NEW YORK STATE COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS
ESTABLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1918

VOL. III No. 2

ALBANY, N. Y., SEPTEMBER 26, 1918

$1.50 PER YEAR

FACULTY RECEPTION OPENS SOCIAL SEASON

The annual reception tendered to the Freshman Class by the President and Faculty of State College took place Friday evening, September 20th.

The Class of 1922 attended the affair in goodly numbers. Each Freshman was accompanied by an upperclassman, the latter having the pleasant task of making the newcomer welcome and "at home." The receiving line was headed by Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Brubacher, and included Dean and Mrs. Horner, Miss Marion S. Van Liew, Miss Anna E. Pierce and Dr. Leonard Richardson.

In view of the exigencies of the times, conservative measures were observed in the matter of refreshments. Excellent music was furnished by an orchestra composed entirely of girls. Decorations consisted of the banners of the various organizations.

Dr. Brubacher made a speech of welcome to the Freshmen. His remarks were emphasized by the lack of electricity when he spoke of his being "left in the dark" by the Faculty in the matter of subject. He went on to name the Class of 1922 the "Victory Class," since he has firm faith that the Allies will win before another class comes to these halls. He also voiced the hope of the Faculty and students that the Freshmen will make their college a home, and create under its influence a strong spirit of helpfulness to themselves and to others.

Many Faculty members attended the reception.

DORMITORY GERMS!

Housing Facilities Provided This Year

Although the headline above sounds alarming, the facts of the case are quite the reverse. For many years the need for dormitories at State College has been great. With the opening of college this year some steps have been taken toward housing the students in regular supervised dormitories.

Y. W. C. A. has taken a house at 31 South Lake Avenue, which will take care of about 20 girls. About the same number will be housed at Newman Hall, the old McArdle residence on Elm street, which is under the direction of Newman Club.

The Home Economics Department has opened a dormitory, which will accommodate 25 women, at 390 Madison avenue. Miss Steele, of the Faculty, is acting as house mother.

The H. E. practice house will be located at 45 South Lake avenue this year.

In addition to these there are to be six sorority houses with an approximate total of housing accommodations for seventy-five.

TWO COLLEGE SINGS

The Junior-Freshman Sing was held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock on the college steps. Each Junior brought her Freshman sister to learn all the college songs, and, at the same time, to introduce her to one of State College's honored customs, step-singing.

The second sing was held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This vesper service was held under the direction of Y. W. Dean Horner gave an interesting address.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION FRIDAY NIGHT

The Y. W. C. A. reception for Freshmen will be held on Friday evening, September 27, from 8 until 11 o'clock. The Faculty, Freshmen and Y. W. C. A. girls are cordially invited. The Freshmen who have never attended a Y. W. C. A. party will surely be there in large numbers to get acquainted with everyone.

Student Tax Collection Tuesday, October 1st.

BLANKET TAX OF $5.00 TO BE COLLECTED OF ALL STATE COLLEGE STUDENTS

Tuesday, October 1st, has been set as the date for payment of the annual student blanket tax. Professor C. A. Hidley, treasurer of the Student Association, and members of Myskania will take the tax fees all day at a place to be announced later.

To upper classmen the tax system does not need to be explained. For Freshmen, the following explanation is offered: Under the old system each organization, i. e., the News Board, Echo Board, Basket Ball Association, etc., sold subscriptions and tickets to cover the amount of each individual budget for the year. The result was inevitable. A few loyal students gave whole hearted support, and many failed to pay any dues. Accordingly, huge debts occurred. Often scheduled events had to be cancelled. Occasionally News could not appear for several issues.

By the new plan each organization submits a yearly budget to an appraising committee, which makes the apportionment and sets the amount and date for collection. In this way each organization and publication has plenty of money to meet its expenses.

The $5.00 tax of last year met the needs of the year, and the committee for this year has established the present tax of $5.00.

Upon payment each student will be given a card, which will admit him to all home games and will entitle him to weekly copies of the News and monthly copies of The Echo.

Remember! Next week, Tuesday, October 1st—$5.00.

