the agenda for a seminar on public school administration to be conducted at the college next month.

Before accepting this position, Dr. Pillard was assistant coordinator of a similar project in educational administration at Columbia University.

Improvement . . .

Every year the students of State College find something to criticize. A few people get the idea and after sufficient conversation with others it becomes the "thing" of the year. Although not entirely unlike other years, Student Association Government has taken the back seat this year to be replaced by State College Faculty.

One thing which results when a sufficient number of people "gripes", whether it is always valid or not, is that someone does something about it. At the present time, the Education Department at State College seems to be in the spotlight. Columnist have voiced their opinions in the State College News.

Considering much of the criticism constructive, the Education Department has appointed a committee composed of members of the Department and four members of the student body to find out the problems and to provide solutions for them. Through the use of a confidential questionnaire containing such questions as "How can the screening and guidance of prospective teachers be made more effective?" and "What are the ways in which methods courses can be improved?" this group have been able to compile a list of student and faculty opinions and are now prepared to try and solve the problems.

Some improvements have already taken place. This semester a Milne class is being taught everyday in Room 20 in order to provide opportunities for the Sophomore education to observe the teaching process and adolescent behavior. Student Guidance counselors are now being offered the opportunity to go to an off-campus school and work for a period of time as the counselor for the school.

Not only has the Education Department taken steps toward the preparation of better teachers, but the Teacher Placement Bureau Student Committee have taken steps along these lines. A questionnaire has been sent out to the 225 June graduates of 1950 for their opinions in respect to their professional training.

It is inevitable that students of State College should be criticizing the faculty. The recent article issue of Life Magazine devoted entirely to Education and the Atlantic City Conference, where educators declared that teacher training is failing have aided in making them feel inadequate for the profession.

Much of the criticism of our faculty is justifiable some of it is invalid. Changes can't take place over night. However, we hope the ideas do not die in the committee room.

Is It Worth It? . . .

At last Wednesday's Student Council a suggestion and report was made on the possibility of taking out an insurance policy for students who ride in cars when carrying on the activities of the Student Association. One insurance policy which could be obtained would cost approximately $25. This would insure any car and any student who was riding in it at the time of any accident while carrying on the activities of S.A. The other alternative would be for the owner of the cars to increase their liability. This is impractical. It may be worthwhile for Student Council to continue their investigation, if cars are used enough to warrant such a policy.

Elsie-Goddess of the Sacred Cow

By PETER HAWKINS

Shed a tear for the education department, they've had it. Prior to the last exam period, there was the usual inquisitiveness concerning the various finals in the many intriguing education courses. The department, with a twinkle in their eye, passed out to the innocent students the information they so wanted. "Your exam will be multiple choice with a fifty-point bonus question" or "I'm only giving a two hour exam, two hundred 'True-False' and ten out of twenty essay questions." Undoubtedly you've all seen these various types in the many years you have spent bettering your "whole person."

For your sake, I suggest we analyze these tests with a view to broadening and supplementing our cultural and social backgrounds. Also, I submit that this article will give you a more precise understanding of the education courses, their finals and the ultimate results.

Apparently, the professors feel that there is one type of exam which is most revealing of their students' diverse abilities. This is the "B.S. exam" sometimes known as the "Be Specific exam." You can always recognize this one because the marks on this appear in time with a metronome (which by the way was swinging rather fast.)

A large group of students (mostly English-Speech majors) have a

Tunin' In The Town

While tunin' in Station T.O.W.N. why not turn your dial to the Playhouse again? This time it's the Albany Symphony Orchestra, which will be performing there on March 4 at 8:30 p. m.

For those of you who enjoy classical music and more particularly Mendelssohn there will be a meeting of the Mendelssohn Club on March 7 at 8:30 p. m. at Chancelor's Hall.

Speaking of Mendelssohn brings us to his Spring Song, which leads to thoughts of love and the Marriage Guidance talks being held at Siena College every Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. until April 11.

Let's switch to short wave for a moment or at least to foreign flavor with Sasha Gorodnitski conducting the Troy Chorale on March 12 at 8:30 p. m. in the Troy Music Hall.

Your school and community has been tunin' in Brotherhood all week. You're a good opportunity to come in on the same frequency by attending the Brotherhood lecture sponsored by the Youth Group at the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 6 p. m.

Common-States

By HARVEY MILK

The Common-States is given the widest latitude as author of this column, although his viewpoints do not necessarily reflect those of the State College News.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

This being my first column I was wondering how to start . . . and I decided that each week it would be a good idea, not only for you but for myself, if I started it each week with a quote of the week—a la Rev. Nielsen. And after I give you the weekly message I'll no doubt write a column to the contrary of the quote. And to start off, think about this quote by Ibsen, "The only man is the man who stands alone." It might hurt.

