Two of the companies which have submitted samples to the ring committee, the Warren Kahse company of Rochester and the Gleason-Walace company of Albany, favor the use of the mascot design on the shank. The other companies, including the Skillersaters of Philadelphia, Edbur company, of Attleboro, Massachusetts, and the Andl company of Ohio, used the Arch design.

QUINTET TO PLAY NEW JERSEY FIVE TONIGHT, AT 8:15

The varsity basketball five will attempt to win its second victory of the current season when it faces the New Jersey Law school quintet of Newark, New Jersey, tonight at 8:15 o'clock, in the Pace hall gymnasium.

The invaders have a strong outfit this season and are certain to furnish the Purple and Gold players with more opposition than that provided by Maxwell Training last Saturday night.

State played two games with the Jersey team last year, one at home and one on the New York trip. The invaders defeated the varsity at Newark in the first one 41-37, but dropped the second game to the State team 43-31 in the last game of the season.

The varsity should provide the attack of the invaders tonight if they can maintain the excellent all-around play that they showed in the first quarter of the Maxwell game.

The supremacy of the Purple and Gold players over the Maxwell team was again demonstrated last Saturday night when Coach Robert R. Baker's charges decisively defeated the Brooklyn five, 39-20.

Coach Baker started a veteran line-up with Ben Imrahian, at center, Erwin Clark and Gilbert DeLana, forwards, and Charles Lyons and Frank Ott, guards. The men were not working together well, and Maxwell led at the end of the first quarter, 8-3.

The visitors were taking long shots which found their mark frequently while State missed many opportunities to score. Coach Baker then substituted an entire freshman team with Thomas Gattett at center, Roger Bancroft and Samuels at the

WOMEN PRACTICE FOUR DIFFERENT WINTER SPORTS

Basketball, bowling, hiking and swimming are now being conducted in the winter sports program of the Girls' Athletic association according to Beatrice Van Steenburgh, '31, president.

Basketball practices are conducted daily, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 3:15 to 5:00 o'clock, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:10 to 5:00 o'clock in the gymnasium of Hawley hall. Frances Virginia Peck, '31, is basketball sports captain. Her assistants are: Winifred Hurlbut, '31; Alice Gillin and Virginia Hawkins, juniors; Katherine Moore and Bertha Buhl, sophomores; and Mary Moore, and Elizabeth Kammerer, freshmen.

About one hundred ninety women have been out to practices, Miss Peck said. These are divided into squads of ten players each. The squads will play against each other in an inter-squad tournament, she announced. There will be no official inter-class basketball tournament this year. The only official inter-class games will be those between the freshmen and sophomores which are conducted under the supervision of Myskania as a part of inter-class rivalry.

Bowling is conducted on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:15 to 5:00 o'clock at the Rice's bowling alley on Western avenue. Charity Jones, '33, is bowling sport captain. Hikes are conducted weekly and bi-weekly under the direction of Vera Burns, '32, hiking sport captain.

Swimming is conducted every Wednesday night at 7:00 at Bath 3 on Central avenue. Alice Gillin, '32 and Marjorie Morton, '33, are the swimming sport captains. Evelyn Greenberg, '33, is an assistant captain.

State College Is 86 Years Old Thursday. Name, Building, Faculty Changes Occur

State college will celebrate the 86th anniversary of its birth, Thursday, December 18, when it will become eighty-six years old. The history of the college has seen not only changes in the buildings, but also a change in the buildings, in the faculty and in the name.

From a normal school offering courses pertaining to methods of teaching, the college has grown to encompass courses granting master degrees in educational fields. In March, 1899, the college received the first notable change that from a normal school to a college. This name, then received at the same time additions to the college curriculum and a change in the methods of the institution. There were added courses in philosophy, school economy, and history of education. Degrees of both bachelor of pedagogy and master of pedagogy were conferred; thus the purposes of the college requirements were broadened.

Ban On Smoking And Coffee; Rules Decree Model Living

"No smoking, and not more than one cup of coffee a day," are two of the training rules which are being observed by the participants in basketball.

The rules further provide for "Three full meals a day, regularly." "There shall be no eating between meals except fruit or milk."

Late hours will have to be abolished for each woman is required to have "An average of eight hours sleep a night—not less than six hours any one night. These hours of sleep are to be consecutive." Six glasses of water a day are necessary for a minimum requirement.

As a final regulation, it is understood that an average of C in academic work will be maintained. These rules were formulated by Miss Isabelle Johnston head of the physical education department, in conjunction with the basketball sport captains.

State College Is 86 Years Old Thursday. Name, Building, Faculty Changes Occur

In the year of 1905, the course of instruction was lengthened from 1 year to 4 years, and in a short time later the name was changed to New York State College for Teachers.

The college has witnessed two times which threatened the safety of all the buildings, has experienced a change in the site of buildings, and in the latter part of the 1928 school year the new Milne High School was first occupied. The first commencement ceremonies in the new Perle Hall auditorium took place in 1928. Last year the name of Richard's Hall was changed to the name of Richard's Hall in memorial for the late Dr. Leonard W. Richardson.

The first of the fires occurred on January 8, 1905. It was a coal winter with the thermometer registering ten degrees below zero, and the city streets were covered with ice, and the sidewalks were banked high with snowdrifts. Charles Wurtz, man, the janitor, was at work in the

PHI DELTA DROPS IN HONOR RECORD

Psi Gamma Leads Sorority Honor Roll While Delta Omega Follows on Closely

The facts that Phi Delta sorority has topped from the first to the last place, and that Psi Gamma has risen from the eighth place to take the lead in sorority scholarship are the main features of the sorority honor roll for 1929-1930, as announced today by Elizabeth Vanderburgh, registrar.

