

State College News

VOL. XXI, No. 9

STATE COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS, ALBANY, N. Y., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 1936

$2.00 Per Year, 32 Weekly Issues

N.S.F.A. Ballot To Constitute 11:10 Assembly

Muggleton Will Head Survey Of Student Activities And Employment

The program of the second business meeting of the year in this morning's assembly will include a survey of student activities and the voting for delegate to the 1936 convention of the National Student Federation of America.

The six candidates for N.S.F.A. delegate are: Dorothy Cain, Richard Cox, Warren Densmore, Janet Dibble, Herbert Drooz, and Leslie Knox, juniors.

The survey will cover participation in student activities and the degree of student employment. Space is also available on the survey blank to indicate what social events and extra-curricular presentations each student has attended during his college life. An effort will be made to have more of the events for which students express a liking.

The data obtained from the survey will be tabulated by Joseph Muggleton, '39, Student Affairs secretary, and will be available in the office of the Dean of Women.

Each year, during Christmas vacation, delegates from the leading colleges belonging to the N.S.F.A. meet to discuss problems affecting the students of American colleges. Last year John Deno, '37, represented State college at the convention in Kansas City. The convention appointed Deno district chairman of the Federation, bringing the district convention to State college. This year the convention is to be conducted in Dallas, Texas.

Miss Cain is vice-president of the junior class and treasurer of Music council. Cox is president of this year's junior class. Densmore is an associate managing editor of the NEWS. Miss Dibble is active as treasurer of the junior class and as a member of the Lion board. Drooz, last year's sophomore president, is now a member of Debate council. Knox is serving as vice-president of the Student association.

This assembly will be the second business meeting of the year in accordance with the standing rule adopted by the student association last year providing that one in every six assemblies be for business.

Dittman and Kelly Will Direct Plays

Paul Dittman, '38, and Thomas Kelly, '37, will direct the Advanced Dramatics class plays to be presented this Tuesday night in the auditorium of Page hall at 8:30 o'clock.

Dittman's play will be a social satire. The members of the cast include the following students: Thomas Mehan, '37, Janet Dibble, '38, Joseph Leese and Kenneth Doran, sophomores.

The committees assisting Dittman in the production are: sets, Hester Price, '38; properties, Florence Nebelach, '38; costumes, Betty Appeldoorn, '38; and advertisement, Florence Zubres, '38.

Kelly will present a comedy. The cast will be comprised of: Irwin Stinger and John Edwards, seniors; Earl Cleaves, '38, Peter Hart, John Edge, Edna Marie Jesse, sophomores, and James McKeon, '40.

The director has chosen the following committees: sets, Jean Lichenstein, '38; properties, Marjorie Crist, '38; costumes, Ann Rond, '37; and advertisement, Florence Zubres, '38.

State's Oldest Club Celebrates Founding

Members of Chemistry club and initiates staged a silver anniversary celebration of the club's founding Wednesday night. The program included a banquet served by the club members in the college cafeteria followed by initiation ceremonies in room 250.

Initiation stunts of the new members were centered about "The Introduction to the Members of the Fly Family," directed by Roy Swingle, '37, in which Howard York, '39, as Let or Fly took the wet end of the row. Other stunts were directed by Edward Reynolds, '38, Harold MacGregor, '39, and Saul Greenwald, '40.

Following the stunts, Mr. Bernard S. Bronson, professor of chemistry, introduced Mr. Morris Auerbach of the Bayer plant in Rensselaer. Mr. Auerbach talked to the club members on methods of micro technique and analysis, including modern methods and also practical illustrations of procedures which are being used in the Bayer plant.

Residence Halls Plan For Annual Formal

Sally Johnson and Molly Dowling To Act As Co-Chairmen

The annual fall formal of the Alumni Residence halls will be conducted on December 4, from 9:00 until 1:00 o'clock, in the Ingle room, according to Agnes Torrens, '37, president.

Faculty guests include: Dr. A. R. Brubacher, president, and Mrs. Brubacher; Dr. Milton G. Nelson, dean, and Mrs. Nelson; Miss Helen Hall Moreland, dean of women; Mr. Louis C. Jones, instructor in English, and Mrs. Jones; and Mr. Robert Rienow, instructor in government, and Mrs. Rienow.

Sally Johnson, '37, and Molly Dowling, '38, co-chairmen of the dance, will be assisted by the following committees: arrangements, Muriel Stewart, '38, chairman, Rose Kurkhill, '38, Edna Marie Jesse, '39, and Alice Rushmer, '40; music, Beverly Walther, '37, chairman, Finkle Rosenberg, '38, Margaret Hora, '39, and Helen Bailey, '40; decorations, Margaret Smith, '39, chairman, Ida Armstrong, '37, Hope Rogers, and Mary Jauch Smith, juniors, Audrey Neff, '39, and Helen Gregory and Marie O'Meara, freshmen; refreshments, Virginia Strong, '39, chairman, Bernice Lamberton, '39, and Irene Clark and Virginia Elson, freshmen; clean up, Jean Mitchell, chairman, Joyce Chapman, Dorothy Hill, Isabel Rameil, Yolanda Richardson, Harriet Sprague, and Rita Sullivan, freshmen.

Alumni Residence Halls To Entertain at Tea

The women of the Alumni Residence halls will entertain at tea on Sunday, from 4:00 until 6:00 o'clock. Invitations have been issued to all members of the faculty, and to the various group and sorority houses.

Miss Helen Hall Moreland, dean of women, Miss Anna E. Pierce, former dean, Mrs. George M. York, and Mrs. John M. Sayles will pour.

College To Recess

Thanksgiving recess will begin at 12:00 o'clock on Wednesday. Classes will resume at 8:00 o'clock on Monday. Absences immediately before or after the recess must be approved by a college physician.

1939 Challenges Freshman Class

Student Council Lists Changes In Rules Regulating Banner Rivalry

The annual debate between the sophomore and freshman classes will be conducted December 4. The sophomores challenged the freshmen, thereby gaining the right to choose the subject to be debated and the side they wish to uphold.

According to the traditional rules of inter-class rivalry, one class must challenge the other to a debate or a sing during the month of November. During the first two months of the second semester, one class must challenge the other to whichever event has not taken place during the first semester. Since the debate is to be conducted this semester, the sing will be next semester.

Failure to accept the challenge at either time will be considered as a victory for the opposite class. The winner of each contest will be awarded two and one-half points in rivalry.

Student council announced in the assembly two weeks ago several changes in the banner rivalry rules. Formerly the men had charge of the banner during the first semester and the women, the second semester. The new ruling reverses this system by permitting the women to assume custody of first semester and the men, the second.

The council also revised the plan of notification of the week that the banner will be hidden in the school building. In previous years written notice was sent to Student council, but not to the rival class. Now, the one class must notify Student council of the exact week when the banner is to be in the building, and the Council will notify the other class.