MEN ? ? ?

The proposed R.O.T.C. program for State is being hashed out not only by the administration, but also by the entire student body—who seems to favor it. It has been stated that one of the reasons why we should have such a program at State is so that there will be more men here; that the caliber of the men will be higher; that they won't be bookworms but somewhat more of a healthy specimen of a male. Good, I'm all for that . . . raising the standards of the men at State—but should we do it at the expense of sacrificing the primary purpose of this institution. We are to prepare teachers of our children. Can we tell our children not to fight one another and then send them to a class on correct battle tactics. We tell them how war is bad and then we teach them from a militaristic point of view. Wouldn't it be better if we raised our standards ourselves? Do we want men or warriors?

LAUGH AND THE WORLD LAUGHS

I have been told that our fraternity on campus has introduced a proposal in Inter-Fraternity Council that there should be no negative rushing—or a fine will be imposed for any violation . . . It was laughed right out of one frat house; I add my laugh . . . boys, practice what you preach!

OUR TEACHERS

Last week's article in the NEWS by Cohen and Ventimiglia was in my opinion the best this paper has ever published . . . but like so many things around here it will probably be forgotten or given to some committee to investigate the situation and the in the hands of such a committee, like other major problems at State. Its basic point seemed so true and as George Bernard Shaw said, "Those who can't teach, teach others to teach." Look at our faculty and you can see how there is a need for improvement; it hurts—but let's face the facts, our faculty does have weak spots.

FIX

Although it hasn't hit State (may it never) the present basketball fix is something we all should think about. Would a basketball car save that sport the way it saved baseball? Would the return (2) of the game to the college gym save the sport? Or should we all sit back and forget about the situation the way the Presidents of the New York City colleges did when the President of LIU called for a conference to do something about the situation. Wrestling (professional) may be a phony, but at least we know it, and the fans aren't sold down the river. However, just thinking about the situation will not help it . . . let's demand action . . . ah! that Holy dolly.

STATE FAIR

Tonight would be the fine opening for the annual State Fair. The "Peds" will be seeking their third win in a row . . . this time at the expense of Oneonta State. It would be a good idea to have State Fair opened every year with a Friday night game followed by an informal dance and make the Fair a weekend affair.

CROUCH & COVER

As Dr. Standing said after reading the "A" bomb instructions, "I have just one other suggestion while you are all on your hands and knees pray."

Educators View Teacher Training At Conference

Representatives of the nation's leading teachers' colleges convened to debate the question of how to improve teacher-preparation at the annual session of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education February 17, in Atlantic City. Dr. Edward L. Cooper, Dr. Milton C. Olson, and Dr. Donald J. Mulkerne, Professors of Commerce, Dr. Donald Orton, Professor of Education, and Dr. Evan R. Collins, President of the College, served as representatives for State College.

Leaders in the field of education presented various opinions for the chaotic conditions now existing in teacher-training. The main trouble lies in the fact that there are too many inefficient teaching institutions. The National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards claimed that only a very few of the teachers' colleges meet the demands of teaching ethics and qualify as good preparatory schools for the teaching profession. Educators want colleges to meet definite standards.

Educators Desire New System

Educators also suggested a strong system of accreditation and the setting up of national teaching standards to be enforced by state, local, and professional organizations. Thus teachers in each state would have to meet similar professional qualifications.

Dr. Orton Comments

Dr. Orton, Professor of Education, declared, "That we could welcome that type of movement throughout the country in order to strengthen education and the position of our own institution." He stated, "Same states do not require any preparation for teaching."

Schultze Releases Rivalry Schedule

The tentative schedule for second semester rivalry events has been released by Helmut Schultze '51, Chairman of the Rivalry Committee. The sophomore and freshman classes are continuing plans and rehearsals for their Big-4's under past rules in lieu of definite rules which are being formulated.

Rivalry swimming will take place Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at Public Bath Number Three. The men will compete in Freestyle, Relay, Backstroke, Breaststroke, and Underwater races. Women's events include Crawl, Backstroke, Freestyle, Side stroke, and Canoe races. Both men's and women's events are worth two rivalry points.

Men's and women's basketball games are scheduled for Wednesday, Tuesday, and Thursday, March 7, 13, and 15. Each event will yield three points to the class winning two out of three games. Cheering will count one point.

Rivalry debate will be held Friday, March 9 in Assembly, on a topic to be chosen by the sophomores. Two points will be awarded to the winning team.

Forum Chooses Board Member; Selects Elbow, Faculty Advisor

To the Editor:
 A small white, plastic change purse containing several items including a sum of money is in the Lost & Found, and up to now remains unclaimed. I am writing this in hope that such a notice will be seen by the person who contacted the chairman earlier last semester, and whose name has been misplaced.