FIRST STUDENT ASSEMBLY ADDRESSED BY PRES. BRUBACHER

Instead of the usual confusion and mixing of classes at the first regular Friday morning assembly, the students were confronted by large signs designating where each class would sit. The Freshmen were tucked away in that corner formerly claimed by the Sophs, and the Seniors occupied the places heretofore allotted to the Freshmen. This is a very welcome change, indeed, to both classes.

The Freshmen, it was noticed, were very slow about getting up when Myskania entered, but alacrity in rising must be seen next Friday morning.

The exercises were opened with a hymn. This was followed by an address from Dr. Brubacher. After greeting all the students, and especially the new class, which he called the Victory Class, he gave a most interesting talk upon college activities of the present day.

Dr. Brubacher said: "We are coming together under entirely new circumstances. We have had no vacation for college as a whole for some time. With summer school and the training corps the vacation transferred our activities in different lines. For the first time men and women are constricted for national work. Academic seclusion is broken down. This situation is coming within this college.

"Public education was largely a State function, but the Federal Government has laid its hand upon all colleges this summer. Soon it will be laid upon the high schools and the education of young men and young women will be speeded up. The Federal Government will also determine to a certain extent the content of high school education. Federal control has a broad significance. It will affect at once men's colleges. A man's time in an American college this year will

State College War Camp

PLANS FOR CAMPING FACILITIES ANNOUNCED

The first detachment of soldiers sent to State College this summer arrived the 15th of June and remained eight weeks. There were 170, all from New York State. They found much to do. Forty of them were engaged in carpentry work under Mr. Frey of City School 25, and Mr. Cornelius Jansen, '16. They tore down "the devil's elbow." They built a tool shop near the boiler house and a bridge (since removed), across the vacant lot between the High School and college. They erected partitions in room 161, making new offices for the H. E. department, and in the lower hall near the woodshop door.

Forty men were instructed in auto repair and truck driving at Studler's garage, 104 Central avenue. They used the two big army trucks stationed here at college. Three more trucks used in instruction at Troy High School have since been added. Twenty men were in the machine shop under Mr. Weaver doing practical work for the garage and other places. One of these men was Walter Hurst.

Forty men were engaged in bench woodworking under Mr. Burke in the college shop and Mr. Alexander in the High School wood shop. They built serving counters, typewriter desks and tables now used in the commercial department, book cases and cabinets. Walter Le Gris was one engaged in this work.

Thirty men did plumbing and sheet-metal working under Mr. Coughlin. They repaired the sprinkler taps about the campus and the hot water heater in the boiler house, and also installed the home economics kitchen. Miss Perine's room was moved to former room 161. The lunch room kitchen was rearranged.

They were fed in the former domestic science kitchen. The cooking was done at first in the former laundry, but is now done in the bacteriology laboratory. Miss Steele and Miss Wilson were in charge and were assisted by Helen Endries, Ruth Murtaugh, Marion Peterson, Edith Sullivan, Caroline Birge, Florence Lansing, Ruth Hardy and Marion Jones, all of '18.

The first detachment of men was housed in the Albany High School gymnasium. When the War Department asked for a continuation of the work done here it was evident that more extensive housing facilities were necessary. Consequently arrangements were made with Mr. James Feeney and Mr. G. D. Miller for the erection of barracks on the lot between

PAY YOUR DEBT!

It is but seldom that State College students are asked to give financial support for strictly college affairs. One of the few occasions is at hand. On another page the blanket tax collection is announced and explained.

Last year was the first attempt and the success of the venture was very decided. There was practically a 100 per cent response, and the treasurer was able to meet all bills.

The response must and will be equally as hearty this year. Athletics are needed and student publications must appear. The latter are essential as molders of opinion, media for self expression, means of announcements and representatives of State College in the inter-collegiate world.

The individual subscription system is a failure; the blanket tax system is a proved success. The tax system is dependent upon a 100 per cent student support. It is neither a matter of inclination nor of mild duty, but of debt. Every student receives a free college education of the highest type and enjoys all the privileges of college life. For the latter there must be some small fee. $5.00 is a small fee for the privileges it brings.

Students, "Tenshun!" You have a debt of $5.00. Your chance to pay is at hand next Tuesday. Show your colors. Will they be true blue or yellow? It is a case of "Eventually, why not now?" Pay up!