Hardy Names Members Of 1940 Debate Squad

Ten people have been selected as members of the Freshman debate team. Mr. William G. Hardy, instructor in English and coach of the squad has announced. The first scheduled debate will be against the sophomore team in the annual rivalry debate, Friday, December 4, in the assembly period.

Members of the squad for 1936-37, subject to the Dean's approval of scholarship and attendance records are: Mary Arndt, Saul Greenwald, Harry Karchner, Edgar Perret, Haskell Rosenberg, John Ryan, Harriet Sprague, George Stangler, Rita Sullivan, and Jane Wilson.

State College Maidens Confess Qualifications of Ideal Man

With all due respect to the well-meant suggestions of the butter and egg men of Northwestern university, State women rose to the defense of the female species without even heaving a sigh of resignation.

The proverbial State college maiden hurled this final verbal barrage at the pants-wearers:

1. Don't call up for a date at the last minute and ask, "Are you doing anything tonight?" What girl likes to say, "Er, nothing special?"
2. Plan your evening before calling for your date. After all when you get married, it will be all planned for you.
3. Sofa lizards are the bane of a girl's existence. Too often the gentlemen prefer to be sofatisficated. A movie or soda now and then won't break you.
4. Don't ask a girl, "Would you

Fraternities To Issue Bids To Freshman Men Monday

HEADS COUNCIL

Frederick Stunt, '37, president of the Interfraternity council, which is supervising men's rushing.

News Board Names Sophomore Editors

Four Reporters Receive Staff Promotions To Seniority

Four sophomores will occupy the positions of sophomore desk editors for the remainder of the year as a result of a meeting of the NEWS board on Wednesday night. The newly appointed editors are Robert Hertwig, Edgar O'Hara, Jean Strong, and Charles Walsh.

The appointment to the position of desk editors follows the usual fall competition sponsored by the NEWS board among the sophomore reporters. The choice of the sophomores is based upon work performed on the NEWS on a basis of their work two nights a week, and also upon their general ability as journalists. When the 1937-38 board is chosen prior to Moving up day in May, these sophomore staff members will be eligible for the positions of junior associate editors.

At the meeting Wednesday night, three assistant sports editors were also named by the board. These include Charles Franklin, William Ryan, and Clement Wolf, sophomores.

New Council to Complete Informal Rushing Period Before Recess

PLAN AUTUMN DANCE Annual Interfraternity Formal Will Climax Fall Season Of Organizations

Freshman men will receive fraternity bids Monday at the end of the fall rushing period which has been supervised this year for the first time by Interfraternity council. These bids will be issued by the council in the Student council Young Women's Christian Association office in the Commons.

The Interfraternity council was organized last spring by Gamma chapter of Kappa Delta Rho and the Edward Eldred Potter club as a means of securing a greater amount of cooperation in the various fraternity activities at State, and to regulate and promote more activities between the fraternity organizations of the college. The supervision of freshman rushing this fall has been the first actual work of the organization, and as a result of this the freshman men have become acquainted with the fraternities through an organized rushing program, with the actual bidding of the men postponed until the Thanksgiving recess.

The members of Interfraternity council are John Deno and Fred Dexter, seniors, and John O'Brien, '38, Kappa Delta Rho; and John Murphy and Frederick Stunt, seniors, and Richard Cox, '38, Edward Eldred Potter club. The officers of the council are Stunt, president, and O'Brien, treasurer.

The section of the Interfraternity council constitution which has governed the bidding activities of the organizations is as follows:

Article IV—Formal Bidding
Section A. There shall be no voting for membership until ten days prior to the issuance of bids as prescribed under Section B of this article.

Section B. Bids shall be issued through the Interfraternity Council on the Monday immediately preceding Thanksgiving Day.

Section C. All bids must be returned to the Interfraternity council by 5:00 o'clock of the first Monday after Thanksgiving Day.

Section D. No bids shall be issued to freshmen between the first Monday before Thanksgiving Day and the first day of the second semester.

The members of Interfraternity council will be located in the Student council Y.W.C.A. office on the ballroom floor.

(Continued on page 2, column 3)

Music Council Invites Tryouts to Lounge Tea

Music council will entertain all freshman tryouts at a lounge tea on Monday, December 7, from 3:30 to 5:00 o'clock. The main purpose of the tea is to acquaint the council members with the freshmen, and in turn to inform those trying out just what the council stands for.

Miss Helen H. Moreland, dean of women, will be an honorary guest. Mrs. Frederick Candlyn and Mrs. Adam A. Walker will pour.

Muriel Goldberg and Dorothy Cain, juniors, are co-chairmen for the tea. Other council members are Rosemary Dickinson, president and member of Myskania, and Eloise Shearer, seniors, and Betty Baker and Margaret Mattison, sophomores.

State College News

Established by the Class of 1918
The undergraduate newspaper of New York State College for Teachers

Published every Friday of the college year by the News Board representing the Student Association

Telephones: Office, 5-3373; Gumaer, 2-0424; Dexter, 2-4314; Seld, 2-9761; Gaylord, 2-4314

Entered as second class matter in the Albany, N. Y., postoffice

THE NEWS BOARD

HARRY T. GUMAER.....Editor-in-Chief
FRED E. DEXTER.....Managing Editor
WARREN I. DENSMORE.....Associate Managing Editor
DAVID B. SMITH.....Associate Managing Editor
SOPHIE WOLZOK.....Associate Managing Editor
LAURITA SELD.....Business Manager
CHARLES W. GAYLORD.....Advertising Manager
MILDRED E. NIGHTINGALE.....Circulation Manager

THE NEWS STAFF

CHARLES N. MORRIS.....Sports Editor
HELEN CLYDE.....Women's Sports Editor

Associate Editors

Elizabeth Gooding, Mary Lam, Robert Margison, Virginia Stool, seniors; Muriel Goldberg,
Ramona Van Wie, juniors

Business Staff

Business, Grace Castiglione, Roland Waterman; advertising, Joan Byron, Gordon Tabner; circulation, Victoria Bilzi, Margaret Hora, June Palmer

PRINTED BY BOYD PRINTING CO., INC., ALBANY, N. Y.

Interfraternity Council Goes To Work

To work next week goes the first State college interfraternity council, sending out and receiving freshman bids for Kappa Delta Rho and the Edward Eldred Potter club. Two weeks later, the council will sponsor a new social venture, the Interfraternity Ball.

Established to ease the mad scramble that has characterized fraternity rushing in the last few years, the council should prove of real value to both the freshman men and the fraternal groups. Delayed bidding, because it protects both rushers and rushees from first impressions, will give the college men the break of time which the women have had for some years.

No longer may observers complain that freshman men are herded into an organization by hook or crook before they are able to know what college is all about. And no longer will fraternities be forced to bid before they know who the frosh are and what they are really like.

