giene representative on the Association's Board of Directors and secretary-treasurer of the Harlem Valley chapter, Dr. Alfred Rizzolo, assistant director of the hospital, and Arthur Coe, newly-elected president. Other officers, not in the picture, are Martha McConchie, vice president, Emmoran Grant, Richard Struwe and Rooney Maseo, trustees.

Rochester Union That Fought Grievance Plan Is Now 'Crying' For It

ALBANY, Aug. 5—The Civil Service Employees Association last week criticized as a complete about-face and a sham the actions of a union which represents City of Rochester employees, in regard to the union's demands for grievance procedures and reports of threats of picketing and strikes unless the city meets its demands.

Joseph F. Feily, president of the Employees Association, in commenting on published reports of the picketing and strike threats, said that the city is required to install grievance procedures by next Oct. 1 under a State law passed last year. Feily said the law, which was introduced in the Legislature and won by CSEA, was actively opposed by letter to every state legislator by the "very same union that now is crying so loudly for its provisions to be adopted in the City of Rochester."

Some More Questions

Feily also questioned the good faith of the union and the apparent kowtowing to the union by the city over the reported strike threats by AFSCME. He said the city's charter specifically prohibits it from recognizing an employee organization which claims the right of its public employee members to strike. Feily said the city "should have secured a written guarantee from the union that there would be no strikes or threat of a strike from the union when the city recognized it last year. If this wasn't done," Feily said, "then someone was derelict in his duties and the city apparently is going to have to pay for this dereliction now, unless

Schenectady County CSEA Seeks 10% Pay Increase; Poses Program for Aides

(Special to the Leader)

ALBANY, Aug. 5—The Schenectady County chapter of the Civil Service Employees Association is seeking a ten percent salary increase in 1964 for all employees of the county and the city of Schenectady.

The increase is part of an eight-point salary and fringe benefit improvement program submitted to the County Board of Supervisors and filed with the finance and budget review committee for study. Nicholas Pintaville, chapter president, said that a five-point recommendation will be submitted to city officials in a short time.

The chapter is also asking that copies of Attendance Rules and Regulations be provided all city and county employees so they can thoroughly understand the conditions of their employment and their rights to benefits.

Other Budget Requests

Other items requested for county employees in the 1964 budget include:

• Reduce from eight to five the number of years required for an employee to reach his maximum salary without any reduction in the maximum salary.

• Longevity increments after 10 and 15 years of continuous and satisfactory service to the maximum of the salary grade to

Correction

Due to the lateness of the nominations story last week, some names were erroneously reported to the Leader. The changes from last week's story are: the name of George Heim, Albany was omitted as candidate for Legislative Department representative; the name of Michael Sewek was inadvertently listed as a candidate for representative from the Department of Public Works instead of the Department of Public Service.

Travel Regulation Study Is Ordered By Comptroller

(Special to the Leader)

ALBANY, Aug. 5—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt has ordered a broad study of the State's travel regulations, as requested by the Civil Service Employees Association.

Levitt last week informed CSEA President Joseph F. Feily that he had directed that the study be made, to include "an examination not only of the points raised by the Association, but of a number of other sections of the Travel Regulations which require further examination."

What CSEA Asked

The Association, at a recent meeting with the Comptroller and in later correspondence, asked that seven specific amendments be made to the rules. They are:

1. First class commercial lodging rates both in and outside of New York State for State employees while in official travel status.

2. Mileage reimbursement at the present rate of $.09 per mile for the actual number of miles driven by a State employee in official travel status as measured from the point of the trip, whether such point of origin be the employee's residence or official station.

3. A higher mileage reimbursement rate which would provide at least an extra $.03 per mile for employees of the Department of Public Works who are required to travel over unpaved and ungraded road beds to supervise road construction.

4. Mileage reimbursement and meal and lodging allowances for State employees who are required to travel more than 50 miles to interviews for competitive promotions.

Advancing Expenses

5. Expense advances for State employees required to be in official travel status in order to pre-

Don't Repeat This!
Readers' Nominations Also Includes Some 'Bright Young Women'

ONE of the first letters received by this column after we asked our readers to name more "bright young men" in the Republican and Democratic Party was one that began "How about the bright young women? Politics is no longer exclusively a man's world."

Her reference was to two previous columns in which we listed the "bright young men" in the Republican and Democratic Parties. After each column, we asked our readers to submit names of any men we might have overlooked.

The writer had her nominations to submit, too, and the list started off with Carol Greitzer, a top woman leader in the Greenwich Village Independent Democrats.

Said our correspondent "She's ravishingly beautiful, gracious and articulate—and has one of the best young political minds in the City."

Another of her nominees was Mrs. Hortense Gabel, the City's Rent and Rehabilitation Administrator, whom our writer described as "a woman of marked ability who has shown her stuff since her start as an assistant to Mayor Robert Wagner. She knows how to get headlines; the right kind, too."

"Also keep your eye on Joyce Austin, Mayor Wagner's Aide for Relations With Minority Groups. Joyce is soft-spoken, tactful and good-looking. She doesn't express any political ambitions publicly but those who have watched her work, mark her as a person with a definite career in politics."

Then, our correspondent continues, "there is Frances Costikyan, wife of New York County Democratic Committee Chairman Edward Costikyan. She and her husband have a mutual love of politics and she's credited with writing some of his best speeches. She contributes good ideas as well."

"And how about Mrs. Robert M. Morgenthau, wife of the former candidate for Governor? Mrs. Morgenthau may not be interested in running for office herself but, as she showed while making an appearance before an important meeting of the big Civil Service Employees Assn. in Buffalo during the campaign, she certainly is one of the Democratic Party's top assets."

The Kennedy Women

Our lady reader goes on to make another addition to the list, "Frances Childers Hewitt, an original member of the Kennedy inner circle who only recently left her post at the United Nations to marry CBS' Don Hewitt. She will remain active in politics, however, as an assistant to Stephen Smith, the Presidential trouble-shooter."