Editorial Brands Teachers 'Reds'

Standing out among a heap of barrowed jokes on the SCAGS bulletin board this week was an editorial from the Times-Union of February 15, 1951. Beside the column, set in capitals and bold face type, was a sheet intended for comments.

The primary purpose of the Hears article seemed to be to show that "many teachers and professors, obviously lacking in mental ability and moral integrity are essentially nothing but Communists." How these ill-equipped persons became teachers wasn't mentioned. State grads, maybe ? ? ?

Comments ranged from, "Look at the source!" to "It's loud, but is it true?" and "I think it is O.K.". Most opinions seemed to consider it "unenlightened", "Emotionalism" and one critic labeled it "Sixth grade composition."

Labeling teachers Communists is too easy to do, in the factual versus emotional approach. Which have you?

Students Favor New Honorary

At a poll taken in last week's Assembly the students gave their opinions in regard to honorary societies for women. The poll showed a decided favor for the establishment of an honorary education society for women at State College, according to Mary Frenzel '51, Editor-in-Chief of the State College News.

In respect to the question of whether there are enough opportunities for women to join honorary societies at State College, a majority of negative answers was given. The results of the votes on the question "Would you like to see an honorary education society for women established at State College?" were 233 affirmative votes and 56 negative votes by the women. The outcome of the male vote was in favor and 21 against the statement.

The investigation of an honorary education society for women was continued this year by Mary Eide '51, who replaced Shirley Wallace Dunn '50.

Porta To Distribute College Handbook

Any person who has not received a Freshman Handbook and desires to do so may obtain his copy by writing to Theresa Porta '52, Editor, to request student mail. This applies specifically to second semester freshmen and transfers. Under the new system of publishing 1200 handbooks for the entire student body, any member of Student Association may receive a copy and will receive one upon request. Graduate students are not included in this category.

The Handbook is regularly distributed at the commencement of the fall term. Since the number of Handbooks printed has been doubted by Student Association vote, there are still a few copies left.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 13...THE OCELOT

"I don't mean to be catty—but I hate pussyfooting!"

Our feline friend may not be from Missouri, but she sure likes to be shown! She saw right through those thin, quick-trick, cigarette tests and realized you couldn't fairly judge a cigarette's mildness with a mere one puff or a swift sniff. Right on the spot, she decided they weren't for her! Sophisticated, but shrewd, she knew what she wanted.

The Sensible Test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke—on a pack after pack, day after day basis. No snap judgments needed. After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days in your "I-Zone"

(T for Throat, T for Taste), we believe you'll know why . . .

And They've Won Two In A Row . . . Peds To Meet Oneonta In Role Of Favorites

For the first time in a long while the Purple and Gold will enter a game in the favorites role as they play host to Oneonta State tonight.

It is the initial meeting of these two clubs and State will be awarded the edge on a two fold basis. First, their recent explosive scoring ability on the home floor. Since the mid-semester the Hathawaymen have averaged 81 points in taking three out of four on the Page Hall hardwoods. Second, the visitors have lost 3 regular starters due to scholastic difficulties. Forward Chuck Mitchell and guards Joe Albany and Leo Hollenbeck have hung up their shoes in favor of studies, according to the Binghamton Press.

On Wednesday night, the Peds play host to Harpur College. In a game played last December, the Triple Cities boys downed the Albanians 76-67.

Last Friday the rejuvenated Peds steamrolled Williamstown 95-70. They exploded for 52 points in the first half on the sensational rebounding and sharp shooting of Jim Warden and "Nate" Falck. Warden contributed 13 counters in this period and dominated both backboards. Falck netted 16 tallies, eight from the charity line, in this offensive spectacle.

After the intermission, the home forces didn't cool off one bit as they rolled up 25 points in the third quarter for a 77-56 lead. The players and the crowd seemed to sense the possibility of hitting the charmed 100 point circle at Hathaway's subs, led by John Allasio, broke the scoring record of 89 with six minutes remaining. These hopes were ruled out as the pace of the game was deliberately slowed down by the visitors who ironically enough had beaten Danbury College 100-64 three nights previous.

The following evening against the Plattsburgh Cardinals the Purple and Gold twice picked themselves off the floor to rally and tie the score in regulation time and win the game, 82-81, in overtime. Led by Bob Brown and Bill Walker, the locals raced to a 43-35 half time lead.

At the start of the second half, the Peds tried a deep freeze in an effort to force the visitors out of their zone defense. This slowdown activity crimped the locals high scoring offense as they mustered only eight points in the third stanza and trailed 54-51. In a hectic last ditch rally the Purple and Gold's John Allasio tossed in a two pointer with 25 seconds to play and then he stole the leather at half court, drove in to knot the score, 74-74, as the final buzzer sounded.