The interfraternity arrangement is a gentlemen's agreement. The executive machinery is the council composed of three members of each organization; enforcement lies in the attitude of all the members of each group. The idea may be counted a success if it continues to carry out delayed bidding, and puts over a first class formal dance on December 12.

The Troubadours—Cui Bono?

Seven (7) men attended a meeting of the Troubadours, "musical organization composed of all men of the college," this week. The purpose of the meeting was to reorganize the society. We raise the question, without answering it, finally: "Is the thing worthy of reorganization?"

The Troubadours used to be a fairly lively bunch. Three years ago they gave an excellent reception to the freshmen and put on a first class musical show. Two years ago they had another show, and last year none at all.

The decline of the organization is a pretty good sign that there is no need for it. Two new men's groups, the Men's Athletic association and the Interfraternity council, are serving to bring college men together in different ways, and perhaps the idea of a musical show once a year is not strong enough to hold a third general men's group together. Probably M.A.A. could run the show, if the boys want one.

Another meeting Tuesday will decide the fate of the Troubadours. The proper decision will be indicated by the number present.

The Commentstater

TAKE CARE!

Today we take the first step in the election of an N.S.F.A. delegate to the Christmas convention in Dallas, Texas. And, inasmuch as some one hundred and fifty good round dollars from the Student association treasury are to be spent on the expedition, it seems to us to merit most careful consideration.

The varied activities and student aids of the National Student Federation of America have helped State from time to time. Its news bulletin and other printed pamphlets are posted in the library. The organization sponsors free discussion and definite action on peace, freedom of the academic press, legislature pertaining to collegiate affairs, educational and extra-curricular problems. It is essential that we be represented at the convention, in order that we can discover what other colleges are doing, and contribute our own opinions.

And it is important that we think carefully before choosing our representative, for upon our choice will depend the efficiency of the federation as it concerns State college. We are selecting a representative; a person whom we consider typical of our student association, and whom we are proud to send to uphold the reputation of our college. It will be his responsibility to maintain an interest in the federation, and transfer this interest to the college. His enthusiasm, the new ideas and reforms which he discovers and brings back to us, will be our only tangible reward for money spent. He himself should contribute something of credit to the meeting by stating the feeling of his college on the topics under discussion. He should, through his acquaintances with other college students, obtain some knowledge of the manner in which student affairs are conducted in different sections of the country.

The Student council nominees all have excellent records. All have participated in a variety of student activities. The association should think long and carefully before choosing a representative, a typical State college student, to attend the convention.

Cover To Cover

The Nine Old Men, by Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen. Doubleday, Doran and Company, New York, 1936. 325 pages. $2.50.

To some The Nine Old Men will be heresy of the first order, attacking what seems to them a fundamental of established American government, the Supreme Court. To others it represents some more "dirt," constructive to a great extent, by the authors of "Washington Merry-Go-Round."

The merry muck-raking authors trace the history of the Court from the early days when it was "driven like a poor straying tenant from one abode to another," until today when the nine justices mete out a law "as inflexible as the massive blocks of marble that surround them in their mausoleum of justice," their new building across the way from the Capitol.

Not under the label of muckraking, however, come certain historical facts set forth concerning the power of the Supreme Court to declare state and national laws unconstitutional. The highest court is not given this power in the constitution, and the proposal to put it in that document was rejected four times by the constitutional convention. John Marshall announced the power in a bit of political obiter dictum directed against Thomas Jefferson in a case which has beleaguered American history students to the present day. Marbury vs. Madison.

The first major use of the power was in the Dred Scott decision, where five slave-holding judges figured out that the constitution protected slavery pretty well.

During the Civil War some of the Lincoln orders and legislation were declared out of tune with the highest law of the land, but the President went ahead about his business, casting the decisions in the scrap-basket. Said Lincoln: "The judicial machinery seems as if it had been designed not to sustain the government, but to embarrass and betray it." Since the Civil War, however, the Republican party has proceeded to pay attention when the judicial branch of the government has used a sentence in amendment fourteen to declare acts of the legislative and executive branches unconstitutional.

The authors take over the present members of the court like they do the past ones, only in more detail, showing how their background and sheer accident have influenced their votes in important cases. Justices Butler, Sutherland, Van Devanter, and McReynolds are revealed as rock bound conservatives intent, under an assumed power, on stopping legislation in spite of the mandate of the people as shown in their selection of a president and congress. Justices Brandeis, Cardozo, and Stone are treated more kindly, inasmuch as their attitudes reflect the ideas of the authors and the electorate. Justice Roberts is a conservative who sometimes goes back to his early more liberal views, and the Chief Justice "has swung back and forth from liberalism to economic stultification with greater ease than the daring young man on the flying trapeze."

Pearson and Allen's book may be hard for a lot of people to take, but we feel that a bit of needed muck-raking has been done in regard to The Nine Old Men.

Fraternity Council Supervises Bidding

(Continued from page 1, column 5)

copy of the Commons all day Monday and will deliver bids to the freshmen to whom bids have been addressed by Kappa Delta Rho and Edward Eldred Potter club. The freshman men who have bids awaiting them will be notified through the student mail box Monday morning to call for them at the office in the Commons. These bids must be returned to the same office on the Monday immediately after Thanksgiving recess with notation as to the choice of the recipient regarding acceptance or refusal of bids.

Plans for the Interfraternity Ball are also complete as a result of the council meeting Tuesday afternoon. The Ball will be conducted in the Lounge of Richardson hall on Saturday, December 12. It will be the first Interfraternity Ball at State college, and will be formal. Arrangements have not been completed as yet for an orchestra. Attendance will be restricted to members of Kappa Delta Rho and the Edward Eldred Potter Club and their guests, with attendance limited to sixty couples. Fred Dexter and John Murphy, seniors, are co-chairmen, and members of the respective organizations will act as chairmen of the various other committees.

Statesman

Well, friends (?) Here we are again. In spite of numerous reports of lynchings, poisonings and downright murders we have escaped unscathed, and are now fairly drooling over this week's gossip.

By George, Anne looks happy these days. That's glee-son, what we mean! And the queenly Smith seems to be caught in the eddies that flow through College house. Betty's wondering, "Why haven't I felt like this before?," while other mercury-makers are prest into service at the Union dances. When the seniors go to town, they do it in a big way. (Probably just hangovers from a lot of hops).

Jean thinks that flowers that blume in November smell rye-to strongly at times. Don't worry; spring will come a-gin. The G.A.A. enthusiasts at the dorm will have a lot of practice on that new ping-pong table. We hear that Jane's skill will soon make any mugg(le) ton over in his grave—or is she merely bill-ding up Joe's morale?

The EEP floor show last Saturday revealed tumbling La Graff as a bubble dancer. KDR's pledges are entirely reared by now, and the student proxy still goes for the real McCoy in a big way.

We'll pass on a few words of advice that we usually reserve for the opposite sex in February. Think twice before you leap, fellows. Many a child is walking the streets of our fair city because his father joined the wrong fraternity.