"Naturally, my list of 'bright young women' has to conclude with the fabulous Kennedy women, led by Jacqueline Kennedy, wife of the President, and Ethel Kennedy, wife of the Attorney General," our writer declares. "Jackie is an international asset to the President and Ethel is a tremendous help in her numerous appearances with the Attorney General. Then there are Pat Kennedy Lawford, Eunice Kennedy Shriver, wife of the Peace Corps director, and Jean Kennedy Smith, wife of the above mentioned Presidential trouble-shooter, all of whom are active in day to day civic work."

Our writer ends her letter by saying "my list should show that the 'bright young women' lend a good deal to the vitality of the Democratic Party."

Upstate Nomination

Going back to the men, from Ogdensburg T. Loomis nominates Edward J. Gosier, attorney in Watertown and Clayton, as a real comer. Mr. Loomis reports that Gosier did his bit for President John F. Kennedy by working for him in West Virginia (on a team of the then Senator John Kennedy and brother "Bobby") to win that important presidential primary contest in 1959. He also worked with the Attorney General in the 1960 presidential campaign in New York. As U.S. Collector of Customs of the St. Lawrence District, Gosier is "temporarily" out of politics, says Loomis, but he "is a name for the future."

Robert Wechsler of Manhattan nominates City Councilman Theodore Weiss, Assemblyman Albert Blumenthal and State Senators Manfred Ohrenstein and Jerome Wilson to our roster. He also proposes former City Councilman and now Commissioner of the Housing and Redevelopment Board, Herbert Evans, as "an outstanding name for your list."

From Brooklyn, Margaret Carr wrote saying "please add our young, hardworking, earnest Assemblyman Joseph Dowd, a member of the Regular Democratic Club, Brooklyn. Also Frank Cunningham of the same club."

From upstate Chemung County, Mrs. Ruth Galos writes us about Elmira Mayor Edward T. Lagonegro, who was seeking office for the first time when he ran for the top city office there. She reports that Lagonegro is one of the best friends that civil service has ever had. On a weekly program, the Mayor reports on community happenings and then introduces a city employee to the public. "He never hesitates to present public employees in a good light and is always seeking ways to give us better publicity," she said.

One other Democratic nominee submitted (although this week's listing will not include all the names that could be added if there were time and space) was Herman Badillo, New York City Relocation Commissioner. Badillo, in his early 30's, is described as an ambitious, personable and intelligent young man with his eye on the future in politics.

GOP Additions

Nominations in the Republican column start off with a reader who really came up with a youngster in the true sense of the word. H. R. Middleton of Brooklyn submits the name Charles Freeman, of the same borough, who joined the Heights-Slope Young Republican Club while not yet 17 and last year "did everything from gathering petition signatures to participating in walking tours with Governor Rockefeller and Sen. Jacob Javits."

Middleton says that young Freeman has had a vigorous interest in politics from the age of 15 when, in 1959, he worked in the mayoralty campaign of Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz. At 18, Freeman is now a sophomore at New York University, is vice president of its Debating Society and president of its Government Club. "I'd say this boy is headed for the top both in law and politics," Middleton declares.

Both Sides Like Aldrich

34-year-old Alexander Aldrich, director of the State Division for Youth and now acting chairman as of Governor Rockefeller's Cabinet Committee on Race Relations, was nominated by both a Republican and a Democratic reader. Our GOP correspondent described Aldrich as one of the young Republicans most certain for "a top career in political life as his talents and ability are revealed." Wrote our Democratic reader: "I wish we had Alexander Aldrich on our team. This is one of the most appealing personalities I have ever come across, in politics or anywhere else. An aristocrat in taste, a man with common touch in politics, a handsome figure—all this topped off by a great sense of humor. Wait until he gets exposed to the public!"

While Robert R. McMillan, 31, of Queens, was writing us to add the name of Robert J. and Tony Malito, Laurence Lucey, Hugh Scott and Al Breitanbach to the roster of "bright young men" in the Republican ranks, we got a letter from Robert J. Malito, of the Young Republican Club, Queens, writing us about Mr. McMillan.

Mr. Malito writes saying "I'm sure that many people would agree that no list of bright young Republicans is complete without his name."

McMillan got his first taste of politics in 1959 and early 1960 while serving in the anti-trust division of the Justice Department in Washington, D.C., on a special Honors Program. He later joined the Capital Hill campaign staff as an assistant to then Vice President Richard M. Nixon and, following the 1960 presidential campaign, became counsel to Sen. Kenneth B. Keating. Although now back in private practice, he is actively serving the Queens Village Republic Club and the Queens Young Republican Club as a director of both organizations.

A Long Island reader writes to say, "when you report on 'bright young men' of the Republican Party in Nassau County government, don't forget Hempstead Town Supervisor Ralph G. Caso, who has been an elected public official since January, 1953 serving first as a town councilman and since July, 1961 as supervisor. "Supervisor Caso, you will re-

Selinger Named Dean

New York City Community College Board of Trustees has named Professor Albert Selinger Acting Dean of Students, effective immediately.

Previous to this appointment, Professor Selinger was Head of the Division of Science at the College. He started at the College in 1947 as an instructor, then became

Chairman of the Chemistry-Science Department. Before joining the college, Professor Selinger taught science in New York City high schools. During World War II, he was an instructor for the Army Air Force, teaching metallurgy at Yale University. Professor Selinger earned his Bachelor and Masters degrees at New York University.

A native of the Ridgewood section of Brooklyn, he is a graduate of Boys' High School. Married to the former Frances Berman, Professor Selinger now lives at 70 Birch Road, in Malverne.

Conscience Relieved, City Is $200 Richer

Somewhere in New York, somebody has a conscience that is $200 lighter.

That's the amount that showed up recently in the mail delivered to the Office of Comptroller Abraham D. Beame—10 crisp $20 bills, folded into a piece of blank paper, and enclosed in an envelope with no return address.

The envelope was postmarked July 20, 1963, at the Church Street Station in Manhattan. Beame turned the money over to Department of Finance, to be added to the City's General Fund.

Some of the oldest employees in the Comptroller's Bureau of Administration said that they could call, was prominently mentioned last year as a possible GOP candidate for State Comptroller.

"He has been identified with progressive programs in County and Town government such as: Public Defender system, Senior Citizen Housing, Educational Zone (a new zoning concept to assist in the development of Mitchell Field), a comprehensive water study, etc.," our correspondent notes.