In the overtime period, baskets by Garrow, McCarthy, and Sears of the visitors put the Peds six points in arrears. Warden and Brown got the hoops and Sears a free throw to put the locals three points down. With less than 40 seconds to play Paul Carter dribbled through for a basket, Warden, Walker, Falck, and Kaehn.

the visitors made an errand pass and the Peds took the sphere with 16 seconds to play. A one hand heave by Carter meshed the nets twice before the final gun to give State their second win in a row and probably their most thrilling victory in many a moon.

Dan Garrow of the visitors snared the scoring laurels with a 26 point performance while his teammates Sears and Baldasorli hit for 17 and 15 respectively. State had six men in the double figures. Bob Brown gave the finest shooting exhibition of his three year career as he caged eight out of nine shots from the floor. Brownie led our offense with 17 points. Other Peds denting the hoop for the double figures were Carter, Warden, Walker, Falck, and Kaehn.

JV Seeks Third Straight; Statesmen Lead Bowling League, Take Triple Win Over ABC

Topple Union And LaSalle

Seeking their twelfth win in their last thirteen starts, State's JV plays host to the Cobleskill Aggies in Page tonight at 7:00. The Aggies come to State's Western Ave. field house in an attempt to avenge a one point loss inflicted by the JV Peds at Cobleskill last semester.

Playing their best game of the year, the Jayvees slaughtered the Union 1 rush on the Union hardwoods by a "spread" of eleven points.

The squad will be handicapped by the loss of Claude Palezak. Claude had an attack of appendicitis on Monday and will be sidelined for the rest of the season.

The JV's were defeated by the loss of Claude Palezak. Claude had an attack of appendicitis on Monday and will be sidelined for the rest of the season.

Win Overtime Thriller

Last Friday night the JV's tangled with the LaSalle Alumini, and won an overtime victory 54-52. Trailing by the slim margins of 2-3 points at end of the first and second periods, LaSalle fought back to tie at the end of the third, and led until 13 seconds remained in the final stanza. Claude Palezak swished a high arching set shot from mid-court to send the game into overtime. LaSalle jumped to a six point advantage before the locals could regain their composure, but fighting back, the JV Peds scored 10 points while holding LaSalle to only one field goal, and thus notched their 12th victory of the campaign. Palezak with 11 points was top man for the winners.

Pharmacy Bows To Second Place

State's varsity bowling team gained valuable ground as a result of their three wins over ABC while Siena could manage to take only two out of three from Pharmacy.

Spitting ABC a four mark handicap, the men from lower State Indians. During this time State has five matches to roll but only meets its toughest opponent, Siena, in one match. This means that the pressure is definitely on Siena and not on the Peds, as it recently has been. Carmin Corsi set a blistering pace in the first match as he rolled a neat 224. In this game, Corsi did not miss marking in any frame and compiled a total of seven strikes. Sporting ABC a four mark handicap, Corsi again led the Statesmen finally caught up with ABC in the seventh frame and then really poured it on as they won going away by a total of 106 pins.

In the second game, the Peds started fast and never were in trouble even though the final score indicated it was a much closer game than the first match. One of the highlights of this game occurred in the second frame when Frank Cassetta came through and made a very difficult 4-10 split. Corsi again led State's attack but this time had to share honors with McDonald as they rolled games of 203 and 200 respectively.

Tension mounted in the last frame of the third game as State led by only two marks in the last frame and Siena was being beaten on the next alley in a game which was also in the last frame. Four of State's team marked in the last frame to insure victory for them, but Siena did not fare as well and the wound up on the short end by 11 pins. At first it was thought that Siena had lost by only 1 pin but a rereck proved that it was 11 pins.

The rest of the leagues have remained comparatively quiet with KMD mourning the loss of two of their fine stars. Al Stephenson and Dave Palmer. However, the Angels, too, have felt the effect of the draft in the loss of Lou Cifarrelli, and the Pinks, through the war and graduation, have been cut to a bare five man squad.

The third game of the evening however, will long remain in the IM record books as one of the weirdest of the season. Previous to this contest, the Redskins had averaged but 18 points a game and the Rousers expected little, if any, highlights of this game occurred in trouble. The Redskins had other ideas though and with Bonahue and Giannetto showing the way, racked off 33 points. Although this lacked three points of beating the Rousers, there is no doubt it gave the Redskins some encouragement as they entered the second half of competition. The big guns for the Rousers were Campisi, Heinze, and Sweitzer, who registered nine, ten, and nine points respectively. Particular note must be given here to the fine defensive play of Campisi who broke up three quick Redskin breaks by himself in the closing minutes to insure his team a victory. The contest could have very easily gone the other way, had not three of the Redskins fouled out.