No sorority honor roll was published for the year 1928-1929, according to Miss Vanderburgh. The honor roll last published for the year 1927-1928 is the one with which the above comparisons are made.

Beta Zeta sorority, which had first place on the honor roll for four years previous to the last honor roll, when it was sixth, is third on the roll for the past year.

Delta Omega retains second place on this tally which it also occupied on the last honor roll.

Eta Phi, which had third place on the roll for 1927-1928 dropped to fourth place.

The standard of the sorority scholarship, however, as compared with that of two years ago is slightly lower. Two years ago, Phi Delta's average was 1.58, whereas Psi Gamma's winning average this year is 1.5.

On the last honor roll, the averages ran from 1.19 to 1.58 with a variation of .38. This year however, there is a variation of only .27 between the lowest average and the highest.

"This resume gives the sorority girls an average of between C and B," Miss Vanderburgh said. "I hope that the awarding of the cup to the sorority with the highest average by the Inter-sorority Council will serve as an incentive for higher marks this year."

The cup which was presented to Alice Bennett, '31, president of Psi Gamma in last week's assembly, will be passed down each fall to the sorority which maintained the highest average for the previous year. The name of the sorority which wins the cup will be inscribed on it each year.

The averages, as compiled by Miss Van Denburgh, are:

Psi Gamma	1.50
Beta Zeta	1.475
Beta Zeta	1.474
Eta Phi	1.46
Psi Alpha Tau	1.444
Kappa Delta	1.411
Alpha Epsilon Phi	1.366
Gamma Kappa Phi	1.363
Chi Sigma Theta	1.30
Phi Delta	1.23

DELEGATES OBTAIN IDEAS FOR DRAMA

State is only college at Hood convention to present outside artists

State college was one of twenty-seven colleges and universities in eastern United States represented at the sectional conference of the Inter-collegiate Dramatic association, conducted at Hood college, Frederick, Maryland, last Friday and Saturday, December 5 and 6.

Delegates from State college were Ruth P. Hughes, '31, president of the dramatic and art association, and Isabel Pearl, '32, secretary. Registration was completed Friday morning; in the afternoon general discussion groups were conducted. It was brought out that college dramatic activities here are more closely supervised by the faculty than in most other colleges.

State is the only college whose dramatic council sponsors the appearance of outside artists at the school, Miss Hughes said. Friday afternoon Elth Parsons of the speech department of Syracuse university gave a lecture on Pageantry.

Charles Rand Kenode, who conducts the Bennett School, lectured Saturday morning. He also gave scenes from Shakespearean drama. This was considered one of the outstanding programs on the convention schedule, according to Miss Hughes. A very comprehensive talk on Greek drama was given by Mr. Kenode's wife, Elth Wynn Mathison.

In the afternoon Charles McCandless, of the dramatic department at Yale, gave an effective lecture on stage lighting. Demonstrations of various lighting effects made his lecture very practical.

Saturday in the afternoon delegates attended a dinner in Cleary Hall on the campus. Following the dinner, three one act plays were presented by the students of Hood. Next year's conference will take place in Middlebury, Vermont.

Lawrence Newcomb, '31, class president, opened the meeting for business after the dinner. Alice Splain, '31, was toastmistress.

forward positions, and Osmer Brooks and Raymond Harris playing guard. This proved to be a strategic move, the new line-up overcoming their handicap to tie the score after a few minutes of play on two field baskets tallied by Saunders and a foul by Garrett.

The lead sawed back and forth with Maxwell maintaining a lead of two points at the end of the first half, 14-12, due to excellent shooting by Shapiro and Brodie.

The varsity was put back in the third quarter, and after playing awhile with neither team scoring, State went to the fore on a foul shot by Ott and a field basket by Ingraham. Shapiro made a long field, however, giving the visitors the lead once again. De Laura was taken out and Bancroft replaced him.

The wisdom of this substitution was evidenced when the latter scored a foul and a field basket to recapture the lead for State. This started a scoring orgy for the Purple and Gold, Ott making two successful foul shots and one field. Clark Lyons, and Ott each added a field basket while their opponents vainly tried to tighten up their defense.

The final quarter was a repetition of the previous one, Maxwell attempting to hold down State but failing. Lyon resumed the attack on a long fast dribble the length of the court and scored on a one handed shot.

Two of Maxwell's best men had been removed from the game on personals and a third followed shortly after. Ingraham then made two field baskets in a row, winning high scoring honors for the evening with ten points. The freshman team was put back in the last part of the game and held their opponents safely. The contest ending with State chalking up a 39-20 victory.

basement of the buildings, then known as the State Normal school. The school was then situated on Willett street at the present site of an apartment house. "Charles and his son discovered that the fire had broken out in the rooms of the model school departments. The fire then spread to the floors above where there was a chemical laboratory. An explosion ensued which spelled disaster to the buildings. The conflagration spread to the auditorium and in fifteen minutes demolished a $5,000 window which was presented to the school by the college alumni association a few years before. By the time the fire department of the city came to the rescue, it found the blazing buildings doomed to total destruction."

Six months later another fire broke out in the basement where rubbish and the like were accumulated together with several cords of wood and three hundred tons of coal. It was not long after this incident that the orphanage was purchased by the legislature and the present buildings of Hawley hall, Draper hall and Husted hall were erected on the site. Since then a new group of buildings was completed in 1928.

State college has grown three-fold in the number of students since its foundation until the requirements have taken on restrictions that make it necessary to limit the number of students entering the College.