As we said early here, the lists of talented young men (and women, of course) are long ones and not all the names have appeared in these columns on the subject. We thank our readers for their response to these articles and we will be happy to add more names in the future. Send in your nomination to "Don't Repeat This," 97 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y.

not recall any larger sum of "conscience money" ever being received. They said that such envelopes—always unmarked and with no return address—are received from time to time, but rarely contain more than one or two small bills.

VA Plans Artificial Kidney Hosp. Centers

To save the lives of veteran-patients with incurable kidney disease, the Veterans Administration is planning to establish a network of artificial-kidney treatment centers in its nationwide hospital system.

The VA centers will be among the first of its kind in the nation.

Two already are in full operation at the VA hospitals in Los Angeles, Calif., and Hines, Ill., and many VA hospitals are providing this treatment on a more limited scale.

The agency plans to open other artificial-kidney treatment centers as personnel can be trained. Present plans call for a total of 30 of these VA centers within the next three years.

VA Mental Patients Respond In Homes

Veterans Administration mental patients by the thousands are finding a home away from home and a road to recovery by living with "adopted" parents near the agency's hospitals.

The veterans pay for their room and care in the carefully selected private homes from their own funds. Many who had reached a standstill on improvement in the hospital have responded to the home living with increased interest and further recovery.

Joseph Nardi Promoted In Comptroller's Office

Comptroller Abraham D. Beame has announced the appointment of Joseph F. Nardi of Howard Beach, Queens, as chief of the bureau of accounting, Office of the Comptroller.

Nardi, 51 took over the $17,500-a-year post on recently. A veteran of almost 28 years of City service, he has been acting chief of the bureau since Nov. 1, 1962.

He entered city service in the Health Department, Sept. 16 1935. After assignments with the Board of Transportation and the Department of Welfare, he was transferred to the Office of the Comptroller, on Jan. 1, 1944. He became acting chief of the Comptroller's central accounting division on Jan. 1, 1960.

Ira M. Ball (seated, center) chairman of the State Bingo Control Commission presents Certificates of Achievement to seven Commission investigators of the first twenty-two to complete a training course established at the suggestion of the Moreland Commission in its 1962 report on gambling in New York State. According to Ball, who became the Commis-

Suffolk CSEA Gains Further Support For Health Insurance Plan

(From Leader Correspondent)

YAPHANK, Aug. 5—Suffolk County's chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, waging one of its most strenuous battles for improved working conditions, has won new support in its drive to install the state health insurance plan.

The new support came from Babylon Town Supervisor William T. Lauder. Previously the plan had won approval from Suffolk County Executive H. Lee Dennison, a Democrat; and Supervisor Evans K. Griffing of Shelter Island, a Republican and chairman of the Suffolk County Board of Supervisors. A vote on the matter will take place in the fall when the new county budget for 1964 is drawn.

Lauder's Stand

Lauder, meeting with Suffolk chapter President Tom Dobbs and other Suffolk chapter officers and members, said that he favored installation of the health plan at the county level. Lauder noted that his employees in the town of Babylon already enjoy this benefit and he said he felt that county workers were also entitled to the program, Dobbs reported.

Of the 10 townships in Suffolk, the towns of Babylon, Brookhaven, Huntington already have the health plan, while Smithtown is now developing the plan for its employees. Many Suffolk County residents who work in the courts have been covered, as state workers, under the health plan for three years.

Dobbs reported that, at the same meeting, he and chapter members were disappointed to hear Islip Town Supervisor Thomas J. Harwood decline to indicate any support for the health plan, a position similar to the one he has taken in his own town where he also has declined to install the health plan.

Some Disappointments

Dobbs commented, "It was indeed disappointing to all of us that the progressive Town of Islip has refused to adopt the state health plan, despite numerous requests during the past two years." Dobbs also noted that the chapter would be unable to send members a complete transcript of the discussions with Harwood, which the chapter plans to do with the talks of previous guests, because Harwood declined to have his talk tape-recorded, an ordinary chapter practice.

Both Lauder and Harwood, meanwhile, declined to give the chapter any encouragement on its request for a 15 per cent across the board pay boost next year. Lauder said that as a recently installed supervisor, he had not yet become acquainted with the county salary scale. Harwood indicated that a general pay boost would require a tax increase and that an election year for the supervisors was not a good year in which to think about tax increases.

One estimate has been that the pay raise would cost the county $1,200,000 with an estimated 15 cents per $100 of assessed valuation boost in the real estate tax.

Future Meetings

The Suffolk CSEA members, as prompt payment of such accounts. In addition to the amendments, the Association also requested that the format of the official expense voucher now used be changed to include an indication of the amount of money actually expended by a State employee in official travel status to secure first-class lodging accommodations.

6. Mandatory compliance by all State agencies with respect to the reimbursement allowances for subsistence and mileage as contained in the Comptroller's Rules and Regulations.

7. A flat per diem expense allowance for State employees in official travel status which would save a considerable amount of time and expense involved in the processing and auditing of expense accounts as well as enable

Levitt Goes Further
In his answer, Levitt said "As you know, my objective in promulgating travel rules and regulations is to achieve equity for both the employees and the taxpayers of the State of New York. Many of the points raised in your letter will have an impact upon the State's budgetary requirements, and therefore require further study by the State. I have, therefore, directed that a broad study be made of the State's Travel Regulations, which will include an examination not only of the points raised in your letter, but of a number of other sections of the Travel Regulations which require further examination. This study includes representatives of my office, as well as the office of the Director of the Budget and the Civil Service Commission."

which an employee's title is allocated.

- Provide that all county employees be paid weekly.
- Increased vacation allowances.
- Accumulation of vacation credits up to a maximum of 30 days.
- Cash payment for accumulated vacation credits to 30 days upon retirement or separation from county service.
- Provide that all holidays falling on Saturday be observed on the Friday immediately preceding.

Cites Lag

A similar program will be submitted to City Council, except for the items concerning the number of years required to reach the salary grade maximum, the weekly pay period and the Friday observance of holidays. City employees have been granted these benefits.

