Golf

At the time of this writing, it's December 20th, 1971, and the amount of knowledge I have about the Golf team is practically zilch. BUT . . . Our Golf team won the Central Hudson Valley League Section D Championship and beat all the section B, C and D schools. You might say that we have a very fore-ward looking Golf team.

Our short but scrappy varsity players performed individually for the first part of the season, but jelled into a functioning team by mid-season. Led by the all-around play of George Khachadourian, the rebounding and scoring of Chap Hanley, Eric Schlamowitz, and Dennis Edwards, plus the coaching of Mr. Doug Phillips, made our team look forward to a successful sectional campaign.

What, 25 laps?

You've got to be kidding!

This year's Hoopsterettes were planning to play V.I., Girls' Academy, Maryrose, Troy High, and several other schools. The close-knit team was hoping for a good season with the rebounding power of Patti and Steph, the scoring of Ann and Patti, and the overall playing of Slow-Motion Linda, Nancy the Foul, Margi the Mauler, Mary T., Joanne Chocolate, and Merle the Maniac.

Usually the figures 574-171-244 don't conjure up visions of excellence when speaking of girls but on this squad they do. When you think of these as high triple, high average, and high single, they'll sound pretty great to you too.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A BOWLING ALLEY PHOTOGRAPHER

I don't really remember what happened. I just remember finding myself in a souped-up Volkswagen on my way to the Bowling Alley. As fate would have it, the Milne team was bowling against Voorheesville at that very moment! Meandering down a gutter I shot a few pictures and came close to being a strike for Milne's Captain. Luckily, I was saved by a gutter ball.

We are the dedicated supporters of the Roman language and civilization. Through activities, guest speakers, and a trip to New York for museums, the Latin Club takes the Roman culture from the pages of textbook and verb chart, — thus proving that Latin is not dead; it is a civilization that can offer satisfaction and knowledge to anyone willing to explore among its ruins and through the many contributions to our present culture.

NEEDS IMPROVEMENT REPORT

Dear Parent:

Your student's performance is presently at the level of _____ in Achievement and/or "N" in Behavior in this subject.

The items checked below indicate the areas in which action is necessary to improve these marks:

- Pays insufficient attention in class.
- Participates in class only when constantly urged by the teacher.
- Fails on unit tests and/or short quizzes.
- Fails to prepare homework completely, correctly, and promptly.
- Fails to turn in assigned work.
- Shows a negative attitude towards the subject.
- Tries to get by with a minimum of effort.
- Uses study time inefficiently and/or ineffectively (wastes it).
- Studies but finds the materials difficult.
- Allows self to be led astray easily by others.
- Shows a general lack of self-control.
- Demonstrates a lack of respect of authority.
- Fails to avail self of opportunities for remedial help.
- Shows some improvement but greater effort required.

Additional comments and/or explanations. _____

- It is strongly recommended that you contact the supervisor by phone.
- It is strongly recommended that you arrange for a personal conference at school.

HONORS REPORT

Dear Mr and Mrs Milne :

The standards of behavior at Milne vary according to the age level of each student. We expect that our students will exhibit increasingly refined behavior as they gain experience and maturity.

Your child has received an "H" (Honors) mark in behavior on the report card for this quarter. The "H" indicates that in the judgment of the teacher and supervisor concerned your child's behavior is superior for students of this age level.

The item checked below are those which currently apply to your child:

- Acts courteously and cooperatively.
- Is considerate of others' rights and feelings
- Displays exceptional leadership qualities
- Meets obligations promptly
- Uses study time efficiently
- Prepares assignments with extra care
- Seeks and carries out extra responsibilities
- Shows enthusiasm for course activities
- Demonstrates considerable ability to work independently
- Explores areas of learning in depth beyond the level required

Additional comments and/or explanations:

Jane is a wonderful girl who has fulfilled my hopes for her over and above what I expected. It was a pleasure to have Jane in my class.

The 1971 Section 2 – Class D-E Championship team

Frank winning the sectionals

Coach Lyon

Led by the great cheering of the faithful fourful (namely Jon, Ellen, Ann, Margaret-Ann and an occasional Connie), the X-Country team ran into the end of the season with the League title and the Section 2, Class D-E Championship for the tenth straight year. "Gentleman" Perlmutter surprisingly skipped in first in his third meet (the Sectionals), and the strong, dashing, speed of "Leper" Slawsky, "Cross the River" Barker, "Puff" O'Neil, "Dancer" VandeKerkhove, "Wrong Way" Elsworth, Paul the Farmer, and "Canoefoot" Dunn made the faithful fourful (or fiveful) fantastically funfilled.