An orchid to the frosh for their show of red "pep, vim, and vigor" and the kneeling that the peep(er)ing sophs were forced to give.

Now g'wan home, and have a "nice" vacation.

THE MAN OF STATE.

Notices

Lutheran club: Supper meeting, Wednesday, December 2, 5:30 o'clock, Lutheran Friendship house.

Troubadours: Meeting, Tuesday noon, room 111. The purpose of the meeting will be to reorganize the reorganization.

Newman club: Meeting, Thursday, December 3, 1:10 o'clock. Father Keefe will answer questions submitted by State students. Leave all questions in the "N" section of the student mail box as soon as possible.

NYA: Time sheets for November must be in the NYA office, room 107, by 3:15 o'clock today.

State's Stage

Blanche Yurka's Appeal
Graceful Gestures
Local Contribution

"The intangible riches" of true enjoyment of the art of the theatre were made appreciable to all those who witnessed the performance of Blanche Yurka on State's stage last Monday night.

The program, entitled "The Arc of the Theatre", was enthusiastically received by the audience. Miss Yurka left with us an impression long to be remembered. Those scenes which hold the widest appeal were the selection from Moliere's, "Misanthrope", and the two from Greek drama, "Lysistrata" by Aristophanes, and "Electra", by Sophocles.

The two women of the "Misanthrope" were made very near and real to us. Miss Yurka used an economy of gestures selecting only those essential to a thorough presentation of her characters. A single graceful gesture subtly portrayed the meaning of a line, or a clear picture of a person.

In her interpretation of the two scenes from the Greek plays, we actually "caught glimpses of worlds rich in understandings of the pathos and courage of humanity." Her beautiful, cultured voice, and meaningful facial expressions aided her most in instilling a definite mood in her listeners, most of whom were people who are not continually in contact with drama.

Miss Yurka thoroughly enjoyed presenting her program. She possesses a charming personality, and is friendly and gracious. This fact was easily recognizable from her appearance on the stage, and those who were fortunate enough to meet her personally, emphatically agree.

The actress expressed her gratitude for the contribution of the spotlight in the scene from "Electra." She had never before used it, and felt that State college had given something worthwhile and effective for future performances.

Hellenics

Swing! The sorority doors are open.

Delta Omega conducted its annual fall alumnae meeting Saturday and entertained many alums.

Gamma Phi Sigma welcomed Mr. Robert Rienow of the government department and Mrs. Rienow into honorary membership. Antoinette DonVito and Anne Sarcone, juniors, and Rita Benedict, '39, are now members in full standing.

E B Phi has pinned Esther Kirchner and Elinor Smalley, seniors, and Betty Corgel, '39.

Janet Guernsey, '39, has taken her final Gamma Kap vows.

Phi Lambda filled more than one page of its guest book. What with these alums—Dorothy Hurlbut, '30; Florence Borst, Irene Fowler, Winifred Hurlbut and Alice Van Eyra, '31; Nile Clemens, Esther Mend, Almena Perkins, '32; Ethel Dyckman, Lucille Warnsley and Eleanor Wilson, '33; Genevieve Sharey, '34; Evelyn Hoyt, Emily Hurlbut, Marian Porter and Alma Springsteen, '35; and Margaret Burnette and Marion O'Neill, '36.

The A E Phi girls were entertained by their honorary member, Mrs. Sam Kaplan. Dinner and such last Friday evening.

Week end guests at Beta Zeta—Jeanne Giroux, Elizabeth Hobbie and Charlotte Rockow, '36. And tomorrow B Z will entertain the other sororities at tea.

Sells Concert Tickets

Course tickets for the Albany Symphony Orchestra performances which are to be at the Philip Livingston junior high school may be secured at the dean of women's office. The first concert will be Tuesday, November 24.

Collegiate Digest

Volume V

NATIONAL COLLEGE NEWS IN PICTURE AND PARAGRAPH

Issue 8

She received a contract after her first audition

Star Mercedes McCambridge, 20-year-old Mundelein College (Chicago) senior, is playing two important dramatic roles over NBC these days while keeping up with her classes and maintaining a B average. She first attracted the attention of radio officials when she appeared with Mundelein's verse speaking choir.

Keystone

Why are green vegetables lacking in Vitamin D?

Search Prof. Arthur Knudson and Frank Benford of the Albany Medical College are searching for the answer to this perplexing question of science. Using the device shown, which splits up ultra-violet radiation into any wave length wanted for study, the scientists have found that intermittent or moderate doses of ultra-violet rays will aid the formation of vitamin D.

Science Service

He grades certified milk by its color

Demonstration The new device which H. H. Tucker, professor of dairy husbandry at Rutgers University, is demonstrating for the first time grades certified milk according to its color. He says that yellow is the most popular color this season.

Acme

Guider Ted Peckham, 22-year-old manager of New York City's novel guide-escort service, says his business has boomed so rapidly he now has 134 college men on call—and its definitely not gigoloing, he adds.

Pictures, Inc.

Aviation's greatest flying laboratory and its pilot

Air Lab Amelia Earhart (center) is shown with Barbara Sweeney and Louise Schickler, Purdue University students, just after she had taken them on a tour of inspection of her new flying laboratory. Purdue is the "home base" for Miss Earhart's experimental work.

Allen Photo

State College News

The under

Published every Board
Telephones:
2-431
Entered as second

HARRY T. GU
FRED E. DEK
WARREN I. DA
DAVID B. SM
SOPHIE WOL
LAURITA SEL
CHARLES W.
MILDRED E. N

CHARLES N. J
HELEN CLYDE

Elizabeth G
Virginia

Business, Gra
tising, Joa
Victoria

PRINTED BY B

In

To work n
interfraterni
ing freshma
the Edward later, the c venture, the Established characterized years, the co
both the fres
Delayed bid
ers and rush
the college i women have
No longer
man men ar hook or croo
college is all
nities be for the frosh are
The interfr
men's agree the council o
organization;
all the memb be counted i out delayed
formal dance

The T
Seven (7)
Troubadours, of all men of
pose of the m
We raise th finally: "Is zation?"
The Troub
bunch. Three reception to class musical another show
The declin
good sign th
new men's g tion and the
to bring col and perhaps a year is not eral men's s
could run th
Another m
of the Trou
be indicated

He entertains his way through college

Magician Aaron Herszkowitz is earning his way through the New York State College of Forestry (Syracuse) by presenting magic performances. Our cameraman caught him in the middle of one of his card-catching acts.

71,714 for one game

Crowd A view of the pre-game festivities as a near-capacity crowd jammed Ohio State's double-decked stadium for the Pitt game.

Smart Outfits for Game And Post-Game Parties

And perfect for after-game parties, too!

Smart outfits for the game, which are perfect for fraternity house parties later, are worn by the two couples entering the stadium in this picture.

Molyneaux's famous suit

... having a gold suede jacket blouse and a bias cut pleated skirt of navy and gray woolen plaid is worn by the co-ed.