In calling for the salary increases, the chapter said, "Salaries paid to county employees lag behind those paid by the State for comparable positions by approximately 11 per cent . . . and salaries to city employees lag behind those paid by the State for comparable positions by 9 per cent."

Gouverneur Chap. Names Candidates

The newly created Gouverneur Hospital chapter, Civil Service Employees Association, has announced the candidates for the first chapter election. The election will be held August 14 at the Hospital. A ballot box will be set up on the first floor and will be available for voting from 7 a.m. August 14 to 7 a.m. August 15. A meeting will be held later to announce the new officers. Those nominated for office are: Richard Palumbo, and Leon Wallace, president; Luther Gibbs, Winnie Moore and Herman Smith, first vice president; Lola Bonner, and Mary Pough, second vice president; Edmund Gagnon and Dorothy Wise, treasurer; and George Kelly and Stella Russo, secretary.

they continue their drive for enlarged worker benefits, expect to meet with Supervisors William Leonard of Riverhead, Robert Flynn of Huntington and possibly with William Bain of East Hampton at the next chapter meeting Aug. 22 at the Firematic Training Center, Yaphank.

Artificial Vein Wins Merit Award Prizes For Mrs. Lillian Zeh

(from Leader Correspondent)

POUGHKEEPSIE, Aug. 5—Dr. Herman B. Snow, director of the Hudson River State Hospital here, recently presented to Mrs. Lillian Zeh, in-service education coordinator, a check for $25, a certificate from the Department of Civil Service and a key case at the Supervisors' meeting at the hospital.

These were awarded by the Merit Award Committee of the Department of Mental Hygiene for her suggestion in the design of an artificial vein for aid in teaching students intravenous therapy.

The box is constructed of wood containing foam rubber with two plastic hoses going through the foam rubber. It is then covered with pink plastic which resembles the skin of the forearm. The student nurses as well as graduate nurses can then learn to insert needles into the rubber tubing which resembles the veins of the forearm. The tubes are also filled with colored water to resemble blood.

something is done quickly." To back up his statements, Felly cited the August 21, 1962, editions of a Poughkeepsie newspaper in which representatives of AFSCME were quoted as stating that "we want the right to strike. We have the right to strike." He also pointed out that New York State law expressly prohibits strikes by public employees.

Past Warning Cited

He said the Association repeatedly "had warned the city administration of the type of organization it was getting involved with when the city made its deal with AFSCME last year, but the city's political leaders, because of their involvement with the union prior to the 1961 elections, chose to ignore our warnings."

Felly also criticized the union for "selling city workers down-the-river by agreeing to salary adjustments this year and last which have been proven to be entirely inadequate and which have left the unfortunate city employees far behind Monroe County, State and private industry employees. The majority of State and Monroe County employees are members of our Association," he added.

He said the union's representation of city employees "to this point has been a sham and a case of the union collecting its inflated dues from city employees and returning next to nothing for them."

Where to Apply For Public Jobs

The following directions tell where to apply for public jobs and how to reach destinations in New York City on the transit system.

NEW YORK CITY—The Applications Section of the New York City Department of Personnel is located at 96 Duane St., New York 7, N.Y. (Manhattan). It is two blocks north of City Hall, just west of Broadway, across from The Leader office.

Appeals Restricted To Regional Offices

Federal civil servants are no longer permitted to take their job classification appeals to the Civil Service Commission's Central Office in Washington.

In the past, an employee who objected to his classification could appeal to the appropriate CSC regional office. If the classification still remained unchanged, the employee could then submit his case to the CSC Central office.

Since the Commission's withdrawal of the employee's right to appeal in Washington, job classifications made by the regional offices are final.

Employees of the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area will still have their appeals considered by the Central Office in Washington since that office also functions as the capital district regional office.

Initial Retirement Bill Hearings Show Favorable Reactions

The initial House subcommittee hearings on thirty-year retirement, which were held recently, produced most favorable results.

Among those speaking in favor of the retirement legislation were Rep. Morrison (D-La.), Rep. Olsen (D-Mont.), Rep. Wallhauser (D-N.J.), and Rep. Daniels (D-N.J.). Employee organization leaders present at the hearing included John F. O'Connor, AFL-CIO Postal Clerks; Jerry Keating, AFL-CIO Letter Carriers; Max Jordan, National Rural Letter Carriers; and Dan Jaspán, Postal Supervisors.

The subcommittee is considering a raft of bills which would offer employees the option to retire on full annuities at 55 years after 30 years of service and another which offers retirement at any age after 30 years of service.

One particularly pertinent fact was presented to the subcommittee at these hearings. Only one out of every 12 employees now exercises his option to retire early. This fact was presented in an effort to counteract the negative argument that an unpredictable number of employees might suddenly retire if the legislation is enacted.

Health Benefit Bill Signed By Kennedy

President Kennedy recently signed into law bill number H.R. 1819. This bill will allow the Civil Service Commission to approve new health benefit plans to participate in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program.

During the next open season, which is scheduled for October 1 through 15 of this year, Federal employees will have an unrestricted opportunity to change plans under the Health Benefits Program.

Administration Hints At Softer Opposition Of 30-Yr. Retirement

Late last week, it was learned that the Administration would soften its opposition toward the 30 year retirement bills now being considered by the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee if the proper bill is submitted.

It has been inferred that the bill providing for full retirement at any age is more acceptable to the Administration than the bill which provides for full retirement after 30 years at any age.

Final Key Announced For Railroad Porter

The final key answers for examination number 9386 which was given to candidates for the position of railroad porter have been announced by the New York City Department of Personnel. ALL SMILES — Everyone was all smiles on the eve of Boys Nation election in Washington when Senators Richard J. Stratton (left center) and Joseph R. Jacobs (right center), candidates for Boys Nation, met Chairman John W. Macy, Jr., of the U.S. Civil Service Commission, (right), and career scientist Edgar M. Cortright of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, (left). At this time Chairman Macy welcomed the 100 Senators from 48 states, the District of Columbia and Panama, and urged them to consider careers in public service. Cortright described the Nation's automated space program. In the election held the same evening, Senator Stratton, who carried the banner of the Federalist party, scored a decisive victory over Senator Jacobs (Nationalist Party) and was named for Boys Nation President for 1963.