THE DOOR MUST BE KEPT OPEN.

Since Plato wrote his "Republic," since Aristotle gathered about him his little band of followers, the freedom of the individual has depended largely upon the maintenance of freedom in thought. The early Attic schools of philosophy were the precursors of the modern college which today stands as firmly for the wisdom and justice of free-thinking as did the early Greeks. It is the modern college which has given us such heroic examples of belief in a principle as Rupert Brooke, whose death was a tragedy to English letters, and it is the modern college whose sons, recognizing the narrow limitations established by the boundaries of Teuton philosophy, have been the first to offer their lives in the noble cause of preserving the democracy of the world.

Consequently, as we turn again from the summer vacation to the round of work of the college year and mark the empty places that silently speak of the men who have gone into the service, let us not forget that we too can serve. Fall brings as well as study the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign. Many of us have already subscribed to other loans, but that must not be made a bar to further duty. It is not what we have done that is going to win this war, but what we are doing and intend to do. If a man hasn't the money there are always opportunities open to him to work in his spare time and earn it.

The college is the door to life's future; the Liberty Loan the door to Freedom. Both must be kept open. When the campaign commences the twenty-eighth of September let every man remember this fact and invest for his country and Alma Mater.

Liberty Loan Committee.

THE COLLEGE MAN AND THE S. A. T. C.

With the opening of colleges for another year the man of college age is again confronted with the problem of what he shall do. While the possibility of enlistment is not open to him, the probability that he will be drafted is great. Thus he is uncertain as to how to act.

State College, in accepting the proposal of the War Department to establish here a branch of the Student Army Training Corps, offers to the prospective Freshman, or to the returning upperclassman, a solution of the problem which is facing him. By the terms which the Government offers, as fully explained by the President in last week's News, the young man of draft age may seek voluntary induction into the S. A. T. C., and if accepted may become a soldier of the United States, receiving the pay, privileges, care and duties of a private. But he is allowed to remain in college until the Government needs him in another field.

By this means a man may be gaining his necessary education and still be training, under competent directors, to fill his individual place in the scheme of defeating the Hun.

In the face of the above briefly-mentioned facts, there is but one course for the young civilian to take. He should enter college, faithfully perform his duties here, and accept his glorious opportunity for service. The need is great, the opportunity is at hand, and the men must and will respond.

Every State College man in the S. A. T. C.!

Meet your Tax Debt Tuesday.

HAVE YOU WRITTEN TO MOTHER?

The boys who have "come back" speak in the most glowing terms of the work of the Y. M.

C. A. and K. of C. in camps. Every one has heard the story of the frequently displayed sign, "Have you written to mother?" and nearly every one knows the splendid result.

Certainly, this is one lesson of the war for the college student. Too often does the letter to the home folks become a thing of homesick Freshman days. Too often the increase of work and pleasures causes one to neglect to write,—perhaps to forget to do so. But those at home do not forget. They still are making sacrifices that the boy may have an education. Greater ones are made each day. Can they not have a letter at least once a week?

Will not each college student place conspicuously in his mental landscape the sign of the service camp, "Have you written to mother?"

Student Tax $5.00.

The medical officer and dentist of the college detachment were assisted in their work by a finger-print expert and several clerks. Almost all of the men passed and were immediately measured for uniforms at the quartermaster's office.

The lines of work are varied and many, and should appeal to all classes of college-bred women. Among the branches of service named are canteen work, social workers, hospital hut workers, red cross, stenographers, motor drivers, nurses, nurses' aids and messengers.

be entirely determined for him. He will be under strict military discipline. There will also be changes in the history, chemistry and mathematics courses. The Federal Government insists that all must be taught in a year, or as much as possible in three months that has been taught heretofore in a number of years. There must be an elimination of the nonessential.

"The Government is looking for men trained in the old academic education for commissioned officers. The average man of no mechanical training feels he has no place, but the Government puts men of high school training or better into the colleges.

"The social atmosphere of colleges is changed. There are no more fraternity houses, no social division, no more year classification. There are now only three classes, those 18, 19 and 20 years of age. These are graduated after having completed certain years and months training.

"We are interested in secondary education. The history of education is now being made in our presence. Therefore, take advantage of it as it is unfolding under our eyes.