Furs and tweeds combine for smart football ensembles

Four popular styles of coats are illustrated in this photo taken outside the stadium of one of the famous eastern universities. The coats are, left to right, Australian opossum, polo coat, slot-seamed topcoat of mixed tweed with wolf collar, and the inevitable raccoon coat.

SPOTLIGHTER

A Farm Was This Senator's College

AT THE age of 75 most men have come to the sunset of their lives and desire rest most of all. Public figures, at that age, write autobiographies and dandle over the past. On July 11, 1936, Senator George William Norris was 75 and could look back on 34 years of service in Washington. Instead he looked forward to another six years as senator, a term that will last until he is 81.

"I have battled, battled for everything I got." So he told an interviewer once. At 75 he was battling two opponents in Nebraska, a regular Republican and a Democrat unrecognized by President Roosevelt, who has spoken endearingly about Senator Norris. His weapons: three speeches a day, a lifetime of struggle that has conferred on his rugged farm-trained body the mantle of honesty.

Senator Norris' college days were days of postponement. Born in Ohio, he worked on farms during the summer. Student at Baldwin University in Ohio and Northern Indiana Normal School, he taught school during intervening years in order to continue school. In 1883 he received a law degree from Valparaiso University, but had to teach another year to get a law library. He was one of the senators to vote against America's entry in the war. Republican in name only, he threw aside partisanship years ago, supported Al Smith and Roosevelt, thrust his seamed face and jutting jaw and untrammelled thinking into many a fight like that over the purchase of Muscle Shoals. "My College," he says, "had been the farm." To prove it, he still drives a plow through Nebraska soil every summer.

SLEEK-HAIRED Fannie Hurst's new book is called Great Laughter.

Like Senator Norris she lived some of her early years in Ohio. At Washington University (St. Louis) she was a vigorous undergraduate, participating in sports and endless extra-curricular activities. Her first rejection slips came from the Saturday Evening Post, to which she tried to sell blank verse masques. She studied Anglo-Saxon at Columbia in 1911, worked as a waitress and shop girl to prepare her for novels you've seen on the screen. In 1935 she regained her figure by "taking no food with her meals."

These Names Make News

Shut-Out When the University of Vermont grid aggregation met Dartmouth they came out on the short end of the score, 0 to 0. The photo at the left shows Handrahan of Dartmouth carrying the ball around left end for a big gain.

Twins The University of Louisville's freshman coach, John Heldman, Jr., is having considerable difficulty these days keeping Paul and Donald McKay separate, for they're both outstanding candidates for his first year team.

For Digestion's Sake Smoke Camels

Lee Gehlbach says: "Smoking Camels keeps my digestion tuned up and running smooth"

"CAMELS set me right!" Gehlbach says. "You know, chance is only 10% of my business. Keeping alert and in fine condition is the other 90%. I smoke Camels with my meals, and afterward, for digestion's sake. And when I say Camels don't get on my nerves, it means a lot."

Good digestion and healthy nerves are important for everyone in this wide-awake era. Camels at meal-time and after speed up the flow of digestive fluids—increase alkalinity—help bring a sense of well-being. So make Camel your cigarette—for digestion's sake—for their refreshing "lift." Camels set you right! And they do not get on your nerves.

TOUGH ASSIGNMENTS demand extra effort. Let Camels help set you right—give you a "lift"—aid digestion. Camels are mild—they don't get on your nerves.

Copyright, 1936, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

THE TEST DIVE!

Straight down from 4 miles up—motor roaring—struts screaming—Gehlbach tears earthward like a bullet flashing from a revolver. At the bottom of the 2-mile drive—a sharp pull-out wrenches plane and pilot to the limit. Such tests make planes safer. Anything can happen. A bump in the air—a tiny flaw, and the plane can fly to pieces as though dynamited while the pilot takes to his parachute. But, as you can see at the right, Lee Gehlbach eats heartily and enjoys his food. Note the Camel cigarette in his hand—one of the many Camels that Lee enjoys during and after meals. In his own words (above), he gives you the reason why Camels are his cigarette.

COSTLIER TOBACCOES!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOES. Tuckest and Finest—no other cigarette brand.

HOLLYWOOD RADIO TREAT!

Camel Cigarettes bring you a FULL HOUR'S ENTERTAINMENT!... Benny Goodman's "Swing" Band... George Stoll's Concert Orchestra... Hollywood Guest Stars... and Rupert Hughes presides! Tuesday—9:30 pm E.S.T., 8:30 pm C.S.T., 7:30 pm M.S.T., 6:30 pm P.S.T., over WABC-Columbia Network.

State College News

The under Published eve
 Board
 Telephone: 2-12
 Entered as seco

HARRY T. GU
 FRED E. DEX
 WARREN L. D
 DAVID B. SM
 SOPHIE WOL
 LAURITA SEL
 CHARLES W.
 MILDRED E. Y

CHARLES N.
 HELEN CLYDE

Elizabeth G
 Virginia

Business, Gra
 tising, Joa
 Victoria

PRINTED BY B

In

To work n
 interfraterni
 ing freshma
 the Edward later, the e venture, the

Establishe characterize years, the co
 both the fres
 Delayed bid
 ers and rush
 the college women have

No longer

man men at hook or croo
 college is all
 nities be for the frosh arc

The interfr
 men's agree
 the council c organization
 all the mem
 be counted
 out delayed
 formal danc

Another m
 of the Trou
 be indicated

A novel football hugging session
Tackle Sollie Sherman, hard hitting Chicago back, is brought to earth by two determined Purdue tacklers in the third quarter of the game which the Boilermakers won, 35 to 7.

He'll roll this barrel to fame
Stunt Allan Shorchill practices a novel stunt that he hopes will win the prize and applause at the annual circus staged by Los Angeles Junior College students.

They'll fight for another undefeated season
Champs With two undefeated seasons behind them, Beaver College's hard-playing hockey team is this year practicing diligently to maintain its championship standing.

Corn University of Iowa's silver homecoming anniversary will center around this corn replica of the Empire State building.

Baker wins scholarship
Gift Former Gov. Al Smith presents a four-year scholarship to Manhattan College to George C. Baker, New York's outstanding amateur boxer in the 112-pound class.

In bygone days . . .
Old Football dress of fifty years ago is exhibited in this picture taken at a recent University of Pennsylvania celebration.

Honor for the father of relativity theory
Degree Dr. Albert Einstein was invested with an honorary doctorate of science at the convocation ceremonies of the University of the State of New York. The photo shows the insignia symbolic of the honor being placed on the doctor's shoulders.

She's Wellesley's seventh president
Inauguration Mildred H. McAfee (center) became one of the youngest college presidents in the United States last month when she was inducted into the presidency of Wellesley College. She's shown with her father and Vassar's President Henry N. MacCracken (right).