Levitt's Travel Study

STATE Comptroller Arthur Levitt announced last week that not only would he respond to a request by the Civil Service Employees Assn. to give serious study to certain shortcomings in the State's travel regulations but also promised he would go further and study all facets of the regulations—and in depth.

This could be one of the most important actions from the Comptroller's office in months, as far as State employees are concerned. What is to be hoped for above all is that Levitt can find some legal formula for advancing expense money to employees traveling on State business.

At present, the law is interpreted in such a manner as to forbid pre-payment to employees. The result is that many State workers suffer a variety of temporary—and sometimes permanent—financial hardships. Reports of employees seeking loans to finance long journeys, returning home out of pocket, being forced to delay payment of personal bills, etc., have appeared in these columns for years.

If no other change in the travel rules is advanced this year we earnestly hope that this very important one will be accomplished.

Settle That Difference

THE New York City Labor Department is to be cited for its proposal to mediate the differences between the New York City Civil Service Commission and employees in the clerical-administrative forces.

Each side argued its different points of view during last week's public hearing on the proposal by the Commission to create a new job title in the clerical-administrative forces — administrative aide.

This title would be open-competitive and would allow entrance into City service of college trained personnel at a point traditionally in the promotional line of the career civil service.

The backers of the new title claim that the move will allow a higher caliber employee to enter City service.

However, we must point that present examination system weeds out those of questionable ability. We urge both sides to submit to this mediation and suggest to the Labor Department that one way out for both the employee and the Civil Service Commission is to give simultaneous open-competitive and promotional examinations for this title, if it should be approved, with the promotional eligible list to be used first.

This would assure justice for the career civil servant and would allow the Civil Service Commission to attain their goal.

Point Clarified

Dr. T. H. Lang, Chairman of the City Civil Service Commission, at a hearing for the proposal of the new administrative aide position, opened the hearing saying, "I would be appreciative if the audience would show no applause to any of the speakers." Later, when Lester Rosner, deputy commissioner of the Health Department was booed rather vehemently by the audience, Dr. Lang smiled and interrupted saying, "When I mentioned previously that I wanted no applause, I also meant negative applause."

Attacks New Title Administrative Aide

Editor, The Leader

It was my pleasure and for edification that I attended the "Public Hearing" yesterday before the Civil Service Commission.

It had been advocated sending a telegram to Mayor Wagner objecting to proposed new moves Dr. Lang so strongly favors.

Last night I wrote a two page letter to Mr. Wagner stating my position as opposed to the administrative aide proposal, describing in brief the tactics used by Dr. Lang in conducting the hearing.

I flatly pointed out the fact that the City's speakers from William Reid, the faculty members of the colleges and other "pro"-speakers merely followed a stereotyped process of reading their statements in favor of the Mayor and then retiring from the hearing room. I suggested he read the minutes most carefully. The hearing was "rigged" and this too was consolidated in my letter.

His Honor, the Mayor was asked if he intended to create similar titles in other departments and really return to the "spoils system". The analogy stressed was: would he dare create such titles as Captain's Aide or Battalion Chief's Aide in the P.D. or F.D. departments. I inquired would he dare put such a proposal before their line organizations.

It was pointed out that Dr. Lang, after hearing the "pro" arguments, conducted the rest of the hearing by giving the "con" speakers when he did not agree to state their case and often entered into arguments with speakers which he did not agree with their views.

The above is a summary of my letter to the Mayor. I hope it has done some good. Certainly it cannot do more harm than was done by Dr. Lang at the "hearing."

As a foot-note and post script I reminded the Mayor that: Loyalty works both ways.

Answers Letter On Uniform Fund

Editor, The Leader

In reference to the letter which recently appeared in this column, I would like to take this opportunity to enlighten R. Roberts, who I assume is a civilian employee at Dannemore State Hospital.

I am not aware that when requesting the uniform allowance funds from the State Legislature, did Gov. Rockefeller mention that civilian employees in the Correction Dept. are required to preserve law and order, or wear distinctive uniforms, (which correction officers formerly purchased at their own expense).

Similar law enforcement agencies throughout the State and Nation have either received a uniform allowance or had their uniforms provided for many years. The sad truth is, that the $100, provided for the uniform allowance will only cover about one half the cost of a full uniform for the correction officers.

In closing I would like suggest

Your Public Relations IQ

By LEO J. MARGOLIN

Official Recognition

PUBLIC RELATIONS—even in government—now has the official recognition of the U.S. Census.

ACCORDING TO a "detailed characteristics" study in the 1960 Census, undertaken at the request of the Public Relations Society of America, there are 31,141 public relations people and publicity writers in the United States.

OF THIS TOTAL, 23,870 are men, 7,271 are women. The overall total is a 63.6 per cent increase over the 1950 census.

BUT WHAT WE like best of all, is the U.S. Census further breakdown which shows 1,200 PR people and publicity writers in public administration and another 630 in government educational services.

FRANKLY, WE think the figures are low. We suspect there are many more hidden by such anonymous titles as "assistant to the commissioner," "consultant to the director," "executive secretary to the mayor," or "secretary of the department."

THESE TITLES are nonsensical, but there is usually no alternative. Sometimes, its the only way to get PR professionals into government. Thus, the actual number of people engaged in public relations work is undoubtedly far greater than is shown in the census.

IN NEW YORK State, public relations professionals total 5,705. The breakdown for the State's area are as follows:

Albany-Schenectady-Troy — 131; Binghamton — 21;

Buffalo—125; Rochester—114; Syracuse—133; Utica-

Rome—42; and the New York City area—4,896.

OF COURSE, not all those counted toil in government. Most are employed by private industry. But again we must reiterate our doubt that all are included in the eligibles count. We feel certain that the U.S. Bureau of Census, which always does a fine job, will do an even better count on PR people in 1970.

SHORT COUNT or no, we feel that more trained PR people, particularly in government, are an absolute "must" within the next decade.

THIS IS A decade of change, sometimes violent change, and well trained public relations professionals will be needed to cope with some highly complicated and volatile problems.