"When the boys come back from the trenches, it will not be a question whether they have kept up with us, but whether we have kept up with them. The American Government within the last ten days has sent a large commission to France to establish a Khaki College behind the lines."

In closing, Dr. Brubacher predicted that this year will be the most momentous and the happiest of our lives.

the college and the High School. The War Department has since made further contracts for the entire winter and spring for the housing of about 400 men. This necessitated a revision of the building program. There is to be a mess hall 160 feet by 30 feet to accommodate 500 men. The kitchen, 64 by 30 feet, will project from the middle of this. The foundations and sills for the mess hall are already completed. It will be two-storied, the second floor probably being used for the Y. M. C. A. and section A of the S. A. T. C.

The present barracks, which is 228 feet by 30 feet, two stories high, and accommodating 230 men, will be duplicated as soon as possible. Two smaller buildings will be rapidly constructed, one for toilet purposes, and one for headquarters. The total cost of the new construction, including the heating facilities, will be about $20,000.

The present detachment of men arrived August 15th, and will leave October 12th. It is made up of men from Indiana and Massachusetts. Due to the opening of the High School before the completion of the barracks the men were housed during the first two weeks in September in the college gym and lower halls. Four hundred new men are expected October 15th to stay until December 15th. The Park Garage on Hudson avenue above Lake avenue has been taken over for auto classes. The two upper floors will be used for classes in motorcycle repairing, topographical drafting, and radio and buzzer operations.

The entire proposition has been under the direction of Professor Douglass. Captain E. L. Reid is commanding officer, assisted by Lieutenant A. J. Grant, line officer; Lieutenant L. J. Godby, medical officer; Lieutenant Hemphill, dental officer, and Lieutenant Woodward, quartermaster officer. Their hours for instruction are from 7 to 12:30 in the morning. Drilling takes place between 2 and 5 in the afternoon.

Look for the name on the envelope that the work is delivered to you in, if you want work that is A-1 and guaranteed. We get swamped with work, for the public likes our work so well that we cannot get the work out in 24 hours and do it right; to do the right kind of work, we take a little longer, generally 48 hours.

CAMOUFLAGE

A man who struck his mother-in-law came up before the judge for sentence. "I fine you fifty dollars," the magistrate told him. "Why, what is the regular fine for striking a mother-in-law?" the defendant asked. "Forty-five dollars," the judge replied. "But there's a five-dollar war tax on amusements!"

No man knows the true joys of life until he's married, and then it's too late to go back to 'em!

"My lord, the carriage waits without."
"Without what?"

This would be a cheerful old world if men would pay their debts as cheerfully as they pay grudges.

When a man marries his troubles are all over. Yes, all over the place.

The young lady who wants to catch an aviator for a husband should try flypaper.

We believe Herbert Hoover should really be called Secretary of the Interior.

No man is a hero to his valet because no hero ever has one.

Hush, little thrift stamp,
Don't you cry;
You'll be a war bond
By and by!

Speaking of Chilly weather;
If a
Hedgehog on the ground
Is a sign of Late winter,
Then
Is a banana peel
The sign of an
"Early fall?"

"The Germans
Are now living
On their Diet of worms."

POPULAR SONG

If you don't like beans and hard-tack,
If you don't like your slumgullion stew,
No matter what you eat, the table's always neat,
There's no kick a-coming from you;
If you don't like your thirty monthly,
If you're sore at your new attendant,
Just remember, my boy, it's not mamma,
It's your Uncle Sam that's feeding you.
From "The Bayonet,"
Camp Lee, Virginia.

Positive knowledge have I none,
But my aunt's washerwoman's sister's son,
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer on Sycamore street,
That he had a letter just last week
Written in the finest Greek,
From a Chinese Cooley in Timbuctoo,
Who said the negroes in Cuba knew
Of a colored man in a Texas town,
Who got it straight from a circus clown,
That a man in Klondike heard the news
From a gang of South American Jews,
About somebody in Borneo,
Who heard a man who claimed to know,
Of a swell society female fake,
Whose mother-in-law would undertake
To prove that her husband's sister's niece
Had stated in a printed piece,
That she had a son, who had a friend,
Who knew just when this war will end.—Exchange.