Round 'n Round
 That's the way the music went when the Holy Cross College band marched in circles between halves of the Dartmouth-Holy Cross game.

ve
 ner
 wards
 rts on will dinner
 e cafe-ing to those e hon-have sports inment formal attend
 , dean on, in-
 ; Dr.
 of hy-assistant zabeth
 ; and t pro-charge
 Miss
 rman,
 Helen
 cior;
 '39;
 Eliza-
 hyllis
 crog,
 '39;
 .
 e for or the ident,
 presi-
 tary,
 auror,

WELLESLEY

Faces Tell the Story

Close-ups of Gridiron Battlers Tell Strange Tales of Football Comedy and Tragedy

He's just let a pass go to an opposing player
Harris of U.C.L.A. is considerably worried as he watches a Washington Husky catch a pass that was intended for him.

Ever alert
... officials must catch every movement of every play if they are to officiate fairly.

"I've got you!"
Loiko of Michigan makes a tackle, and starts chortling.

Fighting for a gain
... Fordham's Joseph Dulkie warns all tacklers that he's a tough customer.

Waiting
... to make a tackle, a Boston College back pursues his lips and grits his teeth.

"I'm going to get him"
A Franklin and Marshall backfield man starts after a runner that has wiggled his way through the line.

Fighting for every inch
... Santa Clara University's Harold Seramin is bucking his way along for a four yard gain, fighting clinging tacklers all the way.

Razoo This event, the free-for-all between frosh and soph at Massachusetts State, is the last on a full day's program of underclass competition. The sophs won this year.

Candidates "Yoke Maine with Yokums" That's the slogan of these two candidates for mayor of the University of New Hampshire, where each year they elect a student ruler after much intrigue and political haranguing.

Scholars Far eastern representatives on middle west campuses Dr. H. M. Rav (left) of India wears a turban on the University of Minnesota campus, where he is studying dentistry, while Masahiko Kawamura of Japan has just entered Knox College on a special scholarship.

Straws At Drake they have given up green skull caps Straw hats and books go hand in hand for Drake University freshmen, for they're required to wear the hats instead of the usual green caps. They'll burn the hats in a big bonfire between the halves of a big game.

Composers They wrote Michigan's famed marching song With the celebration of "Varsity Day" at the University of Michigan, the Wolverines honored Fred Lawton and Prof. Earl Moore, composers of "Varsity," their famous football song. It was composed by them just 25 years ago.

Celebration Honoring a famed educator Dignitaries from all over the nation joined with officials of Williams College when they celebrated the hundredth anniversary of the induction of Mark Hopkins as president of that institution.

Initiation They do it up right at Rolla The Missouri College of Mines freshman in the foreground has just had his body covered with kalsomine while he was forced to chew tobacco and had egg shell rubbed in his hair.

Art Service They rent paintings just like they do library books Hamilton College this fall inaugurated a new plan by which students may borrow paintings to hang in their room at special rates which vary with the value of the painting. College Librarian Rachel S. Roberts (right) has charge of the plan devised by art instructor E. W. Root.

Fall The Broad walk (Burrill Avenue) on the University of Illinois campus is one of the main thoroughfares on that 429-acre campus.

OL' JUDGE ROBBINS

YES, THAT PIPE WAS FOUND IN SOME AZTEC RUINS

MUST HAVE HAD LOTS OF TIME TO MELLOW THEN

NOW TAKE THIS BRIAR OF MINE. IT'S ALREADY SMELLING LIKE A RELIC. JUST WONT GET MELLOW

WELL, SON, A GOOD PIPE DESERVES GOOD TOBACCO, I MEAN PRINCE ALBERT

JUST SMELL THAT FRAGRANT AROMA. IT GIVES YOU SOME IDEA OF P.A.'S MELLOWNESS

ANOTHER THING, P.A. IS 'CRIMP CUT' SO IT WILL CAKE NICE AND EVEN AND SMOKE COOL. AND THE 'BITE' IS TAKEN OUT TOO

IT'S SWELL, JUDGE. THE OLD PIPE SMOKE SWEETER ALREADY

HERE'S WHY THERE'S NO OTHER TOBACCO LIKE PRINCE ALBERT: P.A. IS CHOICE MELLOW TOBACCO - "CRIMP CUT" FOR COOLNESS - WITH THE "BITE" REMOVED BY SPECIAL PROCESS. IT'S THE LARGEST-SELLING TOBACCO IN THE WORLD. AND SWELL FOR "MAKIN'S" CIGARETTES.

PRINCE ALBERT MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE:
Smokes 20 fragrant pipefuls of Prince Albert. If you don't find it the swellest, smoothest pipe tobacco you ever smoked, return the packet in with the rest of the tobacco in it to us at any time within a month from this date, and we will refund full purchase price, plus postage.

(Manufactured by R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY, Winston-Salem, North Carolina)

PRINCE ALBERT THE SWELLEST PIPE TOBACCO

50 pipefuls of fragrant tobacco in every tin of Prince Albert

ve
ner
wards
orts
tion will dinner
he cafeding to of those
the hon-ho have sports
ainment informal attend
d, dean son, in-
on; Dr.
of hy-
ssistant
Elizabeth n; and nt pro-charge
g Miss
airman, Helen
eniors;
s, '39;
Eliza-
Phyllis Strong,
n, '39;
39.
TS
iso for for the sident,
e-presi-
etary,
nsurer,

OR IS.
S
had ICE

am

Autograph seekers swarmed, interviewers buzzed

Star After Richard Bonelli, Metropolitan Opera star, had ceased giving encores at his first appearance at Oberlin College, he was surrounded by students who sought his autographs and opinions. He's shown with Mary Lou Bradley.

A truly international freshman class

Welcome The Rev. F. L. Meade, C. M., Niagara University dean, talks with Raul Anselmi of Puerto Rico and John J. Hubbard, Lima, Peru, upon their arrival at the New York college where they will register as freshmen.

Man in the iron mask

Protection Andy Roddenberry, first string University of Georgia quarterback, poses nicely so the cameraman can get a good photo of the special head and face protector he wears to protect his broken nose.

A Galloping Gael floats through the air

... trying to knock down a pass by Byrne of Loyola University (Los Angeles) in the game during which 60,000 spectators saw St. Mary's defeat the Lions, 19 to 7.

Acme

And here's another floating through the air act

But this time it's a University of Illinois backfield man who was thrown into the air in keeping Dunn of Southern California (on ground) from blocking a punt by Henry.

Acme

"Oops," said Mr. Conner of Virginia

... as Navy's Bill Ingram leaped into the air and avoided being tackled.

Pictures, Inc.

These Villanova tacklers believe in doing a job right

... as they prove here in a photo which shows them piling up on Farkas of the University of Detroit. Villanova won, 13 to 6.