MOST OF THESE problems will be in the "people relations" category of public relations, and precisely because the human element is present, "people relations" will be the most difficult.

WE THINK THERE is a great opportunity for civil service people in public relations. We feel that more civil service people should study public relations, either with a view toward becoming professionals or to help them understand the radical changes which will be taking place.

NOW IS THE TIME for civil servants to make their plans for study beginning next month at one of the many educational institutions throughout New York State.

WE URGE THAT you seek out those schools which offer public relations courses. Those which do are usually the alert and progressive institutions aware of the urgency of this study.

CIVIL SERVANTS who sign up for this expanded study will make their jobs easier, at the same time adding to the public relations stature of civil servants as people "who know the score."

to Mr. Roberts, that should he aspire to wear the blue, I would recommend that he take the next competitive examination for correction officer, if of course he feels that he meets all basic requirements. I am certain that he would hesitate to assume the duties and responsibilities that go along with the correction officer's privilege of working weekends, holidays and evenings, not to mention the hazardous duties and military discipline to which the correction officer today must accustom himself.

OGDENSBURG, Aug. 5—Benjamin Cordwell, 74, a former member of the Ogdensburg Civil Service Commission died recently after a long illness. He was a former city alderman and was the first secretary of the local Kiwanis club. The funeral was held from St. John's Episcopal church with burial in nearby Morristown. Cordwell retired in 1957 as secretary-treasurer of the A.H. McEwen Milling Company, DeKalb Junction.

MMS Denied Special Bargaining Category By Labor Department

The New York City Department of Labor has refused to allow a proposition by the Municipal Management Society which would have taken the supervising clerks from the supervisory unit of the clerical-administrative service and place them in a category by themselves for collective bargaining purposes.

The MMS does not represent any New York City employees in collective bargaining.

The society had objected to the request by a recognized bargaining agent to represent the supervisory and administrative employees in the Department of Parks claiming that the supervisory clerks were not correctly placed in the bargaining unit.

In its decision, the Labor Department stated:

The objections filed by the Municipal Management Society to the appropriateness of the unit . . . merely because the objectant hopes, in the future, to make organizational inroads among the employees in the administrative titles is no reason for a different unit . . . The argument by the objectant that certification of one unit for both groups works to the disadvantage of those in the administrative titles because the latter are numerically in the minority has not been sustained.

Terminal Employees Local 832, which led the fight to retain the supervising clerk title in the supervisory unit, contended that the supervising clerk title was properly allocated within the unit in which the administrative employees were placed.

the local, halted the decision of the Labor Department and said that the decision in this case, used by MMS as an experiment, had bolstered the faith of all city employees in civil service and in the Department of Labor.

Highway Dept. Has Two New Organizations

Two Highway employee organizations have been formally recognized by Commissioner John T. Carroll: Solei Society, headed by Michael Klein, and Columbia Association Chapter 11, whose president is Peter J. Maddaloni.

File Until August 12 For Positions As IBM Key Punch Operators

Filing will close August 12 for the open-competitive examination for the position of IBM key punch operator now being offered by the New York State Department of Civil Service. The Department expects to fill 170 vacancies in this title from this examination.

The title offers a salary of from $3,420 to $4,265 per annum. The positions open are expected to be in the Albany and New York City areas. The examination is scheduled for September 14 and filing will be accepted until August 12.

The position offers five yearly increments of $169 which allows the applicant to earn $4,265 within five years from time of appointment. Requirements for the position are that the applicant have at least three months experience with the IBM type key punch machine or varitype machine; or successful completion of acceptable course of study with either of these machines.

AR INC.
The Finest in SPEAKER SYSTEMS
with the exclusive
AR ACOUSTIC SUSPENSION PRINCIPLE

The cone of an acoustic suspension speaker is mounted on very free suspensions, so compliant that they are unable to provide the elastic restoring force required in a speaker system.

This missing restoring force is then re-introduced by the cushion of air enclosed in the sealed cabinet. The speaker cone works against the elastic air cushion instead of against its own mechanical suspensions.

An acoustic suspension cabinet must be relatively small in order to provide the necessary air-spring. (The enclosed air in a larger cabinet would not form a cushion springy enough to be effective.) Since this air-spring introduces less distortion than mechanical suspensions do, the small enclosure size is accompanied by increased rather than compromised reproducing quality, especially in the bass.

In 1955, speaker systems designed for highest quality bass reproduction ranged in size from 6 to 15 cubic feet, and their prices ranged from $400 to $800. Today, owing mainly to AR's introduction of the acoustic suspension design, the giant enclosure has almost passed from the scene, and speaker prices are a quarter of what they were. Most important of all, it is possible to achieve an undistorted naturalness in musical reproduction that was not previously attainable.

Steam Fitter's Helpers Sought For 23 Jobs Soon Open With City

The New York City Department of Personnel has announced that they will open filing August 7 for 23 positions as steam fitter's helpers. The filing period will remain open until August 27, with the examination tentatively scheduled for November 16.

Salary in this title starts at $7,140 per annum for 250 working days. The title also allows for promotional opportunities into the title of steam fitter.

The steam fitter's helper, under direct supervision, assists in doing work relating to piping and equipment for compressed air and heating systems and any related work.

There are two tests which relate to this position. One is a physical and the other is a practical, in which the candidate demonstrates his knowledge and skills with tools and materials used in the trade. Both require passing grades of 70%. If necessary, a qualifying written test may be given.

This helper's position requires that the candidate have three years of full-time experience within the last 12 years as a steam fitter's helper; or one and one half years of such experience acquired within the last six years plus additional educational experience acquired within the last six years plus additional educational experience to make a total of three years in an approved trade or vocational school.

For further information and application forms contact the New York City Department of Personnel, 96 Duane St., New York 7, after August 7.

THE PNEUMATIC TIRE WAS INVENTED IN 1845, by a Mr. Thompson, replacing the metal tire that had protected wooden wagon wheels. No more bumpy rides! The rubber pneumatic tire with its cushion of air, was a dream of resiliency and reduced vibration . . . and convenience. For while it may be a nuisance to change a modern tire, it's nothing like having to heat a metal band white-hot, fit it to your wheel with pincers and then douse it with water so it'll shrink into place!

Pioneers in Protection

Just as the pneumatic tire was the first practical replacement for the spine-jarring metal tire . . . so the STATEWIDE PLAN was the first program of protection against the costs of hospital, surgical-medical and major medical care for the employees of the State of New York.

This three-part program — Blue Cross, Blue Shield, and Major Medical — offers most State employees, active or retired, the most liberal benefits at the lowest possible cost. That's why more than 425,000 State employees and employees of many local subdivisions of New York State and their dependents are now subscribers.

If you are not a subscriber and would like all the facts on the STATEWIDE PLAN, see your payroll or personnel officer.

The Veteran's Counselor

By FRANK V. VOTTO

Director, New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs

Questions on veterans' and servicemen's rights will be answered in this column or by mail by the State Division of Veterans' Affairs.

THE PROCEDURE for a member of the Armed Forces from the State of New York or for the spouse, parent or child of a member of the Armed Forces from the State of New York...

A SERVICEMAN desiring a military ballot must make a written application on (a) a post card form available from the DVA; OR on (b) the form provided under the Federal Voting Law, Standard Form No. 76; OR on (c) any other form of post card or letter...

A SERVICEMAN'S spouse, parent or child, who resides in the same election district as the serviceman and who is accompanying him, may also vote a military ballot.

APPLICATIONS must be received by the Division of Servicemen's Voting on or before October 24, 1963, or by the Board of Elections of the home county of residence of the military voter on or before October 25, 1963.

A MILITARY ballot will be sent to a qualified applicant by the Board of Elections of the home county of residence of the applicant.

THE MILITARY ballot, after being voted, must be inserted in the ballot envelope which is furnished to the military voter.

THE VOTED military ballot, enclosed and sealed in the ballot envelope, must be returned in the larger accompanying envelope addressed to the Division for Servicemen's Voting, Albany 1, New York.

AN ENROLLMENT blank will be mailed with the military ballot so that the military voter may enroll in a political party.

SPECIAL postage-free air mail postal card applications are available at all local offices of the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs.

Parole Overtime Case Rejected

ALBANY, Aug. 5—The legal staff of the Civil Service Employees Association is reviewing the recent dismissal of a court bid to grant overtime credits to parole officers in State service so that it can be determined what further steps should be taken.

State regulations which now prevent some 125 state parole officers from collecting overtime pay or equivalent time off were upheld by Justice Ellis J. Staley, Jr., during a special term of the Supreme Court in Albany.

CSEA Arguments

On behalf of the parole officers' Association contends that the law which provides for the 40-hour work week authorizes only the Budget Director to exclude certain people from overtime on a certain basis. CSEA says the removal by the Civil Service Commission of the parole officers from overtime regulations in 1961 was "beyond the powers of the Commission and could only be accomplished by the action of the Budget Director and failing this the exclusions were improper."

The Association also alleges that even if the Budget Director had acted on the matter, the parole officers were improperly excluded because they were not within the criteria to be excluded contained in the statute.

Raymond Accorsi Receives Papal Medal

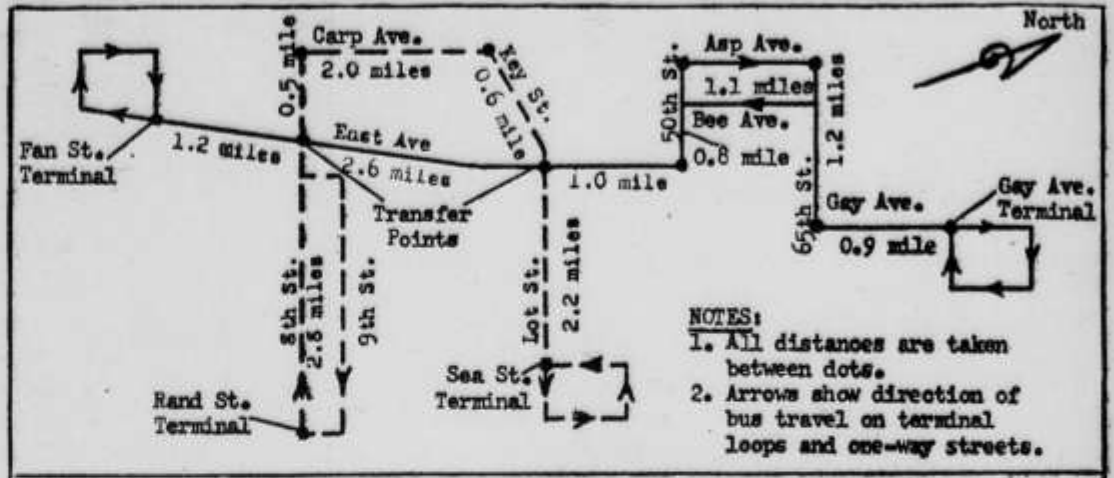

Raymond Accorsi, an employee of the Central Testing Laboratory of the Department of Purchase, is the proud possessor of the Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice medal, awarded to him by His Holiness, the late Pope John XXIII.

The medal is conferred upon Catholics for meritorious and outstanding work. It was presented to Accorsi by Rev. Christopher DiPace, O.F.C., Pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church in the Bronx, the first such award in the 60 year history of this church.

Among his other activities, Accorsi has served as Commander of the Department of Purchase Post No. 1224 of the American Legion and as President of the Department's Catholic Guild and Columbia Association.

Bus Driver Sample Test

The Department of Personnel will give the examination for surface line operator conductor, (N.Y.C.T.A.), on October 26 to the 39,887 who filed during the June filing period. As an assist to those readers who are taking the examination we will, for the next month, print a portion of the last examination with the corresponding answers so that participants will be able to see whether or not they are adequately prepared. The answers to these questions may be found in next week's edition.

Questions 41 to 49 inclusive are based on the sketch below showing the routes of the East Ave. (solid line) and the 8th St. (dotted line) buses. Refer to this sketch when answering these questions.