Wide World

Canute's Corner

Frosh-Milne Game
Winter Tennis
Pretty Suits

C. N. M.

Dick Margison and Tom Barrington will be sitting on opposite benches tonight when Milne High and the freshman team clash in what will be the season opener for both teams. Coach Margison of the red and white of Milne has been non-committal so far, while Troubled Tom Barrington, freshman tutor, anticipates a loss for his team—all because of only three injuries.

"Shorty" Leggett won't be able to play in this evening's encounter. Tuesday night's practice culminated for Shorty in a severe eye injury, which will bench him for at least two weeks. It's hard to tell off-hand just who will take his place in the lineup, but his absence does detract plenty. Tuttle, regular guard, will be playing under the handicap of a leg injury, while Van Keuran, up-and-coming substitute, won't be available because of a bad heel.

Rivalry for the game has reached a new high this year, what with banners being put up and torn down, and pep meetings being held. Last week we expected a frosh victory. Now we take it all back and foretell a draw when the allotted playing time is over. An overtime period will decide the fray, one way or the other. The frosh attack is fast, but just a little bit mechanical. Defensively, they are best accustomed to their own type of offense, a little disconcerted by other types of attack. Further, they sometimes have difficulty in keeping the center scoring lane open.

Milne High school will present a rangy outfit too often slow moving, haphazard occasionally on offense—but always a fighting unit. The prime requisite of the practice school squad is polish. Both teams know that the object is to place the ball through the hoop and both will bend every effort toward that end. One wowsa of a tussle is sure in the offing for this evening, at any rate.

Qu'est-ce que c'est que paddle tennis? It's what will be played on that orderly outlay of white lines at the far end of the Commons—a newly developed hybrid of ping-pong and tennis. Some sort of net, possibly a suspension affair, will be constructed soon to complete the court requirements. Additional essentials are swollen ping-pong paddles and a round object that bounds. The game is, according to the October issue of the Reader's Digest, God's gift to tired business men.

The freshmen are recently endowed with versatile uniforms. They would suit almost any occasion, and the color scheme, a clever blending of several hues, shades, and tints of purple and gold, goes well with background after background.

Blinders will again be in order at the opening varsity game at Troy. The Teachers will create no mean stir when they jog out on the court in shiny new satin uniforms of bright gold. If their playing form matches the class of the suits, the engineers will be cannonaded from the court—which we hope.

The preliminary to the struggle between the varsity and the doughty Trojans will mark the second appearance of the freshman team.

The RPI frosh will, naturally enough, furnish the opposition. Let's pray for a brace of conquests.

Frosh Squad Faces Milne In Season Opener Tonight

Page Hall Court To Be Scene of Traditional Basketball Game; Barrington and Margison Are Coaches of Rival Teams

Coach Thomas Barrington's aggressive but inexperienced freshman quintet will inaugurate its 1936-37 basketball campaign tonight when it will clash with its traditional rival, Milne High, on the Page hall court. The shifty freshman squad has good men at every berth but they lack the experience which so often decides the outcome of a game. To offset this handicap, Barrington has been putting his squad through strenuous workouts during the past week in order to put a fast-licking and effective quintet on the floor tonight.

This year, Dick Margison's proteges will be out to revenge last season's close 24-22 setback handed them by Coach Jerry Amyot's basketweavers. The Milne mentor holds a slight edge by virtue of three well-seasoned varsity veterans of the 1935-36 campaign, Sipperley, Beagle, and Taft. Both teams will use Coach Hatfield's "figure 8" system of offense with variations added by the two coaches.

The starting five for the class of 1940 will be chosen from: forwards, Jim Quinn, Larry Balog, Homer Legitt, and Ken Huser; guards, Barney Tuttle, Will Prament, and "Toad" Fairbanks, and at the pivot position will be either Walt Simmons or Walt Harper. In reserve will be Kelly, Van Keuran and Relyen.

The Milne High squad to take the floor tonight will be Erastus Davis, Martin Cresscy, Edgar Harding or Walker at the forward berths; Captain Foster Sipperley and Jack Beagle filling the guard positions, and Bob Taft or Gordon Carvill at center.

The first of two preliminaries will begin at 6:30 o'clock. In the second prelim the freshman second team will meet the Milne High Jayvees. The main go which will swing under way at 8:00 o'clock will be refereed by Jerry Amyot and orchestral dancing will follow.

M.A.A. Ruling Limits Varsities to Classmen

The Men's Athletic association has officially decided to support the present order of things in disallowing graduate student participation in varsity sports. This policy, then, is in antithesis to the recommendation of the student association, which was passed in last Friday's assembly and forwarded to MAA council.

It is felt, and has been generally felt in these recent and enlightened years, that it was unfair to the student body of this college for graduate students, particularly those from other colleges, to come here for advanced work with a view to snatching away varsity berths from regularly enrolled students.

The council's stand on this matter is indicative of a desire to emphasize not victory but student participation in athletics.

In effect, it means that this athletic body feels that the best possible undergraduate team is the thing.

EAT AT JOHN'S LUNCH
Dinners 25¢ and up
Delicious Sandwiches and Sundaes
7:30 A.M.—11:00 P.M.
Opp. the High School

Fall Season

Camp
Hockey
Cuthbert

S. W.

Camp Johnston! A haven for tired bones! The old place isn't home any more with all the new paint around. And shellac on the floor! The old place isn't familiar at all, what with all the new pots and pans and stuff. And Stepmother Appeldoorn with her scrub clean crusade. One of the high spots was the hike to the graveyard, where lie various bones. Among them, no doubt are those of some illustrious "Cuthbert" who died of joy when he caught a fly ball after three years of ardent striving for glory in the noble art of ye baseballe. More of Cuthbert anon.

A gory battle will ensue today outside the portals of Page hall when hockey enthusiasts will turn out in a body to give chase to the small sphere in the annual fall wind-up.

Once upon a time, in a dreamy hamlet, lived a little girl by name of Anastasia, sister to poor Cuthy. She lived on and on (and on) acquiring wisdom and intelligence until finally she was good enough to come here as a freshman. Cuthbert was a sophomore. Cuthbert wanted to be big and strong. Cuthbert went out for sports. The first swing he swung at the ball made him so giddy that he came to school via Schenectady because he didn't know when he was traveling in a straight line. The second time, strange as it seemeth, he not only managed to contact the ball, but he kept it from taking him and the bat for an air ride. The wicked ball, however, dropped dead from the bat in a straight line and bashed Cuthbert's big toe to smithers, leaving Berty in a dither for the next few weeks.

Anastasia was a Girl Scout. She decided to teach Cuthbert the noble sport. When she discovered that when Bert tried to catch the ball it knocked him over backwards, she decided to give him exercises to build up solid flesh on his adolescent frame. Whereupon Cuthbert took up violent physical occupations. He learned new dance steps, he chewed gum, he teased sophomores, but alas, in vain. He was still no athlete.

Now Cuthbert is a cynic. He shuns sports. The only exercise he gets is when his sides wheeze in and out as he laughs at G.A.A. hikes in assembly.