CORRECTION CORNER

By CHARLES LAMB

Onions and Orchids

THE UNIFORMED Supervisors Association of the State Department of Correction will hold their annual meeting in Albany on September 4th and 5th. Delegates have been requested to submit items for inclusion on the agenda prior to August 15 for discussion and presentation to departmental officials.

CSEA PRESIDENT, Joseph Feily, has submitted the following letter to Governor Rockefeller for consideration.

"THE CORRECTION Officers feel that the Budget Director, in rejecting their appeal to a higher grade, has treated them with manifest unfairness. The comparison of duties and responsibilities of the New York State Correction Officers with those of the New York City Correction Officers leaves no doubt that the State Correction Officers should at least be enjoying as much compensation as the City Officers. The City Correction Officers are approximately four grades higher than the State.

"THE CIVIL SERVICE Commission, after lengthy study of the appeals, recommended that we be reallocated one grade. Because of the many issues involved and the varied opinions of the State departments, the Correction Officers request a resolution providing that the Governor appoint an arbitrator or a board of arbitrators to study and make recommendations regarding such appeal and that their decision be reported to the Budget Director and that the Governor urge the Budget Director to abide by the decision of this arbitrator or board of arbitrators."

DAVID L. WILLIAMS of Matteawan State Hospital has informed this column that a "Calipso Carnival" will be held on August 10th and 11th at the Villa Theresa Hotel, Lake Huntington, New York, for the officers and their families. Employees from other departments and areas will also attend. Entertainment and an original Steel Band will be there for dancing. Contact Dave at Box 307, Beacon, New York.

CONGRATULATIONS to the following Correction Officers for performance beyond their regular calls of duty.

CORRECTION OFFICER Arthur Eversley, assigned to the Manhattan House of Detention for Men, cornered and arrested an armed holdup man without regard for personal risk.

CORRECTION OFFICER Reginald McKissick, Bellevue Prison Ward, captured and arrested after chase a man who had been breaking into and stealing from parked automobiles. The prisoner had ten previous arrests.

CORRECTION OFFICER Albert Horowitz, driving his car in Brooklyn noted three men, one armed running from a robbery. He pursued them and one drew a gun and fired at Officer Horowitz. As he tackled them patrolmen Alfred Klages and Carmine Pino of the 75th Precinct, arrived and assisted Horowitz in the arrest.

CORRECTION OFFICERS Robert Smith and James W. Pearson, while parking their car, were informed by a woman that she had just been robbed at knife point and pointed out a man running away. The officers pursued and captured the man. At the police station it was found he was a parole violator.

DID YOU KNOW that the entire village government of Attica, New York, the Mayor and four trustees, are all personnel from Attica State Prison.

THIS IS THE kind of public relations the Correction Officers need to alert the public that Correction Officers are not the type generally depicted on T.V. and in the movies.

Long Island PBA Holds Annual Picnic

The Long Island State Parkway Police Benevolent Association held its 12th Annual Family Outing and Picnic recently at Bethpage State Park. More than 600 police officers, their wives and children attended the all-day affair.

Trunz Named

ALBANY, Aug. 5 — Governor Rockefeller has reappointed Charles M. Trunz of Forest Hills to a new term on the State Correction Commission. Members receive $27 a day for a total of not more than $1,404 a year. Trunz is a director of the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce.

South Conference Will Fill Officer Vacancy; Committees Are Named

(From Leader Correspondent)

POUGHKEEPSIE, Aug. 5—Howard Davies, Otti Brewer and James Lennon were nominated for the second vice presidency of the Board of Directors, Southern Conference, Civil Service Employees Association, at a meeting July 24 at the Poughkeepsie Inn. President Nicholas Puzifferri stated he would "take all names under consideration before arriving at a decision." The vacancy was caused by the resignation from State service of Robert Wood.

Board members present at the meeting were Puzifferri; Elmer Van Wey, first vice president; Mrs. Anna Bessette, third vice president; Charles E. Lamb, secretary; Issy Tessler, treasurer; Elery MacDougall, sergeant-at-arms; Cecil Brooks, fourth vice president, and Nellie M. Davis and William K. Hoffman, past presidents.

After discussion by Board members, it was agreed that a new approach be made this year in committee appointments. "In order that committees could be more active by being in close geographical areas and be able to meet without traveling long distances." The resolutions committee includes Emil Bollman, chairman, Vincent Maybee, John Rice, Nicholas Puzifferri, ex officio.

In discussion conducted of appointments to the Legislative Committee, "it was felt that certain members of the committee should be appointed from each county in the conference area as plans are being formulated to hold a legislative dinner after elections in November and the members of this committee will be in a position to write their local legislators from each said county." Merton Gamble and Peter Garamone are co-chairmen, assisted by Elmer Van Wey, William Hoffman, Cecil Brooks, Robert Budd, Lyman Connors, Felice Amodio, Issy Tessler, William Forsbach, George Halbig, Ellery MacDougall and James Lennon. From Orange county are Amodio and Tessler; Sullivan county, William Fors-bach; Ulster County, George Halbig and Ellery MacDougall; Dutchess County, Peter Garamone and Merton Gamble; Westchester County, James Lennon; and Rockland County, Nicholas Puzifferri, Emil Bollman and Vincent Maybee.

Other Plans

The Auditing and Budget committee includes Wesley Hunter, Otti Brewer and W. Robbins; ex officio, Issy Tessler, treasurer; Grievance committee, Howard Davies, chairman, Mary Meres and Issy Tessler; and membership, Ellery MacDougall, chairman, Babs Schlesinger, Inez Smith, John Van Duzer, Arthur Coe, and all conference officers.

It was recommended at the meeting also that an extensive drive be organized this year to sign up every non-member chapter in the Conference area by attending meetings of these chapters and explaining the value of being affiliated with a conference. Named to publicity were Charles E. Lamb and Nellie Davis; the social committee, Rebella Eufemio, chairman, Babs Schlesinger, Betha Dunteman and Marie Herbold.

CONGRATULATIONS — Suffolk County Welfare Commissioner Richard Dinapoli (left) congratulates Joseph Stenglein (right) on his retirement after 26 years as an employee of the Welfare Department at a luncheon given by fellow employees at Cooper's Hotel, Bay Shore.