Moral: Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

He who laughs last, laughs.

At the

ANNEX

You'll find the very best Ice Cream in Town

WAGAR'S

For the daily
snack

For parties large and small

COACHES FROSH

Thomas Barrington, '37, coach of 1940 squad which meets Milne High tonight.

Louis Jones Makes Outline of "Hamlet"

Instructor in English Publishes New Type of Supplement

Mr. Louis C. Jones, instructor in English, has recently prepared a pamphlet to be used as a supplement in the study of Shakespearean literature.

The pamphlet, which has just been published, is a chart in outline form of "Hamlet", and is intended to clarify and simplify the study of the play. A similar outline of "Macbeth" will be released soon.

Mr. Jones has augmented the chart with "thumb-nail" sketches of the characters and notes on the structure of the play.

The outline is divided into sections, each corresponding to an act. Each scene is summarized briefly, and the time of the action is noted at the bottom of the column.

The height and width of the sections increase in proportion to the importance of the scene to the general development of the plot, and the length of the scene.

The pamphlet will not substitute for the actual reading of "Hamlet" because it does not include direct quotations.

G.A.A. To Have Annual Dinner

Association Announce Awards For Various Fall Sports Monday at 6:00

The Girls' Athletic association will conduct its annual fall award dinner Monday, at 6:00 o'clock in the cafeteria of Husted hall, according to Betty Morrow, president.

At this time the names of those who have been selected for the honorary varsity teams, and who have made credit for the various fall sports will be announced. Entertainment will consist of skits and informal singing.

Faculty members who will attend are: Miss Helen Hall Moreland, dean of women; Miss Isabelle Johnson, instructor in physical education; Dr. Caroline Crossdale, professor of hygiene; Dr. Mattie Green, assistant professor of hygiene; Dr. Elizabeth Morris, professor of education; and Dr. Minnie Scotland, assistant professor of biology.

Jean Edgecombe, '38, is in charge of the dinner. Those assisting Miss Edgecombe are: assistant chairman, Ethel Little, '38; faculty, Helen Clyde and Mary Harbow, seniors; entertainment, Christine Ades, '39; door, Sue Caldwell, '37; food, Elizabeth Strong, '37; decorations, Phyllis Arnold, '39; programs, Jean Strong, '39; cleanup, Dorothy MacLean, '39; and waitresses, Millie King, '39.

House Elects Officers

Spencer hall, a group house for men, recently elected officers for the year 1936-37. They are: president, Thomas Cunningham, '37; vice-president, Robert Stevens, '40; secretary, Leonard Helmer, '38; and treasurer, Donald Loomis, '39.

Eye Glasses

Prescription
OPTICIANS.
FREDETTE'S
65 Columbia St. 3rd door above Pearl
COMPLETE OPTICAL SERVICE

The Greatest of All Historical Pictures

"9 DAYS A QUEEN"

The Story of Lady Jane Grey

With Nova Pilbeam

HARMANUS BLEECKER HALL

Starts Wednesday, November 18th

On Same Program

Gene Raymond — Ann Sothern

in

"Smartest Girl in Town"

Make this the BEST THANKSGIVING

by Greyhound

HERE'S THE MENU!

Go back home for Thanksgiving — turkey just doesn't taste as good anywhere else! Make it a gala week-end but an inexpensive one — do your traveling by Greyhound bus. A Greyhound trip costs only 1/3 as much as driving your car—much less than any other means of travel. You can buy your ticket to one of the big out-of-town football games with the money saved making the trip by Greyhound. Drop in, or phone for full information.

GREYHOUND TERMINAL
350 Broadway
Phone: 4-6165 and 4-6166

GREYHOUND
Lines

Whitney's

The Department Store of Albany That Is Ever Anxious to Be of Service— Meeting the Merchandise Demands of the College Woman.

"Hitler Educational Experiment Bears Watching," Says Sprague

"Hitler has given the youth something to do." This was the conclusive factor voiced by Dr. H. A. Sprague, president of Montclair Teacher's college, in his address to the student body in last week's assembly.

Dr. Sprague first told the assembly that observation is an excellent opportunity to get suggestions and then related some of his experiences abroad, emphasizing the new German education system.

Commenting on the relations between Hitler and education in Germany today, he said that, pedagogically speaking, we get a great many suggestions from the methodry employed there.

In the new German system, according to Dr. Sprague, Wednesdays are devoted to the Hitler party. No assignments are given on that day and the students receive special instruction in principles of the party, in the field of health, and in health practices which "are recreational and of a nature that might be classed as patriotic."

The new system provides for education in a series of schools up to about 19 years of age. These schools are professional, semi-professional, classical, and scientific in nature and their curricula are startlingly similar to those of our high schools, junior colleges, and colleges.

Nationalist Socialist schools have been established also. Hitler, Dr. Sprague maintained, is trying to organize a model Nazi school system and in doing so has caused considerable comment as to the future status of the classical school.

In conclusion Dr. Sprague stated that, "whether or not Hitler will be successful no one knows", but the experiment will be an interesting one to observe.

Seniors Must Return Agency Pictures Today

Since the agency pictures distributed by the Pedagogue were not made up in the correct size, the Sargent Studio will print six copies in a larger size, and send them directly to the appointment bureau at no extra charge.

Those who ordered agency pictures must return the print with the serial number on the back to the Pedagogue staff in room X by noon today. The additional prints remain the property of those who ordered them.

Any agency pictures which were printed in reverse will be corrected, if they are handed in today. It will be necessary to return all copies of the original prints to the studio as a check.

There will be no retakes for agency pictures, but the photographer will return December 7 to retake the Pedagogue pictures.

Y.W.C.A. to Entertain Aged

Young Women's Christian association will entertain the aged at the Ann Lee home, Monday night. Cars will leave the college directly after the G.A.A. banquet.

Dorothy Clapp, '38, is general chairman of the affair. Committees assisting Miss Clapp are: music, Eloise Shearer, '37, and Margaret Mattison, '39, and stunts, Betty Hayford and Virginia Furey, sophomores.

Hayford to Give Address

Betty Hayford, '39, will speak at the Y.M.C.A. in Schenectady tonight, as a representative of the Young Women's Christian association. In company with students from neighboring colleges, she will address a meeting of high school students on "What phase of college life has interested me the most."

The purpose of the meeting is to give the students a composite picture of college life and its value.

Geo. D. Jeoney, Prop.

Dial 5-1913

Boulevard Cafeteria and Grill

198-200 CENTRAL AVENUE

ALBANY, N. Y.

Just plain old Common Sense

You know that a cigarette can be mild; that is, when you smoke it it's not harsh or irritating.

You know that a cigarette can have a pleasing taste and aroma.

When you smoke a cigarette and find that it has the right combination of mildness, good taste, and aroma, it just seems to satisfy you... gives you what you want.

I smoke Chesterfield all the time, and they give me no end of pleasure.

Chesterfield